The Methodist Book Concern and Prosperity

The Methodist Book Concern is the largest publishe
Sunday School Literature in the world. It markets product to the Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Chu
Our schools are enabled to obtain a varied and adequate equipme literature of the highest class through a Publishing House rich en and strong enough to supply to the utmost whatever is required by most advanced ideals. And it means much to our Sunday Sch that the agency which supplies them with literature is under the di tion of men who conduct the work of publication as the servants o
Church, having no personal pecuniary interest in the business c mitted to them, but taking thought only of the needs of the Ch itself. The Publishing Agents and the members of the Book C mittee are Methodist ministers and Methodist laymen, who earnestly seeking to serve the Church in the most effective
It is particularly gratifying to know that the majority of the m
bers of the Book Committee are men actually serving in the Su Schools of their local Churches, and have the most intelligent derstanding of the needs of the Sunday School, and are in kee sympathy with everything calculated to advance its interests.

The BOOK CONCERN was established for the purpose of moting the interests of Christianity through the publication and ci lation of religious literature. As at the beginning, it is still the b ness of Methodism to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the w

The Sunday School is comprehensive in its service and its a
It covers the whole range of life. Little children, fresh from hands of God, are included under its care, and the aged, read pass to their crowning, belong to its ranks and pertain to its sa ministry of instruction and comfort.

When this is realized, the BOOK CONCERN takes on an exa character. It ceases to be an ordinary business enterprise.
fact that it holds a princely rank among the greatest publis houses of the world, of which in the moments of our worldly p we are liable to boast, ceases to be the significant thing. It is s to be a mighty and consecrated agency for spiritual ends. Its b ness offices take on something of temple sanctity, all its processe manufacture are given an exalted significance, and the roar of presses is turned into the passionate strains of a jubilant anthem

NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

FIRST DAY.

Mishawaka, Ind., Wednesday, April 1, 1914.

In pursuance of the Plan of the Bishops, the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its Seventy-first session in the First Methodist Episcopal Memorial Church in the city of Mishawaka, Indiana, with Bishop William F. McDowell, D. D., LL. D., presiding.

Sacramental Service.—At 8.30 A. M., Bishop McDowell called the Conference to order and announced Hymn No. 255,

"Jesus spreads His banner o'er us."

After the singing of this hymn, the Bishop conducted the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of the local Church. At the close of the sacramental service, at his request the Conference sang the hymn, composed by Rev. T. C. Neal for this session of the Conference.

"Gracious God of all Creation,"

Roll.—At the request of the Bishop, the Secretary of the last session called the roll, to which the following responded:

Deceased.—At the request of Bishop McDowell, the members of the Conference stood while the Secretary called the names of the following, deceased since the last session: Bishop Thomas Bowman, E. B. Brown, O. S. Harrison, L. D. Rehl, H. C. Smith, W. A. Fouts, and Almon Greenman. After the names had been called, the Bishop led the Conference in singing the hymns,

"There 's a land that is fairer than day,"

and,

"Oh, how sweet it will be!"

Following this, the Bishop led in a very tender prayer for those who mourned their departure and for the Conference bereaved of their comradeship.

Organization.—On nomination of J. C. White, Dorie V. Williams was re-elected Secretary, with the privilege of naming his assistants.

The Secretary then read the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote:

> "Whereas, Rev. John C. White has sustained an official relation to this Conference for twenty-one years, and has requested the Secretary to relieve him from further duty on his staff of assistants in order that he may enjoy the social privileges and the addresses of the Conference; therefore be it
> "Resolved, That we assure him of our hearty appreciation of the services he has rendered in these different official capacities, and tender him our most sincere thanks for the work he has performed for the Conference during this time.
> "D. V. Williams, F. S. Hickman,
> W. A. Griest, Leslie J. Naftzger."

On nomination of the Secretary, William A. Griest and Frank S. Hickman were confirmed as his assistants.

On nomination of Somerville Light, Francis A. Reichelderfer was re-elected Statistical Secretary, and on his nomination Charles M. Hobbs, Peter H. Walter, Warren W. Wiant, Clyde G. Yeomans, Leroy W. Kemper, and E. E. DeWitt were elected his assistants.

On motion of C. E. Line, David S. Jones was re-elected Treasurer, and upon his nomination Charles B. Dougherty, Bishop McDowell expressed his thanks to Bishop Henderson for the service he had rendered the Conference in presiding over it during the day, and prophesied that great things would result from the program of the day.

Bishop Henderson then delivered the address of the evening on the subject, "The Previous Question."

At the close of the address he asked the Conference Quartette to lead the audience in singing giving the service a consecration phase by having the chorus repeated several times. Prayer was offered by Bishop Oldham.

"Fill me now,"

At the Bishop's request the audience joined in singing Hymn 180, "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

Benediction was pronounced by President Grose, of DePauw University, and Conference stood adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday, April 4, 1914.

Conference convened at 8.30, Bishop McDowell in the chair. He led the Conference in singing

"Jesus, Lover of my soul," and "Where He leads me I will follow."

He read for a Scripture lesson the Gospel according to John, twenty-first chapter, beginning at the fifteenth verse, and addressed the Conference on the subject, "Our Care of the Flock of Christ." Prayer was offered by Dr. W. F. Oldham.

Journals.—The Journals of the session of Thursday and all the sessions of Friday were read and approved.

Resolution.—The following resolution was read by L. J. Naftzger and, on motion, adopted:

> "Whereas, We feel that the program of yesterday was one of great profit to both pastors and laymen, and that we are greatly in need of the information and inspiration thus received; therefore be it

The Committee on Policy of the Conference made report, which was adopted, as follows:

I. We rejoice in the increase in our membership in the North Indiana Conference of 4,962, a gain of 8%. We approve the summons of our leaders for an advance of 10% upon the present membership of our Church during the year; in order thereto we agree to the immediate preparation of a complete constituency roll, and we renew our covenant to labor incessantly and plan carefully for the securing of this advance.

II. We call upon our laymen to do house-to-house, hand-to-hand work to bring the people of their communities to a decision for Christ, to attend the regular appointed means of grace, to read the Word of God, and to establish the family altar in every home.

III. We heartily indorse the new financial plan, and urge its adoption in every Church as the uniform system throughout the Conference for next year.

IV. We recommend a thorough educational campaign on the methods and merits of this plan in every Church during the year.

1. We further recommend that the District Superintendents give instructions and support to the plan in the first Quarterly Conferences, to which all the officials shall be especially urged to come, and seek to make each set of officials acquainted with the details of the plan.
2. We heartily indorse the group plan of holding one-day missionary campaigns in each charge of the Conference, and we pledge ourselves to co-operate earnestly and honestly with the plans of the District Superintendents and district missionary secretaries in arranging and holding these group meetings.
3. We recommend that Sunday, March 7, 1915, or some day that week, be known as Field Day of the Conference, and that on that day the "every-member canvass" be made in every Church in the Conference.

(Signed) R. J. Wade,
W. W. Martin,
C. H. Smith, Committee.

The Conference Quartette sang

"The Song of the Reapers," and, for an encore,

"Something better than gold."

In response to the request of the Bishop for the District Superintendents to make four-minute addresses upon the new financial plan in relation to its effect upon the districts, M. S. Marble, J. A. Beatty, W. B. Freeland, B. S. Hollopeter, C. E. Line, and S. Light made enthusiastic reports of the work accomplished in their districts.

In response to a motion for the appointment of a committee to work out the Conference Policy on the New Plan of Finance, the Bishop appointed R. J. Wade, W. W. Martin, and C. H. Smith.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 7.30 this evening in Conference session.

On motion of the Secretary, Conference adjourned, and the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Henderson.

Evening Session.

Friday, April 3, 1914.

Conference convened at 7.30 P. M. in pursuance of the hour fixed by adjournment, Bishop Henderson presiding.

He requested F. Watson Hannan, Professor of Pastoral Theology in Drew Theological Seminary, to take charge of the devotions. Professor Hannan announced Hymn 415, and offered prayer.

"Faith of our fathers,"

Evening Theme.—The theme for the evening discussion was, "The Call of the Total Task."

A large chorus of men from Warsaw sang "Prepare ye the way of the Lord" and, in response to an enthusiastic encore, "Loyalty to Christ," accommodated to "Warsaw for Christ."

The reports from the meetings held by the different districts immediately following the adjournment of the afternoon session showed that the new financial plan had been adopted by each district, and that the plan would be in operation in practically every charge in the Conference for the coming year.

Afternoon Session.

Friday, April 3, 1914.

Conference convened at 1.30 P. M., Bishop Henderson in the chair. He called W. W. Martin to lead the devotions, who announced the first hymn,

"O for a thousand tongues to sing."

Prayer was offered by C. U. Wade.

The theme for the afternoon discussion was, "An Efficiency Program for the Local Church." Conference sang one stanza of

"My faith looks up to Thee."

Then the Bishop introduced Judge Charles F. Coffin, who presented the interests of the Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis.

Conference Quartette sang

"All hail Immanuel!"

which was received with such enthusiasm that at the request of the Bishop they repeated one stanza. He then presented Henry J. Coker, who discussed the subject, "A Survey of Prevailing Conditions."

Fred B. Fisher was then introduced and discussed "The New Financial Plan—What It Is and What It Does." This was followed by U. G. Leazenby, Superintendent of Crawfordsvile District, Northwest Indiana Conference, who presented the subject, "Launching the New Plan." This was followed by the quartette singing

"God, give us men!"

At the request of the Bishop the Conference stood and sang Hymn No. 490,

"Savior, more than life to me."

F. J. Michel, Field Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, spoke upon the Lake Geneva Convention that is to be held the approaching summer, urging the attendance of preachers and laymen.

derson to the chair to preside, who asked Fred B. Fisher to lead in prayer.

S. H. Kirkbride was introduced and discussed the work of the American Bible Society. The Bishop asked the Conference to stand and sing Hymn 200,

"O Word of God incarnate!"

After singing of this, Thomas Nicholson, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, addressed the Conference in the interest of that work.

"A charge to keep I have"

was sung. The Statistical Secretary reported that there had been an increase in the probationers and full members in the Conference of 4,962.

F. D. Bovard addressed the Conference in the interest of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

North Indiana Conference Quartette sang,

"When I survey the wondrous cross," and in response to an enthusiastic encore sang,

"What did He do?"

Bishop Oldham delivered a ringing address on the work of the Board of Foreign Missions. This was followed by a prayer by Somerville Light.

Bishop Henderson then asked the Conference to stand and sing Hymn 653,

"The morning light is breaking."

The Bishop spoke briefly on some special phases of work of the Freedmen's Aid Society.

The Conference Quartette sang,

"O for a little bit of love!"

After the announcements had been made, on motion of Leslie J. Naftzger the Conference invited Rev. Fred B. Fisher to transfer his membership to this Conference.

On motion of the Secretary, Conference adjourned, the benediction being pronounced by C. U. Wade.

Introduction.—President L. H. Murlin, of Boston University, was introduced, and presented the greetings of the university to the Conference.

On motion of S. Light, the case of T. F. Frech was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations and also to the Board of Stewards as necessitous.

Blaine Kirkpatrick, of the Northwest Indiana Conference, was introduced to the Conference and spoke briefly in the interest of the Epworth League Institute, urging the pastors to send their young people to its sessions.

Introduction.—The following were introduced: Thomas Nicholson, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education; U. G. Leazenby and Aaron Wood, District Superintendents in the Northwest Indiana Conference, and Harry L. Davis, a member of the same Conference; Harry King, President of Moores Hill College, and Fred B. Fisher, Secretary of the Laymen's Forward Movement.

The pastor made announcements, the long-meter doxology was sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by S. C. Miller.

Temperance.—A. S. Preston, J. O. Bills, C. W. Shoemaker, T. M. Hill, M. B. Graham, B. F. Hornaday, A. L. Weaver.

Woman's Work in the Church.—Robert Burns, A. Singer, W. M. Amos, C. M. Hobbs, T. P. Johnson, J. W. Cain.

Introduction.—The following were introduced to the Conference: Demetrius Tillotson and M. H. Appleby, of the Northwest Indiana Conference; R. S. Hyde, of the Rock River Conference; and Franklin Hamilton, Chancellor of the American University.

The Bishop said that it would be necessary for him to be absent on Friday, and that the administration for that day would be in the hands of Bishop Henderson. He explained that he desired to be present at the funeral of Dr. James Rowe, in Chicago, and dwelt with affection upon the noble character, and he reported the work of the district. The Bishop then asked him, "Is there anything against any effective elder in your district?" and he answered, "There is nothing against any of them."

The following effective elders having been passed in character, those present when their names were called reported the three items ordered by the Conference:

Fort Wayne District—H. S. Nickerson, F. F. Thornburg, W. T. Arnold, F. P. Johnson, D. T. Stephenson, D. H. Guild, W. A. Griest, F. H. Cremean, T. M. Hill, C. C. Travis, Charles Tinkham, J. O. Campbell, Henry Lacy, E. J. Maupin, John Phillips, C. M. Hollopeter, J. O. Bills, B. F. Hornaday, J. E. Coffin, D. A. J. Brown, U. S. A. Bridge, J. C. Valentine, and P. H. Walter.

Wabash District—G. E. Hughes, S. B. Stookey, C. W. Shoemaker, Benjamin Kendall, J. W. Walters, W. F. Smith, W. E. Murray, E. E. Lutes, C. G. Yeomans, H. A. Homer, G. W. Keisling, J. F. Porter, David Wells, W. H. Harrison, F. A. LeMaster, O. T. Martin, J. M. Haines, H. W. Park, J. J. Fred, C. A. Hile, R. A. Morrison, L. A. Sevits, E. S. Riley, O. B. Morris, G. B. Work.

Transfers.—The Bishop announced the transfer of J. Orr Powell from the Indiana Conference, and Earle Naftzger from the Columbia River Conference. He announced also the following transfers out: J. K. Cecil to the Columbia River, A. D. Buck, Holston Conference, and W. E. Shafer to the Missouri Conference.

Introduction.—Harry G. McCain, Extension Secretary of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of that organization.

Standing Committees.—Standing Committees nominated at the last session of the Conference were read, changed, and adopted as follows:

Aggressive Evangelism.—F. F. Thornburg, W. W. Wiant, R. C. Jones, J. L. Gillard, W. F. Smith, J. F. Radcliffe.

American Bible Society.—C. M. Hollopeter, J. J. Fischer, J. L. Murr, E. C. Hallman, E. L. Jones, R. W. Stokes.

Peru Church.—The Secretary read the following communication from the Official Board of our Church in Peru, Ind.:

> To the Bishop and Members of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church—the Official Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Peru—Greeting:
> By this testimonial we acknowledge, not express, our sincere gratitude for the unsolicited sympathy expressed and substantial aid furnished by the Conference members, for distribution by our Society here among the flood sufferers a year ago.
> No words of ours could so appropriately command your generous action as the words of Him, the Holy One, who said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto these My brethren, ye did it unto Me."
> By order of the Official Board,
> G. C. Miller, Jr., Secretary.

On motion of W. B. Freeland, the Auditing Committee was requested to report to the Secretary within two weeks of adjournment of Conference.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question, "Was the Character of Each Preacher Examined?" was called. The character of J. A. Beatty, Superintendent of Fort Wayne District, was passed, and he read his report of the district. The Bishop then asked him, "Is there anything against any effective elder in your district?" He answered, "There is nothing against any of them."

Reports.—On motion of L. M. Edwards, the pastors were requested to include in their verbal reports to the Conference the three following items: Membership, gain or loss; Benevolences, gain or loss; Western Christian Advocate, gain or loss.

Representation.—Dr. J. A. Mulfinger, Recording Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, was introduced and addressed the Conference in the interests of the Board. At the conclusion of the address he presented the Conference with a draft of $250, which was turned over to the Conference Board of Stewards.

Fourteenth Question Resumed.—Wabash District was called, and M. S. Marble, the Superintendent, was passed in Silas L. Cates, George F. Hubbartt, Conde A. Hile, C. B. Croxall, and James H. Richardson were elected as his assistants.

Efficiency Session.—The Bishop then made an announcement of the session upon the coming Friday to consider means of efficiency in the Conference, and he suggested that the Statistical Secretary and the Treasurer submit before that time a report on membership, growth or lack of growth; membership in the Sunday Schools and conversions in the Sunday Schools; and benevolences, increase or decrease.

Stewards.—Upon motion of B. S. Hollopeter, L. M. Krider and Charles Tinkham were elected Stewards for three years.

B. S. Hollopeter read the list of the Conference Boards for the ensuing year. (See Conference Boards.) On his nomination, the following were elected Committee on Resolutions: G. D. Cleworth, G. R. Grose, K. H. Carlson, R. L. Semans, W. F. Smith.

C. E. Line called the attention of the Conference to the fact that for the first time in fifty years J. E. Ervin was compelled to be absent from the session on account of illness. On his motion, the Secretary was instructed to send him a night-letter conveying the kindly greetings of the Conference.

Bar.—On motion of W. D. Parr, the bar of the Conference was made to include the first eight rows of seats.

Program.—On motion of S. Light, the program as printed was adopted as the official program, subject to necessary changes.

Auditing Committee.—On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the following were constituted the Auditing Committee: E. L. Jones, C. B. Croxall, F. H. Cremean.

Conference History.—On motion of H. N. Herrick, the names of B. S. Hollopeter and J. A. Beatty were added to the Committee on Publishing Conference History.

M. S. Marble made a report on the disbursement of the Flood Fund, and requested that the account be audited by the Auditing Committee.

Methodist Review.—On motion of W. B. Freeland, W. M. Hollopeter was constituted a committee to solicit subscriptions for the Methodist Review.

Secretary of the Cabinet.

Reports of District Superintendents.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: I am glad to report a victorious year. These soldier pastors of Fort Wayne District are a brave company of men. They have hurried in here from the battlefield like a host of Generals just long enough to report and get orders for another campaign, and continue the fight

> "Till every foe is vanquished
> And Christ is Lord indeed."

J. A. Beatty.

The old men of the district appointed by Bishop McDowell a year ago knew where to begin, and went immediately to business. The new ones were not long in settling, and they settled for business too. We have kept hard at it all the year. The noble wives and some of the children of these pastors have helped amazingly to win the victories.

Our district received a shock at the sudden passing out of Brother Lewis D. Rehl. He fell to his death from the top of a cherry tree the second of last July. The limb broke underneath his weight and dashed him a distance of about twenty feet, his head striking the cement walk, causing concussion of the brain, and death resulted three hours later. He was visiting his parents at Napoleon, Ohio, and taking a few days of much-needed rest. Brother Rehl was one of God's chosen workmen, an exceptionally strong preacher, earnest, faithful, systematic, and loved by the brethren of this Conference. I held his Quarterly Conference only three days before his coronation, and the charge was in the best condition it had been for many years. The Communion Sunday was a great occasion. The audience was large and the Divine presence clearly manifest. Every charge he served went forward. He was a faithful servant of God. How we miss him! But most of all is he missed by his sorrowing wife and little daughter, Germaine. Let us pray for them.

Brother E. J. Maupin was obliged to go to the hospital about the middle of January for an operation. He was taken from his pulpit to the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne, where he remained for two weeks. After spending a month recuperating, he is getting back to his former vigor and hopes to be stronger than he has been for several years.

Mrs. Crafts, the wife of G. H. Crafts, who took a supernumerary relation a year ago, was obliged to go to Saint Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio, and underwent a critical operation for cancer. A complete recovery is reported.

Mrs. C. Claude Travis, in the Wayne Street parsonage, and Mrs. F. H. Cremean, in the St. Paul parsonage, are both detained from this Conference because of serious illness.

Changes.—The first change occurred at New Haven. Alda R. Gilliam, appointed to supply the charge, did so for two Sundays, but on account of overwork during the winter his health failed, and he was obliged to give it up. A. G. Bryan, a local preacher of East Liberty, Ohio, was secured. He served eight months and was released, and Chauncey King, one of the old reliables, brought the year's work to a fine close. So popular is he with his people that the fourth Quarterly Conference requested that he serve another year. J. Orr Powell, stationed at Scottsburg, was transferred from the Indiana Conference to take up the work of the sorrowing people at Ossian, occasioned by the death of their much loved pastor, Lewis D. Rehl. After some delay Henry E. Little, a local preacher from Tennessee, was secured to supply Fort Wayne Circuit. After serving four months he wearied of us and returned to the sunny South. Alda R. Gilliam, much loved by this people and at their request, came and successfully completed the year. J. O. Hochstedler, of Bobo Charge, and Karl R. Thompson, of Decatur Circuit, were granted a release by Bishop McDowell to go to Boston Theological Seminary. Guy H. Black, a student of Garrett Theological Seminary, was secured for Bobo and has done a remarkable work in seven months. He is recommended to be received into the Conference. Joseph Grimes was transferred from the Indiana Conference and assigned to Decatur Circuit. The charge is well pleased with his work and unanimously invited him to return. F. V. Westhafer, of Harlan, was granted a release to attend school, and S. I. Zechiel was transferred from the South Kansas Conference and has done a fine work in closing out the year. He has had the best revival the charge has had for many years, and the people are enthusiastic for his return.

Spiritual Awakening and Membership.—The greatest spiritual awakening of all the years has swept the Churches of the district the past few months. There have been converted and reclaimed 2,121. W. T. Arnold, pastor at First Church, Bluffton, reports 320 of this number, with a gain in membership of 215. Evangelist Johnson first gave valuable help in a meeting where 70 were converted. The Bob Jones Meeting, in January, stirred the city of Bluffton and the country for many miles around. J. Orr Powell, pastor at Ossian, reports 262, and 225 accessions. This will make a membership in this two-point circuit of 600, and will pay a salary next year of $1,200. B. F. Hornaday, pastor at Orland, reports 200, and 107 accessions, making an increase of more than 50 per cent. J. E. Coffin, pastor at Pennville, reports 200, and 73 accessions. A. C. Hoover, 190, and 75 accessions. C. Claude Travis, Wayne Street, 70 conversions and 105 accessions. The Kerr brothers were the evangelists in this meeting, and the Church received a great uplift. Auburn, F. F. Thornburg, pastor, 80, and 56 accessions. He had the assistance of J. W. Oborn, one of our Conference evangelists. D. A. J. Brown, Poneto, 101. Others reporting smaller numbers, but perhaps as devoted in effort as the foregoing, are as follows: H. S. Nickerson, Angola, 31; J. R. Elson, Bluffton Circuit, 35; G. H. Black, Bobo, 60; F. P. Johnson, Coesse, 18; D. T. Stephenson, First Church, Decatur, 45, and 74 accessions; D. H. Guild, First Church, Fort Wayne, 50, and 77 accessions; F. H. Cremean, St. Paul, 26, and 42 accessions; W. A. Griest, Simpson, 35, and 70 accessions; T. M. Hill, Trinity, 57, and 75 accessions; Charles Tinkham, Garrett, 52 accessions; E. M. Dunbar, Geneva, 32, and 37 accessions; S. I. Zechiel, Harlan, 52, and 45 accessions; C. H. Hickman, Hudson-Ashley, 18, and 25 accessions; Henry Lacy, Huntertown, 19, and 28 accessions; John Phillips, Monroe, 32; C. M. Hollopeter, Monroeville, 26; U. S. A. Bridge, Portland, 32; J. C. Valentine, Portland Circuit, 43; Homer E. Elliott, York, 43. Because of an overcount last year, Monroe suffers a loss of 49, and Leo a loss of 20. Both charges made an actual gain. For the same reason First Church, Bluffton, makes a gain of 155, when it should be 215. The net gain in membership is 1,010.

Building and Improvements.—Three new parsonages were built this year. At Pennville the old parsonage was in such bad repair that Brother Coffin and family did not move into it, but proceeded at once to rebuild. The old house was put on a new foundation, a second story added, tore out the partitions and remodeled the interior, beautifully decorated and lighted it, excavated for a basement, and put in a furnace. The pastor and family now enjoy one of the most modern parsonages in the district, at a cost of $1,960.

Hoagland has long since felt the need of a new parsonage. Immediately after Conference the Trustees sold the old one for $1,000 and built an eight-room, modern house with an up-ground cellar, and a new barn, all at a cost of $1,770.

After this they went immediately to the task of remodeling their church at Hoagland. They made a radical change in the plan of the church, putting the pulpit on the side, building an extension on the opposite side, heating with furnace, putting in art glass windows, and beautifully decorating the interior. This was done at a cost of $2,500. The 16th of last November this church was reopened, Bishop David H. Moore, preaching morning and evening, easily raising the money. Rev. C. Claude Travis preached an excellent sermon in the afternoon, at which service the District Superintendent rededicated the church. Rev. E. L. English is the happy pastor.

The parsonage of St. Paul, Fort Wayne, was no longer sufficient to meet the needs of this growing Church. The Board of Trustees sold it and applied the proceeds to the building of a splendid, modern, eight-room house, equipped with electric light fixtures of rare beauty. The entire cost, $3,000. The securing of this splendid preacher's home is only one of the many fine things Dr. F. H. Cremean and his wife have done for this Church.

One year ago last February our church at Ashley burned. This heroic people, while the smoke was going up from the burning embers, was busy maturing their plans to rebuild. They built on the old foundation, but better and more modern, at a cost of $5,000. Daniel Rinesmith, one of the Trustees, took the contract and thereby saved them large expenditures of money. Dr. W. D. Parr was called and raised the needed amount of money, and solemnly dedicated the church to the worship of Almighty God.

Garrett is now building a fine church to cost not less than $30,000. The 19th of last October it was the privilege of the District Superintendent to lay the corner-stone. The walls are now up, and it is almost ready for the roof. Charles Tinkham is the pastor, and the Church keeps increasing his salary each year.

Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, has spent $3,200 in lowering the organ, redecorating, and making this one of the most attractive auditoriums in the city. Here Rev. C. Claude Travis preaches to one of the finest congregations in our Conference. They unanimously invited him to return for the sixth year, at an increase in salary.

First Church, Fort Wayne, has installed a steam-heating plant at a cost of $1,900. Dr. D. H. Guild is skillfully meeting the situation.

Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, has completed repairs costing $1,870. Rev. T. M. Hill, the pastor, reports a membership of 520.

New Haven, for several years at a standstill, has taken a new start. They have expended $1,000 in putting in a basement, installing two furnaces, and decorating the auditorium. Rev. Chauncey King is now their pastor.

Coesse has expended $1,043 in repairs, putting in a basement, a furnace, and redecorating the auditorium. Rev. F. P. Johnson is the pastor and leader in this enterprise.

Ceylon, a small Church on the Geneva Circuit, has been nicely repaired at an expense of $275. Sister Hoover, the pastor's wife, saw how sadly this people were neglected, gathered them together, reorganized them, repaired their church, and now they have one of the best Sunday schools and congregations on the charge.

Under the leadership of Rev. John R. Elson, the pastor, Epworth Church, Bluffton, has been moved from an undesirable location and placed on a prominent street three squares north. It has been cleaned, repaired, and put in an attractive condition. The cost was $560. A revival followed, with 30 conversions.

Mt. Hope Church, on the Bobo Charge, has been remodeled and enlarged at a cost of $1,925. Rev. Guy H. Black came to this charge last September and soon led them to see they were able. The work was undertaken, brought to successful completion, and now they have a splendid church, well equipped for all their work. Sunday, March 22d, Dr. W. D. Parr was called, and brought them across to financial victory.

Shinn's Chapel, near Montpelier, had gone into disuse. The windows were out, the plastering was off, and nothing left but a shell. Brother Bills and I went out last summer and urged the people to repair, and they responded by doing it, and now they have a good, respectable church. They now have a good Sunday school and regular church services.

Monroeville redecorated their church, put in the indirect system, making it a real beauty and costing them $783.

Auburn expended $845 completing the extension of their church, begun last year. This included redecorating the interior, a costly floor-covering of linoleum, putting in a spacious basement, and installing a steam-heating plant. They are expecting to build a large addition next year for Sunday school purposes. They are now inviting this Conference to the hospitality of their homes and the comfort of their beautiful church in this aggressive, growing county seat. Of course you will come.

Other Churches have made smaller repairs, as follows: Angola, $125; First Church, Bluffton, $710; First Church, Decatur, $118; Decatur Circuit, $100; Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, $150; Fremont, $158; Geneva, $50; Hamilton, $155; Harlan, $94; Huntertown, $300; Leo, $532; Monroe, $510; Montpelier, $480; Orland, $481; Ossian, $175; Poneto, $75; First Church, Portland, $90; Spencerville, $97; Woodburn, $125; York, $142; total expenditures, $46,324.

Debts Paid.—Paid on old indebtedness, $13,325, as follows: Auburn, $400; St. Paul, Fort Wayne, $1,783; Simpson, Fort Wayne, $4,600; Geneva, $100; Hamilton, $247; Montpelier, $1,000; Ossian, $2,200; Poneto, $392; Portland, $800; Portland Circuit, $1,000. A few others with smaller amounts.

Finances.—The best thing we have to report on finance is the New Financial Plan. Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, was the first in the district to adopt it. Several more of the larger Churches soon followed. We have pushed it hard all the year. Every charge on the district has now adopted it and is working it.

The salaries of the pastors have been increased $1,300 and paid more promptly than ever before.

Our benevolences are likewise sharing in this great increase. The pastors' reports insure more than $5,000 for Foreign, and more than $4,000 for Home Missions, besides special gifts. This will be an increase of $1,700 for the cause of Missions over last year. All other benevolences show a like increase with Missions. This is just the beginning of the larger increase to come through this New Financial Plan.

Twenty-eight charges report a good increase in their benevolences this year, five pulled down, and four pulled even. Eight charges report all benevolences in full. First Church, Bluffton, not only reports all benevolences in full, but reports a total of $6,244.

Church Papers.—The pastors have faithfully continued the canvass for our Church papers. They report 1,105 Western Christian Advocates, about 50 other Advocates, and 400 Epworth Heralds.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The district made a vigorous and systematic appeal in the interest of our Preachers' Aid Society. We launched the campaign at the meeting of the pastors and District Stewards in May. In addition to sending out the pastors, we had the valuable assistance of Dr. C. U. Wade, Dr. W. D. Parr, Rev. J. W. Cain, and A. B. Cline. Earnest appeals were made, and we have pledged $6,606, and already paid $2,165. We expect to continue the campaign until Fort Wayne District reaches the full $10,000.

Church Organizations.—We have 92 Sunday schools, with a total enrollment of about 15,000. These schools are well organized and use our literature. Their offerings to Missions reaches a total of $2,343.

The pastors report 44 Epworth Leagues, with an enrollment of 1,882. These young people pledged to Missions, for the support of Dr. E. O. Ernsberger, a little over $1,300. Several old chapters have been revived and reorganized this year. Miss Ione Easley is the efficient District President.

The Junior League work is encouraging and advancing. Our largest League is still at Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, superintended by Mrs. T. M. Hill, who is also the District Superintendent. The enrollment for the district is 1,250.

We have 57 Ladies' Aid Societies, reporting receipts for the year's work of $12,512, an increase of more than $2,000 over last year.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have also made a good advance. The Home Society has raised $2,966, and the Foreign Society $2,674.

We have five active Methodist Brotherhoods. Our men are working as never before, but they do not stick to organized Brotherhood as they should. The great Methodist Men's Convention at Indianapolis gave our men a new and larger vision.

District Meetings.—We held three great district meetings within the year, besides the meeting of the District Stewards and pastors, at which time we had a splendid program. The Epworth League was held in June at Geneva. In October we held a One Day Missionary Convention in Simpson Church, Fort Wayne. The speakers were Dr. George R. Grose, Dr. E. H. Richards, and Dr. Fred B. Fisher.

It would be difficult to describe our District Conference. Everybody present put it in the superlative degree. The announcement of such speakers as Dr. George R. Grose, Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, Dr. E. S. Shoemaker, Mrs. Celestine Bernheim, and Bishop Theodore S. Henderson fully justifies the claim. The closing day with Bishop Henderson will ever be precious because of its helpfulness. Our only regret was that we could not have, as we had fondly hoped, our own great leader, Bishop William F. McDowell.

A class of three young men was licensed to preach the gospel, and Mont M. Thornburg, Elbert L. English, and Guy H. Black were recommended to the Annual Conference to be received on trial, and the latter also for Deacon's Orders.

We have had a good year. Most of us have had the best of all our years. All might have had it so. Best things come high. A Burmese student, some years ago, in contesting with European claimants and candidates, took everything before him. He said, "Everything is possible here to a man who works." Genius has been defined as a capacity for hard work. We must study how to make our efforts count for the largest things. It is not enough to be busy. We must be busy about right things. Resist the temptation to go after small things. Cleopatra said to Mark Antony, "It is not for you to be fishing for gudgeons, but to be taking forts, towns, citadels." We need a ministry who will cease frittering away their time doing things that somebody else could do quite as well, and give themselves to greater and grander tasks to which they have been called from all eternity. The big tasks frighten us and make out of us crouching men. When Peter received the baptism of the Holy Ghost he never again suggested, "I go fishing." They no longer went splashing in the water, wondering where they would find the Master, but became fishers of men. No more failures after this. The big task was sufficient to employ all their time.

"Straight from the Mighty Bow this truth is driven;
They fail, and they alone, who have not striven."

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

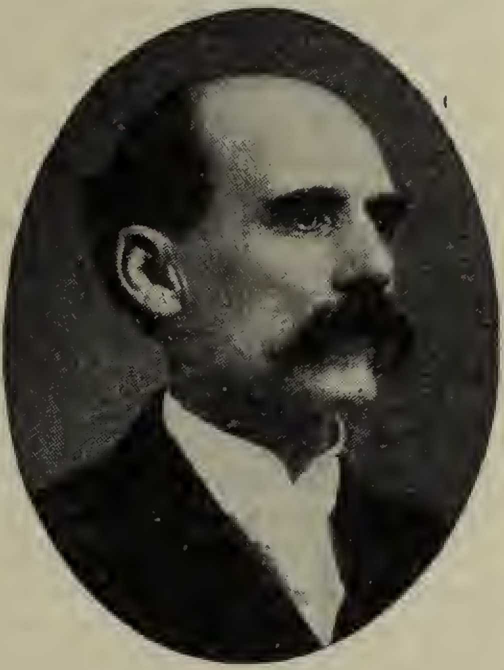
All Goshen District welcomes the North Indiana Conference to this beautiful city and this modern Memorial Church edifice.

Dear Bishop McDowell, the pastors and Superintendent of Goshen District united with North Indiana Conference and world Methodism in thanksgiving to God for sparing your life and bringing you back to health and strength.

After about five weeks of very efficient service on the Corunna Charge, T. G. Godwin, a supply, was obliged, on account of serious illness in the family, to surrender the charge. Rev. J. S. Cain, Retired Minister, supplied with great acceptability until the appointment of R. P. Geyer, who took charge about the first of September. After several months without a pastor, E. M. Armitage was secured for the Butler Circuit. Jesse Denbo was released from the work of the Warsaw Circuit, September 15th, to attend school. W. V. Mullikin was secured, and went forward with the work. Brother F. A. Reichelderfer, of Topeka, was released September 1st to enter Garrett Biblical Institute. Herbert Boase was taken from Wakarusa to Topeka, and J. C. Lawburgh, of the Indiana Conference, was transferred and stationed at Wakarusa.

Eleven Retired Ministers reside within the bounds of the district. Brothers Lash, Welch, Paschall, Wones, and Hasty have been in feeble health. Brother H. C. Smith was suddenly called to his crowning on Sunday night, July 27, 1913, while paying a visit to his nephew near Santa Fe, his boyhood home. He preached with great liberty and power at the evening service, returned to his nephew's home, and quietly on the wings of sweet sleep passed to the Church Triumphant. The Rev. A. G. Neal, of First Church, Warsaw, pastor of the family, assisted by several brethren of the Conference, had charge of the impressive funeral services. We bespeak for Sister Smith, the devoted wife, the prayer of the entire Conference. In the early spring the death angel came to the parsonage home at Avilla and accompanied the saintly mother of the pastor's wife, Mrs. Nancy Bassett, to her heavenly home. Brother and Sister Lamport, who had cared for the aged mother so faithfully, took the dear old body to Bristol, her old home, where appropriate funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Croxall.

With but two or three exceptions the pastors' families have been free from severe illness. Sister Shaw, the wife of our pastor at Howe, passed through a severe illness, but is now apparently in usual health. Sister Dixon, of Etna Green, was also quite seriously ill for weeks, but is now in a greatly improved condition. Sweet babies came during the year to bless the lives and homes of Brothers and Sisters Loveless, of Wawaka; Bash, of Waterloo; Lawburgh, of Wakarusa; Shaw, of Howe; Geyer, of Corunna; and Cloud, of Syracuse.



Somerville Light.

Dr. Wade's Wedding.—Wednesday evening, August 6th, occurred the marriage of Rev. R. J. Wade, D. D., pastor of Trinity Church, Elkhart, to Miss Myrtle Mudge, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mudge, of the same city. The ceremony was performed in the auditorium of the church by the father of the groom, Dr. C. U. Wade, of Greencastle, assisted by the District Superintendent. An informal reception followed in the parlors of the parsonage, where Dr. and Mrs. Wade received the heartiest congratulations. Mrs. Wade was reared in Elkhart and brought up in old Trinity, in which she has been an excellent worker for several years.

On Thanksgiving evening, in the beautiful Christian home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mason, Bluffton, Ind., occurred the marriage of Rev. A. H. Bachus, pastor of Lagrange Charge, to Miss Nellie Mason, an earnest, devoted, capable member of the First Church, of Bluffton. The District Superintendent had the pleasure of officiating on this delightful ocasion.

Departmental Work of the Churches.—The Sunday schools, 81 in number, have a total enrollment of more than 12,000, and are in the best condition, both in city and country, I have known them to be. With but two or three exceptions they are organized into missionary societies. All use the literature of the Church. A district institute was held in First Church, Goshen, on Wednesday, July 16th. Dr. Hartman and Miss Thomason represented the Board of Sunday Schools. Mr. W. E. Carpenter gave vision of what it means to develop a truly great school such as he has at Brazil, and Bishop McDowell brought the day to a climax with his winged words on "Life and the Bible." Among the schools which have been fully standardized, the one at First Church, Mishawaka, easily ranks first. Three teacher-training classes are in operation; two in connection with the regular session of the school, the third being led by the pastor, Loren M. Edwards, during the week. The combined membership is about 75. Not only has the graded work been introduced, but the teachers have been graded as well. Men teachers are employed in all boys' classes, and no man who uses tobacco is allowed to teach in the Sunday school. The Junior Department is admirably equipped and is pronounced by Dr. Blake the equal of any in the connection for a town the size of Mishawaka.

Offerings for Missions, Board of Sunday Schools, and Children's Day Fund are in advance of former years. There has also been a good increase in the number of conversions in the schools.

Epworth League Chapters.—Most of our Epworth League chapters are loyal and doing good work in a larger way than ever before. A substantial increase in membership is reported by the Senior League chapters. The Junior League chapters have not quite kept pace. The chapters of this district continue to support Dr. Cartney, missionary to China. Fourteen hundred dollars was pledged for this worker. The district convention was held at Bourbon, June 24th and 25th. Bishop Bristol greatly pleased the convention in his masterly address. and President Grose, of DePauw, won the admiration of the great Epworthian host the second evening.

The Methodist Brotherhood.—While we have only eight Brotherhoods on the district, they have done the best work this year ever done by this organization. The truth is, men are interested in the large things of the Kingdom to-day as never before. Christian men are putting business into religion—business into local Church matters, business into forward movements of all kinds, business into great philanthropic enterprises of the hour, real business zeal into the work of evangelism; in a word, making it their chief business to help Jesus Christ save the world. The same royal host of consecrated laymen can be trusted by the General Conference Commission on Evangelism. They want to know "how." They are determined to know "how." They are beginning to know "how." Back to the secret place of prayer; back to the mourner's bench; back to the intelligent, God-inspired preaching of the gospel, which brings conviction to the careless sinner far from God; back to a rejoicing with the angels over repenting, confessing, believing, receiving Christ-saved souls; back to the impulse which moves the saved man out after his own brother sinner; back to the truth that a man is saved to be a savior of his fellow-men; back to every member his own evangelist; back to co-partnership with Jesus Christ in the greatest work to which a man can give his best self.

Boy Scouts.—The Boy Scout Movement is gaining strength. This work has been undertaken on a large scale in Kendallville, Millard Pell, pastor. An expert worker was brought to the city for the summer season. He gripped the boys of the entire city; so much so that the business men became greatly interested and volunteered to support the work.

Woman's Work.—The Ladies' Aid Societies are doing excellent work in every way. They have raised more than $12,000 during the year. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have been more than usually active and, of course, have increased the number of societies and raised and disbursed more money than formerly.

Finances.—The first event of the Conference year was the annual meeting of the pastors and Stewards held at Goshen, May 10th. At this meeting the campaign in behalf of the Endowment Fund of the Preachers' Aid Society was formally launched. The men responded to the filling of the room where the banquet was held. The chief speaker for the occasion was the Hon. Marvin Campbell, of South Bend. Other laymen, with Dr. R. J. Wade, District Missionary Secretary, and the District Superintendent, gave brief addresses. A definitely planned itinerary had been arranged, calling for special services and canvass on May 11th and 18th. The men of the district, with the assistance of J. W. Cain, Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, Drs. C. U. Wade and W. D. Parr, and Brother A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, went after it, with the result that on the night of May 18th the victory was won, the $10,000 was ours. A little additional effort advanced the district to the $12,000 mark.

Tuesday, April 29th, the old parsonage at Corunna was sold, and September 15th a more modern house near the Church was purchased, and soon after occupied by Pastor Geyer and family.

Soon after Conference work was begun on the church at North Webster, W. T. Daly, pastor. A roomy basement was put under the entire building, divided into furnace room, kitchen, and dining-room. The building was veneered with first-class brick, tower, and entrance at corner, new seats, carpet, wall decoration, etc., at an expense of about $6,000. The District Superintendent officiated at the reopening, Sunday, August 10th. So well had the pastor managed affairs that less than $1,500 was needed to provide for this improvement. And so well did the people respond that $1,650 was subscribed. Last year the Morris Chapel church, on this charge, was rebuilt at a cost of about the same amount.

Early in the year A. L. Lamport, pastor at Avilla, began the rebuilding of the Avilla church. The building was raised; full basement, with all modern appointments, put in; tower and entrance placed at corner; completely refinished, and refurnished inside and painted on outside. The entire cost of this improvement was $2,800. The church was reopened by Bishop Moore, Sunday, September 28th. Brother Lamport is invited to return for the third year, with the promise, based on an every-member canvass at both appointments, of an advance in salary from $800 to $1,000.

The new church at Cromwell, Wawaka Charge, W. E. Loveless, pastor, begun last year, was dedicated November 16th. Dr. W. D. Parr was called to preach the sermon and raise the $2,000 needed. A happy people united with Dr. Parr and a jubilant pastor in impressive dedicatory services. The cost of the church was, in round numbers, $6,000.

At Middlebury, J. W. Bowen, pastor, the church was rebuilt and thoroughly modernized at a cost of $3,000. The District Superintendent officiated at the services, held November 23d. Nine hundred and forty-three dollars was required to complete payment. The people subscribed $1,102. Five years ago the pastor found both congregations greatly discouraged, an old dilapidated parsonage, both church buildings in a poor condition, a $700 salary. During this time he has built a modern parsonage at a cost of $2,600, rebuilt the Shipshewana church at a cost of $1,650, and expended on the Middlebury church $3,000. The salary was advanced from $700 to $800, and next year goes up to the round $1,000. Good revivals have attended his ministry on this charge, and this year he reports a gain in membership of 30 per cent.

The recently rebuilt church at Howe, Roscoe Shaw, pastor, quite badly damaged by fire in the late winter, has been repaired and is again in use by the congregation.

The South Milford church, L. W. Kemper, pastor, was rebuilt and modernized, with a view to making it not only more commodious and inviting, but also to assist in solving the country Church problem by making it a country-side social center. On January 11th the District Superintendent reopened the church. The entire cost of this improvement was about $1,100.

At Bourbon, R. W. Stoakes, pastor, a fine $17,000 church is in process of erection and will be ready for dedication early next Conference year. On the Benton and Richville Charge, organized this year, A. A. Turner, pastor, $1,375 has been subscribed for a new par sonage. At Osceola, Preston Polhemus, pastor, the Ladies' Aid Society led in the purchase of a house and lot adjacent to the Church property. The house and lot cost $650.

Other improvements amounting to $100 and over have been made on the following charges: Bristol, C. B. Croxall, pastor, for new hardwood floor in auditorium, and other repairs, $320; Etna Green, Edwin Dixon, pastor, $530; Goshen, First Church, R. L. Semans, pastor, $1,455, general repairs on church building; Howe, Roscoe Shaw, pastor, $140; Inwood, W. E. Hogan, pastor, $170; Kendallville, Millard Pell, pastor, $117; La Grange, A. H. Bachus, pastor, $360; Mishawaka, L. M. Edwards, pastor, $100; Nappanee, Silas Cates, pastor, $150; Syracuse, C. A. Cloud, pastor, $400; Valentine, J. K. Wyant, pastor, $450; Wakarusa, J. C. Lawburgh, pastor, $255; Warsaw, A. G. Neal, pastor, $200; Warsaw Circuit, W. V. Mullikin, pastor, $235; Wolcottville, I. R. Godwin, pastor, $231. Total for new work and improvements, $47,345. The total valuation of church and parsonage property reaches $705,650. Amount of debts, $23,884. Net property, $681,766.

Special Days.—Elkhart County Methodist Day was observed at the beautiful park in Goshen, August 12th. Mr. E. E. Starbuck, of Goshen, representing the Goshen District Laymen's Association, assisted by a very competent committee, made all necessary arrangements for the day. A fine musical contest was greatly enjoyed by the people. A picnic dinner was the order at 12 o'clock, and at 2 P. M., Dr. W. D. Parr gave the address of the day.

Settlement Day.—Settlement Day meeting was held at Pierceton, December 4th. A large majority of the charges reported salaries paid in full to date, and a like majority reported they were working the every-member canvass and duplex-envelope system. The salaries for next year are in most cases practically fixed now, and in nearly every instance backed by the every-member canvass.

Elkhart Methodist Day.—This day was to have been observed January 25th, but the serious illness of Bishop McDowell made it necessary to postpone until March 8th. The day was really devoted to city church extension work, with the debt-ridden St. Paul Church as the chief objective. Bishop W. F. Anderson, of Cincinnati, came in Bishop McDowell's stead and preached three strong, inspiring sermons; one at Trinity Church in the morning, another at Simpson at 2.30 P. M., and the third at St. Paul's at night. Dr. James Rowe, Corresponding Secretary of the Chicago Home Mission and Church Extension Society, came on Friday night and generously gave the three nights and two days in the management of the finances. The totals on Sunday night footed up in round numbers $15,000, and still there remains about $15,000 of debt, for which no provision has been made. The heroic St. Paul membership have done their best in every way, giving more, much more, per capita than any other Church in the district. This church building is worth more to-day than it cost.

Salaries.—Twelve charges advanced pastors' salaries at the beginning of the year. This advance amounted to $2,350. The advance now promised for next year reaches $2,600. The average salary, including the District Superintendent, now paid the effective men who are members of the Conference is $1,210. The per cent of advance in other ministerial support compares favorably with the advance in pastors' salaries.

Benevolences.—Thirty-three charges report an advance over last year, two report less, and three about the same. The total advance is $13,407. For missions alone thirty charges show gains ranging from $10 to $300. The benevolence conventions were held throughout the district in late September. I am sure all rejoice because of the results now in hand; $39,410 contributed for benevolence, and $157,964 for all causes. The average contribution per member for all purposes ranges from $2.73 to $52.50.

Revivals and Membership.—The spirit of evangelism has been manifested in an unusual way throughout the district. I have not known of such interest in the country sections for years. Several of our country Churches have been completely made over. In both country and town large numbers have been reached and brought into the Kingdom. Thus, by pastors and laymen the work of evangelism has been pressed as never before during my time on the district. For the most part the special meetings have been conducted by the pastors who have thought it out in advance, made a constituency roll, rallied the Church men, and gone after what was at the very door. The program of the Commission on Evangelism has been explained and urged all over the district in congregational Quarterly Conferences. The pastors have seconded the effort. Evangelist Jones, of the Southland, conducted a tabernacle meeting in Warsaw in which nearly a thousand professed conversion. Our pastor, A. G. Neal, conserved the results and gathered in over two hundred new members, a 28 per cent gain. Under the inspiration of this great work the old church is outgrown. Plans are now adopted for the erection of a new $50,000 church. The Kerr brothers conducted a meeting at Butler, W. H. Brightmire, pastor, in which 130 were converted. City Missionary Nipper, of Ft. Wayne, assisted Brothers Bowen, of Middlebury, and Lawburgh, of Wakarusa, with gratifying results—about fifty conversions at each place, mostly men. Brother Hornaday, our pastor at Orland, conducted a meeting at Shipshewana, on the Middlebury Charge, which resulted in between fifty and sixty conversions and a quickened Church. Brother Brightmire did good service at St. Mark's, Goshen, T. F. Frech, pastor. Conference Evangelist E. B. Westhaver, of Muncie, conducted meetings at the Scott and Prairie appointments on the Howe Charge, Roscoe Shaw, pastor. This was a great work, both Churches and communities were thoroughly aroused, fifty-five professed conversion. In the late winter a Macedonian cry came from Mango. Brother and Sister Bachus, of La Grange, responded to the call by conducting a series of meetings, which resulted in thirty conversions, the organization of a class, a chapter of the Epworth League, a Sunday school, and an enthusiastic Ladies' Aid Society. More than three hundred dollars is subscribed for the support of a pastor for next year, and lots for a new church donated. Seventeen hundred and ninety-three conversions, aside from the tabernacle meetings at Warsaw, have been reported by the pastors of the district. The pastors reporting the largest numbers are: Mishawaka, Dr. Edwards, pastor, his own evangelist, 200 conversions, 322 accessions; Inwood, a two-point circuit, W. E. Hogan, pastor, his own evangelist, 150 conversions; Valentine, J. K. Wyant, 94; Bourbon, R. W. Stokes, 85; Trinity, Elkhart, R. J. Wade, 81; Simpson Memorial, Elkhart, W. A. Huffman, 76; Wawaka, W. E. Loveless, 79; Osceola, Preston Polhemus, 65; North Webster, W. T. Daly, 60; Wolcottville, I. R. Godwin, 50; Goshen Circuit, V. L. Clear, 43; Bristol, C. B. Croxall, 39. In addition to his own work, Brother Croxall went out to a schoolhouse and conducted a series of meetings resulting in the organization of a class of twenty-five members. Nappanee, Silas Cates, 30; Albion, Robert Burns, 21; Leesburg, J. C. Graham, 21. Other pastors report from 3 to 18 conversions. The accessions to the membership reach 2,029. The percentage of gain ranges from 1 per cent to 76 per cent. I am glad to report for Dr. J. W. Oborn, Conference Evangelist, residing at Warsaw, nearly one thousand conversions for the year.

Western Christian Advocate.—The new subscribers to the Western Christian Advocate number 293. Our complete list holds at about 1,100.

Epworth Heralds.—Two hundred and eighty-five subscribers at the opening of the year, 408 reported now, a gain of 123.

The District Conference.—The District Conference was held this year in Trinity Church, Elkhart, March 2d, 3d, 4th. President Grose, of DePauw, gave the address on Monday night and addressed the Conference on Tuesday morning, two great messages on great topics of the day. Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, of Philadelphia, representing the General Conference Commission on Finance, was present Tuesday afternoon and night and did excellent service. Bishop T. S. Henderson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., was present on Wednesday and gave the Conference three addresses on Evangelism. The other speakers from without the district were Prof. Shermerhorn, of Garrett Biblical Institute, who spoke for the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; Mrs. Bernheim, of Chicago, who gave an address for the Woman's Home Missionary Society; Dr. M. S. Marble, of the Wabash District, and Dr. B. S. Hollopeter, of the Logansport District.

Conclusion.—For myself, after more than three decades of service, I never felt prouder of the Church than I do to-day. Our pastors stand where others have failed; our noble laymen are loyal amid severest tests. I have sometimes thought, when sleep has taken its flight, of these toilers and rejoiced with them in their victories and wept with them in their sorrows. I would rather cast my lot with these comrades of the Cross than to sit at the court of kings.

"Happy if with my latest breath
I may but gasp His name,
Preach Him to all, and cry in death,
Behold! Behold! the Lamb."

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: At the close of the last Conference session two charges were left without pastors. C. H. Brown, a Retired Minister, was secured to supply Florida, and his services have been of great value to this little charge. The new Church just organized at Anoka was made a part of the Miami Charge, and Leslie A. Hall, of Garrett Biblical Institute, was appointed the pastor.

Walter A. Fouts, who had been appointed to West Middleton, was married to Miss Bessie Levering, of Terre Haute, a classmate in DePauw, on the 27th of May. He graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute the 28th of May, was stricken with typhoid fever on Thanksgiving Day, and lingered until February 7th, when he closed his career on earth to enter the larger and fuller life above. He was one of the best equipped and most promising young men in our ranks. His charge was so well pleased with his services that they increased his salary $150 and paid it in full to the end of the year. He had arranged for all his benevolent collections with a good increase. Not only does this charming young wife mourn the loss of a husband, but we all mourn the loss of this princely minister of Jesus Christ.

The wife of our retired Brother W. S. Stewart went home to heaven December 8th, after a most beautiful and useful life of seventy-five years. She was a capable and devoted woman to the Church she loved, a Sunday school teacher of rare ability.

On May 5, 1913, a bright little boy came to brighten the parsonage home of Brother and Sister Asay at Sharpsville. The homes of L. G. Jacobs and wife, of Roann, and B. M. Bechdolt and wife, of Center, have likewise been blessed.

B. S. Hollopeter.

One of the most gratifying events of the year was the successful dedication of a $27,000 church at Windfall. W. E. Hamilton was appointed at the last Conference to be pastor of this charge and work out this difficult situation. This was a wise appointment. He managed the matter so skillfully that on the 28th of September the Church was ready for dedication and the people ready to pay for it. Dr. W. D. Parr was the needed man to put the crowning touch upon this great enterprise. He raised $17,000 in good subscriptions and cash. The splendid pipe organ, costing $3,200, was donated by Elijah Perry, a member of the Building Committee.

On the Twelve Mile Charge, C. A. Byrt, the pastor, has scored a great victory in rebuilding the church at Bethlehem. This building was made new, with ample basement and aditional rooms, at a cost of $8,500. This was dedicated September 7, 1913, by the District Superintendent, when $3,400 was raised. There is a strong desire on the part of this old and substantial congregation to be made a station. This charge has greatly prospered under Brother Byrt's pastorate.

The Church organized at Anoka a little over one year ago by the pastor at Market Street, Logansport, W. T. Arnold, and brought to new life by a great revival held by Brother and Sister S. J. Mellinger, has commenced and completed one of the finest country churches in the district at a cost of $8,800. Leslie A. Hall was the pastor in charge of this good work. The church was dedicated January 25th by the District Superintendent, when $4,150 was raised. Only $2,700 debt remains, and this is covered by first-class subscriptions. They have paid in cash this year $6,100 on the church building, besides $400 for ministerial support. It is their desire to become a station one year hence.

When LeRoy Myers returned from Conference last spring he commenced at once to talk a new church. A subscription was taken, plans secured, and the church is a glorious reality. It was dedicated by Dr. W. D. Parr, March 15th, when $8,300 was raised. These noble people are princely in their giving and heroic in their undertaking. The church cost $14,000 besides the lot on which it stands.

A new church commenced more than two years ago at Skillman, on the Mexico Charge, where O. M. Hunt is now pastor, will be dedicated in a few weeks. This patient people have been in the hands of a contractor who is in no hurry.

Rev. L. G. Jacobs, the pastor at Roann, has reconstructed Sjamsville church at a cost of $650. Not only has the church structure been reconstructed, but new life has come to the people. Great prosperity has come to the whole charge, that shows itself in deeper spiritual life, larger salary for pastor and benevolent collections paid in full.

The much-needed and long-looked-for new church at Pleasant Hill, on the Gilead Charge, is now to become a reality. A $2,000 subscription has been secured, material bought, and work commenced. C. B. Thomas has been untiring in his efforts to secure this happy state of affairs.

When E. C. Fisher was appointed to the Hobbs and Aroma Charge last spring he had great difficulty in finding a house in which to live, and he led this people to build a splendid new parsonage of eight rooms. This home is now occupied by this happy pastor and his family. It cost $1,400 and is all paid for.

F. O. Scurrah found among other perplexing difficulties at Bunker Hill a parsonage unfit to be occupied. The situation required rare skill to manage. But he was equal in all ways to the occasion. A splendid new and modern parsonage now stands where the old one stood. It cost $2,800, and only $800 remains to be paid. His salary was raised to $1,000 and has been paid in full each quarter of the year. This Conference made no mistake in opening its doors to this splendid man.

At Goldsmith, H. L. Liddle has sold the old parsonage for $1,450. They have bought a lot adjoining the church and raised the money to build a new home for the pastor. The work will soon be completed. This will make Goldsmith one of the very best circuits in the Conference. They each year led the district in benevolent collections, and no better spiritual life can be found than in these loyal people.

G. W. Bailor has greatly improved the churches at Forest and at Scircleville. At Forest a new room was added, basement enlarged, new electric lights installed, both church and parsonage painted, and a new barn built. At Scircleville the church was raised and new basement made, new furnace installed, and otherwise improved. The whole amount raised for these improvements was $2,400. This pastor has labored faithfully to secure these needed improvements.

Improvements have been made at Akron, where A. L. Weaver is pastor; the windows were repaired and one beautiful window added, the floors made secure, a well put down on the parsonage lot, besides an old debt on church and current expenses has been wiped out.

Changes Proposed.—The name of the old Alto Circuit was changed to West Middleton Circuit at our last Conference, and the pastor was instructed to live at the new head of the charge. This was done, and money has been raised to build a new parsonage at West Middleton. Alto now desires to become a station, and, with the Bishop's consent, this will be done. This will solve a long-standing difficulty and will greatly help the work at both places. The salary at Alto will be $700, and at West Middleton it will be $800.

Richland Church, on the Amboy Circuit, has taken a decided forward step in country Church life. They have raised over $1,000 for ministerial support for next year, and ask for a pastor all to themselves. They want their present pastor, LeRoy Myers, to move out to this splendid country station. He has expressed his entire willingness to comply with their request. They have the largest country Sunday school in the district. Practically every family in the community belongs to the Methodist Church, and they are abundantly able to carry out their plans.

Old Debts.—The old and troublesome debts of the Logansport District are being greatly reduced, and we are soon to be in reach of a happy relief from a barrier that has stood in the way of progress. At Elwood, J. F. Radcliffe has seen the debt reduced to $7,700, with provision made to do much better next year. This faithful pastor has not only done well with the finances of his Church, but has built it up in every way.

The plan of the Market Street Church, in Logansport, was to pay all the interest and $1,000 on the principal each year, but H. L. Overdeer handled matters so successfully that $1,500 was paid on the principal this year. More than one hundred have been added to the membership, and benevolences will be advanced 75 per cent over last year.

Broadway Church has greatly reduced her debt through the faithful work of her pastor, J. A. Sumwalt. This Church will soon take front rank among the great Churches of the Conference.

At Grace Church, Kokomo, $2,500 has been paid on the debt through the efforts of Dr. J. C. White, who has this Church well in hand. A very handsome garage has been erected on the parsonage lot through the efforts of this energetic pastor.

At Main Street, Kokomo, the debt has been reduced to $8,000, and this is well in hand.

Revivals and Membership.—The pastor at Peru, Dr. T. M. Guild, has had a gracious year of revivals. A special meeting held in November resulted in many conversions. The "Bob" Jones meeting came to Peru in February, sweeping hundreds into the Kingdom. Nearly 400 have been added to the Methodist Church. The flood of water and destruction that came last spring was followed by a flood of revival fire that will mark this as the year to be remembered in Peru. Dr. Guild has demonstrated that an ex-District Superintendent can be a successful and truly popular pastor.

The revival at Tipton has been the greatest in the history of the Church. O. A. Trabue, the pastor, had been planning for months for this event, and as a result 150 very substantial people were added to this Church, whose membership is now over 700. The four years of Brother Trabue's work in this Church has changed it from a struggling Church, going behind financially and trying to reduce the salary, to one paying all its bills promptly, with an advancing salary. The revival at Main Street, Kokomo, was conducted by the pastor, J. A. Sprague, assisted by L. A. Beeks, one of the sweetest-spirited Superannuates in Methodism. Over 100 were converted and joined the Church. The Sunday school has an average attendance of 473 and pays more for missions than any Sunday school in the district. The salary was increased $100 this year.

At Sheridan a great meeting was conducted by J. S. Newcombe, the pastor. The conversions number 95, besides the Church was greatly revived. This Church has already set their salary at $200 in advance for next year and pay all benevolences more than full.

W. C. Asay has had a soul-stirring revival at Sharpsville for the second time in two years. The membership has grown to 324. All bills are paid in full. The Sunday school pays $213 for the cause of missions.

The greatest revival that has ever come to the Denver Charge has been going on for the past two months, where J. B. Cook is closing his third year as pastor of the charge and his fortieth year in the ministry. At each point on the charge the revival has been raging like a forest fire. Over 160 were converted, and 109 joined the Church. Brother Cook has labored much of his time in great bodily pain, but with the same heroic spirit that has characterized his long and fruitful ministry. This charge will increase the salary to $1,000 for next year.

John Parker, the pastor at New Waverly, has had a gracious revival at Onward, in which 30 were converted.

B. M. Bechdolt added many to the Church at Nevada, on the Center Charge. C. A. Modlin had a good revival at Kempton and has more than doubled his benevolent collections. O. M. Hunt had splendid revivals at Mexico and Perrysburg. LeRoy Myers had 32 conversions at Richland and a great meeting at Amboy. E. E. Wright saw many converted at Santa Fe. C. W. Montgomery has had a revival all year on the Boxley Charge. Besides many conversions, two splendid young men have given themselves to the ministry. W. M. Amos has had the best revival he has experienced in the nine years of his stay at Walton.

All but three of the pastors in the district have held special meetings. The number of conversions reported is 1,665, and the increase in our membership is 1,036. We have the largest membership of any district, the largest pastoral support, the largest amount of church property, the largest debts, and the best territory for hard work and good results.

Pastors' Salaries.—The laymen are making more earnest demands than ever before for efficient service. They would rather pay a good salary than a poor one, but they want good service, and they are entitled to it. I have never found it so easy to increase the pastors' salaries as this year. The whole amount of increase secured is $2,735. This was made in the following charges: Arcadia, $300; Atlanta, $350; Boxley, $50; Bunker Hill, $100; Center, $100; Cicero, $200; Gilead, $200; Hobbs and Aroma, $100; Kempton, $100; Miami and Anoka, $400; New Waverly, $50; Roann, $100; Russiaville, $100; Sharpsville, $100; Main Street, Kokomo, $100; Macy, $100; Twelve Mile, $100; West Middleton, $150; Windfall, $100. If the definite promises made to the District Superintendent for next year are good, as much more will be added to the salaries.

Benevolences.—Only four charges will report a decrease in their benevolent collections from last year. Two of these charges have a reasonable excuse. Thirty-two will report an increase, and many a very marked increase.

Arcadia became a station last year, increasing her salary $300; yet M. L. Hardingham will report a 70 per cent increase in benevolent collections. W. H. Jenkin will increase the collections at Cicero 160 per cent. Greentown has stood second only to Goldsmith, and will hold this very high mark this year under the very efficient service of L. M. Krider. Goldsmith still holds first place, with H. L. Liddle the pastor. It pays $4.50 per member. The increase in regular benevolences over last year will be $1,800.

One-day missionary meetings were held on each charge during the month of September. To these the pastors gave most hearty support. J. A. Sprague, the district Missionary Secretary, rendered very efficient service, as did the eight chairmen of the groups into which the district was divided. The pastors were urged to complete their canvass for benevolences by December 1st. Those who did this will make a good report. If all had been faithful here, our report would be great.

Settlement Day.—We had Settlement Day meeting at Peru, December 1st; at Kokomo, December 2d; at Tipton, December 3d. At these meetings the pastors made report of their progress with benevolent collection, and the Stewards reported as to their progress with the current budget of expenses. Another object was to launch the new financial plan authorized by the General Conference. Dr. F. W. Hixson, of Crawfordsville, made helpful addresses at these meetings on this important subject. The plan was heartily adopted by the district, and March 20th was set for the every-member canvass on the charges. This has been faithfully carried out on most of the charges, and all who entered heartily into this plan are greatly pleased with the good results.

The influence of the great meeting for Methodist men at Indianapolis is exceedingly helpful to us in this work. Many of our laymen attended, and came home to do better service for God and the Church than they had done before. I think this meeting will mark a new epoch in our Church life.

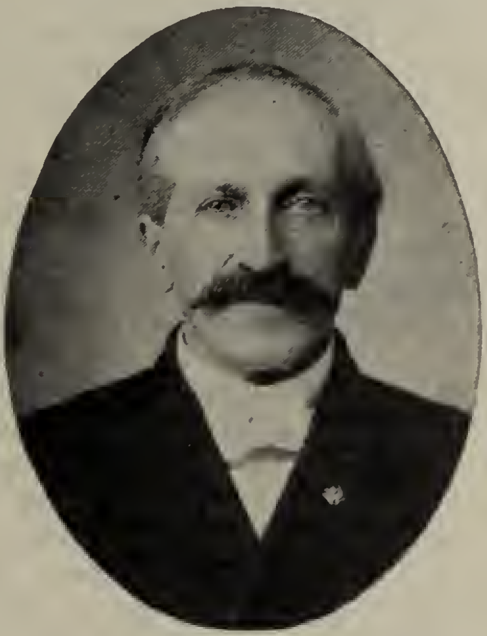
Many of our pastors were invited to return for another year. W. M. Amos was invited to return to Walton for the tenth year, with the understanding that they increase his salary to $1,000 and build a new parsonage. E. C. Dunn was invited to return to Wheatland Avenue, Logansport, for the seventh year, at an increase of $200 in his salary.

I have never received a more hearty welcome than was given me by the pastors and people of the Logansport District. It has been a year of hard work, but delightful fellowship and many good results. The pastors have been kind and have given hearty co-operation to all my plans for the work. God bless them all!

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

C. E. Line, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: There have been no deaths among the pastors or retired preachers this Conference year, but death entered the parsonage at Pendleton and the parsonage at Alexandria and translated Mrs. Emma Williams, the wife of Brother J. E. Williams, and Mrs. Sarah J. Williams, the wife of Brother D. V. Williams. These two elect women were beautiful characters; grace had done much for them; their lives were given in service; their faith robbed death of its terror and the grave of its victory; they were prepared in every way to be transferred to their heavenly home. Brother J. E. Williams and Brother D. V. Williams and family have our prayers and sympathy in their loneliness.



C. E. Line.

"Yet Love will dream, and Faith will trust,
(Since He who knows our need is just)
That somehow, somewhere, meet we must"

These bereaved friends did not hopelessly lay away their dead. What a great truth Whittier expresses in these following lines:

"Alas for him who never sees
The stars shine through his cypress trees!
Who, hopeless, lays his dead away,
Nor looks to see the breaking day
Across the mournful marbles play!
Who hath not learned, in hours of faith,
The truth to flesh and sense unknown,
That Life is ever lord of Death,
And Love can never lose its own!"

Three local preachers have died within the year: Rev. S. Gaskins and Hamilton Welling, both of the McCordsville Charge, and Robert D. Lindsey, of the New Burlington Charge.

The death rate among the membership during the year has been very low; the pastors report only 114 deaths, and six charges report not a death.

Marriages.—Arthur Howell, L. E. Markin, D. C. Beatty, and E. D. Barker—all these four young men have been married during the year. We wish them and their young wives peace and happiness.

Retired Preachers.—There are 17 Retired Preachers connected with the district, four of whom do not live within the bounds of the district. The general health of these retired veterans has been generally good during the year. Two of these Brethren have been very near the border land and, while not strong now, they are able to be about. Brother J. E. Irwin, who celebrates at this Conference his fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the ministry, had a severe hemorrhage, which came very near ending his life. Brother I. W. Singer, who has moved from Richmond to Anderson, went under the severe ordeal of having one of his lower limbs amputated.

While Brother Irwin and Brother Singer are not strong, both are happy in the Lord and declare that above everything else in the world they love their brethren.

Changes.—There have been but few breaks in the appointments this year. C. B. Brooks broke down in health during the year; Herbert T. Prell was transferred from the Upper Iowa Conference and stationed at Indiana Avenue, Anderson; in November, D. E. Cruea was transferred to the Rock River Conference, and C. B. Dougherty was appointed to Gaston; in the fall E. J. Wickersham surrendered McCordsville to finish his college course at DePauw, and W. E. Aldred, a local preacher of Daleville, was appointed to McCordsville.

District Meetings.—The District Epworth League Convention was held at Summitville, and the District Mid-Year Rally at First Church, Anderson. Dr. Wilbur Sheridan rendered valuable service at the convention and at the mid-year rally.

The sub-district benevolent conventions were held early in the fall. The district was divided into five divisions and a chairman appointed for each division, and he was made responsible for the program of his division. The plan proved to be an excellent one, and the attendance and the interest justified in holding these conventions.

The revival conference was held at First Church, Anderson, in October. Dr. J. O. Randall was present and gave us a definite outline for systematic evangelism.

The Settlement Day conventions were held at Muncie and at Anderson. These were profitable and helpful.

The District Conference was held at High Street Church, Muncie Dr. Hollingshead and Bishop Theodore S. Henderson were on the program. The program was strong, the attendance and enthusiasm great, and this District Conference has gone down in the district Methodist history as the greatest District Conference during my four years of administration on the district.

Preachers' Aid Society Campaign.—The district fell into line for the campaign to increase the endowment for this society. The days selected were June 29 and July 6, 1913. The time was unfortunate on account of the extremely hot weather, which greatly depleted the congregations, but with all of this disadvantage the district raised over $5,000 of their $10,000 promised. Further arrangements will be made to push this campaign to a successful termination.

Salaries.—The following charges have increased their salaries over last year: Indiana Avenue, $300; Noble Street, $150; Eaton, $100

Fishers, $100; Hartford City Circuit, $36; Avondale, $170; High Street, $100; Madison Street, $100; Whiteley, $25; New Burlington, $300; Noblesville, $200; Noblesville Circuit, $58; Selma, $100; Shideler, $50; Summitville, $200.

Every-Member Canvass.—The district adopted the every-member canvass campaign. Thirty-two charges have fallen into line. The canvass on many of these charges has already been made; on a few charges the canvass will be made immediately after Conference. There are only six charges that are in doubt concerning the adoption of the new financial system.

Church and Parsonage Improvements.—There have been no new churches built this year. We lost one church by fire—Zion church, on the Summitville Circuit. The church was insured for $660; the membership has rallied and will immediately rebuild.

While there have been no churches built, church and parsonage improvements have amounted to $16,945. High Street Church stands at the head of the list with $5,000 improvements. The Sunday school had grown so rapidly that it had to have more room, so the old parsonage was annexed to the church, to increase the capacity for the Sunday school. The interior of the church was decorated, varnished, new lighting system, and other minor improvements. October 12, 1913, was set for the reopening of the church. Bishop David H. Moore was the preacher and Dr. W. D. Parr was the master of finance. Over $11,000 was raised, which more than covered the cost of the improvements and the indebtedness on the new parsonage.

Noblesville Circuit bought a new parsonage, costing $1,900. A few improvements on the parsonage and on the church increased the sum of improvements to $2,011.

Alexandria and Eaton improvements amount to $1,000 each. The parsonage at Alexandria was painted and repaired; the interior of the church decorated, the woodwork painted and varnished, and a new carpet, making it one of the most beautiful auditoriums in the Conference. The Eaton improvement consisted of putting in a new steam-heating plant.

Perkinsville Charge improvements cost $719, consisting of new windows, interior decorations, and new piano at Strawtown and a new piano at Beall's Chapel.

Noble Street improvements consist in frescoing, painting, carpet, chairs, porch, and waterworks, costing $700. The men of the Church gave 700 hours' work to carry out the plan of improvement.

First Church, Noblesville, has spent $600 on furnace repairs, redecorating, new furnace for parsonage, building walks and cement wall, and change of the church and parsonage lawn.

The Whiteley church has been improved at a cost of $536, covering the expense of new furnace, new carpet, redecorating the walls, and remodeling the basement.

Selma Charge reports $500 improvements, covering the cost of new electric plant for Selma church, furnace, repairs, and a new kitchen for the parsonage.

The following charges have made church and parsonage improvements costing between $200 and $500: New Burlington, $450; Hartford City, $434; Park Place and Daleville, $361; Hartford City Circuit, $360; Indiana Avenue, $350; Carmel, $350; Jolietville, $300; Avondale, $300; Desoto, $230; First Church, Anderson, $200.

The following charges have made improvements costing between $100 and $200: Albany, Fishers, Fortville, Gaston, Matthews, McCordsville, Selma, and Summitville.

The following charges have made improvements costing less than $100: Alexandria Circuit, Ingalls, Madison Street, Summitville Circuit, Westfield, and Yorktown.

These improvements consist in new heating plants, papering, varnishing, decorating, new windows, new roofs, new musical instruments, and general repairs.

Old Debts.—Many of the charges have been reducing their old debts. The amount of $17,565 has been paid on old debts. High Street, $4,900; Perkinsville, $1,041; Carmel, $700; Hartford City, $600; Noblesville, $557; Fortville, $522; Yorktown, $500; Alexandria, $400; Normal City, $280; Selma, $200.

The following charges have paid less than $200 on their old debts: Grace Church, Noble Street, Eaton, Gaston, Lapel, Avondale, New Burlington, Noblesville Circuit, Pendleton, Shideler, and Westfield.

Departments of Church Work.—Sunday Schools.—The Sunday schools show an increased interest all over the district. There are 77 Sunday schools, a gain of 5 over last year, with an enrollment of 12,886, which is a gain of almost 1,300 over last year. These Sunday schools use 2,799 Sunday School Advocates, 2,756 Sunday School Classmates, and 904 Sunday School Journals; a very large gain in the Sunday school literature over last year.

Many of the Sunday schools have grown so large that it has become a problem how to provide accommodations for them. This is true at High Street, Avondale; Madison Street, Whiteley, and several other places. More room is needed. Almost half of the population of Muncie is south of the railroads. This portion of the city has no adequate church building. I hope to see, before I go off the district, a church building erected or in the process of erection which will be adequate to the needs of the growing Methodism of the South Side; also to see preparations made for a new church building for High Street which will furnish ample room for its great Sunday school and growing membership.

Epworth League Chapters.—There is one new Epworth League chapter. We have 31 Epworth League chapters, a gain of one over last year, with a total membership of 1,669, which is a gain over last year.

Junior League Chapters.—We have 20 Junior League chapters, with a membership of about 900, which is about the same as last year.

Methodist Brotherhood.—We have three Methodist Brotherhood chapters: one at High Street, with a membership of 120; one at Yorktown, with a membership of 20; and a new chapter which has just been organized at Selma.

Ladies' Aid Societies.—We have 58 Ladies' Aid Societies, which are a great service to the Church. They raise large sums of money for improvements, repairs, and ministerial support. During the year they have raised almost $10,000.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society.—There are 18 Auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and 7 Auxiliaries of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. In almost all of these Auxiliaries the young people have been organized into the different Auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Church Literature.—The pastors report in 1914, 1,037 Western Christian Advocates taken; a gain of 237 over last year. There are 35 other Advocates and 400 Epworth Heralds. Adding the Sunday School Advocates and Classmates, we have over 7,000 religious papers going into the Methodist homes of the district.

Pastoral Labors.—This has been a busy year with the pastors. They have preached over 5,000 sermons and prepared over 1,800 new sermons, and made over 24,000 pastoral visits. They have baptized 930 adults, a gain of 500 over last year; and 226 children, a gain over last year. J. C. Woodruff, of Lapel, has baptized the greatest number of children—48. He is followed by D. C. Beatty, of Avondale, with 43. Nineteen pastors have reported not a single child baptized. This ought not to be, for on every charge there are children to be baptized and to be enrolled as probationers in the Church. The pastors have officiated at 404 funerals, Dr. G. D. Cleworth, of First Church, Anderson, leading the list with 74 funerals. The pastors have solemnized 248 marriages.

Benevolences.—Disciplinary Benevolences.—The figures that I have at hand show that there will be an increase in the missionary offerings of between $500 and $1,000, and also a good increase in the other Disciplinary benevolences.

The following charges report substantial gains in the Disciplinary Collections: High Street, Fortville, Hartford City, Noblesville, Selma, Albany, Alexandria, Alexandria Circuit, Lapel, Yorktown, Matthews, New Burlington, Avondale, Carmel, Eaton, and Jolietville.

Parish Abroad.—By a unanimous vote of preachers and laymen in attendance at the Settlement Day conventions, Muncie District adopted the Parish-Abroad Plan of the Foreign Missionary Society of our Church. We have been given two districts in India, called the Asansol-Pakur Parish. The Muncie District assumes the financial support of this great parish for next year.

Local Benevolences.—These are important, and must not be neglected nor forgotten. Among the most important is the Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis. This institution is doing a great work in the name of Jesus Christ. It was opened May 18, 1908. Since then it has treated almost 9,000 patients. During this period it has treated many guests of the Church, which means practically thousands of dollars to charity.

Temperance.—This moral reform is taking no backward step. We are meeting the same desperate crowd which all the time cries for personal liberty and yet practices the least the principle which they advocate, for as long as you just hold prayer-meetings and class-meetings, and let them alone as a law-breaking crowd, they carry out their principle of personal liberty; but the moment that you stand for law and its enforcement and righteousness, then violence begins. We have seen this truth demonstrated in the Muncie District this year. A "dry" detective was slugged in broad daylight, within half a block of the courthouse in Muncie. A constable who was trying to drive out the "blind tigers" at Ingalls was stabbed to death. Our pastor at Perkinsville, E. H. Taylor, who believes in law enforcement, for trying to drive out the "blind tigers" was stoned twice, and since the "wet" and "dry" election in Muncie several men have been badly injured.

In Vernon Township, Hancock County, the "wets" petitioned for an election; the "drys" went down to Greenfield and obtained the tax record of the "wet" petitioners, published it in a pamphlet form, and distributed it all over the township. Many of the "wets" were so disgusted with their own tax record that they stayed away from the polls, and "drys" of Fortville and McCordsville were happy over the great "dry" victory.

In Mt. Pleasant Township, Delaware County, the "wet" vote at the election was less than the number of the petitioners on the "wet" petition.

In every township in the district where an election has been held the "drys" have greatly increased their majority.

Three years ago Muncie went "wet" by 503 majority, but on the 9th of March the "wets" met their Waterloo, and the "drys" gained a great victory by changing this "wet" majority to a 462 "dry" majority, thus driving out of the city of Muncie twenty-nine saloons.

Membership.—During the period of 1900-1910, natural gas failed in the Muncie District. Taking this period and comparing the percentage of increase of population with the increase of membership, shows that Methodism has been and is still a vital spiritual force. With one exception, there has not been a town of 1,000 inhabitants and over but that the percentage of gain in membership during this period was 100 per cent or more greater than the percentage of gain in population. That exception is Hartford City; but the tide has turned there since 1910, and during the last four years the membership in Hartford City has made a gain of 45 per cent.

The following are the remarkable comparisons:

	POPULATION.	MEMBERSHIP.
Albany	Loss 39%	Gain 16%
Eaton	Loss 9%	Gain 16%
Yorktown	Gain 33%	Gain 120%
Pendleton	Loss 14%	Gain 23%
Fortville	Gain 16%	Gain 36%
Lapel	Gain 22%	Gain 61%
Summitville	Loss 3%	Gain 87%
Alexandria	Loss 29%	Gain 60%
Hartford City	Gain 5%	Loss 3%
Noblesville	Gain 6%	Gain 35%

During the period of 1896-1912:

	POPULATION.	MEMBERSHIP.
Anderson	Gain 32%	Gain 82%
Muncie	Gain 36%	Gain 72%

But the year 1913-1914 shows marvelous gains in membership of the Churches in Muncie District. The pastors report 13,139 members on the roll, a gain of 1,272 over last year, which is 11½ per cent gain. They report 854 probationers on the roll, making the entire membership 13,921, a gain of 1,517 over last year.

Evangelism.—The pastors have held 77 revival meetings, giving 1,975 days, which is equivalent to 5 2/3 years' service to this great work. They report 1,553 accessions on probation; 1,120 from probation, and 701 by letter, and 2,556 conversions. Last year they reported 1,372 conversions; this year 2,558, a gain of 1,286 over last year. They reported last year 682 accessions on probation, this year 1,553, a gain of 871. Last year 437 by letter, this year 701; a gain of 264.

Fifty-eight of the Churches hold prayer service, with an average attendance of 1,647, and 450 official members attending prayer-meetings. Fifty-three of the Churches hold class-meetings.

The most remarkable effect of this revival spirit has been on the prayer-meeting attendance. Some of the Churches are now holding prayer-meetings where the prayer-meeting had completely died out. The attendance at other prayer-meetings has increased to a remarkable extent. The most remarkable prayer-meeting is at the High Street Church, where the attendance runs from 300 to 500, and the majority are men.

Under the great revival influence and power over the district many men and women have given themselves to personal evangelism who had all their Christian lives been indifferent to this kind of work; men and women who were just nominal members have entered into clear and definite religious experience.

The charges report the following number of conversions: High Street, W. W. Martin, 451; First Church, G. D. Cleworth, 250; Whiteley, H. A. Kirk, 150; Desoto, E. E. DeWitt, 149; Hartford City, E. E. Trippeer, 144; Hartford City Circuit, R. I. Stone, 144; Avondale, D. C.

Beatty, 125; Westfield, L. E. Markin, 125; Madison Street, P. E. Greenwalt, 97; Shideler, G. F. Osbun, 75; Summitville, M. B. Graham, 75; New Burlington, J. L. Murr, 67; Alexandria. D. V. Williams, 65; Fortville, W. W. Wiant, 62; Noblesville, F. A. Hall, 51; Albany Circuit, C. M. Hobbs, 50; Noble Street, D. S. Jones, 50; Eaton, J. A. Patterson, 49; Matthews, A. G. Kiger, 46; Alexandria Circuit, Bert E. Jones, 36; Jolietville, A. E. Chastain, 33; Perkinsville, E. H. Taylor, 33; Grace Church, Burt W. Lewis, 30; Selma, J. F. Lutey, 28; Normal City, T. J. Johnson, 23; Carmel, H. E. Forbes, 21; Yorktown, G. H. Redding, 20.

The following charges between 10 and 20: Albany, C. E. White; Park Place and Daleville, Arthur Howell; Fishers, Herbert Perry; Gaston, C. B. Dougherty; Noblesville Circuit, J. A. Ruley.

Less than 10: Indiana Avenue. H. T. Prell; Ingalls, E. D. Barker; Lapel, J. C. Woodruff; McCordsville, W. E. Aldred; Pendleton, J. E. Williams.

I have been in this Conference sixteen years, nine of these years have been spent in the Muncie District. As far as I know this has been the most glorious year for evangelism in this district. The pastors have worked hard, been true, preached the old gospel. The Holy Ghost has honored their work and great results have come out of their toil, for which we sing,

"All hail the power of Jesus' Name;
  Let angels prostrate fall,
Bring forth the royal diadem,
  And crown Him Lord of all!"

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

William B. Freeland, District Superintendent.

With devout thanksgiving to Almighty God and with profound appreciation of the ministers and laymen of Richmond District, I bring to you, Bishop and brethren, my second annual report.

A survey of the religious activities of the territory with the district reveals some significant facts. The difficulties of aggressive work for the Kingdom are increased on every hand by the division of almost every community into a number of small religious organizations. It is the rule to find a Methodist Episcopal Church, a Friends Church, and either a Disciple or Newlight Church in each hamlet or village. There must be added to these various little sects of sporadic character like the Come-outer, the Heavenly Recruit, and the Seek-no-further. The result of such a condition is to prevent the united activities so necessary in presenting a front to evil, to preclude maintenance of the higher standards of work with respect to numbers, financial strength, and efficient ministers, and add confusion to that residuum of religious thought which our generation retains. It is a glaring example of the waste and inefficiency of our too much divided Protestantism.

We have eighty-one church buildings, and have maintained regular services in all of these but two. The membership of these societies varies from twelve to seven hundred. Fifty of them have fewer than one hundred members, and twenty of these have fewer than fifty members each. But the quality is in many respects unsurpassed anywhere in Methodism. Thirty chapters of the Epworth League and thirteen Junior societies number in the aggregate about two thousand members. The Woman's Foreign and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies are aggressive, and they have accomplished much for the spread of the evangel of the Christ. Men's Brotherhoods flourish in a few of the Churches, and Ladies' Aid Societies continue their work of supplementing the finances of the Churches in fifty-three places. Our seventy-seven Sunday schools enroll nearly fourteen thousand of all ages in life.

One year ago thirty-five commissioned men went forth to their assignments. Four of these changed their fields before the time of the autumn. Mahlon H. Krauss, supply at Third Church, Richmond, "joined the birds" in June, and went to the Presbyterians to do home missionary work in the vicinity of Chicago. The Rev. Sylvester Billheimer, "retired," assumed charge, and has the Church in the best condition within its history. July 15th, Ernest R. Ryder, supply at Centerville, was released to return with his wife to their native Adirondacks. Charles A. Mitchell has very acceptably completed the work of the year at that place. About September 15th, Guy W. Holmes, supply at Deerfield, went to Pittsburgh, Pa., and was there married to an estimable bride, but the momentum of his return carried him on through to a charge in the Logansport District, whence some form of released energy bore him to that larger field of the State of Texas. Clyde S. Miller, who assumed the work at Deerfield, has wrought well. Rev. Reuben T. Laslie failed in health and was released from the Kennard Charge, where he was much esteemed. Sorrowfully he went to his former home in Kentucky to rest and await the result of the disease which was depleting his vigor. J. N. Simmons has completed the year with good results.

W. B. Freeland.

The death of Bishop Bowman, March 3d, left Dr. Milton Mahin as the senior member of the Conference. He is cheerful and happy in his home at Newcastle, though he is in pain from wasting disease. Our brethren of the district visited him in a body December 2d, and stood in his presence to hear his words as if before an oracle. George H. Hill, D. D., at Indianapolis, continues to live a life like the gentleness of the summer eventide. Frank G. Browne, Ph. D., now lives at Newcastle. Arthurian in character, but holden like the Man of the Withered Hand, he awaits the final result of his malady in submission. Hugh J. Norris resides at Winchester, where he continues to labor as his strength warrants.

The health of the members of our pastors' families has in the main been excellent. A bright son gladdens the home of Brother and Sister Cates at Grace Church, Richmond. He is called Carleton Marshall Cates. It is hoped that he will be true to his names, and honor letters, laws, and religion. Brother and Sister Sweeney, at Modoc, have welcomed to their home the mascot of the district and named him Richmond. May this Lilliputian be an incarnation of all our virtues! April 27th, Orange S. Harrison went out from the earthly circle of friends to be with his co-laborers of former years, our honored departed ones, of whose bequest of righteousness we are unworthy. He had been a member of our Conference forty-five years. Mrs. Bertha Bunner, grievously mourned by her husband, and sorely missed by many friends, unexpectedly slipped away from earthly home at Spiceland to her first of the "many mansions" on the 19th of November.

It is slowly dawning upon the minds of some of our brethren that there is really such a thing as district solidarity. The man who ignores district meetings, district enterprises, the district program has great difficulty in understanding why the district does not do more for him. While he is disloyal to his benevolences, to pastoral oversight, and to his District Superintendent, it seemed unjust that his own interests are not made paramount. But though he prate about rank injustice and sweat like a béhemoth, he will deceive no one but himself. Verily, his obtuseness is great! It is a source of great satisfaction to me personaly that so many of our men are out to make our district show a commendable progress. All of our concerted movements have been reasonably successful except the Preachers' Aid Endowment Campaign. The religious bodies around us publish statistics like the following: Number of ministers who receive $400 or more, 43; number who receive less than $400 each, 25; number who have no stated compensation, 16; total, 84. Our own ministers of the district receive an average of $916 and house rent. They are therefore looked upon as sons of Crœsus, who do not need any aid. Our laymen were not sympathetic. The Epworth League held its district convention June 16th to 18th at Middletown. It was well attended, and the district officers are much encouraged at the outlook. Sub-district missionary conventions in every charge but four were held. We generously published reports of the work of our preachers, that the other District Superintendents might know who were loyal to the plan. Veterans say that they never attended such successful meetings before. I was very ably assisted by Rev. Charles H. Smith, our District Missionary Secretary. An efficiency congress was convened at Economy, September 30th. Its sessions continued for two days. The practical effects of the able discussions were marked. We were out for business for the King. But the high order of the program was not the most impressive factor. There was a feeling that there must be a larger loyalty to the district, to the Church, to the Galilean whose message we speak. I have never seen any meeting which impressed me that we are learning our task so much as this one indicated.

Numerous laymen attended the National convention of Methodist Men at Indianapolis, October 28th to 31st. They were impressed with the importance of better financial work in our Churches. Some good results are already apparent.

Our debt-paying record shows that $3,000 has been paid on the church at Cambridge City; $2,650 paid at Lewisville on the parsonage, and $100 on the Dublin church; $2,200 on the Union City church; $358 at Dunkirk; $200 at Wilkinson; $137 at Ridgeville; $100 at Centerville, and smaller sums at other places. Improvements on our property have been made at the following places: Dunkirk, $1,020; Redkey, $800; Lynn, $860; Newcastle, $714; Knightstown, $600; Modoc, $458; Philadelphia, $475; Richmond, First Church, $350; Farmland, $300; Deerfield, $330; Union City, $220; Centerville, $250; Maxwell, $378; Parker, $200; Spartanburg, $190; and lesser sums at nearly every other place in the district.

On the Salamonia Charge, Rev. T. S. Haddock, pastor, the old parsonage was sold and a new one purchased for the sum of $1,500. It is a much better house than that price would indicate, and I am glad to report that every dollar of the purchase price is paid. At Kennard a house was purchased for parsonage purposes. It will be improved so that it will be a good home for a pastor there; $300 has been paid, and more is in sight. The Cleveland church, Charlottesville Charge, was in a poor state of repair. Situated across the street from the camp-ground, where so many attend from a distance, it was thought to be of little credit to Methodism. Led by Rev. R. I. Black, who is a master in such enterprises, the people rebuilt the structure in modern style. It is beautiful and well worth $5,000 in its present form. The dedication occurred January 4th. Dr. Parr pledged in good subscriptions enough to pay the bills. The expenditure was $3,500. At Maxville, on the Farmland Charge, one of the most beautful and one of the best equipped rural churches in the entire Conference is in process of building. John W. Clayton, a respected citizen of the community, not a member of a Church, had left a bequest of $1,000, which had increased until it was worth $1,200, for the Trustees of the Church. Mrs. L. N. Davis, widow of a much-esteemed physician, gave $5,000. The pastor, W. J. Huffman, assisted by members, raised enough more from the members and friends of the Church to build a structure to cost at least $10,000. It will be dedicated in June. The corner-stone bears the name, "Maxville Methodist Episcopal Church, L. N. Davis Memorial."

Salaries were increased at the first of the year from $50 to $500 at each of the following places: Economy, Kennard, Millgrove, Modoc, Parker, Richmond—First Church, Richmond—Third Church, Salamonia, Shirley, Union City, and Williamsburg. There is a reasonable assurance that ten of our charges at the least will make further advances for next year. Grace and Fifth Street Churches have been so well served by Rev. Arthur Cates that they will enter into a closer union and keep house together at the classic stand on the corner of Tenth and North A, in the city of Richmond. They will be at home to all callers after April 6th. The salary will be at least $1,500. Union city sustains its increase of $500 and pays a fine increase to the benevolences.

Advance reports from the pastors concerning the benevolences indicate an advance in almost every cause. The gain in Foreign Missions is about 10 per cent. Home Missions will be about 6 or 7 per cent. The remaining Disciplinary benevolences have been increased by faithful work in nearly every case. Unless final revisions reduce our reports, the relative increases will be fairly satisfactory. If we can finance our new members received this year for benevolences, the increase should continue. In almost every case where the pastor did his work early in the year he succeeded; wherever he delayed, he failed.

The work of evangelism has been given its very important place. Revivals began early and have continued until the opening of the Conference session. Our men have held their own meetings in the main; in a few instances pastors of adjoining charges have aided one another, to their mutual profit. They have spent about 245 weeks in their campaigns, or an average of seven weeks each. The old question, "What becomes of the pin?" is now changed to "What becomes of the convert?" The waste at this point is appalling, yet our gains in membership indicate that pastors have been faithful in enrolling the converts as well as the transfers. Of the special meetings, those on the Williamsburg Charge are notable. In an unpromising field Rev. J. W. Zerbe has had 180 conversions. The converts are people of character and influence; many of them are men. Rev. E. C. Hallman has reported 141 at Lewisville, where he held a meeting of great power. On the Deerfield work, Rev. Clyde S. Miller, assisted by Brother and Sister Mount, of Richmond, has reported 66, and also 35 at another appointment. Charlottesville reports 90; Millgrove, 87; Parker, 74; Spartanburg, 74; Greenfield, 55. Those which number from twenty-five to fifty are as follows: Maxwell, Redkey, Lynn, Newcastle, Kennard, Fountain City, Union City, and Shirley. Eight others number from ten to twenty, and the remainder almost without exception have a few to swell the total to 1,800. This report would not be complete without a mention of the great tabernacle meeting in Richmond. Rev. I. E. Honeywell came to us at the first of the year to lead the people of seventeen Churches. The opposition was similar to that of the devils who besought Jesus to let them alone. The conflict was fierce, but the Spirit of God found men in their sins. Perhaps the staid old city never had such an awakening. For five weeks the battle raged, and when the returns came in there were seventeen hundred confessions. The Churches in Richmond have since received into their membership about 250 persons. The local-option election which followed, much to our humiliation, went "wet," though the majority of the former election was reduced five hundred.

Within the year I have been able to meet all Quarterly Conferences to the number of 140. I have preached 147 times and made about 130 briefer addresses. The work has been hard, and the burdens heavy; but results have justified the efforts of myself and of my coadjutors. Our quest has had all the romance of that knighthood to which the Christian hero is devoted. It may not put us into print alongside of Thor and Hercules, but the record is written on high. With fiery hearts we have followed the gleam. The sweet surprise of Divine approval has greeted us; gently has He spoken unto us along the winding ways. The glory of some of our prosaic toil He writes so high up in the skies that it is beyond the angels' grasp. So may our lives be drawn:

"As the dissolving warmth of dawn may fold
A half unfrozen dew-globe, green, and gold,
And crystalline, till it becomes a wingéd mist,
  And wanders up the vault of the blue day,
  Outlives the noon, and on the sun's last ray
Hangs o'er the sea, a fleece of fire and amethyst."

WABASH DISTRICT.

M. S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Mr. President and Brethren: This report includes a few principles of administration and excludes interesting statistics, most of which will appear elsewhere. Our Year-Book should not be burdened with a duplication of facts.

A Word Personal.—The many courtesies extended by pastors, their families, and by the laymen are highly appreciated and, as far as possible, reciprocated.

Necrology.—Rev. Almon Greenman, who in the zenith of his power was like one of the cedars of Lebanon, "passed from the feebleness of age on earth to the eternal youth of the heavenly life" on February 28, 1914.

Rev. E. B. Brown, pastor of Warren Circuit, after a brief illness was received into the ranks of the Church triumphant on August 29, 1913.

Pastoral Changes.—J. F. Cottingham, a missionary returning from the Philippine Islands, was appointed to Sweetser. Upon his arrival Dr. Oldham informed me that on account of impaired health Brother Cottingham would be given a furlough. On May 27th, John F. Blocker was transferred from the Indiana Conference and appointed to Sweetser.

Dr. J. K. Cecil, of First Church, Wabash, requested an exchange with Earle F. Naftzger, of Spokane, Wash. This request was granted, taking effect July 1, 1913.

On September 17, 1913, F. J. Robins was employed to take the place of E. D. Imler, at Highland Avenue, who was excused to attend school at Drew Theological Seminary. On September 19, 1913, Leslie O. Winslow was appointed to Warren Circuit. Bishop Burt transferred Sanford McDonald from the Michigan Conference and appointed him to Roanoke, made vacant by the release of C. R. Booth to attend school at Garrett Biblical Institute.

M. S. Marble.

On September 20th, A. D. Buck, pastor at Mount Etna, announced to his Quarterly Conference that his pastoral relation with the charge was closed. On October 17th he placed in my hands a signed request for a Certificate of Location. The next day he was transferred to the Holston Conference, where his request was granted.

At the meeting of laymen at Indianapolis, last October, Bishop Smith informed me that he had transferred W. E. Shafer from the Liberty Mills Circuit to the Missouri Conference, and had appointed him to Lathrop. Learning that a young minister in another Church desired to join the itineracy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, I informed him of the vacancy at Liberty Mills. He visited me, and I tendered him the charge on condition that he unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church before taking charge of the work. About two months later I found him in possession without having complied with the condition. For sufficient reason I permitted him to remain, but the work was difficult, and he left the charge without my knowledge of his intentions when it was too late to secure another supply. Liberty Mills has suffered much this year, but I am sure that this work will respond to able leadership and soon rank among our best circuits.

Detached Service.—J. W. Cain and E. L. Jones are doing good work in their respective fields assigned them by Bishop McDowell upon the request of this Conference.

Special Mention.—The Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies, the Epworth League, the Ministerial Lyceum, each held interesting and profitable conventions.

Some old debts have been paid, valuable improvements have been made in many places, subscriptions aggregating $55,000 for a new church at Huntington taken. A magnificent new church has been completed in Columbia City and will be dedicated in May.

Sunday schools, educational institutions, various philanthropies and reforms have all received the fostering care of pastors and people. Brotherhoods and Ladies' Aid Societies have contributed largely to the success of our work.

The year has been unusually fruitful in evangelistic endeavor. Nearly every pastor reports a splendid revival, with conversions aggregating more than 2,000. While many have been gathered into the Church, the total membership will not be greatly in excess of last year. Pastors have labored hard to reach the standard, which is a net gain of 10 per cent. Some report to me that they could not find the number reported last year. Making a correct report this year prevents them from exhibiting the real gain. When asked for advice in this regard, I have invariably emphasized the law concerning non-resident and resident members and the duty of the Committee on Church Records. Our gain in membership promises to be more than one thousand.

Ministerial Support.—The Church is the expression of the life of God in laying upon itself a tremendous task, from which it can not shrink except by the forfeiture of its own life. Leading men to God through Christ, and building Christ-like character, demands peculiar leadership possessed of clear conceptions of the principles of spiritual architecture applied in human life. Such leadership costs the price of severe thinking and living up to the standards of enlightened conscience which is consecration. To be efficient it must have an adequate financial support. If this is withheld at any point, a feeble, deteriorating Church life is inevitable. In superintending Wabash District we have emphasized (1) the supreme task of the Church, (2) the type of leadership which the task demands, (3) the financial support necessary for the highest efficiency in the leadership of said task. The law of the Church classifies ministerial support as follows: (1) Bishops, (2) District Superintendents, (3) Pastors, (4) Conference Claimants. In addition to this, special provision is made for some effective preachers doing detached service. The law places the responsibility for providing for the four above named items of ministerial support upon the Stewards in the local Church. The District Superintendent has found it difficult to secure proper respect for this law, particularly in circuits, and stations numerically weak. The people as a rule respond liberally with their support for the ministry, but many Quarterly Conferences are unwilling to place the full amount for ministerial support in the budget for the local Church expense. In many instances the pastor must collect the Bishop's claim, in a few cases the District Superintendent's claim, and in a majority of charges he must collect the apportionment for Conference Claimants. Thus unwisely an unlawful burden is placed upon the pastor, which greatly impairs his efficiency as a shepherd. In this respect we should make our work and the bookkeeping square with the law of the Church.

While the law prorating the receipts for ministerial support has served the most salutary purpose of increasing the amounts for Conference Claimants, it is nevertheless unsatisfactory. It operates automatically when there is a deficit, requiring the same to be shared by Bishops, Superintendents, Pastors, and Conference Claimants. The law touches no one in detached service. Bishops may feel it slightly, Superintendents a little more, pastors much more, while in our Conference, where claimants receive only about 62 per cent of their legal allowance, they suffer a great deal more. The first step in freeing our claimants from this burden is for our Conference to ask for the full legal allowance. The second step is a wise and equitable adjustment of all claims at the beginning of the year. The third step is pastoral efficiency. Not all deficits are traceable to pastoral delinquency, but some are, and a law compelling innocent parties to suffer on this account can never be satisfactory. The fourth step is loyalty to the Church on the part of the claimant. He should regard his support as a compensation not only for past service, but also for such service as he is still able to render. Being left without an appointment is not necessarily being left without something to do.

I regret to say that while in some charges the campaign for the Preachers' Aid Society was ably conducted, with good results, in most charges it failed to meet expectations. I recommend that the General Secretary report what has been done in each charge, and that the campaign be renewed with vigor, and let no preacher be satisfied till the full amount, which is an average of one dollar per member, is paid to the Treasurer of the Society.

Settlement Day was observed early in December, with gratifying results. At that time March 16th was fixed as the day for a simultaneous every-member canvass. Very encouraging reports have come from many Churches. Several Quarterly Conferences have fixed the pastor's support for next year, in some cases increasing the same.

Maintaining the Itinerancy.—No argument is here intended, either for or against the time limit in the pastorate. Its removal increased the responsibility of the Bishop, and those whom he has appointed to assist him, for the preservation of the itinerancy more than any other equal number of men in the Church. The itinerancy can not be destroyed, or even impaired, without great loss to the Church. The law makes no vacancies, which necessitates a thorough knowledge of every Church and pastor in his district if the Superintendent is to be of value to the Bishop who changes preachers from one pastoral charge to another. This is clearly seen when a necessary change involves the interests of charges where the necessity does not exist and is not desired. To overcome the difficulties thus arising, the wise District Superintendent will use his best endeavors to increase the usefulness of the pastor where a change is desired, thus making it easier for the Bishop to place him where a change is not desired, and, because of his increased efficiency, will be more likely to succeed in his new field. Meanwhile he is constantly reminding the Churches that the interest of all is the interest of each, and the interest of each is the interest of all, that sacrifice and burden-bearing is essential to growth and strength, that co-operation and not .competition is the ruling idea here, as it should be everywhere. Thus does he increase confidence in and preserve the integrity of the itinerancy, which is one of the chief factors in the unequaled achievements of Methodism.

Foremost Principles in Administration.—In administrating the affairs of Wabash District I have endeavored to keep two things ever before me. First, the protection of the good name and influence of each Church against its foes, both within and without. These Churches have been builded into the confidence of the people and are wielding tremendous influence for righteousness through the toil and sacrifice of constructive personalities for many years. I have resolutely set myself against irresponsible, reckless, bungling, superficial, sacrilegious forces that would wantonly destroy the achievements of skilled workmen, and permanently destroy the usefulness of the local Church. Second, the preservation of the reputation of the pastor as a preacher and shepherd of the flock of God. It may be said that these are trite sayings, easily uttered, which may be true; but let it also be said that, as principles to be practiced in administration, they are transcendent in importance, and their difficulties are equaled only by their importance. It is a pleasure to say that among the many laymen who have freely counseled with me concerning their pastors, the unkind word is exceedingly rare. Two things are manifest: the people respect the ministry, and the character of the preachers commands confidence. Nevertheless we are to-day precisely where the seventy were, "Lambs among wolves." The spirit of the world to-day is illustrated by the snap, snarl, howl, and exposed tooth of the wolf. Some faithful sentinel must exercise everlasting vigilance in protecting the good name of our preachers. Meanwhile each preacher must exemplify the apostolic conviction that he is commissioned of God and bring his personality under the dominion of the apostolic injunction, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

While recognizing the need of a better financial plan for all our Churches in this hour of expansion and missionary endeavor, nevertheless we would urge the ministers of the North Indiana Conference to give themselves more earnestly to the great cause of soul-winning. There is absolutely no substitute for this one great call of the ministry; neither can we ever surrender this work to the traveling evangelist, however good, and ever hope to meet the ten per cent increase in our membership. We hereby recommend the use of every good means to secure that end. The Sunday school, the Junior and Senior Leagues, the Adult Bible Class, Brotherhood, Decision Day, Watch Night, and Sunday evening services should bring a continuous evangelism.

The fact that evangelism has had so large a place in all the addresses during this Conference session, particularly those of Bishops McDowell and Henderson, and Secretary W. F. Oldham, and the evident purpose on the part of President Geo. R. Grose, of DePauw, and President Monroe Vayhinger, of Taylor, to preserve the evangelistic note in our institutions of learning, inspires hope that a day of sweeping revivals of religion is about to dawn upon us, and we rejoice that already in many localities all over the country great awakenings have already occurred, leading us to believe that the faithful preaching of our ministers will soon bring the Methodist Episcopal Church into her own.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We rejoice in the constant growth of this great organization for the propagation of the gospel, and the hold it has to-day upon the Church. Last year there was an increase of 280,000 volumes in the sales of 1913 over 1912.

The Bible is now printed in 542 languages, and is used in fifty languages in the United States. It is now and has been for years the greatest selling book printed.

It is the only text-book for home and foreign missions.

We rejoice at the prospect of establishing a distribution agency of the Scriptures at the Panama Canal after it is opened for traffic, and the plan of a great display of the society at the San Francisco Exposition.

The heathen nations were never as accessible to the Scriptures as now, and a great harvest is certain to follow the introduction of this greatest evangelist.

We urge each pastor of this Conference to see that the full amount asked by the society is raised by each charge for next year.

We appreciate the fine presentation of the claims of this society by Dr. S. H. Kirkbride, and rejoice again in the splendid past and more splendid future of this great society.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Twenty years ago a widespread and active interest was created within the Churches in behalf of those in the army and navy that are under the flag of our great country for better conditions spiritually, asking for more chaplains and for chapels, libraries, and other necessary equipment. This met with a ready response and made quite an impression on Congress and the army, and appropriations were made by Congress to the amount of $3,500,000 for the establishment of reading rooms, chapels, and gymnasia, and by so doing drunkenness and gambling ceased to be so general among the many that march under the flag, and whose lives we should be more interested than we would in that flag we love.

It is felt by the chaplains of the army, navy, and the National Guard that the men under arms are not on the heart of the Christian public as they should be. We must not forget that most of them are young men—250,000 in number.

Prayers are seldom heard in public assemblies in their behalf, and they are seldom referred to in any religious press, and with exceptional temptation and soul-peril to which they are subject, they surely need our sympathy and prayers.

We believe that the attention of the public should be called to the service these men are rendering, and that they should be given to feel that in this Christian Republic there is a profound sympathy and interest in their behalf.

In order to promote that interest, the first Sunday before the 4th of July has been designated to be observed in the Churches as Army and Navy Day, when with appropriate services the men under the flag may receive special consideration. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the North Indiana Conference endorse the program of the chaplains, and that the day designated be set apart as Army and Navy Day in all of our Churches, and that a strong committee be appointed to co-operate with like committees from other Churches to promote the welfare of the men under the flag.

And that the committee be requested to report to the field secretary, Rev. Orville J. Nave, U. S. Army Chaplain, Los Angeles, Cal., the work done.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your committee on auditing the various accounts of the Conference submit the following report:

Conference Secretary.—We have carefully checked up the accounts of the Conference Secretary, and find that there is a balance in his hand of $33.60. We therefore recommend that this amount be turned over to him.

Conference Treasurer.—We have carefully audited the Treasurer's accounts, and find them correct, both in cash and vouchers, as will be shown on his balance sheet.

Board of Stewards.—We have carefully checked up the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards for last year, and find the same correct, with a balance of $127.52 in his hands.

Pro-rating Claims.—In the pro-rating of claims for ministerial support the statistical record shows that there are only a few who have not actually and carefully carried out the instructions of the Discipline.

Conference Corporation.—The accounts of the Treasurer of the Conference Corporation were not in the hands of the Auditing Committee, but the books will be audited when turned over to the new Treasurer of the Corporation.

Sustentation Fund.—The receipts and disbursements of the Sustentation Fund in the hands of the District Superintendents for the past Conference year have been carefully audited and found correct.

Flood Fund.—We have also carefully checked up the accounts of the Treasurer of the Flood Fund, and found them correct, with a balance on hand of $216.87.

In order that there may be a systematic keeping of all the accounts of the Conference:

We recommend that in the Treasurer's balance sheet there be shown the receipts in cash and vouchers and the disbursements in the same manner to the various causes.

We recommend that the Board of Stewards secure a permanent disbursement record for their use, in which all apportionments, claims, and disbursements to the various claims may be kept.

We recommend that the District Superintendents secure pocket ledgers in which they may keep a permanent record of the receipts and disbursements of the Sustentation Funds of their districts.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

The Deaconess Work in the Methodist Episcopal Church has prospered during the year. In the field of hospitals there has been a most marked material development. In new building enterprises nearly $400,000 has been expended. Plans have been made and some building begun for the expenditure of at least an equal amount during 1914. Two new training-school buildings, costing about $200,000, have been erected. Besides these, Deaconess Homes, a Home for Aged Women, and Children's Homes have either been completed or are in course of construction. In 1913 the movement was twenty-five years officially old. There is now under deaconess management property to the value of nearly $6,000,000. Deaconesses and probationers are reported to the number of 1,023. In the training schools there are 452 pupils. The Pension Funds now in hand amount to about $200,000.

There has been an increase of interest on the part of young women. It is a pleasure to report that larger numbers are looking toward the deaconess movement as a life vocation. We call the attention of pastors to the opportunity this field offers, and urge that they exert their influence in turning promising young women toward this growing work in our Church.

We note with hopefulness the organization of the General Deaconess Board. We will welcome the Corresponding Secretary to our Churches.

Miss Blanche Brackney has been transferred to the Indiana Conference during the year, and Miss Abigail Sechrist has been transferred from the Rock River Conference to the North Indiana Conference and her license renewed. Miss Carrie B. Plasterer, of Huntington, Ind., has received an honorable discharge, which was endorsed by this Conference Board.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

J. H. Runkle, Chairman. U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

(1) A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, and colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examination.

(2) Similar certificates may also be received in all studies not Biblical or theological from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine as to whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

(3) Certificates presented for credit must show the amount of work done, text-books used, year in which the work was done, and the grade given by the Examiner. If no grade is furnished in a certificate presented for credit, the only minimum passing grade (70) will be allowed.

(4) All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or the seat of the Annual Conference. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of students in the mission field or in school outside of territory covered by the Conference. In the exception stated above, the student will be required to pass on questions prepared by this Board and in the presence of some one designated by the Chairman of the Board.

(5) All reports of books read, essays and sermons must be in the hands of the Registrar not later than Tuesday night preceding the opening session of the Conference.

(6) "Biblical Hermeneutics" of the Second Year is to be taken by the Third Year men instead of "System of Christian Doctrine."

(7) Fourth Year men are to take "Decisive Hour of Christian Missions" in the Second Year instead of "System of Christian Doctrine."

(8) Students of the Third Year may substitute "Jesus and the Gospels" of the First Year for "Christian Doctrine" of the Third Year.

(9) "Biblical Hermeneutics" or "Jesus and the Gospels" may be substituted for "Christian Doctrine" in the Third Year, as the Examiner may require.

(10) The Mid-year Institute will be held at Waterloo, October 12-16, 1914.

(11) Themes for sermons and essays for the year 1914-15 are as follows: First Year Sermon, "Redemption." Essay for Second Year, "An Efficient Sunday School." Third Year Sermon, choice between "The Atonement" and "Christian Assurance." All sermons and essays must bear the date when written, and are requested to be sent in thirty days prior to the Annual Conference.

(12) The post-graduate work for the ensuing year will be in charge of J. E. Williams and B. Earle Parker, who will gladly give information by mail concerning its details. The field of study will be social service.

BOARD OF STEWARDS—RECOMMENDATIONS.

Believing that a due regard for the law of the Church and the rights of the Conference claimants requires that, as rapidly as discretion will allow, we approach the time when the amounts apportioned to the pastoral charges, plus the other funds, shall meet in full the claims of all claimants upon the Conference funds; and believing that there is in the Conference, both among the ministers and the laymen, an increasing interest in and loyalty to the claims of the retired ministers, the widows of deceased ministers, and their dependent children, as manifest in increased collections, both for immediate distribution among the claimants and endowment for the Preachers' Aid Society;

We recommend, First, That there be apportioned to the several districts for the support of Conference Claimants for the ensuing year an amount equal to twenty-five cents per member in full connection, and that for the succeeding years there be added to this amount each year a sum equal to five cents per member in full connection, until the amount thus apportioned, together with other funds for annual distribution in the hands of the Conference Board of Stewards and the Preachers' Aid Society, shall meet the full claims of all claimants upon the Conference funds.

We recommend that for next year the funds for division into Annuity and Special be divided in the ratio of eighty per cent Annuity and twenty per cent Special.

Second, That we endorse the action of the representative body of Annual Conference organizations in behalf of Conference Claimants, gathered at Chicago, February 27, 1914, which recommended the inauguration of an intensive campaign, that the full amount of five million dollars asked of the Church for endowment of the various Annual Conference organizations and the Board of Conference Claimants may be raised during this quadrennium.

We also endorse the proposition of the Board of Conference Claimants to hold two large mass-meetings of representatives of Annual Conference organizations in behalf of Conference Claimants; and other persons interested in Conference Claimants, for the purpose of perfecting plans for a great co-operative campaign, which will unite the Connectional Board and the Annual Conferences in one cause.

We recommend that L. M. Krider and A. B. Kline be delegates, and A. G. Neal and D. O. Skillen, alternates to represent the Board of Stewards and Preachers' Aid Society of this Conference at the aforesaid meetings.

Third, That while we believe that the distribution of this fund to the charges ought to be left to the districts, yet to secure uniformity we would advise that the Equitable Apportionment Plan, which is applied in the distribution of the benevolences, be applied to the distribution of the Conference Claimants' Fund to the charges.

Signed by the Board of Conference Stewards:

L. M. KRIDER, A. G. NEAL,
DAVID WELLS, F. M. LACY.

CLASS MEETINGS.

Realizing that the class meetings in our Churches are not as progressive and as largely attended by our membership as our Sunday schools, we believe to be due largely to the deplorable fact that the class meeting is underrated. The leadership too often is handed out as an honorary compliment and continues until death without consideration of his efficiency. We are confident that the class meeting is not antedated, and that it is the one distinguishing characteristic of Methodism that needs to be revived and equipped; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That we recommend that the pastors shall insist on the appointment of efficient leaders, and exhort them to qualify by taking the prescribed course of study.

Second, That while we do not ask that less zeal be given to our Sunday school program, we do urgently plead that the same careful administration and zealous activity be applied to quicken the class meetings, suggesting as helps: Class competition for attendance and program; less pastor and more class leader administration; co-operation between Sunday school and class meeting; make your Sunday school teachers class leaders of their respective classes; popularizing the class meetings by brevity, good program, and deep spiritual fellowship.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

With a realization of the place the press occupies in the dissemination of religious truth and the establishment of the Kingdom of God, we rejoice in the success of the publications of the Methodist Book Concern.

With special pleasure we note the increasing interest of our constituency in the periodicals which circulate in local territory, as shown by the growing lists of subscribers to the Western Christian Advocate and the Epworth Herald, and we pledge to these periodicals our heartiest support in their efforts to reach every Methodist home.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE.

Whereas, The multiplicity of non-official appeals for financial assistance constantly increases, as does the tremendous summons to meet the needs of the day as felt by our own great Benevolent Boards; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That in harmony with General Conference action, we admit to our pulpits for presentation and financial appeal only those causes which bear official recognition of the Church, namely our Disciplinary benevolences and such other benevolent interests as are recognized by the Annual Conference—Sustentation, Indiana Methodist Hospital, Home for the Aged at Warren, Ind., the Anti-Saloon League, and the Preachers' Aid Society.

Second, That no exception of emergency character be made without the consent of the local Official Board.

Third, That the Preachers' Aid Society have right of way for this year in those Churches where the endowment campaign has not been completed.

Fourth, That we recognize for this year, in view of the immediate danger, the very special appeal to save St. Paul Church, Elkhart.

CONFERENCE REPORTS.

Whereas, In the very nature and magnitude of the case, the work of the Conference Board of Stewards is both important and difficult, requiring much time and great labor, and forbidding haste; and,

Whereas, Any delay on the part of any pastor in reporting his collections to the Conference Treasurer seriously interferes with the proper consideration of the claims before the Board of Stewards; therefore,

Resolved, First, That the pastors of the charges are instructed that, in case they are by any circumstances prevented from being present at the opening of the Conference, to forward their reports by mail to the Conference Treasurer, so that they may be received by him on the first day of the session; and,

Second, That the names of those charges and pastors failing to report in person or by mail on the first day of the session shall be called in open Conference on the second day of the session, immediately after the reading of the journal, and that such failure to report shall be made a matter of record.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the journals of the Muncie, Ft. Wayne, and Goshen Districts, and find the reports carefully kept.

The journal of the Goshen District deserves special mention for the way in which the reports are classified, i. e., the reports of each charge being filed together and thus appearing in the records.

Inasmuch as these journals are to be historical records of work done and kept on file, the committee commends the District Superintendents and Secretaries for the care and preservation of these records.

C. B. Dougherty,
G. H. Redding.

EDUCATION.

We can not emphasize too strongly the work of our Board of Education and Church Schools in developing the highest intellectual life of our young people and setting before them the noblest ideals of Christian character and service. We commend the efforts of the University Senate to standardize our schools and bring them to a higher state of efficiency.

Theological Schools.—We are entering upon an age that calls for a leadership in Christian work that is the equal of the leadership in all the great organized movements of our day. Our Lord's work is first in importance in the life of the world. If it comes to its own and holds it in the midst of the great competing interests of the day, we must have men not only of religious piety and spiritual zeal, but of mental culture and breadth of vision second to none. We would therefore urge that young men coming to our Conference for admission would seriously consider this requirement of the day and that they take advantage of the great opportunities open to them in our splendidly equipped theological schools. Three of these readily accessible to the members of our Conference are Garrett Biblical Institute, of Evanston, Ill.; Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., and Boston School of Theology. These institutions are constantly adding to their already strong Faculties new men who are experts in the new activities of the Church. Sociological study and evangelistic work at first hand in organized missions are being instituted. Boston School of Theology has recently put in a chair of Social Service, under the leadership of Prof. Harry F. Ward. Garrett Biblical Institute has Dr. Lynn Harold Hough in its chair in Church History. Drew Theological Seminary has recently added to the department of Homiletics Dr. Wallace MacMullen, and Dr. F. Watson Hannan to the chair of Pastoral Theology. The opportunities afforded by these institutions for special preparation should be appreciated and embraced to the fullest extent by our young men.

WOMEN'S COLLEGES.—The Woman's College at Jacksonville, Ill., and Goucher College, Baltimore, Md., have the unqualified endorsement of the committee. Their splendid equipment and high teaching standards, right environment and control, together with their large and increasing attendance, attest their worth to the Church and deserved popularity.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.—This school is constantly developing under the wise leadership of Prof. Monroe Vayhinger. Under the Endowment Secretary it has made progress in the raising of funds for improvement and endowment purposes. We congratulate the Trustees on securing the services of Rev. C. J. Everson to direct this part of its work. The emphasis of Taylor upon the deep religious life is recognized, while the low cost of living at the school makes it possible for many to obtain an education. We recommend the appointment of Rev. R. A. Morrison and Rev. T. M. Hill as Trustees of Taylor University.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.—After many years of earnest effort, a period of unusual success and rejoicing is near at hand. It is most gratifying to us that May 27, 1914, has been fixed as opening day, when it is announced that President Woodrow Wilson will be the principal speaker. We are pleased with the report that the active endowment has been enlarged to $500,000, and will soon be increased to $1,500,000. We have been greatly favored with the visit of Chancellor Franklin Hamilton and the Rev. F. M. Stone, D. D., of our own Conference, at this session, and we have been encouraged by the messages of asurance and hope which they bring us. Dr. Stone is to be congratulated upon the fact that in the last six years he has raised more than $300,000 for this university.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.—DePauw University, under the efficient and inspiring leadership of Pres. George R. Grose, D. D., is enjoying great prosperity. About $190,000 were added to the endowment within the year, and $30,000 have been pledged with which to start a fund for a new gymnasium. The generous collections taken in the Churches of the Conference for the university, and the prompt payment of the endowment subscriptions have been greatly appreciated by the Trustees. We are especially gratified to note the splendid services rendered to the Church by this school. Last year about thirty of her graduates entered some one of our schools of theology, the active pastorate, or some other definite form of Christian service. The Mendenhall Lectures were delivered by Bishop Hughes on the themes, "The Bible" and "Life." These lectures were heard by great audiences in Meharry Hall, and will soon be given to a large public in book form. The Beamer Lectures on Christian missions will be delivered by Dr. Wm. Brewster. We recommend that Hardin Roads, W. H. Charles, and E. G. Eberhard be elected as Trustees for a period of three years.

COLLEGE EVANGELISM.—Christian education must not stop short of the Lordship of Christ, personally recognized and experienced by the individual instructor and student. If this is not secured, Christian education fails of its highest goal. A loyal Methodist people are laying large sums of money upon the altars of Christian learning in the hope that our Methodist schools shall be free to maintain the ideals and to spread and foster the spirit of our holy Christianity. We therefore recommend that the plans of the Commission on Evangelism as outlined by Bishop T. S. Henderson, both as to time and method, be employed as far as possible in the effort to place the same spirit in our colleges which we seek to foster in our Churches.

Local Educational Collection.—We recommend that twenty cents per member be continued as the apportionment for local education, and that one-fourth of the amount collected be paid to Taylor University and three-fourths to DePauw University. We call the attention of the pastors to the importance of forwarding promptly all money for this fund to the Conference Treasurer, who is instructed that when $500 is collected to make the pro-rata division between these schools.

Children's Day.—The Children's Day Fund last year aided 2,066 young people to pursue their studies, fitting them for greater usefulness. Since the founding of this fund, it has so aided 21,650 students. This is a great and most worthy work, and repays the Church many fold in the larger ideals and added usefulness it brings to her people. We therefore urge upon every pastor to make much of Children's Day and to give it the place of emphasis to which it is entitled.

Commissions and Visitors.—We wish to express our appreciation of the work of the Commission on Education and in the study of the needs of our educational institutions of the State. We recommend the Rev. C. E. Line, D. D., as Conference Visitor to DePauw University, to succeed himself for the term expiring September 1, 1917; to Drew Theological Seminary, H. S. Nickerson; to Garrett Biblical Institute, Rev. C. C. Travis; to Boston School of Theology, Rev. J. A. Sumwalt; to Taylor University, Rev. J. F. Porter; Woman's College, Jacksonville, Ill., D. H. Guild.

We recommend that the Visitors appointed by this Conference submit a written report to the Chairman of the Committee on Education one month prior to the session of the Conference. We recommend the following special appointments: G. R. Grose, President of DePauw University; F. M. Stone, Endowment Secretary of American University; H. B. Gough, Professor in DePauw, W. W. Sweet, in DePauw; C. U. Wade, Endowment Secretary DePauw University; A. H. Hirsh, Professor in Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.; G. H. Myers, Endowment Secretary Illinois Wesleyan College; C. J. Everson, Endowment Secretary Taylor University.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The advance made by the Epworth League within the past year is highly gratifying. The district conventions were well attended, and many of our young people were present at the State Institute. There is a rising tide of interest in the educational work of the League. The "Win My Chum" movement was aggressively pushed by many of the Chapters, with rich results.

We commend the efforts made in many of our Chapters to carry forward a constructive recreational program, as suggested by our General Secretary.

We desire to record our appreciation of the address delivered by Dr. Dan B. Brummitt at our Conference anniversary service.

We suggest that our Chapters send delegates to the great International Epworth League Convention, which meets in Buffalo, July 6-10, 1914.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on Freedmen's Aid, are pleased to make the following report: The work of the society has gone forward with leaps and bounds during the last year. Students are coming to our schools in such large numbers that we are unable to accommodate them all.

The Commission appointed by the Church to visit these schools report the magnificent work done with very limited resources, and the tremendous need of more buildings, better equipment, and larger pay for better teachers.

Resolved, First, That we heartily approve of the change of the name "university" from all the schools except the one at Atlanta, Ga., and calling them "colleges," "institutes," or "academies," according to the work they are doing.

Resolved, Second, That we appreciate the heroic effort of the colored people of the South in pledging $100,000, their share of the $500,000 of the Jubilee Fund authorized by the General Conference, and the payment of $40,000 of the same. We therefore, in view of the urgent needs of these schools, pledge ourselves to raise the amount apportioned to our respective charges for the coming Conference year, and also take an offering for the Jubilee Fund, to be given to New Orleans College and Flint Medical College, assigned to this Conference.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We greatly rejoice in the onward advance of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ throughout the earth, for the victories won during this year in the weakening and destruction of the Moslem faith, and the increased confidence in the Christian religion in so many places across the sea. We are glad for the new day in which so many of our people are getting the vision of a universal redemption by a Universal Redeemer, of the primary obligation of the Christian Church to make Jesus Christ Lord of all men and King of kings. To this end we solemnly dedicate our sacrificial gift of money and our more costly gift of our sons and daughters, whom God may call to foreign service, and our own deepest heart sympathy and devotion expressed ceaselessly in intercessory prayer.

We record our earnest belief that we are in the beginning of colossal spiritual world movements, which call for deeper consecration to bring them to successful fruition. We therefore solemnly covenant as a Conference to apply ourselves and to spread before our people the stately goings of our Lord Christ in the current life of our foreign missions.

We heartily approve the policy of the Indianapolis Convention, and pledge ourselves to adopt the every-member canvass and the duplex system for collecting the same. We also recommend that our pastors preach upon the subject of tithing as the minimum basis of our giving, and urge our people by precept and example to practice the same, ever holding before us the ideal, "As much for others as for ourselves."

We greatly appreciate the masterly addresses of Bishop W. F. Oldham and Dr. Henry Reeves Calkins, and the inspiring sermon by Rev. J. Albert Sumwalt.

We indorse the administration of our leaders, and pledge our support in the great and mighty work of carrying the gospel of redemption to the uttermost parts of the earth.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

We, your Committee, rejoice in the continued prosperity that our hospital is enjoying. Notwithstanding the completion and opening of the new pavilion, the hospital has been full to its utmost capacity for months.

We congratulate the institution that while our free work is constantly increasing, that so far no one has been refused admission because of their inability to pay for it. We are also pleased to note the fact that for the past few months the income of the hospital from patients, together with the ten cents per member from the Conferences and the donations of fruits and supplies from those interested, has equaled the expenses.

With the completion of the north pavilion, which is now in process of erection, the capacity will still further be increased and the income enlarged, and a house for our nurses provided, which will greatly add to the efficiency of our work.

We express our appreciation of the successful work of our brother, the Rev. Sherman Powell, as a Field Secretary, and commend him and his work to the favorable consideration of all our Churches and urge them to give him a hearing and assist him as far as possible in his financial work.

We commend the faithful work of Albert B. Cline as a Trustee of the institution, and hereby nominate him to succeed himself as a Trustee. his term to expire in 1917.

On account of the removal from the bounds of the Conference and from membership in our Church of Albert L. New, we hereby nominate the Hon. William T. Durbin as a Trustee for the unexpired term of Albert L. New—namely, until 1915.

We have greatly appreciated the presence and address of the Hon. Chas. F. Coffin at this session of our Conference, and hereby express our gratitude for his constant interest in looking after the legal matters involved in our work, as well as for his efficient services as a member of the Executive Committee.

We recommend that the District Superintendents apportion to the charges in the Conference an amount equal to ten cents per member for the Sustaining Fund, which was never needed more than now, that we may do our proportionate share toward caring for those who need our benefactions.

We recommend that the necessary steps be at once taken to amend the Articles of Incorporation so that the following may be sent to the Northwest Indiana and the Indiana Conferences for their approval and adoption, that they may as rapidly as possible become operative:

First—That the number of Trustees be increased so that each Conference shall elect six Trustees, three of whom shall be ministers and three laymen, all of whom shall be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Two others shall be elected by the Woman's Home Missionary Society of each Conference, making a representation from each Conference of eight—five laymen and three ministers.

Second—That Trustees thus elected may in their annual meeting elect nine Trustees-at-large, three from within the territory of each Conference, six of whom may be chosen from among the friends of the hospital who may not be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Third—That the Trustees shall elect from among their number nine members, three from each Conference, who, with the President of the Board of Trustees and the General Secretary, shall constitute the Executive Committee, the last two named being ex-officio members of said Committee.

Fourth—We recommend the discontinuance of the Associate Trustees, and that the District Superintendents of the several Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana shall be ex-officio members of and constitute an Advisory Council.

INDIANA CENTENNIAL.

WHEREAS, The year nineteen hundred and sixteen is the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of Indiana into our great National Union, of which she has been an honorable and influential member for nearly a hundred years; and,

WHEREAS, Preliminary arrangements have already been made by our State authorities for a suitable observance of this centennial by having an "Historical and Educational Celebration representing all phases of the State's activities;" and,

WHEREAS, No celebration of the real success of our beloved State during these hundred years would be complete without a proper recognition of the work done by the various religious denominations within our borders; and,

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana has been no small factor in the development of the educational, philanthropic, moral, and religious life and achievement of the citizenship of this, our prosperous Commonwealth; therefore,

Resolved, First, That we hereby request our presiding Bishop to appoint a committee of seven ministers and seven laymen from our Conference, to be known as the North Indiana Conference Commission for the Indiana Centennial of Nineteen Hundred and Sixteen.

Resolved, Second, That we request the other Annual Conferences in our State to appoint like commissions, in order that the united Methodism of these three Conferences may co-operate in planning such an exhibit of the work done by the Methodist Episcopal Church as in their judgment may seem wise and for the glory of God.

Resolved, Third, That we hereby elect as ex-officio members of these commissions the General Superintendents who have residential supervision over the Conferences in our State, viz., Bishop William F. McDowell, D. D., LL. D., and Bishop William F. Anderson, D. D., LL. D., and also our honored retired General Superintendent, who resides within the borders of our State, viz., Bishop David H. Moore, D. D., LL. D., and that we request the other Conferences of the State to join with us in electing these Bishops to membership-at-large on the commissions named.

Resolved, Fourth, That our Conference Secretary send the other Conferences in the State copies of these resolutions in ample time before their next annual session.

By concurrent resolutions of the three Indiana Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a Joint Commission was appointed to study the educational situation in Indiana Methodism, and to make such recommendations concerning the future relation of its institutions as they deemed best.

This Commission met for organization October 27, 1913, in the Central Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Indianapolis. A. B. Storms, of the Indiana Conference, was elected President; L. M. Edwards, of the North Indiana Conference, was elected Secretary. A sub-committee consisting of one from each Conference was appointed to study in detail the three Methodist educational institutions in the State, viz., Taylor University, Moores Hill College, and DePauw University. This sub-committee consisted of A. B. Storms, K. W. Robbins, and L. M. Edwards. The sub-committee, after investigation, submitted its report to the Joint Commission at a meeting held in Central Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Indianapolis, March 9, 1914. From their report and subsequent general discussion, the Commission adopted the following statement of facts, beliefs, and recommendations, to be submitted to the three Conferences for action.

I. Statement of Facts.—In the case of Taylor University we find the following: This institution is owned by the National Local Preachers' Association, and is managed by a Board of twenty-one Trustees, elected by said association, and the President ex-officio.

The North Indiana Conference nominates six of the twenty-one Trustees. Two Visitors also are appointed annually by the North Indiana Conference, who have voice but not vote in the business sessions of the Board of Trustees.

This institution is located at the southern limits of the city of Upland, Indiana, and possesses the following property: A campus of ten acres, upon which are situated: The Main Building (1), Music Hall, Chapel, and Gymnasium (1), Sickler Dormitory for Boys (1), Central Heating Plant (1), and the Clippinger Observatory(1), a small frame building. The Main Building is in fair repair, as is the Dormitory; the Heating Plant and Music Hall and Chapel are practically new. The appraised valuation of this plant, including ground and the buildings, is $86,650.

The institution owns also, off the campus and in the city of Upland, the following properties: Ten vacant lots, three frame buildings used as dormitories, and one frame building used as a dining hall and dormitory, with an appraised valuation of $11,750.

Improvement and endowment notes are in hand to the amount of $23,000. Personal property is valued at $1,280. A will has been probated bequeathing to the school $10,000, making an estimated total of $132,690 assets.

The liabilities are as follows:

Bonds	$12,300 00
Notes	13,500 00
Accounts	5,000 00
Total	$30,800 00

Faculty.—Head Professors, Associate Professors, Instructors, Assistants, fourteen—three of whom teach exclusively in the College Department.

Students—

College	72
Academy	115
Other departments	81

Total enrollment now (April 1, 1914), 290.

In the case of Moores Hill College, we find that it was organized in 1854, opened in 1856, since which time it has been doing both preparatory and collegiate work.

Organization and Equipment.—Moores Hill College is under the management of a Board of Trustees, consisting of the President of the College, ex-officio, and twenty-seven members elected by the Indiana Conference for a period of three years. In addition, the Conference appoints six Conference Visitors and two Alumni Visitors, who meet with the Board and take part in its deliberations.

The Board of Trustees has full power to receive and administer all funds, to appoint Faculties, to confer degrees, and to make all laws for the government of the institution.

Buildings.—Moore Hall, a three-story brick building; the Stevens Gymnasium, a building 70 x 40 feet, and Carnegie Hall, a building costing $60,000.

The financial statement of assets and liabilities rendered June 10, 1913, is as follows:

Real Estate		$12,400 00
Buildings:
Carnegie Hall		60,000 00
Moore Hall		30,000 00
Girls' Dormitory		4,000 00
Gymnasium		3,000 00
Equipment		17,000 00
Endowment:
Bonds and mortgages	$8,450 00
Cash	15,658 65
Old personal notes	2,095 00
New personal notes	12,469 50
Rental property	25,000 00
		63,673 15
Debt and Improvement Fund notes		3,876 50
Tuition notes		412 95
Tuition due		466 25
Rent due		136 00
Cash on hand June 10, 1913		100 13
Total		$195,064 98

Liabilities—

Moores Hill State Bank	$19,874 58
Accounts payable (estimated)	2,000 00
	$21,874 58
Net Assets	173,190 40
	$195,064 98

The Faculty consists of a President, eight professors, nine instructors and assistants. Collegiate departments are maintained in English, Mathematics, Foreign Languages, History, and Science.

Student Enrollment—

In the College of Liberal Arts	138
In the Academy	77
In the Department of Music	104
Net Total	256

In the case of DePauw University, we find that while DePauw is called a university, it is more strictly a College of Liberal Arts. It confines its purpose to the work of a College of Liberal Arts, not attempting the work of a university as understood in the educational language of to-day.

Student Enrollment—

In the College of Liberal Arts	764
In the Academy	97
In the Department of Music	200
In the Department of Art	30
Net Total	1,074

Faculty—

In the College of Liberal Arts:

Head Professors	17
Associate Professors	2
Instructors	7
Total	30

These Professors, Associate Professors, Instructors and Assistants confine all of their teaching work to single departments in the College of Liberal Arts.

The financial statement of assets and liabilities rendered June 30, 1913, is as follows:

Value of plant, including buildings, grounds, and equipment	$528,033 74
Endowment now producing income	866,534 90
Endowment not producing income	342,213 82
Total	$1,208,748 72
Grand Total of permanent properties	$1,736,782 62
Subject to annuity	104,400 00
Without liability or encumbrance	$1,632,382 62

Academy.—The Greencastle Academy, affiliated with DePauw University, is "under the control of the Board of Trustees of DePauw University, who annually make appropriations for its support, and elect members of its Faculty." It has no specific claim upon endowment for its support, and is sustained at an annual deficit, so far as student fees go, of about $3,000.

The departments are under the supervision of the Faculty of the College of Liberal Arts, but in direct charge of teachers who do not teach in the college. However, there are some academy students who pursue work in the college classes under instruction of members of the college Faculty.

The School of Music of DePauw is "under the particular supervision of the Dean of Music and the Faculty of the School of Music, and under the same general supervision as the other departments of DePauw University." It has no other resources than the fees paid by the pupils. The Music School balance rendered last year to DePauw University was $785.65.

II. STATEMENT OF BELIEFS.—We believe that it is of grave importance in determining the Methodist educational program to recognize the significant place which higher education has held in the Methodist Church from its organization in this territory, and the vital part which Methodist educational institutions have played in the development of Indiana.

We recognize also the fact that the public school system, including the State institutions of higher learning, has had a remarkable growth in the Middle West, including Indiana. It is our conviction that the high schools are rapidly becoming entirely adequate for all secondary education, covering all preparatory grades for college courses. With high schools within easy reach, practically all our people are able to send their sons and daughters to these institutions for preparatory education, and, except for emergent reasons, should do so. It may seem advisable to continue some measure of preparatory or academy work under our Church supervision, but such work should be continued as a temporary expedient and not as a permanent program.

We believe it to be necessary that our Church colleges shall have much more ample endowments and resources, buildings, equipment, laboratories, and Faculties, and be much better salaried than they have been able to afford in the past. While it has been true that Church colleges have maintained able Faculties on very meager compensations, through the loyalty of their teachers to the Church, we do not believe that the Church should or can expect this to continue indefinitely in the future. In view of the millions of dollars that are being poured annually into the treasuries of our great State institutions, such enlarged equipment and resources become imperative.

We believe that the Church College of Liberal Arts has a distinct place in the educational program of to-day, but that they should be strictly limited in the scope of their work, holding to the main departments of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

We believe also in the standards fixed by the Methodist University Senate for our Church colleges, which are as follows:

An endowment of $200,000, buildings and campus "sufficient to do their work reasonably and creditably," with scientific laboratory equipment of at least $5,000, with departmental libraries of at least 3,000 volumes, with at least eight professors in the College of Liberal Arts only, that all academic work be strictly separate in teaching force and organization from the collegiate work, and that the minimum salary for the college professor be $1,100 per year.

III. Statement of Recommendations.—In the case of Taylor University:

We recommend that a communication of inquiry be sent to the National Local Preachers' Association in respect of its willingness to surrender the charter of Taylor University to the North Indiana Conference.

That in the event of such surrender of such charter, the institution be managed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the North Indiana Conference, and therefore entitled to support from Conference educational collections, and representation in the pulpits of the Conference.

That in the event of such surrender and Conference management, the school be accepted upon the basis of the educational standards as set forth for all institutions of the Church by the University Senate.

In the case of Moores Hill College:

We recommend the most cordial endorsements of its present campaign for an endowment of $200,000.

That it continue to give the Bachelor of Arts course as at present.

That it take the place to which it will be entitled in 1916 under the rules and requirements of the University Senate.

In the case of DePauw University:

We recommend that, in view of the widespread development of the high schools of the State, and in view of an annual deficit of $3,000 in the maintenance of the Greencastle Academy, that this academy be discontinued at the earliest practicable date.

We recommend that the manifest need of more buildings, more teachers, larger equipments, more ample endowments for DePauw University be brought to the attention of the Trustees, alumni, and friends of the institution in such a way as to provide in the very near future for equipment and resources of at least $5,000,000.

We recommend further a suitable pension be allowed to all retiring professors.

We recommend in general that no college under Methodist control undertake any elaboration or specialization other than that usually given in the standard departments in Science, Literature, and the Arts until its endowment shall have exceeded $1,000,000.

We recommend that it be the policy of any college having less than $1,000,000 endowment to advise its students who desire technical courses, or other special lines of work not offered in the regular college departments, and who can not reasonably complete their Bachelor's course before entering on such special work, to go to universities where such special work can be taken with advantage.

METHODIST STUDENTS IN STATE SCHOOLS.—In response to a resolution from the Northwest Indiana Conference, at its session in 1913, concerning Methodist students in State schools, and after due consideration of such request, the Joint Commission on Educational Institutions of Methodism in Indiana adopted the following resolution:

"1. That we recognize both the opportunity and the obligation existing at our State educational institutions for the distinctive and positive spiritual message and influence of our Church.

"2. That the local Churches in these communities should not be expected, single-handed and unaided, to meet this obligation, but that the entire Church of the State should assist.

"3. That we cordially approve the appointment of assistant pastors for our Churches at educational centers.

"4. That where the local Churches are not favorably located for reaching the students, we approve the establishment of Churches that will be favorably located.

"5. That we approve the local Church organization as the center of influence and activity for students rather than organizations outside, or merely adjunct to the local Church.

"6. That we recommend the appointment of a standing Joint Commission, to consist of three members of each of the Conferences of Indiana, and two representatives from each of the Methodist institutions of the State, to formulate plans for co-operation with our local Churches at State educational centers, and to provide ways and means for carrying such plans into effect.

"7. That we ask the Conferences to approve the appointment of such a standing Joint Commission, and that the Bishops presiding be asked to make appointments to this Joint Commission from year to year."

Further, as a Joint Commission, we earnestly urge on our Board of Education and on our Home Missionary Board joint consideration of the State educational field, and provision for meeting adequately the opportunity there presented.

We further recommend for adoption by the three Indiana Conferences that the permanent Joint Commission be charged with the responsibility of developing plans for co-operation in assisting our State Church colleges to secure endowment and other funds; and also that this Commission be directed to report fully to the Annual Conferences concerning the scope of the collegiate work of the colleges, their resources, their departments, the degrees conferred, or any other features of their activity; and also that the Commission be directed to make definite recommendations of approval, or otherwise, of the plans of the Church schools for their work, or for the raising of endowment or other funds.

METHODIST MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED.

April 20, 1911, to March 1, 1914.

To read to the listening ears of the Methodists of the North Indiana Conference a record of the work done in the years 1911 to March 1, 1914, is a simple task. But the principal object of this report is to lead you into a closer touch with one of the noblest charities that has ever been established; to point you to a group of men and women, God's children, old yet ever young, with hoary heads, bent forms, many with frail and suffering bodies, who have been committed to our care to await the summons to the home above.

We are thankful to say that there are many to whom God has vouchsafed a reasonable degree of health and vigor during these declining years, for we have eight members in our family that are beyond eighty years of age. Longfellow says that "Age is opportunity no less than youth itself, though in another dress, and as the evening twilight fades the sky is filled with stars invisible by day."

We have many saints among these in whose heart is the song of the faithful, and in whose faces shine the glory of the life beyond. On April 20th we found a family of nine full members and five probationers, all of whom were admitted into full membership, and four more were admitted to membership during the year.

In the month of October, Mrs. Mary C. Williams departed for the home beyond: this was the first break in our family circle, and she was followed by Mrs. Justina Klein, who answered the call of the Father to come up higher on the 29th of February, 1912; so we closed the year with sixteen members of the family circle.

During the year 1912 we enlarged our family circle by the admission of eight more members; others knocked at the door. Would that we had the means to enlarge our ministrations, for we are so often obliged to refuse some pathetic appeal—to write "ineligible" to one in such pitiful need of the shelter and comfort of this home!

During the present year we have been enabled to enlarge our family circle by the admission of six into full membership and six on probation. Our family ties were again broken; in the mid-year the spirits of Mrs. Matilda C. Cain and Miss Della Cully returned to God who gave them, and age became youth as they began with joy the journey of the life eternal.

After careful consideration and investigation, the Board of Trustees deemed it wise to raise the minimum admission fee from three to five hundred dollars, to conform with the other institutions that have similar requirements for the admission of members to the family, and our institution would be at a serious disadvantage if we must admit persons at a less fee than the other similar institutions.

We hope that every pastor in the Conference will thoroughly acquaint himself with the requirements for the admission of members to the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, so that they may not make any promises to prospective applicants that would embarrass the Board of Trustees in handling any case on its individual merit.

Much has been done in the improvement of the grounds in the way of building of roads and walks; however, much remains to be done before they shall have a finished appearance, but it is already very attractive.

We have also put a great amount of improvement on the land given by Mr. Chopson to the Endowment Fund of the Home, and in a few more years we will have some modern farms that will aid in the maintenance of our family.

In the meantime we have endeavored to build up the Permanent Fund of the institution, and while it has been a year of serious concern in the business world, a time of great financial stress, and other things given the right of way in the Conference, yet we look back with gratitude toward our friends and with thanksgiving to God for the support given to the work. While we have not accomplished all that we had hoped, we have not failed to do our best.

There has been added to the Endowment Fund $16,000, not including the $8,500 in after-death bonds and the remembrances in wills to the amount of more than $50,000.

God has richly honored us in the Board of Trustees, who have so unselfishly labored for the success of the Home and the care of the family. We want to acknowledge our gratitude thus publicly, and pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon them and that they may be spared to the work of the Master for many years.

Of the work of the matron we are glad to speak. For her energy, cheerfulness, ability, and good judgment we are grateful; as she ministers to the sick and feeble, her bright smile and cheery word helps many a weary moment to fly by. "They serve God best who serve His creatures best."

And now our report is finished. If in these few words we have shown you a little of the inner meaning of it all: if we have shown you that it is a work of loving service: that we are trying to deserve the "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, My brethren, ye have done it unto Me," and if we have inspired any who have heard or who may read this report to come into closer touch with the Home, to feel the responsibility which God has placed upon us, our object will have been accomplished.

Every Methodist home in the North Indiana Conference, as it gathers its members about its own hearthstone, sheltered and happy in its wealth of love, should from its family alter, while sending up a prayer for its own blessings, ask also that it may see the need of those around them and feel the obligation resting upon them to help in the care of God's worthy aged.

We feel an exhilaration in the air as the new year comes in giving us the hope of being more fruitful of good works than the year just closed has been. There will undoubtedly be failures and discouragements, as in the past, but the new year promises many good things.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. JONES, Cor. Sec. and Supt.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submits the following:

I. We rejoice in the success of the Home as manifested by the health and happiness of those persons who have been admitted thereto.

We are also happy that Bro. J. W. Miller, one of our retired ministers, is now finding a comfortable home in the institution.

We also note with pleasure the large amount which has been added to the Permanent Fund in cash and real estate to the amount of $16,000.

II. We commend the Rev. E. L. Jones and wife for their efficient economical administration of the affairs of the institution.

III. We recommend the Committee to apportion the benevolences to the various charges of the Conference include the equal of ten cents per member for the Home Sustaining Fund.

IV. We recommend that the Rev. E. L. Jones be reappointed as Superintendent and Corresponding Secretary of this institution for another year.

V. We recommend the following as Trustees to be elected for a period of three years, time to expire 1917: C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, W. W. Martin, and J. W. Sale. Also the following to be elected for a period of two years, time expires 1916: J. A. Beatty, C. E. Line, Abraham May, F. M. Pressnel; and the following to be elected for a period of one year, time expires 1915: M. S. Marble, Eli Miller, J. F. Morrison.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

We, your Committee, are glad to report that this Conference now has 213 parsonage homes, valued at $498,400, leaving only fifteen charges without a home for our ministers. This consideration of the laymen is greatly appreciated by every pastor of this Conference.

We recommend that it be the purpose, and wherever possible the program, of each district to purchase a suitable manse for the district residence of our District Superintendents of this Conference.

We also greatly appreciate the fact that there is now a number of beautiful cottage homes within the bounds of this Conference to be used as residences of our retired ministers.

We further recommend that each District Superintendent in the first Quarterly Conference shall call the attention of the Trustees of our parsonage properties that it is now the policy of our stronger Conferences to provide the larger and heavy house furnishings, and that we recommend this to be the program of this Conference.

We recommend that, whereas, in these days of our growing Methodism it is often necessary to divide certain charges with parsonage property in common; wherever this is required we believe that each society shall have their vested interests properly guarded in fairness to all.

PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

After careful deliberation, your Committee recommend the publishing of a history of the North Indiana Conference as outlined by our Conference Historians, the work to be completed, if possible, by the year of our Indiana Centennial, 1916.

We further recommend the adoption of the accompanying agreement among ourselves, in order that the financial responsibility may not prove burdensome to any, and that as many as are willing may have some part in forwarding this commendable undertaking.

M. S. MARBLE, Chairman.
LESLIE J. NAFTZGER, Secretary.

AGREEMENT.

We who have written our names below hereby agree that by doing so we form ourselves into a company for the publishing of a History of the North Indiana Conference, as set forth in the above report of our Publishing Committee, provided that forty or more ministers and laymen are willing to enter into such an agreement.

It is further agreed that if there shall be a deficiency after all expenses are paid, that each one shall share alike in bearing his equal part of said deficiency, or if there shall be any profit after all expenses are paid, it shall be turned over to the Conference Claimants' Fund of the North Indiana Conference.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

The Christian Church is committed to the task of saving society through the redemption of the individual, therefore we, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, recommend that our ministers and laymen become intensely interested in the social life of our people.

1. We believe that the Lord's day should be used sacredly for purposes of rest and the worship of Almighty God, and we deplore the desecration of this day by unnecessary travel and many games of sport, which in themselves are harmless and may be beneficial if used during week-days.

2. We recommend to our people only such amusements as can be aken in harmony with the development of Christian character.

3. We pledge ourselves anew to stand upon the law of our Church and the teachings of the Holy Scriptures in regard to the question of divorce, and recommend that our ministers shall, wherever possible, use he excellent Ritual of our Church so that the marriage contract may be onsummated under the most sacred and hallowed influences.

4. We deplore the desecration of our National holidays, which are et apart for the sacred purposes of patriotism in memory of our soldiers, iving and dead, and for the purposes of thanksgiving to Almighty God. We urge our Christian colleges to commemorate Thanksgiving Day with uitable religious services.

5. We heartily endorse "The Social Creed of the Churches" as dopted by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, December 9, 1912. We recommend that our preachers present this social reed to their congregations so that the world may know the attitude of he Methodist Episcopal Church toward the social problems of the day.

We are in hearty accord with any and all movements working for the entire suppression of polygamy as practiced by Mormonism in violation of law.

6. We recognize the good work done by the Sunday League of America, and are gratified to learn that Dr. Thomson, its National Secretary, will make a tour of our Conference the coming year, holding interdenominational meetings in the interest of this cause, and we hereby welcome him and pledge him our co-operation in this great work.

J. M. HAINES, Chairman; J. P. CHAMNESS,
J. W. BOWEN, Secretary; H. W. MILLER,
W. E. LOVELESS, J. W. WALTERS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee rejoices to report to Conference the prosperous condition and aggressiveness of the Sunday schools in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We highly commend the work done by our Board of Sunday Schools in organizing 338 new schools, with an enrollment of 11,857, out of which have come 89 Church organizations, with a membership of 2,772. This is demonstrative of the evangelistic spirit which has characterized their work throughout the connection.

The Board deserves the earnest co-operation and support of every pastor, Church, and Sunday school in Methodism.

We are glad to note that that which has characterized the work of the Board in general has been true in our own Conference. We now have 86,376 members reported in this Conference, which is an increase over last year of 11,240; of this number, 6,151 have been converted during the year, showing an increase in conversions of 1,669.

We are also glad for the missionary spirit as shown in the offering of approximately $10,000 for missions.

We recommend that each school adopt the Board's program of a "standardized" school. We recommend the "Home Department," Cradle Roll, and the use of our literature in all our schools.

We would call especial attention to "Children's Day, Rally Day, and Decision Day," and urge their observance.

We lay special emphasis on "Teacher's Training, Missionary Instruction, and Evangelism."

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

After years of prayer and effort for the overthrow of the liquor traffic, our hearts are gladdened to-day with the brightening outlook for State and National prohibition. The passage of the Webb-Kenyon bill by Congress has revealed the breakdown of the political power of the drink traffic throughout the country. We are encouraged to believe that if the bill now pending looking to an amendment of the Federal Constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale, the importation, exportation, and transportation of alcoholic liquors as a beverage, were to be placed before the National Congress on its merits at this time it would carry by a large majority.

We therefore urge upon our people the importance of asking our representatives to press the matter to an early vote. The battle is on in every State in the Union, and our hearts rejoice over the dry victories on every hand.

We most heartily commend the non-partisan position and activities of the Anti-Saloon League, and the statesmanlike and masterful service rendered by the Rev. Madison Swadener, D. D., of our Conference, in the promotion of the already conserved energies of the temperance forces, and his very able Conference address, so full of inspiration and information.

We commend the Administration for its stand on the temperance question.

We commend the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church for its great activity in the circulation of literature; the dissemination of facts through the secular and religious press; the promotion of total abstinence by pledge-signing in Sunday schools and street meetings, and its hearty co-operation in the movement for National Constitutional prohibition. We urge our pastors to make a larger use of its literature and men, and to raise its apportionment in full.

Whereas, About three-fourths of the territory and one-half the people in the United States are under some sort of prohibition law; and,

Whereas, The liquor interests (mail-order liquor sellers) have made a practice of soliciting orders for liquor in "dry" territory, thus bringing prohibition laws into disrepute and thwarting the will of a majority of the people in such territory; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing 68,266 members and 200,000 constituents, That we call upon the Postoffice Department of this Administration and upon our representatives in Congress to exclude from the mails liquor advertising, just as lottery tickets and lottery solicitations have been barred as contrary to the public welfare. The use of the mails by the brewers and distillers and wholesale dealers in liquors to insult citizens in dry territory, and to promote the consumption of their poisonous beverages, is not a right, but is an outrage upon the rights of the fifty million citizens.

We commend the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for the work it is doing, and for its devotion to total abstinence and prohibition.

The increasing interest shown in temperance and prohibition throughout the Nation plainly indicates that the final struggle for the ultimate overthrow of the American saloon is now upon us, and we hereby emphasize the words expressed by the last General Conference that the liquor traffic can never be licensed without sin.

We condemn the license policy. It is vicious in principle, utterly inconsistent with the principles of the enlightened Government, in practice a protection to a traffic which is inherently criminal in its nature.

We greatly rejoice in the good news that by the order of Secretary Daniels, intoxicating liquors have been prohibited throughout the entire navy of the United States.

As officers of the Conference Temperance Society we recommend for President, Rev. J. O. Bills; Vice-President, Rev. F. P. Morris; Secretary, Rev. Herbert Boase.

As Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. P. E. Greenwalt and Rev. C. J. Everson.

Asher S. Preston, Chairman;

Supplemental Report.

We earnestly urge all our ministers and people to vote in the election of 1914 in favor of the calling of a Constitutional Convention in the State of Indiana in order that there may be opportunity to write into the Constitution of the State the complete legal prohibition of the manufacture, sale, and transportation intra-State of all alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Again the seasons have rolled round and we find ourselves in the glad springtime of hope and rejoicing—rejoicing in that we have been permitted to lend aid and comfort in the name of Him who taketh away the sins of the world, and hoping to accomplish more another year.

Our last quarterly reports show a membership in seventy-nine auxiliaries of 3,420, a gain of 374 over last year.

In our fifty-seven Young People's Circles we have 1,231 members, a gain of forty-eight. Home Guards and Mothers' Jewels number 692, a loss of 121. New organizations are located at Benton, Valentine, Saratoga, and Union City. Although there is a decrease in Children's Bands, the work among the young people is steadily increasing, and we are glad to report new Queen Esther Circles at Union City; Grace Church, Richmond; Middletown, and Noble Street, Anderson. Let us look well to the youth of our dear homeland, for herein lies the hope and strength of our future.

The six district conventions were held at Noblesville, (First Church) Richmond, Bristol, Galveston, Auburn, and South Whitley.

The work has been greatly benefited during the year by the presence and helpful addresses of Dr. B. S. Haywood, Field Secretary for Sibley Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Miss Josephine Corbin, Field Secretary for the Woman's Home Missionary Society; Mrs. Jacob Bernheim, Assistant Superintendent of Marcy Center, Chicago, and Miss Carrie Barge, another favorite Field Worker and Co-ordinate Secretary with our own Mrs. Delia Williams.

One thousand, two hundred and eighty-two of our members subscribe for Woman's Home Missions, and 281 copies of Children's Home Missions are in circulation throughout our boundary.

Our Conference was represented at the National meeting in Washington, D. C., last October, by Mrs. L. H. Bunyan, Bureau Secretary for Florida; Mrs. A. B. Cline, Conference Corresponding Secretary and Bureau Secretary for White Work in the Carolinas; Mrs. J. C. White, newly elected Conference President, and Miss Laura Bertsch, Young People's Delegate. Among the other good things they had to tell us was the assurance that we were once more—or for the sixth consecutive year—Banner Mite-box Conference in the Nation.

In November we gathered our forces in Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, for a season of planning and sifting of methods. One of the most blessed new features coming our way is the adoption of Miss Elizabeth Wilson, of Hartford City, as our Conference Deaconess. She will come to us next year, at the close of her studies in the National Training School, Washington, D. C., and her time will be equally divided between the six districts. Great good is expected to be the fruit of her labor. We also have another girl in training, Miss Winnifred Brown, of Anderson, who will complete her work in Fisk Training School, Kansas City, this spring. Her work will be assigned her by the General Deaconess Board.

Supplies amounting to $1,717.68 were sent, $802.44 of which went to ministers and $915.24 to our Homes.

Material advances were made on the pledges in each of the districts last year, and by their prompt payment we are enabled to show the Christ-like spirit to Chinese, Japanese, Italians, Negroes, mountain whites, Esquimaux, Spaniards, Mexicans, Porto Ricans, Hawaiians, Jews, and Americans, all living under the folds of Old Glory, for these foreign people are being poured into our country as ore into the melting-pot, and we have been charged to keep the fire of God's love burning brightly that the dross alone may be consumed and the pure metal remain for the assimilation which builds our American manhood and womanhood.

Respectfully submitted,
Olla Grace Davis, Corresponding Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To Bishop McDowell and Members of the North Indiana Conference, assembled in Mishawaka, April 1, 1914, Greetings:

We herewith present the annual report of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and to "God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ," we give praise and thanksgiving.

Divine love has deepened our consecration, knowledge broadened our vision, and service enriched our lives. As an organization we are growing in system and power, becoming better fitted and qualified to fill the respective offices in auxiliary and district. We have over 3,700 members in auxiliaries, 1,160 young people, over 1,700 King's Heralds and Little Light Bearers, in 195 organizations. This army of over six regiments is becoming established by knowledge in reading the 1,260 copies of the Woman's Friend, the 890 Junior Friends, and scores of the books, "The Work for the World" and "The King's Business," in circulation. Our aim is to enlist the "other eight women" in our Church, as well as our sister without Christ. There have been held during the year approximately 2,700 meetings, besides the six sub and annual district meetings. At the latter Miss Alice Linam, from China on furlough, gave comprehensive and timely addresses. Miss Linam went to China twenty-three years ago from Lessburg, Indiana. Forty life-members have been enrolled, bringing into the treasury over $400. The children have given into the treasury over $700 the past year.

The young people are supporting Miss Ethel Jackson in Singapore, besides other special work, contributing $1,386. The sum total from all sources being over $14,000. Our Conference Treasurer is especially qualified to handle this money, and has her books audited by two expert accountants in Fort Wayne, her residence.

The Northwestern Branch is incorporated and legally responsible for all funds intrusted to its care. No corporation in the world handles as much money with as little expense. See its reports. Forms of bequest for money or personal property, or devise of land or devise of residuary estate, or any part thereof, and rates of annuities assuring protection to donors as well as to the society, will be furnished on application.

We pledge our loyalty to the pastors in our Churches, not only as an educative force, but as spiritual helpers, and thank them for their splendid co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. H. Binford, Conference Secretary.

Conference Report, 1913-1914.

Special Work.

We are glad to submit the following report of the special work which is being supported by the auxiliaries, young people, Standard Bearers, King's Heralds, and Little Light Bearers of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of North Indiana Conference. We are doing some work in ten different countries. This work consists of eight regular missionaries, forty-two Bible women, one assistant Bible woman, three Bible women in training, medical work, six hospital beds, three day schools, two kindergarten workers, one Zenana worker, and ninety-four scholarships. Besides, we have had special contributions for naming rooms in some of our new schools and hospitals, and for relief of the Balkan sufferers.

Almost all of the societies have sent in Christmas and Thank-offerings and mite-box money. Many of the auxiliaries have filled coin cards, contributed to the Retirement Fund, and observed Self-Denial Week.

Several Christmas boxes have been sent to the foreign field and brought cheer and happiness to the hearts of our missionaries, as well as of the little ones under their care, valued at $200.

Each month a number of papers and magazines are sent to missionaries. The aim of the Secretary in charge of this branch of the work is that at least one paper or magazine may be sent to every one of the foreign stations each month. We at the home base can scarcely realize what it means to our workers across the seas to have the Christmas boxes, the papers and magazines, or even an occasional post-card from the dear homeland, or we would attend more carefully to this line of our work. Not only would we help and cheer the workers, but we would receive blessings ourselves by thus coming in personal touch with the missionaries.

Repeated and urgent calls are coming from the foreign fields for new or enlarged buildings; for repairs, for equipment, for furnishings, and for scholarships either in the day or boarding schools; for support of teachers, and for Bible women and nurses in training. Day schools are one of our greatest needs, and are far-reaching in results.

Each individual member of our great society may enter the open door of opportunity and do much for the advancement of the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. A. B. Cline, Conf. Sec. Special Work.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

As we come to the close of this, the seventy-first session of the Conference, we desire to express our gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the many victories given us during the year.

We note with pleasure the able assistance rendered by the women's organizations in the Church in the accomplishment of these victories.

The women's organizations of the Church are to be encouraged, as they are very potent factors in the advancement of the Master's work.

We would also commend the work of our deaconesses, which in its own way adds strength and glory to the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

May our Heavenly Father bless the devoted women of our Church, who labor untiringly for the advancement of His cause!

R. J. Burns, A. Singer,
W. M. Amos, C. M. Hobbs.

Resolutions.

APPRECIATION.

We desire to record our deep gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His gracious providence in restoring to health Bishop W. F. McDowell. His strong, stimulating morning addresses and inspiring sermon, and his wise and sympathetic leadership in the Conference, prompt us to request the Board of Bishops to assign Bishop McDowell to the presidency of the North Indiana Conference in 1915.

We express our grateful appreciation of the quickening addresses of Bishop T. S. Henderson, and assure him of our hearty support in the evangelistic campaign which he is leading in our institutions of learning.

We extend our thanks to all the Conference officers for the painstaking manner in which they have discharged their onerous duties. Especially would we mention our Secretary, Rev. D. V. Williams, who, though under a burden of sorrow, has fulfilled his task with his usual efficiency.

We record with delight our appreciation of the cordial manner with which the homes of this splendid city have been opened to the Conference. The program and entertainment have been ideal, and our stay in the city of Mishawaka will abide as a beautiful memory throughout the years. We wish to express our gratitude to all who have in any way contributed to the success of this Conference session, and especially to the faithful pastor of this Church, the Rev. L. M. Edwards, for his thoughtful provision for all the needs of the Conference; to the Committees of this Church, whose untiring efforts have made this session notable for many kindnesses, and to the quartet and organist, for their splendid music, which has added in no small way to the pleasure and inspiration of the program.

We are grateful also to the other Churches and pastors of the city, who have extended so many courtesies in such a gracious way.

We extend our thanks to the daily press for its full and discriminating reports of our Conference sessions.

We express our appreciation of the efficient service rendered by the Boy Scouts. From their first cordial greetings on our arrival, they have been uniformly courteous and obliging. True to their motto, they have been prepared for every emergency, and have added greatly to our comfort and convenience.

We thank the Business Men's Association of the city for the automobile ride given to the members of the Conference through Mishawaka and South Bend.

We felicitate ourselves upon the Conference Lecturer of the session, the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, D. D., of Brooklyn. His lecture on "The Puritan in Two Worlds" was an encyclopedic presentation of the influence of the Puritan in modern history. We express our appreciation to the Program Committee for giving us this great treat.

W. F. Smith,
G. R. Grose,
Ray Semans,
Karl H. Carlson,
G. D. Cleworth.

FRANK BRECKON.

We wish to record our appreciation of the services of the custodian of this Church, Brother Frank Breckon. His attention to the needs of the Conference and its various committees, the ringing out of the chimes represented his great interest in this Conference session. He has in no small degree added to the comfort and success of this Conference session.

JAMES W. MEEKS.

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, our dearly beloved brother, James W. Meeks, has been called from labor to reward; and,

WHEREAS, The intimate relation held during a long series of years by him with the members of this Board makes it fitting that we record our high appreciation of his character and worth; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the unfailing care and fidelity with which as Treasurer he looked after the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society, and his intense and unflagging interest in its work during all the long years in which he was a member of this Board—giving to it his best counsel and effort—greatly endeared him to us, and will always cause us to keep him in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the removal from the Board of such a man, widely known for his honesty and unswerving Christian integrity; for his liberality, and faithfulness to every high trust frequently committed to his hands, leaves a vacancy and shadow that is deeply realized by all the members of this Board and of the Preachers' Aid Society, and the great host of friends in the community, Church, and State, who knew him but to love him.

Resolved, That we extend to his brother, William A. Meeks (who is a member of this Board), and to his wife, son, daughters, brothers, and other relatives, our deepest sympathy in this great bereavement, and express the hope that they may find unfailing consolation in the same God and Christ whom Brother Meeks trusted and believed, and that by and by they and we may meet "in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

HARDIN ROADS,
C. U. WADE.

Adopted by Board of Managers of Preachers' Aid Society.

NEAL HYMNS.

WHEREAS, Brother T. C. Neal has written and printed a series of Conference hymns to and including the year 1921, be it therefore

Resolved, That the series be adopted as the official opening hymns of our Conference.

R. J. WADE, G. B. WORK,
LESLIE J. NAFTZGER, LOREN M. EDWARDS.

ST. PAUL METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, ELKHART, INDIANA.

WHEREAS, We, the preachers of the North Indiana Conference, have learned with profound solicitude the financial embarrassments of the St. Paul Church, in the city of Elkhart, which greatly impairs the usefulness of that congregation and imperils its existence; and,

WHEREAS, The Methodist people of Elkhart and their friends in that city, seeing the necessity of saving this splendid church and parsonage property, strategically located in a beautiful residential section of this thriving and growing city, have recently given $15,000 toward the liquidation of their debt, bringing the total giving for this heroic and laudable enterprise up to the sum of $30,000, leaving a balance of $15,000 unprovided for; and,

WHEREAS, Methodism in meeting her world-wide task will unquestionably be greatly strengthened and promoted by all the preachers and laymen of this great Conference coming to the immediate aid of this self-sacrificing Church in this crisis-hour in its splendid history;

Resolved, First, That we join the Conference Board of Church Extension in asking a donation of $5,000 from the Parent Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for this Church.

Resolved, Second, That we join with the Cabinet in recommending an additional Home Missionary Fund appropriation by the Conference of $2,500, to be apportioned to the districts on the basis of the Home Missionary apportionment.

Resolved, Third, That in order that the many laymen who are able may have opportunity to help this struggling Church, we join the Conference Board of Finance in their recommendation to open the charges to any representative that the Church may send, if endorsed by the District Superintendents.

B. S. HOLLOPETER, for the Cabinet.

SUSTENTATION FUND.

In consideration of the spirit of our Conference, and in pursuance of that spirit, to further every interest of our beloved Church within our own bounds, we heartily commend our members for their response to the call for assistance from the weak and needy charges as it has been made through the Sustentation Fund, which has been distributed so wisely by the District Superintendents; therefore, be it

Resolved, That, owing to the needs in this line of work, we recommend that $4,000 be apportioned for the work of the coming year.

J. CHAS. WOODRUFF, H. L. LIDDLE,
C. B. SWEENEY, CHARLES TINKHAM.
H. S. NICKERSON,

Resolved, That the Sustentation Fund shall be used only to supplement pastors' salaries on needy charges.

T. M. GUILD, WILLIAM D. PARR,
G. B. WORK, H. N. HERRICK.

Lay Association.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference met in the First Presbyterian Church in Mishawaka, Indiana, April 2, 1914, at 1.30 P. M., President A. B. Cline presiding. Elwood Starbuck, of Goshen, conducted the devotional exercises.

There was a good attendance and many new faces, which indicated a growing interest in the work of the Association.

Some time was given to an informal discussion of the Brotherhoods, organized Bible classes in different charges, and the work they had accomplished.

Reports of the "Methodist Day" held in several counties were made, and each one had proved a great success, and plans for similar days next year were already begun.

Vice-President-at-Large D. O. Skillen spoke of the Association as a force to be used for good in helping the weaker charges, and a better understanding and management of the temporal affairs of the Church in general in all charges.

It was moved that a Nominating Committee be appointed by the President, and the following persons were named: W. H. Fledderjohann, Elwood Starbuck, D. O. Skillen, Geo. Spraker, A. E. Staup, E. S. Vandermark.

The Secretary was instructed to send a note of thanks to the members of the Presbyterian Church for their kindness to the Association.

The Association adjourned to meet in joint session with the Conference, to meet at the close of the banquet to hear the report of the Nominating Committee, and to transact any unfinished business.

One hundred and fifty members and friends of the Association were seated at the banquet table, with President A. B. Cline as toastmaster. After the invocation by Rev. L. M. Edwards, we partook of a splendid repast, prepared by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. We were greatly honored by the presence of Bishop Henderson, who gave an inspiring address on "The Laymen's Association as an Evangelistic Force." He was followed by Dr. Fred Fisher, Secretary of the Men and Religion Movement, who gave a splendid address on "The Laymen of the Bible." After the benediction, the members of the Association met in the auditorium to hear the report of the Nominating Committee, which reported as follows:

This report was unanimously adopted.

The report of the Secretary and Treasurer for the year ending April 2, 1914, was read.

After the benediction, the Association adjourned sine die.

Mrs. A. P. Conklin, Secretary.

Memoirs.

ORANGE S. HARRISON.

Rev. Orange S. Harrison was born in West Elkton, Ohio, June 1, 1848, and died at his home in Richmond, Indiana, April 27th, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He was of true Wesleyan stock. His father, Rev. John Harrison, was a local preacher in the Wesleyan Church, and after his removal to this country, served first as a supply preacher in the Cincinnati Conference, and later united with the North Indiana Conference. Brother Harrison was converted in a meeting conducted by his father when he was but a lad of eight years, and his first work in the ministry was as junior preacher on the Middletown Circuit, of which his father had charge. He was educated in the Richmond public schools, and attended Moores Hill College some time. He was a clear, forceful, fearless preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Within the forty years of his active work he rendered efficient service on the following charges: Middletown, Westfield and Carmel, Logansport Mission, New Waverly, Tipton, New Haven, Cambridge City (twice), Ridgeville, Lima, Middlebury, Albion, Goshen (Fifth Street), Greentown, Markle, Monroeville, Williamsburg, and Third Church, Richmond, from which charge he was placed on the retired list on account of failing health.

Rev. O. S. Harrison.

In 1870 he was married to Miss Effie Kerr, of Henry County, Indiana. To this union three children were born: Mrs. Olive Coats, of Albion, Indiana, and Mrs. Anna Cluggish and Merril Harrison, of New Castle. His second marriage occurred July 25, 1894, to Mrs. Flora C. Andrews, of Dayton, Ohio, who remains to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. Freeland, Superintendent of the Richmond District, assisted by Arthur Cates, George Martin, and B. E. Parker. The burial was in the beautiful cemetery at Cambridge City.

The trials through which our brother passed during the latter years of his life brought out the granitic strength and rugged beauty of his character. Forced to earn his living after his retirement from the ministry, he took up the study of law with the enthusiasm of a young man. He soon became sufficiently acquainted with the principles and practice of law to enable him to enter the courts and contend successfully with men who had enjoyed a much wider experience. One of the prominent lawyers of Richmond said, "The sight of this fatally afflicted man successfully taking up the study of law at his age was as fine an example of puissant courage as I have ever witnessed." He maintained his interest in the Church to the last, and was always a faithful friend and safe counselor to his pastor. As the silver-crowned heroes of our Methodist itinerancy, who in prayer and faith and heroic effort laid the foundations on which the younger men of the Conference are now building, are promoted to the Church triumphant, we cry out:

> "O God, let not that race of giants die!
> Give us more men like these: old-fashioned, brave,
> True to the truth; men that have made the Church
> Mighty and glad and songful in the past."

—B. E. Parker.

LEWIS D. REHL.

Rev. Lewis D. Rehl was born in Monroe Township, Henry County, Ohio, April 12, 1874, and died July 2, 1913, at Napoleon, Ohio, at the age of thirty-nine years, two months, and twenty days.

About twenty years ago he took up his residence in Angola, Indiana, where he followed harness-making seven years, at the same time giving attention to study preparatory to the work of the gospel ministry. Brother Rehl was a member of the Evangelical Church until just a while before he was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church, which was in 1899. After entering the itinerancy he served the following charges: Pleasant Lake, Geneva Circuit, Ft. Wayne Circuit, (St. Paul) Ft. Wayne, Lynn, Monroeville, and Ossian. In all these places the work of the Church prospered, for Brother Rehl was not a specialist, but an all-round preacher and favorite pastor. He was especially happy in his work with young people of the Epworth League, having been a district officer in that society before entering the pastorate. As a preacher he was fearless, loving, evangelistic. As a pastor he carefully looked after all the financial interests of the Church and faithfully supervised the work of all the societies of the Church. As a brother minister he was loyal and charitable in conversation, given to saying only kind things of his brethren in the ministry. He was a man whom the people loved. He entered into marriage with Miss Clara R. Stull, daughter of Rev. J. O. Stull, July 24, 1901. To them were born three children, two having preceded their father to the King's country, and only Lois Germaine remains to comfort her bereaved mother.

The account of Brother Rehl's tragic death by falling from the top of the cherry tree in his father's yard, changing so suddenly the day's planned-for rest and fellowship of the old home ties to days of mourning, can not be forgotten nor their warning and lesson go unheeded,—"In the midst of life we are in death."

Funeral services were held at Napoleon, Ohio, July 5, 1913, conducted by his District Superintendent, and participated in by Revs. D. H. Guild, T. M. Hill, F. H. Cremean, J. O. Bills, C. M. Hollopeter, C. A. Hile, Dr. Stull, and the pastor of our Church at Napoleon, Ohio, after which his body was laid to rest in Greenlawn Cemetery at that place.

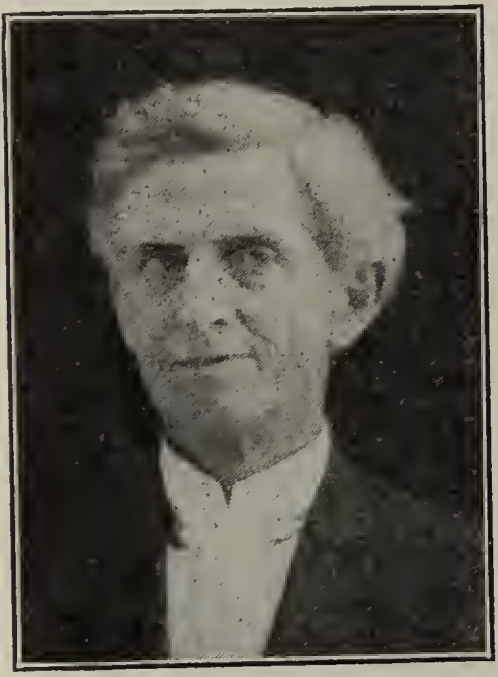
Sunday, July 20th, a very fitting memorial service was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Ossian, Indiana, by Dr. Beatty, and A. B. Cline, of Bluffton; T. A. Doane and A. S. Elzy, of Ossian; W. A. Griest, W. T. Arnold, and C. A. Hile paid tribute to the memory of this splendid man of God. The pastors of the local United Brethren Church and the Presbyterian Church also paid tribute to his worth.

"He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

—W. A. Griest.

HANSON CONRAD SMITH.

Hanson Conrad Smith was born near Santa Fe, Miami County, Indiana, June 5, 1849, and died near his childhood home July 27, 1913. When just a lad he was converted and at once joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. For a few years he taught in the public schools, and then answered an unmistakable call to enter the ministry. He was a licensed local preacher for several years. In early life he was married to Miss Clara Clayton, who lived but a few months after their marriage. In 1877 he married Miss Maggie De Wyland, who shared all his ministerial life and labors, and who now mourns her great and sudden loss.



Rev. H. C. Smith.

Brother Smith was appointed in 1877 as junior preacher with Rev. F. A. Robinson, on the Mexico Circuit. Then he served the following charges: New Corner, Alexandria, Montpelier, Fishersburg, Waterloo, Pierceton, Bristol, Montpelier (a second term of three years), Albany. Fairmount, Pendleton, Butler, Nappanee, Middle Street, Wabash. Since retiring from the active work he had lived at Warsaw, where he had many friends. Throughout his long and effective ministry the Lord blessed his work with many gracious revivals, and there are several beautiful churches and parsonages which stand as monuments of his labors and sacrifice. He was a very energetic man whose spirit was all brotherliness. He accepted frequent calls to preach in special services, and greatly enjoyed the gospel ministry. In the home Church he was attentive, a sympathetic listener, and a reverent worshiper. Several of his last Sundays were spent in the interests of the great campaign for the Preachers' Aid Fund.

He had gone for a few days' visit to his early home, and was not privileged to return to his wife and home and friends in Warsaw. On Sunday night he preached in the church at Santa Fe and then, seemingly in usual health, he retired, and in the morning "He was not, for God had taken him."

Funeral services were held at the home of his nephew, Harlan Plotner, the place of his death. The rites were conducted by his pastor, A. G. Neal, assisted by H. W. Bennett, E. F. Hasty, O. A. Trabue, B. S. Hollopeter, and the pastor at Santa Fe, E. E. Wright.

Several brothers of the Conference were present and, with a goodly number of friends from former charges, paid loving tribute to this faithful man of God. The burial was in the family lot in the cemetery at Santa Fe. We close this brief tribute by quoting a verse of Brother Smith's favorite hymn:

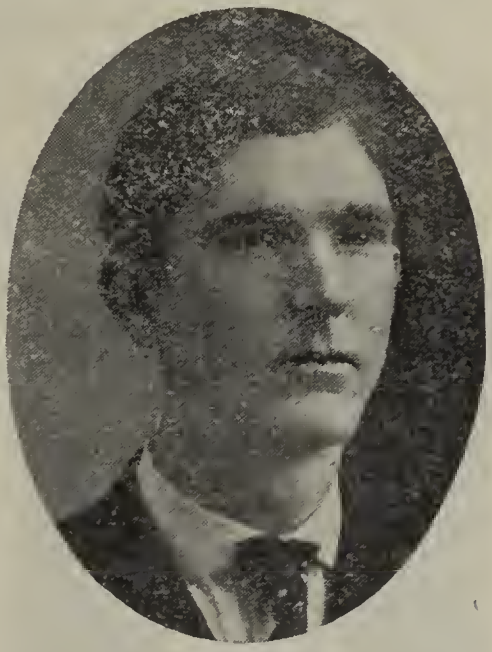
"Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see His face;
Then with my Savior, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I 'll spend,
Triumphant in His grace."

—A. G. Neal.

ERVIN BYRON BROWN.

Ervin Byron Brown, son of Thomas M. and Ella Brown, of Ossian, Indiana, was born in Redkey, Indiana, April 28, 1883. He grew to manhood in the vicinity of Redkey and Albany. He graduated from the public schools of Jay County at the age of fourteen. At the age of eighteen he began teaching in the common schools, which profession he followed for six years in Randolph and Jay Counties. During his vacations he took a course of study in the Marion Normal. He also graduated from a teachers' school in Scranton, Pennsylvania. He was married to Miss Ura Edith Cartwright, of Pennville, Indiana, November 1, 1911. One son, Thomas Cartwright, was born to this union.



Rev. E. B. Brown.

His health had not been good since last winter. Three weeks before his death he went to the home of his father-in-law, T. J. Cartwright, in Pennville, to rest. He was not considered seriously ill until a few days before his death, when he began to fail rapidly, until death came Thursday, August 28th, at 11.10 P. M. His age was thirty years and four months. He leaves to mourn his early death a wife and son (aged six months), father, mother, three brothers and two sisters, and many other relatives and friends. Brother Brown was converted to God, December 30, 1906, in a meeting conducted by Rev. L. A. Sevits at Sugar Grove Church, on the Albany Circuit. He never had any doubts about the genuineness of his conversion or of the reality of real, heartfelt religion. Within a few days of his conversion he heard the call of God to the ministry, and after due consideration he resolved to make this his life-work. He was licensed to preach by the Muncie District Conference in March, 1908, and in April following he was appointed as a supply to Fort Wayne Circuit, where he preached with great acceptability and success for one year. In the spring of 1909 he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference and appointed to Bluffton Circuit, where he remained two years. In April, 1911, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Hughes, and appointed to Churubusco Circuit, and in 1912 he was appointed to Warren Circuit, where he remained until the summons came. He was ordained elder by Bishop McDowell at our last session of the Conference. In all his ministry he was successful. His deep piety and abiding faith impressed all with whom he was associated. He preached a pure gospel from a sincere, loving heart, and many on the charges he served will cherish his memory for years to come. He was planning to go to a theological school in a year. His funeral was conducted in the Pennville Methodist Episcopal Church on Monday afternoon, September 1st, at two o'clock. Rev. L. A. Sevits, his former pastor and very close friend, had charge of the service and preached the sermon. He was assisted in the service by the following ministers: J. E. Coffin, M. S. Marble, G. B. Work, and W. H. Hickman. Other ministers present, some of whom acted as pallbearers, were: J. O. Bills, E. L. Jones, D. A. J. Brown, C. E. DeWitt, J. C. Valentine, D. E. Cruea, W. A. Griest, and Geo. W. Bird, pastor of the Friends' Church of Pennville. A large delegation of his parishioners and former parishioners came to offer their tribute of respect and affection. After the tender services in the church, his remains were borne to the Twin Hill Cemetery, where they were laid to rest. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." —L. A. SEVITS.

BERTHA A. BUNNER.

Bertha A. Bunner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dargitz, was born in Williams County, Ohio, April 12, 1881, and died in Spiceland, Indiana, November 19, 1913, at the age of thirty-two years, seven months, and seven days.

She was a child of Christian parents, who were formerly Methodists, but, moving near Eagle Creek Presbyterian Church, they cast their lot with them. Here Sister Bunner as a little girl united with the Church at the age of fourteen, and remained a member of this Church till the autumn of 1912, when she transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church. She became a great worker in the Sabbath school, both in the local Church and in the township and county organizations, in both of which she held offices and labored zealously in the prosecution of the work. She took a great interest in the music of the Sunday school and Church, was organist, and assisted in the vocal music.

Mrs. Bertha A. Bunner.

In her new field of work she used her voice in working for the Master. The Sunday before she took sick she sang a temperance song at Spiceland and Ogden.

After completing the district schools she attended high school in Montpelier, Ohio, and Tri-State Normal, in Angola, Indiana. For four years she taught school, and thus had to do with the foundation of character of those committed to her care. She was attentive and faithful to the duties of the home life in her country home, but her heart continually turned to the work of the Church, for which the experiences of the years and added study of the Bible fitted her.

On June 20, 1905, she was married to Rev. H. E. Michael, of Williams County, Ohio, who in September became the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Gettysburg, Ohio. This union, so happily begun and so full of promises, was destined to be broken by the early death of the husband, which occurred March 17, 1906.

Our sister, sorely bereaved, returned to the home of her youth and assumed her activities in the Church at home, where she labored for six years, until December 12, 1912, when she was united in marriage to Rev. E. A. Bunner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Huntertown, Indiana. Uniting heart and soul in the work of her husband, she brought added blessings to the charge they served.

In April, 1913, they were appointed to the Spiceland Charge. Here she accompanied her husband in his visitation and, by the Christian spirit and words of wisdom, greatly endeared herself to the people. Her illness covered a period of about four days, when death closed a life so full of promise, but she knew the Lord, and we are comforted in the thought that she was ready to meet Him, and in the example of unselfish devotion and living faith which she has bequeathed to us.

She leaves a devoted husband, a father and a mother, two sisters and one brother.

"What though the arms of conquering death
Does God's own house invade?
That though the prophet and the priest
Be numbered with the dead?

"The Eternal Shepherd still survives,
New comfort to impart;
His eye shall guide us, and His voice
Shall animate our heart.

" 'Lo! I am with you,' saith the Lord,
'My Church shall safe abide;
For I will ne'er forsake My own
Whose soul in Me confide.' "

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. B. Freeland, D. D., were held at an early hour Friday morning, at Spiceland Methodist Episcopal Church, before starting on a long journey to the home of her parents in Montpelier, Ohio. Many pastors from the district and a large concourse of people were present to witness their esteem of love and devotion of Sister Bunner, and their sympathy for the stricken husband. On arriving at Fort Wayne, on the Lake Shore, at 3 P. M., a number of relatives and friends were present, and arrangements had been made by ministers and members from the Huntertown work to convey relatives and friends to Melchin's beautiful funeral chapel, where a very fitting funeral was held. Rev. J. A. Beatty, D. D., conducted the funeral services, with Revs. Guild, Cremean, Hill, Travis, Gillian, and Lacy officiating.

Services were held at her home church the following Sunday by Rev. Wert, and she was laid to rest near the scene of her long years of faithful service for the Master in Nettle Lake Cemetery, near Montpelier, Ohio.

—Frank P. Morris.

MARGARET STEWART.

Margaret, daughter of Robert and Rosana McMillen, was born in Noble Township, Cass County, Indiana, August 31, 1838, and died December 8, 1913, near the place of her birth, aged seventy-five years, four months, and seven days.

She married Rev. W. S. Stewart, September 19, 1861, and for more than fifty-two years they lived a most beautiful wedded life, celebrating their golden wedding September 19, 1911. To this union were born five children, three sons and two daughters. The family was indirectly increased by the birth of five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. One daughter died at Virgil, Kansas, when she was three years old. Those who survive are R. M. Stewart, of Elkhart, Indiana; F. H. Stewart, of Montpelier, Ohio, and Dr. M. B. Stewart and Mrs. Myra Gordon, of Logansport, Indiana. Three brothers and one sister also survive. Sister

Stewart was reared in a devoted Christian home, where family prayer was always observed and where the children were taught the Catechism and trained in the religious life. She joined the Methodist Episcopal Church about the time of her marriage, and in the year 1871 she and Brother Stewart commenced their itinerant ministry, and for thirty years she gladdened the parsonage home. Her rare good judgment and kind disposition made her a model pastor's wife. She never made an enemy, but always made friends of the people they served. She loved peace in her home and in her community, and had a great gift in promoting it. Her home life was a benediction to her family. She ruled her household with kindness, and motherly ministered to its needs.

Mrs. Margaret Stewart.

She always labored faithfully in the ladies' societies of the Church and did much to promote their welfare. Her knowledge of the Scriptures and her great ability to impart this knowledge made her a superior Sunday school teacher. On her seventy-fifth birthday she taught her last Sunday school lesson to a class she had taught so long and well.

Her home was always frequented by ministers and school teachers and other cultivated people, who always found a kindred spirit there. If we are to judge her future by what she loved and enjoyed here, there can be but one conclusion, "She is with the redeemed throng of the pure and blood-washed, waiting the coming of her loved ones here."

The funeral was in charge of her District Superintendent, Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, of Kokomo; Dr. M. S. Marble, Dr. H. N. Herrick, E. C. Dunn, H. L. Overdeer, and a Rev. Mr. Moon, who assisted in the services. She was laid to rest in the old family burying ground, Harper's Cemetery, Noble Township, Cass County, Indiana. —B. S. Hollopeter.

EMMA WILLIAMS.

Emma, daughter of William and Catharine McFarland, was born near Herman, Illinois, May 3, 1854.

Her parents, who were among the early settlers in that part of the State, were people of sound piety and brought up their children in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord." In that kind of home atmosphere Emma found it comparatively easy to enter into the Christian life.

Indeed, she has said many times that she could not remember the time when she did not love the Lord. As a girl she found comfort in prayer, and the measure of such comfort increased with the years. Always accustomed to Church activities in her youth, it was easy for her to become an effective Church and Sunday school worker in her adult life.

Her education was acquired in the public schools of her native place and in Hedding College, where she planned to complete the course; this, however, she did not do on account of her mother's death, which seemed to make it advisable for her to assume the duties of housekeeper in her father's house; this she did with high efficiency until his death, in 1879.

On the 15th of the following July she was married to Joseph E. Williams, who a little more than a year later was admitted into the Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church on trial, and was appointed pastor at Maquon, Illinois.

From that hour her heart was in the work of the ministry. She sought most earnestly to increase her efficiency and to so toil with her husband as to double his efficiency in the Master's service.

Her influence was felt in the Sunday school and in the Epworth League, as well as in the women's auxiliaries of the Church. She never complained of the fields where duty called her; no road was too long for her to travel if service lay at its end, and no task was too hard for her to undertake if duty pointed it out to her. Yet she loved her home with an intense devotion, and had few superiors in the art of making home attractive.

Mrs. Emma Williams.

She had been a sufferer for years. Her nervous system suffered a severe shock when she was thrown from a street-car in Tacoma, Washington, in 1907. This was intensified a year later when she was the victim of a serious automobile accident. The disease which took her life began to manifest itself while she was living in Hartford City, about four and a half years ago. She had been under medical care ever since, though until her general health gave way, about six months ago, few even of her intimate friends suspected that so grievous an affliction was upon her. From the first she bore her trouble with resignation and courage. She wanted to live here on the earth a while longer with her husband and friends, but she was not afraid to die, and talked as calmly about it as people ordinarily do about going from one city to another. One day she thought there must be a good many people in heaven whom she knew, and tried to make a list of her personal friends who have gone there; the task was, of course, too great for her, but she became quite happy when she discovered that a very large company would recognize her on the other side, and that heaven would not be a strange place to her. The summons came to her on December 27th, at the parsonage home in Pendleton, Indiana, and she went without a murmur.

She leaves, besides her husband, one sister, Mrs. Jennie Doney, of Rock Island, Illinois, and one brother, Samuel McFarland, of Cripple Creek, Colorado.

Good-bye till we meet in the morning.

Age at time of death, fifty-nine years, seven months, and twenty-four days.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Pendleton, Indiana, in charge of Rev. C. E. Line, Superintendent of Muncie District, assisted by Revs. M. S. Marble, L. J. Naftzger, and P. J. Albright. Twenty members of the Conference were present, four wives of ministers, a large company of friends from Pendleton, a number from Hartford City and Union City, former charges, who came to pay special tribute to the nobleness of her character and express sympathy for the sorrowing. The body was laid to rest in the Grove Lawn Cemetery at Pendleton, Indiana, December 29, 1913.—P. J. ALBRIGHT.

WALTER A. FOUTS.

Walter A. Fouts, son of George L. and Della Fouts, was born August 24, 1886, near Chili, Miami County, Indiana. He died in Union Hospital, Terre Haute, Indiana, February 7, 1914, aged twenty-seven years, five months, and thirteen days. Brother Fouts' parents were of the Dunkard persuasion, and his early childhood training was in that faith. But in his boyhood he attended Sunday school and religious services at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Chili, Indiana, and during the pastorate of Rev. J. M. Baker he was converted and united with our Church. This was an event worthy of special note in the local Church. Brother Fouts was a rare young man of fine presence, high ideals, tireless energy, often going to the full limit of his physical strength. He had a clear vision of the needs of the Church and of the age, and prepared himself thoroughly for the work of the ministry. He graduated from the Peru high school in 1904. He then taught two years in the common schools and one year in high school. He graduated from DePauw University in 1910 with the honors of his class. He then entered Garrett Theological Seminary, and graduated May 28, 1913. (During his student days at Garrett he served as pastor at Wanatah and Creston, Northwest Indiana Conference.) Brother Fouts entered the North Indiana Conference, April 10, 1911, at Kokomo, Indiana, Bishop Hughes presiding. He served the following charges: Hobbs and Florida, and West Middleton. He was a brilliant and impressive preacher, a faithful pastor, and a wise administrator. He was a beloved brother, making friends wherever he went. His brethren in the ministry held him in the highest esteem and looked upon him as a man who would be sure to reach a high place in his calling. He had an intense, burning desire to extend the work of the Kingdom. It was one of the greatest trials of his life when he had to cease work to battle for life. He preached his last sermon while sitting, being too weak to stand. And it is said he made a profound impression upon those who heard him. Soon after entering upon his work at West Middleton he was married to Bessie Levering, May 27, 1913. She was a graduate of DePauw, and well equipped by education and temperament to make him a superb companion. Everything last spring seemed favorable to our brother. The May spirit tarried with them through the summer and autumn months—filled with happiness, flowers, and music. But in the late fall a change came over the household. Symptoms of typhoid fever appeared. The most skillful physician and vigilant nurse could not save our brother's life. The chariot of the King waited to convey him to the city of our God. Has he ceased his work? No. His mission has only widened. The great Master shall be his Teacher, and the infinite years are his. The reason he was called from earth has been revealed to him. It is a mystery no longer. But it is sweet to think that though we see him not, he has carried to the skies precious memories of earth. The affections of earth shall never fade away in the heart—even in heaven.

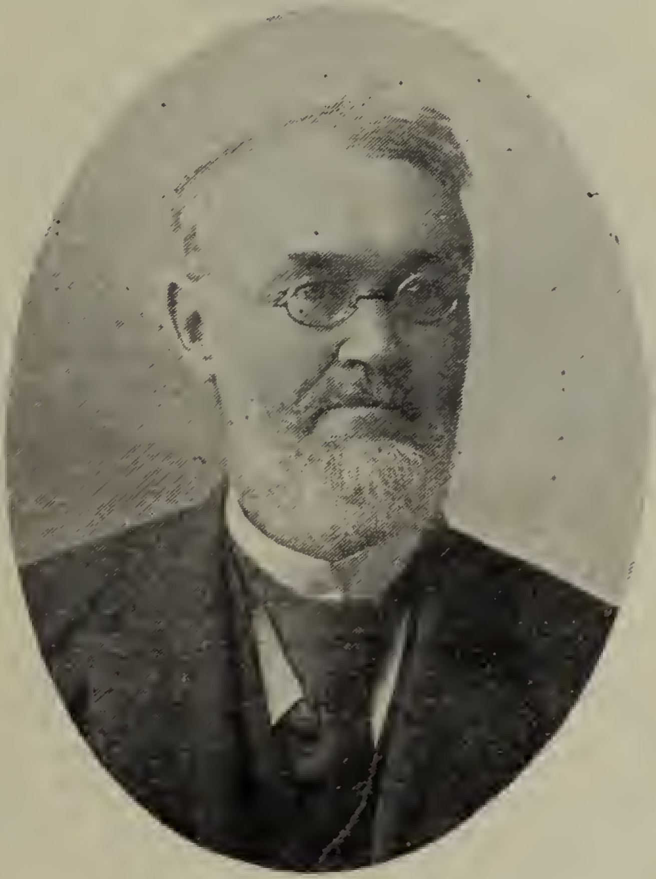
Rev. W. A. Fouts.

"The kindred tie that bound us here,
Though rent apart with many a tear,
Is still renewed in heaven."

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Chili, under the direction of the District Superintendent, B. S. Hollopeter. A large number of ministerial brethren attended. Rev. H. N. Herrick, W. C. Asay, and J. B. Cook assisted in the services, voicing in tender and appreciative words the high esteem in which our brother was held by all who knew him. His tired body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Chili, Indiana. —B. S. Hollopeter.

ALMON GREENMAN.

Almon Greenman, the eldest son of Anson and Olive Cunningham-Greenman, was born in Summitt County, Ohio, December 12, 1826. At ten years of age the family moved to where Kendallville, Indiana, now stands, and was the third to settle in the then almost unbroken wilderness, uninhabited save by the Indians and wild game; and they experienced during those early years the hardships and privations of pioneer life. His educational opportunities were limited to the district school, to a part of a year in the old Ontario Collegiate Institute, and to a part of a year in Asbury, now DePauw University. But in this latter he came into close contact with its greatest president, Bishop Matthew Simpson, and attributed high value to his advice and influence during that formative period of his life. Later he followed the four studies required of candidates for the ministry of our Church, and then, with his natural studious habits and the demands of his work, read the best literature in his own and other lines until he became a well-read and widely informed man, and built up a fine library for his time.



Rev. A. Greenman.

He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Wolcottville, Indiana, at the invitation of Rev. George M. Boyde, August 17, 1844, and was converted at a class-meeting eight days later, and was baptized the 8th day of August of the following year by Rev. W. J. Forbes, and the 19th day of December, that same year, he was appointed a class leader by the Rev. E. S. Blue. Then he went to Asbury University, expecting to complete the course, but was called home early in 1847 by the death of his father, which left him, as the eldest of nine children, and his own mother also deceased, with a heavy burden of responsibility.

He seems to have been given authority to exhort by Rev. G. M. Boyd, of the LaGrange Circuit, in the early part of 1847, which was confirmed by the formal act of the Quarterly Meeting, August 23d of that same year; and this was succeeded by the formal license to preach, given by the same Quarterly Conference on the 29th of July, 1848, and signed by Samuel Brenton, Presiding Elder, and from June on to September he did his first itinerant work, under the Rev. L. W. Monson, pastor of that circuit. Then for two years he seems to have been fighting the call to the ministry and engaged in other occupations, including teaching; but he was recommended and received on trial into the North Indiana Conference in August, 1850, and appointed by Bishop Waugh as assistant to the Rev. Jesse Sparks on Allen Circuit, comprising fifteen preaching places; and so, he said, "After two years, like Jonah, I went back to the work to which God had called me." He was ordained deacon by Bishop Baker, and elder by Bishop Simpson, and his record since is a part of the history of Methodism in this part of the State, where, with the exception of two years in the located relation, passed in Marion, and two years as pastor of the First Church in Springfield, Missouri, he filled a number of the most important charges; was Presiding Elder of the Goshen District for a full term. In 1880 he was a delegate to the General Conference. He retired in the year 1889, but even after that he supplied charges and did not give up the work entirely until 1892. Since his retirement he has lived in Marion, Indiana, where he was three times pastor in charge.

He was married to Emily A. Witter, at Dunbar, Pennsylvania, May 31, 1852, and they journeyed in an open buggy from their old to their new home (requiring some three weeks of travel) near Indianapolis, on the Allisonville Circuit. To them were born seven children, two of whom died in infancy, and the surviving children are Almon Witter Greenman, of Naples, Italy; Emily A., of Marion, Indiana; Olive L. Rerick, of Marion, and Alfred L., of Huntington. There are a number of grandchildren and several great-grandchildren. His wife, Emily A., died in Marion in 1892. In 1893 he married Mrs. Mary A. Hansley, who, however, died in December of that same year. Since that time he has been making his home with his son at Huntington and his son-in-law at Marion. Increasing feebleness incident to advancing years has confined him to the house for most of the time for several years, until Saturday morning, February 28, 1914,

"The weary wheels of life stood still."

His children rejoice in the privilege of the affection and life of such a father.

The funeral services occurred at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Marion, March 3d. Dr. M. S. Marble, Dr. H. N. Herrick, and G. B. Work delivered addresses, and J. F. Porter, J. W. Cain, T. C. Neal, P. J. Albright, and Earle Naftzger had part on the program. The pallbearers were Revs. J. J. Fred, L. M. Krider, E. E. Lutes, D. Wells, J. W. Walters, and W. H. Harrison. Interment was made in the cemetery at Marion.

SARAH J. WILLIAMS.

Human life is a gift incomparable. Time is opportunity for but a brief disclosure of its nature, essence, potentiality. The achievements of a few brief years are a faint suggestion of the scope of its endeavors in the beautiful life beyond. "We know not what we shall be." The one life—the life perfect—is what every life should aspire to now and here. When this obtains, "We know that when He shall appear we shall be like Him." This is the soul's supreme satisfaction now and for evermore. Under the dominion of these great principles the following brief memoir is written.

Sarah J., only daughter of John and Nancy Roby, was born four miles south of Wabash, Indiana, March 26, 1862, and received her spiritual coronation on March 14, 1914, at 9.35 o'clock in the morning, in the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Alexandria, Indiana. She is survived by her mother, her husband, the Rev. Dorie V. Williams, and daughter Grace.

When three years of age, with her parents, she moved to Miami County, Indiana, and settled on a farm three miles south of Paw Paw. An adjoining farm was owned by Mr. J. D. Williams, father of a son, Dorie V., who became her playmate, classmate, friend, protector, lover, husband, provider, counselor, comforter in sickness and in health, sharer of her joys and afflictions in life, and now, beneath the burden of a great sorrow, by faith shares her triumph among the celestials, who, having turned many to righteousness, shine as the stars for ever and ever.

Her marriage with the Rev. Dorie V. Williams occurred at her home on December 18, 1881. To them were born two children, the second a son, who tarried but a short time and then slipped into the embrace of Jesus the Good Shepherd; the first, a daughter, Grace, whose life was a solace to her mother, always a benediction in the home, and now in the mutual comfort of father and daughter, exemplifies the highest standards of Christian fortitude.

Mrs. S. J. Williams.

After a brief residence with her husband on her father's estate, they moved to Bourbon, Indiana, where they resided until her husband was employed to supply the Valentine Charge in the North Indiana Conference, to which place they moved in September, 1887. In the year 1888 he was received into the North Indiana Conference, since which time they have served the following charges: Valentine, Inwood, Selma, (Markland Ave.) Kokomo, Eaton, Garrett, (First Church) Noblesville, and Alexandria.

Her religious life began on February 18, 1880, when, under the ministry of Rev. L. W. Monson and Rev. Daniel Markley, she was led to receive Christ as her Friend, Companion, and Savior from all sin. From that time the life of God found constant expression in her personality, making an appeal to all for closer relationship to the Father, and through her influence many were led into vital touch with Christ. She adorned the gospel preached by her husband with such outstanding characteristics as simplicity, consistency, patience, devotion, faithfulness, and self-sacrifice for the welfare of others.

While no department of Church work, from the most intense spirit of evangelism to all the avenues of religious experience leading to the most perfect refinements of life, escaped her interest and attention, probably she left the impression of her life more deeply upon the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society than upon any other organization. From childhood this field of religious endeavor made a powerful appeal to her. As Corresponding Secretary of various auxiliaries she mastered this work in all its details and became one of the best informed women on the subject in the Conference.

In her departure society sustains the loss of one who cheerfully made the offering of life for others; the Church in its ministry, one who was true and trustworthy; the home, one whose precious memory will be an abiding comfort and a never-failing inspiration to faithfully perform the constantly increasing tasks of earthly existence.

In perfect harmony with her literary tastes, the following lines present a beautiful interpretation of the spirit of her life as we knew her:

"Sunset and evening star,
  And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
  When I put out to sea.

"For tho' from out the bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

On March 17, 1914, in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Alexandria, her funeral service was conducted by the Rev. C. E. Line, D. D., District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. J. O. Bills, Rev. J. E. Williams, D. D., Rev. L. J. Naftzger, D. D., Rev. M. S. Marble, D. D., and the Rev. Wm. McKinney, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The high esteem in which Sister Williams and her family are held was witnessed by the large attendance of sympathetic friends, including many preachers of the Conference. Interment was made in Park View Cemetery, Alexandria, Ind.

Appointment Record.

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1914, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy., Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired. SECRETARY.

Explanatory—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record. it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements:

First—The instruction should be thorough.
Second—The equipment should be generous.
Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.
Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.
Fifth—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.
Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE OFFERS THE FOLLOWING COURSES:

Regular College and Preparatory Courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science.

Special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why should any Illinois young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized, the college would not be able to take care of more than half the applications.

Taylor University

Upland, Indiana :-: Co-educational

College of Liberal Arts—Commissioned Academy
Theological School—Music School
Oratorical School

Strong Courses, Strong Faculty, High Moral and Spiritual Atmosphere is the combination that has caused the rapid growth in the past six years.

A new Chapel; a new Music Hall; a new Gymnasium; a new Steam Heating Plant; a new Cement Walk are among the latest improvements.

Taylor's plea for students and for endowment is:

First.—She works in harmony with the Church, helping to save the young people from our Church homes and helping the young convert on to a higher life.

Second.—She is sending out thoroughly equipped preachers into the pulpits of our churches and missionaries into the home and foreign land, all with the one purpose of giving themselves for the salvation of the world.

Third.—She is sending out laymen who will be loyal to the Church of Jesus Christ and zealous for the building up of His Kingdom.

PRESIDENT M. VAYHINGER, :-: Upland, Indiana

DePAUW UNIVERSITY

THE OLDEST, LARGEST, AND BEST EQUIPPED INSTITUTION UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN INDIANA

Nineteen departments in the College of Liberal Arts, each in charge of a professor especially trained for his line of work. Twelve buildings—eight devoted exclusively to educational purposes.

The Greencastle Academy, in affiliation with the University, but in a separate building and under the administration of its own principal and instructors, is a model secondary school.

The Department of Education offers special courses in Psychology, History of Education, Normal Methods, Observation and Practice Teaching. Students prepared for Certificates A. B., and C.

The Schools of Music and Art, each having a special building, with teachers having thorough training at home and abroad, offer attractive courses for teachers of Music, Drawing, Painting, and Wood Carving.

Over one thousand students enrolled this year—over seven hundred in the College of Liberal Arts.

The following Probationers responded:

J. C. Wengatz, K. R. Thompson, J. O. Hochstedler, F. S. Young, W. F. Buckner, A. F. White, A. V. Patten, V. L. Clear, T. S. Haddock, A. K. Love, R. H. Stone, R. H. Detweiler, W. Roahrig, F. W. Chapman, J. S. Phillips.

Deceased.—At the request of the Bishop, the members of the Conference stood while the Secretary called the names of the following members deceased within the year: Francis A.

Reichelderfer, Charles E. Davis, Chauncey King, Henry Warland Bennett, William Lash, and Hugh J. Norris. After the names had been called, the Bishop led the Conference in singing,

"There's a land that is fairer than day,"

and

"Oh! how sweet it will be,"

after which he led in a very tender prayer for those who mourned and for the Conference bereaved of their comradeship.

Organization.—On motion of C. E. Line, Dorie V. Williams was re-elected Secretary, and, on his nomination, the following were elected his assistants: William A. Griest, Frank S. Hickman, and W. Earl Pittenger.

On motion of R. J. Wade, John C. White was elected Statistical Secretary, and, on his nomination, Peter H. Walter, Edward E. DeWitt, Ernest C. Hallman, Leroy W. Kemper, and James A. Sprague were elected his assistants.

On motion of C. E. Line, Davis S. Jones was re-elected Treasurer. On his nomination, Charles B. Dougherty, Silas Cates, George F. Hubbartt, Charles B. Croxall, Fremont E. Fribley, and Ephraim Leese were elected his assistants.

At this time the Bishop called the attention of the Conference to the fact that one of its members, Rev. T. C. Neal, was a composer of hymns, and invited him to a seat on the platform. The hymn, "Father eternal, Creator, Preserver," which Brother Neal had composed for this session, was then sung by the Conference.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, W. E. Hamilton was elected a member of the Board of Stewards in place of Frank Lacy, and A. G. Neal and J. C. Graham were also elected members of the Board to serve for a term of three years.

Triers of Appeals.—On the nomination of the Cabinet, the following were elected Triers of Appeals: C. U. Wade, L. J. Naftzger, W. D. Parr, J. C. White, W. B. Freeland. Reserves: L. M. Krider, H. C. Harmon.

Draft.—The Bishop announced a draft from the Book Concern, amounting to $4,759, and, on motion, the same was ordered endorsed and turned over to the Board of Stewards.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to send the greetings of this Conference to Dr. Milton Mahin, the oldest member of the same.

On motion of W. W. Martin, it was ordered that a committee of one from each district be constituted to bring in report to include the salaries of the District Superintendents and those engaged in special work, as a basis for the distribution of the Conference Claimants' funds. The following were constituted the committee: D. H. Guild, W. E. Hogan, Arthur Cates, J. A. Patterson, U. S. A. Bridge, O. B. Morris.

Order of the Day.—On motion of R. J. Wade, the consideration of Question 36 was made the order of the day for Friday, immediately after the reading of the journal.

On motion of W. D. Parr, the election of delegates to the General Conference was made the order of the day for Friday, immediately after the consideration of Question 36.

On motion of J. A. Beatty, the action of the Conference whereby those who took a retired relation were made beneficiaries of the Conference Claimants' Funds at the same session in which the relation was granted, was made to include Conference widows and children.

Sympathy.—D. H. Guild announced that on account of the recent bereavement that has come to Bishop Hartzell, he would not be able to be present at this session of the Conference, and, on his motion, the Secretary was requested to send him a message of sympathy from the Conference. Bishop McDowell led the Conference in prayer for Bishop Hartzell and also for Bishop Luccock, who was dangerously ill.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question, "Was the Character of Each Preacher Examined?" was called. The character of B. S. Roscoe Shaw was appointed agent to solicit subscriptions for the Methodist Review.

F. B. Fisher was appointed solicitor for the World Outlook.

The Circuit Rider of Indiana Methodism.—The Bishop called the attention of the Conference to the book, The Circuit Rider of Indiana Methodism, by Prof. W. W. Sweet, of the Committee of Conference Historians, and W. B. Freeland presented the matter of receiving subscriptions for the volume.

Resolution.—The following resolution was introduced by M. S. Marble, and, on his motion, adopted:

WHEREAS, The apportionments of the North Indiana Conference for the support of the Conference Claimants, adjusted in harmony with the Disciplinary standard at our last session, has increased our revenues for this sacred purpose; and,

WHEREAS, It is our fixed purpose to administer these funds in accordance with the strictest economy and in the spirit of the law of the church; therefore, be it

Resolved, First—That the Board of Stewards be and are directed to hereafter pay all annuities and claims to those who at this and succeeding sessions become claimants on these funds, quarterly in advance.

Second—That in the interval between the Annual Conference any one ceasing to become a claimant by appointment by a District Superintendent, or otherwise, further payment of his annuity shall be discontinued.

Third—That in the event of an emergency during the Conference year the officers of the Board of Stewards be and are hereby authorized, upon the advice of the District Superintendents, to make suitable allowance for such emergency from such available funds as they may have in hand.

Fourth—That the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be required to give bond for the proper administration of these funds, the expense of such bond to be paid out of the funds and the bond itself to be approved and kept by the officers of the North Indiana Conference Corporation.

Order of the Day: Preachers' Aid Society.—The constitutional time for the meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society having arrived, the Conference adjourned and the Preachers' Aid Society was called to order by Bishop McDowell.

C. U. Wade, Secretary, made his report, which, on motion, was accepted and ordered placed on file and printed in the Minutes.

On motion, W. B. Freeland, O. A. Trabue, and W. T. Arnold were appointed a committee to nominate the officers for the coming year.

On motion of C. E. Line, the Nominating Committee was instructed to nominate the new District Superintendent of the Muncie District to be a member of the Board of Managers.

On motion, the following were constituted a Disbursing Committee to distribute the funds of the society for the work of the Board of Stewards: J. W. Cain, A. Cates, F. F. Thornburg.

J. W. Cain, for the officers and managers, read the report of the editing of the Constitution which was adopted, and the Constitution changed so as to provide for seven managers instead of five. On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the new Constitution was ordered printed in the Minutes, and 1,000 extra copies for distribution by the society.

W. B. Freeland moved that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 10 A. M., Saturday, which motion carried.

J. W. Cain, General Secretary, made his report, which was adopted, and ordered printed in the Minutes, together with the list of memorial gifts to the society.

W. W. Martin, Secretary of the committee on the larger plans for the work of the society, read the committee's report, but, on motion, action upon the report was postponed until Saturday's session, and recommitted to the committee.

The society, on motion, adjourned, and the Conference reconvened.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question was resumed, and Muncie District was called. The character of C. E. Line, District Superintendent, was passed, and he reported his district. J. A. Patterson, on behalf of the preachers of the district, presented Dr. Line with a (silver) purse of gold, which he received with an appropriate reply and promised to give to his wife.

The following effective elders were passed in character, and they reported according to the rule: J. H. Palmer, H. E. Forbes, D. V. Williams, Eugene Allen, W. M. Hollopeter, J. A. Ruley, C. M. Hobbs, E. E. DeWitt, J. A. Patterson, W. W. Wiant, C. B. Dougherty, E. E. Trippeer, P. H. Walter, P. E. Greenwalt, F. E. Fribley, W. W. Martin, D. S. Jones, J. L. Murr, T. J. Johnson, F. A. Hall, J. E. Williams, B. E. Jones, L. A. Sevits, G. F. Osbun, C. E. White, E. E. Lutes, V. B. Hargitt.

When the name of J. A. Ruley was called, he asked for the retired relation, which request was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

When the name of John Jones was called, he was announced as transferred to the East Maine Conference.

When the name of Charles Pitman was called, his request to withdraw from the membership and ministry of our church was granted.

The Fort Wayne District was called, and the character of James A. Beatty was passed, and he reported his district. F. F. Thornburg, on behalf of the preachers of that district, presented Dr. Beatty with a typewriter, which was received with a gracious word of acceptance.

The characters of the following effective elders were passed, and they reported according to the rule: H. S. Nickerson, F. F. Thornburg, W. T. Arnold, E. E. Wright, D. T. Stephenson, D. H. Guild, F. H. Cremean, Joseph Grimes, H. L. Overdeer, T. M. Hill, C. C. Travis, L. W. Kemper, C. Tinkham, J. F. Lutey, S. I. Zechiel, E. M. Foster, J. W. Gruber, D. A. J. Brown, E. J. Maupin, J. S. Phillips, C. M. Hollopeter, J. O. Powell, B. F. Hornaday, J. O. Bills, J. W. Powell, E. M. Dunbar, A. S. Preston, H. Lacy, J. C. Valentine. When the name of J. E. Coffin was called, on motion, he was permitted to withdraw from the membership and ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church under charges.

The Bishop announced that, with the consent of the Conference, the first business of to-morrow morning will be to ask and answer Question Eight, "Who Have Been Admitted Into Full Connection?"

Committee on Memorials.—On motion of M. S. Marble, the following were constituted a committee to whom should be referred all memorials to the General Conference which shall be offered to our Conference for endorsement, the committee to recommend what our Conference action should be: L. M. Edwards, A. S. Preston, Earl Naftzger, G. R. Grose, U. S. A. Bridge.

Veterans' Day.—On motion of J. C. White, it was ordered that we observe Veterans' Day on June 25, except in those districts where other arrangements have been made.

Introductions.—The following were introduced to the Conference: W. E. McKenzie, E. W. Dunlavey, A. T. Briggs, U. G. Leazenby, W. B. Morgan, E. S. Shumaker, Oakel Hall, all members of the Northwest Indiana Conference; Virgil Thompson, of the Indiana Conference, and C. A. Kelley, of the Rock River Conference.

The long-meter doxology was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by C. A. Kelley, and Conference stood adjourned.

THIRD DAY.

Friday Morning, March 31, 1916.

The Conference met at 8:30 A. M., with Bishop McDowell in the chair. He announced Hymn No. 332,

"Thou, my everlasting portion,"

and Hymn No. 536,

"Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts,"

which were sung.

Eighth Question—"Who Have Been Admitted Into Full Membership?"—was asked. The following were passed in character, reported their collections, were reported in their studies, recommended by the Committee on General Qualifications, represented by their respective District Superintendents, advanced to the Studies of the Third Year, elected to full membership, and those not ordained deacons to Deacon's Orders.

The following were elected to membership and Deacon's Orders: Valorous L. Clear, True S. Haddock, Alvin F. White, Charles W. Chadwick.

Ferdinand A. Shipley was announced transferred back to this Conference, and he was then elected to full membership and to Deacon's Orders.

The following were elected to full membership only, having been previously ordained deacon: Earl D. Imler, Jesse O. Hochstedler, William F. Buckner, Alfred V. Patten, Karl R. Thompson, J. Ira Jones, John C. Wengatz.

J. Ira Jones, having answered the questions in another Conference, was elected to full membership in his absence.

Jesse Denbo was discontinued. Charles W. Jeffras was continued on trial in the Studies of the Third Year.

Alfred H. Kenna, FitzJames Robbins, and Frank S. Young were continued on trial in the Studies of the Second Year.

Luther E. Markin was discontinued at his own request.

Guy H. Black was announced transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference, and Alfred E. Chastain to the Indiana Conference.

The class for full admission was called forward, addressed by the Bishop, asked the Disciplinary questions, and admitted into full membership. At the request of the Bishop, Dr. George Elliott, of the Detroit Conference, led in prayer.

W. D. Parr announced the death of James F. Morrison, a former prominent member of the Lay Electoral Conference, and, at his request, the Secretary, who was a former pastor of the deceased, was asked to send a message of sympathy to the widow.

On motion of C. E. Line, the Secretary was requested to send a message of tender sympathy to Rev. P. J. Albright, who is ill at his home in Kokomo.

Journal.—The journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

Thirty-sixth Question.—The Thirty-sixth Question, "Where Shall the Next Conference be Held?" was called.

First Church, Warsaw, and First Church, Huntington, through their respective pastors, invited the Conference to meet in their cities. After First Church, Warsaw, had been represented by A. G. Neal, and First Church, Huntington, by W. F. Smith, a count vote was taken, which resulted in 105 votes for Warsaw and 123 for Huntington. On motion of A. G. Neal, the invitation from Huntington was unanimously accepted, and, on motion, a vote of thanks was tendered the church at Warsaw for its invitation.

Order of the Day.—The time having arrived for balloting for delegates to the General Conference, the Secretary read the following rules to govern the election of delegates, which, on his motion, were adopted:

(1) Election of delegates shall be by ballot.

(2) A majority of all votes cast shall be required to elect.

(3) If more than the number to be elected receive the majority, then the requisite number having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

(4) A ballot shall be void if it contains more or less number of names than the number of delegates to be elected on that ballot.

(5) In voting for either of two men of the same name, the initials or given name shall be supplied, or some sufficient designation.

(6) Three reserve delegates shall be elected, subject to the foregoing rules.

(7) Only the Official Blank Ballot furnished by the Book Concern shall be used.

M. S. Marble asked for a report of the Committee on Publication of the History of Methodism. Prof. W. W. Sweet, who has charge of the work, called the attention of the Conference to the necessity of having enlarged the sphere of the work, and the first volume was now ready for sale.

On motion of W. D. Parr, the Publishing Committee was instructed to prepare plans for financing the publication of the volumes.

The Cabinet announced the following as the tellers for the election of delegates to the General Conference: H. S. Nickerson, T. M. Hill, J. C. Graham, C. L. DeBow, E. S. Riley, C. H. Smith, F. A. Hall, E. E. Trippeer, U. S. A. Bridge, H. C. Harmon, B. E. Parker, I. R. Godwin.

The vote was taken, and the tellers retired with Earl Pittenger, one of the Assistant Secretaries, to count the ballots.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 1:30 this afternoon, in joint session with the Lay Electoral Conference. On his motion, Fred B. Fisher and Leslie J. Naftzger were constituted a committee to invite the Lay Electoral Conference to meet with us in joint session.

Representation.—E. S. Shumaker, Superintendent of Indiana Anti-Saloon League, was introduced to the Conference, and represented the work of the League.

E. C. Wareing, assistant editor of the Western Christian Advocate, was introduced, and spoke in the interests of that paper.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that in the joint session the members of the Lay Electoral Conference be seated in the middle sections of the church.

L. M. Edwards read the following memorial relative to Church Papers and Episcopal Areas, which, on motion, was adopted:

WHEREAS, There is now a demand for a new program relative to our church papers, and the Bishops have heeded the request of the last General Conference to assign themselves certain episcopal areas for the past quadrennium:

Resolved, That the North Indiana Conference request the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to enact legislation providing for one Christian Advocate for general circulation throughout the denomination, which shall deal with the denomination as a whole.

Resolved, also, That we request that provision be made whereby our church papers, other than this one, shall become organs for specific episcopal areas. Where the church membership within the episcopal area will justify, let there be an official paper for the single area. In other territory let the official paper be for two or more areas. Where unofficial papers already exist, in some way provide that these shall be utilized as far as posible in this program.

Resolved, also, That these official organs shall be heartily identified with our various benevolent and evangelistic programs within their circulation area.

Resolved, further, That provision for the management of all these publications shall be made so that the resident Bishop or Bishops, with the Editor and Agent of the Methodist Book Concern, shall direct the policy and the circulation, and shall be responsible for the business management of each paper.

Twenty-third Question. — The Twenty-third Question, "Who Are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was asked, and the following were passed in character and continued in this relation: J. Z. Barrett, G. H. Crafts, J. M. Haines, C. A. Hunt, F. J. Speckien. When the name of A. H. Hirsch was called, he was passed in character and asked to locate within one or two years.

Change of Relation.—L. A. Beeks, from Supernumerary to Retired, his character having been passed. F. P. Johnson and W. E. Murray were changed from Supernumerary to Effective.

G. W. Keisling was granted a certificate of location at his own request, his character having been passed.

When the name of L. E. Knox was called, it was announced that he had withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The following were changed from Effective to Retired, having been passed in character: L. A. Sevits, F. M. Lacy, M. R. Peirce, J. A. Ruley, and J. E. Williams. "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung at the conclusion of the granting of these changes in relation.

C. A. Kelley, from the Rock River Conference, representing the Board of Conference Claimants, addressed the Conference in the interests of the Board, and presented the Conference with a check from the Board amounting to $200, which was turned over to the Treasurer for the Board of Stewards.

First Ballot.—The tellers returned and reported the result of the first ballot for delegates to General Conference as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 235; defective, 8; net legal vote, 227; necessary to a choice, 114. B. S. Hollopeter received 114 votes, and was declared elected. R. J. Wade, 108; G. R. Grose, 101; S. Light, 95; J. A. Beatty, 89; W. W. Martin, 70; L. M. Edwards, 57; M. S. Marble, 54; C. E. On motion of C. H. Smith, it was ordered that no name be announced that has received fewer than 10 votes.

Resolution.—The following resolution was read and adopted:

WHEREAS, Paragraph 85 of the Discipline specifies the duty of a District Superintendent and pastor as to claim of retired ministers, and Paragraph 313 is also clear and definite as to the fact that the District Superintendent and pastor must prorate with the Retired Ministers' Fund; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Conference call for the enforcement of the laws of the church and that all who have failed to prorate be required to at once see the Conference Treasurer and pay the amount of delinquency now standing against them. And that the Conference Treasurer shall report all pastors in open session of Conference Saturday morning who fail to adjust this claim on the Disciplinary basis.

(Signed): G. B. Work, Charles H. Smith, Richard C. Jones, W. B. Freeland, J. L. Gillard, J. O. Bills, J. J. Fred.

Special Claims.—On motion of L. M. Krider, the Stewards were authorized to use five per cent of their funds for payment of special claims.

The committees were called and announcements made, doxology was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by R. S. Reed, and the Conference stood adjourned.

THIRD DAY.

Afternoon Session.

Conference met at 1:30, with Bishop McDowell in the chair. He led in the singing of "Nearer, my God, to thee" and "Work, for the night is coming," after which he introduced Brother E. Starbuck, of Goshen, President of the Lay Electoral Conference, who shared with him in presiding during the joint session of the Conference and Lay Electoral Conference. The following lay delegates elected by the Lay Electoral Conference to the General Conference were introduced: E. E. Youse, of Markle; Mrs. J. C. White, of Elkhart; B. W. Ayers, of Upland; G. E. Meck, of Kokomo; F. C. Parham, of Fort Wayne; Dr. G. H. Kemper, of Muncie, and George A. Whitesel, Santa Fe charge (postoffice, Peru, R. F. D. 10). The following were announced alternate delegates: J. T. Sutton, Dunkirk; O. N. Cranor, Albany, and Mrs. Josie Nelson, Union City.

The congregation was led in singing,

"True-hearted, whole-hearted,"

after which the Bishop introduced George Elliott, D.D., of the Detroit Conference, who spoke upon the theme, "The World's Debt to the Preacher."

On motion of C. U. Wade, a collection was ordered to be taken to defray the expenses of Dr. Elliott.

Election.—The Bishop reported the result of the second ballot for delegates to General Conference, as follows: Total number of ballots cast, 195; defective, 14; total counted, 181; necessary to elect, 91. R. J. Wade received 141, and was declared elected; G. R. Grose, 126, and declared elected; S. Light, 104, and declared elected. The following received less than 91 votes: W. W. Martin, 84; J. A. Beatty, 80; L. M. Edwards, 66; M. S. Marble, 57; C. C. Travis, 39; C. E. Line, 38; W. D. Parr, 31; L. J. Naftzger, 27; J. C. White, 26; A. G. Neal, 26; W. F. Smith, 20; G. B. Work, 19; W. B. On motion of C. C. Travis, it was ordered that we resume balloting to-morrow immediately after the reading of the journal.

On motion of the Secretary, the Conference adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.

Saturday, April 1, 1916.

Conference convened at 8:30 A. M., with Bishop McDowell in the chair. He opened the devotional services by announcing Hymn No. 332,

"Thou, my everlasting portion,"

and Hymn No. 540,

"O, could I speak the matchless worth,"

which were sung.

For a Scripture lesson the Bishop read a few verses from the Acts of the Apostles, from the first chapter, beginning at the sixth verse. His comments on the same were very helpful, and called special attention to divine companionship and that a call to service is a pledge of the presence of God and coming of Jesus. He closed the devotional service by prayer.

Journal.—The journal of the sessions of yesterday was read and approved.

The ballot was taken and the tellers retired to count the same.

Introduction.—F. M. Stone was introduced to the Conference, and represented the interests of the American University.

The tellers returned and reported that there had been no election.

A ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count the ballots.

George Richmond Grose, President of DePauw University, was introduced to the Conference, and represented that institution.

The tellers returned, and reported that there had been no election. The seventh ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count the same.

J. A. Beatty read a communication from certain parties relative to ground used for cemetery purposes in Adams County, Indiana, asking that the Conference deed it to the Trustees of Hartford Township, Adams County, Indiana, to be used for cemetery purposes and for no other purposes whatever. On motion, the Secretary and President of the Conference were ordered to sign the deed of conveyance.

Bishop Luccock.—The Bishop announced at this time the death of Bishop Naphtali Luccock at his home this morning, and that the funeral would be held next Tuesday. He led the Conference in prayer for the family and church deprived of one of its great leaders.

The tellers returned and reported the result of the seventh ballot as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 204; defective, 1; ballots counted, 203; necessary to choice, 102. C. Claude Travis received 146, and was declared elected. L. M. Edwards, 52, and M. S. Marble, 11.

Rules Suspended.—On motion of W. D. Parr, the rules were suspended and in the election of reserve delegates it was ordered that the three receiving the highest number of votes should be the reserve delegates. The ballot was taken and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Rev. A. B. Storms, of the Indiana Conference, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interests of the Church Federation, and asked that this Conference appoint two delegates. On motion of C. E. Line, the Bishop was requested to make this appointment.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The Conference business was suspended, and the Preachers' Aid Society was in session with Bishop McDowell in the chair. The Committee on Nominations reported the following nominations for next year, who, on motion, were elected: President, L. J. Naftzger; Vice-President, B. S. Hollopeter; Secretary, C. U. Wade; Treasurer, B. F. Shroyer; General Secretary, R. A. Morrison; Secretary ad interim, J. W. Cain.

Conference Session.—The business of the Conference was resumed, with Bishop McDowell in the chair.

F. F. Thornburg was excused on account of a funeral service.

The tellers returned, and the results of the ballot were announced. The three receiving the highest number of votes being L. M. Edwards, M. S. Marble, and W. B. Freeland, they were declared elected reserve delegates.

Eleventh Question.—The Eleventh Question, "What Members Have Completed the Conference Course of Study?" was called. The following were passed in character, were reported in their studies by the Registrar, and, on motion of their respective District Superintendents, were graduated from the Course of Study and elected to Elder's Orders: Charles W. Anderson, Charles A. Byrt, Karl H. Carlson, Joseph Grimes, Emory A. Hartman, William E. Hogan, Albert C. Hoover, Carey W. Montgomery, James H. Richardson, Chester B. Thomas.

Clyde R. Booth was announced transferred to the Michigan Conference. J. Ira Jones, having completed his Conference Course of Study, and having been ordained an Elder previously, was graduated from the Course.

Jesse B. O'Connor and Ernest J. Wickersham were continued in the Studies of the Fourth Year.

Herbert T. Prell was granted a certificate of location on his own request.

Tenth Question.—The Tenth Question, "What Members Are In the Studies of the Fourth Year?" was called. The following were passed in character, reported in their studies by the Registrar, and advanced to the Studies of the Fourth Year: Dale C. Beatty, Raymond H. Wehrley, John F. Blocker, John R. Stelle, Henry C. Powell.

The following were continued in the Studies of the Third Year: Carl E. Bash, Walter A. Huffman, Frank S. Hickman, Owen B. Young.

Ephraim Leese was advanced through his remaining studies, graduated from the Course of Study, and elected to Elder's Orders under Seminary Rule.

Robert M. Sand was changed from Effective to Supernumerary, with the understanding that he locate at the end of the year.

Twelfth Question.—The Twelfth Question, "What Others Have Been Elected and Ordained Deacons?" was called. The answer was none.

Thirteenth Question.—The Thirteenth Question, "What Others Have Been Elected and Ordained Elders?" was called. The following were passed in character, recommended by their District Superintendents, and elected to Elder's Orders under the Seminary Rule: Karl R. Thompson, Ferdinand A. Shipley, Jesse O. Hochstedler, Earl D. Imler.

Fifth Question.—The Fifth Question, "Who Have Been Received on Trial?" was called. The following were introduced to the Conference, reported in their studies by the Registrar, recommended by the Committee on General Qualifications, represented by their respective District Superintendents, and admitted on trial in the Conference in the Studies of the First Year: George E. Whitten, William H. Menaugh, and Justin A. Morrison, recommended by the Goshen District Conference; Edward Antle, recommended by the Grace Church, Kokomo, Quarterly Conference; Richard I. Stone, recommended by the Muncie District Conference; Russell S. Jones, recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Derby, East Maine Annual Conference; William C. Howard, Benjamin H. Franklin, William O. Power, recommended by the Richmond District Conference.

Lynn H. Hough, of Garrett Biblical Institute, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of that institution.

Flood Fund.—The following resolution was offered by M. S. Marble, and adopted:

Whereas, The Flood Fund was created to meet an emergency, and,

Whereas, There is now a balance in said fund after meeting the purpose for which it was specifically created, and some unpaid subscriptions; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Stewards be and are hereby authorized and directed to create a personal emergency fund, to be administered by the officers of the Board and District Superintendent of the district in which an emergency may arise; and for the creation of this fund the Treasurer of the Flood

Fund Account be hereby authorized and directed to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards the said balance which is now to the credit of the said Flood Fund, and all unpaid subscriptions for the said Flood Fund, taking his receipt for the money thus paid. (Signed) M. S. Marble.

Preachers' Aid.—The Preachers' Aid Society reconvened, with Bishop McDowell in the chair. The following resolution was offered by W. W. Martin, and adopted:

We recommend, first, That a campaign be inaugurated to increase the endowment funds of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference to $250,000, including the present funds, the amount to be secured in wills-after-death bonds, annuities, real estate, in cash, and other gifts.

Second, The appointment of Brother R. A. Morrison as General Secretary, his work to begin as soon as he can be spared from Saint Paul Church, and the reappointment of J. W. Cain as General Secretary for the year, the time when the former shall begin his work to be referred to the Managers of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Third, That the effective members of the North Indiana Conference agree to pay annually as follows: Those who are receiving less than $1,000 cash salary, one half of one per cent; those receiving from $1,000 to $2,000, one per cent, and those receiving above $2,000, one and one half per cent.

On motion of C. U. Wade, it was ordered that the District Superintendents be requested to arrange for collection of the per cent levy for the Preachers' Aid Society.

On motion, the Preachers' Aid Society adjourned.

Conference Business Resumed.—On motion of M. S. Marble, the Bishop was requested to appoint Madison Swadener National Lecturer, Anti-Saloon League of America.

Eugene Allen was introduced to the Conference, and the Bishop announced his transfer to the Dakota Conference.

Ordination.—On account of being called home on account of funeral and sickness in the home, the Bishop ordained A. C. Hoover and Carey W. Montgomery as Elders.

The announcements were made, the Conference sang "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," and the benediction was pronounced by J. E. Williams, and the Conference stood adjourned.

FIFTH DAY.

Sunday, April 2, 1916.

The Conference met in annual love-feast at nine o'clock, in charge of J. K. Walts, assisted by W. S. Stewart and J. B. Cook.

Hymn No. 415,

"Faith of our fathers,"

was sung, and prayer was offered by J. B. Cook. Hymn No. 420, was sung. The Scripture lesson, consisting of Psalm 103 and selections from Revelation, seventh chapter, was read by W. S. Stewart. A large number participated in an excellent testimony service, which was opened by J. K. Walts.

"True-hearted, whole-hearted,"

At 10:30 the pastor of the church announced Hymn No. 180,

"All hail the power of Jesus' name," which was sung, and prayer was offered by J. A. Beatty. Hymn No. 411,

"O Master, let me walk with thee," was sung. The choir of the church added much to the beauty of the service by the most excellent music rendered during the morning service.

Bishop McDowell preached a most helpful and inspiring sermon from Exodus, fifteenth chapter, beginning with the twenty-third verse, on the theme, "The Incarnation, An Event and a Principle." After the singing of the closing hymn, the benediction was pronounced by Bishop McDowell.

Memorial Services.

At 2 P. M. the memorial services were opened by the Secretary announcing the hymn beginning, after the singing of which, prayer was offered by J. E. Williams.

"Fade, fade each earthly joy,"

W. A. Griest, one of the Assistant Secretaries, read the Scripture lesson.

The sermon, which was delivered by G. B. Work, from the text, Heb. 11. 13 and 10, was one of more than ordinary merit, on the theme, "The Victory of Faith."

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Naftzger assisted greatly in the memorial service by singing a beautiful duet, "This, too, shall pass away."

The North Indiana Conference Quartet sang in excellent spirit, "I want to go there."

The service closed with prayer and the benediction by the Secretary.

Ordination Service.

The ordination service was in charge of Bishop McDowell, at whose request the Secretary of the Conference called the names of the following: Valorous L. Clear, True S. Haddock, Alvin F. White, Charles W. Chadwick, and Ferdinand A. Shipley, and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained Deacons. After they had taken the vows, the Bishop ordained them Deacons.

The Secretary called the following to the altar and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained Elders: Charles W. Anderson, Charles A. Byrt, Karl H. Carlson, Joseph Grimes, Emory A. Hartman, William E. Hogan, James H. Richardson, Chester B. Thomas, Ephraim Leese, Karl R. Thompson, Ferdinand A. Shipley, Jesse O. Hochstedler, and Earl D. Imler. After these had taken the vows, the Bishop, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, ordained them Elders.

At the invitation of the Bishop, the wives of the men who had been ordained came to the altar, and other friends, and the Bishop led in a consecration song service of unusual power of the Holy Spirit. As a part of this consecration service he invited to the altar those who would consecrate their lives for special service to Jesus Christ and for salvation; to this more than twenty responded. The service was of unusual tenderness and power of the Spirit, and was without parallel in the history of our Conference. The benediction was pronounced by the Bishop.

SIXTH DAY.

Morning Session.

Monday morning, April 3, 1916.

The Conference convened at 8:30 A. M., Bishop McDowell in the chair. He opened the devotional services by announcing Hymn No. 337,

"Prince of peace,"

Hymn No. 548,

"Blessed assurance,"

and Hymn No. 568,

"Let us anew our journey pursue,"

which were sung. The Bishop then read for a Scripture lesson from the second letter to the Corinthians, chapter five, beginning with the sixteenth verse. After very helpful comments on the same, he called upon Dr. Line to lead in prayer, thus closing the devotional services.

Journal.—The journal of Saturday's session was read and approved.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that a record of the Sunday services, including the memorial and ordination services, be published in the Year-Book as a part of the Conference proceedings, and that the memoirs be adopted as the Official Memoirs of the Conference.

Church Treasurers.—On motion of C. E. Line, it was ordered that we request the charges to elect two treasurers, one for the general budget and another for the benevolences. It was also suggested that wherever expedient, the pastor might be the treasurer of the benevolences, and that the money be placed in the bank in the name of the local church to the order of the pastor.

Articles of Incorporation.—C. U. Wade, Treasurer of the Conference Corporation, made report, which was adopted and ordered printed in the Year-Book.

New articles of incorporation were read and adopted by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting, and the proper officers were ordered to take the necessary legal steps to complete the action. On motion, it was ordered that the new articles of incorporation be printed in the Year-Book. (See Reports.)

Officers of Conference Corporation.—President, Leslie J. Naftzger; Vice-President, T. M. Guild; Secretary, D. V. Williams; Treasurer, C. U. Wade.

T. Fettro, C. H. Wilkinson, O. V. L. Harvour, I. W. Singer, M. F. Stright, F. G. Browne, T. F. Frech, H. E. McFarlane, R. T. Laslie, J. B. Cook, J. M. B. Reeves.

When the name of E. F. Hasty was called, a letter was read from his pastor announcing his feeble health but triumphant spirit. When the name of J. W. Welch, who is the oldest member of this Conference, was called, on motion of W. W. Martin, his daughter, who was present, was asked to convey to him the love and greeting of his brethren in the ministry.

On motion of J. E. Ervin, E. L. Semans was elected Conference Correspondent of the retired ministers, whose duties in part would be to convey to the absentees the greetings of the Conference.

"Come, ye that love the Lord" was sung, and Bishop McDowell led in prayer.

Committee on Program.—On motion of the Secretary, the District Superintendent of Wabash District and the pastor of First Church, Huntington, were appointed a Committee on Program for the next session of the Annual Conference.

On motion of the Secretary, theJournal of the Laymen's Association and the Journal of the Lay Electoral Conference were ordered printed in our Year-Book.

Printing Journal.—On motion of W. A. Griest, the Secretary was ordered to have printed five thousand copies of the transactions of this Conference session, together with the reports and statistics, as the Official Journal, and to distribute the same to the districts pro rata with the number of members in full connection, and to send a copy to each retired member living without the bounds of the Conference and a copy to each Conference widow, and also to have a volume containing the records of the whole quadrennium bound and forwarded to the General Conference. It was further ordered, on motion of W. W. Martin, that one hundred dollars be added to the expense account of publishing the Year Book, to be given to the Secretary of the Conference as part pay for his services as Secretary.

Introduced.—P. J. Maveety, one of the Secretaries of the Freedmen's Aid Society, was introduced, and spoke in the interests of that society.

The Commission on Education made report, which was adopted. (See Report.)

Introduction.—S. H. Kirkbride, one of the Secretaries of the American Bible Society, was introduced, and spoke of the work of that society.

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, a collection was ordered taken, to be given to the janitor of the local church as an appreciation of services rendered. This collection amounted to twenty dollars.

On motion, C. W. Shumaker and J. B. Cook were appointed a committee to count the collection taken for the janitor and present the same to him.

R. J. Wade introduced a resolution concerning the uniting of this Conference with the Detroit area. The Conference unanimously refused to such union. R. J. Wade, for the Cabinet, then introduced a resolution asking for our continuance in the Chicago area and for the return of Bishop McDowell to be our resident Bishop for another quadrennium. S. Light, President of the Cabinet, put the motion to adopt, which was carried unanimously. The Bishop graciously expressed appreciation of the resolution. "The hymn "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung.

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, each pastor was requested to speak from his pulpit concerning The Circuit Rider of Methodism and the forthcoming volume of Conference history.

M. S. Marble, for the Publishing Committee of the History, recommended that the expense already incurred and unpaid shall be carried forward to the expense account of the volume to be published.

On motion of C. E. Line, the Secretary was ordered to edit the reports of the District Superintendents until they shall require not more than five pages.

New Hospital.—On motion of J. A. Beatty, the following were appointed a committee to confer with Drs. McBeth concerning a proposed new hospital in Fort Wayne, the committee to report next year. The committee appointed are: The District Superintendent of Fort Wayne District; the pastors of First Church, Huntington, and Bluffton, Fort Wayne, and C. U. Wade.

On motion of the Secretary, the committee appointed to prepare a Conference history was continued for another year.

Change of Relation.—On motion of the Committee on Conference Relation, the following changes of relation were made: R. I. Black, from effective to supernumerary, with a request to locate at the end of the year; C. M. Hollopeter, from effective to supernumerary; W. A. Huffman, from effective to supernumerary. G. H. Crafts was continued in the supernumerary relation.

The Committee on Education made report, which was adopted, and the nominees for various Trustees and Visitors as mentioned in the report elected. (See Report.)

A. S. Preston moved that the Conference Visitors to institutions of learning be requested to make such visit during the regular work of the school year, and make a report in writing to the Conference. Carried.

Memorials.—The Commission on Memorials made report. The vote on the Colorado amendment was taken: For, 144; against, 1.

The memorial concerning the division of the Book Concern dividends was adopted. (See Memorials.)

The memorial concerning the National Local Preachers' Association was adopted. (See Memorials.)

APPORTIONMENT OF BENEVOLENCES.

To the Districts of the North Indiana Conference for 1915-16.

The Disciplinary Benevolences were apportioned by H. B. Hollingshead, Secretary of Apportionment for the Methodist Episcopal Church. The grades used by him were also used in making all other apportionments to the districts.

B. S. HOLLOPETER,
Secretary of the Cabinet.

Reports of District Superintendents.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: In my sixth annual report, I am happy to record the continuous forward movement of Fort Wayne District. The symmetrical coming up of all departments of the work is most gratifying. It has not been our policy to magnify any one interest to the neglect of others.

J. A. Beatty.

During the year thirty-eight faithful pastors and fifteen hundred loyal laymen have applied themselves with unflagging zeal and devotion to the solution of the problems vital to our prosperity. The true mission of the church, with its bigness and intensity, has been emphasized. Intellect, activity, and courage have been combined with faith and heroic endeavor to purify the church and attract men to Jesus Christ.

Changes.—The first break came the last of June, when J. E. Coffin, appointed to the Hamilton charge, was discovered indulging in gross immoralties. When confronted with the charges, he confessed his guilt, and, at the request of the District Superintendent, he withdrew from the ministry and membership of the church and surrendered his credentials. L. G. Carnes was transferred from the Indiana Conference and took up the work the first of August. Brother Carnes has proven himself a true workman of God. He conducted an evangelistic campaign at Hamilton for three months, with over forty conversions. It is the first revival Hamilton has had for several years. New Haven was made vacant by the death of our dear Brother Chauncey King. H. C. Powell was taken from the Bobo charge the middle of December and placed at New Haven. The Quarterly Conference fixed his salary at $1,000, and the year is closing pleasantly and prosperously. G. L. Conway was transferred from the Indiana Conference and began the work immediately at Bobo. He has had great revivals, and the work has so increased in two months that petitions have come from Pleasant Mills and Salem asking to be made a two-point work, paying $1,000 pastoral support, rent a parsonage, and pledge the full payment of the other three salaries. Only two years ago this was a five-point circuit, paying $800 for pastoral support. These are great doings to occur in a few weeks' time.

Death Toll.—We are saddened to report that death has again entered our ranks. Zilpha Crafts, wife of Rev. George H. Crafts, after a lingering illness of more than two years, answered the call of the Master the 19th of last May and entered into rest from their home in Plymouth, Ohio. She was intensely interested with her husband in all phases of church work. She organized the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Monroe, where her dues are still paid. It would be hard to find a more devoted, saintly woman. Rev. Chauncey King was suddenly called from labor to reward. On Sunday night, November 7, he came to his crowning. The previous Sunday he was in his pulpit. For forty-one years he was a member of the North Indiana Conference, and much of that time a prominent figure with us. He had the confidence of his brethren, and we shall be poorer for his having left us. I must record the death of another who went out from one of our parsonage homes, but only relatively belonged there. It was Mary D. Travis, the beautiful, sweet-faced mother of Rev. C. Claude Travis. She was a woman of unusual intelligence and had traveled widely in this country and in South America. Only a few brief days she was sick, just as if God knew she did not need much time to get ready to die. Just before the beautiful Christmas time, December 12, she closed her eyes in a sweet farewell and slipped into the low-swinging chariot and entered into peaceful rest.

Fort Wayne Methodism.—Our Methodism in the city of Fort Wayne has had a phenomenal growth. Rev. C. Claude Travis is closing his seventh year in the Wayne Street Church. All phases of the work have been splendidly developed. It now ranks among the strong, popular churches of the city. It has sent out eleven ministers and missionaries to bless the world. It is establishing a fine record in the field of social service and civic righteousness. Rev. Travis is not only popular with his own church, but equally so throughout the city. Notwithstanding the flattering invitations from other large churches in the Conference, this great church is unanimously insisting that Brother Travis be retained.

Dr. D. H. Guild is closing his fourth year at First Church. While this is a down-town church, it is a perfect beehive of industry. It has a membership reaching up toward eleven hundred, and has the largest Young People's Society, touching more lines of work, than any in the district, or perhaps in the entire Conference. Dr. Guild has all departments of the church well organized, and it is advancing with majestic tread. The fourth Quarterly Conference unanimously invited Dr. Guild to return for another year.

This is Rev. H. L. Overdeer's first year at Simpson Church. He has had a great year, increasing the membership more than one hundred and the benevolences $343. He is also getting a good start in paying off the church debt. This church now ranks with the great churches of the city. The Quarterly Conference was unanimous in inviting the return of their pastor.

Rev. T. M. Hill is completing his sixth year at Trinity Church. The membership has been increased from three hundred and forty-seven to seven hundred and twenty-seven. The church building is not sufficient to care for more than half that membership, and they are preparing to build. Brother Hill has kept the church on a high spiritual tide, and has increased the benevolent offerings from a total of $434 to $1,106, or an increase of one hundred and fifty-five per cent.

Dr. F. H. Cremean has had five remarkable years at Saint Paul Church. During this time the church has been rebuilt and a new $4,000 parsonage placed on the same lot with the church. The membership has been increased from two hundred to four hundred and sixty-four, and the benevolences more than doubled.

Fort Wayne Methodism no longer needs to beg for recognition. In the six years the churches have increased in pastoral support from $8,500 to $10,500, an increase of twenty-seven per cent. They have increased in valuation of church property from $129,800 to $202,500. a gain of $72,700, or fifty-eight per cent. Increased in membership from 2,277 to 3,866; gain, 1,589, or seventy per cent.

Pastors Married.—Two of the pastors of the district were married this year. Dr. F. H. Cremean selected for his bride Miss Agatha B. Brenizer, of Fort Wayne. On September 16, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brenizer, the District Superintendent performed the ceremony that united their destinies. The bride is an accomplished young lady and is entering heartily with Brother Cremean in the work of the ministry.

Miss Ada D. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Campbell, of South Bend, was the choice of Rev. C. Claude Travis. On October 2 the ceremony was solemnized by Bishop William F. McDowell. Mrs. Travis has special fitness for this important work upon which she has entered, being a graduate of DePauw University and for some time a Young Women's Christian Association secretary. She has already entered extensively into giving Bible instruction in her own church and other organizations in the city, thereby having won many fine friends, and her capabilities worthily recognized.

Building and Improvements.—The year has witnessed the building of two churches and one parsonage. Soon after Conference, E. J. Maupin called his congregation together and launched a new church enterprise. So rapidly did the plans develop that in a month they broke ground for the new church. The work went rapidly forward and, February 27, the District Superintendent had the pleasure of dedicating one of the most beautiful churches to be found in any small town in the Conference. The congregation was asked for $5,000 to cover all indebtedness, which was pledged with a small surplus. The main church has three classrooms, a lecture room, and an auditorium with a seating capacity of six hundred. They have their own dynamo and a fine basement with modern improvements. Rev. E. J. Maupin is the heroic pastor who dared to look this difficult proposition in the face. He superintended the building, kept the time of the workmen and gave them their checks. He had about him as fine a Board of Trustees and Building Committee as ever surrounded a pastor. The cost of the building was $11,000; it looks as if it would be cheap at $15,000.

The people at Harlan had the plans all completed before the ending of last Conference year to rebuild their church. Under the wise direction of the pastor, S. I. Zechiel, who was his own architect, and a loyal Board of Trustees, this fine enterprise was carried to completion. The seating capacity of the church was more than doubled, the symmetry was maintained, and a fine $10,000 church was secured for $5,500. November 14 the District Superintendent was invited to dedicate this splendid church and raise the needed amount of money to take it out from under the claim of man. When these charges can spare these men and you want a good church builder, good pastor and preacher, get Brother Zechiel or Brother Maupin.

Poneto had long needed a new parsonage, to which former pastors will testify. The Rev. John R. Stelle, of good business genius, has it all complete and partly furnished and paid for at a cost of $3,000, and the pastor and family now live in the best house in Poneto, and not a dollar of debt.

Fremont rebuilt their parsonage at a cost of $1,280. It is now modernized and becomes a very comfortable preacher's home.

Garrett has plans and money already to build a $5,000 parsonage next year. It is just like Charles Tinkham to do it that way.

Other churches have made repairs as follows: Angola, $283; Bluffton, $165; Decatur, $121; Fiat, $700; Fort Wayne, First, $250; Simpson, $150; Trinity, $200; Wayne Street, $900; Fort Wayne Circuit, $146; Hamilton, $60; Hudson, $95; Huntertown, $855; Monroe, $475; Monroeville, $530; Montpelier, $518; Orland, $159; Pennville, $300; Portland, $440; Portland Circuit, $200; Spencerville, $127;

Woodburn, $502; York, $174. Total expenditure for building and improving, $28,467.

Debts Paid.—The staggering debt of $3,500 has been paid, and the closing night of the District Conference we witnessed the cremating of the notes as we joined in a jubilee with Brother Bills, the happy pastor, and his Board of Trustees and a house full of people. It is the first time this church has been free from debt for twenty years, and the obsequies were not very solemn. Rev. H. S. Nickerson raised in pledges a $2,000 debt, and paid $900 of it. Other debts were paid as follows: Auburn, $550; Fort Wayne, First, $600; Simpson, $1,500; Trinity, $600; Saint Paul, $765; Garrett, $5,000; Geneva, $550; Geneva Circuit, $125; Hoagland, $150; Monroe, $450; Monroeville, $175; Ossian, $7,500; Pennville, $600; Portland Circuit, $700; Woodburn, $75. Total debts paid, $24,058. Total paid for both causes, $52,525.

Church Organizations.—The most hopeful department of our work is the Sunday school. We have ninety-three schools, with an enrollment of twenty thousand. The larger schools are operated under the graded system and are reaching a high state of efficiency.

The pastors report forty-six Epworth Leagues, with an enrollment of twenty-three hundred. There is now the best religious life and activity in the Epworth League of its history. Several Gospel Teams have been organized and are assisting pastors in evangelistic work. The pledges for Dr. E. O. Ernsberger, Superintendent of Belgaum District, India, totaled more than $1,500.

The Junior League reports show twenty-four chapters, with an enrollment of eleven hundred and fifty. They contribute $350 to missionary work.

The Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies are well established, and enlarging their work by organizing new auxiliaries.

Seventy-one Ladies' Aid Societies are reported having raised $14,278. These societies are helping cultivate the social spirit in the churches, as well as financial aids. The banner society of the district is Ossian, having raised $1,000.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The district has come across with over $11,000 for this society. We had reached our goal for $10,000 with a small margin when Brother J. F. Ward, of Garrett, concluded he wanted to turn over some of the Lord's money. He came with Brother Tinkham to ask the District Superintendent what he should do with it. He decided to give $1,000 to the Preachers' Aid Society; $1,000 to his local church; to put into his will $1,000 for the Home Missionary Society and $500 for the Foreign Missionary Society, with the likelihood of increasing that to $1,000. Brother Ward has just recognized the ownership of God. May his kind be multiplied!

District Meetings.—We had three district meetings during the year. The first was the meeting of the pastors and District Stewards, in May, with an efficiency program.

The second was a series of meetings held the first ten days of October in the interest of our benevolences, with Bishop Warne and Dr. James M. Taylor as leaders. They were ably assisted by Drs. Walling Clark, of Italy; B. O. Peterson, of the Philippine Islands, and Rev. J. W. Pickett, of India. They thoroughly covered the district with their thrilling addresses and good literature. It was one of the best campaigns ever conducted in the district.

Settlement-day meetings were held at Auburn and Decatur, December 1 and 2.

Our third was the District Conference, which was held February 28 to March 1, at Montpelier. It is sufficient to say we had a strong program when I announce such speakers as Bishop McDowell, Dr.

E. S. Shoemaker, Dr. Ernest C. Wareing, Dr. Fred M. Stone, Mrs. Edwin R. Graham, and the splendid sermons and addresses of the pastors and laymen of the district.

The outstanding meeting of the year, while not a district meeting, was held in the district at First Church, Fort Wayne, September 21. It was in the interest of the Forward Movement Program, and was put on by Bishops Henderson and McDowell. The far-reaching effect was perhaps the greatest of any one-day program ever planned.

Spiritual Awakening and Membership.—While we have not had the great tabernacle meeting this year as we had last, the revival spirit has continued all over the district. The pastors have largely held their own meetings. Sickness and bad roads have somewhat interfered, and in some instances meetings had to be deferred. Montpelier, Ossian, and Angola held their meetings last spring or early in the summer, with good results. Evangelists Patty and Stapleton conducted a meeting at Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, where one hundred and seventy-five were converted and the membership increased by more than one hundred.

Fremont has had the greatest revival in her history. Eighty-four people were converted, mostly heads of families. L. W. Kemper was his own evangelist, and as a result of this meeting Fremont becomes a station, paying as a minimum salary $1,300. Ray will pay $500 to pastoral support, making for these two points $600 more than last year.

Rev. J. W. Gruber has had another year of revival on the Huntertown charge. Last year he had 355 conversions, this year 132, bringing the membership of this country charge up to 727. Huntertown petitions to become a station, offering a cash salary of $1,000, and they rather prefer Brother Gruber for their pastor.

Rev. G. L. Conway, recently transferred from the Indiana Conference, has had great revivals on the Bobo charge. Pleasant Mills and Salem come up with strong petitions to be made a two-point charge, agreeing to pay as a minimum cash salary $1,000, house rent, and other ministerial claims. They think Brother Conway is the desirable man for them.

Another outstanding revival was at Pennville, conducted by the pastor, E. M. Dunbar. Dr. J. A. Sprague rendered valuable assistance in this meeting. He reports 107 conversions and 32 reclamations. Early in the winter Brother Dunbar conducted a revival on the Fiat charge, with 66 conversions. We loaned him to other districts, and at Van Buren 100 were converted, and at Main Street, Kokomo, 200 conversions. He has had about 450 conversions to his credit this year.

The following will show the number converted and reclaimed in the district: Angola, H. S. Nickerson, 103; Auburn, F. F. Thornburg, 22; Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, 50; Bluffton Circuit, E. A. McClintock, 44; Decatur, D. T. Stephenson, 16; Decatur Circuit, Ezra Glendening, 26; Fiat, Charles Metts, 78; Fort Wayne, First, D. H. Guild, 30; Saint Paul, F. H. Cremean, 84; Trinity, T. M. Hill, 45; Wayne Street, C. C. Travis, 30; Geneva, J. F. Lutey, 27; Geneva Circuit, Joseph Grimes, 18; Hamilton, L. G. Carnes, 62; Harlan, S. I. Zechiel, 28; Hoagland, E. M. Foster, 17; Hudson-Ashley, D. A. J. Brown, 21; Leo, E. J. Maupin, 27; Monroe, John Phillips, 60; Montpelier, J. O. Bills, 115; New Haven, H. C. Powell, 21; Orland, B. F. Hornaday, 70; Ossian, J. O. Powell, 70; Portland, A. S. Preston, 45; Portland Circuit, Henry Lacy, 15; Woodburn, A. K. Love, 32; Spencerville, J. C. Valentine, 8; York, J. R. Elson, 8.

There have been converted and reclaimed a total of 2,028. There have been received into the church on probation 1,340. Received into full membership, 1,810. Increase for the year, 1,584, or ten and a half per cent plus.

Benevolence and Finance.—The reports of the pastors show that the benevolences will be much in advance of last year. First Church, Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, pastor, will lead with a total of $8,355. Many of the charges will report a large increase.

Pastors' salaries have been increased more than $4,000, and full ministerial support, $6,500. There will be little if any deficits.

Six Brief Years.—Six busy years have so engaged us they are but as yesterday when past. Our inheritance was large. Dr. C. U. Wade, one of the best Superintendents the church ever had, turned the district over in fine condition. The grade was high. But we have tried to pull on up the hill. During these six years we have helped pull DePauw University out of financial distress with over $37,000. Helped build our Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis with $12,000. Come across with $11,000 for our Preachers' Aid Society. Installed the New Financial Plan over the entire district, and launched the Forward Movement Campaign.

Church Property.—The six years have witnessed the building or rebuilding of fourteen new churches. Four new parsonages have been built, two rebuilt, and two others secured by purchase. Many other churches have been improved and modernized. The church property valuation has been inceased from $631,390 to $846,600—increase, $215,210.

Ministerial Support.—Six years ago only ten charges were paying their pastors as much as $1,000. This year there are twenty-seven paying that much and above, and two more have just come up into that column for next year. In 1910 the total cash salaries for pastoral support was $35,062—1916, $45,960. A gain of $10,890, or thirty-one per cent.

Pastors' salaries. including rent, 1910, $40,700; 1916, $52,955—a gain of $12,255, or thirty per cent.

The Episcopal Fund was increased from $496 to $850, a gain of $354, or seventy-one per cent.

The Conference Claimants' Fund was increased from $2,193 to $5,336—a gain of $3,143, or one hundred and forty-three per cent.

Full ministerial support has increased from $46,150 to $62,516—a gain of $16,366, or thirty-five per cent.

Benevolences have increased in five years from a total of $22,138 to $32,309—gain, $10,171, or forty-six per cent.

The membership has increased from 11,626 to 16,540—gain, 4,914, or forty-four per cent.

I come to the close of this six years' term as Superintendent of Fort Wayne District with a heightened esteem for the ministry and laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and with a very much keener realization of the importance and difficulty of our work. They have been six strenuous years without a vacation. Every year we have gone forward. Our advance is a matter of record. We have nothing of which to boast. We have everything for which to be thankful. I love the church better; I love the ministry better; I love God better because of these six years. I have found these pastors to be devoted, energetic, consecrated men of God. The parsonage homes have been places of welcome and delight. I thank my God for every one of them. I love these devoted servants and appreciate the privilege of being a toiler with them. The fellowship with them has grown dearer and dearer each year,

"And if our fellowship below
In Jesus be so sweet,
What heights of rapture shall we know
When round his throne we meet."

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

R. J. Wade, District Superintendent.

Bishop McDowell and Brothers: In the moments immediately after the adjournment of the last session of our Conference, I managed to grasp the hand of Bishop McDowell as he was departing, to say. "Bishop, you have given me a hard job, but I will do my best." I am now ready to render account as to that "best." Whatever has been accomplished has been the result of the very hearty cooperation, for the most part, of the splendid, intelligent, and willing laymen of Goshen District, and as fine a body of pastors as can be found anywhere.

Pastoral Changes.—F. W. Chapman was appointed at the last Conference, through misunderstanding, to the Clunette charge. He was consequently released by Bishop McDowell in order that he might complete his studies. Studies completed, he was appointed September 1 to the Goshen Circuit, where, in spite of three months' illness and an operation for appendicitis, he has served to the satisfaction of the people, who desire his return. His work has been generously cared for by neighboring pastors, gospel teams, and a local preacher, C. D. Inebnit. W. H. Menaugh, former Superintendent of Public Schools of Albion, was secured for Clunette. Brother Menaugh will ask and deserves admission to the Conference. Upon the resignation of R. J. Crider from the Goshen Circuit, September 1, a new charge—the Elkhart Circuit—was created by taking Willow Creek from the Goshen Circuit, Pleasant Valley and California from Simpson Memorial, to unite with Osolo Chapel, an abandoned church, resurrected early in the year by the gospel teams of Trinity, Elkhart. Lake Schoolhouse appointment was taken from the Bristol charge, at the request of Bristol, and added to the Goshen Circuit, Bristol and Simpson Memorial becoming stations, each paying a salary of $1,000. efficiently served by D. C. Beatty and K. H. Carlson. The new Elkhart Circuit was served until January 1 by Justin Morrison, a senior in Northwestern University, son of R. A. Morrison; since that time, by W. Weyman Dragoo, who has demonstrated his worth and call to the ministry. Foster Chapel, detached from Bourbon, has prospered under the care of J. S. Cain, who, though retired in name, has been active in toil.

R. J. Wade.

Retired Ministers.—Of the retired ministers, Brothers J. B. Cook, A. J. Carey, E. L. Semans, C. H. Murray, and C. H. Wilkinson, in addition to Brother Cain, have rendered much helpful and active service; while Brothers Welch and Paschall have been patient sufferers at home, and Brothers Hasty and Kemper have been renewing strength and youth in the sunshine of California. We have welcomed into our territory for residence Brothers G. W. Keisling, at Milford Junction, and J. M. Haines, at Warsaw.

Death's Toll.—Early in the year the call to the better world came to Mrs. Anna Lynch, widow of the late Rev. C. W. Lynch, of honored name in our Conference. The funeral was conducted by her pastor,

A. G. Neal. Death's toll was taken among our younger men when Franklin A. Reichelderfer, aged forty-one, after heroic struggle, at Harlan, October 10, at 3:30 P. M., breathed his last. He had hoped against hope to again stand as a herald of the cross. His first definite stand for Christ was taken at a Thursday night prayer meeting. His last charge was Topeka. Genial, true, one of the best of men, friend of God, he passed beyond, leaving the message, "Tell my brethren the gospel is sufficient." The funeral was held at Harlan, in charge of the pastor, S. I. Zechiel, assisted by J. A. Beatty, the writer, and others. The address was made by S. Light. Henry W. Bennett completed the earthly life toward the close of 1915 at Warsaw. The special funeral address was given by C. U. Wade. This distinguished preacher and administrator had given thirty-eight years to the ministry. He served well the Goshen District from 1903 to 1908, and may be remembered, among other things, as the originator of that time-tested district institution, now so largely accepted, known as Settlement Day.

The gentle, kindly spirit of William Lash took its flight at 10:30 o'clock Friday night, February 11. Brother Lash had given to the Conference almost as many years as it has been my privilege to serve, but he had necessarily occupied the retired relation for thirty years—a longer time than any one upon our Conference list last year. The home life has been characterized by the monumental devotion of son and daughter, George E. Lash and Mrs. Minnie Ervin. J. C. White conducted the service, assisted by the District Superintendent and local pastors. Brothers Lash, Bennett, and Sister Lynch were buried at Warsaw, A. G. Neal in charge of the services.

The homes of the laymen have not been exempt from the visits of Death's messenger. Warsaw's membership has been depleted by twenty-two deaths, the largest number, while we are obliged to chronicle the passing of some of the district's outstanding laymen: E. G. Eberhart, of Mishawaka; Albert Mutschler, of Nappanee; Harrison W. Godfrey, of Elkhart, and Judge John H. Baker, of Goshen.

Upon the day that the last Conference adjourned, April 12, that elect woman and princely giver; Mrs. Maggie Brothwell, of Rome City, passed beyond, leaving her estate, $5,000, plus her home, to be the possession of and to be occupied by the Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society; additional money and two hundred and thirty-six acres of fine land to the Board of Foreign Missions—a specified life interest reserved.

Veterans' Day.—Sunday, June 27, was observed as Veterans' Day. On that day, or succeeding Sabbath, the graves of every minister and wife in the district were decorated with flowers. In some instances prayers, addresses, and songs were offered; in one place the graves of all Methodist people were remembered. Why not a universal Methodist Memorial Sunday?

Births.—Death laid hold at birth of Helen Louise, daughter of D. C. Beatty and wife; while little visitors from Babyland tarry in the homes of Brothers and Sisters Boase, Royer, and Wyant.

Civic Righteousness.—Through the forbearance of my successor, Brother J. C. White, I was permitted to retain my residence in Trinity parsonage until I could cast a clean dry vote in the Elkhart local option election. While our forces did not win on that day, the doom of the saloon in Elkhart was forecasted by reducing the majority from 305 to 108, or from 806 in 1909 to 108 in 1915; likewise in Ligonier from 133 to 55; in Kendallville, from 264 to 23, while Goshen changed from 32 wet to 221 dry, driving out eleven iniquitous saloons. Blind-tiger keepers have been hunted, found, caught, tried, convicted, and converted. Our preachers preach a gospel suited at once to the worst and best of men.

District Meetings.—A promising pastors' and stewards' meeting was held May 25 in First Church, Goshen; the June Epworth League convention assembled over two hundred delegates in Butler, our easternmost point; the Woman's Home Missionary Society met in Trinity, Elkhart, while the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held an equally good district convention in Middlebury; our Sunday School and Religious Workers' Institute was favorably located in Mishawaka, visited by experts William S. Bovard, H. C. Wilson, J. V. Thompson, J. M. Avann, J. G. Benson, Kirk W. Robbins, and Bishop McDowell. Our follow-up campaign was carried successfully to every charge and is to be the basis, I am informed, of all the institute work of the Board of Sunday Schools for this summer. Settlement Day in Inwood was marked not only by thrilling financial reports, but by an earnest desire to carry out the provisions of Methodism's Forward Movement. To this end a prayer hour—6 P. M.—was designated during January and February, when the country church bell, together with the Mishawaka chimes, summoned simultaneously our fourteen thousand Goshen District Methodists to pause and pray. It was a suggestion worth while and extensively carried out, not only by the 1,292 signers of the Prayer Covenant and 1,593 members of the Time Legion, but by many others. Is there not something worth while suggested to us in that great painting, "The Angelus"?

Etna Green was the District Conference host. The revival spirit was in the air. Bishop McDowell preached the opening sermon on "Repentance," and at the close four young men bowed at the altar to give their hearts to God. Addresses by W. B. Hollingshead, Dr. C. S. Wood, B. S. Hollopeter, Mrs. E. R. Graham, and others stirred and inspired for the closing efforts of the year.

Church Building.—Waterloo charge, S. F. Harter, pastor, has either built, rebuilt, or arranged to rebuild every one of the four churches. Phœnix-like a fine new Barker's Chapel, costing $6,000, arose from the ashes of the fire. This model country church was dedicated October 28 by former pastor Dr. W. D. Parr, assisted by the present pastor and the District Superintendent. A basement, at a cost of $1,000, was placed under the Waterloo church, and reopened by the District Superintendent. Eight hundred dollars is being expended on Memorial Chapel, and Norris Chapel has similar plans. Butler early in the year redecorated, repaired the church at a cost of $500, and paid off the parsonage debt; Corunna reroofed, while arrangements have been made for the removal of the Custer church one mile and a half to the town of Helmer, giving it a new and larger lease of life; Milford church has been redecorated; beautiful new windows placed in First Church, Goshen, and repairs made to the usual number of churches and parsonages.

Wolcottville has modernized their church through an expenditure of $8,000. All but $1,000 of this amount has been paid, and that more than secured by good subscriptions. The reopening day was January 9, Dr. J. C. White, of Trinity, Elkhart, and the District Superintendent preaching the sermons. The Etna Green Methodists rejoice in a fine new church costing upwards of $15,000, and easily worth $18,000. It is a marvel both as to workmanship and size of enterprise to be successfully undertaken in a town of less than five hundred people. The church was dedicated February 6, Dr. W. D. Parr raising $8,000, as usual with him, more than the amount yet needed to pay all bills. The largest enterprise of the year in the Conference has been that so victoriously led in Warsaw by that veteran pastor, A. G. Neal, who is confidently expected to return for his eighth year. The corner-stone was laid on Sunday, May 16, 1915, by Bishop McDowell, and the church likewise dedicated by him Sunday, January 16. When the question of raising the additional subscriptions needed was broached by the Building and Finance Committee to the District Superintendent, he immediately suggested and urged a whirlwind canvass for Thanksgiving week. The plans were carried out, and on Sunday night Brother Neal announced that after a hard battle the $25,000 needed had been fully subscribed. A total of $72,000 in subscriptions has been taken, enough to cover interest and shrinkage. The building is architecturally beautiful and exceedingly practical in design. It has the largest basement in the Conference, including dining hall, gymnasium, shower bath, kitchen, and cloak rooms. The magnificent auditorium is directly under the great dome, flanked on three sides with large balconies. The Groves Sunday-school auditorium connects to the east; the acoustic properties are perfect; five beautiful entrances admit you—yes, and will admit you when you come to Warsaw, as you will, to the 1917 session of the North Indiana Conference.

The fine new Nappanee church, costing $35,000, hastens to completion. The corner-stone was laid by the District Superintendent Sunday afternoon, September 5. Brother Powell has been instant in season and out of season; a great revival has been held; a splendid new parsonage, costing $4,000, purchased and entered, and the outlook for the future is glorious. The new church will probably be dedicated in May.

Simpson Memorial, Elkhart, was badly damaged by fire in midwinter. Ample insurance had fortunately been carried, so that in ten days the money was in bank for repairs. In connection with these repairs certain valuable changes have been made, a new furnace installed, the entire basement excavated, new pews ordered, and the reopening will occur about Easter.

Splendid progress has been made in the liquidation of the Saint Paul debt under the masterly leadership of that Napoleon of church finance, R. A. Morrison. The huge debt has finally been hewed down to $14,400, and another year of similar activity under his direction ought to save the project to our Methodism.

New Charges.—During the year a new Elkhart Circuit was formed, as has been stated. Two more new charges are to be created within this Conference. Howe, South Milford, and Corunna each ask to give up one point, but continue to pay the same salaries to their successful pastors, C. A. Hile, V. L. Clear, and R. R. Detweiler. Mongo is the new charge, to pay at least $800, with Plato and East Springfield the out-appointments. Waterloo advances to station dimensions, on the condition that S. F. Harter is the pastor, at a salary larger than the entire charge paid a year ago. This necessitates the formation of a Waterloo Circuit. Kimmel and Cromwell promise the same salary to G. E. Whitten that the three-point work paid last year.

Salaries.—The support of pastors alone has been increased this year $3,400, while arrangements have already been made for an increase next year aggregating more than $2,500. The larger apportionment for Conference Claimants was accepted in good faith, every dollar apportioned, and claims will be pro-rated.

Benevolences.—A remarkable thing has happened and, according to Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, a result unique in Methodism has been achieved. Every single charge on Goshen District has pulled up, and not down, on apportioned benevolences. We tried it last year, but some charges failed ultimately. We tried it again this year and we have won out at every point. This has not been at the expense of the other benevolences. All will advance. Foreign Missions increases $621; Home Missions, $558; total apportioned benevolences, $1,445, and others in proportion. The district will give this year for Foreign Missions to the parent Board the round sum of $8,000.

These figures are the result of education, inspiration, consecration, heroic giving, and faithful work upon the part of both pastors and laymen. We expect to advance all along the line. We have been nobly supported by the agencies of the women. Several auxiliaries of the Woman's Home Missionary Society have been organized, while the itinerary of Miss Bertha Creek resulted in fifteen new organizations of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Conversions.—Over twelve hundred conversions have been reported. This is not as large a number as some years have produced. There have been no tabernacle or union campaigns to swell the total. It is the record of faithful, consistent work on the part of pastors and people. It does not spell the failure of the Methodist Forward Movement; it tells us that we have just begun to use our strength and direct our activities. We have sought to overcome the change of enumeration of full members in the elimination of non-resident members from the total, according to the ruling of the Board of Bishops. We have thus lost 497, but the net gain will be perhaps a similar number. The largest number of conversions and accessions reported is from Mishawaka—over 200 conversions and 165 accessions, the pastor, L. M. Edwards, again for the fourth successive year leading the campaign personally and lifting the charge in that time from a membership of 703 to 1,300. Conversions ranging from 20 to 93 have been reported from Corunna, Topeka, Howe, Warsaw, Elkhart (Trinity), Leesburg, Tippecanoe, Kimmel, Wakarusa, Waterloo, Nappanee, LaGrange, and Etna Green.

J. W. Oborn, Conference evangelist, reports three hundred and seventy sermons and addresses, more than one thousand converts and special consecrations, and great victory in some of the hardest and most difficult fields yet encountered. He says: "I would like to give this testimony: wherever we have found card playing and dancing we have found spiritual life at a low ebb and soul-saving a hard job." He regrets absence from the Conference session, but is in the midst of a gracious awakening at Belvidere, Illinois, where, last Sunday, seventy-six claimed to be converted, and fully as many more came forward to reconsecrate themselves to God, which meant for many to give up cards and dancing. A large number of young men were among the converts. Brother Oborn desires to be continued in the present relation.

Closing Observations.—To keep pace with the retreating footsteps of my efficient predecessor, to build upon foundations already laid, to pull up instead of down where intensest zeal had everywhere before been manifest, has been no easy task—no holiday affair. That this has been done is because District Superintendent, pastors, and people alike have been imbued with the spirit of Maltbie D. Babcock when he sang:

> "Be strong!
> We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
> We have hard work to do, and loads to lift.
> Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift,
> Be strong, be strong!"

I have missed no appointment; I have held every Quarterly Conference; I have preached every Sunday from two to four times, and midweek I have spoken on every possible occasion. The energies of District Superintendent and pastors have not been dissipated in chasing elusive General Conference bees. I have added twelve pounds to my weight; I have walked to appointments many a day from five to twelve miles; I have done that which hitherto has been impossible by the use of the automobile; I have accepted with all good conscience every dollar that has been paid me. There are features of the superintendency exceedingly unpleasant; I did all that a Methodist preacher should do to keep out of it, but now that I am in it, like Teddy of old, "I like my job," and I am more than ever before convinced that it is the most efficient piece of machinery in the possession of the church when worked.

I close with this observation of Bishop Asbury, found in a letter written to the Rev. Solomon Sharp, December 18, 1805: "Every preacher has need of the wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job, the rectitude of Samuel, the courage of Joshua, the meekness of Moses, the zeal of Peter and Paul, and love of John. . . . Those of us that superintend have need of great grace; Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee, 'My grace is sufficient for thee.'" Trusting in that grace, helped by that grace, we have this year labored, and wherever He through the church shall direct, we will labor yet again.

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: I wish, first of all, to record my sincere gratitude to the heavenly Father for permitting me to close one of the best of the thirty years of my ministry, and the most prosperous year we have had on the Logansport District.

B. S. Hollopeter.

Only one change of pastors has taken place during the year. H. B. Fisher, who was supplying Alto, gave up his work July 1, and G. L. Hixon was secured to take his place.

Mrs. T. H. C. Beal, wife of our retired brother, went to her heavenly home February 11. They had walked together in sweet companionship for over fifty years.

P. J. Albright has been in poor health during the entire year, and much of the time was not able to leave his home.

L. A. Beeks, who was confined to his home for many months on account of illness, has spent the winter in the South, and is very much improved. No other death or serious sickness has come to our homes during the year.

Church and Parsonage Property.—There are 83 churches and 41 parsonage in the district. Ten of these churches are furnished with pipe organs, 59 have pianos, and the others with organs. Thirty-eight are lighted with electricity; 29 parsonages have this same luxury. The churches and parsonage homes are generally in good repair. Some need extensive improvement, and others should be replaced by new buildings.

New Societies.—A new church of fifty members has been organized at Peoria and made a part of Santa Fe charge. George W. Bailor found a church here that was owned by the community. The people were divided, with no one denomination strong enough to maintain regular services. The proposition was made to them to deed the building to the Methodist Episcopal Church and all become Methodists. This they did, and after a two weeks' meeting, in which Dr. T. M. Guild, one of our Conference Evangelists, rendered valuable assistance, a church was fully organized.

Steps are being taken to organize a new church at Fairfield, five miles south of Kokomo.

A Sunday school has been started in the northwest part of Kokomo by Dr. Freeland and workers from Grace Church. The rapid development of this city will make other efforts of this kind necessary in the near future.

Improvements on Churches and Parsonages.—Beamer Chapel, in Kokomo, has been raised and a well-equipped basement put under it. The main room has been redecorated and in many ways improved, at a cost of $1,600. When Everett Nixon became pastor of this church, two years ago, it was about ready to disband, but now it is one of the promising churches of the district. Good revivals, both at Beamer and Cassville, have resulted in large increase in membership and a general bettering of the community.

The church at Converse has received extensive repairs. A new furnace installed, all at a cost of $1,000, every cent of which was raised by the pastor, M. B. Graham. Notwithstanding the good record of this church in the past, the benevolences will be in advance of last year.

Wheatland Street, Logansport, has modernized their parsonage at a cost of $1,000. E. C. Dunn, the pastor, is closing his eighth year of very successful service in this church. He found this church struggling to pay an $850 salary, and leaves it paying $1,200. It then had a small Sunday school, and now the school averages 235.

Debts Paid.—Fourteen charges have freed themselves of debts. About one half of the debts reported to the Conference last year are now paid. This district has long been noted for its burdensome debts, but it is soon to lose this unenviable distinction.

The most alarming case of debt was at Windfall, where a $27,000 church was built in a village of less than one thousand people and a church membership of two hundred. A change of pastors was made in the midst of their building; Dr. Marble, who was then the District Superintendent, gave the most careful attention to the selection of a man who could successfully manage this very large and complicated church enterprise. W. E. Hamilton was the man chosen. He harmonized the church, finished the building, managed its dedication, and financed the matter so skillfully that they are now out of all danger of a calamity; $8,300 in cash has been paid on the debt this year, and only about $4,000 remains. A good revival also stands to the credit of this faithful man of God, with an increase of thirty per cent in membership of the church.

At Twelve Mile the last $1,000 of debt on their beautiful new church was rounded up by the pastor, L. J. Sheldon. This is the first year for this country church as a station, and they have met every claim for salary and benevolences in full, and more.

Main Street, Kokomo, has had a most remarkable year. Late in the fall the pastor, James A. Sprague, inaugurated a campaign to free the church of a $7,000 debt. It was started with a great church rally on December 12, when Dr. George R. Grose, President of DePauw University, was present and preached a great sermon. Dr. W. D. Parr started the ten days' campaign of money raising. Teams had been organized for this purpose, and they followed up with splendid success. At the end of the time a banquet was held in the basement of the church, at which reports were made. They found that $9,413 had been secured. The pastor was assisted in a revival service for three weeks by E. M. Dunbar. Over 200 souls were converted, and a net gain of 175 was secured to the church membership. The Sunday school has an average of 654 for the year. The salary was raised to $2,000, and a fifty per cent increase made in benevolent collections, and for the first time paying all claims in full.

Amboy has reduced their debt this year $4,000, under the leadership of C. A. Byrt, the pastor. Men have given one fourth or one third of all they were worth to secure this church and free it from debt. A debt of $5,000 still remains.

The Pleasant Hill Church, on the Gilead charge, has cleared its debt of $600. C. B. Thomas has brought this charge up to a high point of effective service for the Kingdom.

The long-standing debt at Elwood has been reduced $1,500 this year, and plans are now being made to clear the church of all encumbrance by July 15, 1916. The pastor, J. F. Radcliffe, was instrumental in securing the Stephens party for a great tabernacle meeting, which resulted in great good to the city and added two hundred and fifty new members to our church. The pastor will return to this charge for the fifth year with an increase of $100 in his salary.

A $2,000 debt on Grace Church, Kokomo, has been paid during the year. The salary was increased to $2,300. This church has taken the support of C. F. Hartzell, a missionary of South America, paying the full salary of a missionary. There will be an increase of fifty per cent in the benevolent collections over last year. This will put the church in third, if not in second place in the Conference in the amount of money contributed for benevolent purposes.

Market Street, Logansport, reduced their debt $1,300 this year, leaving but $4,500. The Sunday school is one of the best in the district. W. A. Griest is the successful pastor.

Broadway, Logansport, has taken on new life, with Dr. A. W. Lowther as their pastor. A floating debt of $1,600 has been paid. The salary was raised to $2,000. A vested choir has been organized to lead the music. No man in the district has received more hearty invitation to return than this popular pastor.

Revivals.—It is encouraging to know that more of our pastors feel the responsibility of holding their own revival meetings than in former years. When we get to see that the call to soul-winning is a personal matter for every preacher, and we can no more delegate this to others than we can the saying of our prayers, we can expect better things for the church. The largest ingathering was from the tabernacle meeting at Elwood. The largest number of conversions in any single meeting was at Main Street, Kokomo, where 200 were converted. At Denver, 101 were converted. L. G. Jacobs will make the best report on benevolences he has ever made.

W. E. McPheeters, of Sheridan, held his own meeting, and it was one of old-time power, resulting in sixty-six conversions, with a net increase in membership of ninety. His benevolences will be increased fifty per cent. The salary will also be increased for next year to $1,400.

C. W. Montgomery has again had good revivals at each point on the Boxley charge, resulting in eighty-five conversions. His faithful services here for the past four years have brought the salary to $1,000, secured benevolences in full for each year, and prepared the way for a new church at Boxley.

Galveston has had the greatest awakening in its history. George E. Garrison has received eighty-seven people into the church, and new life has come to every department of the work.

Anoka and Bethel, with C. E. Dunlap as the pastor, has had a good revival, in which thirty-five were converted and united with the church. The church at Anoka has been cleared of debt, and the benevolent collections are more than full.

Charles H. Smith has been master of the situation at Peru from the day he arrived in the city. He held a meeting in which sixty-five were converted, but the revival has been on all the year. The Sunday school has an average for the year of five hundred and twenty-four, and paid $312 for missions. The Epworth League is one of the largest, and pays more to missions than any other League in the district. Over one hundred have been added to the church, and the salary set at $2,000 for next year.

H. L. Liddle's work at Walton has been fruitful in a splendid revival, where thirty-five were converted; also of an increase of $100 in benevolent collections. A subscription has been taken for a new and modern parsonage.

Russiaville has had a great revival. John F. Edwards did his own preaching, while Brother Sand assisted in the singing. Hardened sinners flocked to the altar and gave themselves to God. The collections have been greatly increased, and the salary has been set at $1,100 for next year.

W. C. Asay is on his fourth year of a very successful pastorate at Sharpsville. He has held a good revival each year, and raised his benevolences in full. The new financial plan has been adopted for next year.

A two weeks' meeting at Greentown resulted in thirty conversions. L. M. Krider will report the largest collections in the history of this charge. They are getting ready to build a new church.

The continued revival at Onward, on the New Waverly charge, has made it one of the best of our country churches. John Parker was sent there as a supply five years ago. The salary was $570, and this not paid in full. The church has grown so strong under his faithful ministry that the membership is doubled and they now pay $1,000 salary, and want him returned to them for the sixth year.

J. W. Walters has made such an impression on Kempton that a score of her leading citizens came to Kokomo two weeks ago to request his return.

No better work is being done anywhere in the district than B. M. Bechdolt is doing at Roann. The churches were revived and the benevolent collections far in advance of their past good record.

It would be hard to find a church that is better pleased with their pastor than Tipton is with Arthur Cates. The young people are very active and the League is one of the best. The benevolences have greatly increased, and the salary will be increased for next year.

F. A. Wimer has had a good revival at Mexico, in which twenty-eight were converted. The salary has been raised to $900. The benevolences doubled. A fine little daughter came to the parsonage a few days ago.

Two years ago A. C. Hoover was sent to the hardest task in the district, at Hillisburg and Florida. Good revivals have not only resulted from his labors, but a complete change has come to the moral tone of the place. They have shown their appreciation by increasing his salary to $1,000.

The pastors' reports show that fifteen hundred have been converted during the year. Nearly every charge has had a revival, and a splendid increase in membership has been shared with almost every charge.

Benevolent Collections.—Dr. J. M. Taylor, with five of his helpers, came to the district early in October and conducted a campaign of education on world-wide evangelism. This was followed by one-day missionary meetings on each charge, under the leadership of nine chairmen of groups. It was of great value to both pastors and people, as shown by the substantial increase in the collections.

The group in which B. M. Bechdolt, of Roann; C. B. Thomas, of Gilead; G. E. Hughes, of Akron, and E. H. Kennedy, of Macy, were associated with L. G. Jacobs, their chairman, raised $250 special offering during the weeks of their convention, for a frontier church. This is to be called "Cloud Chapel," in honor of the largest donor.

The charge that has led the district in per capita giving for several years is Goldsmith. LeRoy Myers became the pastor of this splendid people one year ago. The collections this year have gone far ahead of any previous record. They will continue to lead the district, if not the Conference, in this good work.

All but four charges pulled up on benevolent collections, and the total increase is $3,400 on the regular collections, including Conference Claimants.

The Forward Movement was heartily adopted by the district, and we will contribute our full share toward reaching the goal set for our Methodism.

We have had the great pleasure of licensing ten young men to preach. Five of these are now in DePauw University, three in Taylor, and two in other schools, preparing for their work.

The Women's Work.—The Ladies' Aid Society is "a present help in every time of need," and a power in the church for good at all times. It contributes in a large way to the material and social needs, and is the mother of many church buildings and parsonages.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has doubled the number of auxiliaries in the district, with two besides. They have increased their giving by twenty-five per cent over any previous year. The Woman's Home Missionary Society has organized new auxiliaries. One of these has seventy-five members.

The Epworth Leagues of the district are supporting J. F. Cottingham, a District Superintendent in the Philippine Islands, for the second year. Many of the chapters have been renewed. A very helpful convention was held at Anoka in the month of June.

A campaign was inaugurated in the district to raise the balance of the $10,000 apportioned for the Preachers' Aid Society. The day set for taking the collection was December 12. Notwithstanding snow and ice, the collection was good. The small amount that yet remains to be raised will be forthcoming in a few weeks.

There are eleven retired ministers living within the bounds of the district. They are true men of God and love the church, for which they gave the best of their lives. It is very gratifying to know that a larger support will come to them this year.

Ministerial Support.—Sixteen charges increased their salaries at the beginning of the year. The whole amount of increase was $2,500. Sixteen have already raised their salaries for next year.

I am under deep obligations to the pastors of the district for their hearty cooperation in every district plan I have suggested during the year. Our district meetings were attended by every man who could get there. They have labored faithfully and well, and the consolation of victory is in their hearts.

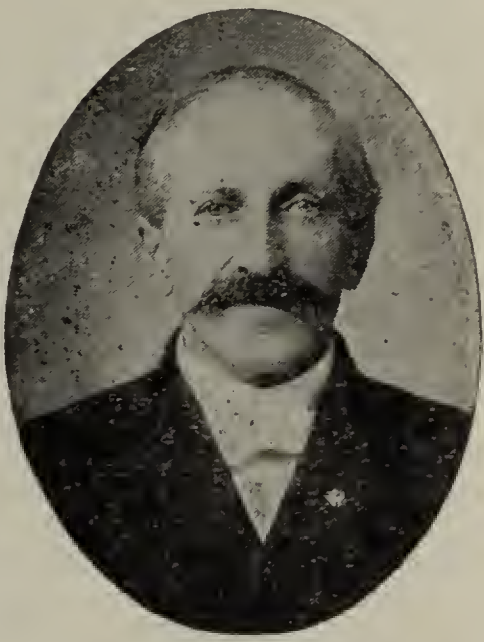
MUNCIE DISTRICT.

C. E. Line, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: In this, my sixth and last annual report, I rejoice to announce that during the year no active preacher or retired preacher of the district has died, and no preacher's wife or preacher's widow has passed away. There has been just one death in a parsonage; on the 8th of March, Mary Elizabeth Lutes, the little daughter of Brother and Sister E. E. Lutes, slipped out of the parsonage home at Westfield to be with the Great Lover of children. She was a beautiful child of not quite four years old. On the 10th of March the funeral service was held in the Westfield Church, conducted by the District Superintendent, assisted by F. A. Hall, C. M. Hobbs, and P. H. Walter. The following day the little form was laid to rest at Andrews, Indiana. Brother and Sister Lutes have our sympathy and prayers.

Retired Preachers.—We have sixteen retired preachers assigned to the district, thirteen of whom are living within the bounds of the district. These retired brethren are men of God, true and loyal to the church, and happy in the twilight of their lives. Brother J. W. McDaniel has moved back from White Cloud, Michigan, to Normal City. We are glad to have him living in our midst again.

Local Preachers.—There are thirty-two local preachers in the district, some of whom are Sunday-school Superintendents, others are teachers in the Sunday schools, others are successful supplies, and they are a body of men who are doing service for the Kingdom. Brother T. E. Thomas, a local preacher of High Street Church, is doing a noble work in the evangelistic field. Brother H. C. Marsh, another local preacher of High Street Church, for years has conducted a Sunday afternoon religious service in the Delaware County jail. In these Sunday afternoon services he touches many lives and influences many to accept Jesus Christ. Many will arise in the last day and call him blessed.



C. E. Line.

Marriages.—March 21, D. V. Williams and Abigail C. Secrist were married in the home of the bride at Alexandria, Bishop McDowell officiating, assisted by the District Superintendent. We extend our congratulations to our worthy Conference Secretary and his wife.

Births.—During the year a son was born to W. W. Wiant and wife, and a daughter to O. B. Young and wife, and a son to B. V. Hargitt and wife. May these little folks live to be a blessing to their parents!

Changes.—At Conference, Matthews was left to be supplied. For several weeks the charge was supplied by Loren Ross, a former pastor, now a local preacher; then O. B. Young, a member of the Indiana Conference, was transferred to Matthews. He has given great satisfaction. In the fall A. E. Chastain, of Alexandria Circuit, was transferred to the Indiana Conference, and Julius Pfeiffer, of the Indiana Conference, was transferred to Alexandria. Since he has been transferred he has given nearly all his time to revival meetings on his charge.

In August, John Jones, of Yorktown, was transferred to the East Maine Conference, and Charles Pitman, of the Maine Conference, was transferred to Yorktown. It cannot be said of him, as it was said of Cæsar, "He came, he saw, he conquered," but it can be said of him, "He came, he saw, he skedaddled," and is now preaching for the Reformed Episcopalians in a suburb of Atlantic City, New Jersey, and desires to withdraw from the membership and ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

During the session of the Indiana Conference last fall, V. B. Hargitt was transferred from that Conference to Yorktown. We are glad to have Brother Hargitt a member of our Conference.

In the fall Brother L. E. Markin, of Middletown, broke down in health and surrendered his work. W. W. Brown, a retired preacher of our Conference, living in Muncie, was appointed to supply Middletown until Conference. He has been a great success in increasing the benevolences and looking after all the interests of the church.

District Meetings.—The District Epworth League Convention was held at High Street Church. The program was an excellent one. Bishop William F. Anderson was present, and delivered a great address.

Epworth League rallies were held at First Church (Noblesville), Summitville, Grace Church (Hartford City), and Pendleton.

W. W. Wiant, W. W. Martin, L. M. Edwards, and Eugene Allen delivered addresses at these rallies.

The Sunday-school Institute was held at First Church, Anderson, November 11 and 12. William S. Bovard, James V. Thompson, and Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner constituted the Faculty. At the close of the institute a cultured Presbyterian lady said to Dr. Allen, the pastor, that for years she had been attending Winona, but she had never heard finer addresses than were delivered at this Sunday-school institute.

The campaign for information concerning the benevolences was conducted by three returned missionaries: M. A. Rader, of the Philippines; L. Linzel, of India; R. L. Archer, of Malaysia. Group meetings were held at Noblesville, Alexandria, (First Church) Anderson, (Madison Street) Muncie, and Hartford City.

Dr. Tipple, of Rome, delivered an address at First Church, Noblesville, and Bishop Warne delivered an address at Hartford City. These three returned missionaries tried to reach every charge in the district. They delivered fine addresses, and the hearts of the people were with them. They are supporting their work to a large extent by special gifts. We have been trying to reduce the special gifts for missions to a minimum; their itinerary through the district revived again the question of special gifts. In some of the charges members have turned their missionary giving entirely to special gifts, thus reducing the regular gifts, making it difficult for pastors to raise their missionary apportionments. The Board of Foreign Missions ought to have a policy concerning special gifts. If retired missionaries are permitted to make these itineraries, and people are persuaded to give only to these special causes, then the pastors ought to be allowed to count these special gifts on their missionary apportionments. The Board of Foreign Missions ought to have a definite policy concerning this important question.

The District Conference was held at Normal City (Muncie), March 1-3. Bishop McDowell delivered the opening address. The entire program was superb, the attendance large, and the spirit fine. It is considered the best District Conference during the six years of my administration.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The Preachers' Aid Campaign has been pushed during the year. At the last Conference I reported $6,657 subscribed of the $10,000 allotted to our district. This year I report $10,670 subscribed, which lets the Muncie District out on the $10,000 proposition.

Salaries.—Many of the charges have made a substantial increase in the salaries of their pastors: Albany, $200; Park Place, without Daleville, $150; Carmel, $100; Daleville and Mount Tabor, $100; Fortville, $100; Grace Church, Hartford City, $100; Hartford City Circuit, $150; Ingalls, $100; Lapel, $200; Middletown, $200; Avondale, Muncie, $50; First Church, Noblesville, $200; Noblesville Circuit, $200; Selma and Mount Pleasant, without Mount Tabor, $150.

Damaged Churches.—On March 22 a tornado swept across the State of Indiana, many miles in width. It just touched the northern part of the district. The church at Roll had the roof partially torn off and some of the windows blown in. Asbury Church was moved from its foundation. These two churches will have to be repaired.

New Churches.—The old church at Lapel was almost entirely torn down and practically rebuilt, at a cost of $17,000. It is one of the most convenient, beautiful, and commodious churches of the Conference. It has been built for Sunday-school equipment. It has twenty-eight different rooms, each heated with steam heat. Mr. Carnegie gave $1,000 on the pipe organ; the organ is one of the best in the Conference. March 5 was a great day for this church. Dr. Parr was present, preached a great sermon, and with great success managed the finances. He asked for $8,500. In the evening the giving became so hilarious that he could not stop them from giving. The total subscriptions during the day amounted to about $11,000. P. E. Greenwalt, the pastor, and the people are very happy over the outcome of the enterprise.

Six charges have made improvements costing over $500: Noblesville Circuit, $875; High Street, $850; Noblesville, $801; Gaston, $700; First Church, Anderson, $600; Perkinsville, $550.

Five charges between $200 and $500: Fishers, $469; Matthews, $432; Avondale, Muncie, $350; Daleville, $300; Shideler, $225.

Six charges between $100 and $200: Summitville Circuit, $165; Hartford City, $160; Jolietville, $150; Alexandria Circuit, $140; Noble Street, Anderson, $117; Desoto, $109.

Eight charges have made improvements costing less than $100, as follows: Albany, Alexandria, Eaton, Middletown, Madison Street (Muncie), Normal City (Muncie), Westfield, and Yorktown.

A new parsonage has been purchased at Roll, and will be improved and repaired. Brother E. E. DeWitt has done a great work at Desoto in rebuilding the parsonage at a cost of $1,122, and all paid. Middletown has spent $306 on its parsonage; Westfield, $210; Noble Street, $151; High Street, $150, and Hartford City, $100.

Fourteen churches have improved their parsonages at a cost of less than $100: Alexandria Circuit, Indiana Avenue, Fishers, Fortville, Gaston, Matthews, Avondale, Madison Street, Whitely, Noblesville Circuit, Pendleton, Perkinsville, Selma, and Yorktown.

The amount of church and parsonage improvements total $27,793, —a great gain over last year. The amount paid in church and parsonage improvements amounts to $22,023—a gain over last year.

Old Debts.—This has been a good year for reducing church debts. Alexandria, $3,200; High Street, $1,650; Perkinsville, $1,300; Yorktown, $617; Park Place, $600; Westfield, $550; Summitville Circuit, $500; Carmel, $500; Matthews, $216; Noblesville, $200; Noble Street, $151; New Burlington, $140; Noblesville Ct., $136; and Madison Street, $125—amounting to $9,894—a gain over last year, and reducing the present indebtedness on church and parsonage property to less than $20,000. Last year it was over $27,000.

There have been two heroic efforts made to relieve two churches' indebtedness, one at Alexandria and one at Westfield. The debt at Alexandria has been of old standing; it has prevented other improvements being made. The church was not even paying the interest on the mortgage. All summer the pastor, D. V. Williams, has worked faithfully in raising subscriptions, until all the indebtedness has been paid.

Westfield Church has been burdened with a debt of about $1,000. The pastor, E. E. Lutes, conducted a community fair, which was a success and, with additional subscriptions, has paid off and provided for all the indebtedness.

These two brethren deserve credit for the work they have accomplished.

Auxiliaries of the Church.—To give a detailed report of these auxiliaries of the church would make this report too long. The Sunday schools of the district are growing and improving; the enrollment of the men's adult Bible classes still exceed the enrollment of the ladies' Bible classes. Many churches are facing the problem of more adequate room for the Sunday school. This is especially true at Avondale, Muncie, where the Sunday school is so large that they have had to divide it and hold two sessions.

Epworth Leagues.—There are twenty-six chapters, the same as last year, in the district. These young people are faithful and loyal to the church.

Junior Leagues.—The problem in the Junior League work is to obtain a Junior League Superintendent who is adapted to the work, and who will willingly sacrifice some of his or her time for the work. If this problem could be solved in many of the churches, the Junior League chapters would increase in numbers and in membership.

Ladies' Aid Societies.—Last year there were fifty-five of these societies; this year, sixty-five. They have raised thousands of dollars for church and benevolent enterprises.

Woman's Foreign Missionary and Woman's Home Missionary Societies.—These two societies show an increase in the number of auxiliaries and members; also in the amount raised for missionary work.

Church Literature.—It is very difficult to get the correct statistics for our church literature. The figures that I have show about the same number of Western Christian Advocates, Epworth Heralds, Sunday School Advocates, Sunday School Classmates, and Sunday School Journals taken this year as last year.

Benevolences.—We believe that when the Conference Treasurer makes his report, the benevolences will be a large increase this year over last year. Some lay members will not give the pastors any definite sum until a few days before the session of the Annual Conference; others will not pay their subscription until the last moment. This makes it very difficult for the pastor to give to the District Superintendent the exact figures concerning the benevolences.

Special Gifts.—Hardin Roades, of Muncie, gave $3,000 to the new gymnasium at DePauw. A lady living within the bounds of the Muncie District, who is not even a member of the Methodist Church, has deeded to the Old Folks' Home at Warren a two hundred and sixty acre farm, conservatively estimated to be worth $26,000.

In Anderson there have been two campaigns to raise money for the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association. An eccentric character by the name of Mr. Brunt left $100,000 upon the condition that the citizens of Anderson would raise another $100,00 for the Y. M. C. A. building. The campaign resulted in raising this amount, and besides that the citizens of Anderson gave $25,000 for a Y. W. C. A.

Four years ago the Ball Brothers, of Muncie, gave $100,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building, upon the condition that the citizens would raise the same amount; and this year they made the same proposition concerning a Y. W. C. A. building. Both of these campaigns were successful. Muncie has one of the best Y. M. C. A. buildings in the State, and soon will have an excellent Y. W. C. A. building. To these enterprises in Anderson and Muncie our Methodist people gave liberally.

Temperance.—Last year at Conference, Hartford City was facing a local option election. It went dry by over one hundred. Muncie had a local option election on the 10th of March; on the face of the returns, it went wet by seventy-nine, but the battle is not over. We are waging a remonstrance campaign, and we hope thus to make every ward in the city dry and thus shut the saloons out.

Membership.—The pastors report 14,015 members on the roll, not including non-resident members. Last year we were permitted to include the non-resident members, and so there is an apparent decrease of one hundred and forty in membership. But if we were permitted to count the non-resident members in the roll as we did last year, the district would show a gain in membership of eight hundred and twenty-one. At this ratio over the whole Conference, the Conference would report a gain of almost five thousand in membership. The new basis this year will lay the foundation for a good increase next year.

Evangelism.—This has been a difficult year to conduct evangelistic services, on account of the bad condition of roads, changeable and rainy weather, and the prevailing scourge of the la grippe. For several weeks the congregations were depleted; almost every home was suffering from the disease. Many of the pastors had to give up their evangelistic services on account of sickness, and yet we have had some successful revival meetings in the district. The greatest revival was held at Lapel—a union tabernacle meeting, conducted by Eddie Thomas. The pastor, P. E. Greenwalt, reports 210 conversions. The following charges report between 50 and 100 conversions: Carmel, 72; High Street, 61; First Church, Anderson, 60; Albany, 60; between 25 and 50: Ingalls, 48; Albany Circuit, 40; Daleville and Mount Tabor, 39; Avondale, 34; Matthews, 27. The following charges report between 10 and 25: Alexandria Circuit, Grace Church (Anderson), Park Place, Gaston, Hartford City, Hartford City Circuit, Madison Street, Whitely, New Burlington, Noblesville, Shideler, and Summitville Circuit. Twelve charges report less than ten conversion: Indiana Avenue, Noble Street, DeSoto, Eaton, Fishers, Fortville, Jolietville, Normal City, Noblesville Circuit, Summitville, Westfield, and Yorktown—making a total of 932 conversions.

They report 563 accessions on probation; 396 from probation, and 473 by letter.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the winter weather, bad roads, and prevailing sickness, it has been a good year for the churches.

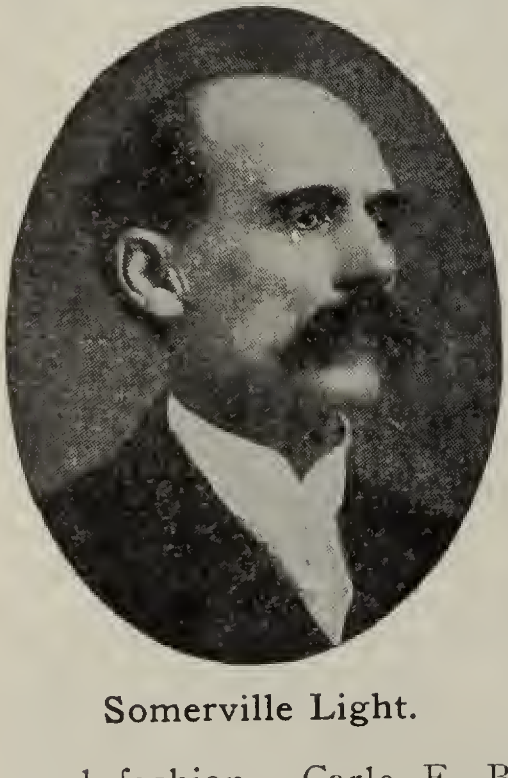
In conclusion, it is not necessary for me to give a summary of the six years' work. At the close of each year I have tried to make a thorough report of the work accomplished. I have enjoyed the work very much. I am thankful that the dear Lord gave me physical strength to do the work. In parting, I wish to say a few words: First, to Bishop McDowell: No man could have been more fair and square in his dealings with the District Superintendents. You have tried to treat every pastor as a brother. This Conference will close our official relationship. In all probability the General Conference will transfer you to another area, and as a District Superintendent I will drop out of the Cabinet, but wherever you go, I want you to remember that there will be one member at least of the North Indiana Conference who at his family altar frequently will remember you at the throne of grace, praying that God may richly bless you, yours, and your great work.

Secondly: To the Pastors: You have treated me with great kindness and consideration. I have felt perfectly at home in your parsonage homes. Many times I have returned from your Quarterly Conference, sympathizing with you in your perplexities and problems, to remember you by name at the throne of mercy. I pray earnestly that wherever you may go, you may realize that one of the greatest privileges in the world is to be a preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and may this gospel which you preach to others be your stay and comfort through all of life's journey!

Third: To the Laymen in the Muncie District: Before I was appointed District Superintendent I always looked at the laymen from one viewpoint, namely, that of a pastor. Now I have a different angle of vision. It is said that every man has his price. This is absolutely false, for there are hundreds and hundreds of laymen over the Muncie District who dearly love the Lord Jesus Christ and his church, and who at any time would die for the truth. I desire to thank the laymen for their kindness to me, and for their patience with me.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.



Somerville Light.

No district in North Indiana Methodism has better territory, better people, and better ability to do great things for the Kingdom of God. We confidently believe that with the increased education and inspiration which accompany Methodism's present-day Forward Movement programs, the people will rally to the call of the hour. Thirty-one of the thirty-four men appointed at Auburn remained with their charges throughout the year. In September, R. I. Black surrendered the Saratoga charge. J. W. Zerbe was taken from the Williamsburg charge and put at Saratoga. Louis Ulmer, of the Indiana Conference, was secured for Williamsburg. The people ask for their return. Saratoga advances salary $200. J. B. O'Connor, of Philadelphia, was released in September to attend school. G. L. Conway, of the Indiana Conference, took charge, but after a few weeks went to Bobo, Indiana. H. H. Compton, a supernumerary member of the West Ohio Conference, then took charge, and rounded out the year in good fashion. Carle E. Bash, of the Winchester Circuit, went to DePauw University at the opening of the college year. B. H. Franklin was immediately appointed to the charge, and has done first-class work. With few exceptions, the health of pastors and families has been good. Brother Silas Cates was quite seriously ill during the early winter, but has made a good recovery. He has done an outstanding year's work. His return is unanimously requested. The mother of Mrs. U. S. A. Bridge, of the Grace Church, Richmond, parsonage, and the father of Mrs. R. C. Ballard, of the Lewisville parsonage, were recently called to the heavenly home. The wife of Brother M. A. Harlan, after years of faithful service in the ministry, and added years of intense suffering, was called to her reward during the year. The list of retired ministers on this district is headed by Dr. Milton Mahin, of New Castle, now in the nineties. He hails from the days and the land of giants. He himself was a giant. He is now confined to the invalid's chair, but is wide-awake and intensely interested in the gigantic tasks of the church of to-day. G. H. Hill, F. G. Browne, H. J. Norris, Sylvester Bilheimer, and R. T. Laslie complete the list. All good men with excellent records. The name of H. J. Norris must now be taken from this list and added to the long list of worthies in the ranks of the church triumphant, into which church he was ushered February 13, 1916. Funeral services were held in Winchester, in charge of Pastor F. P. Morris, Dr. W. D. Parr, a long-time friend, speaking the chief words of comfort and appreciation. The Year-Book of 1916 will show the name of Brother M. R. Pierce on the retired list. On account of failing health he is compelled to ask this relation. He has given this Conference twenty-eight years of good, faithful service. Three of our parsonage homes have been gladdened by the coming of sweet babies. Girls—deaconesses, missionaries, suffragettes, etc.—for Brothers and Sisters Croxall and Richardson; a little preacher man for Brother and Sister Wischmeier.

General Survey of the Work of 1915-16.—The Sunday schools, seventy-eight in number, have greatly improved in organization and efficiency. The total enrollment is a good advance over last year. The Cradle Roll Enrollment is receiving careful attention. The number enrolled at this time is 1,049, an average of 32 per charge. Practically all use our literature, and nearly all are organized into missionary societies; their offerings for missions total $1,666—a good gain over last year. The Sunday-school Constituency Roll numbers 3,870. Add to this the constituency roll of the churches, numbering 6,956, and you have a total constituency roll of 10,826. What a field for modern Methodist Forward Movement evangelism! God help us to see our denominational opportunities and possibilities! Our District Sunday School Institute was held in Dunkirk, November 9 and 10. Large delegations were in attendance; Dr. W. S. Bovard, Rev. J. V. Thompson, and Mrs. Bryner gave excellent service. Echo meetings were conducted throughout the district with telling effect. The combination Brotherhood and Men's Bible Class work is moving forward at a great pace. The Epworth League convention held in New Castle, June 15 and 16, was one of the best I ever attended. The great chapter at New Castle did itself proud as host. Rev. J. S. Phillips, the President of the district, is pushing for a big program and a greater convention next June. We are also hoping for a truly representative number in attendance at the Wewasee institute. Our District Missionary, Brother George D. Lowry, is being well supported. The Junior League work suffers because of the difficulties attending the securing of suitable Superintendents. A Methodist preacher is doing big business for the Kingdom when he gives this work his personal oversight.

Woman's Work.—The Ladies' Aid Societies, as usual, have done excellent work, expending for new buildings, improvements, pastors' salaries, etc., more than $10,000. The Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies have been unusually aggressive this year. Both held good conventions and, by bringing special workers into the district, succeeded in organizing several new auxiliaries. Their combined offerings total $4,188—a gain over last year.

Finances.—At the annual meeting of the pastors and District Stewards, a large representation meeting, a good program was presented. The routine business was duly considered, and the new financial plan unanimously adopted. The District Superintendent was authorized to present and urge the adoption of the plan in every Quarterly Conference. The response has been very heartening. Settlement Day reports showed that twenty-three of the thirty-four charges had met all ministerial claims in full to that date. The eleven which failed had not adopted the plan. Since that date these charges have swung into line in whole or part and have made the canvass for next year; slowly, but surely, the people are coming to see the value and importance of this plan. Methodism will see a new day when the fifty per cent of her membership now in the liability column are set over to the asset side of the line. Then the much talked about revival will come to the whole church.

Salaries.—"A sufficient support for an efficient ministry" is the slogan of the hour in thoughtful, far-visioned Methodist Church circles. More liberal support, not to swell preachers' bank accounts, but to enlarge their equipment and enrich their lives and the lives of their families for the most important and far-reaching service to which God calls men. Such support urged, not for the man, but for the Christ and the glory of the Kingdom. Fifteen charges advanced at the beginning of the year to the amount of $1,899, and fifteen have estimated an advance for next year. All other ministerial support has advanced in fair ratio. We still have a few Methodists, so called, who have attained such a high state of grace as to enable them to default in payment of pastors' claims without the quiver of a nerve.

Settlement Day Services.—The services of the day were held in New Castle, December 7. Thirty-three of the thirty-four pastors were present. The program was of a high order, the reports were most gratifying.

The Church in Action Campaign.—This campaign was on from September 27 to October 12, and was opened with a great get-together convention in the city of Richmond. Drs. J. B. Trimble, Harvey Reeves Calkins, and J. O. Randall were the chief speakers. Immediately following this convention, the pastors and the returned missionaries from various fields, under the direction of our wide-awake District Missionary Secretary, Silas L. Cates, and the Sub-district Chairmen, Brothers U. S. A. Bridge, L. J. Naftzger, J. H. Runkle, O. A. Trabue, and F. P. Morris went everywhere throughout the district giving stirring messages concerning the big things of the Kingdom. Every church in the district was visited. The people to the number of twelve thousand attended the meetings. The hearty co-operation of ministers and laymen resulted in the campaign closing with the greatest success which ever attended a similar effort in this district.

Benevolences.—The gain in all the benevolences is $5,324. Twenty charges report a good advance over last year, one reports even, two only pull down, and eleven stand in the king row, paid in full. For all causes, at home and abroad, the good people of this district contributed this year $110,410. The average contribution per member ranges in the various charges from $6.80 to $26.22.

Buildings and Improvements.—The plucky people of the New Dayton appointment, on the Winchester Circuit, began to build a new church in the early spring and had it ready for dedication in November. The District Superintendent had the pleasure of officiating on the joyous occasion. The cost of the church was about $5,000; $1,800 was needed on dedication day. In a short while the entire amount, with a good margin, was subscribed, and a happy people sang a hymn of praise and united with pastor and District Superintendent in the formal dedicatory services. The pastor's return is requested, with an advance of $125 in salary. At Millgrove, on the Millgrove Circuit, T. S. Haddock, pastor, the church was so completely rebuilt that it is practically a new building, with the full equipment of a modern house of worship. The entire cost of this improvement was $4,000, with $989 to be provided on dedication day, January 9. So heartily did the people respond that $1,612 was cheerfully subscribed. The large and rapidly growing Sunday school at Dunkirk made church improvement with a view to a better Sunday-school plant—an absolute necessity. Appreciating the gravity of the situation, the Trustees of this splendid church, in response to the call of the ever-alert pastor, Benjamin Kendall, called in architect and contractor and proceeded to rebuild in fine fashion. With an outlay of $4,300 they have modernized the plant and now take good care of the large congregations at the preaching services and one of the best Sunday schools in Richmond District. Brother Kendall's return is desired, with an advance of $100 in salary, thus putting this charge in the $1,500 class of appointments. The beautiful and commodious parsonage at Modoc, practically built last year under the leadership of Brother E. H. Taylor, is now completed at a cost of $2,500. Pastor J. H. Richardson and family greatly enjoy this good home. A new barn was built this year, at a cost of $300. The churches on this charge have been improved at a cost of $410. The parsonage at Kennard has been rebuilt at a cost of about $700. The Redkey parsonage, C. B. Croxall, pastor, has been brought down to date by the installing of a furnace and the addition of bathroom; electric lights have also been provided, and other improvements made; total cost, $556. The church at Greenfield, Silas Cates, pastor, has been refrescoed and otherwise improved at a cost of $1,350. After a year of outstanding prosperity and achievement, this charge, by a good advance in salary, steps into its rightful position. New Castle, O. A. Trabue, pastor, has improved church and parsonage at an expense of $800. This charge, with possibilities of first rank, ushers in a new day by adding $200 to the salary for next year. At Spartansburg, on the Lynn charge, E. C. Hallman, pastor, subscriptions have been taken for a new church, the contract price of which is $9,500. This popular pastor will return at an advance in salary of $150, making the salary of next year $1,100 and house. Benevolences for this year paid in full. At Markleville, O. P. VanY, pastor, a much needed parsonage is to be built; subscriptions, consisting of labor, material, and money, have been made. This charge has also paid benevolences in full and advanced pastor's salary for next year. Third Church, Richmond, J. P. Chamness, pastor, has made improvements on church property and added furnishings to the extent of $1,110. At Shirley, C. W. Anderson, pastor, the church property has been improved at an outlay of $900. Benevolences are paid in full. The Farmland Church, J. S. Phillips, pastor, has been greatly improved at a cost of $840. On the Hagerstown charge, A. C. Wischmeier, pastor, $465 have been expended in improvements. Hagerstown has had a good year and now asks to be made a station, with the privilege of paying the same salary paid this year by the entire circuit, i. e., $900. Other improvements are as follows: Grace Church, Richmond; U. S. A. Bridge, pastor, $741. First Church, Richmond; H. C. Harmon, $225. Centerville, L. P. Pfeifer, $298; Maxwell, A. J. Duryee, $300; Winchester, F. P. Morris, $451; Spiceland, E. A. Brunner, $223; Fountain City, Leroy Huddleston, $145; Knightstown, J. H. Runkle, $121; McCordsville, M. R. Pierce, $130; Cambridge City, R. C. Jones, $100; Lewisville, R. C. Ballard, $85; Economy, P. Polhemus, $30; Charlottesville, E. H. Taylor, $20. These improvements total $32,788.

Debts Paid.—Union City arose in its might and made full provision for an $8,000 indebtedness on the church property. The pastor was very ably assisted in this undertaking by his son, E. W. Naftzger, who showed marked ability in directing the forces so well organized by his father. Father and son have reason to be proud of this outstanding success, not only because the debt is provided for and more than half cashed, but also because of the new life infused into this good church. The pastor's return is unanimously requested by an appreciative people, and an increase in salary assured. The parsonage debt at Centerville, L. P. Pfeifer, pastor, has been paid—$1,230 in cash. Brother Pfeifer has done a great year's work in a very difficult field. His return is requested, with an advance in salary. Modoc has paid $1,125 on parsonage debt. Farmland cashed its debt, $1,000. Pastor Phillips has had a glorious year, begun under embarrassing conditions. He will return at an advanced salary. Cambridge City paid $425 on church debt. Dr. Jones is in fine favor, and will return with the promise of $100 addition to salary. First Church, Richmond, has met its budget in full and paid $600 on its indebtedness. Dr. Harmon has done an unusually good year's work and has laid the foundation for better things next year. Knightstown, J. H. Runkle, pastor, has paid the remaining $411 on its debt and is now free. The pastor is in good favor with his people, who expressed appreciation by advance in salary. Dunkirk, Charlottesville, and Lewisville also paid off small debts. Total debts provided for aggregate $13,014. The Methodists of this district own property valued at $624,670, with a present-hour indebtedness of $15,984.

Revivals and Membership.—The great Forward Movement program was brought to the attention of pastors and people, and adopted by all of the charges. Hundreds of Prayer League and Time Legion cards have been signed, large constituency rolls have been made up, and many young people have signed the Life Work Covenant. Personal, public, periodic, and protracted evangelism have all been emphasized. On account of health and weather conditions, we are not able to report the number of conversions anticipated. However, good, faithful work has been done, and the pastors report 1,115 converts. New Castle, 200. A tabernacle meeting, Charlottesville charge, 147; here the pastor was ably assisted by Brother Maurice Barrett, who, by the way, goes to India next autumn, his support having been pledged by the Greenfield Church. Kennard, 125; this charge has been completely made over and becomes one of our good $1,000 circuits; C. A. Mitchell has been his own evangelist. Knightstown, 90; a tabernacle meeting; here Pastor J. H. Runkle conserved the results in a fine way. Third Church, Richmond, 45; Pastor Chamness his own evangelist. First and Grace Churches, Richmond, led on by Pastors Harmon and Bridge, joined forces in a union meeting, calling to their assistance the Kerr Brothers, of Toronto, Canada; Dr. Bridge reports 28 conversions and 94 accessions; he has had a great year in every way; Dr. Harmon reports 45 conversions and 59 accessions. Fountain City, 46; Salamonia, 42; Saratoga, 35; Marklesville, 26; Farmland, 25; Winchester Circuit, 17; Hagerstown, 15; Union City, 15; Greenfield, 15; Lynn, 12, and other charges from 10 to 2. The accessions reported to me, with four charges to make report, put our net gain close to the ten per cent mark. The per cent of gain of the charges ranges from thirty per cent down to two per cent.

New Work.—As reported, Hagerstown will become a station and build a new church. By this move Losantville becomes the head of a new charge. Brothers Duryee, of Maxwell, and Anderson, of Shirley, have set such a pace that it will require three men to handle this section of the district next year. Willow Branch, from the Shirley charge, and Eden, from the Maxwell charge, have joined hands and will support a pastor; salary, $800 and house. Shirley and Wilkinson will do the same. Other changes should be made in the near future. Every-member canvasses back these adjustments.

Church Literature.—Our own literature is in general use in Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues, and homes. The Western Christian Advocate more than holds its place as compared with former years. The Epworth Herald is doing its work for our young people.

District Conference.—For the first time in many years Richmond District held a District Conference in Grace Church, Richmond, February 29, March 1 and 2. Thirty-two of the thirty-four pastors were present, one absentee being seriously sick in the hospital, and the other engaged in special revival at a strategic point. The laymen responded in a fine way. Dr. L. J. Naftzger was drafted the first night to take the place of Dr. Frank Thomas, of Louisville, who, on account of illness, could not meet his engagements. His address was strong, and well received by the people. Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, of Philadelphia, spoke the second night and, as usual, did great service. Dr. E. C. Wareing, Associate Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, gave his great address Thursday afternoon on "Back to Aldersgate"—a message which should be heard throughout the church. On Wednesday Dr. F. M. Stone. Endowment Secretary of the American University, gave an excellent, well-received address on "The Vision of the Christ." In the afternoon Miss Olivia Dunlap, of Jacksonville, Illinois, addressed a great company on the work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Thursday forenoon Dr. Hollopeter, Superintendent of the Logansport District, told us how to bring a district up to one hundred per cent efficiency. He both tells how and illustrates. In the afternoon, at three o'clock, Mrs. E. R. Graham, of Chicago, addressed the Conference on the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. It was a great deliverance on this subject. The climax was reached Thursday night, when our own Bishop McDowell gave the closing message to a great audience, which crowded old Grace Church to the doors. The pastors of Richmond District are men of fine spirit. Fellowship with them is a delight. They are hard workers. They have featured the Quarterly Conference and made it in the main congregational. The people have responded by giving the largest attendance at Quarterly Conference I have ever seen. In addition to all else done, these pastors report nearly thirty thousand pastoral calls. I cannot find words with which to express my thanks to these men and their families for their kind treatment during the year. A year of heavy toil in the field and illness in my home, attended by head and heart burdens hard to bear. Thanks to these men for their sympathy and cooperation. Thanksgiving to the good God for his wonderful grace and care!

WABASH DISTRICT.

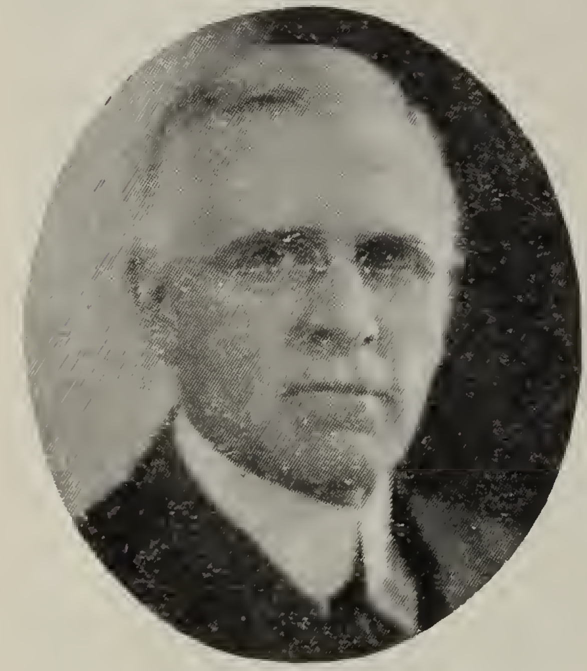
M. S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Mr. President and Brethren: Wabash District, populous, rich in natural resources, with cities teeming with life, villages clean and attractive, farms readily responding to scientific agriculture, facilities for travel improving every year; people intelligent, cultured, refined, pious, facing the future and ready for the larger to-morrow—reports a year of moral progress and Christian achievement.

Reorganization of Charges.—Talma, on the Burket Circuit, was attached to the Tippecanoe charge at the request of Talma and with the approval of the remainder of the Burket charge. Burket now consists of three appointments, nicely located. All the property improved under the pastorate of C. A. Modlin, and can easily become one of the most attractive and desirable circuits in the Conference.

At their request, Uniondale and Rockford were organized into a pastoral charge. Upon the request of Emmaus class, on the Uniondale charge, they were attached to the Ossian work in the Fort Wayne District.

After many counsels and much discussion, Huntington Circuit and Mount Etna Circuit were reorganized by making Huntington Circuit consist of Barnes Chapel, Clear Creek, Greenwood, and Pilchers Chapel, with the pastor living in Huntington; and Mount Etna Circuit consisting of Mount Etna, Lincolnville, Mount Hope, and Pleasant Plain. The people have given cordial support to this piece of administration, and we confidently hope that future results, under continued tactful, pastoral supervision, will justify its wisdom. Saint Paul, with an average Sunday-school attendance approaching one hundred, formerly belonging to the Huntington Circuit, has passed under the care of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Huntington.



M. S. Marble.

Pastoral Supervision. — All the men appointed by the Bishop have toiled faithfully through the year at their respective tasks, except F. J. Robins and J. F. Bailey. A few days after Conference a fine opportunity for pastoral work near Madison, New Jersey, opened to Brother Robins, enabling him to enter Drew Theological Seminary. With many precedents supporting him, the District Superintendent excused Brother Robins from Larwill, where he had been appointed, trusting the Conference for approval of the act. Immediately E. J. Evans, an alumnus of Northwestern University and Garrett Biblical Institute, was employed, and has given a year of valuable service.

J. F. Bailey, appointed to Churubusco Circuit, promptly informed me that, because of impaired health and through the advice of his physician, he could not travel a circuit. Rev. E. B. Jones, of the Evangelical Church, was employed. His work was acceptable, but because of failing health and after consultation with his physician, in the presence of several official members, I was, on August 17, 1915, compelled to discontinue him as pastor. The people of the circuit and the town of Churubusco were kind to Brother Jones and his family in their affliction. In the latter part of January, 1916, he was called to his final reward.

On August 18, 1915, I employed the Rev. Earl R. Lyon, an alumnus of DePauw University and Boston School of Theology, to supply Churubusco Circuit. He devoted himself to the work with great earnestness, and was succeeding splendidly till stricken with measles, from the effects of which he died on November 18, 1915, just three months from the day he was employed. In my experience with young men I have found no one more anxious to know and more willing to do what the Superintendent and people wanted to have accomplished. On December 7 I employed F. P. Johnson, a supernumerary in our Conference, to finish the year. An acceptable preacher, he has rendered excellent service.

I employed O. V. L. Harbour, one of our retired ministers, to supply Liberty Mills charge.

N. A. Christensen was employed to supply Marion Home Park till July 22, 1915, at which time H. G. Robson was employed to finish the year.

E. C. Olson was secured to supply Highland Avenue charge.

J. B. Cook, a retired minister, supplied Silver Lake till the latter part of October, 1915, when Bishop Quayle transferred W. B. Hardy from the North Dakota Conference to the North Indiana Conference and appointed him to Silver Lake.

In the early part of the year the health of B. E. Parker became impaired, which took him from his pulpit in Marion, First Church, several weeks. A Committee on Pulpit Supply secured the services of Dr. Grose, some neighboring pastors, and others for a few Sundays, but most of the time the pulpit was supplied by Dr. T. M. Guild, a former pastor of this church and now one of our Conference Evangelists. Notwithstanding the disarrangement of plans occasioned by the pastor's sickness, this church makes a fine report for the year.

On June 13, 1915, the only child of Brother and Sister Arlington Singer, a son of about three years, was suddenly taken to his heavenly home to be forever under the shepherding care of Him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of heaven."

On August 11 the interior of our beautiful new church in Huntington was almost entirely destroyed by fire. A suitable place for worship was obtained, the church made more attractive than ever, and a year of fine work reported.

On March 21 a tornado swept through the district, damaging Morris Chapel and Van Buren Church.

Group and District Meetings.—May 18 to 21, group meetings for the purpose of mobilizing men for service were held at Columbia City, Huntington, Wabash, and Marion. These meetings, attended by hundreds of men, were addressed by Dr. Blake and Dr. W. S. Bovard. Afternoon and evening services were held, with a supper served at six o'clock. Settlement Day group meetings were held at Huntington, North Manchester, and Marion. The worth and appreciation of Settlement Days are evidenced by a unanimous request for their continuance. Pastors' and District Stewards' meeting was held in Wabash, First Church, on May 20. District Convention of Epworth League at Huntington on June 15 and 16. Wabash District Sunday School Institute at Wabash, First Church, July 8 and 9. Ministerial Institute at LaFontaine on October 26 and 27. A Country Life Conference, composed of Bippus, Huntington, Mount Etna, and Warren Circuits, was held at Pilcher's Chapel on November 6 and 7. At the request of the pastors the Quarterly Conferences were asked to order the organization of a District Conference, which was done, only one Quarterly Conference dissenting. The District Conference was held in Marion, First Church, on March 1, 2, and 3, 1916. It will be seen that the pastors have responded to five district meetings and eight group meetings distributed through the year.

In addition to these, the district responded to the call of Bishop Henderson, Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Evangelism, for a meeting of the North Indiana Conference in Fort Wayne, in September, in the interest of the Methodist Forward Movement. My duties as member of the Board of Conference Claimants called me to the Pacific Coast at that time. Frequent references to that meeting by various pastors indicate high appreciation of its benefits.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society each held illuminating and stimulating district conventions in Marion, First Church.

In the second week in November, Wabash, First Church, entertained in pleasing manner the Annual Convention of the North Indiana Conference Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Building and Improvements.—Under the leadership of H. A. P. Homer, an excellent and well-equipped church at Lagro was dedicated, with every dollar of expense provided for, by the Rev. Dr. Wm. D. Parr, on November 28. This is truly a great achievement for Methodism in Lagro and is the promise of greater things to come while our people there remain true to our doctrines and polity as set forth in our Discipline, our Christian Advocates, our Sunday-school literature, and by our loyal, broad-visioned pastors.

Twenty-nine charges report $13,904 paid for building and improving church and parsonage property. Twelve charges report $30,691 paid on old indebtedness.

We have the following prospective new church buildings: Uniondale has contracted for a new building for $11,313 without furnishings. Andrews has decided to build, the expense to be not less than $12,000. Silver Lake people are studying plans and are expecting to invest about $8,000.

Sweetser is in great need of a new church. The membership is small in number and has limited financial ability. But it is fortunate in having a great constituency, many enterprising and thrifty men, upon whom God has lavished his blessings and who some day, we fondly hope in the not distant future, will give a tangible expression of their appreciation of his goodness in the erection of a $12,000 church. Only a few days ago we laid to rest William Burge, who for years has been a patron and patriarch in this church. No more fitting thing could be done by this community than the erection of a Burge Memorial Church.

Grace Church, Marion, greatly needs increased facilities for properly caring for the large numbers now in attendance and for scores of others who might otherwise be gathered in.

Marion, First Church, is our most conspicuous example of arrested development because of inadequate building facilities. Childhood is passing into youth and youth into adulthood with crude ideas of the present-day program of the church because of the material limitations rendering the realization of such program largely impossible. We are not pleading for hasty or inconsiderate action. Each step should be taken only after mature deliberation. If we properly interpret the spirit of that great, generous, and philanthropic congregation, we are warranted in saying that already they are bringing pressure to bear upon those in leadership for adequate church facilities which ere long will be well-nigh, if not absolutely, irresistible. The spirit of that splendid people indicates the arrival of the psychological moment for that congregation which is just now being steadily but surely measured off by the town clock in that prosperous and attractive city.

Evangelism.—All through the year our pastors have been leading people to Christ, and, under the inspiration of the Fort Wayne meeting, they have won many victories. Only four charges have each reported a decrease in membership, while thirty-two charges each reported an increase—the net increase being 490. Revival work has been greatly hindered by weather and health conditions. Nevertheless, thirty-five charges report an aggregate of 1,266 conversions. Twenty charges have adopted the Forward Movement program, and two have adopted it in part. Seventeen charges report 611 enrolled in the Prayer League, sixteen report 310 in the Time Legion, and seven report 40 enrolled for special Christian service.

Benevolences.—With increased apportionments for our Conference Claimants, with thousands of bushels of grain rotting in our fields because of the wet season, with some of our members moving away because of disturbed industrial conditions, we confess that we had serious reflections concerning our benevolent interests. To-day we are glad to report that Wabash District has paid our retired ministers a debt long overdue, has overcome difficulties and put to rout discouragement due to pessimism, and has made it possible for our Missionary Board to place a few extra men in the field.

The net gain for all the benevolences is $1,684, while for the Disciplinary benevolences the net gain is $447. Of course, our pastors could never have accomplished this without the loyal support of an increasing number of long-visioned laymen.

The Forward Look.—The District Conference adopted a district program for next year, five thousand copies of which are ready for distribution throughout the district. The moment the appointments are read, that moment each man has a district program, the careful study of which will suggest the necessity of a program for the church he serves which will harmonize with the district program throughout the year. The conscientious pastor will readily see that if his charge fails the district fails, and if the district fails the Conference fails, and if the Conference fails the church fails, and if the church fails God fails! But God does not fail. He may wait for another generation to do what we fail to do. In that event it will be difficult for any one of us responsible for failure to stand anywhere as did Bishop McIntyre in his last address to the last church he ever served as pastor and say, "So far as I know, I am pure from the blood of all men." The man who does not know that success in the ministry is "a question of blood, and not of popularity," that it is keeping one's soul "pure from the blood of all men," as Paul puts it, is hardly prepared to receive an appointment. But if he can say with the good Bishop McIntyre, "I am going to be God's man and do God's will while I live," he will not fail.

Personal Mention.—I forego the pleasure of mentioning each man's name, calling attention to some outstanding, meritorious feature of his work, with one exception. I refer to a man who has given forty-four years to the ministry, the last twenty years covering three pastorates only, now closing his eighth year in present pastorate; church in fine spiritual condition, an increase in membership, Sunday school never quite so good, local expense all met, all apportionments paid with an increase over last year, and an earnest request for his return for the ninth year—the Rev. Granville B. Work.

For the queenly wives of these knightly men presiding in our parsonage homes, and for their children, "sons as plants grown up in their youth, daughters as corner-stones polished after the similitude of a palace," I will forever cherish sentiments of the highest appreciation and most unfeigned regard.

Memorials.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, 1916.

WHEREAS, The local preachers are an order of the Methodist Episcopal Church, licensed and ordained by the Church, amenable to the Church; and,

WHEREAS, They have had a great part in building up and sustaining the Church, the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby memorializes your honorable body, asking that the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church be given official recognition as one of the organizations of the Church.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, 1916.

WHEREAS, There is a discrepancy in the method of the distribution of the Book Concern Dividend, arising from the fact that while it is distributed to the Conferences on the basis of the total Conference membership, it must be distributed by the Conference on the basis of years of service; and,

WHEREAS, A just and consistent method of distribution would seem to require that the Conferences should have their respective shares of the dividend apportioned to them on the same basis as that upon which they are required to disburse it; and,

WHEREAS, The present method works special hardship and injustice in the older and larger Conferences, because they have a proportionately larger number of claimants, and therefore larger annuity claims than Conferences more recently organized; and,

WHEREAS, The present method of distribution takes no account whatever of the annuity claim of the widows and minor children; therefore,

Resolved, That this Conference memorialize the General Conference as follows:

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby memorializes your honorable body, asking that paragraph 283 of the Discipline be amended so as to require that the distribution of the dividend of the Book Concern among the several Annual Conferences shall be made upon the basis of the total claims on the Annuity Distribution in the Conferences severally, as shown by the reports of the Conference Stewards, such reports to be checked up by the Board of Conference Claimants and approved by the Book Committee.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

Methodism was born in the heart of John Wesley, who said, "I felt my heart strangely warmed." It is this inner experience that is fundamental to our Church life and polity.

The Sunday School is one of the aggressive agencies, out of which our Methodism is giving expression to this fundamental principle of our Church life. The evangelistic note was never more emphatic than now in our endeavor to promote an intelligent and vital piety among the childhood and youth of our Church.

The Epworth League is seeking to train its membership to attain the highest New Testament standard of experience and life, and commends itself to the Church in its plans for "Win My Chum Week" and similar efforts to evangelize its entire membership.

The Church likewise in its "Forward Movement" to increase its membership ten per cent within the year, the securing of one thousand lives dedicated to some form of Church work, while it seeks to secure the personal consecration of its membership by requesting them to devote a portion of their time to personal and evangelistic work, is worthy of our best endeavor, and is the program adopted throughout the Church.

The observance of "Special Seasons"—as "Decision Day," "Self-Denial Week," "The Federated Church Movement"—for revival work, the setting apart in our Conference of men who are especially adapted to evangelistic work, are causes for gratitude, and have resulted in great blessing to our Methodism. The ministry is to be commended for its faithfulness and loyalty to this one distinctive mission of Methodism.

We hail the day when in all our Churches this power to save and keep men from sin shall be felt with increasing fervor and passion among us.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on American Bible Society, feeling the need of the religious press in adequately establishing the truths of the Kingdom of God, and recognizing the importance of the place of the Holy Scriptures in creating a knowledge essential to the development of true Christian character, reaffirm our faith in the work of the American Bible Society.

We rejoice in another year of splendid service of this society in the printing and circulation of the Word of God, 6,406,000 copies having been distributed last year, a gain of more than a million copies over the previous year.

Notwithstanding the advance of $103 this year in this Conference, we regret to note in this important crisis and time of world unrest and distressing wars the apparent lack of interest and support of this worthy organ of the Church of our Lord, and recommend that our pastors urge more liberal giving to this cause.

In view of the fact that civilization still needs the Word of God, and that the Scriptures have never had such access to heathen lands as they have to-day, and that the present year marks the centennial of the birth of the American Bible Society, we recommend the setting apart of an hour in the program of the next Conference for a centennial anniversary of this society.

We also recommend that May 7, 1916, be observed as centennial or Bible Day in each charge within the bounds of this Conference.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

We, the undersigned members of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, citizens of the State of Indiana, for the purpose of organizing ourselves into an incorporate body, the object of which is the formation and furtherance of the educational, moral, religious, and benevolent enterprises of the said Church and Conference, do hereby ordain and institute the following Articles of Association, to-wit:

1. This Association shall be denominated the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

2. The object of this Organization and Corporation shall be the promotion of the Educational, Benevolent, and Religious enterprises of the said Church and Conference; embracing such interests as the Colleges and Universities; all Connectional Boards and Societies of the Church; the Preachers' Aid Society of said Conference, the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged at Warren, Indiana, and all other such like interests. To receive, use, hold, buy, sell, and manage any money, real estate, and other property donated, or bequeathed to such corporation, or purchased, or otherwise secured by it, for these or any other religious, benevolent, or philanthropic purpose or interest; and to hold, use, buy, sell any real or personal property that may so come into its possession, as it may deem best.

3. The Officers of said Corporation shall be a President, Vice-president, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall be elected annually by a majority vote of the members of the said Conference present and voting The Secretary of the Conference shall be the Secretary of the Corporation. These officers so elected shall also be the Trustees of the said Corporation, and shall hold their office until their successors are duly elected and qualified. As Trustees they shall have the power to make and execute deeds for real estate sold by the Corporation, and to do and transact all of the business of the Corporation. The President and Secretary are hereby authorized to transfer and release mortgages, liens, leases, and contracts held by the Corporation, when the Conference Trustees so direct. Said Trustees shall meet to transact business at the call of the President, and three of them shall constitute a quorum at such meeting.

4. The said Conference shall meet annually, at such times and places as provided for in the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, or as it may from year to year choose and direct.

5. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep and make a faithful record of the proceedings of the Conference Sessions from year to year in a book kept for that purpose. He shall also keep a record of the meetings and proceedings of the Board of Trustees in a separate record book, to be known and called Trustees' Record Book of North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive, hold, loan, and manage all funds belonging to the Corporation; and hand them over, and pay them out as said Conference may direct at its Annual Sessions, or as the Board of Trustees may order when the Conference is not in session. He shall have charge of and manage any real estate owned and held by the Corporation. He shall give a satisfactory bond in such sum as the Conference may direct, for the faithful performance of his duties, and caring for the money that may come into his hands, the Corporation to pay the expense of securing such bond from an approved Security Company, unless otherwise directed.

6. The members of this Corporation shall be the ministers in full connection in said North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and their successors in the Conference membership.

7. The Conference aforesaid shall have power to adopt By-Laws for its government, and to change them at any meeting thereof by a majority vote of the members present and voting; and this Constitution may be altered at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

8. The Corporate Seal of the Society shall be a metallic impression with the following words "North Indiana Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church."

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Auditing Accounts of the Conference submit the following report:

The accounts of the Conference Secretary have been audited, and we find a balance of $3.64, which amount we recommend be given to him.

We have examined the accounts of the District Superintendents and find that they are correct.

We have audited the accounts of the Board of Stewards and find the account correct with a balance of $230.30 carried over from last year.

We have audited the report of the Treasurer of Conference Corporation and found it to balance correctly.

Flood Fund, a balance of $191.87 remains in the hands of the treasurer.

Conference Treasurer—We have checked the accounts of the Conference Treasurer and find them correct.

We desire the Conference of 1917 to definitely outline the work of the Auditing Committee, so that all officers whose accounts are to be audited may present them to the Committee.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

Recognizing that one of the greatest modern Church movements is the Deaconess Movement, and in order to meet the demands so important, we would encourage more of our young women to consider favorably this field of Christian work. The leaflet, "The Deaconess Movement," gives figures from the report of 1915 in the Church at large, as follows: Fourteen new buildings have been built at a cost of $1,175,000; twelve buildings have been acquired either by purchase or gift, and twelve new centers have been opened. The increase of property to January 1, 1916, was $1,568,091; and since that day over $400,000 worth of additional property has been dedicated, and the total increase in property for the quadrennium is about $2,000,000.

Statistical reports show that during the year of 1915, 452,631 calls were made; 70,269 sick were visited; 41,966 were given relief; 1,532 children were taken to country homes; 23,170 were treated in hospitals; 297 were in training schools for Christian service; 76 graduated, and 461 were taking hospital training.

The license of Miss Cora Fales and Miss Lucy B. Brooks, of Upland, Indiana, have been renewed, and Mrs. Abigail Sechrist Williams has been given an honorable discharge on account of her marriage. The consecrated Deaconess can most successfully visit the sick, pray for and comfort them, relieve and care for the orphan, and represent Christ and the Church. Therefore, we would urge our pastors to employ them in their work.

H. Boase, President,
E. C. Dunn, Secretary.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

J. H. Runkle, Chairman. U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

(1) A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, and colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examination.

(2) Similar certificates may also be received in all studies not Biblical or theological from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine as to whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

(3) Certificates presented for credit must show the amount of work done, text-books used, year in which the work was done, and the grade given by the Examiner. If no grade is furnished in a certificate presented for credit, the only minimum passing grade (70) will be allowed.

(4) All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or the seat of the Annual Conference. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of students in the mission field.

(5) Certificates from our approved Methodist Episcopal theological schools, showing the completion of the full course of study leading to a degree, will be received in lieu of the Conference examinations, in accordance with the Discipline of 1912, paragraph 568: "It being understood that the Annual Conference shall examine all candidates in regard to their personal attitude toward the doctrine and Discipline of the Church."

(6) The Mid-year Institute will be held at Peru, October 16-20, 1916.

(7) Themes for sermons and essays for the year 1916-17 are as follows: First Year sermon, "The Atonement;" Essay for Second Year,

"The Social Program of the Methodist Episcopal Church." For Third Year sermon, write Examiner.

All sermons must bear the date when written, and are requested to be handed in on or before the first day of the Mid-year Institute.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We, your Committee on Church Literature,. recognize the religious press as a mighty agent in the spread of the truths of the Kingdom of our Christ and in moulding the character and fashioning the life of our people, both old and young. We rejoice in the quantity and in the quality of splendid literature which our publishing houses are putting out. We commend it to our people and confidently urge that there is nothing quite so good for us, and that no loyal Methodist can afford to detach himself from vital touch with his own Church, its activities, and its life by substituting a foreign publication for his own denominational paper.

Since it is evident that the areal plan for our Bishops has come to stay, we most heartily indorse the plan of one great paper for the Church in general, and of an areal paper for each Bishop's area, or for such contiguous areas as wisdom may demand.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE.

Whereas, The multiplicity of non-official appeals for financial assistance constantly increases, as does the tremendous summons to meet the needs of the day as felt by our own great Benevolent Boards; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That, in harmony with General Conference action, we admit to our pulpits for presentation and financial appeal only those causes which bear official recognition of the church, namely, our Disciplinary benevolences and such other benevolent interests as are authorized by the Annual Conference—Sustentation, Indiana Methodist Hospital, Home for the Aged at Warren, Ind., the Anti-Saloon League, and the Preachers' Aid Society.

Second, That no exception of emergency character be made without the consent of the local Official Board.

Third, That the Preachers' Aid Society have right of way for this year in those churches where the endowment campaign has not been completed.

Fourth, That we recognize, in view of the imperative need, the very special appeal to save Saint Paul Church, Elkhart, and will open our charges to its representatives.

J. A. Beatty, President,
Leslie J. Naftzger, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have carefully examined the journals of 1916 for the following districts and pass upon them with favor: Fort Wayne, Muncie, Goshen, Richmond, and Wabash. We also approve the record of the Fort Wayne District for 1915, which was not in the hands of last year's committee. We are especially impressed with the neatness of arrangement and the attractive binding of the volumes from Goshen and Richmond Districts.

EDUCATION.

There is no work in the world in which the factor of personality counts for so much as in the ministry. Our people are not devoted to the hero nor to the man of priestcraft, but to the man who has qualities of leadership. He must be eminently human, but must have the spirit of Jesus, which is the spirit of prophecy. We urge that this spirit be cultivated in our theological schools with all faithfulness.

Garrett Biblical Institute, situated at Evanston, Ill., with such men as Professor Lynn Harold Hough, D.D., who has addressed our sessions with such great profit to us, is certainly helping largely in this great work. The school year is divided into quarters and the diploma course has been shortened to two years to meet the present demands. Garrett is peculiarly fitted to furnish training to our young men of the Middle West.

Drew Theological Seminary reports one of the most prosperous years in her history, with large enrollment, new and important courses to meet modern demands. It offers a well-balanced course of study in Biblical subjects with exceptional opportunities for study of the problems involved in social service and their solution.

Boston School of Theology has greatly enlarged her facilities for work both in buildings and courses of study. A new chapel has been added at an expense of $100,000. We note, with pleasure, the increase of the evangelistic spirit as indicated by the work of the Gospel Teams averaging some six hundred conversions per year. We commend Dean Birney and his co-laborers in this great work.

DePauw University.—We have examined the report of President Grose and other officers of the University to the Board of Trustees, and found therein evidence of the continued prosperity and progress of this school. There is a substantial increase in endowments, a slight increase in the number of students, and several important additions to the Faculty. The standard of scholarship was never higher and the Christian emphasis never more pronounced. Two weeks of special meetings were held under the leadership of Dean L. J. Birney, of Boston University School of Theology, which resulted in a genuine religious awakening. We are gratified over the completion and dedication of the $125,000 Bowman Memorial Building, in honor of the late Bishop Bowman, a former member of the North Indiana Conference.

We congratulate President Grose upon his splendid work, and assure him of our continued interest and deep desire that the University may continue to grow, not only in members, but also in spiritual power.

The American University, located at our Nation's Capital, has passed from the stage of a theory, or a dream upon the part of the leaders of our Church, to an actual realization in the thought of our people and in the eyes of the world. The most recent number of The University Courier indicates the breadth of the work and the quality of training available in this crowning institution of Methodism's educational system. The school is launching upon a period of wide and extended service which is certain to increase in influence and power with the passing of the years. A recent benefaction of munificent proportions has been made to the University which is broadly significant, and not only enriches the productive resources of the school, but also helps to strengthen a real sense of brotherhood and true internationalism of service.

Mr. Chester D. Massey, of Toronto, Canada, has made arrangements to turn over to the University $50,000 from the Massey estate. The money is to create an endowment fund bearing the name of Hart A. Massey, the income of which shall be used for the support of graduate fellowships in the American University. In the assignments to such fellowships priority of claim shall be allowed to young men and women of the Dominion of Canada. But if the fellowships are not thus assigned they shall be open to all. This gift has unusual interest from the fact that it makes operative what long had been a cherished desire of the late Hart A. Massey, so widely known as the founder of the great farm implement manufactory of Canada. The senior Mr. Massey wished to make a contribution from Canada which should establish, if possible, some link between the Methodisms of Canada and of the United States.

We felicitate our colleague and brother, Dr. F. M. Stone, upon the fruitfulness of his labor and the excellent success which has attended his services in the financial interests of the University, and we confidently believe that with his continued appointment to this importnt post he will be able to accomplish even greater results.

We are pleased with the continued prosperity of Taylor University. It has been increasing within the past year in its material resources through the generosity of Dr. Silas C. Swallow, who gave the first five thousand dollars on condition that at least another five thousand dollars be provided. A ladies' dormitory will be erected this summer. The enrollment at present is the largest in the history of the school. Out of an enrollment of 331 students attending, 142 will enter Christian work. Of this number 94 are candidates for the ministry and 42 for the foreign field.

We recommend Dr. W. D. Parr and Dr. S. A. Shoemaker as Trustees for a period of three years, and Rev. John C. White for a period of two years.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.—1. We are gratified by the splendid work done by our Board of Education. Through its co-operation more than $13,000,000 have been added to the permanent funds of our colleges and an increase of more than six thousand students has been recorded during this quadrennium. The counsel given regarding standardization of faculties, curricula, plants, equipment, and endowment has been eminently helpful.

2. To the Jubilee Campaign for Christian Education, so admirably planned by the Board, we pledge our hearty and enthusiastic co-operation.

3. The action of the Board employing a Director of Religious Work in our own colleges and for co-operation with our religious workers at State institutions is especially commendable. Excellent results already appear.

4. The thorough investigation of educational conditions throughout the country, conducted by the Survey Department of the Board of Education, is of unusual value. We could wish that the results of these studies might have the widest publicity.

5. The Children's Day Collection, which has aided from the beginning 23,386 students, last year 2,288, continues to be of greatest value, and is worthy of most loyal support.

6. We commend and approve the apportionment by the General Conference Commission on Finance of the One Public Educational Collection, authorized by the Discipline, 80 per cent at the order of the Conference, and 20 per cent assigned to the Board of Education.

7. The Christian Student, the Board's quarterly publication, improves constantly, and should be read widely. We urge all our pastors to secure from the office of the Board of Education the recently published series of leaflets, many of which embody valuable information gathered by the Survey Department.

We recommend the Rev. Dr. Leslie J. Naftzger as Conference visitor to this school.

We recommend as Trustees for DePauw University, Marion B. Stults, Albert B. Cline, Ralph S. Todd; and as visitor, R. L. Semans. We recommend F. P. Morris as visitor to Drew Theological Seminary; A. S. Preston to Hedding College; B. E. Parker to Garrett Biblical Institute; G. H. Myers to Boston School of Theology. We endorse the Joint Commission on Educational Institutions of Methodism in Indiana, and recommend the continuance of W. W. Martin, L. M. Edwards, and C. U. Wade as our representatives.

We recommend the following special appointments: G. R. Grose, President of DePauw University; F. M. Stone, Endowment Secretary of American University; H. B. Gough, Professor in DePauw; W. W. Sweet, Professor in DePauw; C. U. Wade, Endowment Secretary DePauw University; G. H. Myers, Endowment Secretary Hedding College.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.

The Educational Commission desires to report progress to the North Indiana Conference. Conferences have been held with the authorities of Moores Hill College looking toward the development of a new program for that institution. A joint committee of five representing Moores Hill College and DePauw University, with the Chairman of the Joint Educational Commission, after full consideration of all interests involved, declared it to be their judgment that:

"DePauw University be recognized as a College of Liberal Arts, doing work of college grade only, under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the State of Indiana. That its authorities be encouraged to make comprehensive plans for adequate endowment and equipment in buildings, libraries, and apparatus that the institution may hold rank with the highest grade of colleges of similar purpose and character in the United States under whatever auspices.

"That Moores Hill College authorities be encouraged to develop at Moores Hill a Normal and Collegiate Institute.

"That there be established for this purpose a Junior College Department covering the first two years of college work, (2) an Academy of High School course, (3) a Normal Department covering the work of classes A and B, (4) a Department of Music, (5) a Department of Agriculture, (6) a Department of Domestic Science, (7) a Department of Christian and Biblical Literature, (8) a Department of Economics, and such other departments as may be found expedient.

"And, further, that plans be made as promptly as possible to secure funds for rebuilding Moores Hall, for clearing the institution of all current indebtedness, and for permanent initial endowment of at least $100,000, said endowment funds to be invested securely and preserved sacredly without impairment for support.

"We recommend to the Methodism of the State of Indiana these institutions as under the direct authority of the Methodist Episcopal Church, meeting a very urgent educational need and rendering an important service to society. We moreover urge upon the attention of the wide constituency of Methodism the vital necessity of adequate provisions for these schools as training agencies for distinctively Christian service. Very largely from these institutions must come the leaders of the future in religious and Christian social constructive service. It is now of the utmost importance that these educational agencies shall be second to no others in their respective fields."

In harmony with this position, and with their own policies previously announced, the Board of Trustees of Moores Hill College are working out the new program and planning to enter upon its execution as rapidly as possible. It is anticipated that these plans will be matured in time for ample publicity before the opening of the fall term.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.—Aside from its School of Music, DePauw University is doing only college work, having ceased entirely its academy. The student enrollment in the College of Liberal Arts for 1914-1915 was as follows: Men, 389; women, 342; total, 731; and an enrollment in the summer school of 86, a slight increase in the number of students of college grade over the previous year.

The financial statement shows unincumbered endowment to the amount of $1,218,959.51.

A gymnasium costing $125,000 has been completed.

The available funds for the University current budget have been somewhat increased, making possible some additions to the Faculty.

A program has been put forward which contemplates providing within the next five years $500,000 for increase of permanent endowment; $150,000 for Women's Dormitory; $50,000 for an Administration Building; and $50,000 for a Conservatory of Music.

In view of advancing educational standards and the evident need of maintaining at least one College of Liberal Arts under the auspices of our Church with sufficient resources and equipment to stand with the best institutions of learning, this program is modest. The emphasis should, we believe, be given to the increase of endowment, the first requisite being adequate resources.

The status of Taylor University has not changed. Not being regularly under the authority of the Methodist Episcopal Church, it does not seem to the Commission that we are in a position to make thorough survey of this institution in its field, or to make definite recommendations as to its policies or future program.

The Indiana Conference, at its session in October, adopted recommendations made by the Commission providing for the establishment of an associate pastorate at Bloomington in connection with the First Church, and under the immediate direction of its pastor and Official Board, and providing by apportionment to the charges of the Conference for a fund of $1,500 to provide for student work under this arrangement. This apportionment has been made by the District Superintendents.

The North Indiana Conference is hereby requested to continue as members of the Commission.

The Commission notes the establishment and continuance of the student pastorate at LaFayette in relation to Purdue University; the Northwest and the North Indiana Conferences joining in appropriations for its support. Already the influence of the student pastorate is much felt in the student life at Purdue and in the relationship between the students and the Churches.

Sooner or later it is the conviction of your Commission that some systematic and well organized courses in Biblical Literature, Ethics, and Religion should develop in connection with the State institutions. Such work doubtless should be under joint interdenominational auspices.

A. B. Storms, Chairman,
Loren M. Edwards, Secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Kingdom of God moves on. From all parts of the earth there comes encouraging news of missionary victory. The loyalty and heroism of the devoted missionaries who have consecrated their lives to the Prince of Peace is being rewarded by a great fruitage for God. The Macedonian call is louder and more imperative than ever before in the history of the Church. Thousands of seeking heathen are literally pushing their way into the Kingdom of God. We hear with profound regret that the contributions for missions from the countries of Europe have been very seriously diminished. This means that the Christian people of America will need to increase their contributions very materially in order that the work of Foreign Missions, now so seriously handicapped by that fearful cataclysm of European war, may move on to great victories for God.

We urge to this end that our people in all the charges of the North Indiana Conference shall give careful observance to the coming "Self-Denial Week," which is fixed by the Board of Foreign Missions for the week beginning Sunday, April 16, and ending with Easter Day. We also urge that our people make this period the greatest week of self-denial ever known within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference.

We recommend that all of our pastors shall diligently circulate the literature and carefully follow the methods of the Board of Foreign Missions, in order that our people may become intelligently and sympathetically informed in regard to the needs and opportunities of this important world uplifting work.

We are greatly pleased to learn of the increasing contributions, as reported by our devoted pastors and District Superintendents.

We pledge ourselves anew to earnest efforts in promoting the interests of this Divinely Commanded and signally blessed portion of the vineyard of the Lord.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

The work of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been carried on through the past year in twenty-two schools, with 351 teachers and 5,804 students. It has been a year of unusual difficulty and stress to the schools, principally caused by the war conditions in European countries.

The cotton crop furnishes the main industry by which the masses of the people of the Southern States secure a livelihood. Almost the entire Negro population is engaged in cotton raising. When a large proportion of the market for this product is cut off, and the price received falls below the cost of production, the laborers are first to feel the loss. Last year many millions of dollars worth had to be marketed at such a price as left no margin for the Negro farmers, by whose toil it was produced. Our colored families, who had been sending their children to the schools and paying the small expenses of their education out of their savings earned in the cotton fields, this year found themselves without funds, either for Conference collections toward the maintenance of the schools or the payment of their children's expenses.

These special conditions of financial stress on account of the war are likely to continue throughout the coming year, calling for increased offerings from the Church at large with which to carry the schools over the present crisis.

We therefore recommend that during the coming year each pastor shall take special pains to present the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society to our congregations, and that a special effort be made to make an increase of ten per cent in the collections over the preceding year. If this increased amount is reached, it will avoid the necessity of an indebtedness to the Society, and make possible the continuance of the moral, industrial, and intellectual work so necessary in the present stage of the development of the ten millions of people of the African descent, who look to the churches for trained Christian leadership.

We further recommend that each pastor observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary, February 11, 1917, and send to the Society, 220 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, for a sufficient number of copies of the Lincoln Day Program to supply the members of his congregation and Sunday School. These programs are furnished free on request.

We commend the Rev. Patrick J. Maveety for his presence and presentation before our Conference of the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has a large place in the making of our citizenship and the protecting of our American homes. It is one of the greatest instruments in the hands of God to carry on the mighty work of the church.

We rejoice in the fact that God has given up so wonderful a vision and task. The vision of a sin-cursed world redeemed through the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ should lead us onward into a mighty campaign in the forward movement for the Kingdom.

The present world-crisis points out the United States as the center of Christlike power and the base of Gospel missionary operations.

It is our duty to win and hold the mingled companies of our great land and nation, and to carry the message of salvation to all nations, and in this claim is laid upon us our careful consideration of how best to bring to them the message of love.

Our Conference is increasing its giving year after year, thus widening our interest in thus increasing the work of the Society, which we highly commend for its wonderful success.

We seek for this Board the earnest sympathy and hearty support of all our people, and sincerely pray the day may speedily come when our fair America may present a solid front in the awful struggle and fight against sin, to conquer in the name of our Christ, and to accomplish this end we heartily pledge our support to the increasing responsibilities of our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submits the following:

1. We rejoice in the success of the home as manifested by the health and happiness of those persons who have been admitted thereto, and by the excellent report of the assets and liabilities which are as follows:

Resources.
Cash in Treasury	$2,082 62
Chopson Farm	17,681 20
Riverside Farm	8,084 75
Buildings and Grounds	50,121 07

Tools and Equipments	1,422 72
Real Estate	42,087 92
Bond Account	3,552 92
Cash Endowment	2,696 86
Cash Superintendent	489 69
Live Stock	630 27
Total		$163,282 60

Liabilities.
Annuity Fund	$9,020 00
Building Fund	50,000 00
Contingent Fund	9,937 69
Endowment Productive	35,546 95
Non-Productive	58,777 96
Total		$163,282 60

2. We commend the Rev. E. L. Jones and wife for their efficient, economical administration of the affairs of the institution. They command the highest respect, not only of the members in the home, but of every Methodist in the North Indiana Conference.

3. We recommend that the Rev. E. L. Jones and wife be reappointed as Superintendent and Corresponding Secretary, respectively, of the institution for another year.

4. We recommend that the Committee apportion to the charges of the Conference for this benevolence the sum of ten cents per member as the Home Sustaining Fund.

5. Whereas, worthy members of the Methodist Church are prevented from entering the Home for the Aged because of their inability to pay the required entrance fee, we recommend that the amount apportioned and raised in each district shall hereafter help to pay the entrance fee of such worthy members of our Church to the amount of fifty per cent of the amount required for admission, said credits to apply to applicants from amounts raised from the district of which the applicant is a member.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

"Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Go and show John—the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have." The simply tremendous apologetic of the Hospital cannot be exaggerated. Before its benign ministries to the poor the gainsayers stand speechless.

We therefore heartily recommend the apportionment of ten cents per member to the charges for the sustaining fund, and urge the continuance of free-will offerings which will enable Christian love and business wisdom to keep a correct balance sheet.

"There was no room for them." As many as eleven patients have been turned away in two days on account of lack of beds, but never any for lack of ability to pay. The north pavilion, with its possible 100 beds, must be finished and furnished; additional surgeries must be provided, and the nurses' home built. We cordially endorse the campaign now inaugurated to raise the funds for these purposes. The North Indiana Conference will do its share.

The Hospital is inseparably connected with the Church; indeed, it is the Church giving the loving touch of Jesus. We will tolerate nothing in the institution in the work and training of our nurses, in the ministries of our internes, or in the service of the numerous employees which will in any way misrepresent the Spirit of Christ as interpreted by our Methodism.

We heartily commend our Secretary-Superintendent, Dr. Chas. S. Woods, as one eminently qualified to give a successful administration, and greatly appreciate his business-like address to us.

We count ourselves happy to have the President of the Hospital, the Hon. Chas. W. Fairbanks, pay us a visit, and we thank him for his felicitous words in behalf of this great cause.

We hereby nominate, to succeed themselves, the Rev. W. D. Parr and Mr. Edwin A. Rutenber, Trustees, for three years, their terms to expire in 1919.

Leslie J. Naftzger, Chairman,
Sherman Powell, Secretary.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

We, your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture, report with pleasure that this Conference now has some 214 parsonages at a total valuation of $524,800, leaving but twenty-eight charges having no parsonage for the minister. This is a consideration of the laymen that is appreciated by every pastor in the Conference.

We recommend that each District Superintendent in the First Quarterly Conference shall call the attention of the Trustees of our parsonage properties that it is now the policy of our stronger Conferences to provide the larger and heavier house furnishings, and that we recommend this to be the program of this Conference.

We further recommend that whereas in these days of our growing Methodism it is often necessary to divide certain charges with parsonage property in common, wherever it is required we believe that each society shall have their interests properly guarded in fairness to all.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

Article i.—Name and Seal.

Section i. The corporate name of this organization shall be "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." It is organized under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled, "An Act Concerning the Organization of Voluntary Associations, and Repealing Former Laws in Relation Thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and "an act amendatory thereto," approved February 10, 1863.

SEC. 2. The corporate seal of this society shall be a metallic impression, with the following words and letters, to-wit: "The Preachers' Aid Soc., N. Ind. Conf., M. E. Church."

ARTICLE 2.—OBJECT AND FUNDS.

SECTION 1. The object of this society is to raise and perpetually maintain a fund for the relief of the preachers of said Conference, and their families, in accordance with the provisions and restrictions of this Constitution and in harmony with the spirit of paragraph two hundred and ninety-three (293) of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church of nineteen hundred (1900).

SEC. 2. Said fund shall consist of:

First. Funds received by this Conference from the division of the capital stock of "The Preachers' Aid Society of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated by an act approved February 12, 1841."

Second. Amounts specifically appropriated to this object from the Centenary contribution of 1866 of said Church, and also those of the twentieth century.

Third. Devises, bequests, gifts, and donation of property, real and personal, also gifts and donations of bonds, stocks, monies, and anything else of value that may legitimately come into the possession of and be received by said Society.

SEC. 3. The fund shall be permanent, but all the proceeds arising from rents, interest, or any investment that brings an income, shall, after the payment of all incidental expenses, be distributed annually as herein directed.

SEC. 4. The money received as dues or fees from the members of the Society, together with such other sums as may be designated for this purpose, shall constitute an Administration Fund, from which shall be paid the general expenses of the Society.

ARTICLE 3.—MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. The membership of this Society shall consist of two classes, (1) Beneficiary and (2) Non-Beneficiary.

SEC. 2. Beneficiary Members. Effective members of the North Indiana Conference are members in the first class.

Furthermore, provided, that no one who is now a superannuated minister of the North Indiana Conference, or a widow of a deceased minister of said Conference, shall be cut off from its benefits if he or she shall hereafter fully discharge all indebtedness of unpaid dues.

SEC. 3. Non-Beneficiary Members. Any lay member or friend of the Church and ministry is eligible to membership in this second class.

SEC. 4. Beneficiary Members, Fees and Dues.—1. The annual fee for beneficiary members shall be not less than one per cent of the cash salary which the said member received during the year, just closing, as reported to the Annual Conference, until his payment shall amount in the aggregate to one hundred dollars. Or he may elect to pay in annual installments of not less than ten dollars each, or in larger amounts, until he has paid in one hundred dollars, when he shall, in either case, receive a certificate of life membership, not transferable and non-forfeitable, except as indicated by this Constitution.

2. Any member who may fail to pay regularly annual dues or installments shall pay interest on same at the rate of six per cent compounded annually for the delayed time.

SEC. 5. Non-Beneficiary Members, Fees and Dues.—1. One may become a life member by the payment of fifty dollars at one time, or a life patron by the payment of one hundred dollars in the same manner.

2. The members or patrons in this class shall be entitled to participate in all the proceedings of the Society, provided they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Sec. 6. Transfers, Locations, Withdrawals, etc.—1. In the event that any minister who is a member of this Society, and has paid one hundred dollars, or is in process of paying that amount into the permanent fund of this organization, shall be transferred to another Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, he shall not thereby forfeit his claims as a beneficiary member, but may receive its benefits upon the same conditions as if he had remained a member of the North Indiana Conference. Provided that with this amount he does not receive more than his legal claim.

2. If any transferred member fails to forward to this Society any amount of principal or interest when due from him, then such a sum shall be subtracted from his credits to the Society's funds as will cover his indebtedness to said Society, and if he should allow his credits to become entirely absorbed, in that event he shall have no further claims upon the Society.

3. Should any member of this Society, who has paid, or is in process of paying, one hundred dollars to said permanent fund, be located at his own request, or by action of the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline, without his request, he shall have refunded to him, if he makes request within one year from the date of location, two-thirds of the cash amount actually paid by him to the permanent fund, but no part whatever shall be returned of cash benefits credited, thereby canceling all further claims upon the Society.

4. Any member of this Society who may withdraw from the Methodist Episcopal Church or who has been expelled from the Annual Conference, shall thereby forfeit his membership in this Society, and all claim to its benefits and all that he may have paid into the Society. The same rule shall apply to any widow of a deceased minister who was a member of this body.

If, however, any one who has been expelled shall be restored, that one may again receive benefits, but not for the time while expelled.

Article 4.—Officers and Managers.

Section 1.—1. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, General Secretary, and seven managers.

2. The officers and managers shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Society, and shall hold their offices until the close of the next ensuing Annual Conference, or until their successors are elected. They, together, shall constitute a Board of Control, having full power to manage the affairs of the Society, subject to this Constitution.

3. The Treasurer and three managers shall be laymen resident in the city of Muncie or vicinity.

4. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Board of Control shall provide, through a reliable Surety Company, or in some other satisfactory manner, that the Treasurer may give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased at the discretion of the Board. Said bond shall be filed with the Secretary.

5. The Board shall have power to make By-Laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution.

6. Any vacancy in office caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the interim of the Annual Conference, may be filled by the Board, called at any time by the President or any three members of the Board.

ARTICLE 5.—BENEFITS.

SECTION 1. If any member shall become a claimant before he has paid into the permanent fund of the Society the full sum of one hundred dollars, then not less than one-half of the benefits which would accrue to him, or to his family, shall be withheld each year and turned into the funds, until he shall have one hundred dollars to his credit, when there shall be issued to him, or to his wife, a certificate of life membership.

SEC 2.—1. The proceeds of this Society shall be distributed according to the following basis:

(1) A superannuated minister shall be allowed annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service.

(2) A widow shall be allowed annually five dollars for each year she was the wife of a minister during his effective service.

(3) Each child, under sixteen years of age, of a deceased minister, shall be allowed annually two dollars for each year of the father's effective service, provided, nevertheless, that no widow and children shall receive more than the father might have received had he been a claimant.

2. Before any minister, or his family, may receive benefits from this Society he shall present to the Disbursing Committee, or to any whose duty it is to distribute the funds of the Society, a certificate signed by the Secretary of the Conference, or Conferences, one for each Conference of which he may have been a member, showing definitely and accurately the number of years of effective service while in full connection.

3. If the claimant is a widow, her certificate shall show the number of years that she was the wife of an effective minister in full connection with an Annual Conference.

4. A certificate for a child, or children, of a deceased minister shall show the number of years of the father's effective service and also the date of birth of each child.

5. Years of service shall include two years on trial.

ARTICLE 6.—ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETINGS.

SEC. 1.—1. The annual meeting of the Board of Control shall be held in the city of Muncie, within thirty days next preceding the sessions of the Annual Conference, upon the call of the President or the highest ranking officer of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the President or any three members thereof, upon reasonable notice being given to all members of the Board. In all meetings of the Board five shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

2. The annual meetings of the Society shall be held at the seat of the Annual Conference, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the session, the President of the Conference presiding. This meeting shall be for the purpose of electing officers and managers for the ensuing year; to receive and pass upon the annual report of the Board of Control, made out according to the order found in the accompanying By-Laws, and to transact any other business pertaining to the interests of the Society. This meeting may adjourn to any other day or days of the Conference session; or, in an emergency, the President and Secretary may call a meeting of the Society on any day before the Conference closes; and it shall require the presence of thirty-five members to constitute a quorum.

3. In the interim of the Annual Conference sessions, meetings of the Society may be called by the President, Secretary, and any three members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the official Church paper (Weekly Advocate), having the largest circulation within the bounds of the Conference.

ARTICLE 7.—INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.

The Board shall, at its annual meeting, appoint an Investing Committee of three laymen, who shall reside in the city of Muncie, Indiana, who, with the Treasurer, shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All loans of over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the net income of which shall exceed the interest.

The Investing Committee may purchase good first-mortgage paper, secured by mortgage on first-class inside city property, which shall be worth at least double the amount of the sum loaned, and shall be properly protected by good fire insurance, and the net income of which shall be double the interest. The committee may also make loans, subject to the above conditions and requirements, on inside city property. But in every case abstracts must be furnished that shall satisfy the committee that the title to the property is clear and unincumbered, where loans are sought or mortgages purchased. The committee shall have the right to purchase United States, State, county, city municipal bonds, bearing not less than six per cent interest, if the funds of the Society cannot be loaned or used as provided above.

Article 8.—The General Secretary.

1. The Society, at its regular annual meeting, shall elect a General Secretary in the same manner it does the other officers of the Society. By virtue of his office he shall be a member of the Board of Control, and shall work under the direction of the Board. The Society, upon recommendation of the Board, shall determine whether the General Secretary is to give his entire time to the work of the Society. It shall determine his salary, and provide for its payment, either by a pro rata tax on the membership or by directing the Board of Control to pay it from the administration funds of the Society. In either case the salary shall be payable in monthly installments.

2. All revenues and everything of value that comes into the hands of the General Secretary shall be passed over to the Treasurer, who shall receipt therefor. When practicable, reports shall be made monthly.

Article 9.—Changes of Constitution.

This Constitution, with its accompanying By-Laws, may be changed or amended at an annual meeting of the Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, such changes or amendments having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board of Control.

By-Laws.

Section 1. The officers shall perform the same general duties at all meetings of the Board of Control that they do in the meetings of the Society.

Sec. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full and permanent record, in book form, of all the transactions of business, both of the Society and the Board of Control. He shall keep in his possession the corporate seal of the Board and all other important books and papers not belonging to the Treasurer or General Secretary.

Sec. 3. The General Secretary shall keep a list of those who have been granted certificates of life membership, and also a list of those who are in the process of becoming life members. He shall credit them with the payments they make from year to year, charging them six per cent, compound interest, on all deferred payments until paid, this interest to be paid into the administration fund. The General Secretary shall make out all certificates for life membership, which shall bear the signature of the President and General Secretary of the Society.

Sec. 4. Any note executed to the Society by any of its members, and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from the allowance made to him, his widow, or his children; but neither the Society nor the Board of Control shall have the power to apply the amounts to the payment of any other claim.

SEC. 5. The report of the Board of Control to the annual meeting of the Society shall embrace the following items:

1. Total Permanent Fund at last report.
2. Total Permanent Fund at present.
3. Changes explained in detail.
4. Amounts now invested, with kinds of security.
5. Net proceeds reported last year.
6. Net proceeds for the present year.
7. Differences explained in detail.
8. Any other items necessary to complete the exhibit of the financial status of the Society.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer of this Society shall be vested with the same authority that the President, Vice-president, and Secretary now have by law to release upon the record all mortgages, judgments, and other record liens, and all such releases heretofore executed by Treasurers of this Society are hereby fully ratified and confirmed.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY GENERAL SECRETARY.

DEAR BRETHREN: At the session of 1910 I was appointed General Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society. My predecessor had done good work, but had met with discouragement, and the outlook for the Society was not inspiring.

By the spring of 1912 a deeper interest had been awakened and at our session that year a definite call for advance was made and a commission of three laymen and two preachers from each district appointed to plan for the raising of the $60,000 asked to be added to the permanent fund. At the session of 1913 the report of this commission was adopted in these words: "That the early part of the coming Conference year be devoted to this work, District Days to be observed, under the direction of the District Superintendents and the General Secretary. Goshen and Fort Wayne Districts are asked to observe the second Sunday in May, the other districts to follow so as to complete the work by the first of July."

In following out this order of the Conference, which was supplemented by an appeal from Bishop McDowell to North Indiana Methodists and a circular letter containing specific directions to the pastors, the Goshen District reached and passed its goal in June of that year. The other districts have come along more gradually, the Logansport, Wabash, and Richmond Districts having not yet completed their tasks. The present status of the campaign is as follows:

District.	Pledged.	Paid.	Unpaid.
Fort Wayne	$11,040	$7,316	$3,724
Goshen	11,223	8,477	2,746
Logansport	8,072	3,018	5,054

Wabash	6,759	3,811	2,948
Total	$51,549	$30,844	$20,705

The following figures indicate the advance of the last six years:

Item.	1910.	1916.	Increase.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. It is not only our duty to reach the individual with the claims of the Gospel, but also to redeem the community from those social and moral evils that tend to compromise the influence of the Church.

2. We affirm the teaching of the Holy Scriptures regarding the proper observance of the Sabbath Day. We deplore the fact that there is a growing tendency to desecrate this Holy Day by unnecessary travel, visiting, games of sport, and numerous other diversions not in keeping with the spirit of the day. We deplore the fact that in many of our cities the moving picture shows are permitted to run on the Sabbath Day, and recommend that our pastors use their influence to prevail upon the city administrations to enact ordinances for the control of this evil.

3. We recommend to our people only such amusements as can be taken in harmony with the development of the highest Christian character.

4. We recommend that our pastors in a forceful and tactful manner endeavor to create sentiment against the immoral and suggestive exhibitions in moving pictures.

5. We heartily indorse and commend the action of all papers and magazines that have refused to give space in their columns for the advertising of the liquor interests.

6. In the light of social tendencies to evil we certainly affirm our faith in and pledge our support to the position of the Church, as indicated in paragraph 68 in our Discipline, and recommend that there be no backward step in this matter.

7. We are in hearty accord with any and all movements working for the entire suppression of polygamy, as practiced by Mormonism in violation of the law, and recommend that our people refuse to receive or read literature distributed by Mormon Elders.

8. We deplore the fact that the divorce evil is on the increase, and in consideration of the fact that the virtues of our homes are affected thereby, we pledge ourselves to encourage and support legislation that will increase the difficulty of securing divorces, and adhere strictly to the law of the Church regarding the re-marriage of divorced people.

9. We deplore the fact that in many places our national holidays are celebrated in very questionable ways, and pledge ourselves to use our influence in the communities where we reside to a more reverent, thoughtful, patriotic, and dignified observance of the same.

EARL NAFTZGER, Chairman. W. E. LOVELESS,
J. P. CHAMNESS, Secretary. C. M. HOBBS.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

The Committee recognizes the great importance and growing interest in the Sunday School, as indicated in the reports of the past year. This is of no small interest in the future of the Church.

The reports of the year just closing indicate that the note of evangelism has been sounded, and many Churches have found a fruitful harvest in the number of conversions from the Sunday School. Increased missionary instruction in the Sunday School has resulted in two distinct lines of advance; one the advance in missionary offerings, the other a larger vision of world evangelism.

Believing that larger possibilities await discovery, we recommend that the coming year will mean a more efficient and aggressive effort. We would call our pastors, Sunday School workers, and Church leaders to emphasize more definitely the missionary policy of the Church; that the Graded Lessons be recognized as of greater value, and be introduced as soon as possible in our Methodist Schools.

We believe that teacher training should have a place in our Sunday Schools, that efficient leaders must be trained for service. We recommend that the Probationers' Manual be used for the training of youth, and commend it to the pastors.

George E. Garrison, Chairman,
Chas. A. Cloud,
D. T. Stephenson.

SUSTENTATION.

The only apportionment made to our charges and the only money received by our Conference for local missionary work in the maintenance of ministers upon charges in the process of organization, unable adequately to support a minister, is that received from the sustentation fund; and since there yet remains so much of that kind of work to be done, we heartily recommend that cause, asking the apportionment of $4,000, the usual amount, to the various districts.

We also recommend the addition of $1,200 to this apportionment for the support of the student pastorate at Purdue University, making the total apportionment $5,200, or the same amount as apportioned last year.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

We are greatly rejoiced over the splendid progress of the prohibition movement, both at home and abroad. We believe the time is not far distant when our State and Nation will banish from our midst forever the legalized liquor traffic. We are confident that now is the time to strike hard with every available weapon, that the nefarious traffic may surely and speedily die.

We have arrived at the time when Indiana should attest the wisdom of its one hundred years by falling in line with the nineteen Prohibition States. Every Christian in the State should aid in every possible way in the accomplishing of this task. Our work will not be done and our battle will not be won until we have driven "King Barleycorn" from our Nation and branded him as an outlaw rather than a ward to be protected by license.

Our optimism over the successes of the past must not blind us to the bigness and difficulties of our task. We must win for the sake of right and everything we hold dear. There is much fighting to be done which will call for true, noble, self-sacrificing men.

We urge pastors and laymen to support no man for any public office who has not openly declared himself for State and National Prohibition. We call upon every public official to use the influence of his personality and the power of his office to aid in every possible way in the overthrow of the liquor traffic.

We commend to our pastors and laymen for their co-operation and support our Church Temperance Society, the Anti-Saloon League, and all other organizations that have for their purpose the destruction of the entire traffic.

We nominate as trustees for the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue.

We recommend for President of our Church Temperance Society, J. O. Bills; for Vice-president, F. P. Morris; for Secretary, Herbert Boase.

Special Work.

We bring the report of our Special Work with hearts full of joy over the achievements of the past year, and of hopefulness for the coming year.

In some lines we have to report a few losses, but in others we have made gains, and since we have so many new organizations, we hope for gains along all lines during the coming year.

We have work in eight of our foreign fields, and by our dues and special offerings we support eight missionaries, four assistant workers. four hospital beds, and give a goodly sum to the general expenses of our hospital work; thirty-seven Bible women, eleven Bible women in training, five day schools, six teachers and kindergarten workers, six scholarships in the Woman's Station Class in Yenping, one hundred and seventeen regular scholarships in our various schools; help in the support of city work in some places, and pay toward current expense in our several schools and hospitals. One Auxiliary will, for the seventh consecutive year, give $100 as a testimonial for one of their number.

Special gifts were sent to a number of our missionaries at Christmas time, although, owing to war conditions, only a few large Christmas boxes were sent to our schools during the past year.

Many of our societies give Christmas and thank-offerings, pay on the Retirement Fund, and observe Self-Denial Week.

A number of papers and magazines are being sent to our workers, but the goal "One paper to each missionary," has not yet been reached. Each Auxiliary could help in this work if they could only be made to see and realize what it means to the dear girls on the foreign field to receive a paper or magazine each month from her loved but distant homeland.

Some of the countries in which we have work are affected by the cruel war, but in most places our work is being carried on as usual, and the calls for larger buildings, better furnishings and equipment, for more teachers, nurses, and Bible women, are most urgent. Day schools, too, are one of our greatest needs. One can be established for from $250 to $1,000. Who will help?

There are so many avenues of helping in our work, at prices which vary from only a few dollars to many thousands of dollars, that each member—or at least each organization—should find some work to support and become vitally interested in, and in this way help very materially to advance the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. A. B. Cline, Secretary Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Greetings sincere and cordial to all Methodists assembled.

The combined activities of our 93 Auxiliaries, 6 Young Ladies' Societies, 48 Queen Esther Circles, 14 Home Guard Companies, and 31 Mothers' Jewel Bands have wrought splendid results during the past year. We have now 192 organizations, with 6,184 members.

New Auxiliaries are stationed at Geneva, Syracuse, West Middleton, New Castle, Strawns, Silver Lake, and Columbia City. Nine new Queen Esther Circles have been established at the following Churches: Trinity Church, Fort Wayne; Warsaw, Peru, Anderson First Church, New Castle (Senior and Junior), Huntington, Columbia City, and South Whitley.

Our June conventions held in the six districts were well attended. Miss Edith Ashton, Superintendent of Aiken Hall, Olive Hill, Kentucky, lent enthusiasm by her word pictures of, and heart to heart talks about the mountain girls with whom she labors.

The national meeting, held in Seattle, Washington, last September, was one of great inspiration. Great glimpses were given of the teeming multitudes in the home land who know not the Christ.

Wabash, First Church, entertained the Conference Annual in November last. Good crowds, excellent reports, earnest talks, and prompt attention to business, all tended toward a profitable time. Miss Carrie Barge, National Field Secretary, was present and gave bountifully of her great store.

During the month of November, thank-offering addresses were made at several points by Mrs. Margaret Delight Moors—Deaconess.

"Organization" has been the watchword sent down the line from headquarters to the most remote outpost. With full desire to do our best in this admonition, Miss Olivia G. Dunlap, National Field Secretary, of Jacksonville, Ill., was called among us for special work during February. A total of 313 new members in sixteen new organizations was the result. Another campaign will be conducted in each of the districts during May and June, and even greater results are anticipated.

The text book, "Home Missions in Action," is being quite generally used in the Auxiliaries and Circles, as are also the "Woman's" and "Children's Home Missions."

Respectfully submitted,
Miss Olla Grace Davis, Corresponding Secretary.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

The women of the Church of Jesus Christ are honored by their superior opportunity in contrast with the degradation of their sisters under other religions.

Women were frequent helpers in the field of labor during the ministry of Jesus and his disciples.

Great respect is shown to the women by Jesus. When called to the home of Martha and Mary, His humility was deeply touched, and it is recorded that He wept.

At another time he honored women by saying of one who had wrought a marvelous deed, "She hath done what she could."

Also, the woman who gave so lavishly of her living, that Jesus said, "Verily, I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury; for all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living."

These are the marks of recognition given by Jesus concerning the women who were active in helping to carry on the great work of the Master.

In these modern times the women are still keeping pace in the great interest of the Kingdom, as they have all along the way.

Some of these active fields of labor are: The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, an organization which joins together all the women of the Churches, as an army fighting for the annihilation of the liquor traffic.

The Ladies' Aid Societies, rendering efficient service in material help, as well as assisting the pastor in looking after the sick and strangers.

The Woman's Missionary Societies, Home and Foreign, are doing great work in enlightening the church concerning the opportunities for work and the need of sending the light; they are sending out many consecrated workers in all fields.

The Deaconess Sisterhood renders very valuable service in so many ways. The women are very active in Sunday School and the Epworth Leagues, and as the inspired word says concerning the patriarch of old, "Time would fail us to tell of the many other works and deeds the women are doing."

The men of the Church are very active in the spiritual affairs of the Church, for which we are very thankful, yet the women are no less active, but more abundant.

We commend them for their consecration, and pray God's blessing upon all their plans and undertakings for the building up of the Kingdom.

Resolutions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We hereby express our joy in having Bishop Wm. F. McDowell to again preside over our Conference. We have been inspired by his addresses and sermon, and thank him for his generosity in giving the Conference lecture.

We express our gratitude for the royal hospitality extended to us by the pastors and the people of the Churches of Fort Wayne. Everything possible has been done to make our stay pleasant and to facilitate the work of the Conference.

We wish to thank the Rev. C. C. Travis, the pastor of Wayne Street Church, and the other pastors of the city, D. H. Guild, H. L. Overdeer, F. H. Cremean, T. M. Hill, and J. A. Beatty, District Superintendent, for their personal attention given to every detail.

We appreciate the splendid work of the Assignment Committee, and the very efficient and courteous work of the Information and Postoffice Bureaus, and the janitor of the Church.

We are grateful to the choir and the two organists of Wayne Street Church, who have added so much to the pleasure and devotional spirit of the sessions.

We thank the Tri-State Bank and the Old National Bank for their courtesies.

We record our appreciation of the extensive and discriminating reports of the Conference in the daily press of the city.

We wish to thank the Program Committee for the unexcelled program provided. We thank Dr. George Elliott for his magnificent address, and Dr. Lynn H. Hough for his instructive and inspiring addresses.

We also desire to express our gratitude to the following persons who spoke to us: Chas. W. Fairbanks, Chas. M. Boswell, Isaac T. Headland, W. S. Bovard, W. F. Sheridan, A. W. Harris, George R. Grose, P. J. Maveety, J. C. Crowther, Mrs. C. Bernheim, Dr. Wood, and L. M. Edwards.

We also thank the officers of the Conference for their tireless energy and efficient service.

L. J. Naftzger,
W. F. Smith,
R. L. Semans,
Karl H. Carlson.

Resolved, 1. That we accept with pleasure five additional Conference Hymns, written by Rev. T. C. Neal, extending the time of preparedness to and including 1925. 2. That the Conference Hymn shall be printed from year to year in the Official Program.

Resolution presented by the Commission on Social Service, North Indiana Conference:

BOOK CONCERN AND LABOR.

"WHEREAS, The General Conference of 1912 declared that the Church, in its capacity as employer, should lead and not merely keep pace with the best practice of modern business, especially in developing the principle of co-operation, both in management and the division of proceeds:

And further declared that the efforts of organized labor to improve conditions should receive our heartiest cooperation;

Therefore we request the General Conference of 1916 to instruct the Book Committee as follows:

(1) To add a profit-sharing plan to its present welfare work.

(2) In the future hiring of men to adopt a preferential policy: By a preferential policy we mean that in case of applicants of equal character and ability, the preference shall be given to union men, providing, however, that in like case a prior preference be given to members of our own Church.

(3) To appoint immediately a committee, one-half of whom shall not be members of the Book Committee, but men of expert knowledge of the subject, to carefully consider during the next quadrennium the feasibility of organizing the Book Concern as a co-operative undertaking, and to report concerning the same to the General Conference of 1920."

the Home, he suggested that the Trustees make provision, under certain restriction, for receiving annual payments for a term of years during the productive period of life from acceptable candidates, as apartment endowment, thus enabling eligible members of the Church to make provision for their old age before they arrive at the age of sixty-five, the present minimum age for admission. The subject was then open for discussion. After a number of questions had been raised, Dr. J. A. Beatty, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Home, was invited to give additional information.

Before adjournment for the noon recess, the chairman appointed the following committees:

Committee on Nominations—B. F. Boltz, C. W. Dancer, C. C. Ayres.

Committee on Resolutions—W. H. Fledderjohann, B. W. Ayres, E. E. Youse.

Committee on Time and Place for Next Meeting—Wm. Enslen, E. Starbuck, A. B. Cline.

Adjourned for luncheon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order by Chairman Skillen. After singing, C. C. Ayres led in prayer. Miss Bonetta Kanaga then rendered very beautifully a vocal solo. The Chairman introduced Brother A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, who addressed the convention on the subject, "The Outlook for the Church." Brother Cline laid the groundwork for his main theme by reviewing many items of church statistics. He observed that the three Conferences that led in the per cent of gain in membership in 1915, were, in their order, Pittsburgh, Central Pennsylvania, and North Indiana, and that these Conferences were the ones that had conducted campaigns of aggressive evangelism. This address was very timely, full of spiritual inspiration, and called the Church, both laymen and ministers, to their best endeavor. He especially emphasized the necessity of spiritual ardor and aggressiveness. He said: "The baptism of the Holy Spirit will put into the recipient a consecration that will lay itself out to the last ounce of strength in God's work. And this is not the standard for the ministry alone, but for the laity. Changes of time do not change the eternal Word of God. 'The law of the Lord is perfect,' and what is perfect cannot be improved upon. The better method of getting money is to get the baptism of the spirit first. It is easier to walk in the light if it is in front of you, than if it is behind your back."

When Brother Cline closed and the subject was open for discussion, we found ourselves in the midst of a real evangelistic atmosphere, and the spirit of the Lord moved many to testimony. The Spirit manifested Himself and gave liberty. Those taking part in discussion, testimony, or exhortation, were Dr. Kemper, of Muncie; R. G. Marcy, of Bluffton; Elwood Starbuck, of Goshen; C. C. Ayres, of Redkey; and Ed. Pierce, of Fort Wayne. But for the chairman's calling the meeting to business session, it would have run on indefinitely.

The annual report of the Secretary-Treasurer was read, showing expenses for the year for postage, printing, and stationery, amounting to $48.85. As the Association had found it important to have a Vice-president-at-Large, and as there was no record that the Constitution had ever been amended to make provision for such an office, a resolution was introduced so amending Section five of the Constitution. The Committee on Nominations made the following report, which was unanimously adopted: The officers for the ensuing year shall be:

President, Elwood Starbuck, Goshen.

Vice-President-at-Large, D. O. Skillen, Yorktown.

Secretary-Treasurer, B. W. Ayres, Upland.

Committee on time and place of next meeting, recommended the second Thursday in October as the time, and either Taylor University, Upland, or Home for the Aged, Warren, as the place. The decision between these two places to be determined by ballot. The report was adopted and ballot taken, resulting in the choice of Taylor University as the place.

After announcements, Brothers Todd, of Fort Wayne, and Deam, of Bluffton, led the Association in prayer, especially asking God's blessing on the "dry forces" in the election to be held in Muncie on the following day. Adjourned to meet at 7:30.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was opened by a forty-minute concert given by the Schlatter Orchestra. President-elect E. Starbuck presided over the evening meeting. After singing, C. C. Ayres offered prayer. After congregational singing, Mr. Deam, of Bluffton, very effectively rendered a vocal solo, "My Heavenly Father Watches Over Me." D. O. Skillen was introduced with the request to explain to the general public the business and aims of the Association. Before he spoke, he led the congregation in singing the hymn, "Saved." After Brother Skillen had spoken briefly, Brother Todd, of Fort Wayne, an officer of the Christian Men's League, was requested to speak on the work of that organization.

He spoke of the influence the League had had, by its earnest work, on morals and good order of the city, of its law enforcement, and its influence in the recent primary elections. The Committee on Resolutions made its report, which was unanimously adopted. (The first four resolutions were resolutions of thanks for those who had contributed in various ways to the success of the meeting.) The fifth and sixth resolutions are as follows:

(5) Resolved, That we recommend to the Trustees of the Warren Home for the Aged the formulation and publication to the Church public a plan in detail for the endowment of apartments by members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the payment of annual payments, to be made in the productive period of life, thus making provision for a home whenever the minimum age limit has been reached and other qualifications for admission have been met.

(6) Resolved, That as Taylor University, at Upland, Indiana, is peculiarly the laymen's institution, being the only educational institution in Methodism owned and controlled by the laymen, we reiterate our declaration of interest in the institution, and pledge it our support, and urge upon the Annual Conference and the Church in general a continuance and increase of sympathy and substantial support for this institution. We declare to the Church and to the public that our interest is not merely a passing sentiment, but a settled conviction based upon a knowledge of the character and scope of its work for the Church and for the Kingdom of Christ throughout the world.

After the adoption of the foregoing, B. W. Ayres introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That, whereas, our esteemed brother, W. H. Fledderjohann, who has so faithfully served as Vice-President of the Fort Wayne District, is leaving this State to take up his residence in Columbus, Ohio, we express our appreciation of his fellowship and service and commend him to the fellowship of the brethren in Ohio.

After the unanimous adoption of this resolution, Brother Fledderjohann was called to the platform, and after being introduced by President Starbuck, spoke briefly of his work in the Association and of his appreciation of this kind expression by the Association.

A. B. Cline was then introduced and continued the theme of his address in the afternoon session, especially emphasizing the thought: "Ye shall have power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

After a few appropriate remarks by the chairman, a closing hymn was sung and the meeting adjourned.

B. W. Ayres, Secretary.

Lay Electoral Conference.

Fort Wayne, Indiana, March 31, 1916.

The 1916 Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference was called to order at 10:10 o'clock A. M., Friday, March 31, in the First Church, Fort Wayne, by Willard J. Creighton, Secretary of the 1912 Lay Conference. After a song, Brother C. C. Ayres, of Upland, Indiana, led in prayer.

Brother Elwood Starbuck, of Goshen, Indiana, was elected Chairman, and Willard J. Creighton, of Wabash, Indiana, Secretary. The roll was called and two hundred and ten delegates responded to their names. (See list.) The Chairman appointed Brothers S. T. Wait, of Upland; E. B. Funk, of Warsaw; J. C. White, of Richmond; Ralph Gaylor, of Mishawaka, and W. H. Fledderjohn, of Decatur, Committee on Resolutions.

Dr. W. S. Bovard was called to the platform, and addressed the Conference, and was well received by the delegates. Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger and Fred B. Fisher were introduced at this time, and presented the invitation of the Ministerial Conference to a joint session in Wayne Street Church at 1:30 o'clock P. M., which was unanimously accepted. The Chairman called for nominations for Lay Delegates by districts, and the following names were presented:

Frederick C. Parham, Fort Wayne, Fort Wayne District; C. C. Cartwright, Portland, Fort Wayne District; Mrs. John C. White, Elkhart, Goshen District; Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, Muncie, Muncie District; O. N. Cranor, Albany, Muncie District; George E. Meck, Kokomo, Logansport District; George A. Whitezel, Peru, Logansport District; C. L. Hand, Logansport District; Mrs. M. Josie Nelson, Union City, Richmond District; John T. Sutton, Dunkirk, Richmond District; James L. Vail, McCordsville, Richmond District; Burt W. Ayres, Upland, Wabash District; Edward Youse, Markle, Wabash District.

Tellers were announced by the Chairman as follows: J. H. Lane, Miss Mary Lane, Dr. Enslen, Charles Hegel, and Clyde Batchelor. A motion carried as follows: The seven delegates having the largest number of votes be declared elected. A motion was also carried that the three delegates having the next higest votes be declared reserve delegates. The vote was taken and the Tellers retired to count it.

During their absence, Rev. W. W. Sweet, of DePauw University, Conference Historian, presented the claims of his book, "History of Meth-to cancel the debt.

The Committee on Resolutions presented their report, each resolution being read separately and acted upon, after which they were adopted as a whole, as follows:

"We, your Committee on Resolutions, have examined the resolutions brought before us, and beg to report favorably on the following ones as numbered, 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 9. The others, while meritorious, we have laid on the table owing to the lack of time to investigate and our lack of knowledge of the situation.

"1. Whereas, Taylor University, at Upland, Indiana, is doing a great work in the type of education which it is the duty of the church to do, and much of which cannot be done by the other schools of the church as at present organized; and,

"Whereas, This institution is sustaining a spiritual atmosphere which sharply differentiates it from the State schools, thus enabling it to perform the function originally intended by the founders of our system of higher education under the direction of the church; and,

"Whereas, The school is giving not only a general Christian education which fits for efficient service in any walk of life, but is also sending out many missionaries and ministers, who are giving their lives to soul-winning; and,

"Whereas, We believe that investment in this institution yields large dividends for the Kingdom, and that we should use the same good business judgment in investing the Lord's money where the best dividends are to be secured as we use in private business; and,

"Whereas, Taylor University is distinctively the layman's school, being the only school in Methodism owned and controlled by the laymen of the church; therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Lay Electoral Conference in convention assembled this 31st day of March, 1916:

"First—That we pledge to the institution not only our sympathy and approval, but our cooperation and support.

"Second—That we memorialize the Annual Conference in the following particulars:

"(a) That, as credits from Taylor University are habitually recognized by State institutions and standard colleges and theological schools which are accredited by the University Senate of the church, as well as by Examining Boards of other Conferences, these grades or credits be accepted by the Examining Boards of the North Indiana Conference in lieu of examinations, when equivalent, and when duly authenticated by transcript of record signed by an officer of the school.

"(b) That students attending Taylor University be granted the same privileges in regard to their course of study in the Conference as are granted to students in other denominational schools.

"(c) That provisions be made by the Annual Conference for an increase in the amount of financial support granted to Taylor University.

"Resolved, further, That copies of these resolutions be transmitted respectively to the Secretary of the Annual Conference, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Examiners, and the Chairman of the Committee on Education.

"5. Memorial to the General Conference, 1916:

"Whereas, The Local Preachers are an order of the Methodist Episcopal Church, licensed and ordained by the church and amenable to the church;

"WHEREAS, They have had a great part in building up and sustaining the church, the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby memorializes your honorable body, asking that the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church be given official recognition as one of the organizations of the church.

"7. Be it Resolved, By the laymen of the North Indiana Conference in convention assembled, That we oppose the proposition to assess the North Indiana Conference $250,000 for the endowment of the Preachers' Aid Society at this time, for the reason that we believe other great primary obligations of the church to meet the needs of the world would be practically set aside by the pressure for this great sum

"Resolved, further, That we believe in taking care of our superannuated ministers on the basis of their actual needs.

"8. Be it Resolved, That this Conference heartily recommends State and National prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating beverages.

"9. Be it Resolved, That this Lay Electoral Conference now in session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church express and extend a vote of thanks to the Trustees of said church for their courtesy in granting us the use of this edifice for our Conference, and that the Secretary of this Conference be authorized to extend our thanks to said Trustees.

"It is recommended by this committee that the Resolution Committee for next year be appointed as early as possible in advance of the next Conference that sufficient time may be given to intelligently pass on resolutions which may be brought before them.

"S. T. WAIT,

"Committee."

The Tellers of the ballot entered at this time with their report, which was as follows: Delegates—Edward E. Youse, Markle, 164; Mrs. John C. White, Elkhart, 148; Burt W. Ayres, Upland, 145; George E. Meck, Kokomo, 143; Frederick C. Parham, Fort Wayne, 130; Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, Muncie, 105; George A. Whitezel, Peru, 104. Reserve Delegates—John T. Sutton, Dunkirk, 101; O. N. Cranor, Albany, 91; Mrs. M. Josie Nelson, Union City, 90; C. C. Cartwright, 84; James L. Vail, 74; C. L. Hand, 44.

The Chairman declared according to the decision of the Conference the first seven were elected delegates and the next three highest reserve delegates.

A motion to adjourn prevailed, and the Conference stood adjourned without date.

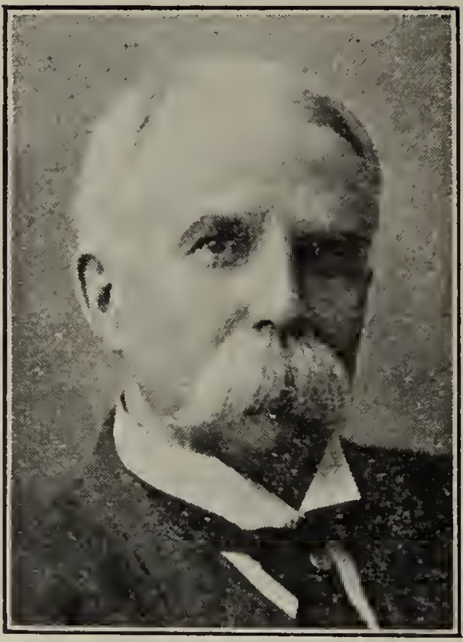
Memoirs



REV. WILLIAM M. VAN SLYKE.

As was noted in the Year Book of last year, the data for this memoir could not be obtained in time to have it printed then.

The subject of this sketch was born March 8, 1848. At the session of the North Indiana Conference held in Muncie in 1872 he was a member of a class of sixteen who were admitted on trial in the Conference. So far as we know, he is survived by only two members of his class, Rev. G. B. Work, of this Conference, and Rev. J. H. Pyke, who has spent more than a third of a century in China as a missionary. His first charge was Marion Circuit, to which he was sent in 1872. After that he served the following charges: 73-4, Elwood; 75, Galveston; 76-8, Wolcottville; 79-80, Orland; 81-2, New Paris; 83-4, Waterloo; 85-88, he sustained a superannuated relation to the Conference. In 1889 he was made effective and stationed at Berry Street, Fort Wayne, now First Church, where he remained until the spring of 1892, when he was again placed on the superannuated list. He sustained this relation until the time of his death, though he did considerable work for the church during the earlier years of his superannuation.

Brother VanSlyke was well endowed by nature for the work of the ministry. He was of pleasing appearance, a good mixer, affable and pleasant in conversation, magnetic in his movements and personality. After leaving the effective work, he moved to Goshen and engaged in the insurance business for a little while, and in 1894 moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan, and became engaged in soliciting for the Western Seaman's Friend Society, of Cleveland, Ohio. This was a benevolent organization the type of whose work seemed to appeal to him, and he continued in the work the remainder of his active life with considerable enthusiasm.

Brother VanSlyke was married to Miss Elizabeth Josephine Suman, of Anderson, Indiana, in 1874. To this union were born three children—Lulu Nettie, William Ralph, and Bernice Katharine, all of whom are still living. From Kalamazoo he moved to Detroit in 1899. Here eleven years later he met a severe sorrow in the death of his wife, on June 10, 1910. Soon after the death of his companion he moved to Lawton, Michigan, where he remained until the time of his death, though the last few years he spent on his farm near Lawton. He never forgot his home Conference, and for a number of years previous to his death he sent to the Secretary of the Conference his message of greeting and assurance of continued interest in the work of the church. This was always accompanied by a letter from his pastor assuring us of the continued faithfulness of Brother VanSlyke. He is the only superannuated member of the Conference residing outside the territory from whom the present Secretary every year received a message of greeting for the Conference and a certificate of character from his pastor.

His last illness was of only a few months' duration, which took a severe turn about March 10. The diagnosis of his case was that the disease was cirrhosis of the liver. He died at his home on his farm near Lawton, Michigan, March 30, 1915. His funeral was conducted from his home by Rev. F. M. Cosner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Lawton, on March 31, 1915, and his body was buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit, Michigan.

MRS. ZILPHA CRAFTS.

Zilpha Crafts, wife of Rev. George H. Crafts, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, November 16, 1850. She was married to I. C. Beekman, of Plymouth, Ohio, in August, 1875. To this union was born one child, Iva, now Mrs. C. B. Hall, of Evanston, Illinois. Mr. Beekman died three years after their marriage.

In December, 1888, she was married to George H. Crafts, of Plymouth, with whom she went, in the year 1891, to Evanston, Illinois, to assist him through the theological school. This particular part of her life's service was one like that of many other preachers' wives at Evanston and elsewhere, and those of the Methodist ministry who may read these lines and remember sharing the same helpfulness from their wives will understand how inadequate these poor words are to express the true appreciation which such service deserves. She, with her husband, went to the Des Moines Conference in the year 1894, and was stationed at Neola, in the Atlantic District. Thirteen years were spent in this Conference, after which her husband came to the North Indiana Conference and served Swayzee, South Whitley, and Monroe. At the Conference of 1913 her husband took a Supernumerary relation, and with more or less anticipation of portending sorrow because of physical conditions, he brought her to their marriage home, where, after a little more than a year, she bravely and joyously approached the parting of the ways. Full of hope and faith, she, like so many dear and faithful ministers' wives, gave to the immediate members of her household such dying consolation as was most fitting to encourage us all to approach the end with unshaken trust and faith in Jesus.

She departed on the 19th day of May, 1915, and was buried in the family lot in the cemetery at Plymouth.

MRS. AMANDA M. HARLAN.

Amanda Melvian, daughter of William and Nancy Peden, was born near Hollandsburg, Ohio, on the second day of February, 1849. She was one of a family of six children—three boys and three girls. Two brothers, William and Charles, live near Hollandsburg, Ohio. Mrs. Etta Chenoweth, of Lynn, Indiana, and Mrs. Anna Pitman, of Cartersville, Missouri, are the surviving ones, the brother James having passed away about one year ago. Her educational training was received in the schools near her birthplace.

She was married to Madison A. Harlan, November 27, 1869, by Rev. Davenport, by whom they were baptized and received into the New Light Christian Church. Remaining near their old home for two years, they moved to Union City, where her husband was employed as teacher in the city schools. Here they remained until 1888, when her husband entered the North Indiana Conference, in which they served the following charges: Williamsburg, Middletown; Wheatland Street, Logansport; Portland, Peru, Auburn. From here they moved to Warren, where her husband was financial secretary of the Memorial Home for the Aged for the next five years.

Here, as elsewhere they labored, Sister Harlan endeared herself to the people by her gentle Christian character and faithful service for the Master. Although never rugged in health, she was a tireless worker in all departments of church activity, and especially in the Woman's Home Missionary Society. By virtue of her zeal and enthusiasm, she succeeded in organizing Auxiliaries on every charge except one. She was also a faithful worker in the Sunday school and in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. For some years past she was District and Conference officer in the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Upon her husband retiring from the effective work about four years ago, they returned to Union City, where she spent her remaining days. While they were days of retirement from the effective ranks of the work of the church, they were not days of inactivity for our sister. She at once became effective in the Sunday school as teacher and superintendent of the Home Department and of the Sabbath School Missionary Department, continuing in these positions until failing health caused her to decline further responsibilities. She was a faithful attendant upon the prayer and class meetings of the church. Her own prayers and testimonies were assuring evidences of the abundant grace of God in her life and character.

The married life of Brother and Sister Harlan was blessed with the birth of two children—Emma Florence, who died in infancy, and Orla, a son, who still remains in the home.

Last October she suffered from a slight stroke of paralysis, which incapacitated her for further activities in the church. Although during all through these months she was a sufferer, yet not one word of complaint was heard to pass her lips. Her pastor and friends were greeted with a smile, and she gladly joined in the devotional services held in her presence. Hers was a trusting, optimistic temperament, trusting fully in God, always believing in the most blessed outcome of their work and making for herself a large place in the affections and confidence of the people whom they served and among whom they labored.

With such a temperament and such an experience, we would expect her evening of life to be beautiful. In this we are not disappointed. On Saturday morning, June 19, 1915, about three o'clock, she was heard to say "Rest, rest, rest." Soon after she began to realize that the morning of her first day in glory was about to dawn. And to assure her loved ones sitting by her side she said "It is not dark." A moment more, and without a struggle, she was not, for God had taken her and had given his beloved sleep.

The funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Union City, Tuesday, June 22, at 2 P. M., by her pastor, Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger, after which the body was laid away in the nearby cemetery.

MRS. ANNIE LYNCH.

Annie Cash was born in Catskill, New York, December 15, 1846. In 1865, on the first day of June, she was united in marriage to the Rev. C. W. Lynch, who was then pastor of Jarvis, now Butler charge. She became at once his faithful co-laborer and helper in his chosen work. Together they served the following charges: Jarvis another year; in '67, New Haven; '68-'70, Kendallville; '71-'73, Union City; '74-'76, Logansport (Broadway); '77-'79, Marion; '80-'82, Wabash; '83, Muncie; '84-'87, Ft. Wayne Dist.; '88, Warsaw; '89-'94, Warsaw Dist.; '95-'99, Red Key; 1900, Tipton; '01-'03, Warsaw Ct.; '04-'05, Leesburg. In 1906 her husband took a retired relation to the Conference, and together they made their home in Warsaw until the death of her faithful companion in 1908. Since this time she has most of the time resided in their home in the city of Warsaw.

Mrs. Lynch was the mother of five children, but one of whom survived her, this being Mrs. Clara Wilson, of Lynchburg, Virginia. She was domestic in her taste and temperament, and her life was of the quiet and helpful kind without display of any kind. Her hospitable home and kindly welcome made her many warm friends who still easily recall these beautiful traits in her character. Part of the summer of 1915 was spent at the home of her daughter in Lynchburg, Va., where she was overtaken by her last illness, and passed away August 17, 1915, at the age of 68 years, 8 months, and 2 days.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Neal, in Warsaw, on August 19, in the presence of many of her friends, and several ministers of the Conference who assisted in the service. The body was interred in the beautiful Oakwood Cemetery, Warsaw, where so many members of our Conference and their families have been laid to rest. Here by the side of her husband and children her body will await the call to life everlasting in the last day, in the power of Him who said, "I am the resurrection and the life."

REV. F. A. REICHELDERFER.

Life is the precious gift of God to us. He alone can give it, and he also hath power to take it away, or rather to transfer us into the life beyond.

Francis A. Reichelderfer was born December 29, 1873, at Harlan, Indiana. He received his early training in the Harlan Public School, and after graduation gave four years to teaching. He then entered the Recorder's office of Allen County, Indiana, as deputy to his father and served the term of four years in that capacity. His experience and ability kept him two years longer in the employ of Mr. Reichelderfer's successor in office. He was the first president of the Epworth League organized at Harlan, and was instrumental in bringing it to a good standard of efficiency. His first definite stand for Christ was taken at a Thursday night prayer-meeting in 1892. He had long felt that some time a call to preach would come, and this conviction took definite form at the close of his sixth year in the recorder's office.

Although offered a desirable position in a secular business, he chose to honor his call and devote himself to the ministry. He applied for admission to the North Indiana Conference in the spring of 1902, was received on trial and sent to Fremont, where he served the people most acceptably for six years. In 1908 he was sent to Churubusco, where he remained three years. In 1911 he took up the work at Topeka, remaining about two and one-half years. His determination to take a course in theological training caused him to give up his work in mid-year and move to Evanston, Ill., where he entered Garrett Biblical Institute. It was a joy to him to pursue his prescribed studies, and he grew spiritually as sure as he did intellectually. While there he found time to serve a congregation at North Chicago as student-pastor, but failing health compelled him to relinquish his studies and pastorate and return with his family to the old home at Harlan.

In his selection of a life companion he found in Miss Mae Carrington his ideal, with whom he had life-long acquaintance. As children, they were in the same baptismal class. Together they played in the homes of their parents. Together they entered and passed through their school days, and together they have traveled as husband and wife since September, 1894, when they were united in marriage by Rev. Lewis Reeves, pastor of the church of which they were members. Two children came to bless the home—a son, Wylton, now in his Junior year at Northwestern University, and a daughter, Janet, in high school at Harlan.

He was ordained deacon by Bishop McCabe in 1904, and received elder's orders at the hands of Bishop Warren in 1906. The Conference recognizing his business ability, made him an assistant in the statistical department, and finally he became Statistical Secretary, which position he held at the time of his death.

His firm faith in God and in the plan of salvation gave him a steadfast devotion and constancy to his calling that is rarely found. Truly he was in love with his profession. The simplicity of his faith, the naturalness and unaffectedness of it was always an inspiration. His life was so real, so pure, so sincere, and consecrated. His intense desire to preach the precious gospel never lessened during the months of his gradual decline. He hoped against hope that he might again stand as a herald of the cross, and at last, though confined to his bed, he took every opportunity to give the message to his unsaved friends. On his last Sunday on earth he desired those at his bedside to sing some of his favorite songs. His faithful wife bravely led the songs, "Fade, Fade, Each Earthly Joy;" "Nearer, My God, to Thee;" then that inspiring hymn, No. 540, beginning "O, could I speak the matchless worth!" During the singing he whispered, "I wish I might sing, too. I am in spirit." Among other things, he said, "Tell the brethren 'The gospel is sufficient.' "

He suffered greatly during the last few days of life, but his mind was unclouded, calm, and undisturbed. He stood upon the Solid Rock, and the waters of Jordan had no terrors for him.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints" comes as a solace to the hearts of the stricken family, who, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reichelderfer, one brother, Elwood, one sister, Lola, and many other relatives remain in sorrow because of his early departure, which occurred October 13, at 2.45 P. M., his age being forty-one years, nine months, and 14 days.

The constant love and respect of the host of friends remain as a living memorial to his inspiring example and unselfish companionship in home and community life. "To live on in the lives of those we love is not to die."

Since the Methodist church was being repaired, the funeral services were conducted from the Lutheran church at Harlan, Saturday, October 16, by the pastor, S. I. Zechiel. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Somerville Light, of the Richmond District. Dr. J. A. Beatty, of the Fort Wayne District, offered prayer at the home and gave a short talk at the church after the sermon. Dr. R. J. Wade, of the Goshen District, offered prayer at the church. The Scripture was read by Dr. J. C. White, of Trinity Church, Elkhart; the obituary by Rev. H. Boase, of Topeka; and the committal at the grave by Rev. Hill, of Trinity Church, Fort Wayne. The Conference Male Quartet furnished the music.

There were twelve of the ministerial brethren present. Many of the friends from the charges which Rev. Reichelderfer had served were present.

The service was most solemn, and the entire community was deeply grieved by the loss of so good a man. Interment was made in the new Cemetery at Harlan. S. I. Zechiel.

REV. CHARLES EMERY DAVIS.

Charles Emery, son of William and Abigail Davis, was born in Greentown, Indiana, February 23, 1858. His childhood and youth were passed in his native place, his education being completed by a course at DePauw University. He spent six years in teaching in the public schools of Howard County. On January 18, 1888, he was joined in marriage with Miss Laura Lindley, also of Greentown, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Edward Osborn, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. To them were born two daughters, Edna and Hazel, who, with their mother, are sadly bereaved by his death. Brother Davis is also survived by two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Hannah Powell and Miss Kate Davis, and William G. and Milton Davis, all of Greentown. One sister, Mrs. Dr. Scott, of Greentown, and two brothers, Lewis and Rev. Henry A. Davis, of this Conference, preceded him.

Brother Davis was converted in the summer of 1885, during the pastorate of Rev. L. E. Knox, his conviction dating from impressions received at the District Conference held in Greentown the preceding spring. He was licensed to preach in the fall of 1887. In the spring of 1888 he was admitted on trial in Southwest Kansas Conference, continuing in the work there until the fall of 1894. Returning to Indiana, he supplied Bunker Hill charge from November till the following spring, when he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference and re-appointed to Bunker Hill. He then served Avilla three years and Bourbon two years, retiring in the spring of 1901 on account of ill health. Taking up life insurance, he continued with the same company, the Mutual Life of New York, for more than fourteen years, or until his death. A most conscientious man, he was regarded by the company as one of exceptional value, his name appearing often on their honor roll and once as fifth in the United States in amount of paid-for insurance written. The same diligence thus shown in business marked his ministerial life. He was known as a faithful pastor and strong preacher of the gospel. Good revivals occurred and the interests of the churches were advanced under his labors. He was greatly interested in the temperance reform and felt great satisfaction in seeing the fine progress of this cause in these recent years. His heart also went out toward the far-away mission fields, and it is known that this subject was much on his mind during his last illness. Provision was made by him for the building of a memorial chapel in the Philippines, from which streams of influence will ever flow forth for the Christianizing of the nations of the East. Devoted to the church as he was and to the highest welfare of his fellow men everywhere, his natural affections centered in his home. For wife and daughters his thoughts and prayers were constantly engaged. The education of his daughters and their equipment for greater usefulness thereby was a high gratification to him.

He bore his physical afflictions all these years with great patience, and his last sickness of four months and more was uncomplainingly endured. The visits of his pastor and Christian friends were greatly appreciated. His testimony to the sufficiency of God's grace was unwavering. His hope in Christ was joyous. His departure in the early morning of October 15, 1915, was to be with his Lord and Saviour forever.

The funeral service on Sunday afternoon, October 17, was from his home in Marion, his pastor, Rev. B. E. Parker, in charge, assisted by C. E. Disbro, L. M. Kridler, David Wells, and J. W. Cain. Burial took place at Greentown, Rev. L. M. Krider conducting the service.

J. W. CAIN.

REV. CHAUNCEY KING.

The Rev. Chauncey King was born in Piqua, Ohio, March 23, 1849, and departed this life in Fort Wayne, Indiana, November 7, 1915. His parents were Chauncey King, Sr., and Katherine High King. They were Ohio farmers, and strict Baptists, having one son in that ministry. As Chauncey grew to manhood, he made choice of the Methodist, which church he joined when eighteen years old. He was graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University, June, 1874. Having received a divine call to the ministry, Rev. A. Marine, the pastor of Berry Street, Fort Wayne, induced him to join the North Indiana Conference, which he did in April, 1874, at its session in Fort Wayne, presided over by Bishop Foster.

He was a most loyal and useful member of his Conference, successful in his pastorate and beloved by his brethren in the Conference and his parishioners for nearly forty-two years. He was always deeply interested in the sessions of the Conference and took part freely in the discussions. For many years he held the important office of the registrar.

His appointment record is as follows: 74, Fremont; 75, Hamilton; 76-8, Lima; 79-81, Wolcottville; 82, Pendleton; 83-5, Garrett City; 86-7, Mishawaka; 88-9, Pierceton; 90-3, Hartford City; 94-7, Columbia City; 98, Alexandria; 99-00, Warsaw; 01-4, New Castle; 05-6, Dunkirk; 07-8, Geneva; 09-10, New Haven.

At the 1911 session of the Conference he was placed on the honor roll of retired ministers, where he remained for four years, taking up his residence in Fort Wayne. Even then he was not idle, always seeking to make himself useful in the local church, and during the last year and five months of that period he supplied New Haven charge.

At the Conference session last April he was returned to the effective relationship and appointed to the pastorate at New Haven, which he served with very marked success, preaching his last sermon just a week before his death. He thus had granted him the most cherished desire of his heart—to end his life in the active ministry.

Brother King was a man among men, interested in all manly affairs. He adhered closely to the divine call, seeking to know and to do the divine will. He did his best and was faithful in all things to the end. Surely he has gone to a glorious coronation. We can safely rest his case in the merits of a well spent life.

While in college, Brother King became acquainted with Miss Addie Granger, of Fort Wayne. She was graduated the year before he was, and took a position as teacher in the old Fort Wayne College. During his first pastorate, September 22, 1874, they were married, and walked together in sweet fellowship for forty-one years. To them was born one child, Edith, who was graduated from the same university in 1897, was married at New Castle in the church her father built in 1905, and died March 29, 1913, leaving one child, John Chauncey Blake-Hedges, and now the surviving comfort of his grandmother. May the manliness of this boy be a sure stay in her declining years, while the everlasting arms are beneath and the overshadowing wings are above them both!

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. J. A. Beatty, District Superintendent, and were conducted from the family residence, 618 West Jefferson Street, Fort Wayne, November 10, 1915. At the request of Brother King, the services were of the ritualistic form. The Holy Scriptures were read by Revs. D. H. Guild, G. B. Work, R. J. Wade, and B. O. S. Hollopeter. Prayer was offered by Revs. C. C. Travis and J. B. Cook. Rev. J. K. Walts read the obituary. The funeral services were attended by a number of the ministers of the Conference. The interment was in Lindwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne.

J. K. WALTS.

MRS. LOUISA LEWELLEN.

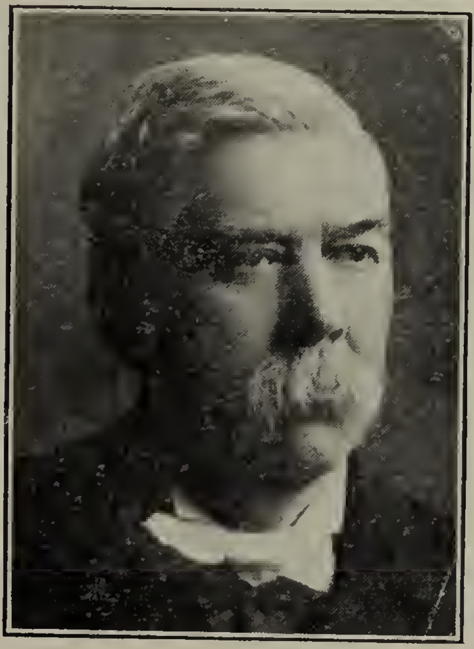
Mrs. Louisa Lewellen, daughter of Jacob and Mary Davis, was born in Delaware Township, Delaware County, Indiana, September 24, 1854, and died at her home in Muncie, on December 17, 1915, aged sixty-one years, two months, and twenty-three days. The last resting place of her body will be within a half mile of the place of her birth. And the cycle of her earthly journey has been concluded.

She was married to Josephus A. Lewellen, September 30, 1869, when but a few days past fifteen years of age. She was the mother of ten children. Besides the two boys and two girls who died in childhood, six sons remain to mourn her loss—Nelson Birch, Ner DeWitt, Benson Marine, Franklin Doan, Archie Osburn, and Josephus Asbury, Jr.

Her husband in 1873 became a minister of the North Indiana Conference, and she thus entered the itinerant ministry with her husband. In early childhood she had given her heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and she proved to be a devoted and useful woman in her twenty-eight years of active service as the wife of a pastor and presiding elder in the North Indiana Conference. Together they labored, and the Lord of the harvest multiplied the seed sown, and the harvest they brought to the kingdom of God was plentiful. After their retirement in 1903, they moved to the farm five miles north of Albany, where they resided until 1909, when they removed to Muncie. Four and a half years ago Rev. J. A. Lewellen departed this life. In her quiet way she went softly before her children and her friends, but they knew all the while there was a longing for that better country which possessed the companion of her years. It was hardly felt that her last sickness was so serious until the last morning of her life. And with no reviving of her strength she quietly slept herself away into everlasting day, and with her to-day in yonder fair city it is good morning.

The funeral services were held at the family residence, 710 North Jefferson Street, Muncie, on Sunday, December 19, 1915, and were conducted by her pastor, Wallace W. Martin, assisted by Rev. E. L. Jones. The interment was made at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, ten miles northeast of Muncie. Here her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband.

W. W. MARTIN.



REV. HENRY W. BENNETT.

In the death of Henry Warland Bennett Methodism has lost one of her giant preachers. In him were combined those qualities that made him a great success in all of his pastorates. He was born with good, vigorous blood in the person of his parents, Judge A. W. Bennett and wife, March 8, 1843, in Winchester, New Hampshire. His father's home was one of culture and refinement, the effects of which were clearly seen in the life of the son all the way through life.

About 1856 the family moved to Davenport, Iowa, where he received his education in the schools of the city and college. After teaching school for a short time he entered upon the study of law in the office of his father. During this time the Civil War broke out and young Bennett, fired with the patriotism of the times, greatly desired to enlist, but on account of age did not do so. When he became of age he enlisted in the 42d Iowa Volunteers, and was elected second lieutenant by the men of the regiment. His services were, in the main, in the Mississippi campaigns, and at the close of the war he again began the study of law in the office of his father, and with him formed his first partnership for the practice of the same.

In 1867 he married Miss Lucy Clark Kellogg, of Grinnell, Iowa, to whom were born six children—Henry Charles, Sidney Clark, Clara M., Abbie E., Luena Burr, and Juanita. Two years later the young couple moved to Decorah, Iowa, where he formed a law partnership with Judge Willis. Here he continued to practice law; but the beautiful Christian life of his wife soon brought pungent conviction to him, so that he was compelled to surrender to her Christ and accept personal salvation. He at once began to deliver addresses in the interest of Christianity, and became deeply interested in Christian work. During the severe illness of his sister Lucy, he promised the Lord that if he would restore her to health, he would devote his life to the work of the ministry. Upon her recovery he kept his word, and was soon placed in charge of Nora Springs, where his labor was blessed with a great revival. About this time he began working for the salvation of his father, who was a strong believer in Universalism. He soon had the great joy of seeing him soundly converted and united with the Methodist Church.

Great sweeping revivals were characteristic of all his pastorates. This was especially true in the following charges: Mason City, Iowa, and Dubuque, Iowa. His field of labors was then changed to Illinois, and he was stationed at First Church, Bloomington, where he completely won the hearts of both the great student body and professors and the members of his great church.

From here he was transferred to Wesley Chapel, Columbus, Ohio, where he had one of the largest Sunday schools in the world at that time. Here he formed an intimate acquaintance with Governor McKinley, who was a member of his church, which friendship continued until broken by the death of the latter. His next charge was the First Church, Akron, Ohio, where the revival spirit was predominant during his pastorate. From here he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference and stationed at Wayne Street, Fort Wayne, where he carried to a successful end a great program of reconstruction of the building in which the Conference holds its present session. His next pastorate, Meridian Street Church, Anderson, witnessed the building of the beautiful structure which is a monument worth the efforts of any man. This was followed by a full term on Goshen District, and this in turn by a pastorate at Mishawaka of one year. He then spent a few years as Conference evangelist and in 1911 retired from the active work, and since then had made his home in Warsaw, acting in the capacity of justice of the peace.

Dr. Bennett was a great preacher because he was a great student and hard worker. He believed that he ought to always make the best possible preparation and that the best was none too good for the kingdom of Christ. The evangelistic spirit always pervaded his sermons, which resulted in great revivals wherever he went. He accomplished much because he was systematic in his plans and work. As a pastor he gave special attention to the sick and aged, advising his well people to come and see him when in need of his service. He was a courageous man and fearless in his preaching, attacking sin wherever found, and especially the sins of intemperance and vice. His ability was recognized by his Conference electing him to head the delegation to the General ference of 1908.

The closing of his life came suddenly and unexpectedly. Though not in good health for some time past, and becoming more feeble, yet he was not thought to be in a serious condition. After having partaken of the noonday meal on December 29, he was suddenly stricken with heart trouble, and before physicians could reach him he was gone, passing away quietly at the age of seventy-two years, nine months, and twenty-one days.

The funeral services were in charge of his pastor, Rev. A. G. Neal. The principal address was by Rev. C. U. Wade, who was an intimate friend. Judge F. E. Bowser spoke for the bar, and other messages were delivered by Rev. D. H. Guild and the pastor. Further participants in the funeral services were Revs. E. L. Semans, J. S. Cain, and R. J. Wade. His body was laid away in the Oakwood Cemetery, near the city.

CAROLINE E. BEALL.

Mrs. Caroline E. Beall was born near Rochester, Indiana, July 15, 1845, and died at Cicero, Indiana, February 11, 1916, aged seventy years, six months, and twenty-six days.

When she was but an infant her mother died, leaving her to the care of an uncle, Thomas Redmond, who lived at Columbus, Indiana. Here she in her early childhood united with the Presbyterian Church, and later removing to Walton, she became identified with the English Lutheran Church, under the labors of the Rev. W. H. Farris.

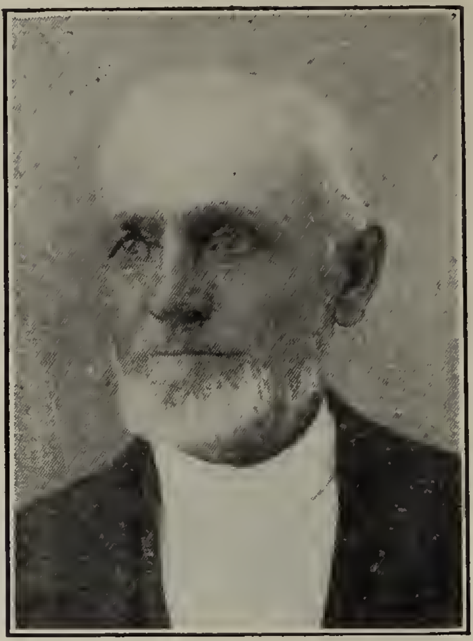
She was united in marriage September 24, 1865, to the Rev. Thomas H. C. Beall, and to them have been born six children—three sons and three daughters—all living: Gamaliel, Laura, Thomas, Jr., Anna, Mabel, and John. She also leaves twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Possessed of a great mother love, she was greatly devoted to her children and home, and her affectionate ministrations will be sadly missed by the bereaved family.

Soon after her marriage in 1865 to the Rev. T. H. C. Beall, she united with the church of her husband, and for twenty-nine years she served the church as the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, sharing with him the privations, labors, conflicts, and trials known only to the Methodist preacher and his wife. Well might she have said with Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day."

She died in great peace, surrounded by husband and children, at eleven o'clock, February 11, and her last words spoken were "Dear Jesus," as her spirit was going to meet her Lord. What a happy thought that the name of the Redeemer should be the last word spoken on earth and the first one in heaven.

For several years she had been in poor health and had been a great sufferer, but has now gone where there is no more pain nor suffering, for the former things have passed away.

The funeral services were held in the Cicero Methodist Church on February 14, and conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Avery Brugh, assisted by the following pastors: Rev. W. B. Freeland, of Kokomo; Rev. W. M. Amos, of Atlanta; Rev. M. L. Hardingham, of Arcadia; Rev. W. H. Jenkin, of Cicero, and Rev. F. A. Hall, of Noblesville. The burial was in the beautiful Crown Hill Cemetery, of Indianapolis. AVERY BRUGH.



REV. WILLIAM LASH.

"And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season."

This tree, rugged though not tall, large in girth and trunk, wide-spreading in its branches and luxuriant in foliage in the years when the fruit was gathered, was swayed by many a storm and stood the tests well until in these last years the leaves withered and the branches were broken off, while the sturdy old trunk shook like an aspen leaf, until late in the evening of February 11, 1916, it fell.

But, "There is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground; yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth branches like a plant."

A long pilgrimage has ended. Nay, he has ascended above the heavens. A good soldier, who endured hardness, who fought a good fight, who kept the faith, has received the crown of righteousness his glorious Lord had prepared for him.

His work was well done. A conscientious, painstaking, faithful man of God, who maintained strict integrity in his calling. His mind did not move on lofty, logical, or rhetorical periods, but in that stronger common sense which both kills and cures and is deep as the soul itself. He mastered himself, and therefore conquered others. He seemed incapable of a mean thought or a base design, but in his great sympathies gathered the world in his arms to lift it back to the feet of the Redeemer. One motive seemed to inspire every act and attitude, thought and desire—that of saving men and honoring God. He was unselfish and meek; upright, noble, constant, and affectionate; at once loving and lovable—a man of faith, a child of God.

The death of Brother Lash had been expected since Sabbath morning, January 30, when he was found in an unconscious condition in his chair. And yet he had been in failing health for some years, and his decline had been steady since the death of Sister Lash on July 13, 1914. The loss of his companion and helpmate of fifty-nine years was observed to have a decidedly depressing effect upon him, and his longing to be with her, the love of his life, found fruition when, on that peaceful Lord's Day, "God's finger touched him and he slept."

Prominent in his life was a gentleness of spirit and an unceasing devotion for the wife and the children. And this affection was complemented in full measure by the untiring devotion of the son and daughter, who have found joy in leaving nothing undone for the father's comfort in his declining years. Mrs. Erwin, the daughter, left her own home in Kirley, South Dakota, to care for her parents, and has spent the greater part of the past six years in unrelenting devotion, together with the son, George E. Lash, who was no less self-sacrificing and faithful.

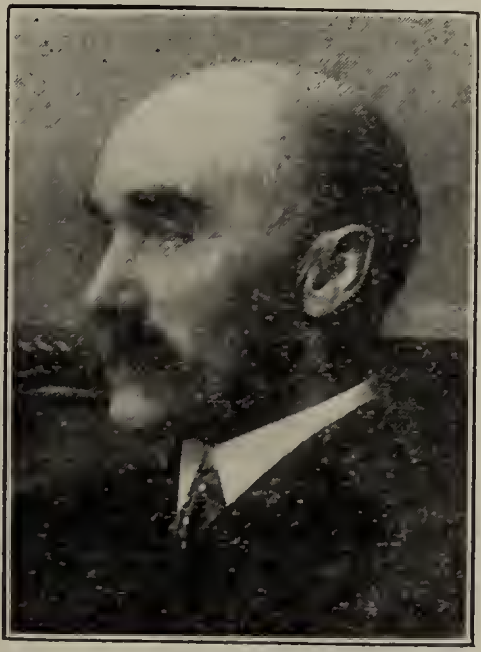
Brother Lash was the son of John and Catherine Lash, born in Wayne County, Ohio, June 21, 1834. When he was three years old he was taken by his parents to a farm six miles west of Warsaw, Indiana, where he grew to manhood and married Miss Mary Baker, November 25, 1855.

The Bourbon charge recommended him to the District Conference for license to preach, and he became a member of the North Indiana Annual Conference in 1866, and was assigned to New Corydon (now Geneva), and successively served at Deerfield, Antioch, Springfield, Inwood, Allen, Harlan, Coesse, Roanoke, Milford, Osceola, and Elkhart Circuit, from which appointment he was given a superannuated relation in 1885.

Brother Lash is survived by a brother, S. P. Lash, of York, Nebraska, who is eighty-four years old; three grandchildren, Mrs. Ira W. Martin, of Elkhart, Indiana; W. Floyd Erwin, of Kirley, South Dakota, and Miss Geraldine Lash, of Toledo, Ohio, and also three great-grandchildren.

"Calm on the bosom of thy God,
  Fair spirit, rest thee now;
E'en while with us thy footsteps trod,
  His seal was on thy brow."
Dust, to the narrow home beneath!
  Soul, to its place on high!
They that have seen thy look in death
  No more may fear to die.
Lone are the paths and sad the bowers,
  Whence thy smile is gone;
But ah, a brighter home than ours
  In heaven is now thine own."

The funeral services were held in the home of the son, Monday afternoon, February 14, at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Dr. John C. White, assisted by Dr. R. J. Wade, R. L. Semans, R. F. Morrison, and W. E. Loveless. A brief memorial service was conducted by Revs. A. G. Neal, A. J. Cary, R. J. Wade, and John C. White, and the interment made in the beautiful Oakwood Cemetery at Warsaw, Indiana. J. C. WHITE.



REV. H. J. NORRIS.

Rev. H. J. Norris was born at Smithville, Wayne County, Ohio, February 22, 1846, and died at his home in Winchester, Indiana, February 14, 1916. Had he lived eight days longer he would have completed seventy years.

Born of upright and pious parents, who both loved God and loved their country, Brother Norris came to his youth and early manhood during the stirring days of the Civil War. Three brothers had already joined the colors, and he very much longed to share their struggles and serve in the defense of his country. To this cause he heartily offered himself, but frail health rendered it unwise for the military authorities to admit him to the rank of soldier. Undaunted by this rejection, he gave himself for a term to the service of the Pioneer Corps, a service in which he was not required to be sworn as a soldier, and in which he assisted in such work as building roads, bridges, and fortifications. Failing health soon compelled his retirement from this service.

Returning to his native State, he entered Normal School at Wooster, Ohio, where he achieved distinction in the field of public debate.

Brother Norris was born into the spiritual kingdom in Wooster, February 16, 1867. This was under the ministry of Rev. J. H. McConnell, father of the now Bishop F. J. McConnell, of the Methodist Church. He soon after united with the church at Canal Fulton, and the following summer he was licensed to preach. For some years he was a teacher, and continued to teach and to preach until, closing his work in the schools of Dunkirk, Ind., he entered the North Indiana Conference in 1873, and gave himself for thirty-nine years to the ministry of the Word. In this time he served many of the leading churches of this Conference, as the following record shows: Marion Circuit; Inwood; Ft. Wayne, Centenary; Auburn; Goshen; Hartford City; Noblesville; Logansport, Broadway; Newcastle; Ft. Wayne, Berry Street; Winchester; LaGrange; and Upland.

Upon his retirement from the active ministry, he took up his residence in Winchester, where for five years he had served as pastor. But he was not inactive, but frequently as strength permitted preached in this and neighboring churches and was always a welcome speaker. As a preacher, Brother Norris had the power to put the gospel in a way to both instruct and entertain. He was a good student, and frequently illustrated his theme from historic incident from the by-gone ages. Only last Christmas Day he said, "I am rereading Lord's Beacon Lights of History." He attended the meetings of the local church as strength permitted, and was a blessing to our people. He was married to Hattie Snyder, January 24, 1878.

Of his own immediate kinsmen, Brother Norris leaves a wife and two children. A daughter, Mrs. Edna Foust, and a son, Dean Norris, of St. Petersburg, Florida; two brothers, J. J. Norris, of Union City, and S. J. Norris, of Smithville, Ohio, and one sister, Mrs. Sue Zellner, of Bucyrus, Ohio.

Brother Norris was a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Free and Accepted Masons. He was a member of the Chapter and Council, and prior to coming to Winchester he served as Prelate at Newcastle Commandery, and later when the Commandery was organized here, he was the first Prelate and served for some years.

The illness of Brother Norris covered a period of about eighteen months. Early in the present winter he said to the pastor, "If I get through this winter, I shall think I am doing well." Later he recognized that the end could not be far away, and frequently expressed his faith and comfort in the Saviour.

"Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
By faith they bring it nigh."

The funeral was held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Winchester, Indiana, on Tuesday, February 15, 1916, in charge of the pastor, Rev. Frank P. Morris. At the request of the deceased, Rev. W. D. Parr, D.D., spoke most helpfully from Philippians 3. 14. The following pastors assisted in the service: G. B. Work, Leslie J. Naftzger, A. S. Preston, and W. H. Pierce, after which the body was taken to Dalton, Ohio, for interment. A number of other ministers and a large company of friends witnessed their appreciation by their presence on this occasion.

Frank P. Morris.

MRS. HANNAH M. MARTINDALE.*

Hannah Matilda Martindale was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Barnes, who for so many years were associated with North Indiana Conference. She was born at Rennselaer, Jasper County, Indiana, July 11, 1842. She was married to Rev. Charles Martindale at Indianapolis, July 11, 1861, by Bishop E. R. Ames. She was the faithful companion of her husband in all his eventful ministry until it closed by death, at Topeka, Kansas, 1888. During her long widowhood she has continued her usefulness in the church. Never did any human being live a more utterly unselfish life. She truly lived for others, not for herself. If all the steps she took in rooms and halls, on stairways, and in footpaths in ministering to others were drawn out in a single line, that line would belt the globe. The goodness of her father and mother was strangely embedded in her. To this was also added much of the goodness that was in her Saviour. "She hath done what she could." For many years she has resided in Southern California, where she has been a familiar figure in many of our churches. The writer was her pastor both in Pasadena and Pomona. At the time of her death, March 17, 1916, she was affiliating with First Church, in Long Beach, California. She was in usual health on the day of her death, but in attempting to cross a street at a dangerous point she was struck by an automobile, and, though not mangled, she only survived the shock about one hour. Funeral services were held at Pasadena, conducted by the writer, and her body was laid to rest by the side of her parents in Mountain View Cemetery. She leaves a brother, Judge Erastus Barnes, of Pomona, California; Mrs. Rev. W. J. Vigus, of Wabash, Indiana, a sister, and Mrs. Judge H. W. Magee, of Pasadena, another sister, with many other more distant relatives to mourn her departure.—A. W. LAMPORT, Pastor Vincent Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles, California.

Appointment Record.

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1916, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated Sy., Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired SECRETARY.

Explanatory—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements;

First—The instruction should be thorough.
Second—The equipment should be generous.
Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.
Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.
Fifth—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.
Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE OFFERS THE FOLLOWING COURSES:

Regular College and Preparatory Courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science.

Special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why should any Illinois young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized, the College would not be able to take care of more than half the applications."

JOURNAL OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Huntington, Indiana, Wednesday, March 28, 1917.

In accordance with the plan of the Board of Bishops, the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its seventy-fourth session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Huntington, Indiana, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

The Bishop called the Conference to order at 8:30 and announced hymn No. 1,

"Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing."

After the singing of which, the Bishop read from the Scripture portions of Colossians 3, on which he gave fitting comment, then called on R. H. Smith and C. H. Wilkinson to lead in prayer.

The Lord's Supper.—Bishop Nicholson, with the aid of the District Superintendents and the pastor of the local church, conducted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, closing with the Lord's Prayer and the Benediction.

Leonard A. Swisher, pastor of the local church, was called to the platform and introduced Mr. M. B. Stults, who welcomed the Conference on behalf of the local church. Mr. I. B. Potts, delegate from the Commercial Club Association of Huntington, was introduced and gave the greetings of that organization and the city in a brief and happy manner. Bishop Nicholson responded to these greetings in a fitting manner.

Roll Call.—D. V. Williams, Secretary for the previous year, was requested by the Bishop to call the roll, to which the following responded:

The Bishop announced the following as triers of appeal: C. U. Wade, U. S. A. Bridge, W. T. Arnold, C. H. Smith, R. L. Semans. Reserves: H. C. Harmon, C. E. Line.

Two drafts, one from the John C. Rose Fund for $34.48, and one from the Book Concern for $4,273, were announced, ordered endorsed by the proper officers of the Conference, and turned over to the Treasurer of the Conference for the Board of Stewards.

Introduction.—Bishop Nicholson introduced his private secretary, Peter M. Feldtmose.

A communication from the Book Concern was referred to the Committee on Book Concern.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question, "Was the Character of Each Preacher Examined?" was called, and the following District Superintendents were passed in character, and they answered the Disciplinary Questions, relative to having presented to pastors the requirements of prorating the ministerial claims, and the pastors presenting the benevolences to their congregations: W. W. Martin, R. J. Wade, Somerville Light, B. S. Hollopeter, J. A. Beatty, and M. S. Marble.

Fort Wayne District, W. W. Martin, then reported the work on Fort Wayne District.

The Bishop asked for the hymn, 408, "Lead on, O King Eternal," which was sung.

A letter from the Board of Education, in the hands of the Bishop, was the occasion of him bringing to the attention of the Conference some very encouraging statements relative to the progress of the work in securing larger endowments for our educational institutions.

R. J. Wade then reported Goshen District.

The character of L. M. Edwards was passed, and he reported his work; on motion of his District Superintendent, he was excused from further attendance on this session of the Conference, and the Bishop announced his transfer to the Baltimore Conference.

Somerville Light, as Superintendent of Richmond District, then reported the work on that district.

Introduction.—J. B. Hingeley, Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, was introduced and spoke in the interests of that Board, and presented a draft for $200 from the Board to the Conference, which was received and ordered endorsed and turned over to the Board of Stewards.

Somerville Light reported that the amount of $732, which had not been apportioned to the Richmond District last year, had been raised and turned over to the Board of Stewards.

On motion of W. D. Parr, the Conference by a rising vote gave Dr. Hingeley assurance of confidence and support in the proposed campaign in the interest of larger funds for Conference Claimants.

Telegrams.—On motion of C. E. Line, a telegram of greeting was ordered sent to Bishop W. F. McDowell, now holding the Wilmington Conference.

On motion of T. M. Guild, a telegram of greeting was ordered sent to A. M. Patterson on this his seventy-ninth birthday.

On motion of C. U. Wade, a telegram of greeting was ordered sent to E. F. Hasty.

Program.—On motion of C. U. Wade, the program as prepared and printed by the Program Committee was adopted and 12:30 was fixed as the hour of adjournment.

Announcements.—The committees were called and announcements were made as to the time and places of their meeting.

On motion of W. W. Martin, the name of the Committee on General Qualification was changed to the Disciplinary name of Ministerial Qualifications.

Supernumerary Members.—On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the names of the following Supernumerary members of the Conference were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations: G. H. Crafts, J. Z. Barrett, M. A. Harlan, C. A. Hunt, F. J. Speckien, A. H. Hirsh, J. M. Haines, C. M. Hollopeter, R. M. Sand, W. A. Huffman, R. I. Black.

Excused.—R. C. Ballard was excused on motion of his District Superintendent, in order to attend a funeral.

Methodist Review.—The Bishop announced the appointment of W. M. Hollopeter to act as agent for the "Methodist Review."

Adjournment.—On motion of C. E. Line, the Conference adjourned, and the benediction was pronounced by Leslie J. Naftzger.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, March 29, 1917.

The Conference convened for devotional services at 8:30 A. M., with Bishop Nicholson in charge, who announced Hymn No. 315,

"Nearer, my God, to Thee,"

which was sung. At the request of the Bishop, prayer was offered by P. J. Maveety. Following this, Bishop Nicholson conducted a very helpful study of the Holy Scriptures, based on First Corinthians, 12th and 13th chapters, closing the study by prayer.

Journal.—The journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

On motion of Leslie J. Naftzger, the Secretary was requested to send a telegram of sympathy to J. E. Ervin, a member of the Class of '64, who was detained at home on account of illness.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the cases of I. E. Price,

J. O. Bills, Perry E. Powell, G. W. Bailor, J. W. Cain, G. B. Work, and W. B. Hardy were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Introduction.—P. J. Maveety, one of the Secretaries of the Freedmen's Aid Society, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of the work of that society.

The Bishop read a letter from B. F. Hornaday, who was detained at home on account of an accident to himself. On motion of W. W. Martin, the Secretary was requested to send a message of sympathy to him.

Representations.—The time was extended on account of the hour for the meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society, and H. C. Jennings, Agent of the Book Concern, was introduced and addressed the Conference in regard to our publishing interests.

J. W. Van Cleve, Secretary of Board of Finance, of the church, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interests of the work of that organization.

Preachers' Aid.—The time having arrived for the annual meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society, the business of the Conference was suspended, and the Preachers' Aid Society convened, with Bishop Nicholson in the chair.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the following were constituted a Committee on Nominations: W. D. Parr, O. A. Trabue, A. W. Lowther.

The Secretary, C. U. Wade, being absent on account of attending a funeral, his report was read by R. J. Wade, which, on motion of B. S. Hollopeter, was accepted and ordered placed on file, and the draft ($4,224) accompanying the report was ordered endorsed and turned over to the Conference Treasurer for the use of the Board of Stewards.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the Disbursing Committee was made to consist of the same as last year: J. W. Cain, Arthur Cates, and F. F. Thornburg.

J. W. Cain, General Secretary ad interim, read his report, which, on motion, was adopted and placed on file.

On motion of W. W. Martin, it was ordered that we express our appreciation of the fine work rendered the Preachers' Aid Society by Brother Cain, to which he made suitable reply.

On motion of Leslie J. Naftzger, the Secretary was requested to send a telegram of sympathy to Hardin Rhoades, a member of the Board of Managers, on account of the death of his wife.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following names as the officers of the society for the ensuing year, who, on motion, were elected: President, Leslie J. Naftzger; Vice-President, B. S. Hollopeter; Secretary, C. U. Wade; Treasurer, B. F. Schroyer; General Secretary, R. A. Morrison; Managers, Hardin Rhoades, Benjamin Glasscock, B. F. Schroyer, Wallace W. Martin, Edward E. Trippeer, James A. Beatty, William T. Janney.

R. J. Wade read the following resolution from the Board of Managers, which had been concurred in by the members of the Cabinet and, on motion of R. J. Wade, was adopted:

Resolution Concerning Preachers' Aid Society Campaign.

Inasmuch as a careful and accurate survey of present and possible future funds for Retired Ministers reveals a disparity at once noticeable and distressing; and

Inasmuch as almost all Protestantism is engaged in simultaneous effort to rectify existing conditions, unsatisfactory alike to minister and layman; and

Inasmuch as a meeting in Indianapolis, composed of all the District Superintendents of the State, together with other ministers and representatives of the Conference Claimants Commissions, presided over jointly by Bishops Anderson and Nicholson, addressed by Dr. J. B. Hingeley and others, after thoughtful and prayerful consideration raised the standard of $1,000,000 as additional endowment for Conference Claimants from Indiana Methodism; therefore be it resolved,

First, That we accept, as our share, the suggested amount of three hundred thousand dollars, in order that the North Indiana Conference Claims may be paid in full and apportionments ultimately reduced.

Second, That following a period of publicity and solicitation of large contributions, in harmony with the State-wide effort with intensive campaign to begin not later than October 1, 1917, a committee consisting of the District Superintendents and General Secretaries, together with at least one minister and one layman from each district, be named to arrange and execute plans and further details for the campaign to achieve the desired result.

Third, That we request the appointment of Rufus A. Morrison as General Secretary, as per previous arrangement.

Fourth, That there be continued for at least this quadrennium the payment annually to the fund by the effective members of the Conference, as determined last year: those who are receiving less than one thousand dollars cash salary, one half of one per cent; those receiving from one thousand dollars to two thousand dollars, one per cent; and those receiving above two thousand dollars, one and one-half per cent.

Signed: R. J. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, M. S. Marble.

R. A. Morrison addressed the society in the interest of the work in which he was to engage.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, it was ordered that the District Superintendents appoint a man in each district to collect from the pastors quarterly the amount due the Preachers' Aid Society under the foregoing resolution.

W. W. Martin moved that the Preachers' Aid Society request that each member of the Conference who has not yet paid the amount due from him to the society sign a note at this session of the Conference, and that hereafter all persons, on becoming members of the Conference, give their notes.

R. J. Wade moved that the policy of the Conference be that we do not seek for the relinquishment of, but for the payment of, claims in full.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question was resumed, and B. S. Hollopeter reported Logansport District.

Muncie District was reported by J. A. Beatty, and Wabash District by M. S. Marble.

M. P. Burns, of the Department of Cities, in the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, was introduced to the Conference and spoke a few words.

A communication relative to decorating the graves of deceased preachers was referred to the Board of Stewards.

Introductions.—The following were introduced to the Conference: Frederick H. Deihm, pastor of the German Reformed Church, this city; J. W. Burton, pastor of the United Brethren Church, this city; Demetrius Tillotson, Superintendent of the Crawfordsville District, Northwest Indiana Conference; and A. T. Briggs, of the same Conference.

On motion of T. M. Guild, the Conference voted to sit for a picture to-morrow morning immediately after adjournment.

The committees were called, the pastor made his announcements, the doxology was sung, and the Conference stood adjourned, with the benediction by M. P. Burns.

THIRD DAY.

Friday, March 30, 1917.

Conference met at 8:30 A. M. for devotions, with Bishop Nicholson in the chair. He announced for the opening the hymn composed for this session of the Conference by T. C. Neal, deceased,

"Father of our blessed Saviour," which the Conference stood and sang, after which, by the request of the Bishop, T. M. Guild led in prayer.

The Bishop continued his exposition of First Corinthians, twelfth chapter, and concluded his address with prayer.

Journal.—The Secretary read the journal of yesterday's session, which was approved.

Excused.—The following were excused to attend funerals: F. A. Hall, B. Kendall, B. E. Parker, L. J. Naftzger, W. Roahrig, W. E. Pittenger, A. D. Burkett, T. M. Hill, E. M. Dunbar, W. E. Hogan.

First Question.—The First Question, "Is this Annual Conference Incorporated According to the Requirements of the Discipline?" was asked, and answered, "It is."

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, it was ordered that the pastors in making their reports should state whether or not the provisions of the Discipline for caring for the benevolences have been carried out and whether there has been an increase or decrease in membership.

Sixth Question.—"Who Have Been Continued on Trial?" was asked, and the following were passed in character, represented by their District Superintendents, made their reports, were reported in their studies by the Registrar, and advanced in their studies as noted: Edward Antle, W. O. Power, G. E. Whitten, L. O. Winslow were advanced to the Studies of the Second Year; B. H. Franklin advanced to the Second Year, with one condition; W. H. Menaugh advanced to the Second Year, with two conditions; J. A. Morrison, I. S. Corn, Julius Pfeiffer, Russel S. Jones, Clyde S. Miller, Lewis W. Stone, M. M. Thornburg, G. N. Callaway were continued on Trial in the Studies of the First Year. R. I. Stone was announced as transferred to the North Montana Conference; R. H. Stone, H. R. Glick, and W. C. Howard were discontinued at their own request; Burt W. Lewis was reported as having been discontinued in 1916, as the General Minutes had omitted the record of this action; Jesse M. Jordan was elected to full membership, advanced to the Studies of the Third Year, and elected to Deacon's Orders under the Seminary Rule.

Eighth Question.—"Who Have Been Admitted Into Full Membership?" was asked. The following were passed in character, represented by their respective District Superintendents, made their reports, were reported in their studies by the Registrar, and recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications as noted: R. R. Detweiler, A. H. Kenna, were admitted into Full Membership in the Conference, elected to Deacons' Orders, and advanced to the Studies of the Third Year; Arthur K. Love was admitted and advanced to the Third Year, but was already a Deacon; J. S. Phillips was admitted into Full Connection, passed in the Studies of the Third and Fourth Years, and elected to Elder's Orders under Seminary Rule; F. W. Chapman was discontinued at his own request; W. Roahrig and F. S. Young were continued in the Studies of the Second Year; C. W. Jeffras was continued on Trial in Studies of the Third Year; F. J. Robins was continued on Trial in Studies of the Second Year, elected to Deacon's Orders under the Seminary Rule, with the privilege of being ordained elsewhere.

Tenth Question.—"What Members are in the Studies of the Fourth Year?" was asked, and the following were passed in character, reported their charges, were reported in their studies by the Registrar as noted: C. W. Chadwick, V. L. Clear, A. F. White, and O. B. Young were advanced to the Studies of the Fourth Year; F. A. Shipley, already an Elder, was graduated last year from the course of study; T. S. Haddock, J. C. Wengatz, C. E. Bash and F. S. Hickman were continued in the Studies of the Third Year; W. A. Huffman was permitted to withdraw at his own request, and W. F. Buckner was permitted to withdraw under complaint.

Eleventh Question.—"What Members Have Completed the Conference Course of Study?" was called and the following were passed in character, reported by the Registrar as noted: D. C. Beatty, J. F. Blocker, G. L. Conway, J. B. O'Connor, and R. H. Wehrley were graduated from the Course of Study and elected to Elders' Orders; J. I. Jones, already an Elder, was graduated from the Course of Study; H. C. Powell, J. R. Stelle, and E. J. Wickersham were continued in the Studies of the Fourth Year.

Conference History.—W. W. Sweet announced the completion and publication of a History of the North Indiana Conference by Herrick and Sweet. On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the following were appointed a committee to sell the history and collect for the same: B. Kendall, J. F. Lutey, A. H. Backus, H. A. Homer, E. M. Dunbar, M. B. Graham. On motion of D. H. Guild, the Conference requested each of our churches to buy a copy of the history for permanent record.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question was resumed and the following Effective Elders were passed in character, and they reported according to the provisions of the Discipline and whether there had been an increase or decrease in their benevolences:

Fort Wayne District: M. Pell, F. A. Hall, W. T. Arnold, Joseph Grimes, F. F. Thornburg, D. H. Guild, L. M. Krider, H. L. Overdeer, E. J. Maupin, C. W. Shoemaker, C. C. Travis, L. W. When the name of I. E. Price was called, on motion of T. M. Guild, the Superintendent of Richmond District was requested to learn the post-office address of this brother and report to the Conference.

Resolution.—C. C. Travis read the following resolution, which, on his motion, was adopted by a rising vote:

Since at this moment our country is passing through one of the most critical periods of its history;

And since Methodism has always stood loyal to the nation in every crisis; therefore be it

Resolved, That the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing nearly ninety thousand Methodists in Northern Indiana, do express to our most honored Chief Executive, President Woodrow Wilson, the pledge of our fervent loyalty and constant prayers; further be it

Resolved, That as individual churches we display near our pulpits and outside on the church, during this crisis, the flag of our nation, which we love and for which we would lay down our lives.

After the foregoing resolution had been adopted by a unanimous vote, the Conference spontaneously and with great enthusiasm sang "My country, 'tis of thee."

Change of Name.—On motion of D. V. Williams, the name of the Year Book was changed to "The Minutes of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

Special Funds.—On motion of L. M. Krider for the Board of Stewards, they were authorized to set aside the sum of $1,300 for special cases.

On motion, the Board of Stewards were authorized to pay to the daughter of the late Hosea Woolpert the sum of $50 as a necessitous case.

Legal Heirs.—L. M. Krider offered the following resolution, which, on motion of B. S. Hollopeter, was adopted:

A Resolution Concerning the Allowance to Legal Heirs of Deceased Claimants.

WHEREAS, By action of this Annual Conference, all persons becoming Conference Claimants, by retirement or otherwise, after the annual session of 1915, receive their portion of the Conference Claimants Fund in advance, quarterly, while those who became claimants prior to that session receive their portion by the old rule of "back pay," annually, thereby constituting two classes and necessitating the fixing of a definite basis upon which to reckon the claims of the heirs of deceased claimants for the year in which the claimant died; therefore,

Resolved, First, That the Board of Stewards is hereby instructed, beginning with this session of the Conference, to set apart and pay to the legal heirs of each claimant deceased during the current Conference year, who was receiving his claim under the old rule of "back pay," such part of his full year's claim as the time elapsed before his decease is part of the whole year; provided, however, that nothing in this action shall be so interpreted as to prohibit the Board of Stewards from making a special allowance in any case, when, in its judgment, such allowance ought to be made.

Second, In case the decedent shall leave as his legal heirs those who are also legal claimants upon the Conference Claimants Fund, their claims shall be reckoned upon such part of the year as is not covered by the life of the decedent.

Third, In case of the death of a claimant who is receiving his claim quarterly, in advance, his heirs, if they be legal claimants upon the Conference Claimants Fund, shall receive their allowance for such part of the Conference year as is not covered by the life of the decedent.

Fourth, In each case where the heirs of the decedent are not legal claimants upon the Conference Claimants Fund, the Board of Stewards may recommend that no allowance be made, which, upon favorable action by the Conference, shall be final.

Fifth, The calculations in each of the aforesaid cases shall be by quarters of the year, forty-six days and over to be counted as a full quarter, and the Conference year to be reckoned beginning April 1.

L. M. Krider,	David Wells,
A. G. Neal,	Charles Tinkham,
W. E. Hamilton,	J. C. Graham.

C. E. Line moved that the Conference request the Bishop and Cabinet not to give the list of appointments to be printed until after the adjournment of the Conference session. The motion carried.

Introduction.—Ernest Daily Smith, of the Board of Temperance and Public Morals, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of that Board.

Eighth Question.—The Eighth Question, "Who Have Been Admitted Into Full Membership?" was asked. The following were passed in character, reported their collections, were reported in their studies, recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, represented by their respective District Superintendents, and elected to Full Membership and Deacons' Orders: Alfred H. Kenna, Reuben R. Detweiler, Jesse M. Jordan. The following were elected to Full Membership, but already ordained Deacons: Arthur K. Love and J. Stanley Phillips. They were called forward, asked the Disciplinary Questions, the Bishop addressed them and the Conference on the theme, "The Present-Day Opportunity of the Ministry," and they were admitted into Full Membership, and those not ordained were elected to Deacons' Orders.

Thirty-sixth Question. — The Thirty-sixth Question, "Where Shall the Next Conference be Held?" was asked. Warsaw was nominated, and represented by A. G. Neal; Peru, through C. H. Smith, invited the Conference to hold its next session there, but after representing its claims at some length, on his motion, the invitation from Warsaw was unanimously accepted.

Introduction.—Harvey Reeves Calkins, of the Commission on Finance, was introduced, and spoke in the interest of that Board.

Announcements were made, the benediction was pronounced by H. R. Calkins, and the Conference stood adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.

Morning Session.

Saturday Morning, March 31, 1917.

The Conference met for devotional services at 8:30 A. M., in charge of Bishop Nicholson. For the opening hymn of the service, W. W. Martin asked the Conference to sing again, by request, the hymn composed for this session by the late Rev. T. C. Neal. After the singing of this hymn, C. C. Travis led in prayer.

Bishop Nicholson continued the studies in the twelfth and thirteenth chapters of First Corinthians, and closed the devotional services with prayer and the benediction.

Journal.—The journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

Twenty-third Question.—The Twenty-third Question, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" was asked, and the following were passed in character and continued in this relation: J. Z. Barrett, J. M. Haines, M. A. Harlan, C. M. Hollopeter, F. J. Speckien. The following were passed in character, continued in this relation, and asked to locate by the end of the year: G. H. Craft, C. A. Hunt, and R. I. Black.

Change of Relation.—The following changes in relation were granted on recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations: A. H. Hirsch, from Supernumerary to Effective; G. W. Bailor and J. O. Bills, from Effective to Supernumerary, at their own request. The following were granted Certificates of Location at their own request: R. M. Sand, C. A. Modlin, J. C. Lawburg.

J. W. Cain was changed from Effective to Retired, at his own request. The Conference then sang, with much spirit and feeling, the song, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter it was ordered that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 1:30 P. M., with the time of the session to expire at 3 o'clock.

Funeral.—On motion of R. J. Wade, W. T. Arnold, J. S. Newcombe and Edwin Dickson were appointed a committee to represent the Conference at the funeral of Sister R. W. Stoakes, that is to be conducted to-morrow.

Representation.—George Richmond Grose, President of DePauw University, was introduced to the Conference and represented that institution.

The Bishop read a telegram from Bishop McDowell, in answer to our greetings that had been sent him.

Dr. H. F. Rall was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interests of Garrett Biblical Institute.

F. M. Stone, of our own Conference, was introduced, and spoke as Executive Secretary of the Endowment Campaign of Garrett Biblical Institute, in the interests of that school.

E. C. Wareing, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, was introduced, and addressed the Conference with reference to that paper.

S. C. Dickey, Superintendent of the Winona Bible Conference, was introduced to the Conference and made brief reference to that institution in a few words of invitation to attend the session of the Bible conference.

Fred B. Fisher, Chairman of the India Mass Movement Commission of the Board of Foreign Missions, was introduced and briefly addressed the Conference in the interest of the Board of Foreign Missions.

W. B. Freeland, the new President of Wawasee Institute, spoke to the Conference in the interest of the session that is to be held this coming summer, July 16-23.

Miss Angie Godwin, Superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage at Greencastle, was introduced and in a touching manner set forth the work of that institution.

Fifth Question.—The Fifth Question, "Who Have Been Received on Trial?" was called. The following were introduced to the Conference, reported in their studies by the Registrar, recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, represented by their respective District Superintendents, and admitted on trial in the Conference in the Studies of the First Year: Chester A. McPheeters, Bertrand D. Nysewander, George A. Snider, recommended by the Fort Wayne District Conference; Alvin P. Teter and Charles F. Jones, recommended by the Goshen District Conference; Alfred R. Sanks, Herman R. Carson, and Harry A. Wann, recommended by the Logansport District Conference; Fred R. Hill and James L. Williams, recommended by the Muncie District Conference; Joseph A. Land and Edwin L. Gates, recommended by the Richmond District Conference; Stewart D. White and Emmette R. Spencer, recommended by the Quarterly Conference of City Station Church, Baltimore, Maryland; H. Earl Coe, recommended by the Union Village and Pleasant Plain Quarterly Conference, New Jersey; and William A. McCurdy, recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Wheaton, Evanston, Illinois.

Twelfth Question.—The Twelfth Question, "What Others Have Been Elected and Ordained Deacons?" was called. (a) As Local Preachers, Charles E. Dunlap, recommended by the Logansport District Conference, was reported on in his studies by the Registrar, represented by his District Superintendent, and elected to Deacon's Orders as a Local Preacher.

(c) Under the Seminary Rule, the following were represented by their District Superintendents, reported in their studies by the Registrar, and elected to Deacons' Orders under the Seminary Rule: William A. McCurdy, Emmette R. Spencer, Charles F. Jones, Stewart D. White, and H. Earl Coe.

The Bishop announced that the devotional services at the afternoon session would be led by G. H. Myers, and that the Conference would convene at 1:30 o'clock.

The doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced by J. H. Runkle, and the Conference stood adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

G. H. Myers, as requested by the Bishop, opened the devotional services of the afternoon session at 1:30 by announcing Hymn No. 388, after the singing of which he read for a Scripture lesson Psalm 144 and called upon J. O. Bills to lead in prayer.

"A Charge to Keep I Have,"

He then invited Mr. M. H. Race to sing, and in his own inimitable way he sang "My Father's Bank." Miss Lucile Dunlap, by request, sang "Something More Than Gold," and in response to encore sang "He is Mine."

Bishop Nicholson in Chair.—Bishop Nicholson then assumed the chair.

Fifth Question.—The Fifth Question, "Who Have Been Received on Trial?" was resumed. James H. Royer was represented by his District Superintendent and by a vote of 135 to 7 was admitted on trial by more than two-thirds majority vote.

A. M. Wickman was represented by his District Superintendent and, on motion, the authority was granted to employ him as a supply next year.

Fred Chelan was represented by his District Superintendent and was admitted on trial in the Studies of the First Year, and his Orders were recognized as a Deacon from the New Light Christian Church.

Floyd Wesley Launer was admitted into full connection and placed in the Studies of the Third Year, and his Orders were recognized as a Deacon from the Evangelical Church.

Perry B. Leach was admitted into the Conference in full connection and placed in the Studies of the Third Year, and his Orders were recognized as an Elder from the Methodist Protestant Church.

Adam E. Ritter was recognized as a Local Elder on his credentials from the United Brethren Church in Christ.

R. Leander Lundry was recognized as a Local Elder on his credentials from the United Brethren Church in Christ.

The above were then called forward and introduced to the Conference.

On motion of F. M. Stone, the Conference by vote tendered its appreciation to the District Superintendents for their work in bringing to the Conference such a large class of well-prepared men.

On motion of A. G. Neal, the Conference endorsed the invitation of Winona Lake to the Board of Foreign Missions to hold their centennial celebration at that place.

At request of L. M. Krider, the Board of Stewards was granted the privilege of retiring.

Twenty-fourth Question.—The Twenty-fourth Question was called, "Who Are the Retired Ministers?" The following were passed in character and continued in the same relation: J. W. McDaniel, William Peck, F. A. Robinson, T. H. C. Beall, S. C. Miller, C. E. Disbro, A. M. Patterson, J. W. Welch, W.

Methodist Memorial Day.—The Board of Stewards presented a resolution relative to the establishment of a Methodist Memorial Day, and the observance of the same, which resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

On motion of R. J. Wade, T. M. Hill was constituted a committee to send the greetings and prayers of the Conference to all the retired members not able to attend.

On motion of C. E. Line, a vote of congratulation was extended to William Peck, who answered his fiftieth consecutive roll call at this Conference, and to C. H. Wilkinson, who joined the Conference fifty years ago also, and they were invited to seats on the platform.

On motion of C. U. Wade, a collection which amounted to $139 was taken, to be given to Miss Stright, a sister of M. F. Stright, except fifty dollars, which is to be given to a daughter of the late Hosea Woolpert.

On motion of R. J. Wade, the question of suitable bond to be furnished by the Conference Treasurer and other Conference officers was referred to the Auditing Committee for a report and recommendation to the Conference on Monday.

Reports.—The following committees made report, which were adopted (see Reports): Sunday Schools and Foreign Missions.

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, it was ordered that the Committee on Conference Relations correspond with all the men who have been asked to locate at the next Conference, and determine their condition and the facts about them so that the action next Conference can be made intelligently.

The time having expired, on motion of the Secretary the session adjourned, with the benediction by L. J. Naftzger.

FIFTH DAY.

Sunday Morning, April 1, 1917.

The Annual Conference love feast was opened at 9:10 A. M., with G. H. Hill in charge. Hymn No. 180,

"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name,"

was announced and sung. Prayer was offered by C. E. Disbro, and for a Scripture lesson F. A. Robinson read John 11, fifteen verses.

W. H. Peirce announced Hymn No. 279, which was sung. Then followed a large number of testimonies, in which many laymen joined. Two of the outstanding features of the testimony services were the pledges of loyalty to Jesus Christ and support of the flag in this hour of peril of our country.

"Rock of Ages,"

Public Services.—At 10:30 the pastor of the local church opened the services by announcing Hymn No. 78,

"Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty,"

which was sung, and prayer was offered by G. B. Work.

D. T. Stephenson led in the reading of the responsive service.

Very beautiful music was furnished for the service by the Temple Quartet and the choir.

Bishop Nicholson preached a very helpful and inspiring sermon from the text Hebrew 11. 27, "For he endured, as seeing Him who is invisible."

The closing hymn, No. 180, "All hail the power of Jesus' name," was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by the pastor of the church.

Memorial Service.

The Conference met for the memorial service at 2:30 P. M., with D. V. Williams, the Secretary, in charge.

The hymn, No. 304, "I heard the voice of Jesus say," was announced by W. A. Griest, one of the Assistant Secretaries. After the singing of this hymn, prayer was offered by C. H. Wilkinson. The Scripture lesson, from Hebrews 11, was read by W. Earl Pittenger, one of the Assistant Secretaries. The Men's Chorus from Decatur then rendered in a very acceptable manner a sacred selection.

The Secretary read a brief review of the memoirs of L. A. Beeks, Mrs. Lydia Simpson, Tom C. Neal, Milton Mahin, Mrs. E. B. P. Comstock, P. J. Albright, Mrs. Naomi Slack, Mrs. C. H. Murray, Mrs. Judith Gillam, and Mrs. Mabel J. Stoakes, deceased within the last year.

Miss Lucile Dunlap sang as a solo, "Jesus, Blessed Jesus," in a very tender manner.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Richard C. Jones from the text, Solomon's Song 14. 4. The sermon was an inspiring one, in which the preacher in glowing terms spoke of the achievements of the mighty men of God in the work of the ministry.

Miss Dunlap sang "Open Mine Eyes." After the singing of this song the Secretary closed the memorial service with prayer.

Ordination Service.

Immediately at the close of the memorial service, Bishop Nicholson took charge of the ordination service, and at his request the Secretary called the names of the following: Alfred H. Kenna, Reuben R. Detweiler, Jesse M. Jordan, William A. McCurdy, Emmette R. Spencer, Charles F. Jones, Stewart D. White, H. Earl Coe, and Charles E. Dunlap, and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained Deacons. After they had taken the vows, the Bishop ordained them Deacons.

The Secretary called the following to the altar and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained Elders: Dale C. Beatty, John F. Blocker, George L. Conway, Jesse B. O'Connor, Raymond H. Wehrley, J. Stanley Phillips. After these had taken the vows, the Bishop, with the assistance of the District Superintendents and other Elders, ordained them Elders.

The ordination services were closed with the benediction by the Bishop.

Certificate of Ordination

This Certifies, That at Huntington, Indiana, on April first, nineteen hundred seventeen, I did ordain as Deacons: Alfred H. Kenna, Reuben R. Detweiler, Jesse M. Jordan, Wm. A. McCurdy, Emmette R. Spencer, Charles F. Jones, Stewart D. White, H. Earl Coe, and Charles E. Dunlap.

And at the same place, on the same day, assisted by a number of Elders, I did ordain as Elders: Dale C. Beatty, John F. Blocker, George L. Conway, Jesse B. O'Connor, Raymond H. Wehrley, J. Stanley Phillips, and Raymond V. Johnson.

Thomas Nicholson,
Presiding Bishop.

SIXTH DAY.

Monday, April 2, 1917.

The Conference met at 8:30 A. M. for devotional services, with Bishop Nicholson in charge. He announced Hymn No. 183,

"Come, Holy Spirit,"

which was sung. The Conference then sang Hymn No. 315,

"Nearer, My God, to Thee," and L. O. Hartman, of the Board of Sunday Schools, led in prayer.

The Bishop then read for a Scripture lesson a selection from Mark 9 and made very helpful comments from the same on the theme, "All things are possible if you have appropriating faith." He closed the devotional services with prayer.

Journal.—The journal of the morning and afternoon sessions of Saturday was read and approved.

On motion of the Secretary, the program of the Sunday morning service, the memorial service, and the ordination service were adopted and made official, and the memoirs as prepared by the Secretary adopted as the Official Memoirs.

On motion of the Secretary, the District Superintendent of Goshen District and the pastor of First Church, Warsaw, were constituted the Committee on Program for the next session of the Conference.

On motion of the Secretary, the District Superintendents were constituted a Committee to Apportion the Benevolences to the Districts.

On motion of W. E. Pittenger, the following were elected officers of the Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees: Leslie J. Naftzger, President; T. M. Guild, Vice-President; D. V. Williams, Secretary; C. U. Wade, Treasurer.

Change of Relation.—P. E. Powell, at his own request, was granted a Certificate of Location.

On motion, A. S. Preston was granted leave of absence to attend a funeral.

L. O. Hartman was introduced, and addressed the Conference in the interest of the Board of Sunday Schools.

C. U. Wade in Chair.—On the introduction of L. O. Hartman, the Bishop called C. U. Wade to the chair.

At the close of the address, the Bishop resumed the chair.

M. S. Marble offered a resolution relative to the publication of the Conference History and, on motion, the resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Printing Journal.—On motion of Leslie J. Naftzger, the Secretary was ordered to have printed five thousand copies of the transactions of this Conference session, together with the reports and statistics, as the Official Journal, and to distribute the same to the districts pro rata with the number of members in full connection, and to send a copy to each retired member living without the bounds of the Conference, and a copy to each Conference widow; and that one hundred dollars be added to the expense account of publishing the Minutes of the Conference, to be given to the Secretary of the Conference as part pay for his services as Secretary.

Admission.—Raymond V. Johnson was announced as transferred from the Northwest Indiana Conference and, on motion of B. S. Hollopeter, he was admitted into full membership in this Conference and elected to Elders' Orders under the Seminary Rule and graduated from the Course of Study. He was called forward, asked the Disciplinary Questions, and ordained Elder by the Bishop, with the assistance of Elders.

Board of Examiners.—The Bishop announced the following as constituting the Conference Board of Examiners: W. B. Freeland, U. S. A. Bridge, Benjamin Kendall, W. T. Arnold, G. F. Hubbartt, C. G. Yeomans, C. L. De Bow, F. A. Hall, H. L. Overdeer, J. L. Gillard, R. L. Semans, Arthur Cates.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the list of the nominations of the Cabinet for the boards and committees was ordered turned over to the Secretary for publication in the Minutes, without reading.

On motion, the Bishop was requested to make the following Special Appointments: (See List.)

Reports.—The Statistician and Conference Treasurer made reports of totals and gains, and on motion their reports were adopted. (See Statistical Tables.)

Collection.—On motion, a collection was taken for the Janitor of the local church, which amounted to $25.62, which was turned over to him.

Course of Study.—F. P. Morris offered a resolution relative to the Course of Study, which, on motion, was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

M. Vayhinger, President of Taylor University, was introduced to the Conference and addressed it in the interest of that institution.

Reports.—The following reports were read and approved, and on their nominations the officers were elected: Treasurer of Conference Corporation, Secretary of the same body made report, Temperance, Freedmen's Aid, Memorial Home, Aggressive Evangelism, Woman's Work in the Church, Education.

On motion of J. C. White, the following were reelected members of the Board of Trustees of the Memorial Home: M. S. Marble (term expires 1918), E. P. Miller (1918), A. H. Sapp (1918), J. A. Beatty (1919), C. E. Line (1919), A. M. May (1919), F. M. Pressnal (1919), C. U. Wade (1920), B. S. Hollopeter (1920), W. W. Martin (1920), J. W. Sale (1920).

On motion of W. B. Freeland, the Board of Examiners was granted leave of absence for the purpose of organization.

Ruling of the Bishop.—On a motion of Leslie J. Naftzger, which was the same as had been made in former years, that the sum of five cents per member be apportioned to the charges for Taylor University, the Bishop ruled the motion out of order on the ground that under the decision of the University Senate the school did not come up to the requirements of that body and that the Conference could not become an agent for its support.

On motion of C. U. Wade, the Conference requested the Trustees of the school and the Local Preachers' Association to so relate the school to the church that the Conference may be relieved of embarrassment in the matter.

M. Vayhinger, President of Taylor University, spoke to the Conference on what the Local Preachers' Association had done.

The Commission on Education for Indiana submitted a report, which, on motion of W. W. Martin, was adopted.

The Conference requested the Bishop to appoint Fremont E. Fribley to the Student Pastorate of Purdue University.

Time Extended.—On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the time was extended.

B. S. Hollopeter called the attention of the Conference to the item in the report of the Board of Stewards that recommended the amount for Conference Claimants to be apportioned to the charges. On motion of D. H. Guild, the action of the Conference adopting this part of the report of the Board of Stewards was rescinded, and, on his motion, the amount to be apportioned to the charges for Conference Claimants was fixed at $29,000, the same as last year.

On motion of D. H. Guild, the Secretary was appointed the Official Editor of all the reports.

Change of Relation.—On motion of M. S. Marble, G. B. Work was granted a Retired Relation at his own request.

On motion of J. A. Beatty, the relation of J. F. Bailey was changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

M. S. Marble offered a resolution in behalf of the Cabinet relative to the presidency of Bishop Nicholson, which, on motion, was adopted by a rising vote.

Parr in Chair.—At the request of the Bishop, Dr. Parr took the chair while the Bishop and Cabinet retired for consultation.

The following committees made report, each of which was adopted: Parsonage and Furniture, Sustentation, Bible Society, District Conference Journals, Literature, Social and Moral Questions, Hospital and Board of Deaconess Work.

C. U. Wade addressed the Conference in the interest of the work of R. A. Morrison for the Preachers' Aid Society.

Introduction.—W. H. Brightmire, a member of the Indiana Conference and a former member of this Conference, was introduced and expressed his greeting.

The North Indiana Conference Quartet sang "The Wayside Cross."

Miss Lucile Dunlap, on invitation, came to the platform and sang "Who Could It Be?" and for the encore number, by special request, sang "Something More Than Gold."

The audience then expressed its appreciation of the singing of this young miss by tendering her a thank-offering which amounted to $25.49, which she very gratefully received.

Leslie J. Naftzger moved that as a Conference we request the Bishop of this area to so adjust the time of the next meeting of this Conference that it will not interfere with the services of Passion Week. Motion carried.

Bishop in Chair.—The Bishop and Cabinet returned and the Bishop took the chair.

The Auditing Committee made report, which was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions made report, which was adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of C. U. Wade, the journal of this session was approved without reading.

No further business being called to the attention of the Conference, on motion of the Secretary it was ordered that after the conducting of devotional services and the reading of the Appointments the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church stand adjourned sine die.

Devotional Services.—The closing devotional services consisted of singing Hymn No. 315, and prayer by Bishop Nicholson.

"Nearer, My God, to Thee,"

The Bishop then announced the following transfers: Merrill O. Lester from the California Conference; Manfred C. Wright and Lewis H. Ice, from the Northwest Indiana; Ernest B. Megenity, from the Indiana Conference, and Charles W. Shoemaker, to the Northwest Indiana Conference.

The Bishop announced his granting leave of absence to Silas L. Cates under provision of Paragraph 186 of the Discipline, 1916.

After speaking briefly in regard to the work of making the appointments, the Bishop read the appointments, the long-meter doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Nicholson, and the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church stood adjourned without day.

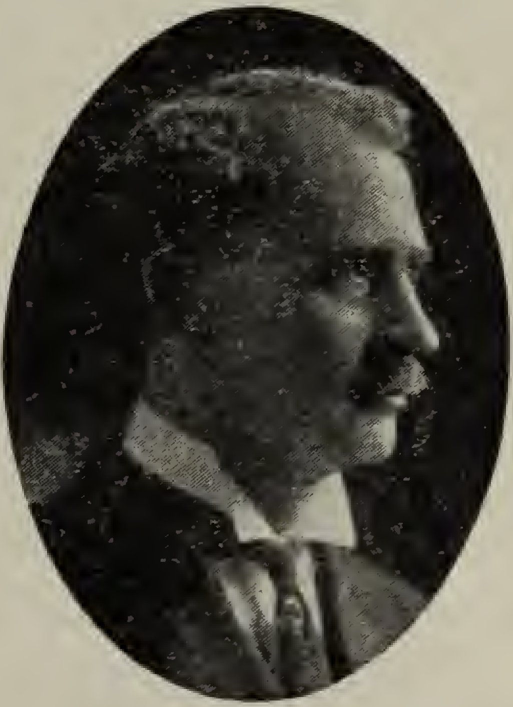
(VIII) Reports.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

Wallace W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: A year ago I was given a new commission from the Church through my appointment by Bishop W. F. McDowell to the superintendency of the Fort Wayne District. I scarcely knew where to begin. For this new task I could find no volume of instruction. It was a new kind of religious undertaking. Nevertheless we took up our task, believing that Jehovah would be our helper.



Wallace W. Martin.

Some Personal Notations.—During the year no death has decimated our ministerial ranks. Yet some have passed through the shadows. Mrs. John Phillips, of Monroe, but recently passed through a severe surgical operation from which she is slowly recovering. Mrs. D. A. J. Brown, of Hudson, has been quite ill during the year, and it was necessary for her to go to the Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis. Mrs. E. E. Wright, of Harlan, is in a hospital in Fort Wayne, in a serious condition.

B. F. Hornaday, of Orland, met with a painful accident, breaking an ankle on March 7. Two hours after this accident he wrote a few lines to his district superintendent, enclosing his report to the District Conference, and his greetings to the brethren.

District Meetings.—The Pastors and district stewards met the latter part of April in First Church, Ft. Wayne. It was a get together meeting for inspiration, and plans were laid for the work of the year.

Group meetings and charge conventions were held from September 24 to October 8. Dr. E. B. Caldwell, of China; Dr. D. O. Ernsberger, of India, who is supported by the Epworth Leaguers of Fort Wayne district; Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Springer, of Africa; Rev. A. E. Cook, of India, and Rev. Chas. W. Iglehart, of Japan, composed the strong team of missionaries who addressed our people. This team and the pastors of the district reached every church of the district in the campaign. The total attendance was 12,586, and this was 85 per cent of the membership of the district.

Settlement Day was held in First Church, Fort Wayne, the 18th day of December.

The District Conference was held in Garrett, March 7-9. All pastors of the district were accounted for. Bishop Nicholson, in sermon and address; Dr. George R. Grose, President of DePauw; Dr. E. C. Wareing, editor of the Western; Dr. John Lowe Fort, of the Commission on Finance, and Dr. E. L. Mills, of the Board of Home Missions, gave interesting and instructive addresses.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society held its district convention this year in Bluffton, and the Conference convention was held in Decatur. The district convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held at Angola. All these societies are active in Fort Wayne district.

The district Epworth League convention was held in Decatur in June, and the young people of Fort Wayne are looking forward to the annual meeting of the Board of Control of the Epworth League in Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, in October of the present year.

Pastoral Changes.—While at the General Conference I was informed by Brother F. A. Hall, our pastor at Auburn, that the United Brethren Society at Auburn Junction desired to unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church and transfer its property to us. I wrote him that if the Quarterly Conference of that church instructed the trustees to transfer the property and the deed was made, and the people desired to come to us, we would undertake to provide for them. Accordingly, C. A. McPheeters was secured as pastor and Norris Chapel and Memorial Chapel attached to the Auburn Junction charge.

In September, Brother E. J. Maupin, of the Leo charge, requested a change from Leo for certain physical and other sufficient reasons. About this time E. A. McClintock, who had been supplying the Bluffton circuit, tendered his resignation. A strong man was much needed on the Bluffton circuit. With the assent of Brother Maupin he was appointed to the Bluffton circuit. Brother Maupin has accomplished wonders on the Bluffton circuit. Revivals have been held, the people have a new vision, and Epworth, Prairie, and Bethel ask to be made a three point work, promising more salary than was promised by the four churches this past year, and have now arranged to purchase a parsonage. Brother E. M. Foster was moved from Hoagland to Leo. His benevolences are double the amount paid last year. Brother C. A. McPheeters was appointed to Hoagland and has had a prosperous year. Brother Harry Russell was appointed pastor at Auburn Junction to take care of the work until this session of the Conference.

In June the third regiment Indiana guards was called into service. Fred F. Thornburg, of Decatur, is chaplain of this regiment. The Official Board granted him leave of absence. This charge was supplied by the Rev. T. M. Guild, D.D., for a time, and Rev. H. B. Diefenbach, of the Reformed Church, cared for this work for a season. And since his return Brother Thornburg has taken hold vigorously and the charge will not suffer from this loyalty to our country.

Church Property.—A new church costing some $6,000 has been erected at St. Joe, on the Fort Wayne circuit. It is about ready for dedication. A faithful band of but a few members led on by the courageous pastor, J. M. Stewart, made this achievement possible. I believe we ought to recognize the services of this brother and admit him to membership in this Conference.

Hudson, D. A. J. Brown, pastor, has undertaken the rebuilding of the church. It is of brick veneer. A new Sunday-school room is being added. It will cost, when completed, $9,500. Already $2,750 of this amount has been paid. Brother Brown is a tireless worker.

The Memorial Chapel on the Auburn Junction work has been remodeled this year and is now ready for services.

Garrett, with Chas. Tinkham, pastor, concluded to do all the building necessary for years to come. While they have paid this year on their church debt $3,500, they have erected a modern parsonage, which has cost $7,000, and the pastor and his family are now at home in a parsonage good enough for a bishop. Brother Tinkham is closing his sixth year.

The Pleasant Mills charge was newly formed last spring and consists of Pleasant Mills and Salem. In the first Quarterly Conference a Board of trustees for parsonage property was elected, and the pastor, Geo. L. Conway, took hold of the finances and managed the construction and now lives with his good wife and five children in this new modern home.

The church at Fremont has undergone a great improvement with enlarged basement, church refrescoed, new heating plant installed, and about $300 invested in this improvement. Rev. L. W. Kemper, the pastor, has done intensive work. He has had a gain of 20 per cent in membership. In a town of 700 population his people pay a salary of $1,300.

Hamilton has practically rebuilt the parsonage this year, repainted and redecorated the church, and Brother Wyant reports all bills paid.

New Haven, H. C. Powell, pastor, has rebuilt the parsonage at an expense of $1,700. The Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, has paid $2,350 on the principal of their debt this year.

The parsonage at Spencerville has been remodeled and a new roof put on. J. C. Valentine is pastor. Harlan has paid $1,385 and Leo $2,700 on church debt this year.

Monroeville, S. I. Zechiel, pastor, has done extensive repair work this year.

The St. Paul Church, Fort Wayne, L. M. Krider, pastor, has done extensive repairs, including the repainting of the church. The salary here was increased $100 this year.

Revivals and Church Membership.—The largest number of conversions reported is by the pastor of the Geneva circuit, Geo. A. Snider, 172. F. F. Thornburg, with only half the year in his charge, reports 143. Chas. W. Shoemaker, of Trinity Church, reports 139. D. H. Guild, of First Church, Fort Wayne, reports 125. The charges reporting between 50 and 100 conversions are as follows: Auburn, 68; Bluffton, 70; Fort Wayne circuit, 67; Geneva, 73; Monroeville, 50. At Geneva the Methodist pastor, J. F. Lutey, and the pastor of the U. B. Church conducted their services jointly, and in eight weeks of services more than 100 were saved, and it was probably the most widespread revival in influence of any ever held in Geneva.

At Ray the very first night of the meeting a druggist of the town gave his heart to God. I was present when the pastor, Brother K. R. Thompson, received him into full membership in the church, and the next morning he served as secretary of our Quarterly Conference.

The brethren report 1,387 conversions and 1,309 accessions.

Ministerial Support.—The laymen of the Fort Wayne District have a vision. I have this year applications from enough men who want work in Fort Wayne District that if the calamity should overtake us that every man in the district serving as pastor should suddenly disappear, I could still man every charge of the district. For quite a while we have been pleading for salaries for our men. Our laymen are meeting the challenge with the word, Give us men for our salaries. The only way in which a man can expect to keep his place in the ranks to-day is by taking care of his job. Our ministers must come to see that promotion is not to be determined by the number of years in the ministry, but by real service to the kingdom. According to the year book of last year, the cash salaries of pastors advanced $3,766 over the previous year. The cash salaries for Fort Wayne District this year are fixed at $45,888.

We probably have in the Fort Wayne District the highest salaried four-point circuit in Methodism. The Huntertown circuit pays J. R. Stelle $1,500 cash salary. The average cash salary for all pastors in Fort Wayne District is $1,177 this year, and for men who are members or probationers in the Conference the average cash salary is $1,308.

Educational Work.—Our Sunday schools in Fort Wayne are doing excellent work; nearly all are graded Sunday schools. They are using Methodist literature. We have felt the need of more carefully trained teachers. Brother O. L. Vance has been appointed secretary of teacher training for the district.

The pastors of the district report 704 subscribers to the Western Christian Advocate. That is about one subscription for each twenty members of the church.

Benevolences.—Our benevolent campaign extending to every church in the district met with universal approval.

The following charges report $1,000 or more for the seven apportioned disciplinary benevolences this year: First Church, Auburn, F. A. Hall, pastor, $1,352; First Church, Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, pastor, $2,648; Wayne Street, Fort Wayne, C. C. Travis, pastor, $1,549; First Church, Fort Wayne, D. H. Guild, pastor, $1,069.

That Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, H. L. Overdeer, pastor, despite its heavy debt and after paying more than a $1,000 interest and $2,350 on the principal, should pay twenty-five per cent above the apportionment on the disciplinary benevolences, is quite remarkable.

Last year eleven charges of this district were in the star class, having paid in full the apportionment for all benevolences. This year the following charges are in the all-star class: Angola, M. Pell, pastor; Ashley, Darrell Stoakes, pastor; Auburn, F. A. Hall, pastor; Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, pastor; Coesse, Jos. Grimes, pastor; Decatur, F. F. Thornburg, pastor; Fiat, B. D. Nysewander, pastor; Simpson, Fort Wayne, H. L. Overdeer, pastor; Wayne Street, Fort Wayne, C. C. Travis, pastor; Fort Wayne circuit, J. M. Stewart, pastor; Fremont, L. W. Kemper, pastor; Geneva, J. F. Lutey, pastor; Harlan, E. E. Wright, pastor; Huntertown, J. R. Stelle, pastor; Monroeville, S. I. Zechiel, pastor; Orland, B. F. Hornaday, pastor; Ray, K. R. Thompson, pastor; Spencerville, J. C. Valentine, pastor; Woodburn, A. K. Love, pastor; nineteen charges in all.

According to these advance reports every charge in the Fort Wayne District is in the "Pull up" class. For all apportioned benevolences the total gain appears to be $6,092.

Nor is this all. During the year Rev. J. O. Bills and wife gave $1,000 to Foreign Missions, $500 to Home Missions, and $500 to Taylor University. Brother Bills will ask for a change of relation this Conference because of the breaking health of his wife. May God richly reward their interest in the kingdom!

Summary.—Last spring in our first meeting I said to the brethren, "Let us run the risk of faith." As I faced the situation I told them that if we succeeded in overcoming the losses sustained by the removal of three charges we would do well. They accepted the challenge to faith. We lost 1,206 members by the removal of these three charges, and our ministers have enrolled 1,309 members this year. Because of removals from various causes we can not have a net gain equal to the 1,206 members.

We lost in salaries for these three charges $4,000, the gain in claims for pastors is $4,201, for the present Conference year.

We lost in amount given to the seven disciplinary benevolences $939 by the removal of these charges. The year shows a gain of $4,827. We lost in Conference benevolences $53, and we gain $1,235.

A Forward Look.—What of the coming year? Pledges already made for salaries for next year indicate more than $3,000 advance, and much of this is in the circuit work, where our men begin, and where the advance is so much needed if we are to be able to begin with trained young men.

At Ossian an elect woman has already pledged $750 for Foreign Missions to be paid in May, 1917. On the Hamilton charge Brother

Koch has pledged $1,000 for work in Japan. Early last June Brother Ner William Cline, son of Albert B. Cline and wife, of Bluffton, while returning from Greencastle met with an accident, and in a few short hours, this noble and devoted son, a splendid student of DePauw, had gone from the here and the now, to the there and eternity. At that funeral service our ministers came as though a member of the Conference had fallen. Few among us are doing more for the kingdom than Brother and Sister Cline. They have now pledged $10,000 for the building of a Memorial College in China. It is a fitting memorial to their student son, Ner William Cline.

Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, has voted to build a new church. An additional lot has been purchased and the pastor has already raised $900 for the fund.

Huntertown will either repair the present church extensively or raze the present building and put up a new one. $800 in cash is the nucleus for the work to be done.

On Monday night, March 19, the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Bluffton, after consultation with the Official Board, through its trustees, took unanimous action to build a new and modern church. This action was based upon the liberal subscriptions promised by two of its trustees. William A. Kunkel pledged at least $10,000, and Albert B. Cline pledged one-third of the entire cost. The wise counsel and earnest service of the pastor, W. T. Arnold, is deemed by these people a necessity to the accomplishment of this great undertaking.

Bishop, if it should be your pleasure to reappoint me to this district, I assure you that I will go with a little more of assurance of success than I went a year ago.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

R. J. Wade, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: The ministry of Jesus Christ is the most exalted service in the world. Laymen share in this noble task as desire and circumstances permit, but the preacher is especially and directly called to it as a life work. Happy the man whom God has thus chosen. He has been called to a station concerning which Dr. Theodore Cuyler, before the New York East Conference said, "That no presidential chair, no emperor's throne, was ever yet built high enough to be within ten leagues of the pulpit in which the fearless preacher stands winning immortal souls to Jesus Christ." Forty-two such fortunate men bring to this Conference, from Goshen district, reports of the year's privileges and victories. There has been no break in the ranks save that in mid-year R. L. Lundry succeeded S. Simons, supply, on Elkhart circuit.

Ten honored veterans on the retired list have cheered, prayed for and helped the more active men. The Rev. John W. Welch is the third oldest minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, passing next August his ninety-fourth birthday. These retired veterans of the cross, Welch, Paschall, Hasty, Kemper, Semans, Carey, Cain, Murray, Wilkinson, and Cook, gave more than 360 years of service to preaching the gospel of Christ, averaging to active work more than thirty-six years each. I doubt if such a record can be found anywhere of a corresponding number and men of such heroic mold. Mr. J. Henry Harper, of Harper and Brothers, in their centenary volume, wrote: "It is not too much to say that if the great West sprang at once into civilization without passing through the intermediate stage of semi-barbarism, it was due more than to any other cause, to the Methodist preachers of the day." And to their successors (I would add) should be ascribed much of the glory arising from Indiana's Centennial, to those men who shrank from no hardship, who waded swamps, swam or forded all streams, preached unceasingly and wrought mightily in laying the foundations and building the glorious superstructure of the church of the present day. Some of these men never received in one year in our Conference a larger cash salary than $700. Such heroes in their old age deserve to be paid every dollar of their legitimate claim to comfortable ministerial support. It is simple justice. Christianity is at stake. We must meet the obligation. To provide this, Goshen District relinquishes the services, at this Conference, of that astute financial expert, Rufus A. Morrison, who, three years ago, found St. Paul Church, Elkhart, more deeply in debt than upon the day of dedication, and who leaves it with less than $4,000 unpaid, and that covered by subscription. Under his leadership, with loyal cooperation, our Conference can and will do her part to realize the goal for Indiana Methodism of $1,000,000 for additional Conference claimants endowment.

R. J. Wade.

With the close of the Conference session we shall also lose one of our most able and loyal men, the enthusiastic District Missionary Secretary and Mishawaka pastor, Dr. Loren M. Edwards. Our loss is severe. Baltimore Methodism gains one of our finest young men. Under his leadership Mishawaka has developed from a mediocre charge to the outstanding one in many respects in our Conference, and takes position in giving to Foreign Missions the fifteenth in Methodism and the twelfth in contributions to apportioned benevolences. Mishawaka gives $5,000 to the disciplinary benevolences this year.

The beautiful and placid life of Lydia A. Simpson, widow of the lamented Dr. Franklin A. Simpson, came to an unexpected close in the morning of June 27, 1916, at her Elkhart residence.

Death crossed the portals of the residence of Brother C. H. Murray, at Leesburg, March 6, and carried home, after but brief illness of pneumonia, the noble spirit of his life-long companion. The same messenger hovers at the doorways at Bourbon and New Paris, in the homes of Brothers Stoakes and Lamport. Life's beginning has been recorded in the parsonages at Etna Green and Bristol, Brothers Dickson and Beatty greatly rejoicing. Brother H. A. Kirk conveyed to the Benton parsonage a beautiful June bride, a college classmate, Hazel Eleanor Toller, of Galesburg, Michigan, the District Superintendent tying the knot.

Immediately after the last Conference, the Pastors and Stewards Meeting was held in Goshen, April 19, well attended and adopting a strong program for the year's work. While the District Superintendent last May was sojourning by your leave in Saratoga, a campaign for the Indiana Methodist Hospital was conducted throughout the district under the direction of Brother Sherman Powell. The remainder will be secured by subsequent canvass this coming year.

Church Building.—Simpson Memorial Church, Elkhart, almost destroyed by fire previous to last Conference, was reopened, after extensive improvements as well as repairs, on a Sunday in May, Rev. C. U. Wade raising all necessary funds and dedicating the church better equipped than ever to minister to 5,000 people on the Southside. A great opportunity. A revival conducted by Conference Evangelist J. W. Oborn and party resulted in sixty decisions, while the year's work has been successfully prosecuted by the pastor, K. H. Carlson.

The first Sunday after General Conference, the newly elected bishop, Matt. S. Hughes, dedicated the handsome $35,000 Nappanee Church, the like of which, in a community and membership of its size, is not to be found in the bounds of the Conference. Here Sherman Powell, indefatigable in labors for this great enterprise, found ready assistance in his laymen, and to-day there remains unpaid but $3,540, amply covered by good subscriptions. It will be worth a special pilgrimage to see this remarkable church building.

The District Superintendent raised the money and dedicated the Jamestown Church on the Osceola charge. Here in an absolutely rural community the growth of the Sunday school compelled the erection of the larger church. This country Sunday school last year maintained an average attendance of 108, an average attendance beyond that attained in many of our good sized towns. Every church on this charge, during the year, was led to improvement of their church property by Pastor W. E. Loveless. The District Superintendent preached at their opening at Tamarack, while J. C. White officiated successfully at Osceola.

W. D. Parr, who raised the money at Nappanee (and everywhere) kept up his record at Tippecanoe. Here may be witnessed a marvelous achievement. No more thrilling story of recent missionary enterprise could be written than that of the "Redemption of Tippecanoe." A few years ago a community noted for its backwardness, Sabbath breaking, drunkenness, profanity, and low morality, with a township per capita Sunday-school and church membership record the lowest in the county, and perhaps the very lowest in the state; witness the arrival and work of the home missionaries—our pastors Hogan, Wyant, and Park, the revival, the erection of the tabernacle, more evangelism, teaching, and inspiration, all within fourteen months; then, this year, in May, the purchase of a $1,500 parsonage and the dedication of a $10,000 brick church in January; to-day an energetic Sunday school, a live Epworth League, Brotherhood and Ladies' Aid Society, a membership of seventy-eight increased by ten on the evening of dedication, a rejuvenated church of a sister denomination—previously almost dead, public schools quickened, homes rebuilt, changed community atmosphere—these are but some of the results of an enterprise all our own accomplished within 26 months, and without a dollar from the Board of Church Extension and Home Missions.

Another rural church, Wayne Center, on the Corunna charge, R. R. Detweiler, pastor, has prepared basement under the church at an expense of $600 and has $1,500 more for changes in the superstructure. Wakarusa expended $750 for decoration, additional social and Sunday-school purposes, Ligonier $1,500 on a new steam heating plant and other items; LaGrange $3,600 for larger basement and steam heating plant; Milford, Waterford, Bashor, Chapel, and others, smaller amounts.

Already Pierceton, G. F. Hubbartt, pastor, has taken necessary steps to rebuild, as has South Milford, under V. L. Clear. At Wawaka, A. A. Turner, pastor, an addition for Sunday-school and social purposes is to be undertaken. In two years sixteen churches buttoned up physically, have been given, by new building or enlargement, a new lease of life, while more—twenty-eight yet occupying one-room structures—are planning and being compelled to plan to do so by the demands of a new day.

Parsonages.—Three new parsonages have been secured: one at Tippecanoe already referred to; another at Albion, erected at a cost of $2,800, the crowning work of four years of Robert Burns' pastorate; while Foster Chapel, seven miles north of Bourbon, raised $1,800 and purchased a good parsonage with garage in Bourbon, into which W. H. Menaugh moved from Warsaw, March 1. Henceforth Clunette charge will be known as Bourbon circuit. The old parsonage at Warsaw has been sold preparatory to erecting a splendid manse adjacent to the capacious new church that more and more demonstrates that it was worth while for our people to tear down and build the greater structure. Wolcottville, likewise, builds a new parsonage this year.

Debts.—Not only has the debt of St. Paul Church, Elkhart, been greatly reduced, but similarly at Warsaw, Bourbon, Etna Green, Wolcottville, while notes have been burned amid rejoicing at Syracuse, Avilla and Morris Chapel, on the North Webster charge. J. C. White has led Trinity, Elkhart, so that no debts are reported in any organization of the church.

Evangelism.—The aggregate church membership will be increased by several hundred again this year. Consistent work in evangelism has been carried on everywhere, with the following charges reporting the largest results in conversions, etc.: Kimmel, 50; Syracuse, 37; Kendallville, 20; Bristol, 12; Middlebury, 48; Goshen First, 15; Albion, 12; Pierceton, 12; Leesburg, 12; Corunna, 10; Mishawaka, 125; Nappanee, 12; Wolcottville, 48; Topeka, 10; Ligonier, 80; Simpson, Elkhart, 60; Wawaka, 20; Warsaw, 140; Etna Green, 108; Bourbon, 75; Butler, 12; Goshen Circuit, 12; Trinity, Elkhart, 26; Tippecanoe, 18; North Webster, 20; Howe, 30; LaGrange, 15; South Milford, 15; St. Paul, Elkhart, 16. A total of 1,212. Some signal victories have been won. Jew and Gentile have been converted, drug store proprietor gives up liquor selling, and at Rome City the unusual happened when the two saloons closed doors during the evenings of a week of the revival.

Benevolences.—Last year, for the first time, as far as recorded, at least, Methodism had one district in which every charge shared honors in benevolence advance. Not a single charge pulled down. This year we established a new record. For the first time in the recorded history of benevolent achievement, Methodism has a district in which, for the second successive year, every charge "pulls up." You think it has become a habit. It is a good habit and not easily acquired. It could not be gained except by hard and continuous toil—but that is what we are here for; it could not have been reached without sacrifice, but in this we follow Christ; it is the glory alike of faithful minister and Christ-like laymen.

Of the 208 districts in the Spring Conferences, the one that for the past three years to the seven boards has shown the largest gain is the Goshen District, $5,763. Of the first twenty districts North Indiana Conference furnishes five, aggregating an increase of $20,316, or more than one-third of the total gain of all the Spring Conferences. All benevolences will advance. Within the month DePauw University has received a fine farm worth $20,000.

Salaries.—The increase of pastors' salaries last year was $3,400. This year the men at work in Goshen District have received $3,362 more than the previous year, while already arranged for next year the aggregate cash increase will be upwards of $3,000. For successful preachers the laymen are willing to pay.

New Charges.—New Paris and Milford have been paying $1,000 cash salary, but next year they each pay that amount as stations. Cromwell asks to become a station, offering $1,000 for the return of G. E. Whitten. Kimmel, of the old charge, wooed and won Wolf Lake, and the two are henceforth to be one. Wawaka and Brimfield without Wolf Lake will continue to pay A. A. Turner $900. The Presbyterian Church at Stroh was offered to us for $1,000, the amount originally loaned by their Board of Church Erection. The contract was accepted. V. L. Clear organized a class of twenty-five members and the third new charge of the year is formed. This makes a total of five new charges in two years.

Mobilizing Christ's Army.—Time fails me to tell of amazing Ladies' Aid, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society activities, of Brotherhood work, Advocate extension, and Sunday-school advance, of Veterans' Day observance, Epworth League Convention and the unparalleled Wawasee Institute, of Mobilization program that appealed to 12,000 hearers and challenged the attention of the whole church, having been recommended for adoption and suggestion in all sections, of Settlement Day and District Conferences, the best of the years—these and other agencies are the cogs in the wheels of Methodist machinery that make Goshen District go.

Ours is a militant church and this a militant day. There is no more pitiful, no more tragic figure than the slacker, and there is no higher ideal than to be a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

"It is great to be out where the fight is strong,
To be where the heaviest troops belong,
And to fight there for man and God!

O, it seams the face and it tries the brain,
It strains the arm till one's friend is pain,
In the fight for man and God!

But it's great to be out where the fight is strong,
To be where the heaviest troops belong,
And to fight there for man and God!"

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: It gives me very great pleasure, bishop, to welcome you to the North Indiana Conference. We are delighted to be under the spell of your enthusiasm and to be guided by your godly judgment. This has been a very eventful year in the Logansport District and a year of many victories. On account of the many changes of pastors during the year, some difficulties have been met. Yet, notwithstanding these changes, no charge has gone for a single day without a pastor.

F. V. Barnes, the supply pastor at Center, resigned his charge early in the year to engage in the insurance business, and H. R. Glick, a graduate of Moores Hill College, was secured to take his place. Center now becomes a $1,000 charge for next year.

F. A. Wimer, the pastor at Mexico, on October 1 was transferred to the Erie Conference and F. W. Launer was secured to take his place. After a year and one-half of very successful work at Sheridan, W. E. McPheeters was excused by the Bishop to enter Harvard University for post-graduate work. He will take a place on the faculty of Wesleyan University for one year. The Bishop then changed E. S. Riley from Frankton to Sheridan. The wisdom of this change has been fully demonstrated by the fact that the good work at Sheridan has not been interrupted by the change. A new $30,000 church is being erected. Brother Riley and the Building Committee have raised a subscription of $21,600 for this work. They have raised the pastor's salary to $1,400 and paid $1,120 for the benevolences. J. W. Hanger was transferred from the Northwest Indiana Conference and appointed to Frankton. The year has closed very successfully at Frankton.

J. W. Walters was released from Kempton charge, October 1, to assist Dr. J. M. Taylor in his Missionary campaign, and R. R. Henderson, a graduate of Adrian College, was secured for Kempton.

James A. Sprague, who for seven and one-half years had been the very successful pastor of Main Street, Kokomo, seeing it grow from a small society to be one of the important churches of the Conference, with its splendid new building and membership of over 1,000 and a Sunday school that averaged 700, was found to be living an immoral life and had been for some years. When he was confronted with the facts he confessed to all and withdrew from the ministry and membership of the Church. Happily, Bishop Nicholson was on the ground and took up the problem. After carefully counseling the District Superintendent and members of the Board of Main Street Church, Dr. W. D. Parr was placed in charge with R. V. Johnson as his assistant. This stricken people have rallied to the interests of the Church and the indications are that the standards of the charge will not be lowered. On October 1, G. W. Bailor, pastor at Cicero, found it impossible to continue longer in the ministry and was honorably released from his charge. V. C. Rogers was transferred from the Indiana Conference to take charge of Cicero. He has labored with much success and will have a good report.

B. S. Hollopeter.

New Churches and Improvements.—At Walton, H. L. Liddle secured the erection of a new eight-room parsonage with modern equipments. It cost in money $2,400, besides the lot. The actual value is $3,500. Much work was donated and it was well managed. When all the bills were paid in cash a small balance remained in the treasury. Hillisburg, under the faithful leadership of A. C. Hoover, has torn their old church away and replaced it with a splendid new $10,000 building. It has a well equipped basement, two furnaces, electric lights and is thoroughly up to date. It was dedicated March 18 by the District Superintendent, when $1,800 was secured in good subscriptions, which covers all indebtedness. Few charges have been so completely transformed as this has been. Brother Hoover and his wife have gathered to this church the old and the young and made themselves indispensable to this community. One of the most beautiful and well planned churches in the district has been erected at Hobbs this year, where U. S. Hartley is the pastor. It is easy to follow the leadership of such a man, and this heroic people have something of great value to show for their so doing. It was dedicated March 25 by Dr. Parr, who is always equal to the hardest task. Aroma, on this charge, has had a year of unusual prosperity and has pledged an increase in the salary for next year.

Peru made extensive improvements on their church. The basement was extended under the entire building and splendidly equipped for the ever growing activities of this church and Sunday school. The cost of this improvement was $4,500, which was raised at a reopening service conducted by Dr. Parr. The pastor, C. H. Smith, followed this event with a revival in which E. M. Dunbar rendered valuable assistance. One hundred and seventeen were converted and one hundred and twenty-six joined the church. Peru now pays $2,000 cash salary and about the same amount for the benevolences of the church. The pastor's relations with his people are very happy.

The trustees of Grace Church, Kokomo, invited their pastor, Dr. W. B. Freeland, to take a four weeks' vacation in August while they put the church in proper repair. The basement was reconstructed, the walls of the auditorium were cleaned and a new carpet laid, and an indirect system of lighting installed. $5,000 was raised by the trustees for this and other obligations. The Quarterly Conference put the pastor's salary at $2,500 for next year.

Peoria, a new point on the Santa Fe charge, has rebuilt their church at a cost of $1,800 and will have it ready for dedication soon. E. C. Fisher is the pastor. Galveston Church, where G. E. Garrison is the pastor, has been frescoed and a new lighting system has been installed. Their parsonage was built some years ago by a donation given by a good brother on the annuity plan. This year the annuity feature was canceled by the brother because he had been permitted to live so much longer than he had expected.

At four o'clock in the afternoon of November 2 the beautiful new church at Atlanta caught fire and was totally destroyed. While this weeping congregation was standing about the ruins of what had been the results of heroic sacrifice, a telegram came to them from Dr. Parr, of Kokomo, subscribing $100 towards a new building. As this and other subscriptions were announced, their tears gave way to joy. They were then reminded that the trustees had been faithful to their trust and $5,000 insurance was in force, which has since been paid. Added to this good fortune they have a pastor, W. M. Amos. who has had large experience in church building. A new and better building will soon take its place.

A new parsonage has been secured at Gilead. At the last session of the Conference, Ebenezer class was taken from the Denver charge and placed with Gilead. H. R. Carson became the pastor. A little four-room hired house was all that could be secured as a place to live. The pastor made no complaint, but went cheerfully to his task. As a result this charge has experienced the most far reaching revival of its history. Scores were gloriously converted at the altar and were added to the church. The benevolences have been more than doubled and $300 has been added to the salary.

The Paying of Debts.—This has been a year of great activity in the matter of paying old and troublesome debts. Broadway, Logansport, carried the heaviest debt in the district. Many of its members had paid the fourth time on this troublesome debt and not one of them believed it could be paid at this time. Only the pastor, A. W. Lowther, believed it could be done. His radiant optimism was put at white heat when one of the elect ladies of the church made a cash donation of $5,000, which was afterward raised to $6,000. The pastor laid the matter before Bishop Nicholson, who came to his assistance by spending March 4th with them. After a most inspiring sermon he raised a cash subscription sufficient to free the church from indebtedness. In all, $9,920 in cash was collected. Broadway Church has also doubled its benevolences this year by thoroughly installing the Duplex system.

W. A. Griest, the pastor of Market Street, Logansport, has accomplished what seemed to be the impossible. At the First Quarterly Conference of the year the pastor requested the privilege of taking a subscription to cover the amount of the debt, which was then $4,500. The condition of the subscription was that the whole amount of the debt must be raised. to make the subscriptions binding. When the whole amount was subscribed then all became due. The Quarterly Conference evidently had little faith in the success of the plan. Yet they granted the pastor the privilege of trying it out. After the first half was subscribed, it seemed doomed to failure; but this pastor would not quit. He found a splendid lady who put new life into the undertaking by giving him $1,000 in cash. A sister of this large donor paid the last $400 and the mortgage was burned March 20 in the presence of a large congregation and amid the shouts of a grateful people. Thus these two churches have raised $14,600 in cash this year to free themselves of debt, one-half of which was paid by this consecrated lady of wealth. These two pastors are absolutely responsible for this great victory. No effort would have been made but for them. They fought their way through difficulties to accomplish this task.

A $2,000 debt at Beamer Chapel, Kokomo, remained from the rebuilding of the church last year. A reopening was held November 19 at which Dr. Parr, assisted by G. E. Meck and the pastor, raised the entire amout in subscription, all but $700 of which has been collected. The benevolences of this charge have also been doubled and more. Anoka burned their mortgage October 1. Amboy reduced their debt from $5,600 to $3,600. Elwood from $5,800 to $4,000. Windfall from $4,300 to $3,300. Main Street, Kokomo, from $6,500 to $2,500, and Cicero from $2,800 to $1,400, and this was all provided for. This district, which has been so long the district of big debts, will now report the largest valuation on church property and one of the smallest in indebtedness.

Pastors' Salaries.—There has been a decided improvement in the salaries of our pastors, yet they are not keeping pace with the advanced cost of living. To buy and maintain the modern means of travel, necessary for our circuit men, requires no small outlay and it has been a serious matter to many men who have small salaries. The following increases in salaries were made this year. Gilead, $300; Tipton, $200; Peru, $200; Sheridan, $200; Cicero, $200; Hobbs, $150, and Galveston, Boxley, Arcadia, Atlanta, Elwood, Hillisburg, Kempton, Beamer, Chapel, and Russiaville, each $100. During the past four years the salaries of the district have increased $9,000, or 24 per cent.

Benevolent Collections.—An educational campaign was conducted throughout the district the last week of September. In this campaign every charge and nearly every preaching place was visited by a group of pastors. The meetings were a great success. The charges where they work the full Duplex system are making the best showing, although any system faithfully worked will bring good results. Last year Logansport District made the largest gains of any district in the Conference. We hope to do so again. In the past four years the increases in the district have been 60 per cent.

Revivals and Church Membership.—Special evangelistic meetings were held on all the charges but one. At Tipton a great tabernacle meeting was conducted by Dr. Bulgin. This was a decided success, and Dr. Bulgin and his party can be safely commended. Arthur Cates, our pastor, received many valuable additions to the church. In other cases evangelists were employed to work in the individual churches. Good results came from these meetings, but, I am thankful to say, most of the pastors conducted their own meetings and gathered a goodly harvest of souls for the Kingdom. It seems to me, that where the pastor has not lost out in his own experience and has not lost his evangelistic fire, his own meetings are worth more to the church than the meetings of anybody else. The following charges report the larger number of conversions: Peru, 117; Goldsmith, 61; Market Street, Logansport, 49; Wheatland Street, 28; Amboy, 27; Boxley, 25; Converse, 24; here H. A. Homer has done a most wonderful work in all lines; Sheridan, 20; West Middleton, 18, and other places where fewer numbers have been reported, the results have been equally as good for the church. There has been 852 conversions in the district, and 1,196 accessions to the church. This will insure a good net increase in membership for the year.

Financing the Church.—The new financing plan that has been adopted by the General Conference and is being put into action by the Board of Finance, is accomplishing great things for the Kingdom. This plan has been adopted by the district and is being used in most of the charges. They all make the Every Member Canvass, but a few have not yet accepted the Duplex envelope plan of collecting. This plan has wrought wonders on the charges where it has been faithfully carried out. An increasing number of laymen are becoming alive to our great benevolent causes as a result of the educational campaign which is necessary in the adopting of this plan.

Settlement Day meetings were held December 5, 6, and 7, at which the reports of the stewards were encouraging. The obligation of paying the pastors week by week is getting upon the hearts of the laymen as never before, and as a result but very few deficiencies are reported at the end of the year.

Women's Work.—The Ladies' Aid Societies of the Logansport District are doing an important work for the Kingdom of God. They aid the social life of the church and community without going into excesses. Their hands are busy in helpful ministrations to a holy cause and are not tempted to handle the hurtful things that society women sometimes do. They lay the foundation for aggressive spiritual work, and we have all felt their power in the financial affairs of the church. The Ladies' Aid Societies of the district have raised $14,500 this year and they have made every cent count for good. The Woman's Missionary Societies are growing in numbers and in influence. They are raising more money and are better organized than ever before. They both held helpful conventions during the year.

The Epworth Leagues of the district held a convention at Tipton, June 20 and 21. The Leaguers were there in large numbers and a helpful program was rendered. Dr. C. W. Smith, a member of the Board of Control, and Dr. L. M. Edwards were present and gave very able addresses. Our Leaguers were well represented at Wawasee and report a great time. The support of J. F. Cottingham, a district superintendent in the Philippines, was continued for another year.

Soon after the last session of our Conference, L. A. Beeks, one of the most sainted retired ministers, quietly slipped out of this life to the home above. He had gone to Florida to spend the winter, and died in the South. He was buried at Kokomo, where a suitable memorial service was held. Also J. P. Albright, one of the old and well known fathers of our Conference, and a loyal man of God, went to heaven. A large and appropriate service was held at Kokomo. Mrs. Slack, the widow of J. H. Slack, died at the home of her daughter in Iowa, and was buried at Kokomo a few weeks since. She had been a great sufferer and death came as a welcome relief.

Our first District Conference for the Logansport District was held this year at Elwood. It was a real success. All the pastors were there but two, and one of these was sick in bed and the other had three funerals on hand. The laymen were also there in large numbers and took a lively interest in the proceedings. Four were licensed to preach, five were recommended for membership in the Annual Conference. Twenty-seven had their licenses renewed. The presence and able address of Bishop Nicholson gave us a real uplift and greatly pleased both ministers and laymen. We were also favored with the presence of Dr. J. L. Fort, who represented the Board of Finance, and Dr. Mills, who spoke on our Home Missionary work.

I want to thank the faithful pastors of the district for their loyal support and the faithful and efficient service they have rendered in making this a most profitable year for the Kingdom of God. The value of these pastors to the communities where they have labored has never been more appreciated than now. They have preached the Gospel, visited the sick, comforted the dying and stood with the sorrowing in the midst of the shadows. Hungry hearts have turned to them and not in vain. These far visioned men of God have laid the world's needs upon the hearts of the people who have responded to the call of God. The young life look to them for example, the middle-aged for inspiration, and the aged for comfort. Surely God has given us a high place among the lives of men. They have brought to me their burdens which I have tried faithfully to share, and we have counseled together around their firesides how to make the Church of God a greater power.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: Forty charges are credited to the Muncie District. Four of them are student appointments. From the standpoint of salaries, four more of them should be so classified. Thirty-one Conference men were appointed by Bishop McDowell at Fort Wayne. Nine supplies are used. Muncie District has as fine a territory and as fine people as can be found in the Middle West. Out of the thirty-four Conference men and seven supplies assigned by Bishop McDowell, thirty-four have remained at the post of duty to the end of the year. After five months of faithful service at Summitville, O. B. Morris was transferred to the Gulf Conference and stationed at Port Arthur. Clyde G. Yeomans was released from LaFontaine in the Wabash District and placed at Summitville, and has witnessed the closing of a fine year. About the same time Russell S. Jones was released from Whiteley to attend school, and Fred R. Hill, just graduating from De Pauw University, was secured to supply the church, which he has done in a good way and is properly recommended for admission to the Conference on trial. As troubles do not come singly but in clusters, there came an urgent call from the Richmond District for W. W. Wiant, of Fortville, for the larger charge at Newcastle. With the consent of Bishop Nicholson he was released and Emory M. Dunbar, of Pennville, was secured for Fortville, and with his usual aggressiveness, soon completed arrangements, already under way, to install a twenty-five hundred dollar pipe organ in the church, has had a fine revival and is closing out a splendid year. October 1, R. I. Stone, of the Noblesville Circuit, asked to be transferred to the Montana Conference. After supplying the charge for three Sundays, G. N. Calaway was transferred from the West Wisconsin Conference and is completing a good year on this charge.

James A. Beatty.

While but little serious sickness prevailed in any of our parsonage homes, sadness came to the home of Rev. and Mr. C. J. Everson in the taking away of their little three-year-old daughter, Florence Elizabeth, the third of last January. Early in January Brother and Sister J. W. McDaniel were shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden death of their noble son, Thomas S., who lived in Portland, Oregon. He was recognized as one of the strong, prominent laymen of the West. Bishop Hughes conducted the funeral services.

Retired Preachers.—The district is happy in having fifteen of our retired preachers enrolled with us. All but three are living within the bounds of the district. They are men of fine records, loyalty, hope, trust, and helpfulness. It is good to have them in our services and in our work and in our councils.

Special Appointments.—Our Quarterly Conferences are honored by having four of our members in special service. They are: Prof. H. B. Gough, of DePauw University; Dr. Fred B. Fisher, Executive Chairman Indiana Mass Movement Commission; C. J. Everson, Field Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, and E. B. Westhafer, Conference Evangelist. These men are making fine records in their chosen field. They are a credit to our Conference and the church, and we appreciate their relationship with us.

Church Improvements.—Immediately after Conference, Dr. J. H. Palmer and his Official Board set out for extensive improvements on their church. It has been artistically redecorated, a new carpet placed in the auditorium and otherwise improved at a cost of $1,850. It was the privilege of the District Superintendent the fourth of June to reopen this beautiful church. It has been a year of splendid progress for Albany charge.

Our parsonage on the Albany Circuit was badly damaged by fire. The upper story was almost completely destroyed, but they carried sufficient insurance to rebuild it. The most serious loss was sustained by Brother Forbes, the pastor. He lost almost his entire library, much of the furniture and some of their clothing. He unfortunately carried no insurance.

The church at Gilman, on the Alexandria Circuit, was completely destroyed by fire in May. Only about three weeks previous I had urged the trustees of this church to have it insured. They failed to do it and suffered a total loss. They hope to rebuild, but it will be a heavy task for them.

Grace Church, Hartford City, Rev. E. E. Trippeer, pastor, spent $800 in beautifying their church, which has added much to its attractiveness.

The Jolietville charge has expended $1,046 improving their churches, putting pews in one and a heating plant in another. The parsonage was in a doleful state of repair. Brother J. L. Williams, the pastor, was soon to make a pilgrimage to a far-away country to capture a beautiful bride. With so good a case, he aroused his trustees and people to the importance of the occasion. The parsonage was placed on a good foundation, remodeled, cement porch built around two sides of it and cement walks about it. This done, the fair bride was induced to come, and Brother and Sister Williams are happily housed in this cozy parsonage. Total expenditures for the charge is $1,631.

Rev. F. E. Fribley, Avondale, Muncie, has led his people to put a basement under their church and install a new piano, at a cost of $520. which is all paid for. When this basement is completed it will give very much needed room, as this growing church must now hold their Sunday school in two sections.

Madison Street Church, Muncie, David S. Jones, pastor, has redecorated their church, put in new lighting fixtures and a new carpet, with an expenditure of $800.

First Church, Noblesville, has installed a steam heating plant, painted the church, made some minor improvements on the parsonage at a total cost of $1,857. With an old indebtedness of $1,000 added to that, Dr. C. E. Line, on a recent Sunday, raised $3,000, thus setting the church free from any encumbrance. This church has had a year of prosperity. Pastor and people mutually happy. Dr. Line has clearly demonstrated that he not only can successfully manage a great district. but that he can go back into the pastorate with increased efficiency.

First Church, Anderson, has built a gymnasium at a cost of a thousand dollars. A fine young man has been employed to give instruction in athletics and direct the young life of the church. The total of improvements is $15,136.

Church Organizations.—The outstanding department of our church work is the Sunday school. In many places it is going forward with leaps and bounds. The secret of this forward movement is due to the relating so many people to a program of expressional activity. We have 76 schools with a total enrollment of more than fifteen thousand. All the larger schools and many of the smaller are organized under the graded system and are reaching a high state of efficiency.

The pastors report thirty Epworth League Chapters with an enrollment of 1,320. These young people have raised about $900 missionary money. The District Cabinet is planning for a big program and a big convention at Fortville next June. Our young people are looking forward with great expectancy to the Wawasee Institute, where they hope to take a large delegation.

Twelve Junior Leagues are reported with a membership of about five hundred. This is one of the most important departments of our work and is sadly neglected.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have done their usual good work raising and expending eleven thousand dollars paying old debts, making improvements, contributing to salaries and other necessary things.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies have moved forward in a fine way. Some new auxiliaries have been organized and their combined offerings total $5,220, making a gain over last year of $628.

Debts Paid.—The following charges have paid debts totaling $9,305; Lapel, $3,000; Grace Church, Anderson, $2,000; High Street Church, Muncie, $1,000; Noble Street Church, Anderson, $800; Perkinsville, $600; Carmel, $300. Several other churches have paid smaller amounts.

Special Gifts.—Mrs. Harriet J. Lindley, of Westfield, widow of the late ex-Senator Thomas J. Lindley, has given a thousand dollars by an annuity bond to the Parent Board of the Foreign Missionary Society.

Rev. J. A. Patterson, our pastor at Eaton, has made a special gift this year to DePauw University of five hundred dollars as an expression of his love and admiration for his Alma Mater.

Hospital.—Muncie District has been asked to raise $5,000 for the new building of our Methodist Hospital. This is about one-half more than was appropriated to any other district in the Conference. An equitable distribution was made to the charges early last summer and sixteen charges have raised their apportionment in full and some with excess. Others have raised in part and all will be brought across early next Conference year. The pledges thus far total $3,311. In addition to this, ex-Governor Durbin, of Anderson, has pledged a thousand dollars. A fine gift of $1,500 has just been announced, coming from Brother and Sister Verling Stanley, of Lapel. This is to endow a room and to be a memorial for their lovely and only daughter, Verlina, who early last winter slipped away from them at the call of the Master. Much credit for this splendid gift is due the pastor, Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, who is rapidly leading this fine people to see the larger and better interests of the Kingdom. Dr. T. J. Johnson, now the field secretary, has been most efficient and helpful in bringing a number of our charges across. The hospital authorities are anxious for his reappointment.

Revivals and Membership.—A few splendid revivals have been held during the year. The pastors report 230 weeks spent in revival meetings. More than 1,100 have been converted and reclaimed, and 1,094 received into the church. The most extensive revivals were at First Church, Anderson; Indiana Avenue, Anderson; Lapel, Pendleton, Albany, Fortville, Gaston, Jolietville, and Yorktown. While we have taken this large number into the church the net increase in membership will probably not be more than 400. Some of our leading churches last year reported the non-resident members in the resident column. This will be embarrassing to the pastor this year as it will show a large apparent loss when there was an actual gain.

E. B. Westhafer, Conference Evangelist, reports 286 sermons and addresses, nearly 400 conversions, renewals and consecrations. He supplied Hartford City Circuit two and a half months greatly to the delight and profit of that people. He desires to be continued in the present relation.

Benevolences and Finance.—Seven charges report all benevolences raised in full. They are as follows: Albany, Hartford City; High Street, Muncie, Lapel, New Burlington, Noblesville, and Summitville Circuit. First Church, Noblesville, and High Street, Muncie, will report considerably above their apportionments on Foreign Missions. Twenty-three report an increase over last year. Some will pull even. Three or four persist in pulling down. The totals will show a large increase over last year.

Thirty-six charges out of forty adopted the disciplinary plan in full or in part. We hope next year to have it fully installed in all our churches. Failures need not occur anywhere if we put on an intensive educational program as provided by the Discipline. The educational program is the key to success. High Street, Muncie, has become a notable and concrete illustration of this important truth. D. T. Stephenson rallied his fine body of men about him and launched this program by getting Dr. Agar, of Chicago, from the Baptist Church to speak to the women in the afternoon and at a banquet for men in the evening. As an expert in putting on a great program, he made some startling revelations and said some startling things. This fine awakening was followed in a few days by a half dozen laymen speaking to the congregation Sunday morning. A little later, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, of New York, another expert on big programs, came and spoke Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Harry B. Dixon, of New York, made the climatic address Sunday morning, March 18. At the close of this address 125 men came about the chancel for a prayer of consecration and gave themselves to the task of the every member canvass. After lunching together in the church, they went out under the direction of captains and came triumphantly in with pledges which totalled between twelve and thirteen thousand dollars, and when the canvass is completed it will reach fifteen thousand. This will be five or six thousand dollars in excess of their previous pledges. Their pledges on benevolences went from two thousand to four.

As we are dealing in big things and speaking in large terms, I must say a few things about First Church, Anderson. This is rapidly becoming one of the great churches of Methodism. Their campaign has been conducted in quite a different way, but need not be any the less successful. Dr. J. W. Potter, coming to us as a new man, has taken hold with a master hand. He has organized a great tithing band and started at the right place, with the Official Board. They are planning to increase their budget, not by hundreds, but by thousands. Their reports this year will not show the great advance made except in membership. The Northwestern Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is to meet in this church next October. High Street, Muncie, and First Church, Anderson, are to be classed among the outstanding churches of Methodism. The salary increase in these two churches, including this year, will be one thousand dollars.

District Meetings.—Our people have been greatly heartened and the work advanced by the outstanding District Meetings. The first was held in High Street with the pastors and District Stewards. Along with important business and planning for the year, a brief efficiency program was rendered. The Epworth League Convention convened at Albany in June. This brought together a choice body of young people who are quite alive to religious interests. Mr. George Borders, of Hartford City, is the wide awake District President.

The four days Missionary Training Conference began at High Street, Muncie, September 21. This was put on by Dr. James M. Taylor and the two missionary secretaries, Drs. Frank Mason North and S. Earl Taylor, of New York. This brought together more than thirty returned missionaries, four bishops, the above named secretaries, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, and other prominent workers. Many of our Conference men from outside the district joined us, and it was the general expressed opinion that it was the greatest Conference of the kind ever put on in the Middle West. We are still living in the atmosphere of those days.

We immediately entered upon a follow-up campaign in the interest of benevolences. This was managed by Dr. H. A. Musser, of India, as team leader, assisted by Rev. Compton, of South America, and Rev. O'Farrel, of Africa, and the pastors of the district. By this means we reached all our churches in an educational and inspirational way.

The fourth of December was fixed as Settlement Day and Evangelistic Conference, held at First Church, Anderson. Nearly all the pastors and many of the District Stewards were present and reported encouragingly on ministerial support, benevolences and revivals. The evangelistic note was sounded and fires kindled.

The District Conference convened at Lapel, March 5, 6, and 7. Rev. P. E. Greenwalt and his people made arrangements fine enough to take care of an Annual Conference. Lapel has the finest rural church I know of in Methodism. The church is big, but it was none too big for the crowds. The program was heavy. The days were full of interest and enthusiasm. Bishop Nicholson thrilled the great audience, and the people on every hand said, "We like our new Bishop." Greater Efficiency in the Church was stressed in the addresses of Dr. Mills, of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension; Dr. John Lowe Fort, of the Commission on Finance; Mrs. H. Olive Cady, Missionary from China; Dr. R. J. Wade, District Superintendent of Goshen District; and Dr. W. F. Switzer, District Superintendent of Greencastle District. Dr. Frank L. Loveland, pastor Meridian Street Church, Indianapolis, fittingly climaxed this fine Conference. The Conference licensed to preach, John W. Borders and Kenneth Maynard, and recommended James L. Williams and Fred R. Hill for admission on trial into this Conference.

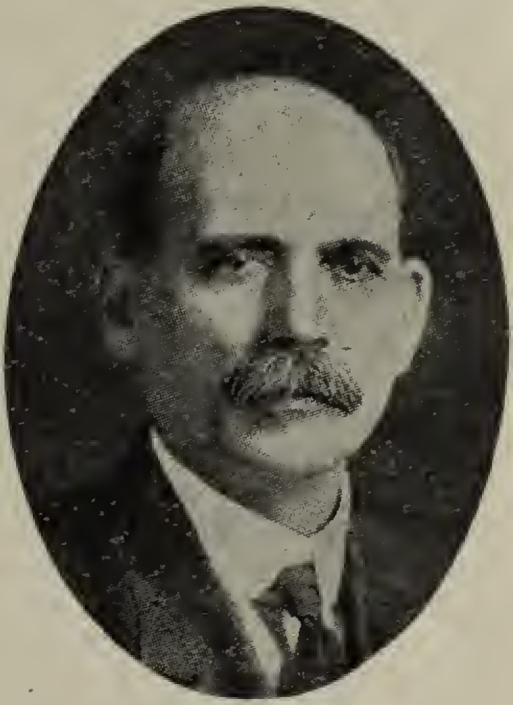
A Final Word.—I have only taken time to give a summary report of our doings this year. The Recording Angel alone has taken note of every detail. The days have been full of toil and anxiety. The brotherly and fraternal spirit of the pastors and people have helped somewhat to lighten the burdens. These pastor preachers have put their best service into these toiling days. They have dared to go forth on the battle line and rebuke sin and preach righteousness, temperance, and a judgment to come. It is good to be a herald of the Cross these days and see the mighty forces of the enemy fall back. The martyr spirit of our fathers is being revived.

"Faith of our fathers! living still
  In spite of dungeon, fire and sword:
O, how our hearts beat high with joy
  Whene'er we hear that glorious word!
Faith of our fathers! Holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!"

The loyal laymen are taking their stand beside the pastor around the sacrificial altar. Intense days are these. Never was there such a demand for a virile ministry. We must meet the call of the hour. We devotedly link our faith, our love, our lives with the loyal laity for the speedy coming of His Kingdom.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.



Somerville Light.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers of North Indiana Conference: At the close of my eighth year in the District Superintendency, and in the thirty-fifth year of my ministry, I am glad to report victory for myself in personal experience and life and good progress for the cause of Christ as represented by the Methodism of Richmond District. The meeting of the pastors and District Stewards was called April 25 so that the program for the year could be put into form before the opening of the General Conference. Upon his return from General Conference, the District Superintendent found that the 39 loyal, aggressive pastors with certain of the optimistic progressive laymen had been faithful to their trust and every interest had been safeguarded. 34 of the 39 pastors appointed at Fort Wayne remained with their charges throughout the year. In June, W. C. Howard, pastor at Shirley, transferred to the Presbyterian Church and took a church in Iowa. Brother Fred Chelan, pastor of the Christian Church in Hagerstown, made a like transfer and took charge of affairs in Shirley. In late July the health of our highly esteemed Brother Silas L. Cates, of Newcastle, gave way and he was obliged to flee for his life to Boulder, Colorado. He has found new strength and is now ready to resume pastoral work. September 3 Brother W. W. Wiant, of Fortville, was appointed to Newcastle. Brother Wiant has done first-class work. September 1, J. H. Richardson was released from Modoc to attend school at DePauw University. C. E. Smith took charge September 10 and has met with good success. September 3, E. M. Dunbar was taken from Pennville to Fortville. A. F. Hogan was transferred from the Indiana Conference and stationed at Pennville September 15. He is doing good work and the people are enthusiastic for his return. In October, Raymond H. Stone was released from the Willow Branch charge. He did good, earnest work, but on account of failing health, felt that he was not equal to the ministerial task. Brother M. R. Peirce, one of our retired ministers, took the charge and gave good service to the close of the year. The parsonage homes have been comparatively free from serious illness. The home of Brother Roahrig, pastor at Salamonia, has been the marked exception. From the late fall time to the present Mrs. Roahrig has been greatly afflicted. Dr. Milton Mahin, for several decades one of the outstanding men of this Conference, for many years in honorable retirement, passed quietly to the Church Triumphant from his home in Newcastle, October 7. Funeral services in charge of Pastor Wiant and the District Superintendent were conducted in the Newcastle Church, October 10. About 30 members of the Conference, several of whom assisted in the services, were in attendance. Brothers

G. H. Hill, F. G. Browne, Sylvester Billheimer, M. R. Peirce, and R. T. Laslie constitute the present list of retired ministers on this district. Rev. M. A. Harlan is in the Supernumerary Relation and had his home at Union City. Two of our parsonage homes have been gladdened by the coming of sweet babies. Brother and Sister Mitchel, of Kennard, and Brother and Sister Shipley, of Maxwell, are the happy parents.

General Survey of the Work of 1916-17.—The Sunday schools, eighty-four in number, are constantly improving in organization and efficiency. The total enrollment is a good advance over last year. The Cradle Roll Enrollment is receiving careful attention. The number enrolled at this time is 1,165. The Home Department makes a good gain. Practically all use Methodist literature. With but two or three exceptions, the schools are organized into Missionary Societies. Their offerings for missions total $2,274, which is a gain over last year of $632. In several instances the offering for missions exceeds the local Sunday-school budget. The Sunday-school Constituency Roll is growing rapidly. The Men's Brotherhood and Bible Class movement is gaining momentum week by week. Scores of men are being won to Christ and the Church. Our District Sunday-school Institute was held in Economy, December 5 and 6. The enrollment was large from all over the district. Drs. Bovard and Thompson and Mrs. Bryner were the instructors. The Epworth League Convention held in Union City, June 13 and 14, afforded evidence of the value of this method of instructing and inspiring the young life of a district. Our District Missionary, Brother George D. Lowry, is being supported in an increasingly large and generous manner.

Woman's Work.—The Ladies' Aid Societies, numbering 61, have done an unusually good work expending for new buildings, improvements, pastors' salaries, etc., more than $11,348. This has been a banner year for the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies. The former held a good District Convention in Centerville, in June. The latter held a convention in Fountain City, in October. Their pledge for the year was $2,400. They paid $2,708 and took a pledge of $3,000 for the next year. Both societies followed the conventions with campaigns for the organization of new auxiliaries. Several were organized. The combined offerings of these societies total $5,021, a good gain over last year. A most interesting and inspiring service was held at Pennville, Sunday morning, August 27, on the occasion of the commissioning of Miss Pauline Place, of that charge, to the work assigned her as a representative of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, in Nagasaki, Japan. Many friends from various sections of the district and Conference were in attendance. Mrs. Florence C. Binford, of Greenfield, Conference Secretary, presided. The pastor, Rev. E. M. Dunbar, preached the sermon. Rev. W. A. Griest, of Market Street Church, Logansport; a brother-in-law, Dr. W. H. Hickman, of Terre Haute, and the District Superintendent participated in the services. What a day for the town of Pennville! What a day for the immediate family! What a day for the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, our Lord! What an investment of a fine, cultured, devoted young life!

The Disciplinary Financial Plan.—The District Stewards adopted the plan and through the District Superintendent and pastors sent their endorsement down to the charges. The effect of this action has been salutary. 34 of the 39 charges have adopted and are working the plan. Five charges are still answering the question, "Have the directions of the Discipline for raising supplies for the support of the ministry been carried out?" "In part." The Disciplinary Financial Plan, with its by-products, is capable of remaking the life of the church of to-day and its educational program paving the way for a larger, richer, more efficient life in the church of to-morrow.

Salaries.—The people on the Richmond District are coming to see that a ministry able to meet the demands of to-day must receive a support in keeping with the conditions and requirements of the day. 19 charges advanced salaries at the beginning of the year. 15 advanced at the beginning of last year. Others have indicated an advance for next year, viz: Centerville, $100; Charlottesville, $100; Economy, $100; Fountain City, $200; Hagerstown, $100; Lewisville, $400; Losantville, $200; Lynn, $100; Markleville, $100; Newcastle, $100; Portland, $200; Richmond, First, $400; Richmond, Grace, $200; Union City, $100; Winchester, $300; Winchester Ct., $100. At the Settlement Day Meeting, in Economy, December 5, which meeting was addressed in fine fashion by Dr. J. A. Beatty, of the Muncie District, the reports showed about 85 per cent of pastors' salaries paid to date. An interesting sidelight upon the Country Church Proposition appears at the point of advance in salaries. Of the total advance of $4,635 in two years, $3,285 is to the credit of country churches. When the people in the country church, able to do anything they please, make up their minds that it is better to pay up than to shut up, they have practically solved the country church problem.

Church in Action Campaign.—This campaign, planned by the District Executive Committee, the chairmen and secretaries of the six divisions, the Missionary Secretary, Dr. U. S. A. Bridge, and the District Superintendent, was the most successful of any with which I have ever been identified. Dr. J. M. Taylor, of New York, with seven returned missionary helpers gave us full time from the date of the Central Convention, September 24, to the last meeting, held October 11. Dr. John Lowe Fort, of the Commission on Finance, also rendered valuable assistance in the opening of the campaign. Every church in the district was visited. The people responded with an attendance totaling over 21,000.

Buildings and Improvements.—The courageous people at Spartansburg on the Lynn charge, with a membership of 64, completed a fine modern church costing $12,000. Dr. W. D. Parr, who never fails, had charge of the dedicatory services and, of course, secured good, reliable subscriptions, sufficient to take care of all obligations. E. C. Hallman, the popular pastor, is closing his second year with the work well in hand. Benevolences more than full, with all other claims met. His return is urgently requested with another increase in salary. This advances the salary to $1,200 and house. The old church at Pennville, A. F. Hogan, pastor, has been razed to the ground and the contract let for a thoroughly up-to-date plant, to cost, when completed, in the neighborhood of $15,000. At Markleville, O. P. Van Y, pastor, a new parsonage, costing $2,200, has been built and paid for. This charge two years ago paid a salary of $610. This year $800 and has advanced to $900 for next year. The benevolences are paid in full. The Willow Branch charge, M. R. Peirce, pastor, closed its first year in a very creditable manner, claims for ministerial support met in full, benevolences at high water mark, good revival and a parsonage purchased for occupancy next year. Redkey, C. B. Croxall, pastor, improved the church and parsonage at a cost of $2,100. This gives them one of the most beautiful auditoriums in the district. The auditorium of the Greefield church, O. A. Trabue, pastor, was frescoed and the property otherwise improved at an expense of $1,052. The Winchester Circuit Church properties, B. H. Franklin, pastor, have been improved at an expense of $770. The Parker charge, C. B. Sweeney, pastor, has expended for church improvements and furnishings $630. Newcastle, W. W. Wiant, pastor, $757. Economy, R. C. Ballard, pastor, improved both church and parsonage properties at a cost of $620. Millgrove, A. J. Duryee, pastor, has completed payment for new church at the head of the circuit and improved the other churches at a cost of $480. Other improvements are as follows: Dunkirk, B. Kendall, pastor, $280; Winchester, H. S. Nickerson, $240; Union City, L. J. Naftzger, $220; Losantville, W. O. Power, $287; Williamsburg, Louis Ulmer, pastor, $200; Portland Circuit, H. Lacy, $200. This is for additional ground adjacent to the Oak Grove Church lot which is to be set in order by a landscape artist. Trees are to be set out, a well driven and a parking place for automobiles provided. The church building is to be so improved as to be in perfect keeping with its surroundings. Indeed, everything done to make this a modern country church plant. No serious country church problems where the people and pastor have such a vision as this. Fountain City, Leroy Huddleston, $154; Maxwell, F. A. Shipley, $151; Farmland, J. S. Phillips, $150; Hagerstown, A. C. Wischmier, $131; Ridgeville, R. H. Wehrly $115; and numerous smaller improvements aggregating $42,388.

Debts Paid.—Union City, Dr. L. J. Naftzger, pastor, heads the list with $3,701, which frees his beautiful church from all indebtedness and makes this one of the very desirable charges of the Conference. Dr. Naftzger's return for the fifth year is urged with an advance in salary. Portland, A. S. Preston, pastor, $2,500; Dr. Preston has given this church a good constructive pastorate which enables it to face a new and better day. Winchester, H. S. Nickerson, pastor, $1,000. Cambridge City, R. C. Jones, pastor, $716; Dunkirk, B. Kendall, pastor, $700; Richmond, First Church, H. C. Harmon, pastor, $600; this church has had an unusually good year and faces the future with hope and courage. A substantial advance in salary is officially announced. Shirley, Fred Chelan, pastor, $400; Redkey, C. B. Croxall, pastor, $300; Pennville, A. F. Hogan, $160; McCordsville, C. W. Anderson, $100; Fountain City, Leroy Huddleston, $75. A total of $11,074. The Methodists of this district own property valued at $730,720, with a present indebtedness of $20,865.

Benevolences.—If the pastor's reports to the Conference Treasurer coincide with their annual reports to me, 38 of the 39 charges in the district have pulled up on apportioned benevolences. The charge which failed to pull up paid all of its apportionments in full. It appears from this showing that the Richmond District is within a hair's breadth of the distinction achieved by Goshen District last year. Every benevolence column shows an increase over last year. The gain in apportioned benevolences $2,749, and others in proportion. Total gain $4,697. Total for Disciplinary Benevolences as indicated by Dr. Hollingshead, of the Commission on Finance, $16,726. For all causes, at home and abroad, the people of this district gave this year $143,821. The average contribution per member ranges from $5.21 in the Salamonia charge to $91.47 on the Lynn charge. I am glad to report a special gift on the part of Mrs. Martha Davis, of Farmland, who presented to the Board of Foreign Missions a good farm of 92 acres, lying in this garden spot of the State of Indiana. How fine it is that some of the people called Methodists are learning to make all they can, save all they can, and give all they can!

Evangelism and Membership.—Personal, public, periodic, and protracted evangelism have all been emphasized. Pastors have in the main been their own evangelists. 836 conversions have been reported. Winchester Circuit leads with 53; Losantville, 41; Lewisville, Spiceland, and Willard Branch, 40 each; Centerville, 37; Modoc, 35; Dunkirk, 29; Portland, 28; Portland Circuit, Redkey, and Ridgeville, 30 each; Economy, 27; Farmland and Pennville, 25 each; Maxwell, 21; Shirley, 20, and other charges from 10 to 3. Although the conversions this year have not equaled last year, the accessions to the churches outnumbered last year. The district has made 10 per cent gain in membership.

Church Literature.—Methodist literature is in use in all of the Sunday schools of this district. The Western Christian Advocate list falls just a few subscriptions below last year. This state of affairs must not long exist. It certainly cannot. The Epworth Herald list shows an advance over last year.

The Methodist Episcopal Hospital Campaign.—This campaign was carefully planned for by the same district organization which conducted the church in active campaign in behalf of the benevolences, assisted by Dr. T. J. Johnson, our efficient Conference Hospital Secretary. The period decided upon was from January 28 to February 25. The Chairmen and Secretaries, with the District Missionary Secretary, marshalled the forces in fine form. The Conference Hospital Secretary was constantly in the field cooperating with district superintendent and pastors. Dr. C. S. Wood, Superintendent of the Hospital, religiously met the appointments assigned to him. All pulled hard and pulled together. The churches of the district gave good response and on the night of February 25 the reports came in, showing that not only the $3,309 apportioned to the district had been subscribed, but also an additional $708.55, bringing the total to $4,017.55. $723.05 of this amount paid in cash, and every charge subscribing its apportionment at least in full, while 26 charges went beyond the apportionment.

This is not all. On March 24 the Conference Secretary secured an additional $500 from Brother Jerry Woods, a princely layman of Knightstown, given in memory of his daughter and niece. This raises the total to $4,517.55. An excess of $1,208.55.

District Conference.—The District Conference of the Richmond District was held in the Bradley Methodist Episcopal Church, Greenfield, March 5, 6, and 7. Thirty-eight of the thirty-nine pastors were present, the one absentee being at the bedside of his wife, who was dangerously ill. There was a fair representation from the ranks of the laymen. The pastor, Brother O. A. Trabue, with his efficient committees, had every detail perfectly in hand. The program was of Annual Conference size and was practically carried out to the letter. All reports were good and indicated progress. Four young men were licensed to preach and three men recommended for admission to the Annual Conference. Strong resolutions were passed with reference to the pursuance of the course of study for local preachers. Following a brief, pointed address by R. A. Morrison, of Elkhart, enthusiastic endorsement was given the larger plan for a State wide movement looking toward a substantial enlargement of the Endowment Fund for retired ministers. Dr. John Lowe Fort, representing the Commission on Finance, gave the address on Monday night. Dr. E. C. Wareing, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, delivered a masterful address to a large audience Tuesday afternoon. The program of the day reached the climax at night, when our own Bishop Nicholson gave a great message to a most representative congregation. I need not say that both preachers and laymen were more than pleased, both with this statesman-like deliverance and the fine spirit of the Bishop of the Chicago Area. W. W. Wiant was drafted Wednesday forenoon to deliver the address for the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Dr. Newhall, because of illness, being unable to be present. His address was strong and well received by the people. Superintendent Dr. C. S. Wood represented the Hospital in the afternoon, followed by Dr. T. J. Johnson, who gave a brief report of the Hospital campaign. At 2.30 o'clock, Mrs. H. Olin Cady, of Evanston, Ill., addressed the Conference on the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. It was an inspiring and helpful address. The Conference closed Wednesday night, with an address by Dr. E. L. Mills, who represents the Department of Frontier Work of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

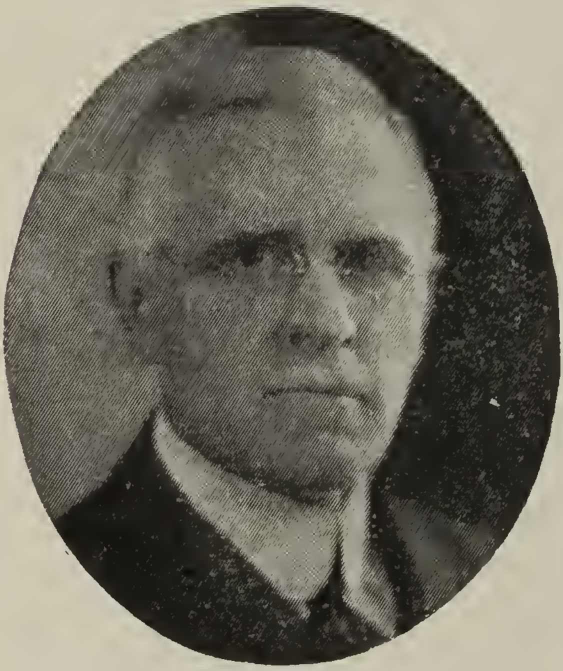
Closing Words.—The faithful pastors of Richmond District have the modern day vision of the work of the Kingdom and are toiling hard to keep it before their people. God's blessing is upon them and their choice families. As for myself, I think I can truthfully say, I have passed through a year of the severest strain of any in my ministry thus far. I thank God for these days of toil and care, and face the future with eyes upon the Head of the Church, who ever leads onward and upward, and with ears sensitive to the song in my heart.

"I know not where God's islands lift
Their fronded palms in air.
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

WABASH DISTRICT.

M. S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Mr. President and Brethren: Wabash District began the year with a program sufficiently intensive, comprehensive, and suggestive to keep every preacher and layman at his maximum of usefulness, which betokened the achievements we have to relate.



M. S. Marble.

Pastoral Oversight.—In the final adjustment of the appointments one year ago, every charge had a pastor except Swayzee. T. S. Haddock, left without appointment to attend school, being free for two months, was employed to supply Swayzee for that time. His services were very acceptable. In the meantime, A. M. Wickman, a student at Garrett Biblical Institute, was employed on April 29 to finish the year, his services to begin on June 13. This he has done.

C. C. Farmer (supply) vacated Bippus Circuit on August 14, 1916. Leslie O. Winslow was appointed to Bippus on September 19, 1916.

W. F. Buckner, pastor at Andrews, withdrew from the ministry and membership of the church on August 31, 1916. On October 4, 1916, I recommended the transfer of Lewis H. Ice from the Indiana Conference and his appointment to the Andrews charge, which was done.

On September 21, 1916, Dr. W. F. Smith wrote me that his Official Board had on that day consented to his release from the pastorate of the Huntington charge in exchange for Dr. L. A. Swisher, pastor at Chattanooga, Tenn., and that he would vacate the charge about October 11 or 12, which was done. Dr. Swisher's first public service as pastor at Huntington was rendered on October 22, 1916.

On August 21 I consented to the release of C. G. Yeomans from the pastorate at LaFontaine in order that he might become pastor at Summitville, in the Muncie District. On the same day, by telegraph, I tendered the LaFontaine charge to M. O. Lester, of the California Conference and pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church in San Francisco, Cal., who accepted the same the next day by wire from San Francisco, subject to the approval of the Bishops in charge, his service to begin on September 24, 1916.

On November 8, 1916, while returning from the burial of my father, which occurred at Rising Sun, Ind., on that day I was intercepted by telegram from Bishop Nicholson, inviting me to see him in Chicago. On meeting him the next morning, he gave me official notification that Wabash First Church was without a pastor and that I should proceed at once to supply the vacancy. I assembled the Official Board on Monday, the 13th. After carefully canvassing the situation, with practical unanimity, the Board invited Dr. T. M. Guild to serve their church for the remainder of the year. The pastoral oversight of all other charges has continued without interruption during the year.

Building and Improvements.—On January 28, 1917, Dr. W. D. Parr dedicated our beautiful new church at Andrews, valued at $15,000. After a suitable address by Dr. W. F. Smith, the District Superintendent laid the corner stone for a new church at Uniondale on June 18, 1916. Within a short time this church will be ready for dedication, at a cost of $15,000.

Plans are laid for a new church at Silver Lake. A new site has been purchased for a new church in Sweetser, at a cost of $1,000—the church building to cost about $10,000.

The Churubusco congregation sold their building for school purposes, purchased a better location and will build a $12,000 church this summer.

Improvements off-setting natural depreciation of property values have been made. A conservative estimate of our property valuation is $560.000. Careful Boards of Trustees see that it is kept in good repair and well insured. On Sunday morning, March 4, 1917, fire injured the interior of our excellent church building in Warren. The organ, installed one year ago, was practically destroyed. This loss was covered by insurance, and with additional money the building will soon be in a better form for service than before.

Extensive improvements to the amount of $2,500 were made on Grace Church, Marion. By invitation, the District Superintendent dedicated the building on December 17, 1916, with appropriate ceremonies. The audience was large and all were happy in having the improvement, and also over the fact that the pastor, David Wells, and his excellent Board of Trustees had so managed the finances that every dollar was covered by good subscription without public appeal.

Debts have been paid aggregating $23,000.

Group and District Meetings.—Pastors and District Stewards met at the Wabash First Church on May 4, when the business of the District Stewards was transacted in a very satisfactory manner and a general survey of the work for the year was made.

Our District Epworth League Convention occurred at Columbia City on June 27 and 28, at which time we were honored with the first official visit of our new Bishop Nicholson within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference. His inspiring address was greatly appreciated by the devoted Epworthians of the district.

Our district was splendidly represented in the Wawasee Epworth League Institute.

Two excellent Country Life Institutes were held—one at Majenica, on August 3, 4, and 5, and one at Point Isabel, on October 21 and 22. These Institutes were largely attended. The addresses delivered by C. M. McConnell, Dr. Sweet, Prof. Z. M. Smith, G. E. Garrison, Mr. E. E. Eikenbary, together with valuable service rendered by local talent, gave these Institutes high inspirational and educational value.

Lagro entertained the District Ministerial Association in their beautiful new church on October 10 and 11. At this meeting Dr. John Lowe Fort honored and inspired us with his first visit to the district, representing the General Conference Commission on Finance. At the urgent request of the brethren, the District Superintendent delivered his address on "Completing the Call for Larger Service," in place of Dr. E. C. Wareing, who was detained on account of Mrs. Wareing's illness.

Settlement Days were observed in Marion, Huntington, and Columbia City—Huntington sustaining her magnificent record for hospitality by serving us luncheon in their dining room, while Columbia City maintained "the good old fashioned way" by graciously welcoming us to their homes. As a result, the Disciplinary Financial Plan is better understood and is being used with increasing success. The Every Member Canvass was made in practically all our charges in the month of March. Laymen are learning that the District Superintendent must know what the preacher's support is to be for the ensuing year, prior to the Annual Conference according to the Discipline, if they are to secure satisfactory results.

An excellent and largely attended District Conference was held at Warren on March 6, 7, and 8. A fire in our church on the Sunday morning preceding made it impossible to hold the Conference there. We were pleased to accept the generous hospitality of the First Christian Church in that city.

Among the distinguished speakers was our dear Bishop Nicholson, who won all our hearts by his fraternal spirit, quickened our intellects by his splendid ideals, and stirred our emotions with his impassioned eloquence.

The Campaign for Benevolence.—This campaign was conducted by dividing the district into eight groups with the following men for leaders: I. R. Godwin, J. O. Campbell, F. P. Morris. W. E. Murray. C. M. Vawter, G. E. Hughes, J. J. Fischer, and A. D. Burkett. Several mailed daily reports and the final tabulation of some was exceptionally fine. The campaign was great. The results are greater. Our advance for Disciplinary Benevolences is in advance of $3,000. For all Benevolences in advance of $3,500. We want to make it plain to all our great Benevolent Boards that Wabash District is dependable.

Women's Organizations.—Our Ladies' Aid Societies deserve honorable mention. Our Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society have been unusually active and have contributed largely to the advance movement in this district. We have promising organizations among our country people.

Revivals.—Special evangelistic services have occurred in every congregation with corresponding spriritual profit and moral uplift. Moral and religious instruction has been freely dispensed in our Junior Leagues and all our Sunday schools, in many of which we have large organized Adult Bible Classes taught by competent instructors. All this presents an inviting field for every-day evangelism.

Literature.—Our people, realizing that the Church needs Churchmen no less than the State needs Statesmen, are subscribing for and reading the Western Christian Advocate in increasing numbers.

Methodist Hospital Building Fund.—The District Superintendent, under the direction of the District Conference one year ago, apportioned $3,500 to the charges on the basis fixed by the Commission on Finance. The following report their amounts secured in cash and good subscriptions: Home Park, Marion, Mentone, Larwill, North Manchester, and Columbia City. The last District Conference adopted the following: "We felicitate those charges which have met their apportionment for the Methodist Hospital Building Fund and we will endeavor to have the same fully met in every charge this year."

Personal Mention.—G. E. Hughes, held in high esteem, closes his second year at Akron.

L. H. Ice deserves special mention for excellent work at Andrews.

L. O. Winslow is happy in the high favor of the people on the Bippus charge, who will be disappointed if he is not returned.

Burket, three point work, support advanced to $1,000 and paid to J. H. McNary, who more than earned every penny of it.

The far vision J. C. Lawburgh has laid the foundation of a modern church enterprise at Churubusco.

F. P. Johnson has improved church buildings and had a good year at Churubusco Circuit.

Columbia City has prospered under the efficient administrative ability of J. T. Bean, whose return is eagerly desired.

Under the administration of J. J. Fred, we have the promise of improved financial management at Fairmount.

For three years Gas City has pursued a policy which this year, under the leadership of the pastor, I. R. Godwin, terminated in freeing the congregation from debt incurred by improvements and current expenses.

Huntington closes the year harmoniously—debt reduced, apportioned benevolences paid in full, all current expense bills paid with a handsome balance in the treasury, good revival, and congregation unanimous for Dr. Swisher's return.

W. E. Murray has done a good work on the Huntington Circuit and his return is requested.

Two years ago A. L. Weaver faced an annoying debt at Jonesboro. His resolute style, inspired hope and liberality, and a debtfree church will welcome his return.

M. O. Lester in five short months has done a fine work at LaFontaine.

M. B. Graham, skillful in details, prompt in action, led his people in one of the best revivals Lagro has ever experienced, and closes another of his fruitful years with apportionments paid in full.

Larwill, at the last Annual Conference, assured the Superintendent that the support would be $200 more than they had ever paid. This secured the services of C. M. Vawter, who has had a most successful year and his return is desired and expected.

F. S. Young has had phenomenal success at Liberty Mills, where the support promised was less than $300, with debt of $1,400 and no record for benevolences. Pastor saw his opportunity and had the wisdom to make the most of it. The debt was destroyed, good revivals held, all apportionments for disciplinary benevolences paid in full, pastor and family well and happy.

B. E. Parker, resourceful, energetic, with cumulative strength, closed a successful year at Marion, First Church, with all bills paid, benevolences in advance of any year in the history of the church. Good revival organized and conducted by himself, and a strong invitation to return.

David Wells closes his seventh year at Grace Church, Marion, firmly anchored in the affections of the people. Under his administration the church has enjoyed an era of unusual growth and prosperity. Material improvements this year make this one of the best equipped churches in the Conference.

C. A. Modlin, a man of good pulpit and evangelistic ability, repaired Morris Chapel, which suffered tornado damage one year ago, installed a new piano at Morris, finished parsonage and builded a garage in Marion.

H. G. Robson, a supply, has had a successful year at Home Park.

Imperative repairs and a splendid revival are the visible features of J. W. Gruber's successful year at Ninth Street, Marion.

The services of F. P. Morris have been preeminently satisfactory at Markle.

J. S. Newcombe, conscious of the latent resources of his splendid people, has resolutely held their faces toward the future, which promises an achievement destined to be a most happy surprise for this Conference.

Brother C. M. Bunt has successfully supplied Mount Etna for two years and his people will be grieved if he is not returned for the third year.

The way is open for J. J. Fischer's return to North Manchester, where he has met a difficult situation with outstanding achievements.

Much was expected of C. B. Thomas at Point Isabel and neither Superintendent nor people have been disappointed. He has done all he could and more than many would have done.

Roanoke, after a series of exasperating circumstances through which the people have been patient and self sacrificing, has attained a state of normal growth and prosperity under the careful administration of J. F. Blocker.

Splendid achievement characterizes the indefatigable industry of Arlington Singer at Silver Lake. A new church will be erected next year.

E. A. Hartman closes his second year of earnest, faithful work at Sims.

M. L. Hardingham's services have been highly appreciated at South Whitley.

Swayzee will advance pastoral support to $1,000 for A. M. Wickman, who has supplied the charge this year.

A. D. Burkett is asked to return to Sweetser, where plans are laid for a new church.

R. S. Shaw closes his second year with a new $15,000 church soon to be dedicated at Uniondale and with a fine increase in benevolences.

F. H. Cremean is in excellent favor with the people at Upland, where $1,419 has been paid on old debt, leaving the small sum of $800 yet to be paid.

Van Buren experienced one of the best revivals in its history in which the pastor, J. O. Campbell, was assisted by C. A. Modlin.

T. M. Guild makes a good record for Wabash First Church, where his services for another year are in demand.

Additional real estate property has been acquired by our Wabash Middle Street people; all think that the work is taking on new life under the pastorate of C. E. White, and the prospect for the coming year is promising.

Better shepherding care has never been given the Wabash, Wabash Street congregation than that rendered by J. L. Gillard for whose return I have a most earnest petition.

G. B. Work closes the ninth year of a remarkable pastorate at Warren and a conspicuous service of 39 years in the effective ranks of our ministry. Was it not for defective hearing he might continue in effective service, with success, for years to come.

W. B. Hardy has met a large responsibility on the Warren Circuit, where property has been improved, benevolences presented, pastoral work rendered, and special meetings held at all the appointments.

J. W. Cain, in addition to his duties as General Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, has rendered the pastor of First Church, Marion, valuable assistance, prior to, during, and succeeding the revival.

Only access to the records in heaven will reveal the invaluable services of E. L. Jones and wife in the Superintendency of the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged in Warren, Ind.

A Word Personal.—At the request of Dr. J. B. Hingeley, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, I delivered the Anniversary Address in behalf of the Board before the Nebraska Conference, at Hastings, Nebraska, on September 13, 1916. Again on the 15th, I addressed the same Conference. On September 27, I addressed the Michigan Conference at Grand Rapids, Michigan, being granted the courtesy of the entire evening. On October 5, I addressed the Southern Illinois Conference, at Robinson, Illinois, in the evening and again on the following forenoon. The high standard reached and put in practice by my own Conference was the source of much strength to me in meeting these great responsibilities.

I have attended all the meetings of the Board of Conference Claimants and am glad to be vitally related to a great movement which promises a stronger ministry for the increased responsibilities of the church of to-morrow.

I cannot express my appreciation of the generous hospitality of the preachers, their wives and children who have so graciously welcomed me to their homes, and with thoughtful consideration have provided for my comfort, which is no small contribution to the efficiency of the Wabash District.

(b) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

After much prayer and deliberation your Committee on Aggressive Evangelism submits the following report:

"In 1729, two young men in England reading the Bible saw that they could not be saved without holiness and followed after it and incited others so to do. In 1737 they saw likewise, that men are justified before they are sanctified, but still holiness was their object. God then thrust them out to raise a holy temple. This was the rise of Methodism."

"The Methodist Episcopal Church has always believed that the only infallible proof of the legitimacy of any branch of the Christian church is its ability to seek and to save the lost, and to disseminate the pentecostal spirit and life."

This is the standard by which we judge ourselves and others. It follows, then, that aggressive evangelism with us must have for its

Aim,

First, The conversion of sinners.

By this we mean a conscious realization of the peace of forgiveness, the thrill of a new love implanted in the heart, and the joy of a new filial relation which causes the soul to cry out, "Abba, Father." No conversion is complete without the witness of the Spirit. All this must come by faith in Jesus only.

Second, The reclaiming of backsliders.

By this we mean that those who have fallen from grace must be brought to confession of their sins and a rededication of their lives to God unto a conscious restoration to God's favor through the merits of Christ by faith.

Third, The baptism of the Holy Spirit for all believers.

"They were all filled with the Holy Spirit" at Pentecost. By this we mean that experience which enables church members to continue steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship; to administer their earthly possessions as stewards so that it might be said of them that "they parted them to all men as every man had need," to "eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart," "praising God and having favor with all the people and to see the Lord adding to the church daily such as are being saved."

Fourth, To bring up the children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

An aggressive evangelism which does not attend to this will be most defective. But here two points must be carefully guarded: (1) To so train them that they are not guilty of willful sin; (2) to so instruct them that they are led to surrender themselves to Christ and to trust consciously in him alone for salvation. If we are unsuccessful at the first point, then they must repent and believe the same as adult sinners. If we are unsuccessful at the second point, they will grow up unawakened and unsaved and become a liability, and not an asset, to the church and be lost in the pitfall of baptismal regeneration.

THE NEED.

The one strong minor note in the symphony of our District Superintendents' reports was the decreased number of conversions. With the splendid intellectual and material equipment there ought to be and must be a large increase in the number of souls bowing at the foot of the Cross. The reaction which might have been expected from the great union tabernacle meetings has already set in. Great blessings have resulted from that method in some places, but the reaction is proving almost disastrous. Many so won are with difficulty schooled in the church's methods and do not become a potent working force. The calling of evangelists to individual churches is a plan not so effective as in former years. Indeed, our conviction is clear that the orthodox Methodist method is the most effective, both as to quality and quantity. All methods have their defects, but the use of other methods than the altar method tends to fill our ranks with unconverted members, so that some churches have more ballast than sail and are loaded down to the water line. A beloved and honored minister, now a District Superintendent in Indiana, was once asked, "What is the greatest hindrance to revivals?" He replied, "Our official boards." He did not mean that every official board was a hindrance, but that many boards had so many members who were, that the conviction expressed had resulted. Is it not true that on many seas the gospel ship is officered with unawakened and unsaved men? Where such a condition holds there is need of reorganization by a conscientious pastor, even if it must require heroic action. The finest heroic action would be to pray down on such a board a genuine revival, and if that method could not obtain, then reorganization would be the only alternative. The splendid loyalty of this Conference to the church law prohibiting certain questionable amusements is most commendable and we raise the question as to whether it is not time for us as District Superintendents and pastors to stand by our resolution passed unanimously in 1912. Must we leave it to the evangelists in tabernacle and church meetings to tell the plain truth about these things? Has the offense of the Cross ceased? Nay, verily! "They that will live godly lives in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution."

One historian says of Wesley and his helpers: "Their weapon was the Sword of the Spirit, with which they everywhere hewed down the sturdy Goliaths and the delicate Agags that confronted them. The news of their spiritual prowess spread consternation among the enemies of Christ, though nearly all in the three kingdoms, from drunken gentlemen and drowsy priests, both national and dissenting, down to the unwashed roughs of the ale-houses were arrayed against them. They marched irresistibly on, guided by their illustrious chief, establishing Methodism and quickening the expiring piety of our great fatherland. Surely they did the Lord's work, and it is marvelous in our eyes."

If the pastor shrinks from the toils and perils of faith he must sacrifice the compensations and joys of faith, and those compensations and joys are too precious to be despised.

A Workable Method.

Then, at last, this problem remains for the pastor to settle. He must do the work of an evangelist and make full proof of his ministry. If the difficulties which the individual pastor faces seem to him insurmountable, either because of physical or spiritual limitations, let him prayerfully select some brother pastor and go together to the task in both churches. Or even three pastors might join forces and hold three meetings. Some such arrangement is entirely practical in circuits as well as stations.

We thus emphasize pastoral evangelism as above all other forms which were so admirably discussed in the great handbook of the Methodist Forward Movement issued in 1915, and desire to give our emphatic approval to all the methods there discussed, and to commend it to all our preachers and laymen as a document of incorruptible value.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on the American Bible Society, in our report desire to express our gratitude for the fact that our work in the distribution of the Word of God has gone steadily forward, and as doors open for us we hope and sanguinely expect that our beloved church and those who are joined with us in this great errand for God may carry the Holy Scriptures to the entire world. During the last year we could say that over one million copies of the Bible had been distributed, and we believe our growth for the present year has been even greater.

Notwithstanding the advance of $103 for the Society in our Conference collections of one year ago, we have done better for this year, and we plead with our brethren that they faithfully place this cause before our people, that we may make an additional advance.

We believe that no other period has ever come to us more favorable for calling the people from the sordid thoughts of earth to the best things of the souls of men and the advancement of God's kingdom in the world than this one which has in these last years reached us. When the clash of arms which marks the deadly struggle of nations shall cease and the world's war shall come to an end, we believe that the hearts of men will yearn for the gospel, and there will be a general opening for the introduction of God's Word to the peoples of the entire world; and at this time the Scriptures will be for the healing of the nations, and for this there is no more effectual agency than the American Bible Society.

We assuredly believe with such a vision to inspire us we ought to address ourselves with new zeal to our work and with due prominence place the claims of our Society upon the hearts of our people. No other cause is better than this, and we think that other enterprises of God's people for the redemption of the world receive their motive and purpose from this of which we now speak. Surely, then, if our people hear from us in a fair and earnest appeal, our success will be commensurate with the needs of the Society.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Auditing Accounts submit the following reports:

The cash accounts of the Secretary of the Conference show an overdraft of $38.53.

His books also show bills receivable account as follows:

Hammond Typewriter Company for advertising.......	$5 00
Muncie District, balance on Year Book account........	1 70
Wabash District, balance on Year. Book account.......	13 72
Total	$19 42

We recommend that some action be taken by the Conference to reimburse the Secretary for this overdraft.

We have audited the accounts of the District Superintendents and find them correct.

We have audited the accounts of the Conference Treasurer and find that his cash balance is correct.

We have audited the account of the Treasurer of the Flood Fund and find a balance of $233.13 on interest in the Kokomo Trust Company, which fund we recommend be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards for an Emergency Fund, as ordered by the Conference of 1916. (See page 655 of the Journal.)

The account of the Conference Corporation has been audited and found correct. We have audited the accounts of the Conference Board of Stewards and find a balance of $551.60 carried over from last year.

Upon request of the Conference we make the following recommendations:

We recommend that the bond of the Conference Treasurer be $5,000.

That the bond of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards be $1,000.

That the bond of the Treasurer of the Conference Corporation be $1,000.

We recommend that our Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension next year shall conform to the direction of the Discipline (section 8, paragraph 447), and that the bond of the treasurer be placed at $1,000.

We recommend that the Secretary of the Conference be the custodian of all the bonds.

We further recommend that the pastors, in submitting annual reports to the Treasurer, shall, in making remittances to the various boards, follow the direction of the Discipline (¶ 410, § 6), that the Treasurer may be relieved of a large amount of unnecessary work at the Conference session.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

Recognizing the beautiful and efficient services rendered to our church through the deaconesses who are employed in the various fields, we wish to express our appreciation of their usefulness and urge our ministers to direct the lives of our young women into this office.

We urge our ministers to remember that Miss Angie Godwin, a deaconess of our church, has founded an orphans' home at Greencastle, Indiana, and in every way possible to assist her in this beautiful and much-needed service.

The license of Miss Cora Fales, a deaconess in school at Taylor University, has been renewed.

J. A. Patterson,
J. F. Lutey.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Your Committee on Church Literature recognizes the religious press as one of the most efficient agents in the spread of the truths of the kingdom of God and in molding the characters and fashioning the lives of all our people. We rejoice in the abundance and character of the various publications of our publishing houses and commend both books and periodicals to our people as the very best for the advancement of the church of Christ throughout our domain, and that all Methodists should be urged to use only our own literature in Sunday schools and all other church work. We especially recommend the Western Christian Advocate to our people as one of the best mediums by which an intelligent Methodism may be built up throughout our Conference. We also urge upon all our ministers the importance of securing for their careful reading our great Methodist Review.

We believe that true loyalty to our own periodicals is the one thing essential to building up the church and establishing an intelligent righteousness throughout our Conference, the episcopal area, and the entire Methodism of our country.

R. C. Jones, E. Leese,
E. E. Trippeer, M. Pell,
E. M. Dunbar, R. Shaw.

EDUCATION.

Since the origin of Methodism we have given serious attention to the problems of education. Called to culture mind and heart alike, our church has risen to the task of creating its type of character. To this the academy, the college, and the theological school contribute. We follow him who gave command, "Know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

The Board of Education was established fifty years ago. It is a great gratification to report that our colleges and schools have during the Jubilee period already passed increased their endowment and equipment by the magnificent sum of $17,250,000. Parallel with their financial advance, our educational institutions show a marked increase in attendance. The total enrollment in our colleges and universities registered a gain of 7,061 in the last four years.

The Jubilee appeal of the Board of Education for one million dollars, the income from which shall be used to maintain schools for white persons in the mountains of the South and to supplement efforts on the part of Methodist institutions to provide modest pensions for retired teachers, is worthy of most devoted and enthusiastic support from the entire church.

The service of the Board of Education in long established lines continues to develop steadily and effectively. The Student Loan Fund, derived from Children's Day Collections, has given assistance to nearly 25,000 students; to 2,222 in the last year.

The American University, located at our nation's capital, continues to make such advancement as to gratify our hearts. She now has fifty students taking post-graduate work. There has been an increase in the permanent Endowment Fund of more than $40,000. Lectureships on political economy, literature, and various scientific subjects are being given. The McCabe Lectureship on Missions will be given this coming year. We congratulate the university on her splendid progress and assure the university of our continued interest and deep desire that she might continue to grow.

Eighty years ago DePauw University opened its doors for students. It has been blessed with another successful year under the administration of President Grose. The Freshman Class is the largest in the history of the institution. Nine hundred and sixty-five students are now enrolled. All of these, except thirty-two, are members of some evangelical church.

Seventy-five per cent of the students attend the daily chapel exercises, and the university services are largely attended. The student evangelistic services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Gray, D.D., pastor of Grand Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Missouri. These services greatly deepened the religious life of the students. The M. H. Mendenhall lectures were delivered by Bishop Francis J. McConnell. The attendance at the lectures taxed the capacity of Meharry Hall. Several new members have been added to the faculty, all of whom are members of some church. The Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors at its last meeting authorized the raising of $1,000,000 for buildings and endowment. Of this amount $310,000 has been given for new buildings; one man giving $150,000. One hundred and sixty-six thousand dollars has been subscribed for endowment and a special gift of $3,500, and a farm on annuity worth $20,000, making a total of $646,000 in subscription and cash. Just recently a friend unknown to the public has given $50,000 and two friends $5,000 each to endowment. Three memorial professorships will be established. The first to be known as the John Price Durbin John Chair of Mathematics, the second as John Clark Ridpath Chair of History, and the third as James Whitcomb Riley Chair of English Literature. The movement to establish the professorship in the memory of Mr. Riley has indorsement of the entire Riley family.

Never in the history of the insitution did she need the prayers and hearty cooperation of the Methodists of Indiana as she does now. We recommend as visitor, to succeed himself, Rev. C. E. Line, D.D., and nominate for trustees, W. H. Charles and Hardin Rhoads. We also commend the able work of Rev. C. U. Wade, D.D., Endowment Secretary.

We recommend as visitors the following: For Taylor University, Rev. L. J. Naftzger, D.D.; Drew, Rev. H. S. Nickerson; Garrett, Rev. Sherman Powell; Boston, Rev. C. C. Travis, D.D.

We are greatly heartened at the increasing interest that is being evinced in our theological seminaries. It bodes well for the future of our church when the candidates for our ministry seek a more adequate preparation. We can not too strongly insist on the need in these days for both the broad cultural training of the college and the professional equipment to be obtained by attendance upon either Garrett, Drew, or Boston. Garrett Biblical Institute offers a splendid opportunity on account of the proximity of our Conference for pursuance of theological studies. With the present arrangement of the school year into quarters, our younger men could well spend either the summer or autumn quarter in study there if they can not leave the pastorate for a complete course. We pledge to Dr. Stuart and Dr. F. M. Stone, of our Conference, a hearty good will in their great campaign now in progress for larger funds for buildings and endowment.

Drew Theological Seminary celebrates its semi-centennial this year with a campaign for one million additional endowment and appropriate services at Madison, November 5-7, 1917. Recently a gift of $100,000 has been received for endowing a new chair in the English Bible. New members have been added to the faculty, and the school in every way deserves our co-operation.

Boston University School of Theology is crowded to its doors with men, largely from the Middle West, who are seeking the advantages offered by this progressive institution of ministerial higher education. President Merlin and Dean Birney are determined that the best possible shall be offered to those who seek their doors. To those who would come in touch with the Eastern atmosphere, while combining with it the training of the mind, can do no better than at our Boston School.

Taylor University, situated within the bounds of this Conference, is under control of Methodist laymen. It has reached an enrollment of 350, the largest in its history. Nearly fifty per cent of these are preparing for the Methodist ministry and for the mission field. Six of her students have gone to the mission field since September 1, and nine sailed last year. Her students are entering the Methodist Episcopal Conferences of the United States and preaching the old-time Methodism with its fervor and with results.

We recommend that Rev. R. A. Morrison and Rev. T. M. Hill be elected trustees.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The battle line which represents the kingdom of God on earth is flung around the whole world. The cross of Christ, which is the sign by which the Christian church conquers the enemies of civilization, has been raised in all the lands of the earth. The light which falls upon human pathways from the revelation made through Jesus Christ, our divine Lord, has penetrated the jungles of Africa, where Livingstone died upon his knees in intercession for the souls of those who were in ignorance; it shines upon the mountains and valleys of India, where multitudes are waiting for Christian baptism; it brings hope to the millions of souls in China and Japan and the islands of the seas; it is the only hope for a rational solution of the problems of civilization in war-stricken Europe, and it is the mighty force which has created Christian American civilization. If the nations of Europe had spent the money for the evangelization of the races about them which they now spend every month in war, the world would be a happy home for mankind and we would now be singing around the world, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

But since the church of Jesus Christ has moved slowly in world-wide missions, we behold the devastations of the ruthless hand of war and the utter blindness and folly of man created in the image of God when under the control of the lusts of the flesh and the pride of life. The need of universal Christian brotherhood is apparent. The command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every nation is now seen to be absolutely rational and imperative.

We therefore urge our ministers and all the churches to be very thoughtful and to manifest the utmost consecration and care to provide for the Christian evangelization of the whole world. There should be an advance movement that will insure victory in the coming of universal peace and the salvation of all mankind.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

Because of the disturbing conditions of the world and the increased cost of living, affecting in a special way the Negroes of the South, and because of the much-talked-of and hopeful union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the difference of opinion relative to the Negro race, the Freedmen's Aid Society is confronted with one of the most serious and important problems before the church.

We therefore call upon our ministry to call the attention of our people to the great needs of this most worthy cause and appeal to them to respond more liberally to the increasing needs confronting this society.

We recommend that each pastor observe Lincoln Day anniversary, February 11, 1918, and that the program furnished by the society be presented to our people.

We appreciate the presence of the Rev. Patrick Maveety at our Conference and commend him for his enthusiastic and helpful messages, as well as for the great service that he is rendering the church through this most worthy society.

HOSPITAL.

We, the members of the North Indiana Conference, feel a growing delight in the achievements of the managers of our great hospital enterprise—the completion of the new pavilion, the greatly increased capacity, and the perfection of the surgeries, which gives us an equipment abreast of any in the State. We also support them in the extensive plans that are laid for further development, and with this in view we will do our utmost to raise the full apportionment of ten cents per member in every charge for the sustaining fund, and co-operate heartily in the plan to raise the $21,000 apportioned to our Conference for the erection of new buildings and the perfection of all our hospital facilities.

We commend the administration, especially the Secretary-Superintendent, Dr. Charles S. Woods, for their energy and wisdom in adopting and pushing forward a great campaign and for their careful attention to every minute detail of the affairs of the institution.

We recommend that our people should visit the hospital when in the city of Indianapolis, and that pastors should take selected persons from Epworth League, Sunday school, and church for the inspection of our great plant.

We record our appreciation of the selection of one of our own number, Rev. T. J. Johnson, to assist in securing funds, and pledge him our welcome to our pulpits and our sympathy and co-operation in his work.

The munificent gifts of Verlin Stanley and wife, of Lapel; W. T. Durbin, of Anderson; Jerry Woods, of Knightstown, and others, are hereby recognized and such interest commended to all our people of wealth.

We hereby nominate the Rev. Sherman Powell and A. B. Cline to succeed themselves as trustees for a period of three years, their terms to expire with the Conference session of 1920.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submit the following:

1. We rejoice in the success of the home as manifested in the health and happiness of those persons who have been admitted thereto and by the excellent report of the financial condition of the home.

2. We recommend the Rev. E. L. Jones and wife for their efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the institution and recommend that the Rev. E. L. Jones be reappointed as Superintendent and Financial Secretary for another year.

3. We recommend that the committee apportion to the charges of the Conference for this benevolence the sum of ten cents per member as the sustaining fund.

C. U. Wade,
Franklin A. Le Master,
W. T. Arnold.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

The Committee on Parsonage and Furniture is gratified to report an increase in the number of parsonages. There are now some 221 parsonages, valued at $535,000, leaving only about twenty-five charges without a parsonage.

The pastors of the Conference greatly appreciate this consideration on the part of our laymen.

We recommend that each District Superintendent in the first Quarterly Conference shall call the attention of the trustees of our parsonage that it is now the policy of our stronger Conferences to provide the larger and heavier furnishings, and that we recommend this to be the program of this Conference.

We further recommend that where, as in these days of our growing Methodism, it is often necessary to divide certain charges, with parsonage property held in common, wherever it is thus necessary, we believe that each society will have its interests properly guarded, in fairness to all.

CHARLES W. SHOEMAKER, R. W. ROGERS,
T. M. HILL, B. E. JONES,
C. B. SWEENEY, J. O. CAMPBELL.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, beg leave to submit the following report:

Believing that the teaching of the Holy Scriptures is the only successful way of imparting adequate knowledge concerning the observance of the Sabbath day and the prevention of Sabbath desecration, we urge all our ministers to preach frequently on the subject of Sabbath observance and to call the attention of the people to the fact that, while "the Sabbath was made for man," license has not been granted to misinterpret that scriptural utterance, nor to desecrate the Sabbath day by unnecessarily patronizing Sunday newspapers, trains, and commercial business, and indulging in Sabbath visiting and pleasure trips.

We wish to commend not only our State senators and representatives who in the last session of the Legislature used their influence and votes, but also our governor, the Hon. James P. Goodrich, who by his signature and veto respectively outlawed the licensed liquor traffic and Sunday moving picture business.

We also commend the prosecutors and public officers for their enforcement of those laws since their enactment, and the courts for the punishing of unscrupulous public offenders.

We reaffirm our conviction that all disputes between labor and capital can be settled temporarily on the basis of patriotism, but permanently on the basis of Christian brotherhood only; and we also urge our people to remember these principles and thereby order their conduct of life.

We deplore that during this time of world unrest and distressing wars sixteen millions of lives and fifty billions of dollars have been sacrificed, and urge that special prayers be offered for the speedy cessation of hostilities and the redemption of the nations of the world.

We recommend the destruction of literature circulated in our midst by the Elders of the Mormon Church or Church of the Latter Day Saints, and record our sympathy with any movement that has for its end the elimination of the practice of polygamy and the successful prosecution of violators of the law pertaining thereto.

We call our people to a consecration that will prevent the lapse of character and usher in the dawn of the new and eternal day.

J. F. EDWARDS, JESSE O. HOCHSTEDLER,
PRESTON POLHEMUS, KARL R. THOMPSON.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

An awakened and growing interest in the Sunday schools of Methodism is the gratifying record of the past year. The church is discovering the value of organization and the co-operation of a great organization such as the Sunday School Board. Under the leadership of pastor and laymen the church is training her youth for the church of to-morrow.

To every pastor the call is sounded for a more intimate relation between pastor, teacher, and youth. Co-operation and enthusiasm will stimulate activity That many pastors are still indifferent to the great opportunity is deplorable.

A few results may be noted: 90 per cent of our Sunday schools now have Cradle Roll Departments, 71 per cent have Beginners' Departments, and 50 per cent have Junior Departments. Membership has increased from an enrollment of 33,546 to an enrollment of 74,084; 1,604 adult classes have been organized, with 713,920 new members.

We, your committee, desire that our Sunday schools in the North Indiana Conference shall advance to the high standard of missionary instruction as recommended by the Discipline; that systematic giving be taught and practiced in the Sunday school; that a regular offering be received, to be divided as directed by the Discipline.

We further recommend that with the approaching of the centenary of the missionary boards in 1919 every Sunday school shall be vitally related to the great missionary program of making every member a partner in saving the world for Christ.

We recommend the work of the board in its success in the past year, the institutes conducted, and new Sunday schools organized. We recommend that our Conference support the institute plan and that the district be the unit of institute work.

SUSTENTATION.

In harmony with the spirit of co-operation, the tieing of the strength of the church to the weakness of the church, we, your Committee on Sustentation, on the advice of the District Superintendents recommend the apportionment of $5,000 to the several districts for this home missionary work.

We also recommend the additional sum of $1,200 for the student pastorate at Purdue University; a total apportionment of $6,200 for sustentation work.

TEMPERANCE.

With profound thanksgiving we note the growth of prohibition in our country during the last few years. Twenty-five years ago there were about five millions of our countrymen living in prohibition territory; now there are sixty-five millions living in territory where the liquor traffic has been declared an outlaw. Twenty-five States have gone dry, and the recent act of Congress prohibiting the shipment of intoxicants into prohibition territory makes them "bone dry."

With special gratitude and thanksgiving we record the splendid victory in our own State of Indiana, which, after seventy-five years of faithful though discouraging efforts by temperance people, has at last joined the prohibition ranks. We thank the State legislators and the governor for their bold and unflinching stand; but we cannot afford to rest at this stage of the battle and upon these laurels won. The price of continued prohibition is eternal vigilance. No man should receive our votes for any office who does not stand boldly for the enacting and enforcing of prohibitory laws in municipality, State, and nation.

We recommend to our pastors and laymen for their co-operation and support our church Temperance Society, the Anti-Saloon League, and all organizations that have for their purpose the destruction of the liquor traffic.

We rejoice in the good work done by the members of our own Conference, Rev. Madison Swadener of the National Anti-Saloon League, and Rev. Charles J. Everson, Financial Secretary of the State Anti-Saloon League.

We nominate as trustees of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue.

We recommend as officers of our church Temperance Society, J. A. Patterson for President; F. P. Morris, Vice-President; Herbert Boase, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

General Work.

To the Bishops and Brethren, Greeting:

We have now reached the half-way point in the Five-Year Jubilee Campaign which will close in 1919. A comparison of this year's report with 1914 shows increased interest in the work. There has been an increase of over 39 per cent in number of organizations, representing eighty societies, and a total increase in membership of 33⅓ per cent, representing a net gain of 1,730. The subscriptions to the Woman's and Junior Friends show an increase of 40 per cent, a net gain of 843. The goal set by our society at the end of the campaign, which is the beginning of the real race, is: Members, 400,000; magazines, 180,000; money, $16,000,000; missionaries on the roll, 1,000. North Indiana Conference has met its proportion: one twelfth of the pledge of the Northwestern Branch to the whole. We have given of our daughters to the foreign field two consecrated, well-equipped missionaries: Miss Marie Adams to China, and Miss Pauline Place to Japan. The accomplishments of these results, as far as we can see them, has been one of much prayer and work. Over 1,200 regular meetings, 200 special guest days, six conventions have been held, besides the privilege of having a speaker, Mrs. Olin Cady, represent our work at five District Conferences; but the most potent of all is the League of Intercessors besieging the Throne of Grace "that they might know Him."

Words are inadequate to tell half of the fine work accomplished and the splendid spirit manifested throughout the Conference. We face momentous questions and covet a larger gathering of all our women.

Mrs. Florence C. Binford, Secretary.

Special Work.

Sincere greetings to all members and friends of North Indiana Conference.

We bring a report for the past year's work which is not materially different from the preceding year.

We are helping to support the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in nine of our mission fields. By our dues and special offerings we support six and help in the support of four missionaries, five assistant workers, six hospital beds (besides giving to support of general hospital work), fifty-seven Bible women, ten Bible women in training, six day schools, 109 scholarships, help in support of city work, seven nurses.

One of our auxiliaries had a special gift of $20 from one of its members, Mrs. Martha J. Evans, who is ninety-one years old, but is deeply interested in the missionary work.

One auxiliary will for the eighth consecutive year name a room, at a cost of $100, for one of its members.

Most of our auxiliaries observe all of the special gift days of our society. Many are taking deep interest in the M. O. G. H. and, in doing so, gain new members, new subscribers to the Woman's Missionary Friend, and add to our finances as well.

Several papers and magazines are sent regularly to our faithful missionaries, but we would be glad to have the number largely increased.

Some of our workers are in countries which are affected by the terrible war, but so far all are safe.

Our urgent needs are for more and larger buildings with better furnishings and equipment. Day schools are in demand and can be built for sums ranging all the way from $250 to $1,000.

We hope that each auxiliary and many individuals will decide to assume support of some line of special work. Lines are so varied that all may become interested and in this way render financial help in extending the kingdom.

Mrs. A. B. Cline, Secretary of Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

"Steadily Forward" has been the watchword of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in North Indiana Conference during the year just closing.

In number we have grown to 105 Auxiliaries, 9 Young Ladies' Societies, 56 Queen Esther Circles, 16 Home Guard Bands, and 36 Mothers' Jewel Lists—totaling 222 organizations with 7,021 members. This is a gain of 30 organizations and 837 members since March of last year.

Our goal for 1916 was more than reached, and with deep gratitude to "Him, whose we are," we set the stakes a little higher for this year, trusting that before the close of 1917 we will have made ten per cent advance. Co-operation between pastors and people will bring this about.

For special workers we have had with us Miss Olivia G. Dunlap and Miss Carrie Barge, National Field Secretaries; Miss Ethel Chapin, Superintendent of Ebenezer Mitchell Home, Meisenheimer, South Carolina; and Miss Abbie Benedict, deaconess. Conference and district officers have answered numerous calls for public work.

The six district meetings in June at Bluffton, New Paris, Logansport, Anderson, Centerville, and Claypool, also the Conference annual at Decatur, were sources of much inspiration.

The Winona Summer School of Missions in our midst is being more and more largely attended by our women.

What another year will bring forth in our loved America is still hidden from our view, but indications call to our attention grave dangers, and this we do know: "The glory of the present is to make the future free."

In our thought, word, and deed let us unite Old Glory with the banner of Christ, singing triumphantly:

"O bright flag, O brave flag, O flag to lead the free,
The hand of God thy colors blent,
And heaven to earth thy glory lent,
To shield the weak and guide the strong,
To make an end of human wrong
And draw a countless host to follow after thee."

Miss Olla Grace Davis, Corresponding Secretary.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

Woman has had, and is ever destined to have, a most important place in the work of the redemption of the world. Her name stands prominent in sacred and profane history—in ancient, medieval, and modern. Solomon says, in his graphic picture of strong womanhood, that "her price is far above rubies. She stretcheth out her hands to the poor; yea, she reacheth out her hands to the needy, she openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Favor is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

The work of woman as carried on to-day merits our highest praise. In the modern Red Cross organizations we note her loving care for the wounded and dying. In her Christian Temperance Union she speaks out for temperance and sobriety. In the Ladies' Aid Society of our church she fills a most splendid sphere of usefulness in many broadening lines of Christian activity. Her most efficient, well-organized efforts of Christian education and evangelism in both the home and foreign field is a great modern-day achievement. All this, together with her constancy, her loyalty, her faith, her love and fidelity in every department of our great Methodism, has justly merited our praise, our gratitude, and our highest commendation.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We are delighted with the presence and presidency of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D. His masterful and scholarly messages, with their spiritual interpretation, have been a very great inspiration to the Conference. He has been to us a brother and has conducted his office in a genial, impartial, and expeditious manner. Our earnest desire is that he may be our presiding bishop during the quadrennium.

We have enjoyed and wish to record our appreciation:

First, of the painstaking care and foresight of the pastor of this church, Rev. L. A. Swisher, D.D., to the Committee on Entertainment, and to his loyal people in providing for our every comfort while in this beautiful city;

Second, to the churches of other denominations, the city papers, the banks, and to all who have contributed in any way to make this one of the notable sessions of the North Indiana Conference;

Third, to the tireless Conference officers who keep our minutes, tabulate our statistics, and receive our moneys, thus making it possible to keep permanent records of our work and progress. We can not pass without special mention the masterful and timely address given by Merton S. Rice, D.D., of Detroit. We indorse his world-vision and pledge ourselves to the world's citizenship which shall bring a world-patriotism.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

The District Superintendents of the North Indiana Conference take great pleasure in expressing their high appreciation of the able leadership of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., now in charge of the Chicago Area, of which this Conference is a part. His spirit, in most careful attention to minute and almost innumerable details, is characterized by great patience and a resolute purpose to administer all matters relating to personal interest and the progress of the kingdom of God on the sure basis of righteousness. We welcome the far-reaching program of his area and give him assurance of our hearty co-operation and best endeavor to realize the ideals of the same within this quadrennium.

CONFERENCE HISTORY.

Whereas, The publication of the North Indiana Conference History is now an accomplished fact and the book is now on the market; and

Whereas, Under the direction of the North Indiana Conference all the business leading to this end has been done by a commission appointed for that purpose; and

Whereas, This has been done on the basis of personal guarantee; and

Whereas, This is a matter in which the Conference will receive all benefits accruing from the same; therefore be it

Resolved, That the further prosecution of this business, including all accounts, notes, and collections, and all matters pertaining to settlement of accounts, be turned over to the officers of the Conference Corporation for final adjustment; and be it further

Resolved, That said officers be requested and are instructed to push the sale of said book as far as possible, using committees appointed at this session for that purpose; and reporting the results of all work done to the Conference at its next annual session. M. S. Marble.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Whereas, The Constitution of the Course of Study for traveling preachers, 1916 Discipline, is causing considerable dissatisfaction;

1. Resolved, That we request our Resident Bishop Nicholson to give this matter his close study and attention;

2. Resolved, That we urge upon our Board of Bishops to give this course a reconsideration, with a view to its reconstruction in harmony with our Methodist standards of doctrine, and that we request that John Wesley's Sermons be restored to the course;

3. Resolved, That our action be communicated to the spring meeting of the Board of Bishops by the Secretary of this Conference.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have examined the journals of the six District Conference sessions and find neatness and accuracy to characterize the same. We especially look with favor upon the completeness in every way of the journals of Fort Wayne, Goshen, Richmond, and Wabash District volumes. The form and plan of the Muncie District journal are fine, and when bound, as is the intention of the Secretary and compiler, will be fully up to the standard. The material for the Logansport journal is in every manner worthy of such a journal, but we would recommend that instead of two separate records, one for the Minutes and one for the reports, that both be incorporated in one and that the same be placed into the form of a systematically arranged and bound volume.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.

To the Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana:

By concurrent resolutions of the three Indiana Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a joint commission was appointed to study the educational situation in Indiana Methodism and to make such recommendations concerning the future relations and programs of the educational institutions under its management as it might deem best.

For more than three years this commission has been organized and has reported to the Conferences from time to time. At a meeting of the commission held in the city of Indianapolis on January 2, 1917, the following action was taken covering the field of its legitimate study and recommendation:

Church Schools.

The Methodism of Indiana looks with earnest hope and expectation to her church schools for trained laymen as well as educated ministers of the highest character and qualifications. In this hour of strategic opportunity the need of such leadership, both lay and ministerial, is as clear as it is imperative.

Therefore no interest of the church could be more vital to its continued success and future usefulness than these training camps of the church.

De Pauw University.

De Pauw University is now in a campaign to raise one million dollars for new buildings and additional endowment. Of this amount the sum of $350,000 has already been subscribed or paid in cash. The plan of the administration of the institution is to use $250,000 for new buildings and to devote the remaining $750,000 to permanent endowment.

This sum is needed in order to increase the teaching staff and to pay adequate salaries for instruction. The present endowment of one and a quarter million dollars is altogether inadequate to meet present demands, to say nothing of providing for future advances.

The average cost to the college for every student enrolled is double the amount received in tuition and fees. The average cost per student in the tax-supported schools is $303 a year. In order to place De Pauw University on such a basis of income would necessitate an increase of endowment of one hundred per cent.

The work of the institution is now devoted exclusively to College of Liberal Arts courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and to Music School courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music.

The policy is to maintain a strictly high-grade college, with a student body of sufficient size for an inspiring college life, and at the same time to support a teaching staff large enough to give opportunity for close personal contact between teachers and students.

The proposed plan for the raising of the million-dollar fund is not to solicit gifts through the churches, but to secure relatively large sums to be paid within the next three years.

There are no scholarships provided in De Pauw, few honorariums or prizes for special excellence in scholarship, no fund for the retirement on pension of teachers long in the service of the institution. All these are worthy of special gifts.

The Joint Commission gives its full and hearty indorsement to this outlined plan for general and special additions to the facilities and endowment of the university, with the firm conviction that the permanent endowment of De Pauw should be, at the earliest possible date, at least $3,000,000.

MOORES HILL COLLEGE.

The Joint Commission records the execution of the order of the University Senate and the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the change of Moores Hill College to a junior college with courses running through the sophomore year.

We congratulate the friends of the college upon the election of the Rev. Alfred F. Hughes, S.T.B., to the office of President, and commend President Hughes to the members of the Indiana Conference and to the Methodists of the State in the worthy tasks which he is undertaking.

The commission expresses the confident conviction and registers the deliberate judgment that in the very near future the tentative plan to raise the sum of $250,000 for additional buildings, facilities, and endowments should be launched in definite form and should be commended to the Christian generosity of Indiana Methodists and to all people interested in our State.

Meanwhile it is imperative that a sustentation fund be created which will underwrite the full current budget and liquidate all items of outstanding indebtedness.

Administrative officers of the institution are giving serious consideration to such plans and courses as will minister to the requirements of those looking forward to service in rural communities. Especially do they have in mind the rural preacher, the rural teacher, and the agriculturist. Encouragement has been given in this direction by experts in the field of education, both within and beyond the limits of our own church. It is the judgment of the commission that such courses would be wisely provided by Moores Hill in view of its strategic location and facilities, and urge the support of the leaders of the church and all others who are concerned with the solution of what has come to be the rural problem.

In a field all its own, with a history of noble achievement, and with a promise of a brighter, better day just ahead, Moores Hill College should stride forth to the fulfillment of her own program in the confident assurance of a providential mission and the inspiring hope of success.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

Inquiry was made more than two years ago by this commission of the trustees of Taylor University as to their willingness to transfer the charter of the institution to the North Indiana Conference and to meet the educational and financial standards imposed upon Methodist colleges by the University Senate.

This inquiry was sent in official form to the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, under whose management Taylor operates. The committee appointed by that association failed to return its report, although an unofficial report was presented by members of the association before the Committee on Education of the North Indiana Conference at its session at Auburn in 1915. This report was unfavorable to such action on the grounds that such transfer of charter was impracticable.

Under these circumstances and until they shall be changed, the commission has considered it outside the scope and authority of its labors to continue any investigation of the character of the work at Taylor or to make any recommendations touching its plans and policies.

STATE SCHOOLS.

As a commission we heartily indorse the new general plan in a number of States of making provision through the Conferences of the several States for the religious care and training of the Methodist students enrolled at the State universities and specialized schools operated by the State.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY.

The Methodist student pastorate at Purdue University is proving highly satisfactory. The Rev. Oakel F. Hall, for two years student pastor, has so related himself to the student life and to our churches in Lafayette as to meet worthily the student need and win approval and recognition of the value of his services.

By securing an office in University Hall and by the cordial attitude of the college authorities; by mingling freely with the students, by inaugurating classes in Bible study and mission study, by becoming a big brother to all and by personal conferences with the students he has come to occupy a place of unique influence for good.

President Stone, of the university, and the pastors of the city churches speak in highest praise of the student pastorate and its present incumbent.

The North Indiana Conference and the Northwest Indiana Conference are to be commended for systematic support of this work.

In view of the fact that over seven hundred Methodist students are enrolled at Purdue, a measurable per cent of whom are to be won to Christ and many more to be enlisted in active Christian service, the importance of this work can scarcely be overestimated.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

At Bloomington, by action of the Indiana Conference, provision has been made for the support of a student pastor under the direction of the official board and the pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Last year the gifts of the local church made provision for a part of the time of a salaried worker, with gratifying results.

The representative character of the Methodist students at the University, however, and their wide geographical distribution over the State put this problem beyond the reach and the responsibility of the local church at Bloomington and place the burden of support upon the Conference.

Passing, therefore, from the temporary arrangement of last year to the permanent plan of Conference support, and from the part time of a worker to the entire time of a student pastor, it is confidently expected that the good and lasting results that have attended the plan of a student pastorate elsewhere will be in evidence at the State University.

The commission most earnestly commends this enterprise to the Indiana Conference and firmly believes that its monumental character will guarantee the collection of the full amounts apportioned for the purpose by the District Superintendents of the Conference.

Adopted by the Joint Educational Commission of Indiana Methodism at Indianapolis on the 2d day of January, 1917.

A. B. SWAIN, President,
LOREN M. EDWARDS, Secretary.

METHODIST MEMORIAL DAY.

Inasmuch as there is a common practice among various secular societies to perform memorials of their deceased members; and

That many of the graves of our deceased members are unmarked and their memory seems fading; and

That there is a general movement to establish such a memorial in our church, the same having the sanction of the recent General Conference; be it

Resolved, That this Conference appoint the fourth Sunday in June as a memorial day for the decoration of the graves of our deceased members, and that our people be asked to join with the pastors in such memorial decoration.

THE BOARD OF STEWARDS.

STUDENT PASTOR.

Report of Joint Committee.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

That the Northwest and North Indiana Conferences did a wise and timely thing in establishing the office of Student Pastor at Purdue University is the opinion of all who are in position to pass judgment in the matter. There are now enrolled in this growing State university more than eight hundred Methodist young people whom it is impossible for the LaFayette pastors adequately to serve. Besides, it is everywhere recognized that college students require special care and attention.

Brother Oakel F. Hall, whom the two Conferences have supported for two years, has no church, but gives his entire time to personal work among the students. He visits them in their rooms, greets them on the street and campus, entertains them in his home, instructs an increasing number in Bible and mission-study classes, counsels them in times of doubt and indecision, calls on them when sick and incapacitated, reinforces them in hours of temptation, comforts them when in sorrow, challenges them to service in the church and the Kingdom, and improves every opportunity afforded him to minister to them in the name of the church and to lead them to the Christ of the church.

While statistics can do no more than indicate the trend and sweep of his work, it is gratifying to record that he has not only led many into the church but has been instrumental in leading four young men to choose the ministry as a life profession, has helped sixteen to signify a willingness to go to the foreign field under the auspices of our Mission Board, and has trained many for efficient work in the laity. Professor M. L. Fisher, who because of his zeal for the church and his opportunity daily to observe Brother Hall's work, is probably the most competent person to pass judgment on the two years' efforts. He says: "The results of Mr. Hall's work cannot be reckoned mathematically, but it is bound to tell on the future church." Dr. A. T. Briggs, pastor of the West LaFayette Church, says, "Brother Hall has rendered the church generally a most valuable service in his work as student pastor at Purdue University." Dr. U. G. Leazenby, pastor of Trinity Church, LaFayette, says: "My personal acquaintance and my conversation with students leads me to believe that perhaps the largest contribution to be made by any single school in Indiana to the foreign mission field in the next few years is to be made by Purdue University. Should this prediction prove true, Brother Hall's work will doubtless be the most potent single factor in bringing this about."

RECOMMENDATIONS.

To the end that this work shall go on with undiminished effectiveness, your committee submits the following recommendations:

1. That the same general policy, namely, that of maintaining a pastor who is to give himself wholly to personal work among the students, in co-operation with the Methodist churches of LaFayette and West LaFayette, be continued indefinitely.
2. That the North and Northwest Indiana Conferences share equally in the support of the work.
3. That $1,200, the amount apportioned annually for the past two years by each Conference, be again apportioned by each Conference to meet the expense of the work for next year.

4. That the present form of organization be continued; namely, (1) permitting each Annual Conference to select its representative on the Joint Committee on Purdue Student Pastor Work, said Joint Committee to consist of (a) the District Superintendents and three other members of the North Indiana Conference, (b) the District Superintendents and three other members of the Northwest Indiana Conference, and (c) three members of the staff of Purdue University to be selected by the Methodist members of the University staff; and (2) authorizing the Joint Committee to choose an Executive Committee which shall act as the agent of the Joint Committee. This Executive Committee shall consist of one member from each of the above named Conferences and one member of the faculty of Purdue University. The faculty member of the Executive Committee shall serve as treasurer for the funds raised for the support of the student pastor's work at Purdue University.

5. That this committee recognizes the need of a suitable home for the use of the student pastor, which shall be so located as to be easily accessible to students who wish to confer with him, and that it shall be of sufficient size to permit the entertainment of groups of students from time to time. We recommend that the Executive Committee take up at once the investigation of the matter of purchasing such a home and that it be authorized to take such action in this matter as good business judgment dictates.

6. That the District Superintendents at the Quarterly Conference last preceding the opening of the college year urge every pastor to send to the student pastor the names of the young people in his church or churches who will enter Purdue University for the first time, together with such other information as will enable the student pastor to know the outstanding needs of these incoming students.

7. That all pastors recommend, so far as they deem it expedient, that all young people who are members of the church either transfer their membership to one of the LaFayette churches or become affiliated members of one of these churches. (See 1916 Discipline, ¶ 57.)

W. E. McKenzie, Chairman,
Raymond J. Wade, Secretary.

The Conference Corporation holds a deed for 270 acres of excellent land in Elkhart County, Indiana, deeded to the Conference by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bashore, subject to a life estate to the grantors, and when the property is sold at their death, $2,000 of the proceeds shall be set aside and the income to be used to help pay for the support of the pastor at Bashore Chapel, of our church, and $1,000 of the proceeds shall be used to erect a monument at the graves of the grantors; also, that an orphans' home, to be known as "The Bashore Deaconess Orphans' Home of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the North Indiana Conference," shall be erected on a part of the land near Goshen, Indiana, and that the remainder of the proceeds from the sale of the land shall be reserved for and as an endowment for the home.

Brother Bashore died some years ago and his saintly wife still survives him. She lives on one of the farms and at eighty-two years of age is calm, happy, trustful, and hopeful. She has the constant presence of her Saviour and Lord, and cheerfully abides, awaiting the call to the home beyond the stars.

The $561.01 belongs to this Orphanage Fund. The land is rich, productive, and valuable. It is well located, with good farm buildings and improvements. When our good Sister Bashore shall cease to use it, the proceeds from its sale will be sufficient to erect the building for the home and provide for its maintenance. C. U. Wade, Treasurer.

CONFERENCE CORPORATION AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The officers of the Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees met in the office of the Secretary of the Conference, with the following present: Leslie J. Naftzger, President; C. U. Wade, Treasurer; and D. V. Williams, Secretary.

The Treasurer made report, which, on motion of the Secretary, was accepted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

On motion of D. V. Williams, it was ordered that hereafter the money sent for the upkeep of the Douglass lot in the Leo Cemetery should be paid to the Secretary of the Cemetery Association.

On motion of D. V. Williams, the Treasurer was authorized to pay five dollars per year for the upkeep of the Douglass family lot.

On motion of D. V. Williams, Mr. C. E. Krider, Treasurer of the Cemetery Association, was requested to report to the Treasurer of the Conference Corporation the condition of the Douglass lot and what repairs, if any, are necessary.

On motion of D. V. Williams, the bond executed by Arthur G. Neal in the sum of $500 in the London and Lancashire Indemnity Company was referred back to the Board of Stewards, with instructions to have the bond made in favor of the officers of the Conference Corporation, as there is no incorporate body known as the Board of Conference Stewards.

On motion of the Secretary, the Treasurer was instructed to loan such funds as may be in his hands at the best possible rate of interest.

On motion, the meeting of the officers of the Conference Corporation adjourned.

It was moved that the Treasurer give bond to the Corporation in the sum of $1,000, secured from some reputable security company, and the expense of the same to be paid out of the funds of the Corporation.

D. V. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY TO THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY, MARCH 29, 1917.

The year has been given largely to looking after property interests and the collection of pledges and bonds, but additional pledges have been secured to the amount of $423.50. This, after deducting $500, which should have been reported under the head of "After-Death Bonds" last year, makes the total of pledges on the popular subscription campaign

$51,472. On these pledges there has been paid this year $5,583. The summary by districts follows:

District.	Pledge.	Paid.	Unpaid.
Fort Wayne	$11,040	$8,356	$2,684
Goshen	11,273	9,153	2,120
Logansport	8,151	4,436	3,715
Muncie	10,241	6,541	3,700
Richmond	3,714	3,083	631
Wabash	7,053	4,857	2,196
Total	$51,472	$36,426	$15,046

As assets of the Administration Fund we reported last year notes from preachers valued at $10,803. Of this there has been paid this year $1,364 and one note of $100 canceled. New notes to the value of $700 have been secured, making present total $10,039. To this should be added obligations of those who has not yet given notes to the amount of $2,100, bringing the total assets of this fund to $12,139.

After-Death Bonds for $6,000 have been paid this year, leaving such bonds on hands to the ammount of $9,350.

The Memorial Funds of the Society are as follows:

Arthur and Lucinda Bland	$500 00
Elihu Cecil	200 00
David Glunt	100 00
Dr. William and Maria H. Lomax	2,000 00
William G. Jones	100 00

(IX) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W. B. Freeland, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, and colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examination.

2. Similar certificates may also be received in all studies not biblical or theological from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine as to whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

3. Certificates presented for credit must show the amount of work done, textbooks used, year in which the work was done, and the grade given by the examiner. If no grade is furnished in a certificate presented for credit, the only minimum passing grade (70) will be allowed.

4. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-Year Institute, or the seat of the Annual Conference. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of students in the mission field.

5. "The directions of the Discipline, 1916, ¶¶ 596, 597, 598, and 599, § 1, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care."

6. The Mid-Year Institute will be held at Grace Church, Kokomo, October 15-18.

7. The written sermon must bear date of composition.

8. A syllabus on each book to be read is required, and a grade will be given.

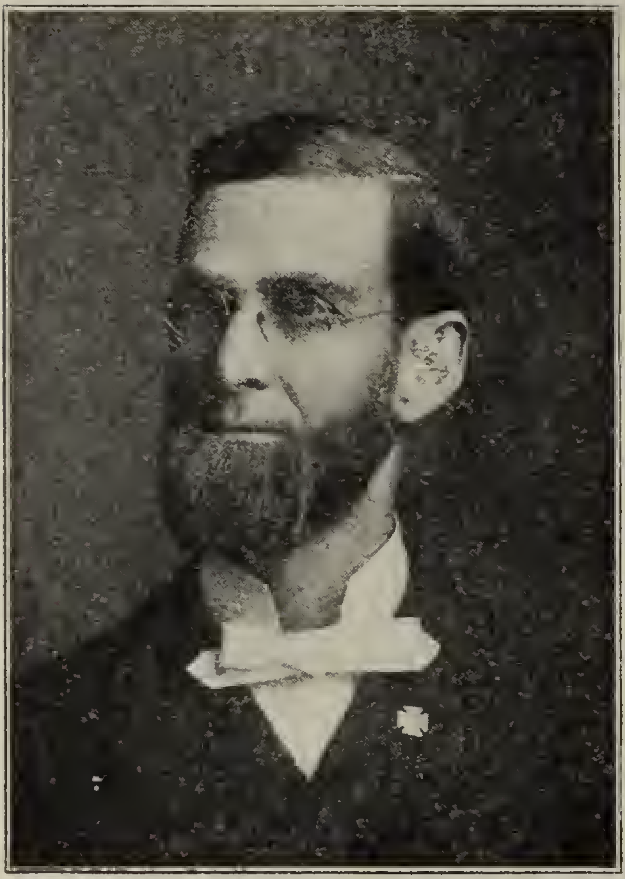
(X) Memoirs.



REV. L. A. BEEKS.

Lewis Asbury Beeks, son of William and Eliza Beeks, was born in Attica, Ind., May 13, 1853. He was the only child of that marriage, although he had a half-brother, James Beeks, and a half-sister, Mrs. Martha E. C. Wilson. Both of them are deceased. Our brother spent his boyhood and school days in Kokomo, graduating from the local high school. He read medicine in the office of Dr. Isaac C. Johnson and later attended the Indiana College of Medicine, from which he graduated at the age of twenty. For seven years he practiced his profession in New London, and moved from that location to Russiaville, where he remained one year. He had been married to Miss Abigail R. Ross in Albia, Monroe County, Iowa, November 7, 1875.

Our brother had felt definitely called to the work of the Christian ministry for some time, and he yielded to his convictions of duty and united with the North Indiana Conference in 1882, at the session held at Muncie. His uncle, Greenbury C. Beeks, had been an honored member of the same body. Brother and Sister Beeks served the following churches: Elwood and Frankfort, three years; Williamsburg, three years; Kendallville, three years; Knightstown, three years; Hartford City, five years; Huntington, two years; Bluffton, five years; Elkhart, three years; Noblesville, two years. In the year 1911, Brother Beeks asked for a supernumerary relation. The Conference session was held in the Main Street Church. He was in failing health, but he loved the work of the ministry so passionately that he was cherishing the hope that he might return to it. He was ready with the strength which he could command to assist in the work, and he supplied for some time at both Bunker Hill and Cicero. At our recent session he was granted a well deserved retired relation.

In the month of November last Brother Beeks sought health in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he spent a comfortable season, and seemed to be regaining his strength, but weakness of the heart developed and he went into rapid decline. A message to his physician, Dr. Hutto, called the latter to the South to bring his friend and patient home. They and Sister Beeks reached Jacksonville, Fla., on the evening of the 18th, where he passed away on the next morning, at the age of 63 years, 6 days.

At Williamsburg, Bluffton, and elsewhere, the ministry of Lewis Beeks witnessed unusual revival power and spiritual influence. It is the universal tribute of his brethren in the ministry and of the laity to which he ministered that Brother Beeks was a sincere and devout man of God. He was tactful, but was not given to duplicity; wise, but not guileful; strong and uncompromising in his zeal, but gentle and kind. His churches showed the master hand of an organizer, but he honored consistency and Christian loyalty. If he were here to-day and could speak to us who mourn his going away, I am sure he would bid us be firm in opposition to all evil. He preached a high standard; he lived a high standard. He counted it a high privilege to love God with all his heart; his love for mankind was of corresponding degree. As a Christian gentleman he excelled; and we, his brethren, have never had cause to blush from unworthy word or deed of his. Farewell, our brother; we must needs labor on, but we shall be inspired by your good example of Godliness. And, as you have walked with Him here, so it is given unto you to enter into His presence to go out no more forever.

The funeral services were held in the Main Street Church, Kokomo, Tuesday afternoon, May 23, 1916. The services were attended by 35 ministers of the Conference, in addition to many prominent laymen. The following ministers assisted in the services: Revs. W. B. Freeland, T. M. Guild, C. E. Line, F. M. Lacy, P. J. Albright, W. D. Parr, L. J. Naftzger, A. B. Cline, J. A. Sprague. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. C. H. Brown, and the memoir was read by W. B. Freeland. The thirty-five ministers sang "In the Sweet By and By." The closing prayer was offered by M. Vayhinger.

The following ministers acted as pall bearers: J. H. Royer, F. F. Thornburg, C. H. Smith, M. E. Shattuck, John Parker, Everett Nixon. The services in the Crown Point Cemetery, Kokomo, where the body was interred, were in charge of Rev. J. W. Cain and Rev. Earle Naftzger.

W. B. Freeland.

MRS. LYDIA ANN MALTBY SIMPSON.

"It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And with the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God."

Death is a path that must be trod, if one would ever pass to God.

In the very early dawn of the beautiful morning of June 27, 1916, as the physical body arose from refreshing sleep, God placed His hand on the spirit of our Sister Simpson, and said, "It is enough, come up higher." Without that "Fiery, throbbing pain,

No cold gradations of decay,
God broke at once the vital chain,
And freed her soul the nearest way."

"Like as a shock of corn cometh in his season," so came this good woman to the end of her earthly pilgrimage, ripe in years and in Christian graces. In the work of the ministry she was graciously helpful to her husband—not demonstrative, but calm, steady, shining like the lighthouse on the cliff. In all the departments of the church life she manifested an absorbing interest. She was possessed of an intense missionary spirit which was manifested in the Foreign and Home organizations. In her home life the "heart of her husband did safely trust her," and while "he may have set among the elders of the land," she "was opening her mouth with wisdom," and "on her tongue was the law of kindness," looking well to the ways of her household, and eating not the bread of idleness. And so "her children rise up and call her blessed." Her wifely devotion, her motherly kindness, her abiding faith in God, are the outstanding features of the family's heritage.

Next to the spread of righteousness through the power of the gospel, she was zealous in the cause of temperance, as an active member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and heartily promoted its principles.

Sister Lydia Ann Maltby Simpson was born in Ashtabula County, Ohio, August 30, 1844, and was the older of two daughters of Daniel Maltby, a member of the old English family of Maltbys, and Isabelle Jackson, a first cousin of the famous General Stonewall Jackson of Virginia.

The girlhood years were spent on her father's farm, attending school at Kingsville, Ohio. Later she completed the course in the Ladies' Seminary at Meadville, Pa., and was a teacher for a few terms in a school near to her childhood home.

In the spring of 1863 she came to Elkhart to visit an uncle, Ira Maltby, who owned the building and kept a general store on the corner of Jackson and Main Streets, where now stands the beautiful Federal Building, the pride of our city.

In the winter of 1863 and '64 she taught school in the Dinehart school, then some two miles from the little village then known as Elkhart, which is now a little south of our present city limits on the Prairie Street road.

It was in this visit with her relatives that she became acquainted with the young minister of the village, Reverend Franklin T. Simpson, and this chance meeting culminated in their marriage in the fall. September 28, 1864.

In the month of August, prior to their marriage, occurred a frequently mentioned and notable event in the history of the village. The dedication of our present "Grace Lawn Cemetery." In this event the young minister was one of the speakers, and following the service the two happy hearts ate lunch together on the bank of Elkhart River, just a few rods south of the present family lot, where, within a few minutes they will again be, side by side, awaiting the victories of the resurrection morning.

The little village on that day was situated almost entirely north of Jackson Street, and the location of our present beautiful cemetery was severely criticized as being "so far away."

An event of the simple, early day was the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson in our Methodist Church, that stood on the ground where we now worship, and it occurred at the close of an interesting convention related to the church they so much loved. Their lives were closely linked with our beloved city and the primitive conditions of that period.

Out of the Methodist custom of those days, Sister Simpson, with her good husband, became identified with the earnest life of many communities, Peru, Union City, Marion, Warsaw, Elkhart, in a second term of service, Muncie, Anderson, and South Whitley. She was especially helpful in the work of the church and in the special offices in the church work given to Brother Simpson.

In Peru, their first child, Frankie, was born and died; and also in Marion, the third child, Alfred Cookman, and these are resting in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery in Marion. The surviving sons, Louis Maltby Simpson, residing in Elkhart, Indiana, and Ernest Chipman Simpson. residing in Gary, Indiana, have continuously sought the highest comfort of their truly devoted mother.

The old home family were Methodists. Several uncles and cousins were Methodist ministers. And it was in her girlhood days that Sister Simpson joined the church she so dearly loved. From the old Ohio home she carried the joy of a Christian life in three score and ten, which were happy and useful, freighted with that element of love which characterizes every servant of the Most High, and makes life well worth the living.

Of others she thought, for others she lived and loved, and to Him who was her joy and light was she continually giving praise.

"Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare past,
The battle's fought, the race is run,
And thou art crowned at last.
With saints enthroned on high,
Thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry,
Salvation to the Lamb."

The funeral services were held in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Elkhart, Indiana, conducted by Rev. J. C. White, pastor, assisted by Revs. R. J. Wade and K. H. Carlson, after which the body was laid away near that of her husband in the Grace Lawn Cemetery, Elkhart. J. C. White.

REV. T. C. NEAL.

Rev. Tom C. Neal was born in Marion, Ind., December 21, 1849, and died in his native city on August 20, 1916. On April 27, 1875, he was married to Miss Louisa Bireley, of Marion, Ind. To them were born five children. Two had preceded him to the better land. Those surviving him are his devoted wife; Harry S., of Philadelphia, Pa.; Walter B., and Ray L., both of St. Augustine, Fla.

Brother Neal was educated in the public schools in Marion. By occupation he was a printer. He continued this till the spring of 1875, when he was admitted to the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which relation he served the following charges: Elkhart Circuit, Van Buren, Nappanee, Alexandria, Farmland, North Webster, and Inwood. On account of impaired health he was in the supernumerary relation during 1879 and 1880. In 1889, his health not being equal to the task of a Methodist preacher as he saw it, he asked for and received the retired relation. On retirement he first located in North Manchester, where he lived for three years, when he moved to his native city, where he spent the remainder of his life. As strength would permit, he again worked as a printer, doing job work.

Brother Neal was a man of unique and rare personality. He was a good man, courteous, refined, kind, endowed with a fine sense of humor which he frequently used for the good of all and never to the injury of any.

He was a composer of music and wrote many beautiful songs, some for special occasions, others for general use. At the age of 19 years he composed music and chorus for "I Shall Be Satisfied," which Bishop McCabe said he himself had sung around the world. On one occasion his son was especially delighted when on slipping into a church in Boston one Sunday morning he heard the choir render one of his father's anthems. For years the North Indiana Conference has used one of Brother Neal's hymns specially composed for opening services. It is said that for this purpose he left a sufficient number to serve the Conference with a new hymn each session till the year 1921. He was a contributor to the secular press, short articles tempered with high moral sentiment appearing now and then in the great newspapers.

He was faithful as a pastor and in retirement was loyal to the church and to all who were charged with the administration of its affairs. For many years he was statistical secretary. Careful in the selection of his assistants, painstaking and methodical, he did much to bring this work to a high standard of perfection. He never missed a session of Conference since entering the ministry and was always an appreciative and close observer of its business.

During the last few months of his life he passed into a general decline. While the final summons came suddenly, Brother Neal was not taken by surprise, but was fully prepared, giving every assurance of an abundant entrance "into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

The funeral services, largely attended by members of the Conference and citizens of Marion, were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. M. S. Marble, D.D., Superintendent of the Wabash District, assisted by Dr. J. A. Beatty, Superintendent of the Muncie District; Dr. Somerville Light, Superintendent of the Richmond District, and Rev. Lewis Reeves, for many years associated with Brother Neal in statistical work in the Conference. The pastor of the local church, Rev. B. Earl Parker, was unable to attend the funeral services on account of being out of the city. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, where prayer was offered and benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. H. Brown, only surviving member of the Conference class to which Brother Neal belonged.

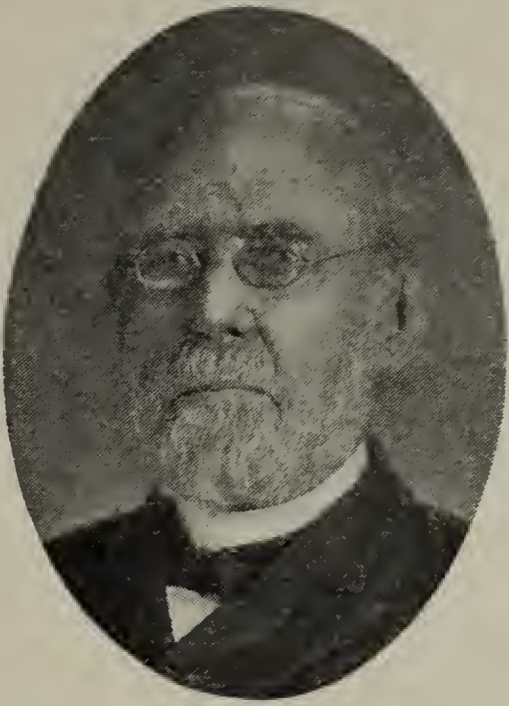
M. S. Marble.

DR. MILTON MAHIN.

Milton Mahin was born in Green County, Ohio, about two and one-half miles from Jamestown, on the 22d of October, 1824. He was the son of John and Hester Mahin, and the oldest in a family of seven children. He came from sturdy Methodist ancestry. His grandfather

Mahin was a local preacher and received deacon's orders at the hands of Bishop Asbury. His grandfather in his mother's family, John Shigley, was an exhorter in the Methodist Church and a man of powerful influence in the community where he lived.

When a child of four years, his parents emigrated to Indiana, settling in Tippecanoe County. The land was newly acquired from the Indians, and the first cabins built in that section were erected after the Mahin home was established. In that new country there were no schools worthy of the name. The Mahin children received some teaching at home, and when Milton was nine years old he attended his first school, which was maintained by subscription and which was held in an abandoned cabin. He never attended a school in which there was a class in English grammar. That new country afforded to the family all the educational advantages that they enjoyed in a preparatory way.



When Brother Mahin was fourteen years of age he had a definite, happy experience of religion. On the evening of December 24, 1839, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church near his boyhood home, under the ministry of Rev. J. J. Cooper, preacher in charge. Soon after joining the church he received a clear and certain call to the ministry, preaching his first sermon in the early summer of 1840. On the 28th day of August, 1841, he was licensed to preach, and at the same time was recommended for admission on trial in the Indiana Conference. At the following session of the Conference he was admitted into the traveling connection and assigned as junior preacher on the Paoli Circuit, then a charge of twenty-four appointments, which grew to thirty-six within a year. He started to his new appointment, traveling by horseback, it requiring four days to make the journey. Brother Mahin was then not yet seventeen years of age. His family saw him leave reluctantly, but bade him Godspeed in his new work. His early appointments were Paoli, Wilmington, Patriot, Versailles, and Perrysville. On most of these circuits it was necessary to preach every day, and from two to three times on Sunday.

Dr. Mahin possessed a virile and active mind. He was a persistent student, reading the best books and carefully studying the Word of God. Along with his arduous duties as a traveling preacher, he toiled and studied until he soon came to be recognized as a leader, both in the pulpit and the Conference.

On October 31, 1843, we was united in marriage to Eliza Dorsey, a young woman of loyal parentage, who was helpmeet and companion of this noble man of God for more than sixty-three years.

The ministry of Dr. Mahin was attended by many great revivals, and always resulted in a substantial upbuilding of his churches and the Kingdom. His long years of active ministry carried him into many fields of labor. After leaving Perrysville he served at South Bend, Knightstown, Crawfordville, Rossville, Berry Street, Fort Wayne; Peru, going then to the presiding eldership of Logansport District. He then served at Peru, Knightstown, and the Richmond District. He spent two years in the West, preaching at Atchison, Kansas. While there the family passed through the terrible famine of that period and the stirring experiences preceding the outbreak of the Civil War. On their return to Indiana, which was made as the outgoing journey, by overland route in wagons, they were stationed at Knightstown. Following they were stationed at Peru, New Castle, Logansport, Broadway; Richmond District, Anderson District, Huntington, Spiceland, Bluffton, Richmond Grace Church, and Tipton. He had four pastorates at Knightstown, three at Peru, and including his residence as presiding elder, three at Logansport.

Dr. Mahin retired from active work in 1895. DePauw University had conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and no minister ever was more worthy than he. He was a master preacher, scholar, defender of the faith, noble Christian man of God. Life in this world was extremely delightful to him, and he gave of his fertile mind and rich soul freely for the advancement of his Master's Kingdom. Up to the last days of his life his mind seemed as clear as in the days of his most active ministry.

To Dr. and Sister Mahin was given a family of five children. Three of them remain to bear their parents in precious memory. They are Mrs. Harriet Polk and G. E. Mahin, of New Castle, and Milton F. Mahin, of St. Joseph, Mo. Of his father's family, one brother remains, Wesley Mahin, of Battle Ground, Indiana. The infirmities of old age kept him from the funeral services.

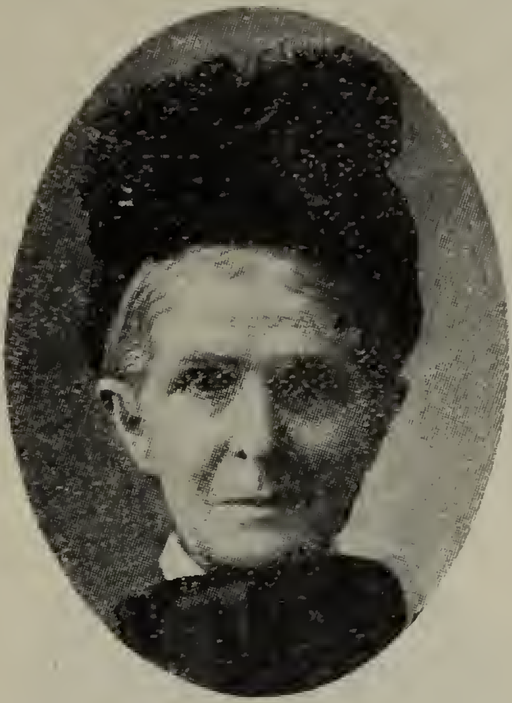
Through an accident that happened four years ago last February, Dr. Mahin, had been confined to his home, only leaving the residence once afterwards. In these last days he was devotedly cared for by his daughter and his grandson. The entire family had placed their all at his disposal to make his evening days bright and happy. His last sickness was of short duration. On Saturday morning, October 7, 1916, after hours of peaceful sleeping, the sweet spirit of Milton Mahin left its earthly tabernacle to begin life in the eternities. He would have been ninety-two years of age the 22d of October.

The funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Episcopal Church in New Castle, Tuesday, October 10. Dr. Somerville Light, District Superintendent of the Richmond District, was in charge, assisted by Doctors B. S. Hollopeter, J. A. Beatty, and W. W. Martin. U. S. A. Bridge and O. A. Trabue, former pastors, also participated in the services. Warren W. Wiant, pastor of the church, preached the sermon. About thirty of the members of the Conference were in attendance. His body was laid to rest in beautiful South Mound Cemetery at New Castle. W. W. Wiant.

MRS. ELIZABETH COMSTOCK.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Place Comstock was born in Clark County, Ohio, March 11, 1834, and died at her residence near North Manchester, November 15, 1916, aged 82 years, 8 months, and 4 days. The funeral was held at the house, November 17, at 2 P. M., Dr. M. S. Marble, the District Superintendent, officiating, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Fischer. The burial was in the Comstock Cemetery at Liberty Mills, Indiana.

In early childhood her parents moved to North Manchester. They belonged to the Society of Friends, her father being a minister. In 1858 she married William Comstock, of Liberty Mills, who later entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Of the six children born to them two died in infancy and Francis S. in 1906. A son and two daughters survive her; Chas. B. and Martha W., who lived with their mother at home, and Mrs. Forrest W. Beers, of South Amenia, N. Y. There are also three grandchildren living and one brother, Francis Place, of Boston.



Rev. and Mrs. Comstock served the following charges: Mexico, Inwood, Waterloo, Middleburg, and Albion. In 1873, on account of ill health, Mr. Comstock asked to be placed on the supernumerary list, and they removed to the farm near North Manchester, where she resided till the time of her death, her husband having preceded her in 1875. She was then left with four children ranging from 6 to 14 years. Uncomplaining, with tireless courage, she set about unwonted tasks and assumed unaccustomed responsibilities. With rare devotion she kept the property together until her two boys were old enough gradually to relieve her.

She was a woman of fine intellect and retained her mental vigor to the last. She was always deeply interested in the welfare of her country. But she possessed also to a remarkable degree a home-loving nature. The home world was not narrow to her, its restraints were not irksome. Her home and her children were her life. To the last, her loving care was for them. And how faithful she was to her trust, let her children say, who now "rise up and call her blessed."

She was not one to talk much of her religious life in later years, but we knew that her love for the church was undimmed and her faith unchanged. A daughter who always spent the summers in the dear old home was ever comforted in her departure for another year by the uttered assurance that all was well: she had no fears. Blessed comfort!

She had been remarkably well and strong for her years until in March, when she suffered from a severe attack of grippe, after which she never fully regained her former strength. Her last sickness was brief as she had hoped that it might be. She was confined to her bed but for a few days. I hardly think she realized that the change was so near, nor did her watchers, until she had passed into unconsciousness. Very gently and peacefully her life ebbed away—and lo, she was with another family circle just as large as the one she left so desolate, and just as beloved, and for many of whom she had mourned long years. And she was with the Father and with Jesus.

"Tread softly, bow the head—
In reverent stillness bow;
No passing bell doth toll,
Yet an immortal soul
Is passing now.
O change! O wondrous change!
Burst are the prison bars;
This moment there so low—
So agonized—and now
Beyond the stars.
O change! stupendous change!
There lies the soulless clod;
The sun eternal breaks,
The new immortal wakes,
Wakes with his God."

REV. PERRY J. ALBRIGHT.

In the quiet time of the midnight following the close of the fifteenth of November, 1916, the spirit of Perry J. Albright, teacher, soldier, and minister, went out to the heavenly city, where there shall be no night. His departure marked the close of a long, wholesome life. Our brother was born near Arcanum, Ohio, September 23, 1844, the third child in a family of nine in the home of William K. and Mary Houk Albright. Numerous members of the families of that name have been favorably known in Ohio and Indiana.

As a boy, Perry J. Albright was guided by the influences of a home where Christian ideals were cherished, and he availed himself of the opportunities of both the common and high school course. When he was seventeen, or, in the month of January, 1862, he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Arcanum. From that time until the close of his pilgrimage, the church has never felt the need of offering any apology for his life and character, and his children hail this fact as a precious heritage.

The stirring events of the Civil War constrained the boy of eighteen to enlist in the service of his country; he joined the 110th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and was assigned to company B. There are two outstanding things in his soldier life; his courage in battle and his consistent Christian life in camp. With the help of others, among them the renowned Chaplain McCabe, our brother conducted a revival in the army, which resulted in the conversion of more than 200 soldiers. The Army of the Potomac was engaged in strenuous campaigns. Twice upon the battle field he saved the flag he so much loved from the hands of the enemies of the nation. In the second instance, he suffered a wound which effected his discharge, and he returned to his Ohio home.

Four years later, in 1869, brother Albright, came to the vicinity of Kokomo, where some of his relatives were living. He became a teacher in the schools, which calling he followed even after beginning his work in the ministry; for the support of the minister was so meager in those days that such pursuit was necessary. October 8, 1872, he was married to Rosa J. Davis, who, with two children, survives him. One son died in early life. Earl W. Albright is a successful man of business in Chicago, and Grace Estella is the wife of the Rev. LeRoy Myers, of the Goldsmith charge.

The Conference session in 1874 was held at Fort Wayne and was presided over by Bishop Randolph S. Foster. At that session were admitted a class of eight men who have been in active service for an unusual period of time; J. B. Cook, A. M. Patterson, J. M. Rush, I. J. Smith, J. S. Cain, Charles Harvey, Chauncey King, and Perry J. Albright. With his young wife, our brother went out to the hard service of circuit work. Charges were large, support was uncertain, but he served his Conference faithfully, for his heart was in the Master's service. Including a brief period in the North Dakota Conference, and a period as prison chaplain, he was assigned to nineteen different fields of labor. What a multiplicity of tasks! What a multitude of cares! What an array of responsibilities are here represented! Brother Albright was active in committee work; with a diligence which never slackened, with an accuracy and attention to details which insured exhaustive consideration, and with an interest which was sustained until the last hours, he walked about Zion to tell her towers. Helpful to all to the measure of his powers, with courage, faith, fairness, and good cheer, he lived his life. After these months of weakness, and patient waiting, he has gone to his coronation.

The funeral services were held at the Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Kokomo, November 18, at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent, had charge of the services. Rev. W. B. Freeland read the memoir; Rev. A. M. Patterson led in prayer, and Rev. C. H. Brown read the scripture selection. The addresses were made by Rev. L. J. Naftzger, Rev. C. E. Line, and Rev. W. D. Parr. Interment was made in Crownpoint Cemetery, Kokomo, Indiana.

MRS. ELIZABETH MURRAY.

Mary Elizabeth, daughter of John and Matilda Potter, born in Utica, New York, April 12, 1852, fell asleep in her home, Leesburg, Ind., March 6, 1917. She came to Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1883, becoming a member of Trinity M. E. Church. She was united in marriage to Rev. C. H. Murray, October 28, 1886, who was pastor of Trinity Church the year previous to the marriage.

Sister Murray was born of native English parentage and was christened in the Episcopal Church. At the age of ten years she felt a distinctive call to active Christian service and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the age of fifteen she became a teacher in the Sunday school and for more than forty years she faithfully served in that capacity. Her natural fitness for service in the church made her a model wife for a Christian pastor, and for twenty-five years she served, with her husband, with marked devotion and ability in the itinerary of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Her favorite work was with the young people with whom she was deservedly popular. She was an organizer and leader among the women and children in the churches she served. Besides local work she was interested in the universal spread of Christ's kingdom. For ten years she served as president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Goshen District, and was an active leader in the W. C. T. U., local and otherwise. She was always active in community interests and a leader in society.

Sister Murray never sought position nor popularity, but accepted the place offered as of the Lord. Her power and popularity lay in her modesty and simplicity of character and conduct; her quiet grace gave her right of way into every heart, of old and young. Her faith in God was childlike; her belief in the church was absolute; her confidence in the triumph of right over wrong unwavering; her faith in people was strong, believing them good till proven bad and then she threw the mantle of charity over them, somehow. Heaven was always real to her; and with her there was no death but a glorious transition.

Sister Murray is survived by her husband, Rev. C. H. Murray; two daughters, Nellie and Ethel, who are still in the home; three sisters and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services were held in the home church, Thursday afternoon, March 8, many being present from other localities where the family had resided. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Bowen, assisted by Rev. J. S. Cain and Rev. E. L. Semans, of Warsaw. The pastor spoke feelingly of Sister Murray as "a loyal member of the church," and was followed with brief addresses by Rev. J. S. Cain, Dr. C. E. Thomas, Superintendent of the Sunday school, Leesburg; Mrs. Fanny Mather, of Middlebury, and Mrs. A. J. Gernhart, of Mishawaka, all of whom spoke impressively of the deceased, respectively, "As a devout Christian"; "As an efficient Sunday-school teacher"; "As President of the W. C. T. U., and worker among the young people"; and "As President of the Goshen District Woman's Home Missionary Society."

The body was taken to Huntington, Ind., for burial. A fitting service was held in the home of Rev. W. E. Murray, brother of Rev. C. H. Murray, Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Leonard A. Swisher, pastor of our church at Huntington, assisted by a portion of his choir, flower-bearers, and pall-bearers, and attended by a number of friends.

The floral offerings were profuse and elaborate, presented by individual friends, the various church societies, Sunday-school classes, other organizations, and business men of the home community. After the last service the flowers were placed in the hands of a charitable organization and properly distributed in the Huntington hospital and elsewhere. The weary body was laid at rest in beautiful Mount Hope Cemetery, Huntington. Truly, this saint of God rests from her labors and her works do follow her. J. W. Bowen.

MRS. NAOMI SLACK.

Naomi Pennoyer was born in New York City, August 18, 1853. She spent her girlhood days in that city, and was married May 2, 1876, to Rev. Joseph H. Slack, who was at that time pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Yardleyville, Pennsylvania. In a class of nine our brother was admitted to the North Indiana Conference in 1880, and he and his wife went to the parsonage home at Sheldon. For nineteen years they served the various charges to which our brother was appointed. After his retirement they lived at Marion and at Kokomo, where he died November 26, 1909. After a protracted period of suffering, Sister Slack died at the home of her only living child, Mrs. Joseph Mercer, at Clinton, Iowa, March 8, 1917, aged 65 years, 6 months and 20 days. The funeral services were held there, and the remains were brought to Kokomo, where, after brief services conducted by Rev. W. B. Freeland and Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, they were laid to rest, Sunday morning, March 11, 1917. She took good interest in her husband's work, was a good wife and mother, and served her generation in a difficult task. W. B. Freeland.

MRS. JUDITH GILLAM.

Judith Ann Kemper was born in Garrard County, Kentucky, November 30, 1831, and departed this life in the city of Anderson, Indiana. March 13, 1917, aged 85 years, 4 months, and 15 days.

She became a Christian and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in early childhood and remained a faithful, consistent, and useful member until she was transferred to the church triumphant.

On May, 12, 1852, she was united in marriage to Alvin M. Cowing, and they lived happily together until August 30, 1862, when he was instantly killed, while in the service of his country, at the battle of Richmond, Kentucky.

On July 11, 1865, she was united in marriage to the Rev. Nelson Gillam, a prominent and active minister of the North Indiana Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, and for many years she shared with him the duties and responsibilities of the life of an itinerant minister. They together served a number of the prominent charges in this Conference. When Brother Gillam, because of age and declining health, was forced to retire, they lived for several years at Richmond, Indiana. Here their home was always a blessed haven for his brethren in the ministry, and especially the younger members of the Conference, to whom he was an advisor, father, and sympathetic helper at all times. Sister Gillam always heartily joined him in any good work for the Master. Brother Gillam was translated on January 5, 1902, since which time Sister Gillam has lived at Muncie, Anderson, and in the South.

But even in her declining years she did not forget that she was the steward of God's manifold blessings, and used her money to bless the church and the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. She not only gave to found several frontier churches, but assisted a number of students in our institutions of learning, particularly at Gammon School of Theology, at Atlanta, Ga. The Missionary Society also received substantial assistance from her. Indeed, she was continually giving of her substance for the work in various boards of the Church.

For the past few years Sister Gillam has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Ardery, at Anderson, Indiana. Here, on the evening of the 9th of March, she was stricken with a stroke of paralysis, which particularly affected her right side; she never regained consciousness and was not able to recognize any one after the attack, but continued to decline until she passed away on March 13th. Her long, useful, earthly life is ended. She was faithful to the trusts committed to her. She has finished her course, she had kept the faith, she has received the crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, had prepared for her. She leaves to mourn her departure two daughters, Mrs. Martha Philips and Mrs. Ruth Winters; also two sisters, Mrs. Ardery and Mrs. Walterhouse; also one brother, Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, a distinguished physician and surgeon of Muncie, Indiana, a man of renown as a historian, and faithfulness in the church. He was one of the lay delegates to the last General Conference from this Conference. These, in ripeness of age and faithfulness in service, are just waiting "until the shadows are a little longer drawn," and the Master shall say, "It is enough, come up higher."

Her funeral was preached by the writer of this sketch, the Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger, assisted by the Rev. D. T. Stephenson and the Rev. J. W. Potter. Her body was laid to rest beside her husband in beautiful Beach Grove Cemetery, Muncie, Indiana.

Leslie J. Naftzger.

MRS. MABEL JENNIE STOAKES.

Mabel Jennie Gettle, after a long siege of illness, was borne to her heavenly home from her home in the parsonage at Bourbon, Indiana, March 30, 1917. She was born at Bluffton, Indiana, February 11, 1886. Here she resided until she finished her public school course, and also graduated from the Bluffton Business College.

The character of the early seed sowing will, without exception, later manifest itself to the eyes of the observer. This holds true whether in nature or in man, and is especially true in the life of the deceased. In her childhood and girlhood days she had the training of a splendid Christian home, which resulted in her in early life giving her heart in full consecration to her heavenly father.

January 1, 1908, she was married to Ross W. Stoakes, from which time she lived, until the triumphant end came, to bless and cheer a parsonage home. Two children, Ross, Jr., and little Max G., were given to the union, both of whom are left to comfort and cheer the heart of their father. Mrs. Stoakes was a woman of beautiful Christian character, and through her long siege of sickness bore it with splendid Christian fortitude, and manifested an unwavering faith in her risen Lord. During all this time she never faltered in her consecration to her heavenly Father.

The funeral services were conducted from the home of her mother in Bluffton, Indiana, Sunday afternoon at the time of Conference Annual Memorial services, and were in charge of Rev. W. T. Arnold, who was assisted by Rev. J. S. Newcombe, representing the Conference; Rev. Edwin Dickson, representing Goshen District; also Rev. Arlington Singer, and Rev. W. H. Menough, and Rev. H. W. Park.

Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Bluffton.

J. S. Newcombe.

(e) LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION

March 30, 1917.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference met in the Christian Church, Huntington, at nine o'clock. President E. Starbuck called the meeting to order and Geo. Meck, of Kokomo, led the song service. A. B. Cline conducted the devotional service. After an earnest talk he called on Dr. Enslen to lead in prayer.

President Starbuck then appointed the following committees:

Committee on Resolutions: A. B. Cline, Fort Wayne District; A. R. Thomas, Wabash District; D. C. Turnbull, Goshen District; S. T. Waite, Muncie District; G. E. Meck, Logansport District.

Committee on Nominations: M. B. Stultz, Wabash District; R. N. Miller, Fort Wayne District; F. W. Greene, Goshen District; J. W. Stouder, Richmond District; Miss Olla Davis, Muncie District.

The Committee on Nominations was instructed to report at eleven o'clock and the Committee on Resolutions at the afternoon session.

D. C. Turnbull presented cards calling for subscriptions for the support of the Association. He asked for at least $200. At the suggestion of M. B. Stultz, the following representatives from the various districts each assumed the responsibility of raising $50 in his district, or at least one-sixth of $200: R. N. Miller, Fort Wayne District; D. C. Turnbull, Goshen District; G. E. Meck, Logansport District; Miss Olla Davis, Muncie District; J. W. Stouder, Richmond District; M. B. Stultz, Wabash District. The cards passed out were taken up and showed $56.25 pledged, of which $48.25 was paid in cash.

Rev. R. A. Morrison addressed the meeting in the interest of the campaign for endowment for Conference claimants.

John D. Coppes, of Goshen District, led in "Discussion of Vital Topics." He gave most of his time to the discussion of the revision of church records. He urged upon the laymen to look after this matter, as the pastors shifted responsibility to their predecessors and each pastor was very reluctant to cut down the membership, as it did not show up well in his Conference report. He urged this as a means of securing a true statement of the condition of affairs and as a means of improving the spirituality of the church and its influence for good on those who are not Christians.

Brother Gardner, President of the Laymen's Association of the Northwest Indiana Conference, was introduced and spoke particularly on books every layman should read. These were the books bearing on Christian Stewardship, by Dr. Harvey Reeves Calkins.

Dr. Calkins was then introduced and supplemented what Brother Gardner had said about books. Then taking up his address proper, he gave a most interesting and instructive address on the subject of "Property."

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.—President Vayhinger, of Taylor University, was invited to present the work of his institution. The report showed that Taylor University is educating more missionaries than all other colleges of all denominations in the State and in all probability more candidates for the ministry. The enrollment for this year is the highest in its history. The past year has witnessed the construction of a new beautiful brick dormitory for girls.

On motion of Brother Greene, a rising vote of thanks was given to the Christian Church for the use of their building.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report, which was adopted: E. Starbuck, President, Goshen; D. O. Skillen, Vice-President, Muncie; B. W. Ayres, Secretary-Treasurer, Upland; Dr. Wm. Enslen, President Fort Wayne District; D. C. Turnbull, President Goshen District; G. E. Meck, President Logansport District; S. T. Waite, President Muncie District; P. A. Daily, President Richmond District; E. E. Youse, President Wabash District.

The meeting adjourned for noon recess, to meet in the afternoon session at the Methodist Episcopal Church.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting was called to order in the Methodist Episcopal church at two o'clock by President Starbuck. Song service was led by G. E. Meck, and E. E. Youse led in the opening prayer. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer was read and adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was adopted:

1. The Laymen's Association of North Indiana Conference hereby express and record their appreciation of the recognition extended by the allotment of this time on the Conference program.

2. Resolved, That we approve and heartily indorse the work already done at Taylor University and urge a prompt and liberal support for the future.

3. Resolved, The truth of the principles of Christian stewardship is so vital in its relation to the whole program of Christ and his church, so essential for our right relationship with God, and so necessary if the whole world shall be evangelized, that we declare our earnest indorsement of the Christian Stewardship League of the Methodist Episcopal Church and its educational program, and we believe the ministry should lead out aggressively and at once to instruct our people.

4. The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference heartily indorse the Conference program to secure additional endowment of $300,000 for the Preachers' Aid Society of our Conference.

Resolutions Committee: A. B. Cline, G. E. Meck, S. T. Waite, A. R. Thomas, D. C. Turnbull.

Dr. Harvey Calkins was then introduced and delivered one of his masterful addresses on "Christian Stewardship," taking as his theme, "Christian Bookkeeping."

Bishop Nicholson made a very able address on the lines of Christian stewardship. After this address, Brother Stackhouse, A. B. Cline, Miss Olla Davis, and E. E. Youse were called on for discussion and spoke briefly.

Dr. C. U. Wade then presented the needs of some worthy daughters of ministers who had spent years of faithful service in caring for their parents in their old age and who now are in need themselves of care and financial aid. An offering was taken for their aid.

Adjourned.

E. STARBUCK, President.
B. W. AYRES, Secretary.

(XIV) Historical

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1917, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated Sy., Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired. SECRETARY.

Explanatory—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge

Illinois Woman's College

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements:

First—The instruction should be thorough.
Second—The equipment should be generous.
Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.
Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.
Fifth—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.
Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE OFFERS THE FOLLOWING COURSES:

Regular College courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science.

Degree, Certificate and special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why should any young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized the college would not be able to take care of more than half the applications.

CHURCH AND HOME INSURANCE

OUR NINETEENTH YEAR

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS ($150,000,000.00) is a pretty large sum even in these days of big things and yet the amount of protection we have granted in our nearly nineteen years of history exceeds that; over THIRTY SEVEN AND ONE HALF MILLION ($37,500,000.00) is now in effect, by far the largest amount since we began business.

No policyholder has had to wait a day for a dollar that was due and unpaid for losses, although our losses have aggregated over ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00).

Churches, Parsonages, their contents, Schools, Ministers' Property and the Home Property of the people who build and sustain the churches are insured against Fire, Lightning and Windstorm AT COST.

PREMIUMS, IN EASY ANNUAL INSTALMENTS. SAVINGS GO TO OUR OVER 18,000 POLICYHOLDERS WHO OWN THE COMPANY.

(VII) Daily Proceedings.

JOURNAL OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Warsaw, Indiana, Wednesday, April 3, 1918.

The North Indiana Annual Conference convened in its seventy-fifth session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Warsaw, Indiana, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

At 8.30 A. M. the Bishop called the Conference to order, and requested the singing of hymn No. 560,

"And are we yet alive,"

and the national anthem,

"My country, 'tis of thee."

These were both sung, the audience standing during the singing of the national anthem.

Prayer was offered by J. E. Williams, D.D.

The Bishop called the attention of the Conference to Indiana's progress in temperance work, and also commented on the progress that Illinois is making at this time. The Conference sang "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow."

The Bishop conducted a very helpful and interesting Bible study from the first five verses of the first chapter of the Book of Joshua, and offered prayer.

Judge Francis E. Bowser, of the Kosciusko County Circuit Court, welcomed the Conference in behalf of the local church in an address resplendant with Christian spirit, to which the Bishop made suitable and happy response.

The Lord's Supper.—Bishop Nicholson called the District Superintendents and the pastor of the local church to conduct the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. After they had administered the elements to a large number of communicants, he led in the use of the Lord's Prayer, in which the congregation joined. After this the Conference sang the first hymn, "O for a thousand tongues to sing!" thus closing this service.

Roll Call.—At the request of the Bishop, D. V. Williams, Secretary of the last session, called the roll of the members deceased since the last session. The Conference stood while the following names were read: John W. Welch, Joshua E. Ervin, William S. Stewart, Alexander M. Patterson, John W. Paschall, Isaac W. Singer. Prayer was offered by C. U. Wade.

The Secretary called the roll of the members of the Conference, to which the following responded:

W. Peck E. L. Semans, A. J. Carey, R. H. Smith, J. B. Cook, J. S. Cain, C. H. Brown, J. T. Fettro, W. D. Parr, L. J. Naftzger, T. M. Guild, C. E. White, C. E. Line, C. U. Wade, M. F. Stright, F. G. The Bishop introduced to the Conference Peter M. Feldtmose, his private secretary.

The Bishop read the following telegram from G. H. Myers, who was just sailing for India in the interests of the Board of Foreign Missions:

> "Greetings to yourself and the brethren. May God grant great Conference session. Sailing Vancouver Empress of Russia.—G. H. Myers."

On motion of J. C. White, the Secretary was instructed to wire Brother Myers a suitable reply, in care of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The program prepared by the Committee was adopted as the official program of this Conference session, and the hour of the morning session was fixed at 8.30, and the closing hour at 12.15.

The Bishop requested the District Superintendents, W. W. Martin, of the Fort Wayne District; R. J. Wade, of the Goshen District; B. S. Hollopeter, of the Logansport District; J. A. Beatty, of the Muncie District; Somerville Light, of the Richmond District, and M. S. Marble, of the Wabash District, to stand. They answered in a satisfactory manner the Disciplinary Questions contained in paragraph 87. Their characters were passed, and B. S. Hollopeter read the report of the Logansport District.

On motion of George Richmond Grose, President of DePauw University, the following resolution was passed, and the Secretary was ordered to send a copy to President Wilson:

To President Woodrow Wilson,
Washington, D. C.:

Recognizing the gravity of the present hour in the Nation, and the burdens resting upon the President, the members of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing over 200,000 citizens, desire to assure you of their prayers for divine guidance and of their loyal support in the vigorous prosecution of the war until a righteous peace may be established throughout the world.

M. S. Marble reported Wabash District.

M. A. Harlan was appointed agent for the Methodist Review.

The list of Supernumerary preachers, as printed in the Minutes, was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Introduction.—I. Garland Penn, Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society, was introduced, and spoke in the interests of that organization.

Thirty-Sixth Question.—On motion of C. H. Smith, Question Thirty-six, "Where shall the next Conference be held?" was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning, immediately after the reading of the Journal.

The committees were called, announcements made, and Conference adjourned, with the benediction by Charles A. Kelly, of the Rock River Conference.

Afternoon Session.

The Conference convened at 1.30, Bishop Nicholson in the chair. He announced the second hymn, "Come, thou almighty King," which was sung, and prayer was offered by C. U. Wade.

Reports.—On motion of the Secretary, the pastors were requested to conform to the requirements of the Discipline in reporting their Disciplinary collections, and also to report whether there had been an increase or decrease in the membership on their charges and in the periodicals taken.

R. C. Ballard called the attention of the Conference to the meeting of the Indiana Dry Federation in Indianapolis, and offered the following, which was adopted:

To THE INDIANA DRY FEDERATION,
Indianapolis, Indiana:

The North Indiana Conference sends greetings, and is with you for a dry State and Nation.

Signed:
R. C. BALLARD,
C. U. WADE,
H. S. NICKERSON.

On motion of Brother Ballard, the Secretary of the Conference was requested to send a copy of the foregoing to the Federation.

After C. U. Wade had called the attention of the Conference to the fact that the time for the Diamond Jubilee was not until next year, on motion of S. Light, the observance of the same was deferred until that time, and Brother Wade was requested to deliver the address on that occasion.

Credentials.—M. S. Marble presented the credentials of J. H. Neher, a local elder, which, on motion, were filed with the Conference.

Sale of Property.—On motion of R. J. Wade, the trustees of an abandoned church property on the Middlebury charge were authorized to sell the same and apply the proceeds on the repair of the Middlebury parsonage.

Reports.—The following District Superintendents reported the work on their respective Districts: Somerville Light, Richmond District, and R. J. Wade, Goshen District.

Draft.—The Bishop announced a draft from the Book Concern for $5,015, which was ordered endorsed and turned over to the Board of Stewards for distribution to the Conference Claimants. In connection with this announcement, he read brief excerpts from the report of the Book Concern.

On motion of R. J. Wade, the pastor of the senior member of our Conference was appointed a committee to send the greetings of the Conference to the absent retired members.

Announcements were made, and the Conference adjourned, to meet at 1.30 in joint session with the laymen.

The benediction was pronounced by Charles E. Guthrie.

Afternoon Session.

Conference met at 1.30 in joint session with the Laymen's Association, Bishop Nicholson presiding. He announced Hymn No. 334, "My faith looks up to Thee," which was sung, and prayer was then offered by Professor B. W. Ayers and W. D. Parr.

In extending a welcome to the laymen meeting with us in joint session, the Bishop spoke in a happy manner of the intimate relation they sustain to the forward movements in the church. To his words of welcome Mr. E. E. Starbuck, president of the Laymen's Association, made a suitable reply, and assured the Conference of the sincere, hearty, and continued co-operation of the laymen with the ministers.

Somerville Light then delivered a stirring address on the program of the Chicago Area. A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, in an address that stirred deeply the hearts of all in this joint meeting, urged the greatest of spiritual equipment, the baptism of the Holy Spirit as an essential and adequate equipment, on the part of both preachers and laymen, for the carrying out of this great forward movement inaugurated by the Centenary Commission.

Prayer was offered by Bishop Nicholson, after which the following delivered short, stirring addresses: Judge F. E. Bowser, of Warsaw, on "Co-operation;" E. S. Vandemark, on "Evangelization of the Country Church;" B. F. Hornaday made some very helpful remarks upon the country church problem. F. P. Bothwell, of Ligonier, gave a short talk. Ralph Ward, of China, spoke with reference to the Centenary program.

Bishop Nicholson spoke briefly upon the possibilities of the world program. Then the following resolution was read by F. W. Greene, of Syracuse:

We, the preachers of the North Indiana Conference and members of the North Indiana Conference Laymen's Association, in joint session, having heard with high appreciation the patriotic and religious sentiments as expressed by Bishop Nicholson and others, ministers and laymen who are in leadership in this Conference, do hereby express our full endorsement and enthusiastic approval of the same.

We note with keen interest the program formulated and adopted by the Conference of District Superintendents of the Chicago Area last February, with Bishop Nicholson presiding, as the program of Methodism for the Chicago Area for the year 1918. We note that it is a program necessitated by the present-day world situation. It is also the result of a careful survey of the moral, religious, and social conditions now prevailing in large cities and in rural communities. As such, it makes a compelling appeal to every loyal Methodist to give unstinted co-operative support to our Bishop and others identified with him in leadership, to the end that this Conference may make the largest possible contribution to the intellectual awakening, political purifying, moral elevation, and spiritual illumination and consequent social and industrial betterment of all the people of this great area.

To the faithful working out of this program, which calls for the unqualified loyalty of every citizen to the President of this Republic in winning the war, as a patriotic duty to be cheerfully performed; also for the recruiting and training of our ministry, the promotion of moral and religious education in Sunday school and Epworth League endeavor, campaigns for endowments and Christian stewardship, the solution of problems peculiar to life in our great cities, the development of the moral and religious resources of our rural communities, the maintenance of the central mission of the church, which is world-wide evangelism, we pledge the full measure of our devotion in united and co-operative endeavor.

R. J. Wade offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

The Centenary World Program of American Methodism challenges attention on every hand, the hearty co-operation of all laymen and pastors.

The call of the last General Conference for a celebration of the Missionary Centenary during the years 1918 and 1919 is being answered by statesmanlike vision by our bishops and missionary leaders. The nation has been thrust into world obligations of undreamed significance. In these days of world-wide destruction we give ourselves unusually to this great world program of construction. The world is to be made safe for democracy and democracy made safe for the world by the regenerating power of the preached gospel of Christ.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a standing vote, and the joint session stood adjourned.

FIFTH DAY.

Sunday, April 7, 1918.

The Annual Conference Love Feast was opened at nine o'clock, in which G. B. Work, who was in charge, was assisted by Lewis Reeves, Charles E. Disbro, M. F. Stright, and J. S. Cain. J. S. Cain announced the first hymn, "O for a thousand tongues to sing," after the singing of which prayer was offered by Lewis Reeves. M. F. Stright read the Old Testament lesson, and the New Testament lesson was read by Charles E. Disbro. After a large number of both ministers and laymen had testified, in which a fine spirit prevailed, the Love Feast was brought to a close.

Public Worship.—At 10.30 the public worship was opened by the pastor of the church, the Rev. L. J. Naftzger, announcing the first hymn, "O for a thousand tongues to sing." Prayer was offered by Dr. Mantel. The splendid choir of the church rendered beautiful music under the leadership of Mr. Elmer Funk, choir director.

D. T. Stephenson read the Scripture lesson and Everett Naftzger sang a solo.

Bishop Nicholson preached a soul-stirring sermon from Matt. 22. 46, "What think ye of Christ?" and closed the service with prayer, after singing Hymn No. 180, "All hail the power of Jesus' name." The Bishop pronounced the benediction.

Memorial Service.

The Conference met for the memorial service at 2.30 P. M., with D. V. Williams, the Secretary, in charge. The hymn "My faith looks up to Thee" was sung, and prayer was offered by C. H. Brown.

Miss Geraldine Dunn sang a solo, and W. A. Griest, the Assistant Secretary, read for a Scripture lesson the eighty-seventh Psalm. Rev. R. C. Plank and wife sang a beautiful duet.

The Secretary read a brief review of the memoirs of J. W. Welch, P. S. Stephens, J. W. Paschall, I. W. Singer, F. M. Lacy, J. E. Ervin, A. M. Patterson, William S. Stewart, and Mrs. Sarah Foland Peck, Mrs. Weber Roahrig, Mrs. A. L. Lamport, Mrs. Melissa E. Lacy, and Mrs. J. E. Ervin, deceased within the last year. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Line, D.D. His subject was "The Anniversaries Kept in Heaven," from the text, "The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born in Zion." The Secretary called attention to the fact that one of the supplies, Rev. A. M. Wickman, had died this last year, and his District Superintendent, M. S. Marble, spoke briefly of his life and work.

Ordination Service.

Immediately at the close of the memorial srvice, Bishop Nicholson took charge of the ordination services, and at his request the Secretary called the names of the following: Edgar Moore, William O. Power, Vernie C. Rogers, George E. Whitten, Frank S. Young, J. Austin Lord, and Fred R. Hill, and presented them to the Bishop to be ordained deacons. After they had taken the vows the Bishop ordained them deacons.

The Secretary called the following to the altar and presented them to be ordained elders: Charles W. Chadwick, Valorous L. Clear, Ernest B. Megenity, Henry C. Powell, Alvin F. White, Ernest J. Wickersham, Owen B. Young, George L. Jordan, George N. Callaway, J. Austin Lord, David L. MacFarlane, and Fred R. Hill. After these had taken their vows, the Bishop, with the assistance of the District Superintendents and other elders, ordained them elders.

The Bishop called the deacons who had been ordained, as well as their wives and friends, to the altar for a consecration service, in which George R. Grose and James A. Beatty led in prayer.

The ordination service closed with the benediction by the Bishop.

Certificate of Ordination

This Certifies, That at Warsaw, Indiana, on April seventh, nineteen hundred eighteen, I did ordain, under election of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the following:

As Deacons.—Fred R. Hill, J. Austin Lord, Edgar Moore, William O. Power, Vernie C. Rogers, George E. Whitten, and Frank S. Young.

As Elders.—George N. Callaway, Charles W. Chadwick, Valorous L. Clear, Fred R. Hill, George L. Jordan, J. Austin Lord, David L. MacFarlane, Ernest B. Megenity, Henry C. Powell, Alvin F. White, Ernest J. Wickersham, and Owen B. Young.

Thomas Nicholson
Presiding Bishop.

SIXTH DAY.

Monday Morning, April 5, 1918.

Conference convened at 8.30 A. M., Bishop Nicholson presiding. He announced Hymn No. 212, "Zion stands with hills surrounded," which was sung. He read for a Scripture lesson the 46th Psalm, and made very helpful remarks on the same. Prayer was made by G. B. Work. Hymn No. 428 was sung, "Must Jesus bear the cross alone?"

At Bishop Nicholson's suggestion, a vote of thanks was extended Brother McCarter for his splendid service as head usher of the local church.

The Journal of Saturday's sessions was read and approved. The Journal of Sunday's services and sessions was read and approved, and the memoirs prepared by the Secretary were adopted as the official memoirs.

On motion of the Secretary, the Cabinet nominated the standing committees for next year and was requested to apportion the Conference Benevolences for this year to the Districts. B. S. Hollopeter, for the Cabinet, read the list of standing committees for next year. (See list.)

M. S. Marble moved that all requests to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for Missionary Appropriations be referred to the Cabinet, with power to act.

Publication of Minutes.—On motion of D. H. Guild, the Secretary was ordered to have printed five thousand copies of the transactions of this Conference session, together with the reports and statistics, as the Official Journal, and to distribute the same to the Districts pro rata with the number of members in full connection, and to send a copy to each retired member living without the bounds of the Conference, and a copy to each Conference widow; and that one hundred dollars be added to the expense account of publishing the Minutes of the Conference, to be given to the Secretary as part pay for his services as Secretary.

Change of Relation.—On motion of their respective District Superintendents and the recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, G. E. Garrison and J. H. McNary were granted the retired relation at their own request.

Fifth Question.—The Fifth Question, "Who have been Received onTrial?" was called. The following were introduced, reported in their studies by the Registrar, recommended by the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, represented by their respective District Superintendents, and admitted on trial in the Conference in the Studies of the First Year: James F. Stephenson and John M. Stewart, recommended by the Fort Wayne District Conference; Ralph C. Plank, Samuel L. Yoder, and Leo D. Hershberger, recommended by the Goshen District Conference; Clarence G. Cook, Ernest G. Giggy, Phillips B. Smith, and Barton R. Pogue, recommended by the Muncie District Conference; Estill E. Franklin, Victor E. Stoner, Ralph R. Henderson, recommended by the Richmond District Conference; and D. Joseph Imler, recommended by the Wabash District Conference.

Second Question.—Question Two, "Who have been Transferred, and from what Conferences?" was asked, and the Bishop formally announced the transfers of the following: Arthur J. Armstrong, from the North Montana; Edgar Moore, Walter B. Morgan, and J. Austin Lord, Northwest Indiana; Chester L. Schwartz and Charles Emery Smith, Indiana; David L. MacFarlane, Central Illinois; William V. Meredith, Detroit; Lewis C. McFarlin, North-East Ohio; John F. Porter, Rock River, and Thomas Davies, Dakota.

The following were formally announced as transferred out: Silas L. Cates, Colorado; William A. McCurdy, West China; Alfred H. Kenna and J. Austin Lord, Northwest Indiana; C. Claud Travis, Rock River; George L. Conway, West Virginia; David L. MacFarlane, Central Illinois; George H. Crafts, North-East Ohio, and Charles W. Jeffras, New England.

The Committee on the State of the Country made a report, which was adopted by a rising vote. "My country, 'tis of thee" was sung.

The Committee on Ministers and Sons from Our Parsonage Homes in the Army made report, which was adopted. On motion of W. D. Parr, it was ordered that the list be printed in the Conference Minutes. At the request of the Bishop, prayer was offered by Leslie J. Naftzger.

It was ordered that those reporting the number of stars on their service flags should report to H. A. P. Homer the number.

Program for Next Session.—On motion of the Secretary, the Superintendent of Logansport District and the pastor of First Church, Peru, were constituted a Committee on Program for the next session of this Conference.

On motion of D. V. Williams, the Bishop was asked to appoint the pastor of First Church, Elwood, a fraternal delegate to the State meeting of the Methodist Protestant Church, which meets in Elwood next fall.

C. U. Wade offered a resolution relative to Preachers' Aid Work, which was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Leslie J. Naftzger, President of the Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees, asked authority of the Conference to invest $700 of the funds of the Corporation in Liberty Bonds, which authority was granted.

M. S. Marble, in behalf of the Cabinet, read complimentary resolutions relative to the presidency of Bishop Nicholson, which was adopted by a standing vote.

The statistician read report of totals, which report was ordered printed in the Minutes.

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, it was ordered that copy of the Treasurer's report be handed to the District Superintendents at an early date.

First Question.—The First Question, "Is this Annual Conference Incorporated According to the Requirements of the Discipline?" was asked, and answered, "It is."

On motion of T. M. Guild, the Secretary was authorized to edit and condense wherever necessary all reports, not changing essentials in them.

T. M. Guild moved an extension of time, in order to hear the reports. Time was extended.

Reports.—The following reports were read and adopted, and where there were nominations, these were elected. Aggressive Evangelism, Bible Society, Education, Freedmen's Aid, and Stewards. (See Reports.)

On motion of R. J. Wade, the Secretary was requested to devise plans whereby the reports of the Standing Committees might be made early in the session next year, and printed, if possible, for the study of each member of the Conference.

The Treasurer read the report of totals, which was adopted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

The Conference granted the Board of Stewards the authority to disburse the funds due childless deceased claimants.

Questions 31-34 were asked and answered. (See Disciplinary Questions.)

A resolution relative to the unmarked graves of deceased members of this Conference was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

On motion of J. C. White, a collection was ordered and taken for the Janitor of the local church, on account of the splendid condition in which he had kept the church during the Conference session. The collection was taken, and amounted to $21.52.

On motion of V. L. Clear, a committee consisting of the District Superintendents and one pastor and layman from each District was ordered raised to consider the problem of the country church. (See Special Committees.)

Reports.—The following reports were read and adopted. (See Reports.) Hospital, Memorial Home, Parsonage and Furniture, Social and Moral Questions, Sunday Schools, Sustentation, Woman's Work.

On motion of Preston Polhemus, the officers of Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees were re-elected. (See List.)

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, it was ordered that the amount apportioned to the different charges for the hospital be the same as last year.

Commission on Education for Indiana.—On motion, the following were constituted the members of the Commission on Education for Indiana: W. W. Martin, C. U. Wade, and W. B. Freeland.

Mr. J. C. Shade read a resolution from the local church, which so nicely entertained us during the session. (See Resolutions.)

Complimentary resolutions were read and adopted by a standing vote. M. S. Marble called the attention of the Conference to the fact that, as Treasurer of the Flood Fund, he had turned over to the Board of Stewards the balance on hands, amounting to $242.99, to be used as an emergency fund.

The Committee on District Conference Journals read a report, which was adopted.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, it was ordered that the Auditing Committee be requested to report at the opening of the next session of this Conference.

The Secretary read the following letter from the White House, which letter, on motion, the Conference ordered printed in the Minutes.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, April 6, 1918.

MY DEAR SIR:

The President asks me to thank you very warmly for your courtesy in sending him a copy of the resolutions adopted by the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He is grateful for the prayers and support of your associates and yourself, and he genuinely appreciates this heartening message.

Sincerely yours,
Signed: JOS. TUMULTY,
Secretary to the President.

Rev. Dr. D. V. Williams,
Secretary of the Conference,
Warsaw, Indiana.

No further business being brought to the attention of the Conference, on motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that, after conducting of the devotional services and the reading of the appointments, the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church stands adjourned sine die.

The Journal of this day's session was approved without reading. The Journal of the present session of the Conference was adopted as the Official Journal of its proceedings.

Devotions.—The Bishop spoke briefly of the work of the present session and offered prayer.

He read the list of appointments, the long meter Doxology was sung, he pronounced the benediction, and the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church stood adjourned without day.

Thomas Nicholson
President.

Dorie V. Williams.
Secretary.

(VIII) Reports.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

Wallace W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren: Our task at this moment is a pleasureable one. We bring glad tidings of good things. For two years in succession each minister's home in Ft. Wayne District has been spared the toll of death. We have three retired ministers living within this district: M. C. Pittenger, of Coesse; M. F. Stright and J. K. Walts, of Ft. Wayne. Each of these is a loyal helper to his pastor, and faithful to all the interests of the kingdom.

The severity of the winter, at times almost impassable roads, the fuel situation, have imposed hardships, interfered with special services, and have introduced new conditions, but uncomplainingly our pastors and laymen have been true soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ and have made these difficulties stepping stones to larger achievement. We have announced our creed. In Ft. Wayne District we believe that when the world is depending upon America as never before, and when the American Government is depending upon the church as never before, it is no time for the church to retreat. And we are not retreating.

Wallace W. Martin.

Changes in Pastors.—On July 15 Brother L. G. Carnes, of Poneto, and Brother E. E. Wright, of Harlan, were exchanged in appointments, the pastors and charges consenting to the arrangement.

On September 15 C. A. McPheeters, a probationer of this Conference, was relieved of the Hoagland charge that he might attend school, and Brother Russell S. Jones, also a probationer, was appointed to this charge.

At the same time Arthur C. Emmons, who was supplying the Spencerville charge, was relieved of his work, and Glen Bryan was appointed in his stead.

October 15 Dr. C. Claud Travis, for eight and one-half years the well-loved pastor at Wayne Street, Ft. Wayne, was transferred by Bishop Nicholson to the Rock River Conference and stationed at First Church, Englewood, and J. F. Porter, of that Conference, formerly a member of this Conference, was returned to us and stationed at Wayne Street.

Church and Parsonage Property.—On the sixth day of May we dedicated the beautiful rural church at St. Joe, on the Ft. Wayne Circuit. This was quite an undertaking for only thirty-five members, the number reported by J. M. Stewart, pastor, at our last Conference session. The cost of the building was $6,400, and of this $3,500 was unprovided for. At the afternoon session we were able to announce that $4,100 had been pledged. At night we conducted evangelistic services and eleven people came forward and united with the church. Fine revival meetings have since been held and the membership of the church more than doubled this year. All but $1,850 has been paid at this time. Brother Stewart believes in prayer, and this and other achievements are some of his tokens of answer to prayer.

On September 23 our commodious and modern church at Hudson was dedicated by Dr. A. E. Smith, of Ada, Ohio. The cost was about $12,000, and about $8,000 was needed to meet indebtedness. On the total cost of this building and its furnishings $7,076 have been paid during the year. The pastor, D. A. J. Brown, deserves great credit for his leadership in this movement.

On October 28 our church just outside Auburn Junction was dedicated. So well had the pastor, E. J. Glendenning, and the trustees cared for the finances that it was only necessary to raise a small amount to care for the indebtedness, and before the services of the day were concluded there was enough cash in the hands of the treasurer of the Board of Trustees to pay all obligations.

Shortly after Conference last spring a property at Bluffton was purchased as a parsonage for the Bluffton Circuit, and this has been remodeled, and the pastor, E. J. Maupin, and his family have been occupying this comfortable parsonage home. Twelve hundred dollars has been raised and paid on this property this year.

In harmony with the action of the Quarterly Conference of the Ashley charge a property has been contracted for, and the pastor, Darrell Stoakes, and wife are occupying this parsonage.

Geo. L. Conway has been successful in providing the entire amount needed ($1,800) to finish paying for the new parsonage erected at Pleasant Mills last year.

Fifteen hundred dollars has been paid on the debt at Ossian, $2,000 on the debt at Garrett, $1,000 on the debt at Leo, and $900 on the debt at Fremont.

The Huntertown church has been repaired and frescoed at an expense of $1,000; the Wayne Street church has installed a new heating plant in the parsonage at an expense of $1,200; $800 in cash has been raised and applied to the new building fund at Trinity, Ft. Wayne.

Methodist Literature.—The Sunday schools at Ft. Wayne District want the strong meat of the gospel they find in our own Sunday-school literature. We are glad to say that the most of our pastors feel the same responsibility with regard to taking of subscriptions for our church papers as they do for our benevolences. The circulation of the Western Christian Advocate has increased, the net gain in subscriptions being 207.

Revivals, Church Membership, Pastoral Labor.—About one thousand conversions and reclamations are reported. Considering the fact that in many places our pastors were prohibited from holding any meetings, we are thankful for even this number. The largest number of converts reported is by Glen Bryan, on the Spencerville charge, 100. Jos. Grimes, Coesse, reports 80; B. D. Nysewander, Fiat, 68; J. M. Stewart, Ft. Wayne Circuit, 63; G. A. Snider, Geneva Circuit, 56; F. A. Hall, Auburn, 55; A. G. Neal, First Church, Ft. Wayne, 55; M. C. Wright, Trinity, 48; Chas. Tinkham, Garrett, 45; E. J. Glendenning, Auburn Circuit, 41; L. G. Carnes, Harlan, 41; G. Dawe, Kingsland, 35; L. W. Kemper; Fremont, 31; G. L. Conway, Pleasant Mill, 28; and others less than 25.

The advance reports of pastors indicate that 1,271 names have been recorded as full members this year, and that for various causes 821 have been removed. While the margin here is not large, it is a margin on the right side of the ledger.

It is a time to stress pastoral visitation and evangelism. When sons are at the front and hearts at home are tender, when usual methods of evangelism are partially forbidden, there is no barrier to a minister's pleading and prayers with the people in their homes and in offices.

Ministerial Support.—When on circuits allowance has been made for changes in the charges, the advance for pastor's cash salary for the churches now constituting the charges is as follows: First Church, Ft. Wayne, $500; Ray, $400; Bluffton Circuit, $325; First Church, Bluffton, $300; Huntertown, $300; Garrett, $250; Simpson, Ft. Wayne, $200; Leo, $200; Decatur Circuit, $200; Hamilton, $200; York, $200; Coesse, $162; Trinity, Ft. Wayne, $150; Fiat, $150; Auburn Circuit, $125; Decatur, $100; Geneva Circuit, $100; Fremont, $100; Harlan, $100; Ossian, $100; Woodburn, $100; and Montpelier at the close of this year adds $100. Lesser increases have been made at Ashley, Geneva, Spencerville, and Kingsland (26 out of 40 charges); a total advance in cash salary for pastors of $4,587, and twenty-one charges have already planned for advance next year. With the average cost of living having advanced 30 per cent in 1916, and 25 per cent more in 1917, we are in no danger of keeping up in salaries with the advance cost of living.

District Meetings.—The pastors' and stewards' meeting held in May; the Settlement Day and Evangelistic Conference in December; the Central Meeting conducted by all the district superintendents in September; the Fall Benevolence Campaign, with J. J. Kingham, J. M. Yard, and S. W. Edwards as missionary helpers; the Epworth League convention in Garrett; the meetings of the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S., and the National Board of Control of the Epworth League, all in Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne, and the District Conference in First Church, Ft. Wayne, with Bishop Nicholson and other distinguished representatives of General Conference Boards of our church, have widened the vision of our people and laid fundations for further achievement.

Christian Stewardship.—After conference with our capable missionary secretary, F. A. Hall, it was agreed that we should undertake to do something for Christian Stewardship. Consequently F. F. Thornburg was appointed as Christian Stewardship secretary. During our fall missionary campaigns we gave Christian Stewardship a leading place. November 25 was set apart as enlistment day for Christian Stewardship. The immediate result has been the enlistment of twelve hundred men and women in Ft. Wayne District. Thus we have anticipated the Christian Stewardship campaign in connection with the Centenary campaign. We can care for all national interests in this critical war time and also meet the obligations of the church when all our people recognize themselves as stewards of God in material things.

Benevolences.—Last year we reported that Ft. Wayne District would take its place along with Goshen District with a "pull up" in each charge for the eight benevolent boards. By a margin of one dollar one charge failed, though all apportionments were met and the pastor thought this constituted a "pull up." Perhaps prophecy is vain, but all pastors report an increase for the eight boards. Last year fifteen charges were in the all-star class. This year, according to reports, thirty charges will pay the full apportionments or more. Two more churches in the district have adopted the parish-abroad plan: First Church, Ft. Wayne, is supporting J. J. Kingham, and First Church, Decatur, E. W. Detrich. Only churches that agree to meet all apportionments in full are asked to take a pastor abroad. The following charges in the district pay more than $1,000 this year to the eight benevolent boards: Simpson, Ft. Wayne, $1,022; Hamilton, B. F. Hornaday, pastor, $1,385; Wayne Street, J. F. Porter, pastor, $1,580; First Church, Auburn, F. A. Hall, pastor, $2,041; First Church, Decatur, F. F. Thornburg, pastor, $2,101; First Church, Ft. Wayne, A. G. Neal, pastor, $2,110; First Church, Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, pastor, $5,234. We are confident that Bluffton will lead the Conference this year, but pledges already taken provide for an increase next year. The following charges are reported by their pastors as having reached the full apportionment: Angola; Ashley; Auburn Circuit; Coesse; Fiatt; Trinity, Ft. Wayne; Fremont; Garrett; Geneva, Geneva Circuit; Harlan; Hoagland; Hudson; Huntertown; Leo; Monroe; Monroeville; New Haven; Orland; Spencerville; York Circuit. I was called this morning by the district missionary secretary and told that the men of our district had gone over the figures and that a certain sum would put all charges in the all-star class, and that he would sign note with two or three and get the money. We will not do this now, but we will assure that as a first increase for next year.

Last year the Ft. Wayne District led the districts of the Conference in increase, a gain of $3,409 for the eight boards. We are informed by Dr. Hollingshead, apportionment secretary, that in the four years ending in 1917 the North Indiana led the fifty-one spring Conferences of Methodism in increase for the eight boards. He also informs us that the Ft. Wayne District passed to the first place in all the districts of these fifty-one Conferences. Last fall I wrote Bishop Nicholson that we were expecting that within four years the district would double its gifts to these great boards. From the reports given me the gain in the district this year has been $10,032, which, added to the gain of $3,409 of last year, makes a gain of $13,441 for the two years, and this is a gain of 100 per cent over the $12,693 paid in 1916, with $142 margin. A few days since a note came from a characteristic layman of Ft. Wayne District: "We are advancing the pastor's salary $100 for next year, and we are paying 32 per cent above the apportionment on benevolences this year. How's that?" Riding on a car with a layman, we were discussing the Centenary program, who said, "I do not have to stop with $10,000, nor $15,000, nor $20,000, nor $25,000 on this big program." The pastors and laymen of Ft. Wayne District have caught the spirit of the Centenary movement, believing that it is in the order of divine Providence that when the world is in the melting pot we should be getting ready in earnest for the reconstruction of the world.

Ft. Wayne Methodism.—We are undertaking to solve the problems of Methodism in the second city of the State.

J. F. Porter came in October to Wayne Street Church. He was to follow a very popular and successful pastor, who for more than eight years had ministered to this people. Difficulties had arisen early in the year. The situation has been met. The outstanding success in the past year had been on benevolences, but this year is better than Dr. Travis' best.

A. G. Neal, at First Church, has had a remarkable year. The gifts to benevolences have been almost doubled. He not only reports the largest membership in the district, 1,230, but the largest net gain in members, 115.

Simpson Church has been served the past year by U. S. A. Bridge. The already phenomenal record of this church on benevolences has been surpassed this year. All financial obligations have been met promptly. Approximately $3,000 has been raised to pay on principal and interest on debt. The Sunday school here leads the other Methodist Sunday schools of Ft. Wayne in average attendance. One hundred new members have been received during the year.

Manfred C. Wright, reared in Ft. Wayne, a worker in the shops, last spring returned to his home town and home Conference to become pastor of Trinity Church. The first few weeks of the Conference year were critical in this church, but Brother Wright's Christian manliness, his open optimism, his fine pulpit utterances, and his pastoral fidelity have brought a church together with united purpose to do the real work of the kingdom. He has had 175 accessions and fine increase in his benevolences. The churches of Ft. Wayne have made a religious census within the year and we are launching a federated movement, and already Ft. Wayne Methodism asks that the secretary of our Methodist preachers' organization, Brother L. M. Krider, be furnished the names of all Methodists moving to Ft. Wayne, and he will distribute these names according to addresses to various pastors.

The Methodist Hospital.—Our campaign for the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis brought subscriptions of $4,100 on an asking of $3,000, and $2,537 of this amount has been paid.

After careful investigation, in which all the district superintendents of this Conference shared, it was concluded to appoint a committee of seven to confer with the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Hospital Association of Indiana with regard to the purchase of the Ways Sanitarium as a hospital for the Methodist Episcopal Church. It was felt that the Methodist hospital work of the State should not be competitive, but cooperative. The superintendent of the Ft. Wayne District, R. J. Wade, A. G. Neal, Dr. J. S. McCurdy, A. A. Berry, D. N. Foster, and F. F. Thornburg were named as the committee.

We found that the Hope Hospital Association was suspending operation because of certain difficulties that had arisen, and that they were heartily in sympathy with a movement for a Methodist hospital, and to give their time and counsel, as well as available funds, for such purpose.

The Ways Sanitarium is a six-story building, fireproof, 104 rooms; with its own heating, lighting, and water system, and already in operation as a hospital. It cost, with ground, building, and furnishings, $260.000; was estimated by architects to be worth $300,000. It could be bought for $260,000, and the builders, Dr. and Mrs. McBeth, would give $35,000 cash on this proposition, and give reasonable terms for the balance. When the representation was made to the Board of Trustees at Indianapolis, a committee of nine—three from each Conference—was chosen to meet at Ft. Wayne and make some recommendation to the trustees at a future meeting. The result has been that the Methodist Hospital Association of Indiana has agreed to the purchase of this building and the operation of this Methodist Hospital on the condition that Ft. Wayne and vicinity shall raise $100,000 and the Methodist Hospital Association assume the remaining indebtedness of $125,000. That was March 26. The executive committee of Hope Hospital have undertaken the leadership in this movement, and already there is available in cash and subscriptions the sum of $50,000. Such a Methodist institution is needed in this section of Indiana. The American Government has already designated this building as the hospital to care for her wounded and sick soldiers. We are confident that these conditions will be met at an early date, and our Methodists will have the best-equipped hospital in this section of the State. The North Indiana Conference has always been true to the interests of all Methodist institutions for this State, when not one of them has been located within our Conference, and we have assured our brethren of the Hospital Board that if a Methodist hospital is located in the largest city of our Conference they may depend still more upon our loyalty. For some time Dr. T. J. Johnson was manager of the Hope Hospital and has given much assistance to this movement.

With profound gratitude to God for his help and guidance, with a deep sense of what the cooperation of pastors and laymen of Ft. Wayne District has meant we close this our second report.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

R. J. Wade, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: Goshen District's report for the Conference year is a record of achievement, a true story of victorious advance on all fronts. Difficulties of unusual character have been encountered. Obstacles pertaining to an extraordinarily severe winter, the most distressing fuel shortage ever experienced, greatly aggravated in northern counties, the interruption by reason of war's demands, the contribution to Liberty's altar of life, time, strength, and money in unstinted measure; these have all been ours and yours.

Mastering the Situation.—Recognizing early that we faced a serious situation in the church, I appealed to pastors and laymen after this manner: "The evidence of great generalship lies in ability to turn seeming defeat into decisive victory. Napoleon, when report was brought early in the day of a repulse, said, 'One battle lost, there is time to win another.' We are prevented in most charges from carrying on proposed and usual evangelistic campaigns because of shortage of fuel. Combination of services on one week day and union Sunday evening services are in the new order."

R. J. Wade.

I argued that "yesterday extravagance, gluttony, drunkenness, licentiousness, selfishness threatened American life. We were rapidly traveling dangerous paths. To-day all is changed. The banner we bear is pure. Men and women seem to want to be good. They want to be of service. They want to help fight the common enemy. They are coming back to God, whether in the trenches, training camps, or home territory. The church is exalted as never before. Men are hungry as not for long. It is easier to talk and live religion than yesterday. God help us meet men's needs now. We must be to-day the Christian disciples of a new civilization. We must reach men with Christ."

That appeal met ready response in the hearts of the thirteen thousand laymen and forty-five pastor men of Goshen District. There have been no slackers among the ministry, and few faint hearts anywhere.

Revivals and Membership.—Almost every charge will report an increase in membership, many reaching the ten-per-cent goal. At the pastors' and stewards' meeting held in St. Mark's, Goshen, the very beginning of the year, the year's program was made to include an earnest effort to enroll in each charge during the year no less than ten new preparatory members. A few years ago the statistics for the entire connection revealed the astounding disclosure of 3,700 churches failing to enroll, with twelve months' effort of pastor and people, a single new probationer. North Indiana Conference and Goshen District furnished some of those churches. Brethren, it ought not so to be.

No tabernacle meetings have been held and few evangelists have been employed, though these agencies are never to be disparaged. "Eddie" Thomas assisted D. H. Guild at Trinity, Elkhart, for three weeks in revival services. Sixty-five dedicated their lives to Christ on the closing Sunday; thirty-two the Sunday previous; 120, all told. Total conversions and renewals for the year at Trinity register 140; 46 were received on Easter.

Evangelist Thomas also assisted in a brief successful meeting at Waterloo.

Passion Week services of exceedingly valuable character were held in the majority of our churches following the area program. Easter witnessed the reception of 53 members at First Church, Goshen; 24 at Nappanee; 39 at Mishawaka; 18 at St. Mark's, Goshen; 6 at Corunna; 21 at Albion; 13 at Bristol; 2 at Avilla; 3 at Cromwell; 10 at La Grange; 5 at North Webster; 22 at Osceola; 3 at Stroh; 7 on the Warsaw Circuit; 8 at Wolcottville; 2 at Inwood; 18 at Butler; 2 at Etna Green; 7 at Kendallville; 6 at Wakarusa; 5 at Tippecanoe.

The most outstanding revival record is that of Osceola, J. M. Jordan, pastor. In spite of snow and blizzard three meetings were held at the three appointments, resulting in 29 conversions at Bamarack, 30 at Jamestown, and 22 at Osceola. W. B. Morgan and G. E. Whitten exchanged help in North Webster and Cromwell, resulting in 32 conversions at Cromwell and 39 at North Webster. W. E. Hogan led to victory at Syracuse, with 51 conversions for the year. A union meeting at Wakarusa, Evangelist Phelps in charge, largely supported by our people, brought 14 decisions. J. W. Oborn assisted at Benton, with 10 conversions, while conversions at New Paris number 15. Brother Oborn has just closed a revival campaign in Clarion, Pa., where 95 conversions occurred. The year for him, as for other special evangelists, has not been as productive as usual because of inability to hold campaigns; nevertheless a total of 125 conversions is reported. When J. C. Woodruff was released, January 1, to become an assistant in the Conference Claimants field, Brother Oborn completed the year at New Paris, with very satisfactory results. Brother Earle Naftzger has had a fruitful year in evangelistic work in various fields until September 15, when he engaged in Y. M. C. A. war work at Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, and reports "during the six and one-half months more than one thousand personal interviews, five hundred decisions, and six hundred renewals."

Evangelistic effort resulted in conversions and definite decisions as follows: St. Paul, Elkhart, C. B. Croxall, pastor, 35; Bristol, R. R. Detweiler, pastor, 12; Howe, C. A. Hile, pastor, 28; Goshen Circuit, A. P. Teter, pastor, 20; Nappanee, R. E. Zeigler, 35; Wolcottville, W. T. Daily, 16; Etna Green, E. Dickson, 25; Pierceton, G. F. Hubbartt, 20; Tippecanoe, H. W. Park, 10; Bourbon, R. W. Stoakes, 17; Ligonier, T. M. Hill, 12; Middlebury, G. W. Martin, 20; Milford, R. V. Johnson, 2; Stroh, L. D. Hershberger, 6; South Milford, V. L. Clear, 12; Elkhart, Simpson, R. C. Plank, 10; Kendallville, F. A. Le Master, 24; Goshen, St. Marks, A. L. Lamport, 26; Albion, J. C. Graham, 10; Corunna, C. F. Jones, 7; Cromwell, G. E. Whitten, 34; Elkhart, Trinity, D. H. Guild, 140; Goshen, First, H. C. Harman, 21; Inwood, W. E. Loveless, 7; La Grange, C. L. De Bow, 9; North Webster, W. B. Morgan, 39; Osceola, J. M. Jordan, 74; Warsaw Circuit, R. S. Brown, 15; Butler, R. Burns, 5; Waterloo, S. F. Harter, 20; Wawaka, A. A. Turner, 2; Wolcottville, W. T. Daley, 16; Warsaw, L. J. Naftzger, 40; Wakarusa, S. B. Stookey, 15; Mishawaka, B. E. Parker, 30. Total conversions reported to date, 781.

Conference Claimants Campaign.—Pioneering the way to secure the complete endowment needed for Conference claimants in North Indiana Conference, Goshen District at first looked longingly toward its proportion, $50,000—one-sixth of the $300,000 at first thought practicable to be raised in this campaign. Open-minded, broad-visioned laymen recognizing a long overdue debt, virtually said that it ought and should be paid now.

The raising of the asking of entire Methodism last autumn from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000 automatically increased our goal to $100,000 per district. This gave us the opportunity we coveted. We are now working on the last $1,000 of the larger goal.

It was further discovered that $1,000,000 of endowment in the North Indiana Conference would permanently care for every claimant without annual apportionments to the charges. Our ultimate goal therefore is $150,000, and toward that we now address our efforts. It will ultimately be secured. A few churches have been slightly canvassed. In no one has the last dollar been secured. Some very large contributions are in prospect. Immediately after Conference we will address ourselves anew to the task.

Goshen District has been greatly blessed in the leaders who have worked with us in the campaign. Brother Morrison's coming has been a benediction to every home and charge. Two were reclaimed in connection with the solicitation of Brother J. C. Woodruff on the first charge to which he was sent. He has secured subscriptions large and small, and proved to be the exact man for the place. The General Board has loaned us for considerable time my former college classmate, J. Frank Anderson. The latest letter from a pastor concerning his work says: "Brother Anderson is a prince. Had one conversion yesterday in the home after we got an after-death bond for $500, the husband of the home."

The campaign has been worth everything that it has cost in spiritual blessing. Malachi's promise has again been fulfilled: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

Every minister and widow of a minister residing here in Warsaw has given liberally; one an after-death bond of $5,000, covering a large part of carefully husbanded outside resources.

This charge, under the magnificent leadership of Dr. L. J. Naftzger, greatly beloved, like his predecessor, both within and out of the church, has contributed over $10,000 to this fund, as has Etna Green, E. Dickson, pastor, while Nappanee, Goshen (First), and Trinity, Elkhart, are pushing close for the honors.

Births and Deaths.—The two of our veterans who had been longest on the retired list have gone home: "Father" Welch, aged ninety-four, third oldest in Methodism, spiritual father to my father; and J. W. Paschall, good and true servant. These men were honored among us and are mourned by all.

Death entered the parsonage at Bourbon during the session of the last Conference, conveying to the eternal home the accomplished wife of Brother R. W. Stoakes, and in August, after long and severe illness, the devoted companion of Brother A. L. Lamport, of St. Mark's, Goshen, was likewise summoned. June 3 ended the earthly visit of Robert Ernest Davy, aged three and one-half years, who had been an angel guest, since the mother's death, in the home of Brother and Sister G. F. Hubbartt, of Pierceton. Charles Todd Jones gladdened the hearts, for a little less than three months, of the home keepers in Corunna parsonage.

Kenneth Henry Graham was the first child to be born in the fine, new Albion parsonage April 18. The first visitor to see life in the new Bourbon Circuit parsonage is Joe Gordon Menaugh, while Margaret Elizabeth Brown has engrossed the parents' attention on Warsaw Circuit since October 14.

Sickness, with hospital visitation, has been the portion of the homes of Brother and Sister J. C. Graham, W. E. Hogan, R. A. Morrison, C. A. Cloud, J. M. Jordan, F. A. Le Master, B. E. Parker, and J. W. Bowen. Brother Bowen had hoped to complete forty years in the active ranks, but rheumatism and neuritis compels the relinquishment of the pastorate at this session. He had for six months, midst great pain, carried on the work of the charge. He is now seeking help at the Mt. Clemens Sanitarium and desires to be remembered to and by the Conference.

Parsonages.—The parsonage debt was extinguished at Corunna under the leadership of Brother C. F. Jones; extensive repairs were made at Topeka, while Brother W. T. Daly has managed the building of a fine new bungalow parsonage, costing $3,500, at Wolcottville. Into the Milford parsonage, shortly after Conference, came the beautiful bride of Brother R. V. Johnson. Pastor, wife, and people have had a delightfully successful year.

Epworth League.—Among the new things in Goshen District is a venture in journalism by the Goshen District Epworth League. The new paper, The Reveille, ably edited by R. R. Detweiler, is well named and bespeaks the spirit of our young Methodist hosts.

More than two hundred registered from Goshen District last summer at the Wawasee Epworth League institute, while even more will profitably spend July 15 to 22 this year at the same place. Last year's enthusiastic Epworth League convention was held at Pierceton; this year we are to be guests of Nappanee.

The W. H. and W. F. M. S. conventions convened at Nappanee and Ligonier with usual attendance but unusual interest and the best reports ever.

Debts.—Some old things have passed away. Church notes have been burned at Wolcottville and Cromwell. Splendid payments have been made at Warsaw, Etna Green, Bourbon, Tippecanoe, Nappanee, Jamestown, La Grange, and St. Paul, Elkhart.

Church Building.—The rebuilding of churches for the new day was somewhat interrupted by the war. Summit, on the Avilla charge, C. A. Cloud, pastor, after considerable repairs, was reopened November 18, the district superintendent raising the balance needed. Osceola, J. M. Jordan, pastor, raised the church building and arranged a fine basement for all purposes at an expenditure of $1,223. The reopening was December 30, in charge of the district superintendent. All money had previously been provided. Pleasant View, W. H. Menaugh, pastor, constructed a fine basement, and Benton, R. Burns, pastor, installed a furnace and placed new windows in the church. V. L. Clear, at South Milford, led his people in a successful campaign to add two rooms for Sunday-school and community service to the church. The rededication was on a cold day in December; it was, however, a day of great victory, the district superintendent and pastor looking after the necessary finances.

The biggest enterprise of the year was at Leesburg. What can be done with $16,500 in these times in the way of church building may be discovered by an interurban trip north six miles to Leesburg. Herbert Boase is the proud pastor, and the people are proud of Herbert Boase. The dedication occurred last Sunday, the district superintendent in charge, assisted by the pastor and Rev. C. H. Murray, Rev. J. S. Cain, Rev. J. T. Fettro. All money had been provided for previously. Three were received into the church, and the church is ready to begin a new era.

Salaries.—Increase in pastor's support as a matter of justice in these days of increased cost of living is recognized by all. This was stressed in Quarterly Conferences and at the December Settlement Day in Bristol, with which was combined an evangelistic institute, a meeting of power and helpfulness, the atmosphere of which Dr. Dean, of the Department of Evangelism, said he wished could permeate Methodism. Salaries have been increased this year, or in process of arrangement, as follows: First Church, Goshen, $500, H. C. Harman, pastor; Bristol, $100, R. R. Detweiler; Goshen Circuit, $75, A. P. Teter; Etna Green, ——, E. Dickson; Butler, $100, Robert Burns; Waterloo, $200, S. F. Harter; Bourbon, $100, R. W. Stoakes; Bourbon Circuit, $100, W. H. Menaugh; Leesburg, $100, Herbert Boase; North Webster, $200, W. B. Morgan; Syracuse, $200, W. E. Hogan; Howe, $100, C. A. Hile; La Grange, $150, C. L. De Bow; Valentine, $100, J. H. Royer; Corunna, $100, C. F. Jones; St. Mark's, Goshen, $100, A. L. Lamport; Middlebury, $100, G. W. Martin; Benton, $200, Frank Burns; Milford, $100, R. V. Johnson; Topeka, $100, J. W. Bowen; Wolcottville, $100, W. T. Daly; Elkhart, Simpson, $150, R. C. Plank; with others to follow, some charges by reorganization.

The new church at Stroh, L. D. Hershberger, closed each quarter with local budget and benevolences in full to that date. An Epworth League and W. H. M. S. have been organized. Ten hundred and fifty-eight dollars was secured in the Conference Claimants campaign.

Benevolences.—A record unique in Methodism has again been achieved in Goshen District. For the third successive year every charge "pulls up" in the benevolences. The outstanding record of Mishawaka last year has been surpassed this year by several hundred dollars in the remarkable achievements under the leadership of Brother B. E. Parker. No less significant are the results in a number of other charges, as the printed records will disclose. We have not reached the goal of full apportionments in every charge, but we are Methodists and we are going on to perfection. On last Sunday night the auto of the president of the Laymen's Association of the Conference carried me rapidly toward the one danger spot occasioned by the sickness and absence of the pastor. The laymen are coming to be as interested as the pastors in a steady, irresistible advance to win the world to Christ and God. As General Pershing's men—our men; God bless them!—marched Easter day to the blood-stained fields of Picardy with songs upon their lips, so must we march with jubilant contributions to the saving of the world.

Centenary and Stewardship.—The Centenary sounds like the trumpet call of God. We must be ready. I shall never forget the awakening to the overwhelming responsibility for the world's need so vividly portrayed at Niagara Falls last September, and count it one of the privileges of a lifetime to have been a member of that World Program Committee. The church has the men, the organization, the money. What is needed is a revival of stewardship. Voiced by Dr. R. L. Cushman in our District Conference, that which we propose is, if possible, with you in Conference-wide campaign to call for our proportion of "a million tithers in Methodism." This is the preparation we immediately need for the larger church of to-morrow. For this we shall "mobilize" this year.

Mobilization.—Our mobilization campaigns last fall were uniformly successful, reaching in very large measure our entire constituency. The total attendance exceeded twelve thousand. We are convinced that the church must mobilize as thoroughly as the Government. There is no possible reason why every member of every church should not be definitely committed to some particular work to be performed through his church. Let the church mobilize its membership for Christian service much as the Government is mobilizing its citizenry.

Patriotism and the Flag.—To the country's call our Methodist people have responded in generous measure. Our pastors and laymen have been leaders in every Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Thrift Stamp, Liberty Loan, and War Chest drive. The pulpit has rung with patriotic messages. Sons of the manse have been given. Service flags hang in practically all of our churches. Goshen District has contributed 615 boys from our Methodist constituency, representing church trustees, stewards, Sunday-school superintendents, Epworth League presidents, and every official position, while one of our own ministers, Ross W. Stoakes, proposes to serve the flag under the Fosdick Commission, just as Karl H. Carlson patriotically enlisted in November as a private in the medical department and is to-day stationed at Camp Greenleaf, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., a member of Ambulance Co. 35. Heaven's choicest blessing on him and all who have gone or go!

Shall we not pray, with Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews:

"God speed Old Glory when she takes the road to France!
Through the thundering of the legions, where the bugles play Advance,
God speaks: 'The fight is mine. Carry you my conquering lance.'
God speed Old Glory on!

"God send Old Glory first and foremost in the fight!
Fling her far, O God of battles, in the van, for the right.
Lift our hearts up to our freedom's flag of red and blue and white.
God fling Old Glory far!

"God guard Old Glory clean through battle grime and sweat!
Consecrate the men who serve her so that none may e'er forget
How the honor of the colors lies within his keeping yet.
God guard Old Glory clean!

"God bring Old Glory home in honor, might, and pride!
Battle-black and bullet-slashed and stripes streaming wide.
Gorgeous with the memories of men who greatly died—
God bring Old Glory home!"

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: The events of the past year have been strange and out of the ordinary. Our state of mind has been undergoing a change from a peace-loving, self-confident people to one whose emotions have been fanned into a holy passion against those who have outraged humanity, perverted civilization, and made victims of the innocent and helpless. This has had a very distinct influence on the religious mind of a people and a new sense of responsibility for the world's welfare is coming to the church. We are getting a new interpretation of the magnitude of our task. The practical way in which the various activities of the church are meeting the demands of the hour gives very hopeful promise for the future.

B. S. Hollopeter.

Logansport District is keeping pace with the spirit of the hour. Four of our very promising young men have answered the call of our country and put their lives upon the altar. W. E. McPheeters is now a very useful and popular chaplain at Camp Taylor, Kentucky. M. E. Shattuck is with the Marine Corps in France. A. C. Hoover is doing service in the Evacuation Hospital at Camp Greenleaf, Georgia. Fred R. Hill will not accept exemption from the draft and is in training at Camp Taylor and is to become a chaplain. My wife and I have broken the alabaster box of ointment in the giving of our two sons to fight for our righteous cause. From the homes of many of our laymen splendid young men have gone forth to meet the uncertainties of this awful warfare. A service flag occupies a prominent and rightful place in all of our churches. Some of these stars have already turned to gold, indicating the supreme sacrifice. Our ministers have done their full share to crystallize public sentiment into patriotism. They have been first in Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. drives. They have helped the Liberty Loan and the conservation of resources. They have spoken in no uncertain sound on the great topics of the day.

Sorrow has entered the homes of some of our retired ministers during the year. Early in June, Mrs. Sarah Peck, the faithful companion of Rev. William Peck, of Frankton, was called to her home above, and leaves our afflicted brother with only a sweet memory of their long companionship. On October 15, Mrs. F. M. Lacy, of Cicero, was freed from a body of suffering and went home to rest with God, where pain and sorrow never comes. Brother Lacy waits in great loneliness for the day of reunion. July 6, Mrs. Lovena Smith, of Chili, widow of R. J. Smith, came to the end of a long and useful life. On January 20 the sweet and gentle spirit of W. B. Stewart, of Logansport, went home to God. Brother Stewart was one of the best beloved men of the North Indiana Conference and died at a ripe old age, surrounded by his devoted children and a host of friends in the Market Street Church.

Early in the Conference year the bishop transferred Edgar Moore from the Northwest Indiana Conference to fill a vacancy at West Middleton. He entered upon his work with great zeal and will bring the best report their charge has made for years. When Fred R. Hill, of Twelve Mile, was drafted for army service, Everett Nixon was appointed to take his place. Brother Nixon has greatly endeared himself to this people, who desire his return. A. J. Armstrong was secured for Hillisburg when A. C. Hoover entered the training camp. Brother Armstrong was reared in a parsonage home and gives promise of a successful career as a Methodist preacher.

New Churches and Improvements.—While Rev. E. S. Riley was at the Conference session, one year ago, the Sheridan people razed their old church to the ground. On November 4 they dedicated a new and one of the best-planned churches in the Conference. The church cost the sum of $46,000 besides the ground on which it stands. The plans emphasize the Sunday-school feature without sacrificing its churchliness. Dr. W. D. Parr was master of ceremonies at the dedication of this truly great building. With this fine equipment Sheridan charge is sure to take rank among the best in the Conference. Atlanta's new church has been slowly coming to completion, and they now expect to be ready to dedicate in May. W. M. Amos has added another to the long list of beautiful churches to his credit. This self-sacrificing people deserve great credit for building a larger and better church where the old one burned down. Greentown has rebuilt their church at a cost of $12,000, and they now have a fully modern building with a full basement, steam-heating system, and enlarged auditorium and good Sunday-school equipment. O. T. Martin has been the master spirit in all this good work. A grand reopening day was held February 17, at which F. A. Hall, a former pastor, preached both morning and evening. It was dedicated March 24 by Dr. Parr.

The Kemp Memorial Church, at Tipton, was reroofed, frescoed, and otherwise improved at a cost of $2,500. Ben Kendall, the pastor, secured the money for this improvement and is deservingly popular with his people. They have put his salary at $1,900 for next year.

It has been a year in which the people have given much attention to the comfort of their pastors by providing proper homes for them. At Broadway, Logansport, A. W. Lowther secured a gift of $6,000 for the purchase of a new parsonage, which is located one block south of the church. This gift was made by Miss Carry Haney, the lady who last year gave $7,000 to free the church from debt. This splendid lady has since been taken to her reward. She also left an endowment that will perpetuate her support for current expenses.

Richland built a fine bungalow parsonage for their pastor at a cost of $2,000. It is a beautiful home. Harry A. Wann, the pastor, will ask to be left without appointment to attend Drew Seminary. At Bethel, a country church that was formerly a point on the Amboy Circuit, a new parsonage has been completed at a cost of $1,500. T. A. Van Camp is the pastor of this people. W. E. Hogan dedicated this parsonage March 3, at which time he raised a small balance due on the building. L. G. Jacobs has improved the parsonage at Sharpsville by installing a furnace, building a new veranda, garage, all at a cost of $1,200. The parsonage home at Beamer Chapel, Kokomo, has been enlarged by adding a second story of four good rooms. It is now a modern home, with furnace, bath, electric lights, and all conveniences of a city home. G. E. Meck and Dr. W. D. Parr, of Grace Church, have been promoting the good work at Beamer. Extensive improvements were made on the Center Church by J. C. Valentine. A new basement was put under the church, a new furnace installed and otherwise improved at a cost of $1,400. Brother Valentine had a good revival at Nevada and will pay all his benevolences in full.

Pastors' Salaries.—Seventeen of the pastors in the distrct have had an increase in salary this year, amounting in all to $2,400. Among those who have shared in this increase are W. B. Freeland, of Grace Church, Kokomo; E. B. Megenity, Beamer Chapel, Kokomo; J. C. Valentine, of Center; E. H. Kennedy, of Amboy; C. E. Dunlap, of Anoka; A. E. Leese, of Galveston; G. E. Garrison, of Macy; John F. Edwards, of Russiaville; Edgar Moore, of West Middleton; C. W. Chadwick, of Bunker Hill; U. S. Hartley, of Hobbs, and L. G. Jacobs, of Sharpsville. The estimating committees of seventeen of the charges have already reported raises in salaries for next year amounting to over $2,600.

Benevolent Collections.—The Educational campaign, put on last fall in the interest of our regular Disciplinary and Conference collections, was the most far-reaching in its results and the best we have ever had. The co-operative movement carried forward by the district superintendents of the Conference was especially helpful in the Logansport District. Our meeting was held in Main Street Church, Kokomo, and was attended by hundreds of our most influential laymen from every part of the district. This large church was full from ten o'clock in the morning till the close of the evening service. The five district superintendents that spoke made very inspiring addresses, far exceeding their efforts at any other district meeting during the week. The laymen have been expressing their high appreciation of this great meeting ever since. Nine groups had been organized to carry this campaign of education into every church in the district. This was done by forty-six loyal and faithful pastors. Twenty-one thousand people received a burning message concerning the great Benevolent Boards of our church. The good results are clearly seen in a splendid increase in all the collections of the year. Twenty-three of the charges will pay all benevolences in full, and all the charges will pull "up" over last year's record, with two exceptions.

The Epworth Leagues of the district have continued the support of Rev. J. F. Cottingham, a district superintendent on the Philippine Islands. Grace Church, Kokomo, supports a district superintendent in Bolivia, S. A. Peru Church supports a missionary also on the parish-abroad plan. The duplex system of collections has added greatly to the stability of our giving to the great Benevolent Boards of the church. The campaign that was put on for $3,600 for the Indiana Hospital was a great success. Every charge met its apportionment in full, and more. Forty-five hundred dollars was secured; $2,852 has been paid in cash.

Revivals.—Notwithstanding the many difficulties under which our pastors labored this year, the revival fires have been burning. The spiritual life of our people has been deepened and 752 have been converted. The net increase in the membership has been 596. J. F. Edwards, of Russiaville, had a good revival at each point on the charge, at which sixty were converted and joined the church. The salary will be put at $1,300 if he returns. E. E. Trippeer has had twenty conversions and eighty-nine accessions at Main Street, Kokomo. This church has been put on a good financial basis and its benevolences increased 35 per cent over last year. The Sunday school has an average of five hundred, and the congregations are the largest in the history of the church.

The tabernacle meetings this year have not been a great success. Each year's observation confirms a deep conviction that I have had for years, that the one true way to promote evangelism is for the pastor of each individual church to conduct his own meeting.

The subsidiary organizations of the church have done their full share to make this year's work a success in the Logansport District. The Ladies' Aid has been especially helpful. They have raised $14,500 during the year, and have contributed in many other ways to the welfare of the Kingdom.

The W. F. M. S. has had a prosperous year, meeting all their obligations and added five new auxiliaries to their number. The W. H. M. S. has been aggressive and given a good account of themselves. They will hold their Conference convention at Grace Church, Kokomo, this year.

Paying of Debts.—Four years ago Logansport District reported $74,260 indebtedness. All but $4,100 of the debts that then existed have been paid. Two thirds of the debts made since then have been paid. Only one large debt remains, and that was made this year. Windfall deserves special mention for the way they have handled their financial problems. With a membership of about two hundred they built a church that cost $27,000 and a parsonage that cost $3,000. Four years from the day they dedicated they paid the last dollar of debt. B. M. Bechdolt, the pastor, this year has led in the final round-up for the last $5,000. It was all collected in cash by September 30, and this was made a great day for this heroic church. They have set Brother Bechdolt's salary at $1,200 for next year. W. A. Griest has reduced the debt at Elwood.

District Meetings.—The Epworth Leagues of the district held a very helpful convention at Macy in June. The attendance was large and a good program was rendered. Dr. Fred B. Fisher very ably represented our missionary interests at that meeting. Our Leaguers furnished their full share of students at the Wawasee Institute at their annual meeting in July.

Our District Conference was held at Bunker Hill, February 27 and 28 and March 1. We were fortunate in having an excellent program. Two of the addresses were made by Bishop Nicholson. These addresses were strong and very timely. They gave us a real uplift. We were also favored by the presence and addresses of Drs. J. W. Van Cleve, G. B. Dean, W. H. Hollingshead, R. S. Cushman, and U. G. Leazenby. Four were given license to preach and nineteen had their license renewed.

Prospective.—It requires a steady nerve and an overmastering faith to look steadfastly into our future. Unless our hearts be aflame with the passion of our Lord, and unless we catch the spirit of sacrifice from him, we will not be sufficient for these things.

The initial Centenary drive will be put on in the Logansport District the first four weeks of the new Conference year. This will be the drive of Christian Stewardship, as outlined by Dr. Cushman, of the Centenary Commission. We hope this will prepare the way for the very important matters that are to follow.

I feel a deep sense of appreciation to the pastors of the district for the faithful and loyal support they have given me in all the work we have tried to do. If the work has prospered, it is because of their faithful labors.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: In making my second annual report of Muncie District I am recording the doings of the most momentous year of our Conference and of American history. In saying this I am perfectly conscious of the stirring events of our beginning as a nation and the crucial days of the Civil War and the marvelous inventions of the past century.

James A. Beatty.

In these fighting days the church is recounting some victories. God's truth is marching on. Of the twenty-nine Conference men and eleven supplies appointed by Bishop Nicholson one year ago at Huntington thirty-four have remained at the task and ready to make outstanding reports. Three of our young men answered to the call of their country and have gone into Y. M. C. A. army work. Earl Pittenger was released from Middletown August 21, and since the first of January has been in France. Under the date of September 5 Bishop Henderson transferred W. V. Meredith from the Detroit Conference and Bishop Nicholson appointed him associate pastor at High Street, Muncie, where he did splendid work until he was released to go into the Y. M. C. A. army work and is now in El Paso, Tex. H. A. Kirk, supply on the Noblesville Circuit, was the third to be released, February 10, for this patriotic service and is in San Antonio, Tex. These young men are among the bravest of the brave.

Three of our pastors have made the large contribution of four noble sons to our country's service to make the world safe for democracy. They are as follows: Drs. J. H. Palmer and Patterson, one each; and Rev. C. M. Hobbs, two.

W. M. Hollopeter was released from Noble Street, Anderson, June 10, on account of the delicate condition of his wife's health. After supplying the charge for two months, E. J. Wickersham, having completed his course at De Pauw University, was placed in charge, and in a few months' time has brought the charge to a good state of efficiency, offering an increase in salary of $200 for next year. J. L. Murr was released from Indiana Avenue, Anderson, September 9, and was immediately appointed to take up the work at Middletown, and is closing out a good year. Homer Wright, a local preacher from the Indiana Conference, was secured to complete the year at Indiana Avenue. Arthur Carroll took his leave from Grace Church, Anderson, the last of October to accept a good promotion in Iowa. L. H. Nixon, a student in Taylor University and a son of one of our prominent pastors in Detroit Conference, was appointed to complete the year. E. E. Crabtree gave up his work on the Summitville Circuit, and Ross Hutsinpiller is now in charge.

Death Toll.—While death has not invaded our parsonage homes, the death toll has been unusually heavy in the ranks of our retired families. The first call was made Friday night, August 31, when Dr. Isaac W. Singer was released from a bed of suffering of several months' duration. His patience in suffering, as he looked longingly into eternity, was just what we might expect from a man who had so worthily exemplified his Christ in his life and teaching.

Rev. Joshua E. Ervin had just stepped across the threshold into the new year when the Master called him to that better home for which he was so well prepared. Beautiful in their lives together, six weeks later Sister Ervin joined him on the other side. They were weeks of waiting and longing, for when he was gone she could not control her desire to be with him and her dear Lord. Brother Ervin was one of the strong, princely men of our Conference, with the Word written on the tablets of his memory and beautifully exemplified in his every-day life.

Three weeks later, January 23, God let down another of his twenty thousand chariots and invited Rev. A. M. Patterson to step in. He was ready and waiting. He had been having peeps into heaven and was charmed with the outlook and longed to be there. He wrought a good work in our Conference.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, wife of Rev. Phillip S. Stephens, of Lapel, after a brief illness in the late autumn was called from labor to reward, leaving Brother Stephens, at his advanced age, sorrowing and lonely. The death of Rev. Phillip S. Stephens was announced the second day of our Conference. Rev. P. E. Greenwalt and Rev. Charles Tinkham went to Lapel to conduct the funeral.

Retired Preachers.—Muncie District is blessed and helped and honored by having fourteen retired preachers and their families enrolled with us. Four of them are living outside the bounds of the district. Dr. W. F. Walker, who served thirty-one years as a missionary in China, is now sick in our Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. Sister Walker writes, he served a church two and a half miles out from their home in Irvington and many times walked the entire distance. He received several people into the church, which added to his happiness.

Special Appointments.—Our Quarterly Conferences are honored by having five of our members in special service: Dr. Fred B. Fisher, executive chairman India Mass Movement Commission; Prof. H. B. Gough, teacher in De Pauw University; Rev. C. J. Everson, field secretary of the Anti-Saloon League; Rev. E. B. Westhafer, Conference evangelist; Rev. Fremont E. Fribley, student pastor in Purdue University.

Hospital.—The district completed its hospital campaign this year. Our apportionment of $5,000 was fully met, with a surplus of $110. Dr. T. J. Johnson, our Conference field secretary, was a most efficient helper. This campaign has made many friends for the hospital, as our gifts have tied us up more closely to it. Under the wise superintendency of Dr. C. S. Woods this institution is having a phenomenal growth. The cash paid in on pledges this Conference year totals $2,966.85.

Church Improvements.—Early in the Conference year Dr. John Wesley Potter and his official board set out for extensive improvements in First Church, Anderson. New art-glass windows have been installed, which reproduce Hoffman's "Christ Answering the Doctors," "Christ at the Door," "Christ in Gethsemane." The church was revamped throughout, redecorated, woodwork cleaned and given a coat of dull varnish; the old carpet was discarded and the floor resurfaced and stained to correspond with the oak furniture; new electric lights were added, giving the church a beautiful and artistic appearance. Extensive improvements were made in the basement, enlarging the dining-room and equipping the various departments of the Sunday-school work. The total cost was $6,600. There was an accumulated indebtedness of $3,000. September 16 was reopening day, when Dr. Potter preached and raised $11,000, which gave them a fine margin for shrinkage and interest. This is now one of the best equipped, most attractive churches in our Conference. The total amount of money raised and paid this year was over $18,000.

Daleville has secured a parsonage property at a cost of $1,000, and now they will claim some good preacher to take up his abode with them. Mrs. A. G. Kiger took the lead in this fine movement and furnished a good portion of the money to make it possible.

Pendleton has installed a fine new pipe organ costing $2,500. This charge increased its pastor's salary $500 and has gone forward with leaps and bounds. With this splendid equipment for music and good gospel sermons by Rev. J. A. Patterson, pastor and people are mutually happy.

Notwithstanding the high cost of building material and lack of laborers Rev. Bert E. Jones launched a building enterprise on the Perkinsville charge. The heroic people at Harvey's Chapel rebuilt their church, putting in a fine basement and otherwise making a modern, up-to-date church out of it. The cost was $3,500. It was the happy privilege of the district superintendent to rededicate this church December 16, and this rural community is now equipped to do a larger service for the King.

Avondale, Muncie, has completed a fine basement, placed a new piano in the church, fitted up a bathroom in the parsonage with modern equipments at a cost of $1,150. Rev. G. N. Callaway is the aggressive pastor leading this people out on a larger program.

Many other churches have made improvements with smaller amounts, the total of which is $23,919.

Debts Paid.—This does not seem to have been an exceptionally good year for relieving indebtedness. Only $10,113 have been paid, and most of that from three churches, viz.: Grace Church, Anderson; Lapel; and First Church, Noblesville.

Revivals and Membership.—Evangelistic services have been seriously interfered with this year on account of the severity of the winter and the fuel shortage. Some great campaigns were launched at High Street, Muncie, with Dr. Honeywell and his party; First Church, Noblesville, with Evangelist Eddie Thomas; and Summitville, with Dr. Ostrom. Every pastor seemed to be imbued with the evangelistic spirit and began his meetings with fine prospects, but when about ready to reap results they were closed down for lack of fuel or kept from the services because of extremely low temperature, or because the streets and highways were blocked with snow so people could not reach the church. Some of the pastors wisely held their meetings early and others after the extremely cold weather. Many of the churches observed Passion Week with good results.

Over seven hundred conversions and reclamations have been reported, as follows: Albany, 20; Albany Circuit, 27; Alexandria, 15; Alexandria Circuit, 15; First Church, Anderson, 50; Indiana Avenue, 15; Park Place, 27; Daleville and Florida, 25; De Soto, 40; Eaton, 18; Fortville, 41; Jolietville, 40; Avondale, Muncie, 22; High Street, 50; Normal City, 11; First Church, Noblesville, 55; Noblesville Circuit, 15; Shideler, 36; Summitville, 14; Summitville Circuit, 17; Yorktown, 15. Other charges report smaller numbers.

Church Organizations.—We are still encouraged with the forward movement of our Sunday schools. They are all using our church literature except two, and they persist in their disloyalty. We are more and more coming to the graded system, which means a higher state of efficiency.

The pastors report thirty-five Epworth League Chapters, with an enrollment of over fifteen hundred members. These young people have raised about $1,100 missionary money, and many of the chapters are invaluable supports to the pastors. A great program is being planned for June 18 to 20 at our district convention to be held in Alexandria.

The Junior League reports show 15 Chapters, with an enrollment of 746.

The women's societies are keeping pace with the aggressiveness of the times. The Ladies' Aid Societies have done their usual good work in expending about $10,000 in improving churches and parsonages.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies have gone forward with unusual rapidity, raising a total of $6,552. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at High Street, Muncie, accounts for $1,261 of this amount, making an average of $6 plus per member for this auxiliary.

Finance and Benevolence.—Twenty-two charges in the district increased their pastoral support by $4,465; other increases in ministerial support makes a total of $4,765. The churches are calling for an efficient ministry, and if that call be met there must be an adequate support. The educational campaign, properly followed up with the every-member canvass, will bring the satisfactory results. High Street, Muncie, is a good example of this fact. With that program carefully carried out this year, this great church has increased her ministerial support, employed an office secretary at $600 per year and an executive secretary at $1,500 per year, all current expenses, all apportioned benevolences in full, several hundred dollars other benevolences, an old debt left over from last year of $1,543, helped the suburban churches out of this budget, and have a small balance in the treasury. It is the purpose of this great church next year to maintain a missionary in the foreign field.

The campaign for our benevolences has been quite out of the ordinary. At the beginning of the year we fixed our goal, "All benevolences paid in full." We have worked steadily to that end. Dr. James M. Taylor furnished us a fine missionary team, which proved both educational and inspirational. Eight group meetings were held by this team; then it was picked up by the pastors of these eight groups and carried into every church in the district. That was followed by our Settlement Day and Evangelistic Conference, and that climaxed by our District Conference, set the fires burning all over the district. We are able to report not only every charge in the district "pulled up" over last year, but every charge "went over the top," with all Disciplinary benevolences paid in full and Conference benevolences advanced. Muncie District has made a distinct and outstanding record in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Only one other district in the whole connection has paid the full apportionment, and then some of the charges did not pay as much as the year previous. Our record is distinct in both items. The total gain in Disciplinary benevolences is $6,016, and over $1,200 in Conference benevolences.

I want to record a debt of gratitude to Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, the district superintendent, for his invaluable help in the campaign through to completion. He gave much time from his own charge in formulating plans and doing team work which not only brought the desired results, but will be of great value in the coming years.

Special Gift.—The district has a special gift of $5,576.29 to the Foreign Missionary Society from Miss Lucy J. Alden, of Noblesville. Miss Alden went to her crowning ten years ago, but left her estate to her brother, J. W. Alden during his lifetime. In 1915 he died, but the final settlement of the estate did not come until this year. This fine gift is due to the good work of Rev. L. M. Krider, who was pastor on this charge at that time.

District Meetings.—Four district meetings were held during the year. Our first meeting was with the pastors and district stewards, which convened in Anderson, April 24. Methods were discussed and plans were laid for the year's work.

The second was held at First Church, Anderson, and addresses were made by the following district superintendents: Drs. Martin, Wade, Hollopeter, Light, and Marble. This being the central meeting for our benevolent campaign, the district was organized into eight groups, with a chairman and secretary of each group, and a two weeks' educational campaign was launched. Eight group meetings were held with the following missionaries: Dr. E. B. Caldwell, of China, team leader; Rev. H. M. Swan, of India; Rev. T. O. O'Ferrell, of Africa; and Rev. Fred M. Perril, of India. The pastors then completed the work, holding a meeting in every church in the district.

The third meeting was the Settlement Day and Evangelistic Conference held December 3. The program was full of interest and characterized by enthusiasm and spiritual fervor.

The fourth was the District Conference held at Middletown, February 27, 28, and March 1. It was splendidly entertained by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Murr, and the fine people of this little city. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. Sherman Powell. Rev. Ralph S. Cushman, of the Stewardship Department of the Centenary Drive, brought us a great message, and the district adopted a resolution indorsing the plan submitted, and pledged the district to a simultaneous campaign to carrying out the program. Mrs. Florence Binford, of Greenfield, and Mrs. J. C. White, of Marion, stirred the Conference to a larger interest in the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. Dr. J. W. Van Cleve, general secretary of the Commission on Finance, brought us a working program which we hope to adopt in every church. Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, of international fame, gave us the facts in figures, red and black, and humiliated us and thrilled us and inspired us and helped us. Rev. R. A. Morrison, now doing an outstanding piece of work in the Goshen District in the interest of the Preacher's Aid Society, represented this important work in a masterly way. The climactic service came on the closing night. The house was filled to its capacity. The music was fine, with orchestra and choir and congregation. Bishop Nicholson, the speaker, was at his best and carried us into the realm of world vision. Then the great congregation sang "All hail the power of Jesus' name" and fittingly closed the greatest District Conference many of us have ever witnessed.

A Final Word.—May I say in closing, the supreme need of the church to-day is a wise, devoted, spiritual leadership? Pastors and people must partake of the sacrificial spirit of the Master. His life terminated on others. These days are teaching us that life is not one continuous holiday, or the deeper joys will be lacking. The real felicity of life comes not by shifting burdens, but by sharing them. We must pass through the dark night of Calvary before we reach the Mount of Ascension.

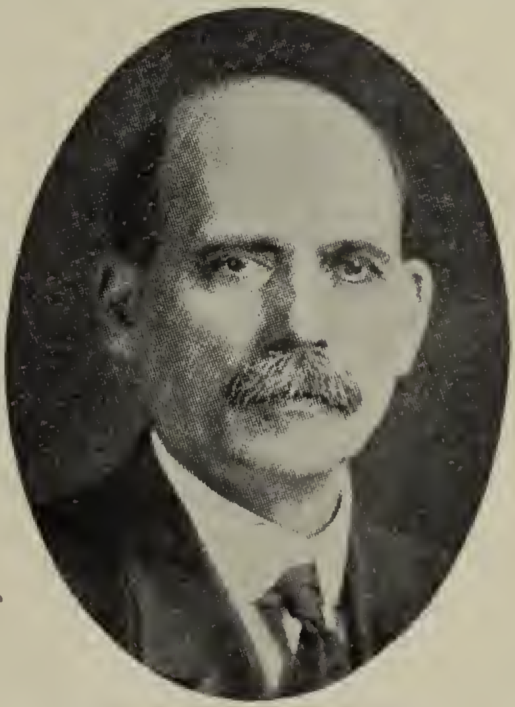
"I must go on in the blood-sprinkled way,
The path that the Saviour trod,
If I ever climb to the heights sublime,
Where the soul is at home with God."

"If any man would be my disciple, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." "These things have I said unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full."

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Beloved Brethren of the North Indiana Conference: Thirty-nine of the forty men appointed at the Huntington Conference to serve the church and the Christ of the church in Richmond District have remained in place, loyal, devoted, and true to the standards and ideals of the gospel of the Son of God. About the first of October, R. S. Shaw surrendered the Charlottesville charge and put himself in training for Y. M. C. A. work in the army. Rev. M. R. Peirce, one of our retired ministers residing in Greenfield, took charge and gave good service for the remainder of the year. With but two exceptions the parsonage homes have been unusually free from serious illness. In the report of last year reference was made to the incurable affliction of Mrs. Roahrig, wife of our pastor on Winchester Circuit. In the later summer this faithful Christian woman was released from her great suffering and went to be with her Saviour, whom she had trusted throughout her useful life. The wife of Brother A. F. Hogan, of Pennville, a sufferer for months, was taken to the hospital for an operation in early summer. Her affliction yielded to skillful surgery, and she now appears to be in good health. Elizabeth True Smith came to C. E. Smith and wife, John W. Barrett to M. E. and Mrs. Barrett, Wesley Stanton Erwin to the Erwins, Loren Wolfe Gruber to Pastor and Mrs. Gruber, and Ralph Wilbur Phillips to the Phillips home in Farmland.



Somerville Light.

Retired Preachers.—Two Supernumerary and five Retired Ministers are enrolled with us. Dr. G. H. Hill resides in Indianapolis, Dr. F. G. Browne in New Castle, Brother Sylvester Billheimer on his farm near Hagerstown, Brother R. T. Laslie in Montana, and Brother M. R. Peirce in Greenfield. Brother J. O. Bills resides in New Castle, where he is happy and helpful, not only to the pastor of that charge, but also to the brethren of the entire district. Brother M. A. Harlan has his home in Union City, where he gives much time to the preparation of instructive and inspiring lectures. Brother Harlan holds himself in readiness to assist the brethren of the Conference on call.

District Meetings.—The unusually well attended enthusiastic pastors' and stewards' meeting held in First Church, Richmond, May 15, was a prophecy of good things for the Kingdom. The program of the district, with its relation to that of the entire denomination, was clearly outlined and adopted by both laymen and ministers. I am glad to say that in spite of many hindrances the program has been carried into effect to a degree heretofore unknown in this district. The Board of District Stewards have given endorsement to, and practically all of the charges have adopted and are working in whole or in part, the Disciplinary Financial Plan. The District Epworth League convention was held in Farmland the 13th and 14th of June. On account of severe illness, for the first time in his ministry the district superintendent was forced to forego the pleasure of being in attendance upon a district meeting. The pastors and Epworthians stood loyally by and made the convention instructive and inspiring. The chapters are united in an effort for the generous support of our district medical missionary, Dr. George D. Lowry. Though far removed from the beautiful Lake Wawasee, Richmond District sent a good delegation to the institute last July and is planning to increase the attendance this season.

Church in Action Campaign.—September 28 to October 12. This campaign, planned by the District Executive Committee, the chairmen and secretaries of the six divisions, the missionary secretary, H. L. Overdeer, and the district superintendent, was the most successful and farthest reaching in positive influence for good of any similar district movement with which I have been identified. Dr. James M. Taylor, of New York, with six returned missionaries gave us par excellence service from the beginning to the end of the campaign. As usual, every church in the district was visited. The people responded with a record-breaking attendance totaling 29,053; increase in attendance over last year of 7,790. Total offering for district extension work, $554.47; an increase of $153.68 over the former year.

Settlement Day.—This day is becoming increasingly interesting and helpful. The meeting this year was held in Spiceland, December 4. Every pastor save one was present. The district stewards responded in fine way. The Disciplinary Financial Plan was freely discussed by pastors and laymen, and to the joy of the district superintendent it was discovered that certain representative laymen present were among its most ardent supporters.

District Conference.—Time fails me to speak at length with reference to this great District Conference. However, in passing, I make bold to say that in my humble opinion the programs sent out to the people of the six districts composing North Indiana Conference were, all things considered, the strongest ever sent out to call the people to the standards of the denomination. Bishop Nicholson, of the Chicago area; Dr. M. P. Burns, of the Board of Home Missions; Dr. J. W. Vancleve, secretary of the Commission on Finance; Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, representing the Centenary Drive; Dr. George B. Dean, of the Department of Evangelism; Dr. R. S. Cushman, champion of Christian Stewardship, and our R. A. Morrison, secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, sounded the call for $600,000 for the Retired Ministers' Endowment Fund. The strong district spirit in Richmond District was evidenced by the fact that forty of the forty pastors were in attendance, and, as might have been expected from a leadership like that, large numbers of laymen were present from every section of the district. Pastor Williams, with the good people of Redkey, proved to be a royal host. From the opening service on Tuesday night, when Bishop Nicholson gave his great message on "The Spiritual Forces That Are Being Released by the War" to the closing service on Thursday night, the speakers were accorded an enthusiastic hearing. It was evident that preachers and laymen alike were there on the "King's business." Resolutions urging President Wilson to establish national prohibition as a war measure, and strongly indorsing the great Centenary Drive were unanimously adopted. Three young men were licensed to preach and the same number recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial.

The Departmental Work of the Churches.—The Sunday schools, eighty-two in number, are constantly improving in organization and efficiency. The truth is that our Sunday schools need not less of the teaching, but more and more of the preaching of the Word of God. This is especially true in the larger towns and cities. Woe betide the church of to-morrow if this matter continues to be neglected by Sunday-school workers and parents. Practically all of our schools use Methodist literature. With but one or two exceptions, they are organized into missionary societies. All contribute to missions. Their offerings this year total $2,627; a gain over last year of $763. The school of First Church, Portland, leads with $200; Grace Church, Richmond, second, with $153; the schools of Winchester Circuit third, with $140. We have thirty-four Senior Epworth League Chapters, a gain of two Chapters, with a membership of 1,728; a gain of 291. Fifteen Junior Chapters report about seven hundred members. The seventy-six Ladies' Aid Societies have raised $10,798 and, as usual, have expended the greater part in helping the dear brethren over the difficult pathway of modern church life beset by old church debts, much-needed and long-deferred improvements, sleep-disturbing deficits in pastors' salaries, etc. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have done a good year's work. Their district conventions were well attended and full of enthusiasm and, best of all, their pledges were reported paid in full and larger obligations taken for the next year. New auxiliaries have been organized, and their combined offerings total $5,745, a good gain over last year.

Evangelism and Membership.—Weather conditions and fuel shortage contended every inch of the ground the entire season usually set apart by the pastors for protracted evangelism. However, a few good revivals have been held. About 700 have been converted and reclaimed, and 769 received into the church, exclusive of a large number received during Passion Week. The most extensive revivals were at Hagerstown, J. W. Gruber, pastor, 77; Portland, Henry Lacy, pastor, 55; Modoc, C. E. Smith, pastor, 39; Union City, Arthur Cates, pastor, 35; Ridgeville, D. C. Beatty, pastor, 29; Dublin, Victor Stoner, pastor, 29; Millgrove, F. A. Shipley, pastor, 26; Losantville, W. O. Power, pastor, 25; Williamsburg, Louis Ulmer, pastor, 25. The other pastors report conversions ranging from nineteen to four. While the net increase in membership is not large, the district is able to report a substantial gain.

Church Literature.—The people on this district are slowly coming to appreciate our own church literature. The Western Christian Advocate list shows a gain of 147. The Epworth Herald also shows an advance over last year.

Debts Paid.—Sunday, October 7, the jubilant people of Wilkinson, Fred Chelan, pastor, burned notes and mortgages amounting to $1,800, thereby disposing of an old and troublesome matter. The district superintendent joined in the festivities by giving the address for this happy occasion. In November the indebtedness of $1,035 on the Ada new church, Greenfield, was provided for, and the pastor, E. L. Gates, followed with an earnest, honest effort to bring the people up to the larger program of the church. Other charges paid debts as follows: Lynn, $3,000; Dunkirk, $700; Cambridge City, $754; Saratoga, $328; Redkey, $281; Markleville, $250; Philadelphia, $224; Fountain City, $100; Spiceland, $100. Several other charges have paid smaller amounts, totaling $8,639.

Buildings and Improvements.—Sunday afternoon, October 7, in response to the call of the brave, progressive people of Grace Church, Richmond, the district superintendent gave the address and, with the pastor, H. L. Overdeer, Rev. R. L. Semans, of First Church, and other ministers of the district, conducted the ceremonies attending the laying of the cornerstone of a magnificent $50,000 church with modern furnishings and equipment throughout. I shall not even attempt a description of this great church now approaching completion. Bishop Nicholson is to preach and conduct the dedicatory services Sunday morning, May 26, 1918. The new $20,000 church at Pennville, A. F. Hogan, pastor, the foundations for which were laid during the last days of last Conference year, has been completed in fine style. It was the privilege of the district superintendent to give the address, call for $9,500, and dedicate this beautiful church Sunday, November 25. The pastor had his forces so well organized and matters so superbly in hand that the entire occasion was a delight. The people not only subscribed enough to take care of the church building enterprise, but an additional sum, with which to provide a good pipe organ, which has been purchased and is now being installed. This achievement in face of untoward conditions marks Brother Hogan as a wise and dependable leader, a good minister of Jesus Christ. The church at Lewisville, M. E. Barrett, pastor, was redecorated and otherwise beautified at an expense of about $700. The district superintendent reopened this church Sunday, July 1. This charge was made a station last spring and has demonstrated that no mistake was registered. At Greensboro, on the Kennard charge, C. A. Mitchell, pastor, a new $5,000 church is being erected and will be ready for dedication early in the coming Conference year. At a cost of about $8,000 at Redkey, D. V. Williams, pastor, a complete, well-furnished basement has been put in. Furnace-room, kitchen, dining-room, range, dishes, silverware, etc. This improvement, with the new heating system and redecorated auditorium and modern Sunday-school apartments, makes this one of the best churches of its size in the Conference. We are expecting this charge to come back. In September the people of the Losantville charge, W. O. Power, pastor, purchased a good parsonage home in the best location in the town. The cost was $2,150, which was subscribed and paid. Soon after Conference, Pastor Franklin and wife, of the Willow Branch charge, will be happily housed in a new $3,500 parsonage now nearing completion. As usual, Brother O. P. Van Y, of Maxwell, is building a beautiful $3,000 parsonage, which will face the magnificent school building of that village. The people at Chester, on the Williamsburg charge, Louis Ulmer, pastor, ask to be made the head of a charge, and as an assurance that they mean business have purchased a house for a parsonage at a cost of $1,600. Chester and Middleboro will constitute this new two-point charge, which will pay $900 and house the first year. Other improvements on churches and parsonages are as follows: New Castle, $1,300; Dunkirk, $500; Portland, $550; Fountain City, $450; Modoc, $445; Winchester Circuit, $450; Greenfield, $300; Spiceland, $295; Ridgeville, $275; Richmond, Third Church, $229; Winchester, $210; Salamonia, $171; and Shirley, $100; and numerous smaller improvements representing, when fully paid for, an expenditure of $99,225.

Salaries.—At the opening of this Conference year the following charges advanced their salaries, these advances ranging from $25 to $400: Centerville, Charlottesville, Dublin and Straughns, Economy, Fountain City, Lewisville, Losantville, Markleville, Maxwell, New Castle, Philadelphia, Portland, Richmond (First Church), Richmond (Grace Church), Richmond (Third Church), Ridgeville, Union City, Willow Branch, Winchester, and Winchester Circuit. These twenty charges represent a cash salary advance of $4,355. The total advance for the three years is $13,155 for pastors, $2,427 for Conference claimants, and $201 for the Episcopal Fund; a grand total, including the advance in the district superintendent's claim, of $16,504. The first year fifteen charges advanced; the second, nineteen charges; the third, twenty charges. Thirty-eight of the forty are represented. The two to be heard from have recently moved to make it unanimous and are written down with several repeaters for next year. The following charges have advanced for next year: Centerville becomes a station, paying $1,000; Greensfork and Williamsburg join hands and advance to at least $1,100; Economy advances another $100, to $1,200; Losantville another $100, to $875; McCordsville another $100, to $800; Millgrove advances $200, to $1,000; Modoc adds $200, making it $1,000; New Castle makes the third advance, to $2,000; Portland Circuit adds $200, making it $1,200; Richmond, Third Church, becomes a station, $1,000; Shirley advances $200, to $1,000; Spiceland advances $200, to $1,000; Willow Branch $200, to $1,200. The five supply men of the district now receive an average cash salary of $910. The thirty-five men in Conference relation receive $1,165.

The Benevolences.—If the pastors' reports to the Conference treasurer coincide with their annual reports to me, every charge on the district has made a good advance over last year on the apportioned benevolences. This is the goal we long have sought, and mourned because we attained it not. To tell the truth, we tried to make a drive toward the top level of all apportionments for the eight boards at least in full. The latest word from the front was to the effect that thirty-two of the forty charges had gone over the top. Last year only twelve charges paid in full; a good gain, but where are the eight? The charges paying in full are as follows, in order: Grace Church, Richmond, which invites you, not only builds a fine church in which to house you, but also helps to hold the standard of district and Conference high by leading the district in offerings for benevolences; New Castle, Portland, Greenfield, Union City, Knightstown, Winchester, Dunkirk, Farmland, Losantville, Pennville, McCordsville, Cambridge City, Economy, Lewisville, Maxwell, Centerville, Kennard, Hagerstown, Markleville, Millgrove, Ridgeville, Spiceland, Williamsburg, Winchester Circuit, Willow Branch, Philadelphia, Dublin and Straughns, Richmond (Third Church), Lynn, and Modoc. With but one exception, all of the upper appointments are in this honor column. Oh, if we only had this one, and the other two stations and five circuits! However, I am glad to say those charges advanced over last year and, of course, are entitled to special mention: First Church (Richmond), Redkey, Parker, Charlottesville, Portland Circuit, Saratoga, and Shirley. For the eight boards we gave last year $10,988; this year, $15,424; a gain of $4,436. For the Disciplinary benevolences, ten causes, we gave last year $15,613; this year, $21,169; a gain of $5,556. For the three years the showing is as follows: 1914, eight boards, $7,741; 1918, $15,424—gain, $7,683. Disciplinary benevolences: 1914, $11,548; 1918, $21,169—gain, $10,621. Partial reports from the pastors give the war column a credit for $10,451. For all causes, at home and abroad, the churches of this district gave this year $145,590; $11.71 per capita.

Closing Words.—Bishop Nicholson, I cannot find words with which to express my appreciation of and confidence in the good pastors with whom I have been permitted to toil this year. They have struggled manfully through one of the most peculiar and trying years in the recent history of this Conference; they have cheerfully, courageously, and successfully addressed themselves to the tasks of the denomination in one of the most difficult and trying fields in the great Middle West. In addition to this I am glad to say they have identified themselves with the local community war drives, and thereby kept Methodism in its rightful relation to the nation's struggle to hold Christian civilization steady throughout the world. As I stand with them facing another Conference year I am sure I am safe in saying you may count on us for the program of the Chicago area and the entire Methodism of the age. Let us hear again the solemn words:

"He hath sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before the judgment seat;
O, be swift my soul, to answer him; be jubilant, my feet.
Our God is marching on."

WABASH DISTRICT.

M. S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Members of the North Indiana Conference—Dear Brethren: All preachers and laymen in the Wabash District, including scores who are of German lineage, are loyal to the flag in our great struggle for democracy, which is the political expression of Christianity as taught and practiced by the Christ.

The fixing of the appointments one year ago enabled us to welcome the following men from the Richmond District: R. H. Wehrly, A. C. Wischmeier, J. P. Chamness, J. W. Zerbe, and Leroy Huddleston; from the Goshen District, J. C. White. These men found difficult and delicate tasks awaiting them, which they have performed with diplomatic skill, and as a result their reports will show that the church has been advanced in their respective fields.

Changes in Pastoral Supply.—L. O. Winslow, a probationer, left the Bippus charge on September 10, 1917, to enter the United States Shipping Service. At last account his post-office address was Norfolk, Virginia, Company 18, Training Station. Mell Timmons, a local preacher, was immediately assigned to this work, and the people request his return, with an increase in support.

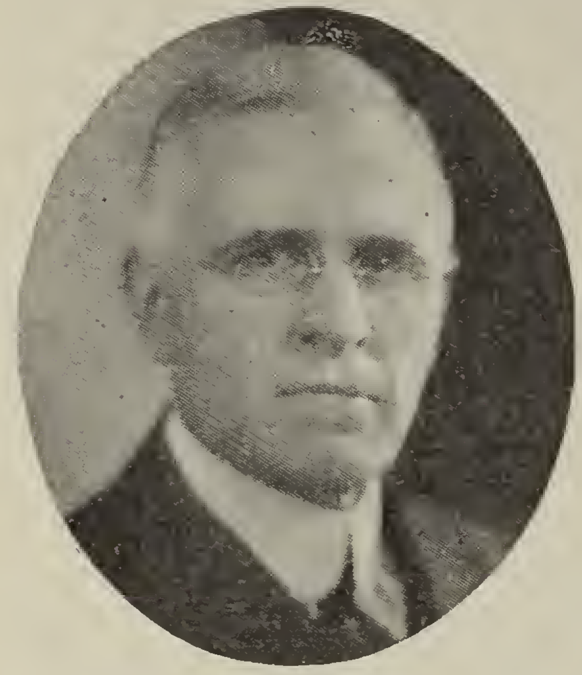
C. L. Hixon was secured to supply the Mount Etna Circuit. He left the charge on September 11 and took a charge at Perrysburg, Ohio. C. B. Tuttle, of Smithville, Ohio, a minister in the Radical United Brethren Church, was appointed to supply Mount Etna on November 10, and began his work on December 2, 1917. His congregations greatly desire that he be retained on this charge.

A. M. Wickman, appointed to supply Swayzee deceased on August 2, 1917. H. L. Liddle was changed from Walton, in the Logansport District, to Swayzee and began his work on September 1. This appointment was fully indorsed by an enthusiastic request for his return at the fourth Quarterly Conference.

E. A. Hartman, appointed to the Warren Circuit, soon decided that he would ask the Conference for a certificate of location at its next session, and did not go to his charge. J. H. Overmyer, a local preacher residing in Tipton, was employed to supply the Warren Circuit. He gave up the work on September 2. On October 26, K. A. Hawkins, a local preacher residing in Ft. Wayne, was employed to supply the charge. He began his work on November 3 and has a unanimous invitation to return.

District Program.—One year ago the District Conference adopted a district program, the spirit and leading features of which have been maintained and realized.



M. S. Marble.

District and Group Meetings.—On May 31 the pastors and district stewards convened in Wabash, at which meeting much business relating to the expansion of our work was transacted.

A district convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. E. E. Youse presiding, was held at Jonesboro on June 13.

A group meeting of pastors north of the Wabash River, not including Huntington, was held in North Manchester on June 15. In satisfaction, profit, and inspiration this meeting exceeded expectation.

At the middle of October the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held a district meeting under the presidency of Mrs. T. M. Guild, at Fairmount. Its educational value is seen in the missionary spirit throughout the district and in increased offerings.

On October 24 and 25 our District Lyceum was held at Larwill. Notwithstanding the large number of district and group meetings attended by the pastors, this lyceum proved to be so full of interest that the men with great enthusiasm voted to continue its existence and to hold its next session in Akron.

Settlement Days maintain their popularity and were held as follows: December 3, at Marion; December 4, at Huntington; December 5, at Columbia City. The district is indebted to Drs. White, Guild, and Swisher for special services ably rendered by each at each place during these meetings.

Every pastor attended the meeting in Wabash, First Church, on September 25, in the interest of militant Methodism. Laymen from nearly every charge were there. Addresses were delivered by each district superintendent in the Conference except the superintendent of the Wabash District, who presided during the day. These addresses left a splendid impression upon the minds of all the people.

The greatest District Conference ever held in Wabash District occurred in Uniondale on March 5, 6, and 7. All pastors were present except two, who were detained by sickness. Drs. Cushman, Dean, Van Cleve, Burns, and Hollingshead, representatives of our church boards, and R. A. Morrison, representing the Preachers' Aid Society, did us great service. The address of our Bishop Nicholson will abide with us as an inspiration through coming years. Leroy Huddleston and his splendid people cared for us in the exercise of fine hospitality.

A great district convention of Epworth League was held in Andrews, where L. H. Ice and his noble band of young people gave us a royal welcome, on June 19 and 20. I delivered an address at Epworth League Booth Festival, at Wabash, on September 3.

Special Service Rendered.—My duty as a member of the Joint Commission on Students' Pastor for Purdue University called me to Lafayette on May 10, and again on May 17. The outcome of these meetings was the incorporation of the Wesley Foundation for Purdue University. We ought now to have an endowment of at least $100,000 for this foundation.

On call of Governor Goodrich, I attended war meeting at Indianapolis on May 15.

On May 22 I met the Inter-Board Conference as proxy for E. C. E. Dorion, representing the Board of Conference Claimants, in Chicago Beach Hotel, Chicago.

On June 7, met J. B. Hingeley, R. A. Morrison, and the Conference Cabinet in Marion.

On June 27, in Buffalo, N. Y., I met a committee on program for Annual Conference Agents' Convention to be held in Chicago in August. Spent August 22, 23, and 24 in attendance upon this convention, which, in the long run, will prove to be one of the most profitable meetings of its kind ever held.

With the Cabinet I campaigned the entire Conference in the interest of militant Methodism, speaking at Goshen on September 20, Ft. Wayne on September 21; presiding at Wabash on September 25; speaking at Kokomo on September 26, at Anderson on September 27, and closing my part of the campaign with an address at New Castle on September 28.

Attended the dedicatory service of the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis on October 15 and the Mid-Year Institute at Kokomo on October 17. Attended two regular meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Memorial Home in Warren. Met the Cabinet at Muncie on December 20, also the Cabinet and Conference Examining Board at Kokomo on January 9. Met a hospital committee at Hope Hospital in Ft. Wayne on February 1.

On February 5, 6, and 7 I attended the conference of superintendents of the Chicago area, under the presidency of Bishop Nicholson, in the auditorium of the Methodist Book Concern in Chicago.

Notwithstanding these and many other calls for diversified endeavor I have kept the regular schedule of Sunday services and Quarterly Conferences, with but little variation. My health has been equal to the task, for which I am devotedly thankful.

Hospital Building Fund.—Met hospital committees in Wabash on June 12, at which time an organization for campaign for building fund was made. The campaign was successfully completed in the early part of July under the skillful management of Dr. T. J. Johnson, representing the hospital.

During the year we have paid to this fund $2,368.82. Several churches have paid their entire apportionment.

Building and Improving.—On June 10 our splendid church at Uniondale, with a seating capacity of 700 people, was dedicated by Dr. A. E. Smith, president of Ohio Northern University. The pastor, Leroy Huddleston, and his heroic people made great personal sacrifices on this occasion.

On November 25, Dr. W. D. Parr dedicated one of the most complete of modern houses of worship for our aggressive, sacrificing, and resolute people in Churubusco. The pastor, R. H. Wehrly, gave it all possible attention.

Dr. Parr also conducted the reopening and dedicatory service of Charter Oak Church, on the Churubusco Circuit, where the pastor, F. P. Johnson, experienced the fruition of great hopes.

A new and modern bungalow parsonage has been erected by the Wabash Street congregation. The pastor, Dr. J. L. Gillard, and his estimable family now have the promise of one of the coziest and most attractive parsonage homes in the Conference.

A. D. Burket holds his people steadily to the building proposition at Sweetser.

First Church, Wabash, was partly closed for cleaning, decorating of walls, improvement of floors, and installation of a new heating system. Sunday, February 24, was reopening day. The faithful pastor, T. M. Guild, and his brother Dan, a former pastor, were equal to all the demands of the occasion, raising more than $10,000 and rededicating the splendid building to the satisfaction and joy of all the people. This is one congregation that held service each Sunday during the severe weather.

Other improvements more or less extensive have been made by the following brethren: I. R. Godwin at Akron; J. T. Bean at Columbia City, new pipe organ installed, dedicated, and paid for, cost $2,000; A. L. Weaver, Jonesboro; G. E. Hughes, new furnace in parsonage at La Fontaine; J. C. White, First Church, Marion, church decorated and parsonage improved; D. J. Imler, addition to church, Home Park, Marion; J. W. Zerbe, Sunday-school room in Ninth Street Church, Marion, improved; F. P. Morris at Markle, new lighting system; J. S. Newcombe, parsonage at Mentone; Arlington Singer, new Majestic furnace in church at Silver Lake; M. O. Lester inherited a church building at Warren, the interior of which, including new pipe organ, has just been almost destroyed by fire; J. O. Campbell, church in Van Buren. A recent windstorm tore the tower from Grace Church in Marion. David Wells, knowing the destructive power of wind as well as fire, had the building insured against tornado, and it will be repaired without expense to the congregation. J. J. Fred reports an improvement at Fairmount; W. E. Murray, church repairs on the Huntington Circuit. C. M. Vawter made improvements on the Larwill charge; F. S. Young, new lighting system at Liberty Mills; J. F. Blocker, church at Roanoke; J. J. Fischer, hardwood floors for church in North Manchester. A. L. Myers reports property improvement at Sims; also C. B. Thomas at Point Isabel. C. E. White has improved the church property at Middle Street, Wabash. Improvements more than balance depreciation, and property valuation has been maintained, if not increased, in the district. It is here that the Ladies' Aid Society performs a large service, having raised for this and other purposes $9,507 this year.

Woman's Work in the Church.—Our women's organizations, including the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and the Ladies' Aid Society, never demonstrated their loyalty and devotion by a larger scope of activity than to-day.

Ministerial Support.—Laymen are exercising a greater concern for the spiritual welfare of themselves and their families by providing a more adequate financial support for the man who ministers to them in spiritual things. Twelve charges have advanced their support for next year, and others will follow.

A careful survey of the philosophy of ecclesiasticism as exhibited by Methodism discloses the fact that the man of power, wielding the largest influence, enjoying the largest liberty and freedom in the highest sense of these terms, possessed with the possibility of grasping the largest opportunities, making himself the object of the confidence and the center of the affections of his people, is the pastor who does the work of a true shepherd of the flock. He obtains this liberty with a great price. It is the price paid by every one who would be God's best man for God's best service in the community.

The Epworth League.—This useful organization is doing fine work in many of our charges. Our young people are the hope of the church and equal to the best in the land, which entitles them to the best service the church can render.

Moral and Religious Education.—While the dissemination of moral and religious education is not limited to the Sunday school, nevertheless this organization centralizes its forces and focalizes them upon the individual. My records show great interest in Sunday schools.

Evangelism.—The evangelistic spirit has prevailed. Those holding revivals in the autumn months or earlier were fortunate. Some excellent plans for revival work which promised good results were frustrated by severity of the weather and by order of the fuel administrator. In many congregations special preparations were made for the observance of Passion Week, the doing of which gave the people a spiritual uplift and added a goodly number to the church.

Nineteen charges report 353 conversions; F. P. Johnson reporting the largest number, 116; C. M. Vawter, 34; J. P. Chamness, 30; J. J. Fischer, 36; C. B. Thomas, 30; J. W. Zerbe, 25. Even if few or no conversions are reported, the protracted meeting is always worth the effort in disarming criticism, distributing responsibility, and in spiritual quickening of believers.

Benevolences.—Last year the Wabash District made a per capita gain of 27 cents per member for the Disciplinary benevolences, which placed us at the head of the list as compared with the whole church, the Chicago area, the North Indiana Conference, and with the other districts of the Conference. For the same purpose we took third place in per capita giving, the same being $1.40 per member. Last year our gain, not counting W. H. M. S. supplies, was $2,504 for Disciplinary benevolences. This year, notwithstanding the numerous calls for war and relief service, to which our people have made generous response, we report another gain of $2,603. For all benevolent purposes, our gain will go far beyond this. For purposes educational and inspirational our district was divided into eight groups, with the following serving as chairmen: C. M. Vawter, Arlington Singer, J. L. Gillard, F. P. Morris, C. E. White, M. O. Lester, C. B. Thomas, A. C. Wischmeier. One week only was given for making an intensive campaign of the district, and that was the week immediately following the Conference campaign for Militant Methodism by the district superintendents. Our preachers carried the spirit of this campaign into every congregation, and the laymen cooperated in generous endeavor , with results most satisfactory. Our district missionary secretary, J. T. Bean, has rendered valuable service on many occasions.

The Disciplinary Financial Plan.—Our best results obtain wherever this plan is honored and perfected. We still have some who are joined to their idols of antiquated and long since discredited financial methods, with consequent embarrassing deficits during the year, and particularly at its close. Valuable time which should be spent in every-member canvass for next year's business is consumed in providing for large deficits for current year. Notwithstanding all this, last year every dollar of promised ministerial support was paid.

Miscellaneous.—The reports of M. L. Hardingham and F. H. Cremean are not at hand, but we can certify that they have done much faithful work on their respective charges, South Whitley and Upland, this year.

J. H. McNary, after two years of faithful and arduous labor on the Burket charge, this year making by far the best report the charge has ever presented, asks to be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, with a view to retirement.

David Wells was sent to Grace Church, Marion, eight years ago. He found a few members, in debt, scattered, and discouraged, promising a support of $600. In eight years he has paid parsonage debt, greatly enlarged and improved the church, has increased the membership to four hundred, for years has paid all apportionments in full, all other obligations being promptly met, and closes this year with unity and harmony, his congregation presenting the example of a well-balanced church and fixing the support for next year at $1,200.

E. L. Jones and his estimable wife are rendering service of the highest order at the Methodist Memorial Home, in Warren.

J. W. Tillman, J. T. Fettro, T. F. Frech, and G. B. Work, retired ministers living within the bounds of the district, are held in high esteem. J. W. Cain, retired, resides in Deland, Fla.

A Word Personal.—My regard for each pastor and layman is magnified when I think of the fine spirit exhibited in bearing with my shortcomings and weaknesses. The splendid hospitality of the parsonage and other homes, the courtesy extended me while presiding in district and other conferences, the numerous evidences of thoughtful regard for my comfort and increased usefulness will always abide a memory most precious.

Preachers' Families Represented in the War.—Each of the following has a son in training: Mell Timmons, J. J. Fred, J. P. Chamness, and W. E. Murray. Brother Murray also has another son, who has received his baptism of fire in France. David Wells has a son for several years in the navy. Nearly every church is decorated with a service flag.

Amidst the darkness and gloom of the awful present, "hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing." Faith says it is the Star of Bethlehem, the wing of the dove of universal peace.

Marion, Ind., April 3, 1918.

(b) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

With a high sense of the importance and the extreme and pressing need of aggressive evangelism, and in the spirit of devout prayer and earnest solicitation, the Committee offers the following report:

Our Heritage.

"In the year 1729, two young men in England, reading the Bible, saw that they could not be saved without holiness, and followed after it and incited others so to do. This was the beginning of Methodism. The Methodist Episcopal Church has always believed that the only infallible proof of the legitimacy of any branch of the Christian Church is its ability to seek and to save the lost, and to disseminate the Pentecostal spirit and life."

We vow our allegiance to the "Faith of our Fathers," and we will be true to this faith till death.

The Outlook.

The world is beginning to think of the mission of the church in terms commensurate with its dignity. The challenge has come. This is no time for waste of energy or money. Conservation is the word of the hour. We must determine our relation to the world program. The time has come when all questions and theories that clog the wheels of progress or hinder the practical work of the church should be set aside. The new age that is breaking upon us is interpreting everything in its relation to the vital need of the hour. The new church for the new age will be the church that fits itself to the immediate needs of the souls of men. Such was the example of Christ. He came to seek and to save the lost.

The question that confronts the modern church is primarily a question of adaption and adherence to the Christ standard. His work is our task. He focused his life upon the lost soul. Where should the church center her every energy? His passion was overwhelming. Should ours be less? We believe the ministry should re-study the parable of the ninety and nine. A vision of a lost soul ought to set every preacher on fire with a holy passion to lead that soul to the Christ. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Our blessed Lord said, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Our chief business is to catch men. Is the pastor an evangelist? If not, he should be made one. A great many young ministers approach the revival season with fear and trembling, as well as many older ones. Assistance is offered in almost every other phase of his arduous duties, but in this vital business of soul-saving he is left in many cases helpless and alone. Our church and our ministry may be of invaluable service to the community and to society in the most wholesome manner, but in the light of our Master's life and death we are forced to cry "failure" if we have not been fishers of men. Our bishop said he had no faith in an unconverted church. Brethren, we still believe in the power of God to save a soul from sin. The church is distinctively a soul-saving institution. We have worthy competition in every other line of activity and social service, but in the soul-saving business we stand unparalleled and alone. The church will become an evangelistic church when we have an evangelistic ministry. We may benefit a man when we help him to invest his money and cause him to unite with the church, but we have performed the most valuable and efficient service to him when we have led him to a saving knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The redemption of all society and government rests in the regenerated man.

We believe in one hundred per cent efficiency. An efficient ministry will mean an efficient church. We feel the need of a Pentecost, a baptism of the Holy Ghost, and urge our brethren to tarry in the upper room until endued with power from on high. The question is asked, "Has the church failed?" We answer with thunderous tone, "No!" The church has so built herself into the woof and fabric of democracy that everywhere men and leaders are opening up their hearts for a larger service. No great movement for the welfare of society is ever launched without taking the church into its confidence and asking for its aid and help. There never confronted the church a more opportune moment. There never was a greater hour in which to preach the old-fashioned gospel of Jesus Christ. There never was a better time in which to invite men to the Saviour. There never was an age when the great bleeding world felt its need of the Christ and Calvary as at this strategic hour. Brethren, the most princely task ever offered an individual is that of lifting up the Christ, that a sinful world might be drawn unto him. Let us go to our charges rededicated to the task of winning souls for the Master. The good Lord grant that when the reports are read a year hence that the dominant note might be converts unto the Lord. To this end we therefore recommend that in every district there be held a school of revivals, wherein the several pastors, under the leadership of our Superintendents, shall, through prayer and study and discussion, become endued with the Pentecostal power, and sent out with a tongue of fire to condemn sin and to uplift the Christ and catch men for the Kingdom.

METHODS.

We recommend none. We condemn none. We quote Paul: "I am become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some." We believe in the method that gets souls. No one method will win in all places and under all conditions. We believe that the local circumstances should determine the method. We urge the all-year personal and pastoral evangelism, also the special revival and the unified effort and team-work, and any other type of effort usable and adequate, that we might by all means save some. The north wind, the east, the west, the south wind, whatever wind our people need, Lord send that wind upon us.

We heartily commend the evangelistic note in our bishop's devotional talks and in Dr. Mantle's inspirational Pentecostal hour.

AIM.

First: The conversion of sinners.

Second: The reclaiming of backsliders.

Third: The baptism of all believers with the Holy Ghost.

Fourth: To bring up the children in the nurture and the admonition of the Lord, ever saying to them, "Ye must be born again."

Brethren, let us go to our task from this mount of high vision and noble purpose to get souls for our hire, and to demonstrate to our people the example of our Master when he said, "I am among you as he that serveth."

M. B. GRAHAM,

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on the American Bible Society, in our report, desire to express our gratitude for the fact that our work in the distribution of the Word of God has gone steadily forward, and as doors open for us we hope and expect that our beloved church and those who are joined with us in this great work of God may carry the Holy Scriptures to the entire world, and just now in particular to our soldier boys at the front.

We rejoice in the fact of the splendid advance of $343 this year, and we believe we can and will do much better next year. We believe that no other period has ever come to us more favorably for calling the people from the thoughts of earth to the best things of the souls of men and the advancement of God's kingdom in the world than this one which has in these last years reached us.

When the present world-war shall end, we believe that then the hearts of men will yearn for the gospel and there will be a splendid opening for the introduction of God's Word to the peoples of the entire world. We assuredly believe that such a vision to inspire us we ought to put forth a much stronger effort to advance the claims of our American Bible Society upon the hearts of our people. No other work is so greatly used of God. We therefore pledge ourselves to do our best in this cause.

J. L. MURR, Secretary.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

Your Board of Control, in view of the growing appreciation of this department of Christian work on the part of the general church, having been dignified and honored by being placed with the seven other great departments, desire to call attention to the growing indifference on the part of this Conference to the work of deaconesses.

Further, we would call the attention of all the pastors to the Discipline of 1916, paragraphs 233 to 236.

FRED F. THORNBURG, President.
A. L. WEAVER, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Your Committee on Church Literature recognizes the religious press as one of the most efficient agents in the spread of the truths of the kingdom of God and in molding the characters and fashioning the lives of all our people. We rejoice in the abundance and high character of the various publications of our publishing houses, and commend both books and periodicals to our people as the very best for the upholding of the church of Christ throughout our domain, and that all Methodists should be urged to use our own literature in the Sunday schools and all other church work.

We especially recommend the Western Christian Advocate to our people as one of the best mediums by which an intelligent Methodism may be built up throughout our Conference and church.

We also urge upon all our ministers the importance of securing our great Methodist Review, and it was probably never greater than now, and to a most careful reading of the same. We believe that a devoted loyalty to our own periodicals is the one thing essential to the building up of the church and establishing an intelligent righteousness throughout our Conference, this and all Episcopal areas and the entire Methodism of this country and the world.

R. C. JONES, MILLARD PELL,
L. HUDDLESTON, WILLIAM E. LOVELESS,
E. M. DUNBAR, AUBURN E. LEESE.

EDUCATION.

From the beginning our church has realized that in the highest sense education and religion are inseparable. If the life is to attain its full symmetry and power, the religious element must dominate the trained intellect. If the church and her program are to be maintained, and if full vision of the kingdom of God is to be carried forward in modern society, the motives and principles of religion must be the masters of all culture. Educational institutions in which there may be no hindrance in creating a constant and positive Christian atmosphere in which the officers and teachers may be selected with a care to Christian worth and character, in which the Bible and the whole range of Christian subjects may be taught in the most thoroughgoing fashion, and in which the guidance and culture of the young people may be constantly related to the chief values in Christian life and service must be maintained by the church.

More than ever before in the world's history the time has now come for a still greater emphasis upon Christian education, the education of both heart and intellect. The Board of Education was established fifty years ago. The Jubilee program, including the Board's appeal for one million dollars permanent endowment, commands our enthusiastic support.

The Student Loan Fund, derived from free-will offerings on Children's Day, has assisted 26,500 Methodist boys and girls to secure an education. Thirty-nine students attending schools of the church, whose homes are in this Conference, were granted loans from the Children's Day Fund aggregating $2,243. The total contribution last year from this Conference to the Children's Day Fund amounted to $2,725.86, as compared with $1,940.27 of the year before. Loans amounting to $3,074 were granted to seventy-two students in DePauw University.

The Aid of Institutions Fund, derived from the Public Educational Collection and Special Gifts, through which the Board helps struggling institutions in the highlands of the South, on the western frontier, and schools in peril in all sections, is of ever-increasing service.

The Department of Religious Work co-operates in the conduct of evangelistic campaigns, and has successfully begun the work of caring for Methodist students at State institutions, according to the plan approved by the General Conference of 1916.

Under the splendid leadership of President G. R. Grose, D.D., DePauw University has enjoyed another prosperous year. Two new buildings—Rector Hall for women, and the Studebaker Memorial Administration Building—have been completed within the year. The campaign for $300,000 to complete the Million-Dollar Fund for endowment and new buildings before March 1, 1919, is under way. Dr. Demetrius Tillotson, of the Northwest Indiana Conference, has been appointed by Bishop Nicholson as Field Assistant to the President, and Dr. C. U. Wade, Endowment Secretary in the campaign. The importance of Christian education was never more apparent than in the present world situation, and we urge our brethren in the ministry to assist in every possible way in the conduct of this campaign. DePauw has sustained her best traditions of devotion to the national interest in the great world-war, of which we are now a part. Five members of the faculty and over two hundred undergraduates are in the National service. There are four hundred and thirty-six stars on her service flag. A department of military instruction and training under federal officers will be conducted next fall. Courses will be offered to train students for expert service along all lines required by the Government. The President has rendered the State Council of Defense distinguished service by his speeches and sermons. The Mendenhall lectures were delivered this year by President H. P. Faunce, of Brown University, on "Religion and War." They constitute a notable contribution to the literature of the present crisis. These lectures will soon be published by the Book Concern

Despite the loss of fifteen per cent in attendance, due to the large number of students in the National service, and the consequent shrinkage of $15,000 in student fees, the low rates for board and rooms have been maintained. The present year will be brought to a close with no deficit in the current expense account.

We urge the pastors in our Conference to new efforts to encourage the young people in their congregations to attend college. The present need of men in the interests of war will be equaled after the war by the need of the world for trained leaders in the great enterprises of reconstruction. Now is the time to train our young people for leadership in the new age. To send a young person to a Christian college like DePauw is a distinct form of patriotic service. We recommend the re-election of Hon. M. B. Stultz and Dr. W. D. Parr as trustees, and the appointment of Rev. F. A. Hall as Conference visitor.

The Methodist Church is justly proud of its theological schools, and the opportunity offered by them for thorough preparation for the ministry.

Boston University School of Theology, in spite of the depletion of its ranks by the war, is still filled with men who are seeking the advantages offered by this progressive institution of higher education. The school is situated in the heart of Boston, in the midst of a cosmopolitan population that offers large opportunity for practical Christian service. President Murlin and Dean Birney are determined that the best possible shall touch with the eastern atmosphere, while combining with it the training of the mind, can do no better than at our Boston school.

Drew Theological Seminary, located at Madison, New Jersey, in close proximity to New York, offers the finest opportunity for training in Christian leadership. It has a large and scholarly faculty, extensive libraries, and is faithful to its long reputation for thorough scholarship and loyalty to the standards of the church. In addition to the instruction in the school, the students have opportunity to hear the great preachers of New York and learn first-hand, practical church methods.

We recommend as visitors the following: For Boston, Rev. J. F. Edwards; Drew, Rev. Frank Morris; Garrett, Rev. Charles Smith; Jacksonville, Rev. W. A. Griest.

The year at Garrett Biblical Institute has been signalized by the large numbers of its students who have offered themselves for service in the war. Two service flags were recently dedicated. There are twenty-two now in the Government service and fourteen in the Young Men's Christian Association work. The faculty of the school are in constant demand for patriotic addresses. The campaign for additional endowment makes slow but definite and encouraging progress. Four dormitories have been completed and paid for at an outlay of $135,000. The central building will be undertaken when the necessary $250,000 are in sight. The four-quarter year is continuing to prove itself satisfactory. Students are availing themselves of the summer quarter, which reduced the time of school by nine months. Pastors are increasingly coming to learn the value of the summer quarter as an opportunity for combining a relatively inexpensive vacation with the advantages of practical courses of instruction. To meet the convenience of pastors, the summer quarter is divided into two terms of six weeks each. The high standing of the faculty in the world of scholarship, the exceptional equipment, the opportunity of Chicago as a laboratory for the study of evangelistic and social problems, make a desirable center for those seeking preparation for religious leadership.

The Illinois Woman's College, Jacksonville, Illinois, is in class "A" of the colleges of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in the highest class of the "Recognized College List" in the report of the Illinois State Board of Education. The college has an exceptionally strong faculty, and offers standard work in Liberal Arts, Music, Fine Arts, Expression, and Home Economics. It affords young ladies an opportunity for four years of life that will unfold into efficient usefulness.

We recognize Taylor University as a great asset of Methodism. Many earnest young people are there making preparation for their life work.

We nominate Rev. John C. White and John Campbell for trustees, and Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger for visitor.

The Beamer Lectures on "Christian Missions" were delivered this year by Bishop Herbert Welch, of Korea, and again justified the wisdom of this foundation.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Methodism as a world church enters upon its supremest opportunity in this world age. Democratic in our ideals, militant in our methods, this is certainly our day of privilege. Our leaders, with prophetic insight, have been quick to perceive all this, and have uttered a magnificent challenge to the church commensurate with our unparalleled task.

We therefore hail the Centenary Movement as a timely recognition not only of the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of American Methodist Missions, but also the auspicious hour for our entrance into a more vigorous campaign in worldwide conquest for Christ and the church.

As preliminary to this great drive, we recommend that all the charges within the bounds of our Conference inaugurate at the earliest possible moment a four-weeks Christian Stewardship Campaign, looking toward the immediate enlistment of our share of the one million pledged tithers in Methodism.

Our splendid reports made at this session of the Conference are not only suggestive of the vast possibilities of our jurisdiction, but also prophetic of our unqualified co-operation in all the great tasks of our church in the days that are to come.

FREEDMEN'S AID COMMITTEE.

To the North Indiana Annual Conference:

The work of the Society has been carried on for over fifty years. The General Conference authorized and directed each pastor to observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary in February. (Discipline of 1916, paragraph 455, page 302.)

As a result of the work of the Society, we have 350,000 colored members, 3,500 churches, and over 2,000 ministers. Our schools supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. For this purpose, the 21 schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society, with their 334 teachers and 5,864 students, must be maintained.

A War Call.

On account of the increased cost of food supplies, fuel, and everything that goes into the expenses of the schools, the Freedmen's Aid Society needs at least a fifty per cent increase over last year in its collections.

Its students and graduates are drilling in the cantonments, and soon will be "doing their bit somewhere in France." Back of the cantonments are the schools, where others are being prepared to take the vacant places of those who fall "in the trenches." Help the schools, and help them NOW, when their need is greatest. They are making America safe for democracy by providing a Christian leadership for ten million American citizens and patriots of the Negro race. The presidents and teachers in these schools are doing a noble and heroic service. Give them a lift. Encourage them. Their work is vital to the future welfare of the nation.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor observe Lincoln Day, and that, in addition to raising the full apportionment for the work of the Society, an effort be made to secure a fifty per cent increase to cover the additional expense on account of war prices.

We further recommend that the program and literature prepared by the Society be distributed in our Sunday schools and public congregations. This literature can be secured without cost by sending to the office of the Society at 420 Plum Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, a postal card request.

Respectfully submitted,
U. S. Hartley, Chairman.
J. R. Stelle, Secretary.

HOSPITAL.

We, the members of the North Indiana Conference, express our great joy and thanksgiving for the prosperity attending the Methodist Hospital Association of Indiana. With the dedication of the new pavilion and surgeries, the hospital at Indianapolis has been made one of the largest and best equipped hospitals in the Middle West, while it is so popular that it is overflowing with patients all the time.

We regard as an evident leading of the Lord the gift of a hospital plant in the city of Princeton, Indiana, worth $50,000, and heartily sanction the acceptance thereof, and its thorough renovation and improvement.

We commend the wisdom of the Association in the conduct thus far of the program for the acquisition of the property of the Ways Sanitarium Company, in Fort Wayne. The munificent gifts of $35,000 by Dr. A. H. Macbeth, his wife, Dr. Harriet Stemen Macbeth, the provision of $100,000 by the people of the city of Fort Wayne and vicinity, and the payment of $125,000 by the Hospital Association will give us a property in Fort Wayne, the second city of the State, easily worth $300,000. Fifty thousand dollars of the one hundred thousand dollars required from Fort Wayne has already been subscribed. In view of the great need for added hospital facilities in the city, and also in view of the fact that this building has been selected by the Government as the official hospital to care for casualties of the war, we urge the early consummation of this great enterprise and the opening and operating of this splendid plant as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made with reference to the $100,000 from Fort Wayne.

We congratulate the hospital on the wisdom and efficiency of the administration of the secretary-supreintendent, Charles S. Woods, M.D.

The splendid Nurses' Training School conducted by the hospital is the best in our State, and we look forward with joy to the erection of the new building proposed and made possible by the splendid gifts of Bro. Messick, of Shelbyville.

Altogether, we commend the Methodist Hospital Association of Indiana as the very best, first, for the restoration of health, and second, as an opportunity for the placing of gifts where they may continue to bless our suffering world.

We urge that our people visit the hospital properties, and that pastors should take selected persons from Epworth League chapters, Sunday schools, and the church for the inspection of our great plants.

We recommend the re-election of Rev. L. J. Naftzger and the election of C. B. Jenkins as trustees for a period of three years, their terms to expire in 1921.

We recommend the apportionment of ten cents per member to the charges for the Sustaining Fund.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submit the following:

1. We rejoice in the success of the Home, as is manifested in the health and happiness of the forty-three members, who range in age from sixty-eight to eighty-nine years.

2. The financial condition indicates assets to the amount of $127,504, an increase of a little over $7,000 over last year.

3. We recommend that the Committee apportion to the charges of the Conference for this benevolence the sum of ten cents per member as the Sustaining Fund.

4. We recommend that Rev. E. L. Jones and wife, for their efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the institution, and recommend that the Rev. E. L. Jones be re-appointed as superintendent and financial secretary for the coming year.

5. We recommend that the following be elected as trustees for a period of three years: M. S. Marble, A. H. Sapp, and O. A. Pulley.

6. We recommend the appointment of W. T. Arnold, J. C. White, and F. A. LeMaster as visitors to the Home for this Conference year.

C. U. Wade, W. T. Arnold,
Chas. W. Chadwick, D. C. Beatty.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

Your Committee on Parsonage and Furniture is gratified to report an increase in the number and improvement of parsonages. There are now some 225 parsonages, with a valuation above $575,000, leaving but a very few of our charges without a parsonage home for the preacher.

We wish to record our appreciation to the local societies of the churches for their keen interest in behalf of the ministry.

Further, by reason of the present difficulties in securing railway shipping of household goods and the losses attending to shipping thereof, and the need of a uniformity of such furnishings, to be supplied to each parsonage within the Conference.

We recommend that the District Superintendent, at the first Quarterly Conference, call the attention of our people to these conditions, and urge them to purchase such articles of furniture for the parsonage homes.

T. M. Hill, C. B. Sweeney,
R. W. Rogers, D. A. J. Brown.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

The Committee on Social and Moral Questions submit the following report:

We believe that faith in God is the foundation of the highest and best standard of social and moral life. We also believe that the highest ethical standard is attained by those who seek to have "Christ formed within the hope of glory." Therefore we urge that our church people seek for themselves and try to help others the highest New Testament standard of experience and life. To this end we urge that our people make proper use of the Sabbath day by building into their lives on that day, through the church services and otherwise, those elements that tend toward the ennobling of the soul. We deplore the use of the Sabbath in such a way that God is either forgotten or crowded out of the life. We urge the keeping alive in the soul a sense of God and of our obligations to him.

We further believe that the enthronement of Christ as Lord of the life will solve the problem of questionable amusement. Therefore let us hold before our young people the glory of the surrendered life, realizing that such a life will not go astray at any point.

In addition to all this, we appreciate the civic forces in the enactment and enforcement of proper laws. We deplore the laws that permit Sunday baseball and Sunday theaters and picture shows, and wish to commend all efforts seeking the repeal of such laws and the enactment of others that tend to help the people to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

We recognize our homes as the bulwarks of our nation, and deplore the fact that disease, poverty, and crime in many cases hamper or destroy their efficiency. As a measure looking toward the bettering of our homes, we would favor a law requiring a medical certificate of all candidates for marriage.

We greatly deplore that so many of our homes are destroyed by divorce, and urge our people and pastors to use all forces within their power to alleviate this evil.

We are also convinced that there is a close relation between poverty and crime, and if our wage-earners were better paid in many cases, there would be fewer delinquents in morals. We regret very much that many of our young women are compelled to work for from $3.50 to $10 per week, which in most cases is an inadequate wage. We trust our pastors will call attention to this fact and, where practical, urge the employers to greater liberality.

We believe that in the present crisis of wartime there is no force more potent than the moral force. We also believe there is no organization equal to the church for making moral fiber and morale in our people at home and in the boys abroad. Therefore we most heartily commend the patriotism manifest in the church by its patriotic meetings and its loyal support of the Red Cross and Young Men's Christian Association. We would encourage our churches in their work of helping win the war and making this old world safe for democracy and a democracy that is safe for the world.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Resolved, That the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church declare its conviction that the United States entered into the war one year ago under the resistless compulsion of patriotic duty and in defense of the rights of humanity. For the American nation the issue is simple and sublime. An abhorrently selfish and frightfully cruel autocracy arrayed itself against the forces of democracy, imperiling the liberties of the world. The Prussian Empire proclaimed the right of might, recognizing no international law, no moral law, and no law of humanity, justifying bestial rape, cruel deportations, wanton waste of the treasures of civilization, and crimes which put to shame the ravages of the hordes of Atilla. The American nation has drawn the sword for the defense of her own liberties and to safeguard the freedom of all civilized nations against the domination of a detestable military autocracy that recognizes no law except the law of military necessity.

Resolved, That we declare a profound conviction that no peace is worthy of being considered except a righteous and lasting peace, to be secured only by the complete and final defeat of German arms.

Further, we record our strong conviction that all the resources and energies of the nation, physical, intellectual, and moral, should be laid upon the altar for the service of country and of God.

We therefore urge upon all national and State officials and upon all citizens to push with the utmost vigor the task of winning the war.

We deplore and condemn the base treason of "war profiteers," who have bartered in the sufferings of the helpless by exacting extortionate profits in business.

We deplore and condemn the criminal excesses of the "militant Bolsheviki" in our midst in the outbreaks of mob violence, inflicting physical indignities and even death upon enemy aliens suspected of disloyalty, but not convicted after due process of law. While we are at war with a lawless nation, our citizens dare not become lawless, even in the cause of liberty and humanity. But in order that the flag may be everywhere respected, we call upon all officers of the Federal Government to punish with prompt and drastic severity all utterances and acts of disloyalty which give comfort and aid to the enemy.

We record our deep gratification over the adoption by Congress of the measure providing for nation-wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. We are confident in the belief that the early ratification of this national amendment by twelve States is in earnest of the speedy and complete destruction of the brewery and saloon throughout the nation.

We rejoice in the aggressive measures enacted and enforced by the authorities of both the Army and Navy for the protection of our soldiers against the ravages of drink and vice. We deplore the fact that the President has not yet exercised the authority vested in him by Congrees to prohibit as a war emergency measure during the period of the war, the use of any grain for the manufacture of any form of alcoholic drinks.

We note with just pride the response to the call of the country made by the young men in the schools and colleges of the nation. In order that the Army and Navy may be adequately provided with men of trained skill, and that church and state may have intelligent and wise leadership for the mighty task of rebuilding the world, we call upon all pastors and teachers and parents to urge upon our youth the high patriotic duty of continuing in the schools until their training is completed or until the country calls them into its service. The imperative need in this crisis is for men of trained intellect and moral virtue.

We urge upon all our citizens earnest and diligent endeavor in conserving the moral and intellectual resources of the nation by maintaining at maximum efficiency the work of the schools and colleges, the churches, and other philanthropies, which minister to a strong and righteous citizenry.

We call upon all the people of our country to awaken from indifference and to fight the foes of humanity and civilization in the unwavering determination to make no halt until a just and lasting peace has been secured by making "right the law of the world, and casting every selfish dominion down in the dust." And to this holy conflict we pledge our bodies, our possessions, and our lives until the end.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

In this day of stress and strain we would not forget to recognize that the greatest asset to the Christian church of to-morrow is found in the young life of to-day. This young life must be conserved to its greatest possible advantage. The church has the only blessing to bequeath to the youth which will prepare him for this life. This thought is substantiated by the utterance of our Lord when he said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness."

President Wilson said that one-third of the population of the United States is represented by the children. The obligation for all the religious and moral instruction of this army of youth rests upon the church.

It is ours to recognize the vastness of the task, and in the strength of God to assume the responsibility. It is to this end that we heartily endorse the well-organized and well-planned activities of our great Methodist Church to take care of this young life.

We also, as pastors of the North Indiana Conference, pledge our united endeavor to promote all the Sabbath-school interests, looking to the highest religious attainment.

Benj. Kendall,
E. M. Foster.

SUSTENTATION.

Connectionalism is the very essence of Methodism. Therefore, in harmony with the recommendation of the District Superintendents, we advise that $5,000 be apportioned to the several districts for this home mission work.

We also recommend the additional sum of $1,200 for the student pastor at Purdue University, a total of $6,200 for Sustentation work.

C. B. Croxall, A. L. Weaver,
C. M. Hobbs, Henry Lacy.

TEMPERANCE.

With joy we view the wave of temperance sweeping around the globe. Russia has abolished vodka; France, absinthe; England is curtailing the drink evil; eleven States have ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

After a long, hard fight of ten years, Indiana has gone dry by Federal enactment. The traffic has been abolished in Porto Rico, Alaska, and the District of Columbia, and the shipment of liquor to dry States has been prohibited.

We commend our Government for the protection of our boys in the cantonments, and urge that the same policy be enforced abroad. While we are conserving grain to feed the allies and the soldiers in the field, we demand that the manufacture into beer of this scarce and precious grain be abolished in this country. And with all kindness, yet with firmness, we say to France and England, You must not destroy, in your beer-vats and distilleries, the food which we, at great sacrifice, ship to you.

We congratulate our Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals upon the achievements of the past year. We note with appreciation the program for the erection of a Methodist building in Washington, D. C., near the Senate Building, where the church's interest in civic righteousness may find adequate expression, and through which the denominations' interests may be interpreted to our churches.

We commend the work of the Church Temperance Society, the Anti-Saloon League, the Flying Squadron, the Prohibition Party, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Dry Federation, and all other temperance organizations for their united efforts to make our State dry, and we desire the same united efforts of all such organizations to secure the ratification of the prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution.

We rejoice in the good work done by the members of our own Conference—Madison Swadener and Chas. J. Everson.

We nominate as Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, W. W. Martin and O. A. Trabue.

We recommend as officers of our Church Temperance Society, J. A. Patterson, for President; F. P. Morris, Vice-President, and Herbert Boase, Secretary.

Warsaw, Indiana, April 6, 1918.

Honorable Sir:

Whereas, Recognizing God as the author of all just government, and Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, as the Arbiter of the destinies of nations, and the Holy Spirit as the guide in human affairs, the Bishop and the members of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Conference assembled, facing the future with hope, do hereby call your attention to the fact that our Discipline says that "the time has come when the line should be definitely drawn between the supporters and partners of the liquor traffic and those who stand for its abolition," and

WHEREAS, We know that the licensing of the liquor traffic is a crime, and that, as representatives of the church of Jesus Christ, we cannot consistently with our profession encourage it or support it either by our votè, our voice, or our silence, and

WHEREAS, The administration tells us that to win the war we must save in man power, money, transportation, food and fuel.

THEREFORE, We, to conserve man power, money, transportation, food, and fuel, do humbly petition you to do everything in your power to secure the immediate enactment and thoroughgoing enforcement of such laws, with such adequate prison penalties for all violations included, as will totally eliminate the manufacture, sale, exportation, importation, transportation, storage, use, bartering, or giving away of any and of all forms of alcoholic liquors at all for beverage purposes in the United States and in its possessions, and wherever federal court authority, legislation or police powers can consistently be extended to protect our people, including all those in government employ, from the influences, effects, and results of alcoholic liquors.

We also hereby petition you to enact and enforce legislation by which all loyal Americans under our flag, regardless of sex or race, will be fully enfranchised.

Signed............................

Passed by a unanimous vote of Conference and laymen present.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

ORGANIZATION.

GREETING:

North Indiana Conference is incorporated in the Northwestern Branch, legally responsible to receive bequests, real estate, money on the annuity plan, and able to give at all times a correct bill of exchange. We have seven Conference officers and seven officers in each of the six districts. One hundred and thirty-nine Auxiliaries, with a membership of 5,066; fifty-one Young Women and Standard Bearer Societies, with a membership of 1,104; one hundred and five King's Heralds and Little Light Bearer Societies, with a membership of 2,200; a net gain of thirteen organizations and 529 members. Forty-five life members have been made during the year. Nineteen hundred copies of the Woman's Friend and 1,000 copies of the Junior Friend have been in circulation.

MEETINGS.

Conference anniversary addressed by Rev. Fred B. Fisher. At this meeting Mrs. Fisher was made a life member. The Northwestern Branch meeting was held in First Church, Anderson, October 2-4, with 900 delegates in attendance. Five District Conventions, with unusually large attendance; young people and children furnishing interesting features on the program. Over one hundred special and Thankoffering meetings were held, besides 2,900 regular monthly meetings. Miss Cora Simpson has given twenty-seven addresses and Miss Edith Bell, from Africa, twelve. Miss Ethel Jackson, from Singapore, and Miss Mary Mann, from Foochow, are at home on furlough, giving encouraging reports of great success on the foreign field. Our work was presented at six ministerial district conferences, by courtesy of the District Superintendents.

JUBILEE.

Goal members in every church in the Conference. April 17th one of the seventy Jubilee meetings was held in Wayne Street Church, Fort Wayne, with a large attendance, and a delightful banquet well carried out. And, best of all, three young women offered themselves for work on the foreign field. Eighteen names of children have been placed on the Jubilee Legion, and, by the payment of $194, the loyal women placed the name of the Conference Secretary in the Book of Remembrance in Tremont Street Church, Boston. M. O. G. H. members will be reported at the close of the Jubilee. We have also given our quota to the foreign jubilee goal in the going out of Miss Joyce Walker to Tientsin, who was born in China, and whose parents went to China forty years ago. Miss Hazel Schaub, from First Church, Fort Wayne, has gone to do hospital work in Nanchang, China. Miss Schaub is exceedingly well equipped, and was called to the work of a missionary when a small child.

The late Mrs. Frances Kelley, of Richmond, a rare Christian, left a bequest of $500, which was paid into the fund for the new building at Lucknow, India, one of of the Jubilee objects. We are deeply grateful for the co-operation of pastors and people, and our purpose is not only to do our best to spread the gospel over the known world, but to do our best in our own local churches, firm in our belief that the truth shall be made manifest. "Not by might, nor by an army, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

Respectfully submitted,
FLORENCE CLARK BINFORD, Conference Secretary.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

In all ages of the world, among all races, and under all conditions woman has lifted up the standard toward which her contemporaries have advanced, for the standard of the woman is the standard of the world.

She has been the first to advance, whether that advance be with joy and songs of triumph or in sorrow, with pain and sacrifice.

The church to-day owes her very existence to woman's devotion to the cause of righteousness. American Methodism took her place in American civilization because of Barbara Heck's denunciation of evil and exhortation to militant Christianity.

Woman bore the first message of the risen Lord to his perplexed and doubting disciples. To-day she is busied about the work of her Lord—in missionary work, in Aid Societies, as leaders in League and Sabbath school. In fact, upon her efforts much of the advance in all lines of church work depends. Not only does she carry these responsibilities in the church life, but finds time to do efficient labors in the Red Cross and kindred enterprises in these times of stress. Ministering to our boys at home and abroad, in the field and hospital. Surely her children shall rise up and call her blessed.

CABINET RESOLUTIONS.

The Cabinet of the North Indiana Conference hereby express their high appreciation of the outstanding services of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, and their gratitude to Almighty God for his forceful and constructive administration. His visits to our District Conferences, because of their inspirational and upbuilding character, merit and receive both our approval and thanks. In cabinet work we have found him equipped with the judicial spirit, a fine perception of the moral quality of men and their deeds, an attitude of brotherly regard, and a determination as far as possible to prepare the way for every preacher to attain the highest standard of usefulness in the church of God. All of this, together with his patriotic spirit, always in evidence, commands both our respect and full confidence. His close attention to the details of cabinet business insures the success of each District and the Conference in the realization of that vital relationship which our church must sustain to the tremendous movements of the present day, so clearly discerned by this statesmanlike leader of the militant forces of Methodism.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We again record our appreciation for the presence of Bishop Nicholson. The genial, impartial, and expeditious manner in which he has conducted his high office, as well as the masterful, well-directed, and spiritual addresses given before the Conference, have commended him to us as a brother well selected to direct in all the affairs of our church. We shall look forth with great pleasure to his coming as our presiding officer for another year.

We recognize the arduous and untiring labors of our Conference officers and their associates, and hereby express our sincere appreciation of their efficient work.

We desire also to express our highest appreciation for the splendid service rendered by the choir of this church, whose singing, under the leadership of Elmer B. Funk, together with the superior work of the organist, Miss Nellie Haines, has been a special inspiration to us all.

We desire to express our appreciation of the way in which the Warsaw papers, the Union and Times have written up our sessions. We especially commend the Union for its excellent special illustrated edition on Wednesday evening.

The courtesy extended by the banks of the city for the convenience of the Conference, together with the delightful and fraternal spirit on the part of our sister churches, go to make this one of the most delightful sessions of the North Indiana Conference.

We are grateful to Rev. L. J. Naftzger, D.D., and his proficient Committee on Entertainment. They are wise entertainers, and with great care have provided for all of our comforts.

We desire to thank the Committee on Programs for providing strong men to represent the needs and interests of the church. The patriotic address as given by Rev. John Thompson, D.D., of Chicago, and the evangelistic messages given by Rev. J. Gregory Mantle, D.D., of England, are deserving of special mention. We endorse the messages of these men and pledge ourselves to support the same.

COMMISSION ON RURAL CHURCH.

The appointment of a Conference Commission on the Rural Church Work, to consist of the District Superintendent and one pastor and one layman from each District, the latter two to be nominated by the District Superintendent.

V. L. Clear.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have carefully examined the Journals of the following District Conferences, and commend the various Secretaries for their arrangement and neatness: Goshen, Logansport, Wabash, Muncie, Fort Wayne, and Richmond.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.

Report of the Joint Educational Commission.

While your Commission has in mind the fact that its function was advisory, we have felt that since it was created in the wisdom of experts on educational policies and endorsed by the three Annual Conferences of the State, we have been conscious of our obligations in the matter, and have sought diligently to understand the whole situation as it relates to the educational care of the Methodist student body of the State, whether in our church schools or in the schools under State control. This is what we have done in the interest:

First, of the unification of our educational service, both as to the character and quality of service, as well as the spirit in which this service should be rendered, in order that increased efficiency would result all along the line.

Secondly, to take cognizance of, and place emphasis upon, the necessity of carefully looking after the moral and religious training of the Methodist students in our State institutions. The necessity for this will appear when we realize that this is a day of strategic opportunity, and will become increasingly greater in the years to come. We have taken all this to be vital to the success and future usefulness of the church.

Taylor University.

The Commission made certain propositions to the Trustees of Taylor University two or three years ago, looking to the transfer of the charter to the North Indiana Conference, in the hope of increasing the usefulness of this unique school, placing it where it could legitimately receive aid from the Conference, and in this way raise its educational and financial standards.

Since this was not found expedient by the Local Preachers' Association, we recognize the propriety and legality of the ruling of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, that the North Indiana Conference is not privileged to use the regular machinery of the church for the raising of funds for Taylor University, since Taylor University is not under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

During the year the movement to re-locate Moores Hill College in Evansville has been carried steadily forward. The city of Evansville, during a whirlwind campaign closing May 3, 1917, raised $513,000. Over $100,000 was raised within the bounds of the Evansville District during the months of June and July.

At the regular session of the Indiana Conference at Princeton, the Conference officially voted to move the college to Evansville, and to undertake a campaign to raise the half million dollars as Methodism's share of the enterprise. This campaign has not been entirely completed, and is being vigorously pushed. In all, over $800,000 has been pledged. It is hoped the remainder will be fully provided for before the close of the Educational Jubilee, the first of July.

The Joint Commission rejoices in this magnificent enterprise, which not only saves to Methodism an honored institution, but also provides educational facilities for a section of the State in sore need of such an institution. Not only Methodism, but the interests of the Kingdom at large, will be greatly strengthened in Southern Indiana by this achievement.

We heartily endorse the plan as announced of establishing in connection with this institution courses to train men for the rural pastorate. We record it as our judgment that Methodism greatly needs an institution that will specifically prepare men for this work. We record with pleasure the co-operation of the Board of Home Missions with the new institution at Evansville in working out this program, and bespeak for the school the widest possible support in this worthy work.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

This Commission, at its meeting one year ago, recommended that the permanent endowment of DePauw University should at the earliest possible date equal $3,000,000. As a step in this direction, the Trustees have entered upon a campaign to raise $1,000,000, $400,000 of which should be invested in new buildings and the remainder, $600,000, added to the permanent endowment.

The $400,000 intended for new buildings has already been secured and invested as follows: $125,000 in the new Bowman Memorial Building; $200,000 in the Rector Hall for Women, and $75,000 in the Clem Studebaker Memorial Administration Building. In addition to this, $23,000 have been spent in renovating and improving Woman's Hall.

Of the remaining $600,000, $150,000 has been given by the General Educational Board of New York, conditioned on the full amount being raised by March 1, 1919. Three friends, whose names are withheld for the present, have promised $50,000 and Mr. Edward Rector, of Chicago, has promised to be one of five persons to give $20,000 each; also one of ten to give $10,000, and also one of twenty to give $5,000 each. A completion of the full amount will mean a new day for DePauw.

DePauw University is the one institution in Indiana vitally related to the future leadership of the church. At the conclusion of the war Methodist leadership will be needed more than at any other time in our history. We call upon our ministers and laymen everywhere to come to the help of this important institution in this hour of her great opportunity.

As a part of the above movement, a Memorial Chair of Mathematics is being established in memory of Dr. John P. D. John. Another fund is being raised to endow the James Whitcomb Riley Chair of English Literature.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY.

As previously stated in this report, the Methodist students in the State schools are being looked after most thoroughly, and the results are most gratifying. Dr. C. H. Taylor, pastor of First Church, Bloomington, gives the matter his personal attention, and has as an assistant Mr. Frank Forry, who is proving himself in every line of service.

The student enrollment in membership has a larger percentage of the University enrollment than last year, and that was large. Some of the University professors, seeing the value of the work done, are giving their work in conducting classes in some definite educational course in Sunday school, with an average attendance of 125. These Bible classes (that is what they are in reality) serve to provide our Methodist students with a social center of a most wholesome sort.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY.

The work at Purdue University is incorporated under the name of "The Wesley Foundation at Purdue University." This property, under the corporate title, furnishes the student pastor a home, and forms a sort of community center for the 600 Methodist students in the University and about 100 students from other denominations, who have been affiliated, and for whom the student pastor, Dr. Fribley, feels responsible. Of this number there are 23 foreign students, 13 of whom are Chinese Government students, and to these he is able to give a definite Christian message. Dr. Fribley has 240 in his classes, receiving instruction in critical and devotional studies of the Scriptures, mission study classes, social service, and studies in world democracy.

Respectfully submitted,
A. B. STORMS, Chairman.

LOCAL CHURCH RESOLUTIONS.

WARSAW, INDIANA, April 8, 1918.

TO THE NORTH INDIANA M. E. CONFERENCE, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, This great body of God's workers has seen fit to choose Warsaw as its place of meeting in this the most critical time in the world's history, and

Whereas, The people of the First M. E. Church and the citizens of Warsaw generally have been greatly benefited by your sessions, be it theeefore

Resolved: First, that we extend our love to your presiding officer, Bishop Nicholson. May the hand of the Almighty God continue to touch him in his future work.

Second, That we extend our heartfelt thanks to the speakers of the Conference for their masterly addresses.

Third, That we express our appreciation of the gracious inspiration and blessing of every member of this Conference who were entertained in our homes.

Fourth, That we as a people consider it a privilege rather than a task to entertain this great Conference, and that we will be glad to have you come back to us at any time in the future.

Signed: Judge F. E. Bowser,
E. K. Hibbin,
Rev. J. B. Cook,
J. M. Sloan,
J. C. Schade,
Geo. W. McCarter,
Conference Committee, First M. E. Church, Warsaw.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY RESOLUTION.

Whereas, The General Conference at the 1916 session took the following action:

"Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church is now engaged in an intensive campaign to raise $15,000,000 (now $20,000,000) endowment for its veterans, and,

"Whereas, Many Annual Conferences have appointed field agents and formulated a definite program to carry this forward movement into effect, and

"Whereas, Reports indicate that we are approaching a glorious victory in this worthy cause, therefore be it

"Resolved, That this General Conference record its appreciation of the work already done, and recommend that field agents, superintendents, pastors, and churches stand ready to the task until it is complete, and thereby hasten on the day when our worn-out preachers shall no longer be represented to our people as objects of charity": and

Whereas, The Million Dollar Campaign in the North Indiana Conference seeks to provide an adequate permanent fund for the care of our Conference Claimants, and

Whereas, This campaign has the unqualified endorsement of the Laymen's Association of the Conference and the laymen in general, and

Whereas, The campaign in Goshen District justifies the expectation that a Million Dollar Campaign meets with the most hearty approval of laymen and ministers, Bishop Nicholson concurring, therefore

Resolved, That we will devote ourselves untiringly throughout the Conference year to the prosecution of this campaign in the effort to secure $600,000 in cash and subscriptions this year if possible, the ultimate goal being $1,000,000.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION AT PURDUE UNIVERSITY.

Report of the Student Pastor Committee.

As the members of the North Indiana Conference will remember, at the Auburn session of the Conference in 1917, the Conference assumed one-half of the responsibility involved in the establishing of the Student Pastor work at Purdue University on a satisfactory basis. From that time on until May, 1917, the enterprise was directed by a joint committee appointed by the two Northern Conferences. But on May 10, 1917, after numerous conferences and committee meetings of the local and the joint committees, in which information was obtained regarding similar work carried on in other State universities, and after having conferred with Bishop Nicholson and with Dr. James Baker, student pastor of the University of Illinois, the services of a competent attorney were employed, and at a meeting in the Fowler Hotel in LaFayette, Indiana, a full discussion was made, and the members of the joint committee voted to organize the Wesley Fouhdation at Purdue University. The name "The Wesley Foundation" having been used at the State universities of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota, was thought to be the most appropriate title for the organization. On the 17th of May, 1917, the attorney employed submitted the articles of the Association, which were signed by the following incorporators: W. D. Parr, M. S. Marble, C. E. Line, W. E. McKenzie, A. T. Briggs, D. Tillotson, O. F. Hall, G. F. Roberts, M. L. Fisher, and Lawrence Wallace.

The officers elected for the first year, as provided by the law, were: President, W. D. Parr, Kokomo; Vice-President, D. Tillotson, Crawfordsville; Prof. Geo. F. Roberts, Secretary, LaFayette; Treasurer, Prof. M. L. Fisher, LaFayette. The Board also elected the following standing committees: Executive Committee for the first year, W. E. McKenzie, G. F. Roberts, M. S. Marble, B. S. Hollopeter, M. L. Fisher; the Ways and Means Committee, W. D. Parr, D. Tillotson, L. W. Wallace, O. F. Hall

The Board of Directors for the First Year: From the North Indiana Conference—W. D. Parr, M. S. Marble, C. E. Line. From the Northwest Indiana Conference—W. E. McKenzie, D. Tillotson, A. T. Briggs. From the Purdue Staff of Instruction—M. L. Fisher, G. F. Roberts, L. W. Wallace. The four chosen by these nine Directors at Large were: Bishop Nicholson, W. W. Martin, B. S. Hollopeter, and O. F. Hall.

It will be of interest to the Conference to learn the nature of Articles I and II of the Foundation's Constitution and By-Laws:

ARTICLE I.

See page 360.

ARTICLE II.

See page 360.

1. After the incorporation and organization, the Wesley Foundation set about at once to purchase a home for the Student Pastor and a headquarters for the Methodist work at the University. The property purchased is just opposite the University campus, the corner of State and Sheetz Streets, and is within speaking distance of the library and Fowler Hall, two of the main buildings of the school. It is without question, one of the most desirable locations in West LaFayette. The lot is 75 by 150 feet, and is regarded by those who are competent to judge worth the price paid for the entire property, which was $7,000. Since last September this location has been the rallying place for our Methodist work and the office of the Wesley Foundation. Five hundred dollars were spent in improving this property. As the Student Pastor Committee, we wish to report that all bills have been paid which have been incurred for current expenses for the fiscal year of September 1, 1916, to September 1, 1917.

2. We recommend that we assume our one-half of the current expenses for the present year, as we did last year, which is $1,200.

3. We recommend that one-half of the purchase price of the Wesley Foundation property, which will be one-half of $7,500, be apportioned by the District Superintendents to their respective Districts, to be raised by each Superintendent as he deems best.

4. We recommend that the Conference appoint, according to the By-Laws of the Foundation, the following as the Directors from the North Indiana Conference: For the three-year period of service, W. D. Parr; for the two-year period of service, M. S. Marble, and for the one-year period of service, C. E. Line.

5. We request the Bishop to re-appoint Fremont E. Fribley to the Student Pastorate for the coming year.

6. We request the printing of the Constitution and the By-Laws of the Wesley Foundation in the Minutes.

Signed: William D. Parr,
W. B. Freeland,
C. E. Line.

PREACHERS' AID.

General Secretary's Report.

Upon election by the Preachers' Aid Society, and appointment by Bishop Nicholson to the General Secretaryship of the Preachers' Aid Society, the Secretary-elect addressed himself to a study of the history of the Society, the resources of the North Indiana Conference, the imperative need of an adequate permanent fund, the general awakening throughout Methodism and Protestantism, the tremendous inflation of the volume of money in the United States, the tardiness of the church in caring for the Veterans of the Cross, the saviours of our civilization, and the incalculable loss to the church and nation by the continuance of a policy of defalcation that will bar many of the strongest young men from the ministry. For these and other reasons, and in consultation with the District Superintendents, leading pastors and prominent laymen, it was determined to ask for the increase of the Permanent Fund to a grand total of one million dollars, $150,000 for each District.

Veterans' Day, as set apart by the General Conference, fits admirably into the campaign of publicity and finance; therefore it is respectfully requested that this day be observed in all the churches in our Conference in such a way as to promote "The Million Dollar Campaign" in both its publicity and financial phases, using the day in loving remembrance of the Veterans of the Cross, and in the taking of an offering in all the churches of the Conference for the administrative fund of the Preachers' Aid Society, the offerings to continue to be taken during a quadrennium at least.

It is requested that the Preachers' Aid Society be given a memorial page in the Minutes of the Conference; also that a column in the Conference statistical chart of the Conference Minutes be given to the General Fund of the Preachers' Aid Society.

The amounts up to date subscribed by pastors and churches of the Goshen District is as follows:

The Goshen District is about half worked up to date. The Rev. R. J. Wade, D.D., District Superintendent, has rendered most effective personal assistance to the General Secretary, and was indispensable in directing the activities of the pastors and special helpers, thus freeing the General Secretary from much personal solicitation for the larger subscriptions. The Rev. C. U. Wade, D.D., was most helpful in assisting in making the canvass in a few charges. The Rev. J. Frank Anderson, Field Representative of the Board of Conference Claimants, has rendered continuous and efficient help. The Board of Conference Claimants has shown deep interest, and has sold us many thousands of leaflets at a low price, which are being used in our campaign, the same being sent out from the office of the Preachers' Aid Society. The Rev. J. C. Woodruff, Field Representative of the Preachers' Aid Society, is becoming a very successful field man. All the pastors of the District have shown the greatest possible interest, and have gladly done everything in their power to make the campaign a success.

As this campaign has right of way for this quadrennium by General Conference action, and as Bishop Nicholson and General Secretary Hingeley ,of the Board of Conference Claimants, have expressed the wish that the campaign be completed as far as possible next year, and as the same sentiment and desire was expressed in a meeting of all the Conference Secretaries, Dr. J. B. Hingeley concurring, called by Bishop Nicholson, which met in Chicago, January 31st, and as this program was endorsed by the Bishop's Area meeting following same, it is incumbent upon us as a Conference and Preachers' Aid Society, in conjunction with the Board of Conference Claimants, to carry out a program in a year, if possible, which we had expected to do in three years. It is thought not to be impossible, provided the Board of Conference Claimants and the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society are willing and do provide us with four expert field men each for the year's campaign. We are gratified that Dr. R. J. Wade is appointed Field Manager of the Area Campaign. If we succeed in raising this fund, it will do four most needed things and most talked about in Methodism:

1. It will pay the debt of love in gold to the Veterans of the Cross.
2. It will make possible the consecration of the church to the work of the Kingdom, which the church demands of the ministry.
3. It will increase the support of the struggling man of God in the small charge.
4. It will greatly increase the amount paid by the large charge to the world-wide program of Jesus Christ.

Asking that you will approve the work already accomplished and concur in the recommendations herein contained, I am

Your obedient servant,
RUFUS A. MORRISON.

(IX) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W. B. Freeland, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. Students will secure the proper volume of Directions and Helps from the Book Concern. Read with care.

2. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, or colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examinations.

3. Similar certificates may be received in all studies not biblical or theological, from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

4. Certificates containing grades designated credit shall be received, and grades entered the same as the average of those grades contained in the certificate.

5. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or at the seat of the Annual Conference, on Tuesday of Conference week. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of a student in the mission field.

6. All written work on "books to be studied" must be given to the examiner by the time of the Mid-year Institute. All written work on "books to be read" will be due on or before March first. No credits after these respective dates.

7. One paper of approximately one thousand words will be required on a chapter of each book; this applies to both lists: "books to be studied" and "books to be read." Students will select chapter.

8. The directions of the Discipline, 1916, par. 596, 597, 598, and 599, sec. 1, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care.

9. All candidates for admission must pass an examination in "The Art of Writing English," except those who are exempt by par. 597, sec. 4, Discipline, 1916.

10. All candidates for ordination under the local rules will report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners for examinations.

11. The Mid-year Institute will be held at the Kemp Memorial Church, Tipton, October 14 to 17, 1918.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS MEETING.

7 P. M., THURSDAY, April 4, 1918.

Motion carried to confine examinations to Tuesday of Conference week. All written work must be in examiners' hands by March 1st in order to receive credit. The District Superintendents are requested to urge all candidates for examination to appear at the Mid-year Institute. Dr. Freeland was authorized to rearrange the course among the examiners in the interest of greater convenience. A motion was carried that before a man may be advanced from the studies of the first and third year, he must have at least two-thirds of his work.

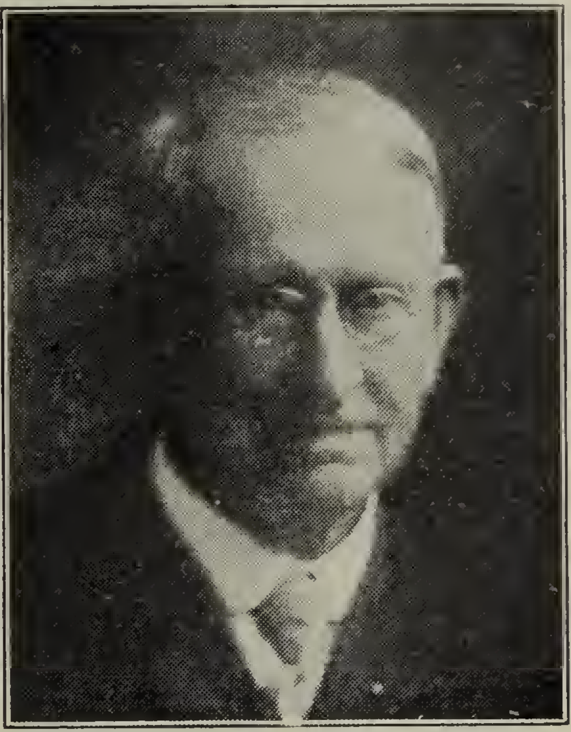
(X) Memoirs.

JOHN WESLEY PASCHALL.

John W. Paschall died at his home in Goshen, Indiana, on Thursday, June 7, 1917, after several years' illness. Brother Paschall was the second oldest minister in our Conference, having been born at Huntsville, Indiana, October 22, 1838, and was therefore eighty-eight years, seven months, and fifteen days.

He entered the Conference in the year 1871, was received into full membership and ordained deacon in 1874 and elder in 1876. During his ministry he served the following charges: Bluffton, Arcola, Hamilton, Corunna, Wawaka, Bristol, Cambridge City, Galveston, Fort Wayne St. Paul, Fort Wayne Simpson, Greentown, Bunker Hill, and Goshen St. Marks. He was retired in 1903.

In the year 1860 he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Wright, with whom he lived in happiness for fifty-seven years, and who now in loneliness waits the reunion in the sweet by and by. Three children were born to this union; two sons and one daughter, who was the wife of C. C. Cissel, are deceased. The one son living is A. W. Paschall. Three grandchildren and one great-grandchild are blessed with the memory of this sainted man of God.



John Wesley Paschall.

Rev. Paschall was a man of intellect, courage, and devotion. He was a faithful pastor to the churches he served and a good preacher.

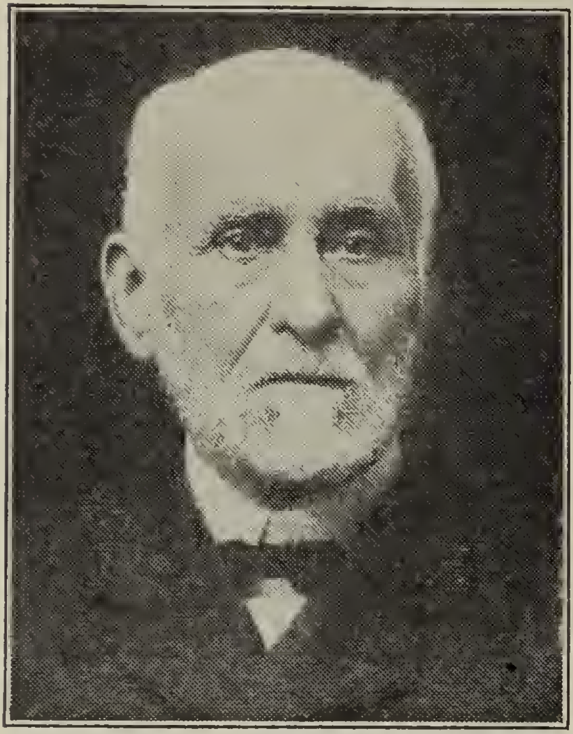
During the years of his retirement he made his home in Goshen, where he greatly endeared himself to the people and was faithful and loyal to his pastor, and very useful to the church.

Funeral services were held at his home, Saturday afternoon, June 9, 1917, in charge of the family pastor, Rev. H. C. Harman, D.D., and addresses were made by R. J. Wade, D.D., the Rev. J. W. Cain, and the pastor. A delegation of the members of the Conference attended the services and acted as pall-bearers. Interment was in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Goshen, Indiana. H. C. Harman.

REV. J. W. WELCH.

John William Welch, the subject of this sketch, was born near Rumsey, Hampshire County, West Virginia, August 11, 1823. With his parents he came to Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1827, and after a residence in Ohio of seven years came to LaGrange County, Indiana, in 1834. Here he grew to a fine Christian manhood, practically spending his entire life in the service of the church. At the Conference session in 1851, held at South Bend, he, with a class of twenty-five men, was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference. So splendid has been his ministerial career, that after forty years, the History of North Indiana Conference refers to him as "considered one of the greatest ministers of the State."

Rev. Welch was a hard worker, a persistent student, of indomitable courage, and exhibited a splendid consecration to the task of the ministry. So industriously did he give himself to the ministry that three times he broke in health and had to take a supernumerary relation, during part of such time he served two terms as treasurer of LaGrange County. Then as health and strength returned, was back again in the active ranks of the ministry. As a student he excelled and made most of every opportunity to acquire knowledge. It is worthy of note that after he had reached the age of sixty he took up the study of Greek. It need scarce be said that Rev. Welch was one of the strong preachers of the Conference. His sermons bore the marks of a fine thinker, a close reasoner, and, above all, of deep devotion. He laid broad and sure foundations and brought home the truths in a most convincing manner. It could be truly said of this splendid preacher that he, too, "went about doing good;" that in out of the way places and apparently unseasonable hours he gleaned for the Master and from these services many will rise up to call him blessed. He was truly instant in season and out of season, making full proof of his ministry.



Rev. J. W. Welch.

Rev. Welch had thirty-two years of service in the active ranks, during which time he served the church in the following charges: Hamilton, Allen Circuit, Auburn, Pierceton, Warsaw District, Anderson, Agent for DePauw University, Greenfield, Winchester, Agent for Fort Wayne College, Portland, Fort Wayne Simpson, Hudson-Ashley, Arcadia. He retired in 1901.

After the death of his wife, which occurred several years ago, Rev. Welch made his home with his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Hoagland, of Ligonier, Indiana. At the time of his death, he was the oldest resident of Ligonier and the Nestor of the North Indiana Conference. After an earthly pilgrimage of nearly ninety-four years, he entered rest on July 7, 1917. The end was beautiful. Faith was triumphant. The day before he went home, he requested the daughter to sing. "Sing what," she asked. "Sing," he said,—

"Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O, Lamb of God, I come!"

Then the morning of the 7th, as the loved ones stood watching the crossing, again came the words, faint, but clear, "Sing, Just—Just—as—I—am," and on that upward reach of the sainted soul, the gates of the Eternal City swung open and a hero of the Cross went to his eternal reward.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Ligonier, Monday afternoon, July 9th, Rev. T. M. Hill conducting the service, assisted by District Superintendent R. J. Wade, D.D., who delivered a short eulogy; Rev. R. A. Morrison read the Scripture; and Rev. C. L. DeBow offered prayer. Rev. C. U. Wade, D.D., traveled from Petoskey, Michigan, to speak the words of eulogy over the casket of his spiritual father. Dr. Wade gave such a vivid picture of the man and his work in giving the experience of his own conversion and entrance, from the lawyer's office, into the Christian ministry, giving Rev. John W. Welch credit for being the human agency the Master of us all had used.

A quartette composed of Mrs. Cleo Holloway, Mrs. Roy Skinner, Mr. J. L. Henry, and Mr. Jesse Dewey, sang effectively "Just as I am," and Mr. Earl Cartwright, of Portland, rendered in a most touching manner "The End of a Perfect Day."

A delegation of ministers of the Conference attended the service. Pallbearers were selected from them who bore the body to the beautiful Oak Park Cemetery, hard by, to its final resting place. T. M. Hill.

MRS. LAVINAH SMITH.

Mrs. Lavinah Hiles Smith was born August 24, 1830, at Sinnack Falls, New York. In 1852 she was married to the Rev. R. J. Smith, who was for a number of years a member of the North Indiana Conference. To this union were born three sons and one daughter, the daughter having preceded the mother to the life beyond.

For forty-one years Grandma Smith labored with her husband in the Master's vineyard. In 1893 he was called to his reward, and for twenty years she has lived a widow.

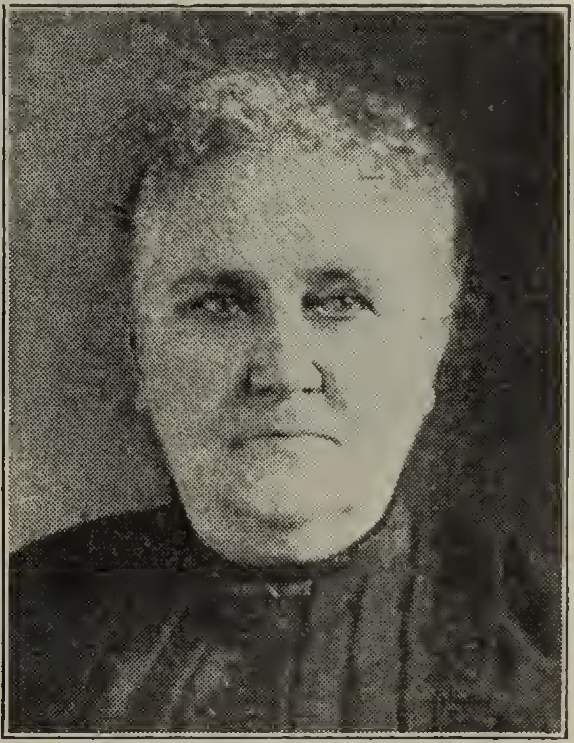
She was brought up in a Christian home and in the church and throughout her life she shed the influence of her noble Christian character.

The triumph of her life came July 6, 1917, when she was transported to the world beyond. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Alvin F. White, in the Methodist Church at Chili, Indiana. She was buried by the side of her husband in the Perrysburg Cemetery, a few miles west of Chili. Her age was eighty-six years, ten months, and eleven days.

Three sons survive her: Albert A. Smith, of Crandon, Wisconsin; Erwin E. Smith, of Akron, Indiana; and Newton Smith, of Chili, Indiana. She also leaves seventeen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild to mourn her departure. A. F. WHITE.

MRS. SARAH PECK.

Sarah Peck, daughter of George and Elizabeth Foland, was born September 23, 1839, near Perkinsville, Indiana. Passed to her heavenly home on the evening of June 13, 1917, having reached the age of seventy-seven years and nine months. At the age of fourteen years she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Perkinsville. The church building had been erected by her father; he burned the brick and planned the building. On September 18, 1856, she was united in marriage to William Peck. To this union five children were born, four daughters and one son. Three of the daughters passed away in childhood—Ethline Florentine, Jennie Eudorah, and Halcy Josephine. The husband, Rev. William Peck; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Emaline Farlow; and the son, Dr. John L. W. Peck, are left to mourn their great loss. The son and daughter will be of great comfort to their father in the evening time of life.



Mrs. Sarah Peck.

For more than sixty years she journeyed with her husband, always sharing the responsibilities and cares of life. For more than twenty-seven years she lived with her husband in the Methodist parsonage, making the home a real life-saving station. She knew how to sympathize with those who were in trouble or sorrow, and was generous to a fault. She experienced, with her husband, the responsibilities in the following pastorates: Alto, Boxley, Jerome, Westfield, Carmel, Alexandria, Walton, New Waverly, Trenton, Middletown, Williamsburg, Philadelphia, Hagerstown, Spiceland, and Yorktown.

When the North Indiana Conference gave them the retired relation in 1894, Brother and Sister Peck located in Frankton. She was always a regular attendant at the church services when her health would permit. She did her best to make the pastor and his family happy. She new how to sympathize with the minister and his family.

On the evening of June 13, after a day of extra labor, she retired for the night, but was soon aroused with a shortness of breath. Her husband assisted her to the open window, where she hoped to get fresh air, but standing at the window she realized that the time had come for her departure, and she said to her husband that all was well and she was ready to go, and her sweet spirit slipped away to join her loved ones on the eternal shore.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. H. Palmer, of Albany, a former pastor. Ministers present and some assisting were Rev. R. H. Smith, Rev. A. M. Patterson, Rev. E. C. Dunn, Rev. J. W. Hanger, Rev. B. E. Jones, Rev. G. W. Harper, and Rev. Wagner, of the Christian Church. After a brief service at the home the regular service was held at Perkinsville, and the body was laid in the Perkinsville Cemetery. J. H. PALMER.

MRS. EMMA A. ROAHRIG.

Emma A. Strohacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Strohacker, was born in Muskingum County, Ohio, August 26, 1882; departed this life August 13, 1917, aged thirty-four years, eleven months, and seventeen days.

On the 3rd day of May, 1903, she was united in marriage to Weber Roahrig. To this union were born two daughters —Erdine, aged eight, and Mary, aged six years.

Mrs. Emma A. Roahrig.

At fifteen years of age she was confirmed in the Evangelical Lutheran Church near the home of her parents, and remained a member of the same until early in the year 1914; during the pastorate of W. E. Hogan, at Inwood, she was happily converted at the altar of the Methodist Episcopal Church and transferred her membership to that denomination. No one one ever doubted the genuineness of her conversion, of which her daily life was a living testimony.

The next day after having entered into covenant relationship with God, while seated at the dinner table, she told her husband that the Holy Spirit was calling her into definite service, which was a confirmation of the call which had formerly come to him to enter the Christian ministry, and they decided to be "obedient to the heavenly vision." During the one year and five months that she served as a pastor's wife, she never missed an opportunity to speak to people of the higher life, and her labors were rewarded by sixteen souls definitely converted, beside the impressions made on other minds, which eternity alone can measure.

During the fall of 1915, after hearing the needs of the foreign field presented, she, after consultation with her husband, dedicated her two daughters to God for that work if he should see fit to call them. From that time on it was her earnest desire and belief that God would honor her by calling these daughters to that great work, and she made every effort to direct their lives in that direction.

At home she was a true and devoted wife and mother, her home being second only to the call of God. His will was given first place in her life and she never grew weary in service. Many times when her husband was loathe to leave her bedside, she urged him to go on the mission to which God had called him, assuring him of her prayers in his absence.

To know her was to love her, and her friends can only be numbered by the many who came to her bedside during her long illness. In addition to the many friends, she leaves a husband, two daughters, an aged father and mother, a father and mother-in-law, six brothers, five sisters, besides numerous other more distant relatives to mourn her loss.

No time for a last farewell, no time for the shock of fear
Scarcely a moment's halt on the shore, with the guide and boatman near.
Dear! How surprised you were to go, with little to suffer, little to know.
Only a moment of dark, a dream of the fleeting night.
And then the beautiful break of day, and the quiet peace of night,
And you found yourself where you longed to stand, in the repose of the fatherland.

Funeral services were conducted at the Winchester Methodist Episcopal Church, August 16, by Rev. W. E. Hogan, assisted by Dr. Light and many of the ministers of the district, after which the remains were taken to Coshocton, Ohio, for burial. H. S. NICKERSON.

MRS. JENNIE B. LAMPORT.

Jennie B., wife of Rev. A. Lamar Lamport, was born in Cass County, Michigan, August 3, 1850, the only daughter of Daniel and Nancy L. Bassett. Her early life was spent in Northern Indiana and Iowa, where she was educated in the public and professional schools.

At the early age of sixteen years she began teaching and continued in this profession until she had taught about twenty-eight terms. Her last school work was in the first primary department of the schools at Bristol and Waterloo, where her husband was the superintendent of the schools.

When her husband, A. L. Lamport, to whom she had been married in 1876, finally answered his call to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the Conference in Warsaw, 1886, she entered willingly with all her soul into the work. She was active in all church work, though not strong in body, during her husband's pastorates at Orland, Bristol, and Garrett. At this latter place she did practically all the pastoral work during Mr. Lamport's sickness, lasting nine months, and during the years of his retirement on account of continued ill health she assumed large responsibilities in the retail mercantile business, to which they gave their attention as a means of support.

When Brother Lamport's health was restored sufficiently to again enter the regular work of the pastorate great was her joy and delight. Their first appointment was Avilla. They were soon abundant in labor, but failing health soon compelled her to give up active duties of life. The final break came in 1916, at New Paris, since which time she has required the constant care of a nurse. For fifteen months confined to a bed of pain and suffering. The end came Tuesday evening, August 22. She was the last of her father's family and leaves but one relative, a nephew, Clyde Bassett, of Elkhart.

Funeral services were held in St. Mark's Church, Goshen, Indiana, Friday, August 24, in charge of Dr. R. J. Wade, and addresses were made by Dr. Wade, Rev. S. Powell, H. C. Harman, and J. C. Woodruff. Others ministers assisting in the services were W. S. Stewart, K. Carlson, A. A. Turner, and A. P. Teter. Her body sleeps in the cemetery at Osceola, Indiana. S. POWELL.

REV. ISAAC WAYNE SINGER.

The Rev. Isaac Wayne Singer passed to his heavenly home, Friday, August 31, 1917; just as the shadows were falling upon the earth, he walked into the light of eternal day. For more than five months he had been an intense but patient sufferer, but while wasting disease made inroad upon his body, his mind was as bright as a sunbeam, even to the last.

Graciously endowed by nature, he had added to these gifts a scholastic training which brought him successively the degrees of A.M., Ph.D., and D.D. In the spring of 1883 he united with the North Indiana Conference and remained continuously in the active pastorate for thirty years, retiring only when forced by physical infirmity to enter the retired relation.

Dr. Singer was born in Philadelphia, June 29, 1851. He was converted at the tender age of ten years, and grew up in the church; the ideal plan of our church leaders. He early heard the call to preach and yielded his life in obedience to his Lord—there was no controversy between him and his Lord—to know his will was to do it—lovingly, gladly, quickly.

Rev. Isaac Wayne Singer.

All through his ministry, he manifested a passion for souls; he loved folks and drew them by the power of his personality into a living fellowship with Christ. It is recorded that more than two thousand souls were added to the churches he served. He had a revival on practically every charge and many scenes of pentecostal power enriched his public work. But he was eminent in pastoral work, too. His kind heart and tender sympathies fitted him for the work of comforting the afflicted and sorrowing. At least three churches stand to testify to his leadership along material lines also.

On July 24, 1870, Brother Singer was married to Miss Margaret Lee, of Bluffton, Indiana. One child was born to this union—Emma J. Richards, of Huntington, Indiana. Mrs. Singer departed this life in the spring of 1873. January 5, 1876, he was joined in marriage to Miss Mary Ann Irwin, and to them one son was born—Rev. William L. Singer, of Spokane, Washington. In March, 1905, our brother was again called upon to walk through the shadows and bid his companion farewell.

His third marriage occurred at Richmond, Indiana, in June, 1906, when he was united in holy bonds to Miss Luanna Irwin. For several years past they have made their home in Anderson, Indiana, where they have greatly endeared themselves to the people and were a great blessing to the First Methodist Church.

The funeral services were conducted at the home in Anderson, Sunday, September 2, 1917, by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Potter, assisted by Rev. J. A. Beatty, district superintendent, and Revs. Bailey, Jones, Westhafer, and Hobbs, and on the day following his body was laid away in Woodlawn Cemetery, at Warren, Indiana.

"The stars shall shine for a thousand years,
A thousand years and a day;
But God and I will love and live
When the stars are passed away."

J. W. Potter.

MRS. ELIZABETH B. STEPHENS.

Elizabeth B. Huston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huston, was born on a farm near Mechanicsburg, Indiana, December 25, 1840, and died at her home in Lapel, Indiana, Friday evening, November 9, 1917, aged seventy-six years, ten months, and fifteen days.

She was the youngest of eleven children, all of whom had preceded her to the other world.

April 29, 1857, she was married to the Rev. Philip S. Stephens at the home of her parents, the Rev. James Armstrong officiating. She and her husband went to Windsor, Indiana, to start housekeeping, Mr. Stephens that year being pastor of the church at that place.

Rev. Stephens filled Conference appointments until placed on the retired list in 1910. Since 1905 they had lived in their home in Lapel. They celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary on April 29, 1917.

Mrs. Stephens had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since childhood. She was of a cheerful disposition, kind to all, and during her last illness, which lasted over a year, was a very patient sufferer. Five days before her death she suffered a light stroke of paralysis. She knew the end was near and was prepared to go, her only solicitation being for her aged husband. Her last words to her husband were, "I wish I could go to my Heavenly Father."

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her aged husband, two sons, Asbury Stephens, of Lapel, and Homer Stephens, of East St. Louis. One child died in infancy. Five grandchildren survive her, namely: John Stephens, of California; Walter Stephens, of Knoxville, Tennessee; Roy Stephens, of Detroit, Michigan; Mrs. Aletha Musselman, of Lapel; and Catherine Stephens, of East St. Louis. She leaves nine great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal Church in Lapel, in charge of the pastor, Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. J. A. Patterson, on November 12, 1917, and she was laid to rest in the family lot in the Brookside Cemetery at Lapel, Indiana.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Stephens.

MRS. MELISSA E. LACY.

Melissa E., daughter of Daniel and Mary Bainter, was born in Blountsville, Indiana, October 8, 1856, and departed this life at Cicero, Indiana, October 15, 1917, aged sixty-one years. Her father and mother died when she was a small girl. In about a year after their deaths, Mr. and Mrs. David Fletcher took her to their home as one of their own and gave her the care of a daughter, and in their home she grew up to womanhood. October 16, 1873, she was married to F. M. Lacy, and to them three children have been born—two sons and a daughter. One son, Burchard, preceded his mother to the better land, leaving one son, Daniel B., of Rockford, Illinois, and one daughter, Mrs. Cora M. Etsler, of Alexandria, Indiana, to comfort the bereaved husband in his sorrow. There is also one sister and one brother and a host of other friends and relatives to mourn her departure.

Mrs. Melissa E. Lacy.

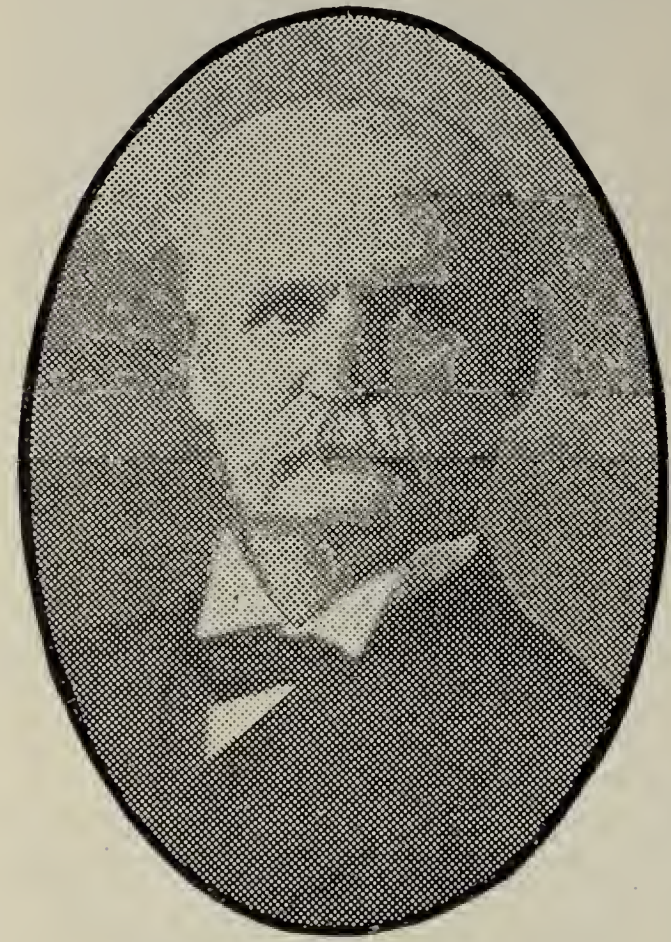
When the call came to her husband to enter the ministry she entered into the experiences of an itinerant life with willingness and for twenty-eight years stood by the side of her husband in all the vicissitudes of that calling, going about her Master's business, not seeking her own comfort.

The funeral services were held at Blountsville, Indiana, in charge of Rev. C. E. Line, assisted by Revs. A. S. Preston, C. B. Dougherty, B. E. Jones, J. J. Fred, C. B. Thomas, and H. L. Liddle, after which the body was laid to rest in Blountsville's beautiful village cemetery.

REV. JOSHUA EVAN ERVIN.

Joshua Evan Ervin was born near Hartford City, April 15, 1840, and entered into the rest that remains for God's people after spending one day of the present year among his kindred and friends.

For nearly seventy-eight years our good methodical brother took daily lessons in the school of life, and every day made a contribution to his store of knowledge, strengthened his self-control, widened his survey of the world, clarified his vision of the Divine hand in the history of human kind, and stimulated his heart and soul to perform to the best of his ability the work God had called him to do. The demonstration of God's power to create a new heart had been made so plain to young Joshua Evan Ervin and his keeping and directing agency so richly displayed in his experience, that the young believer and ardent worshiper found himself powerless to decline the Divine summons to preach to others the blessed Gospel that was so sweet to his spirit; and the privations and the hardships of the itinerancy of that early day had no depressing effect on his courageous soul, aflame with love. He made the best preparation for his life work his opportunity permitted.



Rev. Joshua Evan Ervin.

September 6, 1861, he was united in marriage with Miss Minerva Mercer. Three of their four children survive. For over forty years this consecrated couple shared the same trials and joys of the itinerancy, before the faithful wife was called to come up higher.

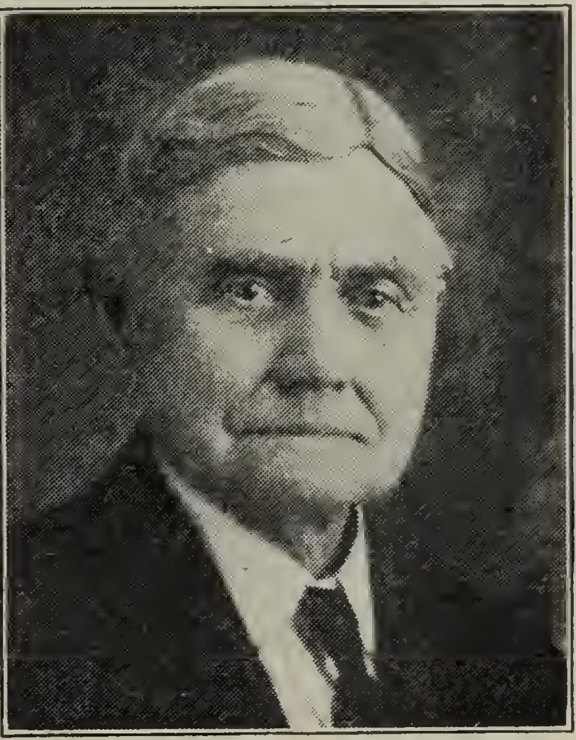
The records of the North Indiana Conference show that besides serving for a season as president of the Farmers' Academy, Brother Ervin was pastor of Methodist Episcopal Churches in the following cities and towns: Portland, Camden, Tipton, Peru, Muncie, Kendallville, Mishawaka, Wabash, Auburn, Bluffton, Ligonier, Union City, a term of six years on the Kokomo District, Angola, West Marion, Pierceton, South Whitley, Cicero. In several of these churches Brother Ervin served for a second term, which is a telling evidence of his acceptability. Another proof of the exceptional popularity of the brotherly, kind-hearted man in his parishes is, that so many devout parents who had enjoyed his ministration to so great a profit were moved to show their love for him by conferring his name upon one of their sons. Some showed him this honor long after he had ceased to be their pastor. To-day there are scores of men in middle life and under in the learned professions who respond when the name Ervin is called. There is not a known instance of one of them dishonoring the name. The defensive charm is not in the name, but in the Christian training of the homes where the name is revered, as the reminder of the blameless example and clean personality of the minister who had enshrined the name second only to the name of Jesus in their memories.

His former parishioners recall him as the pastor who was pure, undefiled, above questionable deeds, with the Scriptures written on the tablets of his memory, always ready to rebuke, exhort, and lead souls in love, or lift his hand in blessing.

In 1906 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Eliza Rickard Smell, whom he had known as a parishioner and near neighbor during his pastorate in Simpson Chapel. Both were admirably suited for glorifying, each for the other, the evening of life. Both were more at home in the Bible than in any other body of literature. Both found the highest gratification of their taste in the fields of Christian experience and Christian biography. Both found their chief attraction in the house of the Lord. Both appeared, during the quiet years of their retirement, as constantly conscious of precious inward joy, but when going to the house of the Lord, their supreme felicity came to the surface, their Christian love shined out in the glow of a full assurance they were about to receive the manna that comes from heaven. How wonderful heaven will be, if sweeter peace prevails there, to what these choice spirits realized here.

Next to the privileges of this church, Brother Ervin relished the sweet fellowship of the Ministerial Association meetings. He was the friend of the pastors of this church, the friend of every member. The district superintendent and his Conference brothers were remembered in his prayers. The Church of Christ continues to be the birthplace of souls of rare purity, rare felicity, of manifestation, rare exemplification of the manifold features of Christian virtue, and our hearts tell us Brother Joshua Evan Ervin belongs to that par-excellent group, and we shall find him there, but we shall also find he retains the same modesty and humility that beautified his presence among us. The devoted widow and noble children are not paying him the last tribute of respect to-day. They are just coming to know him in a new light—a glorified spirit forever with the Lord.

REV. A. M. PATTERSON.



Rev. A. M. Patterson.

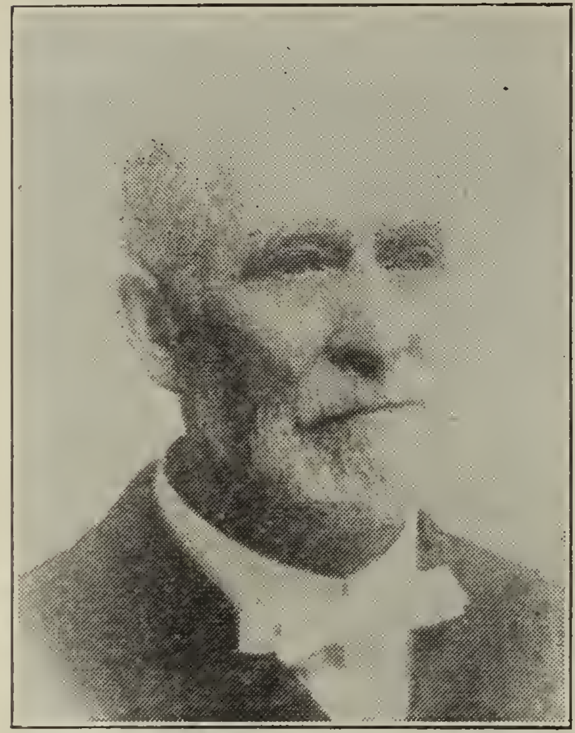
Rev. A. M. Patterson, the son of James and Elizabeth Montgomery Patterson, was born in Juniata County, Pennsylvania, March 28, 1838, and died at Alexandria, Indiana, January 23, 1918, aged seventy-nine years, nine months, and twenty-five days. He came to Indiana in 1844 with his parents who settled on a farm three miles north of Monticello, White County, Indiana. In his young manhood he taught several terms of school and worked at the carpenter's trade in the summer. In the year 1861, October the 2nd, he was united in marriage with Caroline Stewart at Camden, Indiana, with whom he lived for more than fifty-six years. To this union five children were born—four sons and one daughter, one son and the daughter, Pearl Patterson Warner, preceding him to the life beyond. In early manhood he united with the church and attended school at Waveland Academy, Montgomery County, Indiana. During his early life he was interested in the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and finally in 1874 he joined the North Indiana Conference at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and has been a member of the Conference nearly forty-four years. He conducted many revivals and hundreds of souls were converted and came into the church. This was the greatest delight of his ever-happy soul. The last period of his life was spent in Alexandria, Indiana, where he made hundreds of friends who appreciated his cheerful disposition. He was recognized as a man of universal kindness, who brought sunshine and cheer to all with whom he mingled. During his life as a retired minister he has been very active in the work of the church so far as his strength would permit. He was loyal to the church and the pastor, and in turn they greatly appreciated his helpfulness. The day before he joined the hosts above he lifted his hands heavenward and said, "Jesus, Jesus!" He knew he was near the eternal home. And when his pastor spoke to him he said, "It's all right, it's all right." And then, just a few hours before he went to be with Jesus, when his son James said to him, "I think you will get along for awhile now," he said, "I do not care about it." We knew he was so near the kingdom he wanted to go.

During the Civil War he became a member of Co. B, 150th Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the war. He was a member of the Grand Army Post and was a former commander of the local post. He was a member of a family of eleven children, four of whom are living: The Rev. James T. Patterson, Presbyterian minister, of Oxford, Indiana; Robert Patterson, of the State of Washington; Samuel Patterson, of Missouri; and one sister, Mrs. Margaretta Logan, of Bement, Illinois. Those who survive him of his own family are his wife, Mrs. Caroline Patterson, of Alexandria, Indiana; James A. Patterson, of Pendleton, Indiana; Charles E. Patterson, of Milan, Michigan; W. Franklin Patterson, of Winamac, Indiana. The grandchildren are six in number, Odette and Marjorie Patterson, of Winamac, Indiana; Maurine Patterson, of Milan, Michigan; and Elsie Mae, Blanch C., and Clayton J. Warner, of Tawas City, Michigan.

The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Alexandria, Indiana, in charge of his pastor, Rev. E. C. Dunn, and his district superintendent, Rev. James A. Beatty, D.D. Drs. J. A. Beatty and C. E. Line spoke on his life as a minister and a retired minister, each of them having been his district superintendent. Revs. W. A. Griest and D. S. Jones read the Scripture lessons; Dr. J. W. Potter led in prayer; and the Rev. D. V. Williams read "Abide With Me." Miss Geraldine Dunn sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Interment in the cemetery at Alexandria.

REV. WILLIAM S. STEWART.

William Springer Stewart was born in Harrison Township, Cass County, Indiana, December 21, 1836. He was the son of Enos Huron and Ruth Springer Stewart. He leaves a widow, four children—Robert Melvin, Franklin Huron, Dr. M. Burt, and Mrs. Myra Gordon—two half brothers, two half sisters, six grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, besides a host of friends to mourn his departure. Brother Stewart enjoyed the privileges and training of a Christian home. During the pastorate of the late Rev. A. W. Greeman at Broadway, Logansport, Brother Stewart was converted and gave abundant evidence of a blessed experience and saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.



Rev. William S. Stewart.

September 9, 1861, he was married to Margaret Jane, daughter of Robert and Rosanna McMillen. To this union five children were born, Robert Melvin, of Elkhart; Franklin Huron, of Montpelier, Ohio; Dr. M. B. Stewart, of Logansport; Rosanna, who died in infancy; and Mrs. Myra Gordon, of Logansport. In 1866 he moved to southeastern Kansas. After five years on the farm he felt called to the ministry, and was appointed to the Virgil Charge, Kansas, in 1871, having nine appointments. He was a pioneer circuit rider, having horse and saddlebags. He preached three years on the Virgil Circuit, and then was appointed to Fredonia. Feeling the need of a better preparation for his work in the ministry, he moved with his family and three children to Evanston, Illinois, and took a four-years' course in Garrett Biblical Institute, graduating with the class of 1879, when he transferred to the North Indiana Conference, in session at Goshen, and was appointed to Elkhart Circuit. He was the pastor on the following charges: Albion, Butler, Bourbon, Columbia City, Manchester, Noble Street (Anderson), Albany, Market Street (Logansport), when he took a supernumerary relation in 1900 and moved back to the farm, which he had left before going to Kansas.

He was an earnest and successful preacher of the Gospel, having gracious revivals and faithfully ministering to the people in sickness and sorrow. His sweet and gentle disposition won him a place in the affections of his people, and many will rise to call him blessed. On December 8, 1913, his wife, after three months' illness, passed away. Her devotion, sacrifice, and faithful ministry, together with that of her loving husband and children, was thus broken.

September 12, 1917, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Anna Smith.

On January 10, of the present year, while going to the store, he suffered a fall, striking the back of his head against the pavement. On arriving home he did not complain about it, but after supper told his wife he had fallen and was not feeling well. On Saturday evening at 5:30 he was stricken with apoplexy, resulting in the paralysis of the entire right side. He lingered several days, taking little nourishment and only partially conscious. On Monday evening, the 21st, after consulting with his son, Dr. M. B. Stewart, and Dr. Hatch, it was thought best to take him to the St. Joseph's Hospital, where he could have the best medical care and attention. On Wednesday, the 30th of January, his family was called to his bedside, and for several hours they watched him until at 10:15 P. M. he breathed his last and passed away from earth to heaven.

Thus the life of the Rev. W. S. Stewart, reaching out to fourscore years, a life of activity and usefulness and blessing, remained as a precious memory.

"Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

MRS. ELIZA M. ERVIN.

February 13, just six weeks following the death of her husband, J. E. Ervin, occurred the death of Mrs. Eliza M. Ervin, one of the most respected residents. Mrs. Ervin was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Locksley Richard, and was born in Niles Township, Delaware County, Indiana, seventy-seven years ago. She was first married to Hiram Moon. To them were born two children—William and Alice Moon. At the outbreak of the Civil War Mr. Moon enlisted, and in 1862 died in the service at New Orleans, and Mrs. Moon returned to Delaware County to the home of her parents, where she lived a widow for twenty-three years, during which time her children both died.

She remarried, in 1885, to Ephraim Smell a well-known man of Muncie, and became the mother of his sons, Herbert and Richard Smell. For sixteen years Mr. and Mrs. Smell resided in Muncie, and in the year 1901 death claimed the husband. Mrs. Smell, after four years' more residence in Muncie, journeyed to California, where she resided for two years. She returned to Muncie in 1907 and was married to Rev. J. E. Ervin, retired. They took up their residence at 515 West Adams Street, where they lived happily until the death of Dr. Ervin, January 2, this year.

Mrs. Eliza M. Ervin.

Sister Ervin has been a life-long Methodist and is survived by one sister, Mrs. M. E. Harrington; a brother, Dr. W. A. Rickard; and four stepsons and one step-daughter.

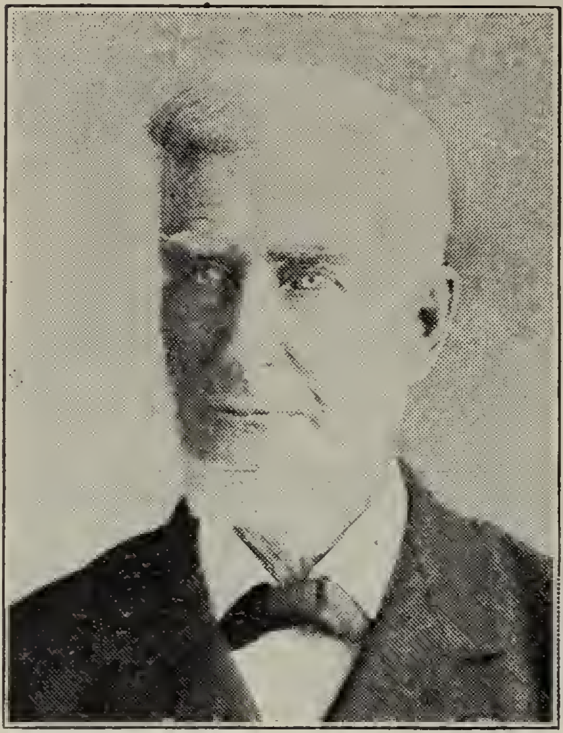
The funeral services were held at the High Street Methodist Episcopal Church, in Muncie, Indiana, in charge of Rev. D. T. Stephenson, assisted by Dr. L. J. Naftzger, of Warsaw, and the body was laid to rest in Beech Grove Cemetery, Muncie.

REV. P. S. STEPHENS.

Rev. Philip S. Stephens was the son of William and Catherine Stephens, and was born in Clermont County, Ohio, April 10, 1830, and passed to the heavenly home April 3, 1918, at the age of eighty-seven years, eleven months, and twenty-four days.

When five years of age he came with his parents in a wagon from Ohio to Madison County, Indiana, and located on the Stephens homestead, two miles west of Lapel, where he lived until his twenty-fifth year, when he entered the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was converted at a camp meeting conducted on his father's farm at the age of nineteen, and the next few years he taught school in the winter months and labored on the farm through the summer. In the year of 1855 he was licensed to preach, and at the Conference held at Goshen that year was admitted on trial to the North Indiana Conference and appointed by Bishop Ames to the Mexico Circuit as junior preacher.

Brother Stephens was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth B. Huston, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huston, of Middletown, the Rev. James Armstrong officiating, and they went to housekeeping in the parsonage at Windsor, Randolph County, Brother Stephens having been appointed to the Windsor Circuit that spring. They served the following charges in the North Indiana Conference: Mexico, Middletown, Windsor, Huntsville, Greensboro, Charlottesville, Normandy, Kirklin, PawPaw, Zenia, Miami, Akron, Coesse, Deerfield, Saratoga, Winchester Circuit, Portland Circuit, and Pendleton Circuit. On account of failing health he took a location in 1880, and was readmitted in 1910 and placed on the retired relation.



Rev. P. S. Stephens.

He and his wife moved to Lapel in 1905 and here they spent the remaining years together. Sister Stephens passed to her reward on November 9, 1917.

On April 29, 1917, they celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary in the Methodist Church in Lapel, and a large congregation of relatives and friends were present.

They are survived by the two sons, Asbury Stephens, of Lapel, and Homer Stephens, of East St. Louis, Illinois.

There are five grandchildren: John Stephens, of Los Angeles, California; Walter Stephens, of Knoxville, Tennessee; Roy Stephens, of Detroit, Michigan; Mrs. Aletha Musselman, of Lapel; and Catherine Stephens, of East St. Louis.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal Church of Lapel, Friday, April 5, 1918, in charge of the pastor, Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, assisted by Rev. Charles Tinkham, a former pastor, and Rev. Frank P. Morris, a representative of the North Indiana Conference, which was in session in Warsaw at that date. His body was laid to rest in the beautiful Brookside Cemetery of Lapel, by the side of his beloved companion.

MEMORANDA

(b) AMENDED CONSTITUTION PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I—Name and Seal.

Section 1. The corporate name of this organization shall be "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." It is organized under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act Concerning the Organization of Voluntary Associations, and Repealing Former Laws in Relation Thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and "An Act Amendatory Thereto," approved February 10, 1863. The record of this organization is recorded in Henry County.

Section 2. The corporate seal of this Society shall be a metalic impression, with the following words and letters, to-wit: "The Preachers' Aid Soc. N. Ind. Conf., M. E. Church."

ARTICLE II—Object and Funds.

Section 1. The object of this Society is to raise and perpetually maintain a fund for the relief of the preachers of said Conference, and their families, in accordance with the provisions and restrictions of this Constitution and in harmony with the spirit of paragraph three hundred and thirty-four (334) of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church of nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Section 2. Said fund shall consist of:

First: Funds received by this Conference from the division of the capital stock of "The Preachers' Aid Society of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated by an Act approved February 12, 1841."

Second: Amounts specifically appropriated to this object from the Centenary contribution of 1866 of said Church, and also those of the Twentieth Century contributions.

Third: Devises, bequests, gifts, and donations of property, real and personal, also gifts and donations of bonds, stocks, moneys, and anything else of value that may legitimately come into the possession of and be received by said Society.

Section 3. The fund shall be permanent, but all proceeds arising from rents, interest, or any investment, shall, after the payment of all incidental expenses, be paid to the Conference Stewards, and shall become a part of the funds to be applied on the Annual Conference Annuity distribution as indicated in paragraphs three hundred forty-one (341) and three hundred forty-two (342) of our Discipline of nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Section 4. The money received as dues or fees from the members of the Society, together with such other sums as may be designated for this purpose, shall constitute an Administration Fund, from which shall be paid the general expenses of the Society.

ARTICLE III—Membership.

Section 1. The membership of this Society shall consist of two classes, Beneficiary and Non-beneficiary.

Section 2. Beneficiary Members. All members of the North Indiana Conference are Beneficiary Members.

Section 3. Fees and Dues. 1. The annual fee for Beneficiary Members shall be not less than one per cent of the cash salary which the said member received during the year, just closing, as reported to the Annual Conference, until his payment shall amount in the aggregate to one hundred dollars. Or he may elect to pay in annual installments of not less than ten dollars each, until he has paid in one hundred dollars, when he shall, in either case, receive a Certificate of Life Membership, not transferable and non-forfeitable, except as indicated by this Constitution.

2. Any member who shall fail to pay regularly annual dues or installments shall pay interest on deferred payments at the rate of six per cent, compounded annually for the deferred time.

Section 4. If any member shall become a claimant before he has paid into the Administration Fund of the Society the full sum of one hundred dollars, then a sum equal to not less than one-tenth of the total annuity due to him or to his family, shall be withheld each year by the Conference Stewards, and turned to this Society until all principal and interest thereupon shall have been paid, whereupon there shall be issued to him, or in case of his death, to his widow, a Certificate of Life Membership.

Section 5. Non-Beneficiary Members. Any lay member or friend of the church and ministry is eligible to membership in this class. One may become a life member by the payment of $500 at one time, or a life-patron by the payment of $5,000 in the same manner. The members or patrons in this class shall be entitled to participate in all the proceedings of the Society, provided they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Section 6. Transfers, Locations, Withdrawals, Expulsions.

1. In the event that any minister who has paid one hundred dollars, or is in process of paying that amount into the Administration Fund of the Society, shall be transferred to another Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, he shall thereby forfeit his claim as a Beneficiary Member, but upon his request within one year the amount paid by him as dues shall be returned to him without interest, after deducting any other obligation he may have toward the Society.

2. Should any member of this Society, who has paid, or is in process of paying, one hundred dollars to said Administration Fund, be located, at his own request, or by action of the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline without his request, he shall have refunded to him, if he make request within one year from the date of his location, the amount he has paid as dues to the Administration Fund, without interest, thereby canceling all claims he may have against this Society.

3. Any Beneficiary Member of this Society who may withdraw from the Methodist Episcopal Church, or any such member who may be expelled from the Methodist Episcopal Church, or the Annual Conference, shall thereby forfeit his membership in this Society, and all claim to its benefits and all that he may have paid into it. The same rule shall apply to a widow of a deceased minister who was a member of this body. If, however, any one who has been expelled shall be restored, that one may again receive benefits, but not for the time while expelled.

ARTICLE IV—Managers and Officers.

Section 1. A Board of Control consisting of fifteen managers, including the district superintendents and the general secretary (hereinafter provided for) shall have full power to manage the affairs of this Society, subject to this constitution. The managers, in addition to the district superintendents, shall be elected annually by the Preachers' Aid Society.

Section 2. The officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and General Secretary. All of these, save the last, shall be elected annually by the Society from the fifteen managers of the Society unless the Society should select some Trust Company to act as Treasurer.

Section 3. The Society at its regular annual meeting shall elect a General Secretary who shall ex-officio be a member of the Board of Control. He shall work under the general direction of the Board of Control. The Society, upon recommendation of the Board, shall determine whether he shall give entire time to the work of the Society, and whether or not any assistants shall be granted him. It shall fix any salaries, and provide for the payment of same, either by a pro rata tax on the membership or by directing the Board of Control to pay it from the Administration Fund of the Society. In either case the salary shall be paid in monthly installments.

All revenues and everything of value that comes into the hands of the General Secretary shall be passed over to the Treasurer, who shall receipt therefor. When practical, reports shall be made monthly.

Section 4. The Society at its regular annual meeting shall select four managers, who with the General Secretary, shall constitute the Executive Committee, and shall have such authority as may be determined by the Board of Control by its by-laws.

Section 5. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Board of Control shall provide, through a reliable Surety Company, or in some other satisfactory manner, that the Treasurer shall give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased at the discretion of the Board. Said bond shall be filed with the Recording Secretary.

Section 6. The Board shall have power to make by-laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution.

Section 7. Any vacancy in office, caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the interim of the Annual Conference, may be filled by the Board, called at any time by the President or any three members of the Board.

ARTICLE V—Annual and Special Meetings.

Section 1. The annual meeting of the Board of Control shall be held in the city of Muncie, Indiana, within thirty days next preceding the sessions of the Annual Conference, upon the call of the President or the highest ranking officer of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the President or any three members thereof, upon reasonable notice being given to all members of the Board. In all meetings of the Board seven shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 2. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held at the seat of the Annual Conference, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the session, the President of the Conference presiding. This meeting shall be for the purpose of electing managers and officers, also Executive Committee for the ensuing year; to receive and pass upon the annual report of the Board of Control, made out according to the accompanying form found in the by-laws, and to transact any other business pertaining to the Society. This meeting may adjourn to any other day or days of the Conference session; or, in emergency, the President and Recording Secretary may call a meeting of the Society on any day before the Conference closes; and it shall require the presence of thirty-five members to constitute a quorum.

Section 3. In the interim of the Annual Conference sessions, meetings of the Society may be called by the President, Recording Secretary, and any three members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the Advocate having the largest circulation within the bounds of the Conference.

ARTICLE VI—Investment of Funds.

The Board of Control shall, at its annual meeting, appoint an investment committee of three, who shall be laymen, who, with the Treasurer, shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All loans and purchased mortgages shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount thus secured, the net income of which shall exceed the interest, insurance covering our interest in any buildings to be provided by mortgagee.

In every case abstracts must be furnished that shall satisfy the investment committee that the title to the property is clear and unincumbered otherwise, where loans are sought or mortgages purchased.

The committee shall have authority to purchase United States, State, county, and city municipal bonds.

ARTICLE VII—Changing Constitution.

This Constitution, with its accompanying by-laws, may be changed or amended at an annual meeting of the Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, such changes or amendments having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board of Control.

BY-LAWS.

Section 1. The officers shall perform the same general duties at all meetings of the Board of Control that they do at the meetings of the Society.

Section 2. The Recording Secretary shall keep a full and permanent record, in book form, of all the transactions of business, both of the Society, and of the Board of Control. He shall keep in his possession the corporate seal of the Society, and all important books and papers not belonging to the Treasurer or the General Secretary.

Section 3. The General Secretary shall keep a list of all beneficiary and of the non-beneficiary members. He shall make and keep a record in a book especially prepared for this purpose, a list of all who have been granted Certificates of Life Membership, and open in said book an account with each of said prospective Life Members, crediting them with the payments they make from year to year, charging them six per cent, compound interest, upon all deferred payments until paid, the interest to be paid into the Administration Fund. The General Secretary shall make out all Certificates for Life Membership, which shall bear the signatures of the President and Recording Secretary, and bear the imprint of the corporate seal.

Section 4. Any note executed to the Society by any of its members and remaining unpaid, both principal and interest shall be deducted from any allowance to such member, his widow, or his children, by the Board of Stewards, equal to the pro rata share that said claimant would receive each year from the funds turned over to the Stewards from this Society for general distribution, until said note and interest is paid in full, and the General Secretary shall receive the same from the Stewards and place the amounts in the permanent and Administration Funds according to Section 3 of these by-laws.

Section 5. The report of the Board of Control to the annual meeting shall be made by the Recording Secretary and shall embrace the following items:

Total Permanent Fund at last report.
Total Permanent Fund at present.
Total amount of the funds in the hands of the Treasurer and how invested.
Total amount of funds in the hands of the General Secretary, and an itemized statement of

1. Real estate and its value as approved by the Board.
2. Amount of notes and their value as approved by the Board.
3. Amount of subscriptions to the Permanent Fund.
4. Fees and dues, due from Beneficiary Members.
5. Cash in his hands.
6. Any other items of value necessary to a complete exhibit of the financial status of the funds of the Society.

Section 6. The General Secretary, in addition to his other duties, shall prepare an annual itemized statement of all the assets of the Society; both of its real estate and personal property, with an estimate of the cash value of each class of such assets, and send a copy of such statement to each member of the Board of Control, at least ten days before the regular annual meeting of said Board.

Section 7. The Treasurer of the Society shall have the same power that the President and Recording Secretary now have, to release upon the records all mortgage judgments and other liens; and all such releases heretofore made by former Treasurers of this Society and fully ratified and confirmed.

The Board of Control, at its regular annual meeting, held in Muncie, Indiana, April 1, 1918, duly recommended the approval and adoption of the above as the Amended Constitution and By-Laws of the Preachers' Aid Society.

(f) LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

WARSAW, INDIANA, April 6, 1918.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference met in the Presbyterian Church at nine o'clock A. M., President E. Starbuck presiding. G. E. Meck led in the opening singing, and Dr. Ralph Ward offered prayer.

The following commitees were appointed:

Committee on Resolutions—F. W. Greene, J. W. Stackhouse, A. B. Cline, M. O. Abbey, A. R. Beyerle, G. E. Meck, and A. G. Beaver.

Committee on Nominations—J. D. Coppes, E. S. Vandermark, H. S. Current, G. E. Meck, and O. M. Fisher.

Dr. Ralph Ward was introduced and briefly, but interestingly, presented the Centenary Program for Missions.

Rev. R. A. Morrison was invited to speak on the Conference Claimants Campaign. This he did in a very able and effective manner.

Dr. Johnson spoke briefly, giving much valuable information concerning the Fort Wayne Hospital.

Dr. M. Vayhinger, president of Taylor University, made a brief, enthusiastic speech on Taylor University as an asset of Methodism.

J. D. Coppes spoke on the general subject of giving, but emphasized especially the Conference Claimants' Fund. There was then open discussion and two or three of the brethren spoke on the same subject.

Brother Middleton, a pioneer local preacher from the Warren Home, spoke briefly, emphasizing tithing. He then led us in fervent prayer.

A. B. Cline was called out and spoke briefly with his usual earnestness on things pertaining to the Kingdom.

President Starbuck called for an expression of opinion as to the nature of the program for next year. After a few had given expression on the matter, a motion was carried to have a program from our own number with free open discussion of the subjects that interest us. Adjourned to meet in business session in the Methodist Episcopal Church at 1:15.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting was called to order by President Starbuck. After the opening song and prayer, the secretary-treasurer made the following report:

Cash on hand from last year	$1 01
Received during the year:
From Fred B. McIntosh	1 00
From D. C. Turnbull	5 00
From First M. E. Church, Middletown	1 00
From High Street M. E. Church, Muncie	2 00
From J. R. Satterfield	1 00
From First M. E. Church, Noblesville	1 00
Total	$12 01

No bills of expense were presented, and the cash on hand April 6, 1918, is $12.01.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report, which was adopted:

President—E. Starbuck, Goshen.
Vice-President—D. O. Skillen, Yorktown.
Secretary-Treasurer—A. L. Miller, Nappanee.
Vice-President Fort Wayne District—Dr. W. Enslen, Fort Wayne.
Vice-President Goshen District—D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka.
Vice-President Logansport District—G. E. Meck, Kokomo.
Vice-President Muncie District—S. T. Waite, Muncie.
Vice-President Richmond District—C. E. Thomason, Richmond.
Vice-President Wabash District—E. E. Youse, Markel.

J. D. Coppes,
E. S. Vandermark,
H. S. Current,
G. E. Meck,
O. M. Fisher,
Committee.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following report, which was adopted:

To the Laymen's Conference of the North Indiana Conference:

We, your Committee on Resolutions, submit the following resolutions:

First. We are in favor of the adoption of the proposed change in Constitution as set forth in Chapter VI, Paragraph 577, of the 1916 edition of the Doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and commend it to the Lay Electoral Conference and the Annual Conference for their favorable consideration and action.

Second. Whereas, The Government of the United States of America, by its proper authority, has ordered the conservation of food and fuel among the consumers of the country; and

Whereas, We commend the Government for its action in this matter; be it,

Resolved, That the Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is unalterably opposed to the use of the foodstuffs of the country in the manufacturing of any form of intoxicating liquors; be it further

Resolved, That we are opposed to the use of fuel for the heating of saloons and breweries of the country at any time, but especially while the schools and churches are closed for the lack thereof.

Third. It is the sense of this Association that non-residents whose names are on our records as full members should be placed on a list of non-resident members, and that those persons, who by their daily life and actions, show they are making no pretense of living a Christian life, should be removed from the roll of church membership without the necessity of a church trial; and a proper mode of procedure be laid out to govern the district superintendent, pastor, and official board in this action.

Fourth. Be it Resolved, That this Association especially commends to the voters of Indiana and the United States the patriots who have in our own Legislature and in the Congress of the United States stood for State and Nationwide Prohibition and are endeavoring to make our State and Country safe for democracy.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY RESOLUTION.

Fifth. Whereas, The inherent, foremost, supreme cause of the Conference Claimants' Campaign for the securing of $20,000,000 for Methodism, $1,000,000 for the North Indiana Conference, originated by the laymen, ordered by the Laymen's Association and the North Indiana Conference, and now being successfully prosecuted by laymen and ministers, $100,000 having been pledged by the Goshen District, demonstrating the fine response of the church, and making it certain that our great Conference will prosecute the campaign to a successful termination; and

WHEREAS, The campaign has the unqualified endorsement of Bishop Nicholson, and the entire Chicago Area meeting; and,

WHEREAS, We are urged by the Bishop and the Board of Conference Claimants to conclude the campaign this Conference year; therefore,

Resolved, That we will give this great campaign for $1,000,000 our absolute and unqualified endorsement and will do our utmost to bring it to success this year as far as possible.

Resolved, Further, that we recommend to preachers and laymen that we stand unitedly together in the prosecution of the work until victory crowns our efforts.

Sixth. We are glad to see the movement made to connect more closely the work of Taylor University with our great church, and are glad the University is standing for a more highly educated ministry.

Seventh. In view of the great world needs to-day, which will be greatly increased when the war closes, and as Methodism must take the lead in all missionary work throughout the world, we regard the great Centenary Movement for $80,000,000 as timely and necessary to enable Methodism to do her part in world evangelization and reconstruction, and as the first part of the campaign is educational, preparatory to the securing of a large number of Christian stewards throughout the church and our Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we endorse the educational part of the program for the securing of as large number as possible of Christian stewards in our Conference during this Conference year.

Eighth. We wish to extend our thanks to the Presybterian Church for the use of their church and to all who have assisted to make this a profitable meeting. We especially thank our president, E. Starbuck, and our dearly beloved bishop, Thomas Nicholson, for their help during the past year.

FRANK W. GREENE, Chairman.
J. W. STACKHOUSE.
A. R. BEYERLE.
W. N. LEE.
M. O. ABBEY.
H. S. CURRENT.
G. E. MECK.

The business meeting was adjourned and Bishop Nicholson presided over the joint session of the Conference and the Laymen's Association. For minutes of this session, see Minutes of the Conference.

E. STARBUCK, President.
B. W. AYRES, Secretary.

(h) WESLEY FOUNDATION.

We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, desiring to establish ourselves together as a corporation for purposes other than for pecuniary profit, do hereby make, sign, and acknowledge the following:

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

Article I.

The name by which this corporation shall be known in law is the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University.

Article II.

The object for which such corporation is formed is the intellectual, moral, and religious care and instruction of young people who are students in Purdue University, especially those who are adherent to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in furtherance of such object said corporation shall have the power of taking, purchasing, holding, and disposing of real estate and personal property, as provided by statute. This corporation is organized as an auxiliary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church and shall carry on its work in harmony with the principles and methods of said board.

Article III.

The board of directors of said corporation shall consist of fifteen members, to be elected as follows: Three by the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, three by the Northwest Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and three by the Methodist members of the University staff, and the nine directors thus elected shall select the remaining four directors of said board. The term of office of said directors shall be fixed by the bylaws of said corporation.

Article IV.

The following persons are hereby selected as the directors who shall have the control and management of the business and prudential concerns of said corporation for the first year of its existence, namely: William D. Martin, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, and Brenton S. Hollopeter.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands this tenth day of May, 1917.

May 17, 1917, the members of the board of directors of the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University met in the Fowler Hotel, Lafayette, Indiana, to hear the report of the committee on by-laws and to transact such other business as might legally arise. Attorney Charles A. Burnett reported that the Articles of Association adopted at the meeting held May 10, 1917, had been duly filed with the secretary of state and that the charter had been received.

The by-laws proposed by the special committee were taken up section by section, discussed, amended, and finally unanimously adopted.

BY-LAWS WESLEY FOUNDATION.

In pursuance of the authority conferred upon the board of directors of the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University by the charter of said corporation, the said board of directors do hereby agree to and order the following by-laws for their government, subject to amendment from time to time, in the following manner:

I. The Board of Directors.

1. The members of the board of directors representing two of the Conferences of the State of Indiana—the North Indiana Conference and the Northwest Indiana Conference—and the three members of the board of directors elected by the Methodist members of the Purdue University staff shall serve for three years, but in order to preserve the continuity of the work of the board of directors, the members so elected by the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1917 and the North Indiana Conference in 1918, at their annual sessions, and by the Methodist members of the Purdue University staff in April, 1918, shall serve for one, two, and three years, as may be designated at the time of their election.

2. The four directors elected by the nine directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the board and shall serve for four years, but in order to preserve the continuity of the work of the board the first four directors thus elected at the annual meeting in 1918 shall serve one, two, three, and four years, respectively, as determined at the time of their election.

3. The present directors shall continue in office until their successors are chosen as hereinbefore provided.

II. Meetings of the Board.

1. The board of directors shall hold its annual meeting at the seat of the Wesley Foundation at Purdue University on the first Thursday in May of each year.

2. Special meetings may be called at any time upon one week's notice, through the secretary, to the directors; provided that any three officers of the board, or at least five directors unite in such a call.

3. In all meetings of the board seven directors shall constitute a quorum.

III. Officers of the Board.

The officers of the board shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, to be elected annually by ballot at the annual meeting in May, and to serve until their successors are elected.

Their duties shall be as follows:

1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the board, shall appoint (unless the board otherwise direct) all the committees of the board, except as otherwise provided, and perform all the usual duties of such office.

2. The Vice-President, in the absence of the President, or in case of his resignation, removal, or death, shall serve in his place until another President is elected.

3. The Secretary shall be required:

(a) To keep a correct journal of the proceedings of the board and to carefully record or file, as the board may direct, all reports and other important papers of the board.

(b) To give at least ten days' notice to the directors of all meetings of the board.

(c) Immediately upon receiving information of their election, to notify all newly elected directors of their election and to furnish each with a copy of the Articles of Association and By-Laws of the Foundation.

(d) To conduct such correspondence as the board may require of him from time to time.

4. The Treasurer shall be required:

(a) To receive all moneys coming into the treasury of the Foundation from any and every source; to hold and disburse the same subject to the direction of the board of directors.

(b) To present to the annual meeting of the board (and to any other meeting when requested) a tabulated statement of the receipts and disbursements of the resources and liabilities of the Foundation with a separate exhibit of Endowment Funds, showing the amount of such funds invested during the year, the total amount invested, the character of the securities, and the revenues derived from such investment; and also to report at any time that the directors or executive committee may direct; also showing the amount, earnings, growth, and status of all special endowments or permanent funds by name.

(c) The Treasurer shall be required before entering upon the duties of his office to execute to the board of directors, to be approved by the executive committee, and filed with the Secretary of the board, a bond of such amount as the board of directors shall determine from time to time, and with such security as the board may require.

(d) To invest with the concurrence of the executive committee and according to such instructions as may be agreed upon from time to time by the directors, the Endowment Funds of the Foundation, but no investments of the General Endowment, Special Endowment, or other permanent funds of the Foundation shall be made by loan or otherwise without the written concurrence of at least three members of the executive committee in any regular or called meeting.

IV. COMMITTEES.

1. The standing committees shall be as follows: (1) Executive Committee; (2) Committee on Ways and Means.

These committees shall each consist of five members of the Board, to be elected by the board at the annual meeting.

2. The duties of the committees shall be as follows:

(a) The Executive Committee shall have charge, subject to the supervision of the board, of all the interests of the Foundation. And during the interim of the sessions of the board shall have and exercise all such power in the management of the affairs of the Foundation as may be consistent with the charter and By-Laws of the Foundation, and the instruction and actions of the board. It shall hold meetings at such particular place and time as they may determine, and also such special meetings, to be called by the Chairman or Secretary, as may be deemed necessary.

In the case of vacancy occurring in any office or in the membership of any committee by death, resignation, or removal of said officer or member his successor to fill the unexpired term shall be appointed by the Executive Committee.

It shall provide for the auditing of all accounts, and shall make report of its proceedings at the annual meeting.

(b) The Ways and Means Committee shall devise and initiate such plans and methods of procedure as may be necessary from time to time in order to secure funds in the form of gifts, bequests, endowments, etc., for the use of the Foundation.

V. ORDER OF BUSINESS.

In all places where special provision is not made in these By-Laws, Roberts' Rules of Order shall be observed whenever applicable to the business of the board and its committees.

In the regular meetings of the board the business shall be brought forward as follows:

1. Prayer.
2. Roll Call.
3. Reading Minutes.
4. Appointment of Committees.
5. Reports.
6. Unfinished Business.
7. New Business.
8. Election of Officers.

VI.

These By-Laws may be amended at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of all the members present and voting, provided that this two-thirds vote is not less than a majority of all the members of the board and that notice of the proposed change has been sent by the Secretary by mail to the members of the board not less than ten days before the date of the annual meeting at which action is to be taken.

(XIV) Historical

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1918, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy., Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired; Tr., Transferred. SECRETARY.

Explanatory.—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge

Established 1880 2600 in use

The success of the Methodist Episcopal Church is in direct proportion to the height of its ideals, the character of its personnel and the sincerity of its workers.

No permanent or lasting success can be achieved by any institution except it have the same characteristics. Who knows organs knows so it is unnecessary here to dilate upon their superiorities. Far back of methods and materials in every product there is a spiritual something that governs results, and that is especially true in the construction of musical instruments. Many men have duplicated the material and construction of Stradivarius' violins, but none has matched the tone.

M. P. MÖLLER ORGANS

This is our business creed and in this belief shall we continue.

CHURCH AND HOME INSURANCE

OUR TWENTIETH YEAR

Why continue to contribute to the funds of stock companies when this, your own, organization protects Churches, Parsonages, Homes and Household Goods of Preachers, Hospitals, School Buildings, Dwellings, and Personal Effects of the people who build and sustain the churches against FIRE, LIGHTNING AND WINDSTORM AT COST?

Premiums may be paid in easy, annual installments, or if paid in advance, a special reduction is allowed for such prepayment.

NO ASSESSMENTS, NOT ONE DOLLAR EVER DUE AND UNPAID.

Total amount of insurance written since we began business over ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-THREE MILLION DOLLARS ($163,000,000.00). Of this amount more than FORTY-ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($41,000,000.00) was in force on December 31, 1917.

Remember that everything entering into the construction of a building costs far more now than formerly.

Illinois Woman's College

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements :

First—The instruction should be thorough.
Second—The equipment should be generous.
Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.
Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.
Fifth—The Christian influences should be positive and attractive.
Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE OFFERS THE FOLLOWING COURSES :

Regular College courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Music.

Degree, Certificate and special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why should any young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized the college would not be able to take care of more than half the applications."

We Believe

That Faith and Hope will be triumphant and that out of the dark clouds that now surround us will come a greater, nobler, kinder people with their faces set toward the Church of God.

That for the consummation of this much desired end the Church MUST NOT lag in any department, and especially in those departments that show the world that all is well within.

We Hope

That you will think of us often and kindly.

Taylor University

CO-EDUCATIONAL

UPLAND, IND.

FALL TERM OPENS SEPTEMBER 25, 1918

In the past ten years Taylor University has sent out
34 missionaries into the foreign field,
420 ministers into the churches,
500 into other walks of life.
She now has
50 in the Volunteer Band,
125 studying for the ministry,
100 other consecrated young people,
60 boys in the service of their country.

This work has been done by a consecrated band of twenty-five teachers on a budget of less than twenty thousand dollars with practically no endowment. She now has no Conference support. In that time there has been erected
A dormitory costing $25,000,
A chapel and music hall costing $20,000,
A central heating plant costing $20,000,
Improvement on main building costing $4,000,
A barn and silo costing $2,200,
A farm purchased costing $7,000, making the total property holdings now $140,000.

Taylor University is the monument to Bishop William Taylor, the missionary and evangelist of Full Salvation, and has been standing like a flint against destructive criticism of the Bible, and worldliness among the colleges, and her great work is needed at this time as never before. By no other agency has there been so much service—active, passionate, Christian service—as by this school, and at such low monetary cost.

PRESIDENT M. VAYHINGER, D. D., UPLAND, INDIANA

DePauw University

(Founded 1837)

From its early beginning this great School has steadily grown in its equipment and efficiency. While under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church it is non-sectarian in its privileges and benefits.

It now has fourteen buildings, eight of them exclusively educational and heated from one central plant. It has all the departments of a well-equipped College of Liberal Arts. Fine laboratories in Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Mechanical Drawing, Electrical and Civil Engineering. Its departments of Domestic Science, Teacher Training, Physical Culture and Public Speaking are of the highest excellence. Its School of Music is conducted by teachers thoroughly trained both at home and abroad. In addition to the General Library and reading room many of the departments have special apartments for Seminary Instruction.

In recent years large gifts in monumental buildings have been given to this Institution—notably the Minshall Laboratory, the Carnegie Library, the Bowman Memorial, the Rector Hall, and the Studebaker Memorial. The total assets of the University in Campus, Buildings, and Endowments amount to $2,383,233.95. A well-organized movement, having the approval of the North Indiana Conference, is now under way to increase the Productive Endowment to $2.000.000; $300,000 yet to be raised.

Special attention is given to the Social, Moral, and Religious welfare of the students. The best possible provision is made for Freshmen and all new students that they may be properly directed in their studies and secure the best advantages throughout their college life.

Enrollment for 1917-18 is 89.2% of that of the previous year. There are 448 stars on our service flag showing DePauw's contribution to the Army and the Navy; of these over 200 are undergraduates.

Let all parents, pastors, and any other persons interested in education freely send for catalogues and bulletins.

JOURNAL OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Peru, Indiana, Wednesday, April 2, 1919.

In accordance with the Plan of Episcopal Visitation, the North Indiana Annual Conference convened in its seventy-sixth session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Peru, Indiana, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

The Bishop called the Conference to order at 8.30, and on his request the Conference sang hymn, No. 560,

"And are we yet alive,"

and the national hymn,

"My Country, 'tis of thee."

After the singing of two stanzas of the latter, at the request of the Bishop, Leslie J. Naftzger and Fred B. Fisher led in prayer.

For a Scripture lesson the Bishop read selections from the first and second chapters of the Acts of the Apostles and gave a very helpful and interesting exposition of the same.

The Lord's Supper.—With the assistance of the District Superintendents and the pastor of the local church the Bishop then conducted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He closed this beautiful and impressive service by the use of the Lord's Prayer and the singing of the 540th hymn,

"O, could I speak the matchless worth."

Roll-Call.—At the request of the Bishop, the Secretary of the last session, D. V. Williams, called the names of those deceased since the last session of the Conference. The Conference stood while the names of the following deceased during the year were called: G. H. Hill, R. H. Smith, W. D. Parr, F. P. Johnson, and H. E. Coe. Resolutions.—

Bishop Nicholson and Members of the North Indiana Conference.

At the last session of this Conference the following action was taken:

"On motion of R. J. Wade, the Secretary was requested to devise plans whereby the reports of the Standing Committees might be made early in the session next year, and printed, if possible, for the study of each member of the Conference."

In compliance with the foregoing action, the Secretary begs leave to offer for your consideration and action the following:

First, that each Standing Committee be requested to meet at the close of the afternoon session on the first day of the Conference session, organize, and immediately proceed with its work with such speed that it will be able to file its report with the Secretary not later than Friday noon.

Second, that these reports be typewritten and made in duplicate.

Third, that a committee of three be appointed, who shall arrange for their immediate publication, if possible.

D. V. Williams, Secretary.

The resolutions were adopted.

The resolution offered by C. U. Wade relative to the League of Nations, on motion of D. T. Stephenson, was referred to the Committee on the State of the Country.

C. U. Wade offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a standing vote:

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has appointed to diplomatic service George H. Herron; therefore be it

Resolved, That we condemn in unmeasured terms the appointment of this noted, pronounced, and operative free-lover to this office; and in the interest of good morals, pure homes, and downright righteousness we demand his immediate recall; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, properly signed by the officers of this Conference.

Order of the Day.—On motion of R. L. Semans, the time for the selection of the place for the next session of this Annual Conference was made the order of the day for Thursday, immediately after the adjournment of the Preachers' Aid Society.

On motion of D. T. Stephenson, the Secretary was requested to send a telegram of congratulations to W. F. Walker and F. A. Robinson, who are completing fifty years of Conference membership.

On motion, J. A. Beatty was requested to send a telegram of sympathy to E. B. Westhafer on account of the death of his son.

Leslie J. Naftzger called the attention of the Conference to the fact that this is the sixtieth anniversary of the Conference membership of C. E. Disbro, E. F. Hasty, and W. E. McCarty. On motion, the Secretary was instructed to send a telegram of congratulations to C. E. Disbro and W. E. McCarty, Brother Hasty being present.

Fourteenth Question.—The Fourteenth Question, "Was the Character of each Preacher examined?" was called. The District Superintendents were passed in character and answered the questions required by the Discipline. M. S. Marble read his report of the Wabash District. At the conclusion of the report J. T. Bean, in a fitting address, presented Brother Marble, who is closing his sixth year as District Superintendent of the Wabash District, a chest of gold on behalf of the preachers of his district. To this gift and address Brother Marble made a fitting reply. "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung.

W. W. Martin, District Superintendent of Ft. Wayne District, reported the work of the district.

Official Program.—On motion, the program as prepared by the Committee on Program was adopted as the official program for this session of the Conference.

Leave of Absence.—F. P. Morris was granted a leave of absence to attend a funeral.

On motion, the pastors were requested, in making their reports to Conference, to conform to the requirements of the Discipline: to report whether there had been an increase or decrease in church membership, the benevolences, and church periodicals.

Publication of Reports.—On motion, C. U. Wade, O. A. Trabue, and F. A. LeMaster were constituted the Committee on Publication of the Reports of the Standing Committees called for by the resolution offered by the Secretary.

Time of Adjournment.—On motion of the Secretary, the time for the adjournment for the morning sessions of the Conference was fixed at not later than twelve-fifteen.

The Conference adjourned by the singing of the 415th hymn, "Faith of our fathers."

SECOND DAY.

Morning Session.

Thursday, April 3, 1919.

The Conference convened for devotional services at 8.30 A. M., with Bishop Nicholson presiding. He announced Hymn No. 143,

"In the Cross of Christ I Glory,"

which was sung.

At his request, the Conference sang Hymn No. 653,

"The Morning Light is Breaking."

Prayer was offered by Blaine Kirkpatrick.

The Bishop conducted the Daily Bible Study from Acts 15 under the theme, "Modern Lessons from the Story of the Council at Jerusalem." After a very helpful study, the Bishop closed the devotional hour by prayer.

Journal.—The Journal of both the morning and afternoon sessions of yesterday was read and approved.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent of Logansport District, read his report.

W. B. Freeland, on behalf of the preachers of Logansport District, in a happy manner presented Brother Hollopeter with a purse of gold. To this, Brother Hollopeter made a fitting response.

E. L. Jones, who had been elected Conference Auditor, nominated as his assistant LeRoy Myers, who was elected.

Transfer.—The Bishop announced the transfer of Steuart D. White from the Baltimore Conference to this Conference.

Roll-Call.—The Secretary called the roll of absentees, to which call the following responded: G. B. Work, J. S. Cain, F. G. Browne, A. L. Lamport, J. W. Tillman, J. F. Porter, M. L. Hardingham, B. E. The following probationers also responded to the roll-call: L. W. Stone, E. Antle, Fred Chelan, D. J. Imler, L. D. Hershberger.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The time having arrived, according to the Constitution of the Preachers' Aid Society, for the Annual Meeting, the Conference adjourned, and the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference convened, with Bishop Nicholson presiding. On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, D. H. Guild, W. B. Freeland, and Benjamin Kendall were constituted a committee on nominations of officers for the society. C. U. Wade, Secretary, read his report, which was adopted and ordered printed in the Minutes. He presented a check from the Society for $5,789, which was ordered endorsed and turned over to the Conference Treasurer to be handed to the Board of Stewards for distribution among the Conference Claimants.

The following amendments to the By-Laws of the Preachers' Aid Society were read and adopted:

"The following addition (amendments) to the By-laws of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church were, by a unanimous vote of the Board of Control of said Society, recommended to this Annual Meeting of the Society for your adoption as amendments to the By-laws of the Society—towit:

Section 8. The Executive Committee shall meet quarterly on the call of the Chairman of the Committee. It shall have general power over the affairs of the Society, subject to the approval of the Board of control; except that it may not fill vacancies in office in the Society, nor in the Board of Control, nor in the Executive Committee.

Section 9. All moneys from all sources shall be turned over and be paid out only on written orders issued by the Society, or by the Board of Control, or by the Executive Committee; said orders to be signed by the President and Recording Secretary of the Society, or by the Chairman and Secretary of the Executive Committee; providing, however, that in making loans from the Permanent Fund, the Investing Committee and the Treasurer shall have full power to make such loans and investments as provided for in Article 6 of the Constitution of the Society."

The General Secretary, R. A. Morrison, read his report and a resolution, which were adopted and ordered printed in the Minutes. See Reports.

On motion of C. U. Wade, a vote of thanks was tendered to R. A. Morrison, General Secretary, and J. C. Woodruff, Assistant General Secretary, for the splendid work they had done for the Society.

The Committee on Nominations made report of the officers for the Society, who were elected. See list of officers in Conference Minutes.

W. W. Martin spoke in the interest of the campaign for funds for the Society, urging loyalty to all the plans.

On motion of C. U. Wade, it was ordered that the third man nominated on the staff of General Secretary, if not available at this time, the Executive Committee should be authorized to fill his place if deemed wise.

E. F. Hasty, a former officer of the Society, spoke in the interests of the organization.

On motion of D. H. Guild, the Preachers' Aid Society adjourned.

Conference Business.—The preacher's Aid Society having adjourned, Conference business was resumed, with Bishop Nicholson in the chair.

Thirty-Sixth Question.—The Thirty-sixth Question, "Where shall the next Conference be held?" having been made the order of the day, was considered at this time.

The following churches invited the Conference to hold its next session with them:

Richmond, Grace; High Street, Muncie; and First Church, Goshen. Grace Church, Richmond, was represented by H. L. Overdeer; First Church, Goshen, by H. C. Harman; and High Street, Muncie, by D. T. Stephenson.

In the midst of the taking of the vote, D. T. Stephenson moved, and H. C. Harman seconded, that we unanimously accept the invitation of Grace Church, Richmond, which was enthusiastically carried.

District Reports.—Somerville Light, District Superintendent of Richmond District, read his report of the work on the District. R. J. Wade, District Superintendent of Goshen District, read his report of his District.

Orphanage.—On motion of W. W. Martin, it was ordered that a committee of one from each District, with C. U. Wade as Chairman, should be raised to consider and report to the Conference at this session on the advisability of constituting a corporation for an orphanage under the control of the North Indiana Conference. The following were constituted this committee: C. U. Wade, Chairman; F. A. Hall, H. C. Harman, E. E. Trippeer, E. M. Dunbar, O. A. Trabue, J. C. White.

On the request of Fred. B. Fisher, for a Conference Publicity Agent for the Centenary, J. W. Potter was elected by the Conference.

(VIII) Reports.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

Wallace W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren: I am presenting my third annual report. So favorably has God dealt with us that during these three years no funeral has been held from the home of any Methodist minister within the territory. Brother Frank S. Hickman and his wife have been sorely afflicted through the loss of their only child by the dreaded disease, diphtheria, while the father was attending theological school in Boston, Mass., and theirs was a sad journey back to Indiana. Some of our parsonages have had serious illness. We come with thankful hearts to acknowledge the kindness of our heavenly Father.

Wallace W. Martin.

Church Property.—Minor improvements have been made in many of our charges in parsonage and church property, ranging in cost to $600 or $700 in several charges. At Fremont the parsonage has been sold, and a modern home has been purchased for the home of the pastor.

The church at Nevada Mills, on the Orland charge, was completely remodeled at an expense of $5,500, and was dedicated by the district superintendent on December 8th. A fine surplus was provided by the members and friends of the church, and new life and interest attends its religious services. The pastor, J. K. Wyant, deserves much credit for the success of this enterprise.

Within the year, Garrett, under the leadership of Chas. Tinkham, has paid the last dollar on the indebtedness on the their new church, and a surplus of $500 reduced the debt on the new parsonage to that amount. $5,900 was paid for this purpose by this heroic people.

The debt on the parsonage at Monroe has been paid. The pastor, L. M. Krider, led in this movement, and $2,000 was raised and applied.

$2,736 have been raised and applied to the payment of debt and interest at Simpson Church.

$1,400 has been paid on the debt at St. Joe on the Ft. Wayne circuit.

$1,000 has been applied to the debt at Ossian. Other lesser amounts have been paid in many charges.

Revivals.—Our revivals have been greatly hindered. Large plans had been made by many of the brethren, only to have them postponed by health authorities or by health conditions. Nevertheless some excellent meetings were held.

The largest number of conversions and reclamations is reported on the Bobo charge, J. F. Stephenson, pastor, 114. Bluffton is next with 100, W. T. Arnold, pastor. Montpelier is next with sixty-six conversions, the pastor being J. O. Powell. First Church, Ft. Wayne, and Trinity report fifty-five each. Geneva Circuit has fifty-four, and Monroe forty-one. Last year there were several charges in my district that did not report any conversions, but I am glad to report that in every charge in the district there have been some conversions this year.

Our pastors report 1,079 accessions. There have been 187 deaths and 176 have been placed in non-resident list. Other removals have brought the total number of removals up to 879, which would indicate a net gain of 200 in full members. However, when I subtract the number of full members reported to the conference last year from the number of full members reported to me this year, I discover that we have but a margin of forty-one, which is dangerously near the red figure on one of the most important phases of our work. A distress signal was sent the brethren, and more than 100 members were enrolled on the last Sunday of the year.

At the district conference, held recently at Decatur, plans were laid for simultaneous meetings for our district next year, a district commission having been appointed to report at the spring meeting on plans. A conversation with the Bishop reveals the fact that for this area he deems this the next essential drive, and we shall be glad to see the North Indiana Conference lay its plans at this session for this work; and in Ft. Wayne district we shall be happy to fall in with such plans as the conference may adopt.

On June 6th last, the Hope Methodist Hospital, in the city of Ft. Wayne, was formally dedicated; the address being given by Bishop Francis J. McConnell. It has been self-supporting from the beginning. During the scourge of influenza this hospital served the city of Ft. Wayne in a highly commendable way, and was the means of opening all the hospitals in Ft. Wayne for the care of such patients. We were very fortunate in that while several deaths occurred among the nurses of the other hospitals in Ft. Wayne, not a nurse in our institution was seriously ill. Thus another influential institution is serving to place Methodism at the front in Ft. Wayne.

Still another conference institution should be brought into existence. It may be that it is time to begin the building, but our conference corporation has a large tract of land, subject to a life tenure, that is given for the purpose of caring for an Orphanage. This is not immediately available. However, if we were incorporated as an orphanage association, and this was published in our minutes through wills and from other sources, we would receive aid that would assist greatly in launching such an institution. I am fairly certain that if we had such a corporation there is a man, not a member of the Methodist church, and who would not know about our North Indiana Conference Corporation, who will make provision for $30,000 to come to such an institution. In such a movement we would have support of Boards of Children's guardians, who do not have such an institution in Northeastern Indiana, where they can place their wards. At the proper time it is my purpose to move that this conference provide for such a corporation, and name incorporators, that we may take advantage of such opportunities, leaving to the judgment of the incorporators and the conference, when such an institution shall be launched.

Benevolences.—Again we rejoice in the way in which the pastors and laymen are responding to the call of the church for the redemption of the world. And now a new name leads in the advance, a charge that has not during our knowledge met its full apportionment, hertofore, this year pays in full and furnishes the largest increase in the district. Ossian, W. E. Hamilton, pastor, reports an increase of $1,132; Bluffton, W. T. Arnold, pastor, is next with an increase of $688; Decatur, F. F. Thornburg, pastor, $1,750; First Church, Ft. Wayne, A. G. Neal, pastor, $301; Auburn, F. A. Hall, pastor, $1,115; Monroe, L. M. Krider, pastor, $200; Simpson, Ft. Wayne, U. S. A. Bridge, pastor, $196; Garrett, Chas. Tinkham, pastor, $140; Geneva, D. A. J. Brown, pastor, $114; Wayne Street, Ft. Wayne, J. F. Porter, pastor, $100; Bobo, J. F. Stephenson, pastor, $99; and advances of lesser amounts distributed over nearly all the other charges of the district, and the aggregate advance in disciplinary benevolences is $13,000. The twelve churches of the district showing the largest total amount for Disciplinary benevolences are as follows: 1st, Bluffton, $5,823; 2d, First Church, Decatur, $3,850; 3d, First Church, Auburn, $3,180; 4th, First Church, Ft. Wayne, $2,246; 5th, Ossian, $1,500; 6th, Wayne Street, Ft. Wayne, $1,421; 7th, Simpson, Ft. Wayne, $1,181; 8th, Garrett, $850; 9th, Orland, $790; 10th, Trinity, Ft. Wayne, $785; 11th, Angola, $623; 12th, Monroe, $608. Many of those who report less amounts have achieved just as nobly, oftentimes in restricted fields, and in some instances have reached nearer 100 per cent of the possibilities than some who report the larger amounts. All have tried heroically to reach the full apportionment, and out of the forty charges of this district, thirty-nine have reached the full apportionment or more for the disciplinary benevolences. We have carefully gone over the figures, and we are prepared to say that if this year and the five years of the Centenary we make only the same per cent of gain annually as we made last year and the preceding year in Ft. Wayne district, we will reach the full Centenary quota in Ft. Wayne district within the five years of the Centenary and have $285,273 to spare; and the district for this year makes the same gain per cent as the two previous years. The entire quota for Ft. Wayne district for the Centenary, the other six boards, and our conference benevolences, per annum is $93,083. The district took formal action to raise this to $100,000 per annum, and made its pledge officially to reach the full amount. This district is credited with being fully organized for the Centenary in each charge, we have 1,600 enrolled intercessors, and now 1,500 Christian Stewards.

Preachers' Aid Endowment Campaign.—During this year, Rev. R. A. Morrison, general secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, with Rev. J. C. Woodruff, assistant, and aided briefly by J. W. Oborn and J. Frank Anderson, and on all occasions by the pastors of Ft. Wayne district, have prosecuted this Endowment campaign in Ft. Wayne district. A high mark had been set by Goshen district. Dr. Wade of that district had reported at the annual conference last year that they were on the last $1,000 of the $100,000 for Goshen district. We have been inspired further by the information that additional amounts have been subscribed during this year, bringing the Goshen district total to $129,000. Our general secretary fell ill during this campaign, and for three months he slipped down into the shadows, passing through a serious surgical operation at Mayo Brothers' institution at Rochester, Minn., and coming up again, under the blessing of God in answer to many prayers, and is again at the task of making brighter the pathway of the veterans of the Cross. On the goal of $1,000,000 for the conference, our share of which in Ft. Wayne district is $150,000, he reports that in Ft. Wayne district, in cash subscriptions, annuities, properties, and after-death bonds, the total amount pledged in Ft. Wayne district is now $151,300. It is apparent that this campaign has not injured any other cause. On the contrary we have already reported an increase of more than $13,000 in the disciplinary benevolences; and conference benevolences are being well cared for, and salaries are also advancing.

Salaries.—The average cash salary in Ft. Wayne district for this year just closing for members of the conference and probationers is $1,433. For the year now closing the following charges increased cash salaries of pastors as indicated: Angola $200, Auburn $200, Auburn Circuit $100, Bluffton Circuit $100, Bobo $100, Decatur Circuit $30, Fiat $100, Simpson, Ft. Wayne, at 4th Quarterly Conference, $200, Trinity, Ft. Wayne $100, Ft. Wayne Circuit $100, Fremont $100, Garrett $200, Geneva Circuit $100, Hoagland $50, Kingsland $100, Monroe $200, Monroeville $200, Montpelier $200, New Haven $200, Pleasant Mills $200, Ray $100, York $50. Bluffton also added $200 at the end of the year; twenty-four charges out of forty. We have held before the people the need of the rural church. And we have held as a goal to be attained the planning of our work so that every rural church shall have public worship every Sunday. The response has been fine. The Coesse charge divides; and Coesse and Jefferson chapel will pay $1,000, the amount paid by four churches this year. Arcola and Lake Chapel will pay $1,100 and furnish a house. The funds are already pledged. Flint becomes the head of a charge with Salem Centre, and they pay $1,000 cash salary, and Orland, with two churches, instead of three, continues the salary of $1,200. Harlan becomes a station and continues at $1,000 salary, and Woodburn and Scipio form a two-point work with $1,000 salary. Hartford from the Geneva Circuit and Union chapel from the Fiat work become a two-point work and pay $900 cash salary. These are some instances of the movement inaugurated to save the rural church. And we must save the rural church. What will our city churches do when there are no members moving in from the country churches? But I would not have you think that the rural charge is the only charge that is moving up. For the coming year changes in salary over that fixed at the first quarterly conference the past year are as follows: Bluffton, from $2,500 to $2,800; First Church, Ft. Wayne, from $2,500 to $2,700; Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne, from $2,000 to $2,500; Trinity Church, Ft. Wayne, from $1,600 to $1,800; St. Paul, Ft. Wayne, from $1,200 to $1,500; Decatur, from $2,300 to $2,500; Garrett, from $2,200 to $2,400; Auburn, from $2,200 to $2,500; Fremont, from $1,500 to $1,700; Montpelier, from $1,400 to $1,500; and there are others that move in the same direction. The total advances in salaries not including rental value of parsonages is for the pastors of Ft. Wayne district, either as fixed by the quarterly conference or as recommended by estimating committees for the next conference year, $7,585.

The Epworth League and other Societies.—The reports from our ladies show that that the advance in the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Woman's Home Missionary Society is very fine. Some charges have doubled their leadership and offerings. The Ladies' Aid Societies are doing fine work. They are not only aiding financially, but socially and spiritually. A recent address of Mrs. R. L. Bowers, of Auburn, before our district conference, publication of which was requested in the "Western," would make an admirable manual for the ladies of these societies. Its plans would lift these societies from the realm of thoughtless criticism to great church favor universally. The Epworth Leagues of the district on Labor Day, in connection with their booth, contributed in cash and provisions $1,200 to the Hope Methodist Hospital.

The big drive has been on during this thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Epworth League. Certain points of the forward movement have been established by the Central office. Bishop Leonard, the president of the Board of Control, has given a beautiful silk banner, which is to go for one month at a time to the Episcopal area, which during the previous month has the most points of advance to its credit, then to the conference in that area, and thence to the district in that conference similarly. This banner has traveled widely. It has been in San Francisco area once. It has been in the Cincinnati area once, and in the Indiana conference once. It has been in the Washington area once. It has been in the Buffalo area twice. It has been in the Chicago area five times. It has come to the North Indiana Conference five times. It has come to the Ft. Wayne district five times, and since there remain but two more months before its final resting place is found, it is comforting to us in Ft. Wayne district to know that the only remaining place for competition is for second place. All honor to these Leaguers of Ft. Wayne district. But why not here? There was an Epworth League in old Berry Street before the general organization was effected at Epworth Church thirty years ago, and the man who gave the Epworth League its name is none other than the Rev. J. K. Walts, twice pastor of Berry Street Church, and a member of the first Board of Control of the Epworth League. I take a personal pleasure in this matter since I happen to be on this Board of Control, and am honored with the chairmanship of its executive committee. I am informed likewise recently that I have appointment to represent the Board of Control in the organization of the Centenary work among the young people of this conference. We shall need to plan soon and largely to carry forward our great program. What can all the Centenary do with all its money unless the young life of the church shall respond in life service to the call of God and the church to carry forward at home and abroad the divine program for saving a sinful world?

The tomorrow of the church calls for consecrated youths who shall dedicate themselves for the ministry and other forms of religious work, and for laymen who shall see in the large our world opportunities. Back of every endeavor of the church lies our hope in the Methodist youth.

Bishop Nicholson, by reference to your records, you will find that not a station in Ft. Wayne district requested the removal of any pastor last year. This year again the same condition exists. There is not a station in my district where the pastor may not return.

We were honored in Ft. Wayne district with the presence of our resident Bishop, March 9th, 10th, and 11th. His excellent sermons and addresses, his close study of our city needs, his aid in the formation of our Methodist Union of Churches in Ft. Wayne, will materially aid in the prosecution of our work in this growing center of population. With this word of appreciation for our resident Bishop, with an expression of profound gratitude to all the pastors of the district whose work and achievement I am reporting, with acknowledgment of all the fine co-operation upon the part of the laymen, whose generous support of the church has strengthened our hands, and above all with a sense of the Divine aid so much needed, the grace from on high, the illuminating Presence, I close this, my third annual report.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

R. J. Wade, District Euperintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: This has been at once the busiest and most successful year of my life. All has not been accomplished that could have been desired, but more has been wrought than hitherto. Time and attention has been divided between district and area, I trust, to the disadvantage of neither. Four times within recent months connectional positions have been tendered, the acceptance of which would normally mean the relinquishment of regular conference work.

R. J. Wade.

When the request came for service as manager of the Chicago Area in the Conference Claimants Campaign I urged the advantage of holding my present position on the district as expedient from the standpoint of a representative who was going to and fro as a fellow laborer in the task. The arrangement was finally sanctioned by the Board, approved by the district, and I was enabled to serve without salary expense to the Board, such remuneration being provided for by the district. This proved to be a successful, but in several respects a personally costly experiment.

I was just beginning once more, following the intensive period of that campaign, to become acquainted with my family when my home was disquieted by the importunity of the Centenary appeal from the area standpoint, the national organization urging the giving of my entire time as area secretary. To this call in that form, after prayer, I could not secure consent of mind or heart. Many men were serving the government and business in dual capacity. As a war emergency proposition I finally agreed, if the district should consent, to offer my services as before, without salary conpensation. To this proposition the district generously assented, and the Bishop and Centenary officials agreed. Since the first of August, therefore, I have done double duty without vacation or a day's intermittence. The heavenly Father has been very good to me. I have not missed a single day from sickness, and have been enabled to hold every Quarterly Conference in each of the quarters on each charge with the exception of a combination in three instances. I do not believe in combination of second and third Quarterly Conferences, except in extraordinary instances. A big church ought to have a program worth consideration in every charge by special Quarterly Conference session at least four times each year. Our laymen all over the area, I find, like that plan best.

In the heavier work of this year, I have rejoiced in the fine support of our Chicago Area Methodist laymen and preachers; and I have had the cordial co-operation of district superintendents and Bishop. Who would not give himself unstintedly when surrounded with such Christly toilers! For such a Christ, with such a program, in such company, "toil is pleasure;" and, "if I may, I'll serve another day," until the Centenary has swept on to glorious victory.

Following a fine pastors' and stewards' meeting, held in St. Mark's, Goshen, soon after conference, it was decided to attempt a six-fold financial drive, in order to clear the decks for the Centenary. The items included Goshen district's apportionment for the War Fund, the Purdue Student Pastor's Home, the General Conference expenses, the Indiana Methodist Hospital, the Asbury Memorial Statue, and other benevolent items. Kendallville sub-district was the first "over," followed quickly by others. All items are either paid or provided for. When it is recalled that this campaign followed immediately on the heels of the Conference Claimants Campaign, which exceeded all expectations, and netted over $130,000 in signed assets, the letter of H. Earl Coe, of Corunna, on May 17th, to the district superintendent, is significant: "The whole apportionment for Wayne Center, as well as Corunna, is now subscribed with $1.50 to the good. Over the top and beyond; with this skirmish done we're ready to tackle something harder." This expression of young Coe's characterized the entire district, and points the way to Centenary achievement. Unfortunately this valiant young knight met death by accident, drowning near Corunna, August 13, 1918. The year, on this charge, has been successfully concluded by another fine accession to our hero list—Claude E. Adams.

This change was but the forerunner of numerous others: S. L. Yoder was released in July to attend DePauw University; and Kimmel has been faithfully shepherded since by Forest E. Listenfelt, a DePauw graduate. About the same time R. E. Zeigler, of Nappanee, brilliant, spiritual, and soldierly, was commissioned chaplain by Uncle Sam, and has been continuously stationed in charge of our great tuberculosis hospital camp at Whipple Barracks, Arizona. R. R. Detweiler was transferred from Bristol, while Bristol increased support to secure Steuart D. White, who had won all hearts at the Wawasee Epworth League Institute. Both appointments have met with deserved approval. Garfield Dawe heeded the war call for enlistment, October 1st, and A. E. Scotten was released from Ft. Wayne district for the vacancy. Because of scarcity of houses in Stroh, he has been compelled to labor under the handicap of living at Rome City, away from the charge. First Church, Dallas, Texas, sought one and then another of our promising young men. C. L. De Bow inclined to the opportunity, was transferred, and about December 1st, R. W. Stoakes secured release from the War Camp Community secretaryship to accept La Grange, where the year's work has closed most successfully. V. L. Clear was given about September 1st, a lieutenant's commission to become an instructor in small arms at the camps. After serving the cause to the close of the war, North Webster, having been kept open, he returned to his earlier labors; the people of the charge giving him a present of $200 to get started again. R. V. Johnson was released for the chaplaincy, but the termination of the war held him to Milford, to the joy of the people, who increase the salary next year. W. B. Morgan was offered an attractive position as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and felt under the compulsion of acceptance. He was released from Wakarusa, and later J. M. Jordan, of Osceola, was appointed at an advance in salary, and has successfully completed the year's activities on both charges, Brother J. B. Cook assisting. A royal body of retired ministers are related to Goshen district.

In addition to those already referred to, the following have seen service in France: K. H. Carlson, L. D. Hershberger, Justin Morrison, and Earle Naftzger, with the Y. M. C. A. Brothers Morrison and Naftzger are still "over there." The service flags of Goshen district carry 1,407 stars, many of silver and a few of gold. One of the gold stars represents a Bristol official member. Opening the year's district superintendent Record Book, I have been confronted with the name of the recording secretary of the first Quarterly Conference of the year, Noble E. Greiner, of the Wawasee life-service decision list, as clean and true a young man as served Old Glory. I am not unmindful of closing last year's report with the prayer:

"God bring Old Glory home in honor, might and pride!
Battle-black and bullet slashed and stripes streaming wide,
Gorgeous with the memories of men who greatly died—
God bring Old Glory home!"

A veteran of the parsonage, one of the finest souls who ever lived, was the wife of Brother C. H. Wilkinson, she too "greatly died" as she had greatly lived. June was the date of her departure. The devoted wife of Brother J. C. Graham, of Albion, after a long battle, entered rest in the late fall. Hers was a choice spirit and her reward must be great.

The home of Brother and Sister Wilkinson, at Rome City, was purchased as a parsonage; Brother Wilkinson, Mrs. W. R. Wones, her brother, and Gene Stratton Porter, making liberal contributions. It becomes the Mary Wilkinson Memorial Home on the new Rome City charge. The old parsonage at Waterloo was sold, and a more desirable location and better building secured. The pastor, Rev. S. F. Harter, ably managed the exchange and superintended the rebuilding of the newer parsonage. The Warsaw congregation has arranged temporarily the housing of their beloved pastor in the house owned by and adjoining the church. Helpful repairs have been made on the Bourbon, Bourbon Circuit, Leesburg, Pierceton, Wakarusa, South Milford, and other parsonages, while the parsonages at Nappanee, New Paris, St. Mark's, Goshen, and South Milford became the homes of the accomplished brides of Brothers Zeigler, Hochstetler, Lamport, and Michel. Little strangers, to the joy of parent's hearts, were welcomed into the manse of the Smith's at Cromwell, Detweiler's at Nappanee, and Mott of Goshen.

Church Buildings.—Due to the cessation of building activities during the war, one church building alone is under way—Pierceton. The work of preparation so well begun by the former pastor, G. F. Hubbartt, has been prosecuted even more successfully by G. E. Whitten, whose return is urged at an advanced salary. A new and larger church became an absolute necessity. A fine new $20,000 brick structure, after the type of our Etna Green Church, will be dedicated this summer. This charge has led in Stewardship, and this winter has led in revival endeavor.

Debts.—Bourbon ended the first quarter of the year under the pastorate of T. M. Hill, with eighteen accessions, and the payment of the old church building debt of $3,535. In my absence at Lake Junaluska, N. C., as a representative of the Church North to the Church South, my father assisted in the special debt-paying service, and Brother Hill wrote that he was at his best. This has been a great year on the Bourbon charge. A small, long-standing debt was paid off at Inwood through the leadership of W. E. Loveless, who likewise directed the redecorating at Bethel, where my father again preached at the reopening. St. Paul, Elkhart, has reduced the indebtedness by $850, Simpson, Elkhart, $400, Wolcottville $400, Leesburg, $3,400, Tippecanoe $4,000, Warsaw $4,900, Etna Green $3,500, Nappanee $850, Topeka $350, and La Grange $200.

Conference Claimants.—Commendable progress has been made toward the payment of these campaign pledges. $29,000 has been added during the year. I trust the conference will readopt Veteran's Day, and make it the occasion not only of the decoration of the graves of ministers and members, but the occasion of revivifying interest annually in this appealing cause, until our needed $1,000,000 is in the treasury. Twice during the year Goshen district sent to Illinois a good delegation of experienced pastors to help in their Conference Claimants Campaign. The men acquitted themselves well. A few have rendered similar service in Ft. Wayne district.

District Meetings.—In addition to the Settlement Day referred to previously, an enthusiastic Epworth League Convention was held at Nappanee; and a splendid Woman's Home Missionary Society Convention in First Church, Goshen, in June. The "flu" prevented the contemplated Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Convention in La Grange, but did not prevent a notable district advance in gifts and work. Our annual Mobilization Campaign opened at Kendallville, September 17th, each district superintendent appearing on the program and acquitting himself creditably. The program was carried down to each charge in a helpful series of meetings, involving Membership Rallies, Patriotic Night, World Night, Sunday School and Epworth League Night. The Settlement Day and Sunday School Institute was held in Trinity, Elkhart, in December, and the climax of the year was the District Conference at Leesburg.

The Epworth League Institute, at Wawasee, last summer, surpassed previous unique records just as this year's institute gives promise of further excellence. It will repay every pastor and church to secure representation by a big delegation.

Ministerial Support.—The District Stewards recommended that the district superintendent of Goshen district do not appoint a man to any charge next year that cannot arrange a minimum support of at least $1,000 plus house. In harmony with this recommendation, Corunna, Cromwell, Wawaka, Kimmell, Valentine, Goshen Circuit, and the new Rome City charge have acted. Wolcottville becomes a station paying $1,350 salary, the same as both points last year, and insists that W. T. Daly, the man whose labors so strengthened the church, is to make this result possible, and who built the new parsonage, shall continue to be its occupant. Tippecanoe seeks station honor and makes similar request for pastor, A. P. Teter. Behold a miracle! A few years ago Tippecanoe, sin-cursed and one of the darkest spots, not only in Marshall County, but in Indiana, from the standpoint of Sunday school and church membership! A tabernacle revival, a Methodist Episcopal class organized, a fine brick church constructed, a rejuvenated sister church, an enthusiastic band of followers in our church, consisting of members and asking for the full time of a pastor and promising adequate support, a truly reconstructed community!

Salary advances have been arranged as follows: Topeka $100, Mishawaka $200, Milford $100, Pierceton $100, Kendallville $200, Wakarusa $100, Trinity, Elkhart, $300, Bristol $100, Warsaw Circuit $120, Albion, $100, Bourbon $100, Ligonier $100, Butler $100, Leesburg $200; Benton, Warsaw, and others with amounts not yet reported. Over half the charges report increases for next year.

Memberships and Church Records.—Goshen district led the districts of the Conference in membership gain last year. What has occurred this year I do not know, except that almost all pastors have reported increases. Is it not passing strange that so frequently when a new pastor comes it is discovered that the records are in need of serious revision—usually a reflection. I fear, not only on the man who goes but on the man who comes, making the discovery? I have actually known three men who found more names legitimately on the church membership record than were reported by the predecessor in the minutes of the preceding year. Brothers, we need a generation of careful record-keepers in the ministry; and we need a new and better-prepared membership record book. I have yet to hear a commendatory word concerning the revised membership record as prepared by the committee authorized by the last General Conference. It is inconvenient, inadequate, and does not lend itself to permanency. Goshen District Conference unanimously adopted a resolution requesting our annual conference to memorialize the General Conference in this regard. Rather than the present new-church membership record books, give us the old ideal; rather than the present impossible Quarterly Conference Record, give us most anything. Rather than the present inconvenient conference statistical and treasurer's report-blanks, give us North Indiana's old system of report blanks—at once simple and complete, the product of the brain and heart of T. C. Neal, one of the best statisticians any conference ever had.

Revivals.—Usual evangelistic activities have not been possible and, where possible, because of the fear of the influenza have not been as productive of results. Strategy has called for larger emphasis on pastoral and individual evangelists. During the prevalence of the epidemic, many pastors used bulletins and newspapers. The following charges report ten or more converts: Bourbon 15, Kendallville 15, Leesburg 30, Goshen, First, 75, St. Paul, Elkhart, 20, Osceola 40, Howe 14, Bourbon Circuit 12, Simpson, Elkhart, 20, Wawaka 14, Syracuse 10, Warsaw 25, Warsaw Circuit 15. Mishawaka 24, and Pierceton 50—a total, including members revived and backsliders reclaimed, of 1,003.

It was my privilege to be present at the recent Area Secretaries' meeting. A resolution which was adopted to turn the entire Centenary machinery over next year to promote a church-wide evangelistic and membership drive. Conference evangelist Earle Naftzger has served overseas in the terrible St. Mihiel drive, his regiment losing most of its men. J. W. Oborn has done excellent service in stewardship evangelism, securing 2,541 tithers.

Advocates.—In spite of the advance in price our list of subscribers has increased, representing a net gain of perhaps 200.

Benevolences.—For the fourth year in succession Goshen district has maintained its record, unique in Methodism, of no charge "falling down." There will be this year more 100 per cent charges than ever and a marked advance at every point. The Purdue Wesley Foundation is overpaid, the general conferences expenses are all paid, and there will be a gain on the eight boards. The totals range from $14,000 at Mishawaka, an increase of more than $1,000 at Warsaw, and proportionately down to the smallest charge. Many thousands of dollars have been subscribed to DePauw and to other great causes.

The Centenary.—Stewardship campaigns were greatly interfered with, but more than 2,865 members of the Fellowship of Intercession have been listed; 659 enrolled as members of the Methodist Million; and thirty-seven life decisions reported. The way had been so thoroughly prepared for the Centenary at Kendallville by that skillful general, F. A. LeMaster, that this charge became the first, not only in the district but first in the conference to pass its quota, striving with St. Paul's, Decatur, for first position in the area. That the Centenary does not exhaust our resources or stand in the way of other needs is evidenced by the action of this Quarterly Conference, asking for the return of Rev. LeMaster at an increase of salary of not less than $200, and insisting upon his return because he was the man to build a new church this year; and, as further evidence of their sincerity and intention, declared that if through any deserved promotion he did not return the conference must be sure to send them a church builder.

The second church in the district to tackle the Centenary finance was Leesburg. My father remained over a day after the District Conference to help Brother Herbert Boase, and by nightfall three-fourths of their apportionment was written; the remainder followed quickly. Spurred on by this victory, Syracuse was eager to tackle the job. My father assisted Brother F. H. Cremean here also, and the third victory was registered. In such instance the Centenary quota was secured in straight pledges with estate notes, annuities and wills to help in the surplus. Other churches are working—Napanee, Bourbon, and Bourbon Circuit are nearing the goal.

The most striking victory in the Area is at Etna Green, Edwin Dickson, pastor. Their goal is not the quota but the quota trebled, plus paying the last of the church debt on the new building and a long, outstanding, current expense obligation. Through the magnificent leadership of this pastor, who built the church, and is closing his sixth year, heartily seconded by the laymen, on last Sunday the entire indebtedness was paid, and to cover a Centenary quota of $9,110, there has been subscribed in all forms $21,525 to date, with more to follow.

No call has ever gripped the church as has this call. Every experienced solicitor declares that it is the easiest money he has ever tried to raise. Our people, young and old, are responding in eager life consecration. The Centenary ushers in a New Era. This New Crusade promises the biggest things the world has ever known. We come to a new day. All hail the day!

"It is coming! It is coming! The day is just dawning,
When man shall be to fellow man a helper, and a brother.
It is coming! It is coming! and men's thoughts are growing deeper;
They are giving of their millions as they never gave before;
They are learning the new gospel; man must be his brother's keeper,
And right, not might, shall triumph, and the selfish rule no more."

To hasten this new day we pledge our utmost endeavor.

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: This has been the most eventful year through which the church has ever passed. The world conditions have greatly added to our problems and multiplied our responsibilities, but it has given us undreamed of opportunities to put Christ before the world as its only hope.

On the 12th of August, Dr. William D. Parr closed his earthly career after a very brief illness. His funeral service was held from Grace Church, Kokomo, the following Thursday, in charge of the pastor, Dr. W. B. Freeland. Many prominent men of the church took part in the service. He was a notable figure among us and will be greatly missed at the sessions of our conference.

The following changes have taken place during the year: Peoria and Somerset were taken from the Sante Fe charge and formed into the Peoria Circuit; and Rev. R. A. Sanks, who had just graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University, became the pastor. This charge will pay $1,000 cash salary, and furnish a parsonage for the pastor and his new wife. McGrawsville was added to Santa Fe, and E. C. Fisher has a good two-point $1,000 charge. J. F. Edwards, who was appointed to Sheridan, became a chaplain in the army early in June, and J. Ira Jones, a returned missionary and a member of our own conference, became pastor at Sheridan. He had a good revival and managed the church so well that they are unanimous for his return. F. W. Launer asked to be relieved of the Mexico Charge, October 1st; and W. O. Michel was secured to take his place. R. W. Rogers was absent from Forest for a time while he was a chaplain in the army, but returned in time to close a very successful year's work on the charge.

B. S. Hollopeter.

Building and Improvements.—The church at Atlanta, which has been in process of building for the past two years, was soon finished when LeRoy Myers became the pastor. It was dedicated by Dr. Parr, as his last public service, August 4, 1918. Over $9,000 was raised on this occasion by these heroic people. The trustees of the church have been so faithful in collecting these subscriptions that less than $5,000 indebtedness remains. They are putting Brother Myers' salary at $1,200 for next year. The new parsonage at Gilead has been completed, and Brother Gilliland is finding it to be a very delightful home. The value of this building is $2,200, and it is all paid for.

G. W. Martin has improved the Russiaville parsonage at a cost of $1,100, all of which is paid. It is now fully modern and one of the best in the district. Brother Martin's report to the conference is the best that ever came from this charge.

J. F. Radcliffe, of Market Street. Logansport, has projected a $5,000 improvement on the church building. The money is already subscribed for this much-needed work. There has been improvements made on the Shiloh church on the Kempton charge by C. L. Schwartz, amounting to $500; and the same amount on the church at Forest, by R. W. Rogers. Plans for many other buildings and improvements were stopped on account of conditions brought about by the war.

Debts Paid.—The long-standing and burdensome debt at Elwood has been completely eliminated. This debt has stood in the way of the progress of this church for twenty years, making it impossible to secure a proper salary for the pastor, and blinding the eye, of the people to the larger usefulness of the church. W. A. Griest is wholly responsible for this good work, planning the campaign, and carrying it into such a successful conclusion that $4,400 was raised. They had added $200 to the salary at the beginning of the year. When J. B. Sparling was appointed to Cicero one year ago, there still remained a debt of $700 on their new church building. The debt has been paid, the benevolences increased 466 per cent, and the salary has gone up from $750 to $1,100; but the best of all he has roused the whole community to an interest in the church and taken many splendid people into its membership.

A thoughtful woman of Main Street Church, Kokomo, in making disposition of her possessions before leaving this world, remembered her church with a gift of $500, also one of our saintly conference widows of Kokomo added $500 in cash. Under the inspiration of these generous gifts the pastor, E. E. Trippeer, led the church in the raising of $2,500 to complete the debt and make some needed repairs on the parsonage. This pastor held his own revival meeting, in which 115 were converted. Those who have known this church from its beginning say it is in the best condition it has ever been.

Ben. Kendall, of Tipton, has paid the debt made by the improvements of last year, has added 156 to the church membership, and the last Quarterly Conference raised the pastor's salary to $2,000. Sheridan has reduced their debt of $4,000, and the church has also been blessed by a gracious revival, under the leadership of J. Ira Jones, the pastor. Greentown has reduced their debt by $3,000, and added $300 on next year's salary. By the generous gift of $1,000, by C. J. Beall, and some other collections made, Amboy has reduced their debt $1,500.

Purdue Student Pastor Parish House.—At the last session of the conference the district superintendents were ordered to collect the amounts apportioned to the districts for the Student Pastor Parish House, and for the Asbury Monument in Washington, D. C. The amount given to Logansport district was apportioned to the charges, and every pastor responded with the full amount given to his charge. Both these claims were met in full. I had a note from Dr. Carroll, stating it was the largest amount given by any in our Methodism so far.

Ministerial Support.—The pastors' salaries have increased this year more than in any previous two years together. The salaries as they are now set for next year will show the following very gratifying advances over those reported to the conference one year ago: Alto $250, Amboy $100, Anoka $100, Arcadia $150, Atlanta $300, Bunker Hill $100, Cicero $450, Converse $200, Denver $200, Elwood $200, Forest $200, Galveston $200, Goldsmith 200, Greentown $300, Hillisburg $200, Hobbs and Aroma $200, Wheatland Avenue $300, Macy $200, Mexico $100, Miami $150, Richland $100, Russsiaville $100, Santa Fe $100, Sharpsville $300, Sheridan $100, Tipton $300, Twelve Mile $300, Walton $200, West Middleton $150, Windfall $200. With the new charges made this year Peoria $1,000 Centenary, in Kokomo $1,000, and Scircleville $700, the total cash salaries for the pastors alone for next year will be $58,000, an advance of $8,650 or fifty-seven per cent.

Benevolent Collections.—The increasing number of charges that have adopted the Duplex System of finance, and made an every-member canvass for both ends of the envelopes, has made it evident from the beginning of the year that we would have a good report for all our benevolent causes. Every charge will be in the "up" column. Tipton has the largest increase, it being $2,224 over any previous year. It remains to be determined whether Ben. Kendall or W. B. Freeland leads the district in the amount of benevolences paid. A splendid company of tithers has had much to do with this splendid result. Cicero leads the district in the per cent of increase, it being 466 per cent. Thirty-two charges pay all claims in full and enough of these have gone so far above their apportionments that they have made up for the delinquents, and the district apportionment will be in full. The total increase for the district will be $8,100. The increase for the six years is 147 per cent, or from $13,956 to $34,500.

District Organization.—At the beginning of the year the district was organized into nine groups for a campaign of education on the great benevolent interests of the church, and to promote every cause that had to do with the district as a unit of organization. Charles H. Smith was the district missionary secretary, and one of the chairmen of the groups. The other chairmen were H. A. B. Homer, W. B. Freeland, W. C. Asay, L. G. Jacobs, U. S. Hartly, E. E. Trippeer, J. F. Radcliffe, and H. R. Carson. A secretary was also chosen for each of the groups. The campaign was conducted in the fall and the meetings were well supported by both pastors and people.

The Centenary.—No movement of the church for many years has been more opportune or more necessary than the Centenary movement. There are two great needs of the hour. The world needs the gospel of Jesus Christ, which this movement will help to give, and the church needs the vitalizing influence of a great task. The absolute certainty of its success is becoming more and more apparent. The work of the Centenary has been progressing during the entire year. The first weeks of the conference year were given to the Stewardship Campaign. All the pastors preached on the subjects assigned by the Centenary committee, and presented the pledge cards for tithers. Over 800 signed the covenant, and names are being added constantly. It is safe to say that the unusual advance in salaries and the splendid increase in benevolent offerings of the Logansport district this year can be traced to the influence of the tithing campaign. It has made a revolution in church affairs at Alto, where H. W. Park has kept the subject before the people all the year. A few weeks before conference the official board met at their own call and, after carefully discussing the matter, they all agreed to sign the tithing covenant. Other members were secured to join them in this. and as a result they find they pay a better salary, become a station; and after paying all the running expenses of the church, have money left to pay their share of the Centenary apportionment, each year. The only difficulty in the way of making them a station is that both ends of the charge want Brother Park for their pastor.

The Minute men have been at work all over the district, and the progress they are making is a delightful surprise. The spirit with which they have taken hold of their work, and the marked ability they have shown in presenting the great causes of the church has been a revelation to all, and I think to themselves. If a new era of lay preaching shall result from this movement it will be a glad day for the Methodist church.

Will the Centenary succeed? Is it possible to raise the vast amount of money required and to put the "go" into the church that is intended by this great movement? Are not the leaders of our Methodism dreaming a strange dream? Do these leaders not know that it has been necessary for us to cast off our old slow conveyances, and replace them with the swift-moving and costly vehicles of the day? Are they not aware that our Methodist people have had to buy vast amounts of Liberty Bonds on which they can draw interest but twice a year? Do they not know thousands of our best Methodist members have been caught by this Income Tax business? Is it right to ask our splendid Methodist people, in the face of all these things, to change from the old habit of giving one cent a week for the extension of the Kingdom of God, to paying one and one-half cents a day to meet the mightiest opportunity ever given to man to put Christ into the life of the world? An opportunity to touch the chaos of the present institutions of men and crystallize them around the teaching of the Great Master of life. There are no good and sufficient reasons now why this question of success should not be in our serious thought, first it must succeed. Help must come from God through the means of his church. It must come now. It cannot wait another year. Help must come in a large way because the task is large. And the second is: we have put our hands to the plow and we cannot turn back. It would blight the name of our great church; and I think Christ would hide his face from us for a thousand years if we would fail him in this hour.

Revivals and Membership.—The pastors made careful preparations for early revival meetings, and many of them were in progress with good prospects of success when the churches were closed by the health authorities. When they were again opened for services, conditions had changed and many difficulties were confronted. E. E. Trippeer, of Main Street Church, Kokomo, reports the largest number of conversions occurring in any one meeting in the district. Here 115 were converted and about the same number joined the church. H. R. Carson held a very successful meeting at Hopewell, in which twenty-seven were converted. At Alto thirty-nine were converted and joined the church. At Atlanta, LeRoy Myers had forty-seven con verted and a great revival of church interest. Cicero had a very gracious revival that made a deep impression on the community for good. Russiaville experienced one of the best revivals of her history. The spiritual life of the church was greatly helped and many were converted. John Parker had a gracious revival at Miami, in which many prayed through to victory. J. Ira Jones had thirty-four conversions at Sheridan. The total number of conversions reported is 610, and the number of accessions amounted to 840. We will have a net increase in the membership of 320. This is not as great as it should be, and I am in perfect accord with our Bishop in his plan to make the next great drive of the church, a drive for the conversion of men to be brought into membership.

The Sunday Schools.—Two years ago the alarm was sounded by the Board of Sunday Schools that the enrollment and the attendance of our Sunday schools was on the decline. This was no false alarm, for the disagreeable facts were before us; but I am glad to say that a change for the better has come in the Logansport district. We are gaining much of our lost ground. The average attendance reported the last quarter of the year is very encouraging. Peru Sunday School is the largest school on the district. The large Men's Bible class is a very influential factor in this church, and very faithfully supported C. H. Smith, the pastor of the church, in his courageous effort to clean up the city. The splendid co-operation of the Protestant ministers of Peru has made the ministry a terror to evil doers. They are very earnest in their desire that their ranks be not broken by the removal of the pastor of this church, and have so made their desires known to the Bishop.

The Women's Work.—Too much cannot be said for the noble women who make up the Ladies' Aid Society of the churches. Their work results in the betterment of the church in so many ways. They are constantly tiding churches over hard places and sending them on to victory. The Ladies' Aid Societies of the district have raised $11,491 this year.

Better Business Methods.—The old uncertainty about the pastors receiving their salaries in full from the charges has almost completely disappeared. The laymen are taking seriously this matter of ministerial support and, not only is the pastor sure of his money, but he receives it promptly like other people do. The salaries for the Logansport district are nearly all set for next year, with a fine advance over the previous year. The every-member canvass has been made and the support for the new year is assured. The new district superintendent will have a clear field and a happy time.

A Closing Word.—I am profoundly thankful to the heavenly Father for sparing my life to complete a second term as a district superintendent. The period of this service has been in a most interesting time of our church life. During this time the work of a district superintendent has undergone a great change. The old methods will not answer for the new conditions. One of the direct causes of this change has been the more efficient supervision we are receiving from our Bishops since they have been assigned to residential areas. I go from this office with a profound sense of its importance to our beloved church and the Kingdom of God. I have tried to render a faithful service to the conference and advance its every interest. It has been a constant inspiration to do team work with the noble men who have been so long associated with me in the cabinet. They are men with whom it has been easy to compete, and yet men as unselfish as it is possible for district superintendents to be. I greatly rejoice in the high standing of the North Indiana Conference in the great activities of the church, and I am glad to be able to say that the Logansport district has not been a barrier to this upward reach.

I want to sincerely thank Bishop Nicholson for his faithful council and his untiring efforts to help me in my work. He has been a true guide and an inspiration to me at all times.

Next to my God and my family the North Indiana Conference is my chief joy. I love her men, I love her ways and her push for every good movement. I love her fine fellowship and her true religious atmosphere. My prayer is that God shall continue his blessing upon her.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

James A. Beatty.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren: The world has awakened and opened her eyes upon a new day. For more than four years we watched the inky black war clouds which threatened the entire world. This conference year will be ever memorable because on the 11th day of November, 1918, the awful struggle ended. The new day has come like a bright sun emerging from a long clouded atmosphere. Prophecies are fast being fulfilled. "A nation is born in a day." The sandy foundations of kingdoms and empires have crumbled and crowned heads have sought their hiding places. The voice of the prophet is again stirring us to activity, "Arise and shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. The Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising."

Muncie district is heartily joining with the church in putting on the great program of this new day. The huge task challenges our admiration. Pastors and people are facing it as victors in the name of Him who has promised to bring us off more than conquerors through Him that hath loved us and given himself for us.

The closing of the world's greatest war has brought the supreme victory of all time. The church is catching the spirit of this new and victorious day and expects a like victory. The year has been full of activity and full of serious difficulties. Sickness and death has saddened many of our homes. The ranks have been depleted; but out of every sickness our God is able to bring a better health. "We look unto the hills whence cometh our help; our help cometh from the Lord."

Changes.—Out of thirty-three conference men and seven supplies, appointed by Bishop Nicholson at Warsaw, thirty remained where appointed, and with others who have joined them are ready to make outstanding reports. About the middle of July Sherman Powell was released from Hartford City charge, at the request of Dr. Ralph S. Cushman, to take up work with the Centenary. Lewis Reeves supplied them for three Sundays; then Emory M. Dunbar was taken from Fortville and appointed to this important charge. His success here clearly justifies this appointment which will be further evidenced in his report. W. H. Harrison was taken from Yorkown, where he had raised the most embarrassing debt in the district, and appointed to Fortville, where he is bringing things to pass in his usual ine way. Rev. J. Walter Gibson, coming to us from the United Brethren Church, was placed at Yorktown. He had one of the best revivals of the year, and the church advances their salary $200 for next year. July 23d, P. H. Walter was granted a release from the DeSoto charge to go into an office in Fort Wayne for the better support of his family. J. H. McNary was immediately employed, has had a victorious time, and increased the pastoral support $300. The middle of August, E. G. Giggy asked to be eleased from the Alexandria Circuit to accept a more lucrative position s principal of the public schools in Macksville, Kansas. Mont C. Oliver was taken from Florida to complete the year on the Alexandria Circuit, nd has done it so well they promise a fine increase for next year. Homer Wright has completed the year at Florida. P. E. Greenwalt was appointed n army chaplain, the first of August, and was released from Lapel. The uthorities advanced him so rapidly that in two month's time he was on his way overseas, and then quickly to the front where he engaged in some of he most thrilling activities of the war. J. O. Bills was secured for this nportant charge, which he has taken care of in a fine way. The season of the year being good for making changes, we made a direct change between A. G. Kiger, of Matthews, and L. H. Nixon, of Grace Church, Anderson. The reasons were good for this change as it accommodated both the men and the charges. September 1st, Barton R. Pogue was released from the Whitely charge to continue his school work in Boston Theological Seminary. W. O. Moulton was immediately appointed, and has done such efficient work they promise him an increase of $100 for next year. G. N. Callaway was released from Avondale, Muncie, and transferred to the Idaho Conference. E. B. Westhafer, conference evangelist, was immediately placed in charge. He has had a splendid revival, organized and inspired the church, so they promise an increase of $300 on pastoral support for next year. Bishop Nicholson, I am a bit late in announcing this semi-annual conference we held in Muncie district without inviting the other members of the cabinet to participate.

Retired Preachers.—Twelve retired preachers are enrolled with us. Nine live within the bounds of the district. Rev. J. A. Ruley lives in Lansing, Michigan; Drs. W. F. Walker and Williams live in Indianapolis. J. H. McNary has been in charge at DeSoto for two-thirds of the year, and has never done more efficient work. Rev. Richard H. Smith came to his crowning at his home in Alexandria in the early winter. The kindly, gentle spirit of this good man took its flight while he was walking about the house. He was a true prophet of God. For forty-six years he was a member of this conference—loved, honored, and respected.

Special Appointments.—Our Quarterly Conferences are honored by having five of our members in special service: Dr. Fred B. Fisher, executive chairman of the India Mass Movement Commission of the Board of Foreign Missions; Professor H. B. Gough, teacher in DePauw University; Rev. C. J. Everson, field secretary of the Anti-Saloon League; Rev. Fremont E. Fribley, Student Pastor Purdue University; Rev. E. B. Westhafer, conference evangelist, now pastor at Avondale, Muncie.

Improvements and Debts Paid.—There has been no building and very little improving of churches and parsonage property this year. Prices were too high and laborers too scarce. Noble Street, Anderson, E. J. Wickersham, pastor, were obliged to install a new heating plant. They will also re-roof and redecorate the church and fit up the basement to take care of their growing Sunday school and larger social interests. This will cause an outlay of $2,500, which has been largely provided for.

Normal City is putting a fine basement and changing the heating plant at a cost of $1,600. This is one of our growing churches, and now with the State Normal well established, it is one of our important fields, and the future outlook is promising. Preston Pohlemus is the popular pastor. Other charges have made the following expenditures: Albany $200, Fishers $477, Hartford City $350, Indiana Avenue, Anderson, $165, DeSoto $300, Jolietville $400, Avondale, Muncie, $145, High Street, Muncie, $1,003, New Burlington $300, First Church, Noblesville, $183, Noblesville Circuit $379, Perkinsville $160. Several other churches spending smaller amounts making a total of $7,967.

The district this year has been relieved of its most embarrassing debts. A debt of $4,600 at Yorktown, with the help of the Home Missionary Board and the heroic work of William Henry Harrison, the pastor, has been entirely wiped out. It has given this church a new lease on life. A debt of $2,200 at Grace Church, Anderson, which has been embarrassing them for more than ten years, and on account of it came near losing their church, has been provided for, and three-fourths of it already paid. We again recognize the generous help of the Home Missions and Church Extension Society. Without their help the task would have been quite impossible. Lapel has wiped the slate clean of $5,000, and relieved every claim of man against this fine, new church. J. O. Bills is the efficient pastor. Beal's Chapel, on the Perkinsville charge, has taken care of $1,100 of several years' standing. J. L. Williams, the pastor, wisely managed this affair. First Church, Noblesville, had $1,000 recorded against them. That hater of church debts, Dr. C. E. Line, could not rest good at night until the last dollar was turned in to relieve it. With all debts paid and all the finances in ideal condition, he is one of the happiest pastors in this conference.

Other debts paid were as follows: Albany $600, Indiana Avenue, Anderson, $225, Carmel $100, Hartford City $350, Avondale, Muncie, $63, Madison Street, Muncie, $200, Noblesville Circuit $100, Pendleton $120. Total debts paid $15,558.

Church Organizations.—The church organizations remain the same, but show a fine increased activity. With the closing of the war and sickness abating the Sunday schools have largely increased in attendance, interest and giving. The graded system is becoming more popular and a higher state of efficiency is being reached.

Twenty-seven chapters of the Epworth League is reported with a membership of about 1,500. These organizations are not increasing in activity these Centenary days as they should. The Junior Leagues are outdoing the Seniors. They report five new organizations this year.

The Women Societies are keeping step with the rapid movements of the day. Many of the Ladies' Aid Societies report the best work they have ever accomplished. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies are setting a merry pace for the other districts of the conference. Their pledge last year was $4,000. They report from conference to conference $7,000. This year they expect to more than double last year's pledge. They have surely caught the spirit of the Centenary. The Woman's Home Missionary Society has not so many auxiliaries, but are extending their work, and have made a fine advance over last year.

District Meetings.—An enthusiastic Pastors' and District Stewards' Meeting, April 23d, in First Church, Alexandria. The program for the year was outlined and unanimously adopted. The Epworth League Convention also met in First Church, Alexandria, June 18th-20th, and had for their speakers, Drs. E. H. Richards and J. W. Potter and evangelist T. Edward Thomas. The Woman's Home Missionary Society met in Middletown and the Foreign Missionary Society met in High Street, Muncie. The Benevolence Campaign opened with a central meeting in First Church, Anderson, where Doctor Mills, of the Home Missionary and Church Extension Board, and the district superintendents of the conference made inspiring addresses. The balance of the campaign was carried forward, in a very fine way, by the pastors, emphasizing all the important features of the Centenary program. We had a central meeting for each of the eight groups, and Dr. J. W. Potter, who is a genius with maps and charts, and is the District and Area Stewardship secretary, rendered invaluable service in each of these group meetings. Rev. Preston Polhemus skillfully used the lantern, giving us the stereopticon views, adding much to the interest of the meetings. Settlement Day and the Sunday School Institute was conducted in High Street, Muncie, December 9th and 10th. Nothwithstanding the influenza was at its worst, and we had a continuous downpour of rain, it was a success. Drs. W. S. Bovard and W. A. Brown made it seem worth while to come. The school at First Church, Alexandria, captured the library offered for the largest number of delegates.

These district meetings were properly climaxed in the district conference, held in First Church, Anderson. We had a fine start on Tuesday night with the coming of Dr. C. P. Hargrave, of Columbus, Ohio. He gave us a fine stereopticon survey of the home field Tuesday night, and a thrilling address Wednesday morning. Wednesday was the greatest day ever witnessed in a district meeting. For several weeks the laymen had been planning a Centenary rally. As usual they planned for large things. Committees were appointed, boosters were sent out and a great program was planned, with Bishop Thomas Nicholson, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, as the speakers. When the men arrived on trains, automobiles and special interurban cars, a street parade was formed of more than a thousand men, stretching across twelve squares with four bands and many significant banners. The great auditorium and side galleries were reserved for the men which they more than filled. Every available space in this great church was filled. Masterful addresses were delivered by Bishop Nicholson and Dr. Fisher. Following this great demonstration the interest the next day did not lag. This great conference had a fitting close with a fine program by the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, with addresses by Mrs. Professor O. M. Pittenger and Miss Mary Collins.

Spiritual Awakening and Membership.—While working against the worst scourge of sickness the country ever experienced, the district had the best revivals for several years. The pastors held their own meetings. Only two or three charges in the district secured help. Delaware County put on a simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign, which resulted in a great religious awakening. Our sister denominations received a like benefit with us. I most heartily recommend this kind of campaign, making the county the unit, which makes a fine substitute for the former tabernacle meetings, which have largely gone into history. There were quite a number of outstanding revivals which will be indicated by the number converted and reclaimed in the following charges: High Street, Muncie, D. T. Stephenson, pastor, 155; 139 by letter, making a total of 294; First Church, Anderson, J. W. Potter, pastor, 39; and 69 by letter, total 100; Hartford City, E. M. Dunbar, 90; Albany, J. H. Palmer, 70; Matthews, L. H. Nixon, 92; Muncie, Avondale, E. B. Westhafer, 67; Madison Street, J. S. Newcombe, 44; Normal City, Preston Polhemus, 42; Jolietville, Edward Antle, 48; Yorktown, J. Walter Gibson, 43; DeSoto, J. H. McNary, 30; Eaton, C. B. Dougherty, 30; Daleville, H. E. Forbes, 30; New Burlington, B. E. Jones, 30; Alexandria, E. C. Dunn, 24; Perkinsville, J. L. Williams, 20; Selma, V. B. Hargitt, 20; Summitville Circuit, Ross Hutsinpiller, 18; Whiteley, W. O. Moulton, 17; Anderson, Indiana Avenue, Herbert Perry, 37; Noble Street, E. J. Total number received into the church, 1,178.

Finance and Benevolences.—Our churches have worked against many hindrances this year. The heavy pull for the various war drives has not depleted us, but only strengthened us for the greater tasks. The church had fallen upon evil times of exhaustion and luxury. The call to the larger tasks and sacrificial giving has become our salvation.

Twenty-four churches have increased their ministerial support $4,500 this year. Although our churches have all been closed, and some of them for several weeks' duration, salaries have never been paid more promptly and with better spirit. The following charges have made advances ranging from $50 to $500; Noble Street and Park Place, Anderson; Carmel, Daleville and Mt. Zion, DeSoto, Fishers, Gaston, Jolietville, Lapel, Middletown; Avondale, High Street, Normal City, Muncie; New Burlington, Perkinsville, Roll, Selma, Shideler, Summitville, Summitville Circuit, Westfield and Yorktown.

Twenty-five charges have already promised an advance for next year totaling $5,000. They are as follows: Alexandria, Alexandria Circuit, Anderson, First Church, Grace Church, Indiana Avenue, Noble Street, Park Place, Daleville and Mt. Zion, Fortville, Fishers, Hartford City, Jolietville, Matthews, Muncie, Avondale, Madison Street, Normal City, Whiteley, Noblesville Circuit, Perkinsville, Selma, Summitville, Summitville Circuit, Yorktown.

As to the benevolences, Muncie district is marching on in the "good new way." Last year we set a pace for the entire conference. We are still going forward with a steady tread and a good advance over last year. Every charge is ready to report its full apportionment as a minimum, both disciplinary and conference. Quite a number of charges have a good surplus above the apportionments. We are not here to boast. We are thanking our divine Father it is our privilege to live in a day like this when men are taking the long look, and by faith will step over and possess the land. I wish you could have witnessed the fine spirit of delight with which these splendid pastors and lay people manifested while putting Muncie district in the sun, and in the front rank of all Methodism.

Bishop Nicholson, I count it a privilege to be a toiler with the fine pastors and people of this great district. By reason of recent programs put on, two of our churches have become leaders in the conference, the state and the church. High Street, Muncie, under the leadership of Dr. D. T. Stephenson, has collected and paid out $23,500, and taken into the church more than 300 people. First Church, Anderson, with that invincible leader, Dr. J. W. Potter, does not take second place, but has made an equal record. This is the first church in the district which has gone "over the top" in the intensive drive in the Centenary. I could name more than a score of other churches which have proportionately advanced with these.

We have every charge organized for the Centenary program. The bigness of it challenges our admiration. It ought to get the church to her knees. The financial objective, big as it is, is not the supreme thing about it. The $105,000,000 is necessary, but it is incidental. Three other things are fundamental, viz.: The Life of Intercessory Prayer; The Life of Christian Stewardship; The Life of Christian Service.

We have about one half of our quota of tithers. The campaign will not be over until we get the full number expected of us. Four churches have their full quota or more: Park Place, Anderson, P. B. Smith, pastor; Whiteley, Muncie, W. O. Moulton, pastor; Matthews, L. H. Nixon, pastor; Fortville, W. H. Harrison, pastor.

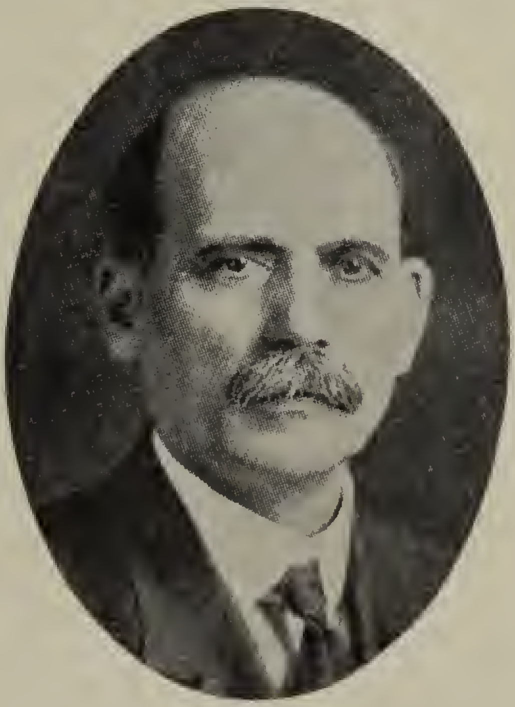
Finally.—If we are to achieve complete success in the greatest undertaking of the church, it cannot be done alone with programs and ideals and philosophies. We must have an adequate Power House, a living Personality who will pour floods of his own vitality into our impoverished souls. We must draw our spiritual force out of a living fellowship with the living Christ. Statics must yield her place to dynamics. From her knees the church must lift up her hands and grasp the hand Divine. We must emphasize Intercession, Stewardship, Life Service above that of the financial objective, then will the church come to her largest sacrificial giving. The church, vitalized with communion with God, will be a church clothed with power.

"Were the whole realm of nature mine,
  That were a present far too small,
Love so amazing, so divine,
  Demands my life, my soul, my all."

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren: In spite of continued disturbances attendant upon war conditions during the first half of the conference year, and later the ravages of the influenza epidemic, resulting not only in great loss of life, but also in ban after ban upon church services, it may be truthfully said that we have come through all to the close of one of the best years in the history of the Richmond district. Forty of the forty-one men appointed to the charges of this district remained in place throughout the year, and by unusual faithfulness and devotion to their life work, have made this report possible. October first, J. C. Erwin surrendered Third Church, Richmond, to take a position with Grace Church, New York. L. P. Pfeifer was taken from Saratoga to fill this vacancy, and Clyde S. Miller, who had been in Y. M. C. A. war work was secured for Saratoga. Both men have done excellent work and are here with good reports. With but two exceptions, no serious illness has visited the parsonage homes. The families of Brothers R. C. Ballard, of Economy, and W. O. Power, of Losantville, were seriously ill about the holiday season with influenza and pneumonia. These efficient pastors were confined to their rooms for several weeks, but apparently made good recoveries and closed a good year's work. Others were ill for a few days, but were soon up and at it again. The hearts of E. A. Bunner and wife, of Charlottesville, were made glad on July 14, 1918, by the advent of Virginia Ruth. At the Third Quarterly Conference session in December,



Somerville Light.

the district superintendent had the pleasure of baptizing this little miss. August 2d, at 7 A. M., Genevieve Louise Henderson came to gladden the inmates of the Fountain City parsonage.

Retired Ministers.—Four supernumerary and four retired ministers are enrolled with us. Dr. G. H. Hill went to his crowning, Sunday, May 26th, from the city of Richmond. He and his wife had come to the city the evening before to attend the dedicatory services for the new Grace Methodist Church. Soon after his arrival in the city Brother Hill was stricken and in a few hours was in the church triumphant. He was a good, great man, and gave the church of his choice a rich ministry. Dr. Frank G. Browne is spending the days of his retirement in the fellowship of good books and is happy in literary research. Brother Sylvester Billheimer resides on his farm near Hagerstown. R. T. Laslie is in Kentucky, sad and broken-hearted, because of the loss of his faithful wife. The hand of affliction rested heavily upon the entire family, but the children were spared. M. R. Pierce is in Greenfield; his health is greatly broken. The year has been one of suffering. Brother J. O. Bills has been in charge and has done good work for Lapel. Brother Harlan resides in Union City where he sustains a brotherly relation to the pastor and people. E. C. Hallman is in Delaware, and R. I. Black is in a charge in the Indiana Conference.

Special Appointments.—R. S. Shaw has been in army Y. M. C. A. service. The Greenfield Quarterly Conference is honored by being represented on the faculty of DePauw University by Professor W. W. Sweet.

District Meetings.—The Pastors' and District Stewards' meeting held in First Church, Richmond, May 7th, was largely attended by both pastors and laymen (125 were present). The Woman's Home Missionary Society convention was held in New Castle, June 6th and 7th. The reports showed a good advance over former years. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society convention could not be held because of the "flu." The Epworth League convention, held in Grace Church, Richmond, was representative of this excellent body of young poeple—thirty-eight of the forty-one pastors of the district led their young people, in loyal support of all plans for the endorsement and advancement of the work. Dr. Lowry, our medical missionary in China, with his wife, attended and addressed the convention. $1,300 was subscribed for his support.

The district superintendent with the district missionary secretary, H. L. Overdeer, attended the District Superintendent's convention, held in Columbus, Ohio, June 17th-21th. Brother A. H. Backus, district stewardship secretary, spent the month of July in the New York offices.

The District Centenary Training Conference.—In September we united with the other five districts in a series of training conferences, all of which were well attended and productive of great good. The district superintendents with Centenary speakers from the central offices, gave the addresses. The Richmond district meeting was held in Winchester, September 23d and 24th. Drs. Frey of Honolulu and Frieze of India, Dr. Fred B. Fisher of our own conference, and Superintendents Martin, Wade, Hollopeter, Beatty, and Marble gave inspiring addresses, which were highly appreciated. Forty-one of the forty-one pastors answered roll call. Four hundred and thirty-nine people were in the auditorium at one time—1,120 persons attended the services of the day. This meeting was immediately followed by the Centenary Church-in-Action Campaign, which carried the Centenary message and program to every church in the district.

Settlement Day and Sunday School Institute.—Nothwithstanding the fact that the influenza prevented the usual attendance, this combination meeting was full of interest and productive of great good. Doctors W. S. Bovard and A. A. Browne with Mrs. Mary Moorehouse, gave great messages full of instruction and inspiration.

Sunday Schools and the Centenary.—March 11th and 12th Dr. W. J. Davidson, Area Sunday-school director, visited the six divisions of the district in the interest of organization for the Centenary campaign. A good program was put on at Richmond, Greenfield, Newcastle, Dunkirk, and Winchester. Every pastor responded to the call. Practically the entire district organization joined these pastors in this heartening response. A most representative body of laymen attended each meeting. Mr. Horace

L. Burr, of Newcastle, the district Sunday-school director, with the subdistrict directors, did energetic follow-up work and soon had the whole district organized.

District Conference.—The Centenary District Conference was held in our historic church located in Centerville. Pastor O'Connor and wife, with their loyal hospitable people, provided first-class entertainment for their guests, and thereby made all feel at home. The entire program stressed the Centenary. Dr. W. H. Neil gave the opening address Tuesday night, March 11th. Dr. C. R. Hargrave gave a rapid-fire message on Wednesday night, and Bishop Nicholson closed the conference with a great message on Thursday night. The other speakers from without the district were Dr. John W. Potter, stewardship secretary of the Chicago area, whose masterful address on Proportionate Giving was highly appreciated, and Mrs. Susie Aiken Winold, field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, our own Mrs. Florence C. Binford, conference secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, ably represented this great Woman's Society.

Resolutions.—Besides the usual complimentary words, resolutions against the Sunday movies, and all efforts to ward off and evade inevitable, national prohibition were unanimously passed. The whole Centenary program, including quotas was heartily accepted. Every charge is organized and many are now awaiting marching orders, "over the top." Five young men were granted license to preach and two were recommended for admission to the conference.

Dedication of Churches.—The new $55,000 church was fully completed and dedicated. Its name is Grace; its location is Richmond, Indiana. Sunday, May 26th, was a bright, beautiful Sabbath. Pastor and people after the long strain were hilariously happy. Bishop Nicholson, who had been called to preach the sermon and conduct the dedicatory services, not only preached a glorious gospel, but also gave forth the words of a great Christian statesman. It is interesting to note that this church was formally dedicated without the usual dedicatory-service appeal for money—every dollar having been subscribed in advance of dedication day. Though the subscription was taken on the five-year basis, more than a third has been paid this year. The amount contributed per capita by this congregation this year is $37. Brother Overdeer has had two very successful years with this growing church located in a difficult field.

Greenboro, on the Kenard charge, C. E. Smith, pastor, with a membership of forty-two, undertook a new church enterprise and carried it through with good courage and good success. On November 24th, Dr. W. S. Bovard took charge of the finances and dedicated this beautiful countryside church; erected with the community center idea in mind.

Buildings and Improvements.—Chester, L. F. Ulmer, purchased a parsonage for $1,600 and expended $414 on improvements—$2,104. Maxwell, O. P. Van Y, completed and dedicated a new $3,000 parsonage. Willow Branch, B. H. Franklin, dedicated a new $3,500 parsonage and beautified the Eden Church at an expense of $601. Dunkirk, A. H. Backus, improved the parsonage at a cost of $700. Economy, R. C. Ballard, $340 on the church; Greenfield, O. A. Trabue, $250 on the church; Losantville, W. O. Power, $310 on the churches; Lynn, M. B. Graham, $469 on church and parsonage; McCordsville, Fred Chelan, $165 on church and parsonage; Millgrove, Joseph Grimes, $147 on the churches; Pennville, A. F. Hogan, $900 on church furnishings; Philadelphia, E. L. Gates, $132 on the parsonage; Portland Circuit, E. E. Franklin, $521 on the churches; Redkey, D. V. Williams, $400 on church furnishings; Ridgeville, D. C. Beatty, $547 on Ridgeville church; Shirley, G. E. Hughes, $448 on church and parsonage; Spiceland, C. W. Anderson, $139 on church and parsonage; Union City, A. Cates, $460 on church and parsonage; Winchester, H. S. Nickerson, $175 on church.

Only one charge in the district is without a parsonage, but several need extensive repair, while in a few instances nothing but new houses will suffice. Portland, Winchester, Dublin, and Union City expect to act in the near future.

Debts Paid.—Cambridge City $1,200, Lynn $2,700, Modoc $140, Portland Circuit $428, Redkey $1,000, Richmond, First Church, $325, Richmond, Grace Church, $20,000, Richmond, Third Church, $55, Lewisville $350, Pennville

$3,432. Total, $29,630. The indebtedness at the present time, not covered with what is considered good subscriptions, totals $13,626.

Church Literature.—The "Western Christian Advocate" shows a substantial gain over last year (170). Sunday-school periodicals are increasing in favor from year to year. I note with no small degree of concern a decrease in subscribers for the "Epworth Herald." This certainly should receive the careful attention of pastors and Epworth League officers.

The Departmental Work of the Churches.—In spite of the war conditions the earlier part of the year and the health situation, the latter months, the Sunday schools appear to be coming back to normal levels. All are organized into missionary societies and contribute regularly to missions. The contributions this year total $2,874, a good gain over last year. Portland again leads with $200. Grace Church, Richmond, is second with $160. Richmond, First, $142, Union City $138, New Castle $136, Dunkirk $104, Redkey $103, Greenfield $100; Markleville leads the circuits with $129, Modoc next with $110, Winchester circuit $100, Parker, close up with $96. The other schools range from $88 down to $5. We have thirty-nine senior Epworth League chapters with a membership of about 2,000. The Junior League chapters, numbering about fifteen, are doing good work where properly organized. The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised $11,780, a good advance over last year, and are doing excellent work for the kingdom. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have more than met their pledges, gone way beyond goals fixed, organized many new auxiliaries and report a total of $7,630 raised, against $1,942 over last year.

Evangelism and Membership.—The influenza contended every inch of the ground during the entire season, usually depended upon by the pastors for protracted evangelism. However, better results have been achieved than those reported last year.

We report 1,031 conversions; received into preparatory membership 662; received by certificate 469. While the net gain in membership is not large, we report an advance over last year. The most extensive revivals are as follows: Newcastle, where the pastor, W. W. Wiant, was his own evangelist—250 were converted, 237 united with the church. The pastor and official board of the Redkey Church assisted by a good sane evangelist, led in a good campaign which resulted in about 100 conversions and reclamations. A fine body of young people united with the church, and thereby made possible the organization of a splendid Epworth League chapter. One of the most remarkable and far-reaching revivals of my four years on this district occurred at Knightstown, under the leadership of the pastor, W. E. Hogan. The entire city and surrounding communities seemed to be completely stirred. Ninety-three were converted and seventy received into the church. Other pastors whose opportunties were not quite so large, toiled hard and scored good successes. Modoc, C. A. Mitchell, pastor, reports sixty conversions with seventy-five accessions. This charge has been completely made over, and is destined to be one of the most desirable circuits in the district. Lewisvills, J. S. Phillips his own evangelist, reports fifty-six conversions. Spiceland, C. W. Anderson, pastor, forty-eight conversions. This has been the best year of Brother Anderson's ministry thus far. Portland circuit, E. E. Franklin, pastor, reports fifty conversions. These meetings conducted by this wide-awake young man saved one of his churches from lock and key, and led a whole countryside to a new life. Charlottesville, E. A. Bunner, pastor, thirty conversions. As usual this brother has done a year's work which will tell for eternity. Markleville, E. H. Taylor, pastor, thirty conversions. Brother W. E. Hogan assisted the pastor in this most difficult field. Chester, L. F. Ulmer, pastor, twenty-three conversions. Brother Ulmer has had a good year in this new charge. Losantville, W. O. Power, pastor, twenty-five conversions. In three years Brother Power has made this a good, substantial circuit. Williamsburg, R. M. Morris, pastor, twenty conversions at Webster. This revival saved that country church, and has put it in line with Methodism's program. The other pastors who have toiled faithfully, report conversions ranging from twenty-two to three. In this connection, permit me to say that in some communities because of unreasonable health authorities, revival campaigns were impossible. For instance, the Ridgeville Methodist Church was closed and kept closed for sixteen or seventeen weeks. Brother Beatty tried again and again but could do nothing but yield to the local handicap. Notwithstanding these handicaps, this plucky young preacher stood his ground; tramped from house to house, from store to store, and from shop to shop for benevolences, and now reports $116 above the apportionment and a sixty-five per cent gain over last year. No Sunday preacher only. An every-day preacher teaching his churches to be every-day churches.

Salaries.—At the opening of the conference year, six charges which had not attended to this important matter, advanced their salaries, viz.: Chester $100, Dublin $200, Farmland $100, Knightstown $300, Lewisville $100, and Saratoga $250. These with the advances for this year reported at the conference session in Warsaw, gave us the coveted record, viz.: Every charge in the district advancing salary during the four years. The first year fifteen charges advanced; the second, nineteen charges; the third, twenty charges; the fourth, twenty-eight charges. The total advance for the four years $18,505. The following charges have advanced for next conference year: Cambridge City $200, $1,200 salary; Charlotteville $100, $1,100; Chester $200, $1,200; Dublin $200, $1,000; Dunkirk $200, $1,700; Hagerstown $300, $1,300; Knightstown $300, $1,800; Kenard $200, $1,200; Lewisville $100, $1,200; Losantville $125, $1,000; Lynn $100, $1,300; Modoc $200, $1,200; Philadelphia $300, $1,000; Redkey $300, $1,500; Ridgeville $100, $1,200; Winchester Circuit $200, $1,200; Spiceland $200, $1,200; Willow Branch $200, $1,400; Salamonia $250, $1,000; Economy $200, $1,400; Pennville 200, $1,400; Fountain City $100, $1,100. Twopoint charge: Centerville $200, $1,200; Union City $200, $2,000; Greenfield $350, $2,000; Grace Church, Richmond, $100, $2,100; First Church, Richmond $100, $2,300; Newcastle $500, $2,500; total advance $5,525. The new work—Farmland station and circuit brings this up to $6,425. The average salary of the effective conference men in this district four years, $18,480; this year is $1,383. The average for the forty-one men is $1,237. Next year will not only show a good advance beyond these averages, but also bring the district, barring one charge, to the $1,000 minimum salary.

Benevolences.—Brethren, even Richmond district has at last attained. Every charge pays the disciplinary benevolences in full and running over. Every charge save one totals more than the apportionment. Newcastle leads the way this year. Richmond, First Church, second; Greenfield, third; and Portland, fourth; Grace Church, fifth. This church also ties Lynn in the largest per capita, giving $37; Union City, sixth; Winchester, seventh; Dunkirk, eighth; Knightstown, ninth; and Redkey, tenth. This charge scores the largest gain over last year. For the disciplinary benevolences we gave last year $21,169, this year $31,032, a gain of $9,863. For the four years the showing is as follows: 1914—eight boards—$7,741. This year $19,165—gain $11,324. Disciplinary benevolences, 1914—$11,548; this year $31,032—gain for the period $19,484.

The Centenary and Richmond District.—This district has the distinction of being the first in the Chicago area to report every charge organized for training preparatory to the campaign. Dunkirk, within this district, led the conference in priority of reaching the twenty per cent standard in stewardship pledges. We have 1,185 tithing cards signed, 2,531 allotment in full intercessor cards, and fifty have signed for life service—five above allotment. A little more push in behalf of Christian stewardship and we will stand 100 per cent on quota.

In Conclusion.—Dear Bishop Nicholson, I am proud of the fact that the good, brave men of this district are not looking backward. Theirs is the forward move. Send them where you will in the name of and for the Christ, and they will not fail Him or you. And the song with which they will go forward is the song of these Centenary days:

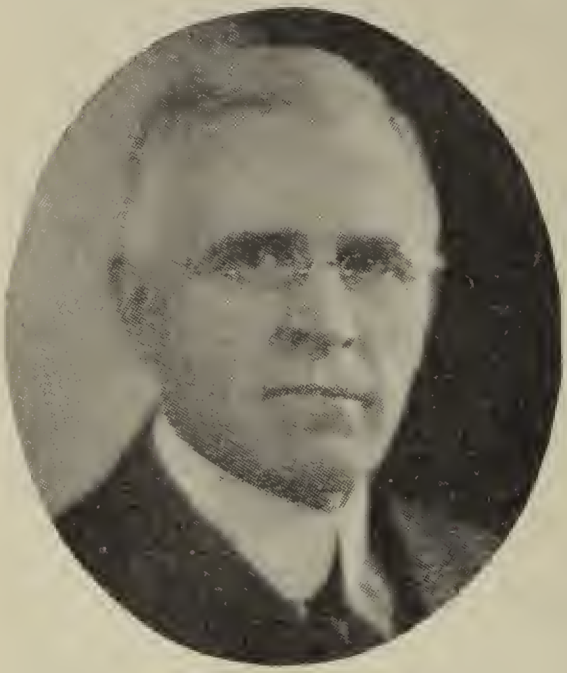
"Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of March has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest,
Thy tents shall be our home.
Through days of preparation—
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song."

WABASH DISTRICT.

Mitchell S. Marble, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren: The superintendent of the Wabash district presents the following report for the conference year 1918-19:

Necrology.—Death has relentlessly entered three of our parsonages, leaving a long train of sorrow and anguish.



M. S. Marble.

Mrs. Grace L. Burkett, wife of Rev. A. D. Burkett, pastor at Sweetser, was attacked with typhoid fever. The attack and progress of the disease was not violent and there was little occasion for alarm till Sunday, September 15, 1918, when she grew much worse and on the day following she slipped from the embrace of earthly companionships to the society of the heavenly host in the beautiful beyond. She left a husband and two sons, Merrill, aged fourteen years, and Luther, ten years old.

Again on February 27, 1919, our hearts were pained by the sudden departure from earthly scenes of toil and sacrifice of our brother in the ministry—the Rev. F. P. Johnson, highly honored pastor of the Churubusco circuit. The sadness of his funeral was intensified by the fact that his wife was near the gates of death from the same pitiless disease, influenza. She, the daughter, and the communities he served, are greatly afflicted by the loss of husband, father and scholarly, Christian gentleman.

Influenza entered the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Fischer, in North Manchester, and claimed a shining mark for its victim in the person of their only son, Kemper Fischer, a little past seventeen years of age at the time of his departure, which occurred on December 21, 1918. It is hard to pass on with the bare mention of these sad facts which make such a draught upon our sympathetic regard for these sorely-stricken homes. While influenza and other diseases have invaded several other homes of our preachers, causing great anxiety, and awakening our prayerful sympathy, these are the only deaths it is our mournful duty to record.

No deaths have been reported among those who went from parsonages to army service.

District Program.—On May 21, 1918, an enthusiastic meeting of the pastors was held in Wabash with four absent. One of these was in the southland; one was sick; one was detained by a funeral, and one had special work in a new church enterprise. The program adopted by this meeting has been kept in spirit. In letter it has been freqeuntly interrupted and rearranged to meet unexpected conditions arising from orders from public health officers and unavoidable contingencies. While this has occasioned much anxiety it has been a fine school in the trial of patience.

War Emergency.—The appeal for war emergency funds made by Bishop Henderson was responded to by every charge meeting its quota. This was done under the skillful management of Dr. L. A. Swisher, supported by Dr. J. C. White and Dr. T. M. Guild, other members of the committee. Preachers and laymen have occupied conspicuous places in the great war drives and have proven dependable in the realization of national ideals, courageous when national tranquility was in peril, magnanimous and somewhat hilarious in the hour of victory.

Wesley Foundation.—We exhibit our faith in and devotion to the principles of the Wesley Foundation by paying our apportionment in full. I have attended all the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the executive committee, and have taken active part in promoting larger plans for this organization which will be placed before you at this session.

Christian Education.—Reports of the committee on Education in quarterly conference contained the names of a number of Methodist youth in DePauw University. There were frequent discussions relating to prospective students. Greater emphasis should be placed upon the duties of this standing committee and the scope of its work.

The "Western Christian Advocate" is a persistent force in the intellectual as well as the spiritual life of Methodist folk, and we are pleased to note that the Wabash district is a leader among districts of the conference in the number of subscribers.

Epworth League.—A fine district convention of Epworth League was held in Marion, First Church, in June. Chapters are flourishing in various parts of the district, influencing the religious life of the local church and leading the way in philanthropic and benevolent work. The Rev. M. E. Barrett is district president, and Mrs. J. P. Chamness is district superintendent of Junior League.

Our Methodist Women.—We have no modern Euodius and Syntyche whose conduct justifies an exhortation from some modern apostle in the gospel "that they be of the same mind." With resolute purpose, singleness of aim and motive big enough to sustain them our women are found in the front line promoting every moral, philanthropic and religious enterprise championed by the noble women of the North Indiana Conference. In many places they are the acknowledged leaders, and they more than justify this recognition. The quarterly conference reports from the Ladies' Aid Societies show that this organization has raised this year $6,683.90. Under the merciless fire of pitiless criticism the Ladies' Aid Society has gone forward in the fearless performance of duty until they find themselves entrenched securely in the confidence and affectionate regard of the people whom they delight to serve. The criticism of the Ladies' Aid today is only an occasional random shot from a retreating foe.

Our woman's missionary organizations, both home and foreign, have another good year to their credit in disseminating missionary education, awakening missionary enthusiasm and in administering the offerings of the people which always follow educational and inspirational endeavor. Our Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has made tremendous gains. They are not marching in the rear rank, but at present are keeping step with the Fort Wayne district, the difference in the amount raised being less than twenty-five cents in favor of the latter.

Notwithstanding the great gains made throughout the conference our Woman's Home Missionary Society women rejoice in the fact that although they stand second in number of members, second in amount of money paid, and second in the number of new members secured, they do take first place in general advance and first place in per capita giving. In no department did they take a backward step during the year.

Building and Improvements.—At Sweetser a greatly-needed church improvement was made. A new location was secured, the old building used in the construction of the new one which is modern in every particular, finished with stucco, supplied with the very best furniture—all at the marvelously low cost of $12,000. It has been said that the plant could not now be constructed new throughout for less than $20,000. The corner stone of this building was laid on September 18th, by the Rev. J. C. White, D.D., the ceremonies being made a part of the funeral services of the pastor's wife, just before starting to Salem Church—the church of her childhood, the place of her conversion, her marriage and entrance upon the winding pathway of the Methodist itineracy, the place of the final funeral services conducted by the district superintendent, the place ever sacred in the memory of husband and children. Sweetser Church was dedicated on March 23, 1919, by the Rev. A. E. Smith, D.D., president of the Ohio Northern University. Money was never more easily raised. All was to be spot cash or paid by the first of next September. $2,500 was asked for. The people responded with $3,100. Every dollar was personal subscription with the exception of a small amount subscribed by the Ladies' Aid Society. On the next morning the trustees had enough cash to pay all obligations against the building with the exception of $100. They now have a church in which the whole community takes a just pride, and all agree that it is due to the faith, patience, industry, and resolute purpose of the pastor, the Rev. A. D. Burkett. Everything taken into consideration this must be regarded as an unusual achievement.

Pastors report other improvements as follows: Andrews, parsonage $100; Bippus $162; Gas City, church $1,100; Jonesboro, parsonage $165; Larwill, parsonage $500; Markle $159; Mentone $70; North Manchester $31; Point Isabel $204; Roanoke $50; Silver Lake $300; South Whitley $25; Swayzee $150; Uniondale $105; Wabash, First Church $1,000; Warren, parsonage $535.

Evangelism.—Not within the last six years were wiser plans laid for evangelistic endeavor. Never were plans more successfully frustrated. Nevertheless many excellent meetings were held, resulting in spiritual uplift to the congregations.

Benevolence.—All the benevolent enterprises, disciplinary, conference, and special, have been advanced. Pastors report a fine gain in disciplinary benevolences.

Humanitarian organizations called into larger activities by the war have been generously supported.

Ministerial Support.—There has been a steady advance in ministerial support. Pastors received $3,645 more this year than they received last year, and $9,755 more than was reported in 1913. The average cash receipts of the pastors is $243 more than it was when the present term began. If plans for next year are consummated there will be another increase amounting to $2,320, an average of $58 for each pastor. Other items of ministerial support have had corresponding increase.

In some places people have been generous with donations. South Whitley is a conspicuous example. That congregation rightly surmised that their pastor's wife would greatly enjoy being with her parents in far-away Oregon, at the time of their golden wedding anniversary, called at the parsonage and left with her a purse amounting to $101 to help pay the expense of the trip.

The great-hearted people in Churubusco, even while their own friends were falling prostrate under the heavy hand of the epidemic, moistened their gifts with their tears of sympathy and paid the funeral expenses of our dear Brother F. P. Johnson, nurse hired for himself and wife, the beloved physician, Dr. J. H. Briggs, presenting the committee a check in full against his charges for professional services cheerfully rendered both Brother and Sister Johnson. Brother Wehrly, station pastor, almost prostrate himself, kept steadily at the task and conducted as many as six "flu" funerals in one week.

The Centenary.—With enthusiastic co-operation among pastors and people the Centenary organization has been perfected, the machinery is in motion and we confidently expect a product equal to if not in excess of the official quota. Already, Upland, M. E. Barrett, pastor, has subscribed its quota. D. J. Imler, pastor at Home Park, conducted a successful Stewardship campaign, securing his quota of Christian stewards, and when he compared the weekly offerings of the people with the Centenary apportionment, found that his congregation was substantially on the Centenary basis.

Church Records.—Pastors have been careful, conscientious, and accurate in keeping the record of membership. Very few reports from committees on church records were made. This is unfortunate. The pastors need this report for their protection.

Only a profound sense of duty causes me to refer to our quarterly conference records. The book provided for that purpose is fine theoretically, but practically it is of little value in many of our charges. The recording steward with business training keeps the records fairly well. Otherwise in many cases it is poorly kept, and in some places there is no record at all. The district superintendent found it impractical to dismiss the quarterly conference and organize a business college with the recording steward as pupil. However in some cases the recording steward wanted to know how, became an apt learner, obtained speedy mastery of the book, much to his own satisfaction, the joy of the superintendent and the credit of the congregation.

Miscellaneous.—A fine lyceum was held at Akron on September 4th and 5th with I. R. Godwin, host. The superintendent did team work in the interest of Methodism's larger program, delivering addresses as follows: September 10th at Kokomo; September 11th at Anderson; September 17th at Kendallville; September 18th, forenoon, at Fort Wayne; September 24th at Winchester.

The district is organized into sight groups for intensive work with a chairman for each group. These men have been active and in co-operation with pastors and laymen in their respective groups have rendered valuable service. Our Methodist Minute men are rendering valuable service.

The Centenary program for the district conference at Marion on March 5th and 6th attracted large numbers of ministers and laymen. Two young men were licensed to preach and two were recommended for admission on trial. The addresses of Bishop Warne and Bishop Nicholson were timely, illuminating, and inspiring. The next district conference will occur at Wabash Street Church, Wabash.

The work and worth of the fine body of preachers in the Wabash district was never more satisfactory or more worthy of commendation. A fine spirit of fellowship and brotherly love prevails. Dr. L. A. Swisher is with the Army of Occupation, engaged in Y. M. C. A. war work. The kingdom of Jesus will be advanced in the work he thus renders. The congregation at Huntington desires his reappointment as pastor.

Meritorious work and upstanding character of pastors and preachers in special appointment by your order, also of men in the retired relation, constitute an imperative call for special mention, but time and space order that we be content with a prayer that God's benediction may blessedly abide with them and their precious families for ever and for ever.

Marion, Ind., March 31, 1919.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

We your committee on aggressive evangelism in earnest solicitation and with prayer beg to submit the following report:

Confronted with a world, torn and bleeding as a result of the most tragic war of history, disrupted by the mad cry for social and economical readjustment, we are looking for comfort and a true basis for readjustment. We are convinced by investigation and experience that comfort can not be found and readjustment made satisfactorily by an uneducated democracy or an educated aristocracy, but through the dynamics of the Christian message applied to the individual heart and the relations of men.

In the light of these facts and holding to the fundamental truth that "the gospel is the power of God unto salvation," for the individual and the body politic, we believe evangelism to be the supreme task of the church. An evangelism that puts Christ at the center of all life and every-day activity, that believes in an education, controlled and inspired by the Spirit of the Master, making it the servant of men. An evangelism that brings Christ so near and makes the Cross so real that men accept him as their personal Savior and enthrone him in their hearts. That teaches his Kingship so that men recognize him as the ruler of all relationships and the triumph of his Kingdom the one and only safe basis for world democracy. An evangelism filled with the compassion of Christ for the sinner and carrying his uncompromising attitude toward sin. An evangelism tied to no one method but using all that are in harmony with the teaching and Spirit of Christ; that insists on real repentance and a definite experience which gives assurance of salvation and a reality to our hope.

We are rejoice that the keynote of the Centenary is evangelism. We are called to pray, to pay, and to personal service that the world may be saved. We are pleased with the program of the Sunday school in its educational evangelism, and urge our schools to follow it and stress Decision Day. We are delighted with the high tone and evangelistic emphasis of our church papers.

We are happy over the souls saved and the victories won during the past years. We are truly sorry we have not more sheaves to lay at the Master's feet and pledge our best endeavor, and pray for divine leadership for future days.

We call our churches and pastors to note that the high privilege of being God's messengers is theirs, that an unsaved world calls them, and that our best endeavor is all too small in the light of the commission and in the face of the need.

Every pastor, every layman a true evangelist is our slogan.

We recommend a commission be appointed consisting of the district superintendents, one pastor, and a layman from each district to give direction to, and make plans for an intensive evangelistic campaign for the conference and each district.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

One of the great needs of the world today is the Word of God. Every agency for its distribution should be encouraged. The American Bible Society has been especially successful. The work of the society in supplying 4,000,000 copies of the Bible, Testament, or portions, to our soldiers and sailors, and the armies of Europe since 1914, and the placing of a copy of the Bible on the peace table are very commendable. These added to the volumes furnished by the British and Scottish societies make a total of 15,000,000 copies in eighty-one languages supplied to the people involved in the war.

Since the founding of this society 103 years ago it has issued more than 130,000,000 volumes of the Bible, Testament or portions, and distributed them to people of various languages in nearly all parts of the world. More than four million volumes are now being distributed each year, and many more would be, for the demand is for more, but the lack of funds prevents. In 1917 the home agencies found 35,882 families without a Bible. Hundreds of thousands at home still need the gospel, while hundreds of millions in foreign lands have never heard that there is a gospel. Portions of the Bible are now printed in 650 languages.

We are glad to note that the reports to this conference show a good increase over last year of funds for this society, and we pledge ourselves that we will be faithful in our effort to raise at least the full apportionment next year for this purpose, that the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

The Centenary affords opportunity for special emphasis upon the great work of the deaconess. Honored of God the deaconess movement has in turn brought great honor to the church, and has been a beautiful objective set before the consecrated young womanhood of the church. The distinctive garb of the deaconess is at once her badge of honor and her protection, and we urge upon our girls such aspirations as will lead them to wear it. We rejoice in the increased offerings for our Deaconess Board, $180 more having been contributed than last year in a total of $766.

More than this we are happy to report that at this session we are recognizing Miss Mary Metts, of Ossian, as a probationer.

FRED F. THORNBURG, President.
A. L. WEAVER, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Your committee on church literature recognizes the religious press as one of the most efficient agents in the spread of the truths of the kingdom of God and in molding the characters and fashioning the lives of our people. We rejoice in the abundance and high character of the various publications of our publishing houses, and commend both books and periodicals to our people as the very best for the upholding of the Church of Christ throughout our domain, and that all Methodists should be urged to use our own literature in the Sunday schools and all other church work.

We especially recommend the Western Christian Advocate to our people as a religious periodical, second to none in its able championship of the great moral, religious, civic and national questions of these momentous days, and also as one of the best mediums by which an intelligent Methodism may be built up throughout our conference and church. We also recommend to our ministers our Methodist Review as a magazine of great value and importance.

We especially urge upon both ministers and laymen the inestimable value of the World Outlook as the greatest single force next to the pulpit for visualizing the world's needs, and convincing our people of the timeliness and necessity of the great Centenary Movement. In this connection we recommend the liberal use of all the Centenary literature available. We believe that a devoted loyalty to our own periodicals is the one thing essential to the great forward movement of the church and establishing an intelligent righteousness throughout our conference, our area, and the entire Methodism of this country and the world.

D. C. BEATTY, I. R. GODWIN.

EDUCATION.

The past year has been one of marked experiences both for the colleges of the Church and for the Board of Education. The Educational Jubilee Campaign was completed in July with a total of $35,000,000, added to the resources of our institutions within a period of six years. The larger part of this was gathered as a result of the efforts of the Jubilee forces, during the years in which the country was at war, and is a significant achievement.

The great war put a severe strain upon the colleges, but it furnished them as well with a great opportunity for unparalleled usefulness. This is true, not of some colleges, but of all of them—large and small, public and private. The attitude of these groups to the public welfare was the same in all, and the attitude of the public toward them all was the same. The war has made clear that the public needs, and cordially recognizes, the contribution which the church is making towards higher education. The place and function of the college are secure as never before.

The religious situation in our own colleges is distinctly encouraging. The war has emphasized the unselfishness of youth and the tremendous motive power of high ideals. The Board of Education co-operates with the Board of Home Missions to develop an all-round Christian atmosphere for Methodist students at State universities. Student pastors are now at work at twenty-five non-Methodist institutions, and small appropriations for the support of these religious centers are available at eighteen of them.

The only unsatisfactory report we make is of the situation in the South. What the church is doing in and for our Southern schools is far less than the conditions demand and the opportunities offer. What has been done is not unimportant, but it has been sadly limited by the lack of funds, and the demands for help in other parts of the country. The time has now come when we must promptly solve the Southern educational problem. Not only the interests of the church, not only the proper claims of our brethren working under the hardest conditions in the Southern mountains; but the very welfare of the country itself, and its high mission, call upon us to give this work increased support in money, men, and counsel.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

Our church is justly proud of its Theological schools, and the opportunity offered by them for thorough preparation for the ministry. The Theological department of Boston University is doing splendid service for the church in giving men a large and comprehensive knowledge of the Christian program of life. The school, located in the heart of Boston, in the midst of a cosmopolitan population, offers great opportunity for Christian service. President Lemuel H. Murlin and Dean L. J. Birney have been successful in applying all the varied resources of scholarship and equipment of the university to the development of the highest possible ideals in the minds of all who come seeking light in these delightful surroundings.

Drew Theological School at Madison, New Jersey, in close proximity to New York City, offers splendid opportunity for the highest training for the finest kind of Christian leadership. Its professors are noted for their Christian scholarship and devotion to Christian service. The equipment is adequate in every way to bring the student to a high state of Christian scholarship and culture. The location being so near the city of New York provides ample opportunity for the student to study and observe the methods of the great preachers in that city.

Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill., because of location and adequate equipment, offers to all who seek preparation for life service in the church an unequaled opportunity in the Central West. Evanston is so near Chicago that all students come in touch with the city and its problems, and share in all of its benefits. The four-quarter year is providing continuous instruction and reaching large numbers of students who could not be served except on this plan. It makes it possible for students to shorten the course in college years by nine months, and gives opportunity for pastors to avail themselves of summer schools. This summer term is divided into two terms of six weeks each. Dr. Charles M. Stuart, a man of great scholarship and charming personality, is president of this school. The high standing of the faculty in the world of scholarship, the exceptional equipment, the opportunity of Chicago as a laboratory for the study of evangelistic and social problems make a desirable center for those seeking preparation for religious leadership.

Under the inspiritional leadership of President G. R. Grose, D.D., DePauw University has been lifted to new levels. The million-dollar building and endowment fund has been completed, and a project launched to provide a retiring allowance for professors who have given at least twenty-five years service to the university. It is believed that an endowment of one hundred thousand dollars will amply meet these needs. Mr. Rector has added to his munificent donations to DePauw ten thousand dollars for this fund. We most heartily commend the project to the friends of the university.

Within the year Mr. A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, has given twenty-five thousand dollars towards the endowment of a chair of Applied Christianity, and Mrs. Medora Adams, of Frankfort, Indiana, has contributed at least sixty thousand dollars to endow a chair of Christian Missions. The religious life of the school was never finer, and a revival of far-reaching significance was held within the spring term.

A plan to establish a district scholarship for each of the districts in the conferences of the State is worthy of mention in this report, and should receive the hearty support of the friends of the university. Each scholarship is to be endowed with a fund of two thousand dollars, and the proceeds used to meet the university fees of the holder who would be required to be a candidate for the ministry. The relation of the university to the work of providing a trained ministry for the church is further emphasized by the plan to establish the Matthew-Simpson lectureship of the Christian ministry. There is no memorial at the university for Bishop Matthew Simpson, its first president and one of the three foremost American preachers. It is believed that ten thousand dollars raised and devoted to the purposes of this lectureship would be the most suitable memorial for the great preacher, and would at the same time bring to the university the foremost preachers of the day, and hold an exalted and inspiring ideal of the Christian ministry before the student body.

We urge the pastors in our conference to encourage their young people to attend DePauw. The need of trained Christian leadership was never greater than at the present time, and we know of no better place to secure the needed training than at DePauw. We recommend the re-election of Mr. A. B. Cline and Mr. Ralph Todd to succeed themselves as trustees of the university, and the appointment of the Rev. W. B. Freeland, D.D., as conference visitor.

Your committee also beg leave to recommend visitors as follows: to Boston, Millard Pell; to Drew Seminary, H. S. Nickerson; and to Garrett Biblical Institute, B. E. Parker.

J. L. GILLARD, Secretary.	J. A. PATTERSON,

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

With profound gratitude to Almighty God for the strategic positions in which he has placed our church throughout the world, and with a solemn sense of the obligation which rests upon us because of this divine leadership, we pledge ourselves to renewed consecration to the world task of Christian missions.

The world is plastic and changing. Unrest is widespread both in Europe and in Asia. Industrial and rural populations await the constructive message of the Christian church. Backward peoples are yearning for the ideals of Occidental Christian civilization. The hour has come for American Christianity to propagate with positiveness those ideals upon which our democratic institutions rest—the open Bible, the free school, and the Christian family. The world expectantly looks to America. Probably never in the world's history have the ideals of one nation so powerfully influenced mankind.

In view of the present challenge, we hail with joy the constructive Centenary program which the leaders of our church have brought out, and brought to such a splendid stage of development. Our Conference will underwrite every phase of the Centenary campaign; the Fellowship of Intercession; the Stewardship of Possessions; the education of our constituency; the dedication to Life Service. Pastors and laymen will rally to the Centenary standard, and we confidently expect that when the roll of the Conference is called in 1920, the universal report will be "Centenary World Program Over the Top." In doing this we will write the greatest page in our Conference history.

"Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march is come."

FREEDMEN'S AID.

The work of this society has been carried on for over fifty years. The General Conference authorized and directed each pastor to observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary in February. Discipline of 1916, par. 455, page 302.

As a result of the work of the society we have 350,000 colored members, 3,500 churches, and over 2,000 ministers. Our schools supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. For this purpose the twenty-one schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society with their 334 teachers and 5,702 students must be maintained.

Any program of world conquest for the Kingdom of Christ must involve one hundred millions of black people in Africa, and twelve millions more in the United States of America. If we can not uplift and evangelize these black millions in the homeland, how shall we ever reach those across the seas? The schoolhouse and the church go hand in hand in bringing the Negro in the United States to a knowledge of the Christian faith, and fitting him that he may do his part in bringing the dark continent into a league of Christian nations dominated by the Christ spirit.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor preach at least once a year on the outlook for the black man in the United States and in Africa, and the relation of the schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society to his evangelism.

We further recommend that each pastor observe Lincoln Memorial Sunday, and use the program and literature furnished by the Freedmen's Aid Society for that occasion.

We further recommend that this subject be also brought before our Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues, and social gatherings for study and prayerful consideration.

HOSPITALS.

We, the members of the North Indian Conference, hereby express our great satisfaction with the success of our hospitals at Indianapolis, Princeton, and Fort Wayne. No better equipped hospitals can be found anywhere; and they are almost continually filled to capacity.

We are glad to commend the action of the hospitals for opening their doors to the government in the training of soldiers in the medical department of the army, and for the large number of the fine trained young women as nurses who followed our brave boys through the mud and under fire, and in the spirit of Christ brought to the army comfort and assistance only possible through such ministrations.

We commend the work and good judgment of Dr. Charles S. Woods, M.D., as superintendent.

We consider the nurses' training school and proposed home for nurses among the most important and valuable assets to the institution, and express our sincere gratitude to those who have made this addition possible.

We urgently request our people when in the city of Indianapolis, or Fort Wayne, or Princeton, to visit the hospital, and thus be more fully acquaint themselves with the excellent work done.

We recommend the election of Rev. Wallace W. Martin, D.D., and Charles A. Wood, of Muncie, Indiana, as trustee for three years, their term to expire in 1922.

We recommend the apportionment of ten cents per member to the charges for the Sustaining Fund.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your committee for the Methodist Memorial Home submit the following:

1. We rejoice in the success of the home as manifested in the health and happiness of the forty-two members who range in age from sixty-nine to ninety years.

2. The financial condition indicates assets to the amount of $164,724, an increase of a little over $37,220 over last year.

3. We recommend that the committee apportion to the charges of the conference for this benevolence the sum of ten cents per member as a sustaining fund.

4. We recommend that Rev. E. L. Jones and wife, for their efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the institution and that he be reappointed as financial secretary for the coming year.

5. We recommend that the following be elected as trustees for a period of three years: J. A. Beatty, C. E. Line, A. May, F. M. Presnall.

6. We recommend the appointment of W. T. Arnold, F. P. Morris, and M. C. Lester as visitors for this conference year.

7. Twenty worthy aged people are now on the waiting list, with all rooms at the home full. More buildings and accommodations are urgently needed. We therefore recommend the appointment of B. S. Hollopeter as corresponding secretary, to travel among our people and secure funds to provide for these needs.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

We have found that the messages of God's men—Moses, the prophets, Paul, Wesley, and especially the Son of God himself, are no less social than individualistic in application. We believe that in the Word of God we have instruction, which, if properly interpreted and applied, will regenerate and perfect human society as surely as it will a single soul. We hold, conversely, that any socialistic plans or propraganda not in harmony with the fundamental principles of the Bible are un-Christian and dangerous.

It is regrettable that a discrimination has been made between social service and evangelism. It will be found that true evangelists of the Cross have always preached a gospel which aims to save families, institutions, and communities as well as individuals. Evangelism which is not social in application is not worthy of the name. Social service is not such which offers material comfort only and disregards the bread from heaven.

We are convinced that there is urgent need for neighborliness, as defined by Christ, in all societies and institutions in this country. Jesus forgave his murderers, for he knew he was crucified not so much by individuals as by a system of which they were victims. We approve of co-operative plans in industry. The privileged and the strong have an obligation to the burdened and the weak. But what is needed is equality of opportunity rather than of condition.

We believe that the church has a large opportunity to serve and christianize the various groups of our land. We hope that our own church shall be swift to meet this opportunity.

We commend the work of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, and urge that there be more complete knowledge of this organization and support of its work.

We urge that our pastors acquaint themselves with the distressing needs of society today and present messages in accord with the New Testament social teachings. Also that they plan systematic surveys of conditions in their respective local communities and seek with godly care to provide for the desperate needs revealed in many communities, rural and urban.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church gives thanks to Almighty God for the glorious and victorious ending of the recent war. That we have been led into the deep valley of sacrifice and death is so apparent that it scarcely needs to be mentioned, but if thereby we have been brought into closer relation to God, and have been given a higher ideal of our relation to all men the world over, we are willing to pay in gold and blood and the lives of our own precious boys all that it has cost. But if by the political chicanery of men the high motives of our great strife should be debased to the old-time ideals of selfish greed, either national or individual, then we regret a thousand times our great sacrifice. We are confident, however, in saying that we believe that never will this nation of ours be controlled, or in any way dominated by the old spirit which once possessed us, and that from now one our people having learned the lesson of generous giving and glorious sacrifice will be possessed by faith greater and brighter than ever before.

Therefore we express our hope that peace terms will be consummated as soon as possible, and in such a way as will bring about as much as possible the reparation of the great wrongs that have been perpetrated upon our suffering allies, who have done so much to stand between us and danger, and re-establish the natural and free relationship between all the nations of the world.

We also express our hope that in the readjustment of our national life and world life the rights of all men shall be so guarded and protected that the men of low birth or high, of wealth or without it, shall be protected, and they shall not be allowed to prey upon each other.

We also commend the great outstanding principles of the League of Nations and recognizing that there may be some minor changes or amendments which may be necessary in the final adjustment, we express it as our hope that the United States Senate will not allow any false idea of loyalty to sway us from this great principle.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

It is becoming more and more evident that the Sunday school is the hope of the church of tomorrow. The young life of the church must hereby be conserved, and both old and young, working together, is the best assurance that the church will be safe and efficient in the years to come when the ideas of today shall be the realities of tomorrow.

We believe that the Sunday schools of Methodism are one of the greatest assets to our ever-increasing church; that the young life of our country, which passes through the Sunday school, furnishes the majority of the incoming membership of the church; that there rests upon us a grave responsibility, suggested by the words of our Christ, "Feed my lambs," which may in some measure be discharged by the Sunday school; that from and by means of the Sunday school, the great call of the church for Christian workers to carry into actual life the great plans of the Centenary Movement shall be answered; that young life touched by the sacred influence of the teachers in the Sunday school if often turned into the channels of Christian service; that there are increasing demands for trained instructors in the Sunday school; that there are wonderful possibilities in the Sunday school with regard to missionary giving.

Therefore, we urge that our interest and attention be more keen and urgent in every phase of the work of this institution; that we plan for and make Decision Day mean more than hitherto in bringing the members of our Sunday schools to definite acceptance of Jesus Christ as Savior; that we as preachers, urge upon the teachers the importance of directing their pupils into the avenues of Christian service; that teachers' training classes be organized and carried forward, and that we utilize the latent possibilities of our Sunday schools in the supporting of the great missionary cause and inculcate the principles of Christian stewardship.

We rejoice in the glorious and successful efforts of our Bord of Sunday Schools whose programs and plans are second to none. We rejoice in the wise and elevating literature which the church puts forward and recommend that it be used in preference to any other. We rejoice that the Sunday schools have been given by the church a part in the great Centenary tasks, and pledge their loyal support in carrying out their part in the Centenary programs.

It is ours to get under the responsibilities, give ourselves to our tasks, utilizing all legitimate means, and also the well-thought-out plans of the Board of Sunday Schools to make the Sunday schools a still greater factor within the church for good, and the accomplishment of the purpose of God in the world.

SUSTENTATION.

The obligation of strength to weakness is a fundamental teaching of our Christ. The sustentation system of our conference is a wise and practical application of this much-needed truth.

On the advice of our district superintendents we recommend that a total of $6,200 be raised for this cause; $1,200 to be applied as a salary for the student pastor at Purdue University, the remaining $5,000 to be distributed among the districts in amounts proportioned to the amount raised within the district.

Since some of the district superintendents have submitted itemized reports of disbursal of sustentation funds, we recommend that this be the manner of report for all the district superintendents.

TEMPERANCE.

We thank God and congratulate the church on the passing of "Old John Barleycorn." This arch enemy of mankind had too long preyed upon the weaknesses of men and fattened upon the stolen bread of women and children.

However, as "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," we warn our people against the easy persuasion that the fight is over.

We deplore the fact that our State Senate refused to give the necessary vote to make the "Wright Bone Dry Bill" a law after the house had passed the bill by vote of 73 to 24. This bill enacted into law would have aided in enforcing the prohibition law.

We join in branding the "No Beer, No Work," and "No Beer, No Liberty Bonds," as rank disloyalty and anarchy, and declare ourselves as unalterably opposed to such un-American and unpatriotic propaganda.

We recognize that the prohibition movement has become world-wide, and we pledge our untiring efforts to make it universally triumphant.

We express our sympathy with the movement to stamp out venereal disease, and pledge our co-operation with the government in its work to that end. We are persuaded that certain by-products of the war lead us logically to conclude that there is everywhere a quickened conscience and a sobered mind. The eternal verities have been brought so near hundreds of thousands of homes and millions of lives that new adjustments to the religion of Christ have become an absolute necessity. It therefore occurs to your committee that the church will be very recreant to a great opportunity, and to a sacred trust, if she does not especially plan for the moral welfare of the returning soldiers. After one has offered his life in loyal service to his country it ought to be a delightful and an easy task to lead him to the glory of a. surrendered life to Jesus Christ, the Captain of our salvation.

We view with alarm the increase in the use of cigarettes, especially among our soldier and sailor boys, and we desire to register our approval of the work of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, as well as the work of the W. C. T. U., and any other approved agency in checking this tendency.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

1869—1919

To Bishop Nicholson and Pastors, Greeting:

In the beginning our slogan set was "Two cents a week and a prayer." At the beginning of our five year Jubilee campaign a goal was set for—

1,000 missionaries on the Jubilee Roll. 400,000 members in all our societies. 180,000 subscribers to our periodicals. 1,600,000 dollars for the conquest, that all non-Christian women might have an opportunity to know the Saviour of the world.

North Indiana Conference was given its prorata. We have fulfilled the quota as to the first three requirements—and by September 5, 1919, will have completed the whole. Today, April the 4th, our books show 3,850 active members, and 429 honorary members, a net gain of 4,279 or 104 per cent, grand total of 10,718; a net gain of 127 organizations or 65 per cent, grand total of 330. Subscribers to Missionary Friend, 2,104, a net gain of 913; subscribers to Junior Friend, 1,400, a net gain of 484. Three hundred names have been recorded in the Jubilee Legion, and best of all, five consecrated well-qualified girls have gone to represent Jesus the Christ in the benighted lands. Marie Adams, from Fortville, Muncie District, to Taianfu, China. Pauline Place, from Pennville, Richmond District, to Nagasaki, Japan. Joyce Walker, a second-generation missionary (whose parents went to China from our Conference) is now in Peking. Hazel Shoub, from Fort Wayne, is doing hospital work in Nanchang, China, and Roxy Lefforge, North Manchester, in Foochow College.

Even with this encouraging report there are six women to our one not yet members, whose privilege and absolute duty is imperatively required to meet the demand. We are fully co-operating with General Board in its work at home and abroad, and plead with other 42,000 women to join us in prayer for ultimate victory.

Respectfully submitted,
Florence Clark Binford,
Conference Secretary.

SPECIAL WORK—NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

1918—1919.

With grateful hearts we bring you the report of the Special Work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of North Indiana Conference, for the past year.

Through our dues, thank-offerings, Christmas offerings, and special gifts we are able to support the following, in the foreign field:

One missionary, two assistant missionaries, three Biblical assistants, forty-four Bible women, twenty-three Bible women in training, three evangelistic workers, six patrons help in the support of general hospital work, seventeen hospital beds are maintained, salaries of six nurses in hospitals, one house matron, one medical compounder, nine day schools, three teachers, 129 scholarships, two patron's help in general educational work, one society has given $100 to name a room as a testimonial, three patrons have sent personal gifts of money to missionaries, fifteen French war orphans have been supported, a goodly number of papers and magazines are sent to our missionaries each month, and almost all of our auxiliaries help on the Retirement Fund for our missionaries who are no longer able to do active service.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. A. B. Cline,
Conference Secretary Special Work.

(c) SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

ARMY SERVICE.

On account of lack of data this committee is able to make a report in a general way only. Six members and one probationer became army chaplains. They were W. E. McPheters, John F. Edwards, A. C. Hoover, R. W. Rogers, P. E. Greenwalt, K. R. Thompson, and Fred R. Hill. L. D. Hershberger and Karl H. Carlson entered the ranks as privates, and V. L. Clear was commissioned as a first lieutenant, August 20, 1918. He became an expert in small arms instruction. Eight members entered Y. M. C. A. work, namely, W. E. Pittenger, M. E. Shattuck, R. S. Shaw, R. W. Stoakes, Earl Naftzger, L. O. Winslow, R. E. Zeigler, L. A. Swisher, and H. A. Wann, a probationer.

Some of these men have returned to take up their regular place in the conference, others are still overseas. These men have done heroic religious work for our soldiers. To them they have preached the gospel of Christ. For them they have written letters. They have cheered those far away in their homesickness. They have entered into the entertainments to amuse them. They have made sacrifices for the personal comfort of these boys. They have held interviews with them concerning their personal relation with God. They have seen thousands of them make decisions in public meetings. They have pointed the sick to the Great Physician, and the dying to the Great Advocate.

One returned Y. M. C. A. worker reports from August 20, 1917, to April 1, 1919, he had preached 217 times and lectured 306 times; that he had had over 200 conversions in personal work, and had seen about 600 respond to appeal for decisions in public meetings. We thank God for the great work that these men have done and for their safe return, and we pledge our brethren who are still overseas our constant and earnest prayers, that they may be preserved in health and life until they return to the best country on earth, AMERICA.

L. J. Naftzger,
T. M. Guild,
C. E. Line.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

The auditor for this conference presents the following report:

We audited the pastors reports as required by the conference, indicated necessary corrections, and checked the same to the treasurer. We have the books of the Conference Corporation and found the balances correct.

The accounts of the district superintendents were checked up and found the balances to be correct.

The Conference secretary's accounts were gone over, and find a deficit of $3.52 from one charge in the conference minute account.

The books of the treasurer of the Board of Stewards were not in shape to balance, and will be balanced in the interim of the conference.

E. L. JONES, Auditor.
LE ROY MYERS.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES DePAUW UNIVERSITY.

We commend the action of the Board of Trustees and visitors of DePauw University in retaining the restrictions with regard to dancing, and we request the trustees and visitors elected from this conference to vote at any subsequent meeting of this board in harmony with this resolution. W. W. MARTIN.

CABINET RESOLUTIONS.

Personally and as a body the cabinet welcomes this opportunity of expressing high appreciation of the work and worth of our resident Bishop, Thomas Nicholson. In the seclusion of the cabinet session we find him exhibiting the democratic spirit and unimpeachable impartiality in his treatment of men so characteristic of his more-public administration of our ecclesiastical interests. Our confidence in this able statesman, wise administrator and Christian gentlemen grows as our relation with him becomes more vital in the expanding and enlarging program of the church.

SOMERVILLE LIGHT, R. J. WADE,
B. S. HOLLOPETER, J. A. BEATTY,
W. W. MARTIN, M. S. MARBLE.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your committee on resolutions desire to again make record of our appreciation of our beloved Bishop Nicholson. His leadership in all lines of church activity, especially in the great Centenary movement, is masterful and optimistic. His presidency over this conference has been both wise and brotherly, and we shall be very pleased to welcome him to Richmond next year.

We wish to thank the conference officers for their faithful and untiring devotion to their duties in office.

The gratitude of the entire conference is due the Rev. Chas H. Smith, and his faithful church for the royal entertainment afforded, and their careful attention to the convenience and comfort of their guests.

We are not unmindful of the gracious courtesy of the sister churches of Peru for their open doors and their sweet co-operation. We thank them.

We are grateful to the banks for their courtesy; to the papers for their consideration; to the visiting talent appearing on our program. They have thrilled, instructed, and inspired us.

The choir and organist for delightful music, and last but not least to the janitor who has kept the church in proper condition.

It has been a notable conference, and we thank all who in any way or any degree contributed to make this session at Peru one of the best in our Conference history.

J. W. POTTER,
HARRY C. HARMAN,
G. B. WORK,
T. M. HILL.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Having carefully examined the Journals of Fort Wayne, Goshen, Logansport, Wabash, and Richmond District Conference sessions of 1919, we commend the respective secretaries for their neatness, arrangement, and durable form. These records will constitute valuable documents of statistical information permanently.

The Journal of Muncie has not been received from the bindery, and hence has not come into the hands of the committee.

C. E. White,
J. C. Woodruff,
R. C. Ballard,
Committee.

THE RURAL CHURCH.

The commission on the rural church, believing that one of the most important fields of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the future, as in the past, is to be found in the country, makes the following recommendations:

First: That there shall be organized in each district of the conference a rural church commission, to consist of five members, the district superintendent, two pastors serving on charges in rural work, and two laymen, the duty of this commission to be to arrange a program and assist the work in the district on the rural charges.

Second: We commend the district superintendents for reducing the size of the circuits. The fact that some of the churches are closed, and the congregations united with another nearby village church is not a sign of decadence but progress.

Third: We recommend that the district commission do everything possible to encourage the rural churches to add basements and class rooms and other modern equipment to meet the new conditions of the present age.

Fourth: We recommend that the pastors of the rural churches attend the Rural Church Conference, held each year at Purdue University, and any other such conventions as may be possible.

We desire that the committee on program of the next session of the conference arrange for a rural church hour.

V. L. Clear, Chairman,
P. E. Greenwalt, Secretary.

Taylor University.

Your committee on Taylor University report as follows:

We have received a tender of the institution from the National Local Preachers' Association contemplating a joint control by that association with the North Indiana Conference. This proposition was regarded as unsatisfactory. It seems necessary to wait until the next annual meeting of that association which is to be held in Upland, Indiana, about October first, in the hope that the association will extend an offer of unconditional ownership and management.

The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church has not been officially consulted. This board does not meet until next December. We therefore cannot secure action from them until that date.

We there recommend:

First, that the present committee be continued and be enlarged to include the members of the cabinet of the conference, and the members from this conference on the commission of education for Indiana, to report such recommendations as, under the circumstances, seem wise.

Second, that representation of the matter be made to the Board of Education at its annual meeting, by the committee.

Third, that in case the full ownership and management of Taylor University should be offered to our conference, and the University Senate approves, a sustaining fund for the instructors of ten cents per member for the year be apportioned to our charges, the same to be disbursed by a committee to consist of Wabash district superintendent, Muncie district superintendent, and the pastor at Upland.

That Sunday, January 4, 1920, shall be the day upon which the pastors shall raise this fund.

Fourth, we recommend that no other definite action be taken until a subsequent session of our conference.

C. E. LINE,
W. W. MARTIN,
W. B. FREELAND.
J. A. BEATTY,
F. A. HALL.

UNMARKED GRAVES.

Several of our deceased members lie in unmarked graves, the location of some of which is unknown. Investigations thus far made reveals the fact that suitable monuments mark the graves of most of our deceased brothers.

It is recommended that the committee be retained that complete information as to this matter may be secured.

The committee is requested to present at the Conference of 1920 a plan whereby sufficient funds to place monuments at the unmarked graves of the deceased brothers may be provided.

C. U. WADE,
C. H. BROWN,
J. K. WALTS.

WESLEY FOUNDATION OF PURDUE UNIVERSITY.

The work of the church at Purdue University went on steadily throughout the entire conference year. The different types of students called for the readjustment of this work at various times. During the summer, the student pastor acted as an official Y. M. C. A. religious-work director of the United States Truck Masters' school, located there. In the period of the Students' Army Training Corps, his work was largely confined to the work with the boys in the barracks. Now since the University is getting back on a peace basis, the normal student pastor's type of work is being re-established.

There have been about 1,200 different Methodist students at Purdue this year. This number along with the interdenominational work made a large field for service for our church. Various means have been used to interpret the spirit and life of Jesus to this large number of Methodist people. Every third Sunday night has been university night in the West LaFayette Church, and the student pastor has brought in the very best speakers on war themes in the country. There has not been room in this church to hold the crowds.

The big objective of the leaders in the Centenary has been to make our universities recruiting centers for trained men and women, who will go out in special lines of Christian service under the church. For five months the field has been worked at Purdue, so that up to date there are on the books of the Missionary Candidate Department thirty Purdue men and women who have expressed their desires to be used by the church for these larger interests of the Kingdom, in home and foreign fields.

The student pastor has made it his object to know and be a friend to every one of the students. He has entertained them in the parish house, organized their religious and social activities, taught classes in Biblical and religious subjects, directed the thinking along religious lines of a group of foreign students, and represented the church in every interest in which it was vitally interested in these students from our Methodist homes.

As Fremont E. Fribley, the present student pastor, wishes to return to the pastorate, we recommend the appointment of R. W. Rogers as student pastor. We also recommend the Conference to appoint as directors, C. E. Line, for three-year period of service; W. B. Freeland, for the two-year period of service; and M. S. Marble, for the one-year period of service.

C. E. LINE,
W. B. FREELAND.
B. KENDALL.

ANNUITY CLAIMS.

WHEREAS, It has been, and is, the fixed policy of North Indiana Annual Conference to pay, in full, all claims and apportionments justly laid upon it, therefore,

Resolved, That the Conference Board of Stewards are hereby authorized and instructed to, each year, carefully estimate the amount necessary to meet in full all Annuity Claims of the Conference Claimants of this Conference, according to Pars. 336 and 341 of the Discipline, adding thereto such an amount as, in the judgment of the Board of Stewards, is necessary to pay all Necessitous Claims, and the amount apportioned by the Commission on Finance for the Board of Conference Claimants, and report the total amount to the secretary of the cabinet of the Conference for distribution, by the cabinet, to the districts; and no further action by the Conference shall be required until this order is revoked.

The Board of Stewards are further authorized and instructed to take from the Conference Collections for Conference Claimants such an amount as is necessary to meet the claims on the Necessitous Fund; and, in this matter, no further conference action shall be necessary unless this action shall be revoked.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Amendment to rule governing Conference Claimants in employment on charge.

WHEREAS, The North Indiana Conference at its session in 1916 passed in a resolution several rules governing the Board of Stewards in the distribution of Conference Funds, and

WHEREAS, The second of the foregoing rules works an injustice in some cases on Conference Claimants who are employed as Supplies on Charges, by annulling all claims to the Annuity on the occasion of such employment, therefore be it

Resolved, That the second rule before mentioned be amended to read as follows, viz.:

That in the interval between the sessions of the Annual Conference, any Conference Claimant, who shall be employed to do supply work on a charge, shall forfeit only that part of his claims on the Conference Funds, that will make his income from the Conference with his salary in excess of $1,200.

CONFERENCE CORPORATION.

PERU, INDIANA, APRIL 5, 1919.

The Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in the room of the secretary, Saturday, April 5, 1919, with the following officers present: Leslie J. Naftzger, president; Cyrus U. Wade, treasurer; and D. V. Williams, secretary.

The treasurer read his report which was accepted. It was recommended to the Conference that undesignated funds and accumulations may be used to purchase markers for the unmarked graves of deceased ministers of the Conference. On motion, the secretary and treasurer were ordered to purchase books suitable for keeping permanent records of their respective offices.

C. U. Wade was requested to consult Mrs. J. W. Bashore relative to the estate.

D. V. WILLIAMS,
Secretary.

CONFERENCE SESSION, TIME.

Whereas, The business of the conference year closes on the last Sunday in March in many, if not in all our churches, and all church activities under the direction and control of our quarterly conferences begin on the first Sunday in April; therefore be it .

Resolved, First, that it be the request of the North Indiana Conference that the date of its annual session be fixed on the first Wednesday after the last Sunday in March, except when Conference Sunday would conflict with Easter in which event we request that the date be the first Wednesday after Easter.

Resolved, Second, that the conference secretary present this request to the secretary of the Episcopal Board and that Bishop Nicholson be requested to use his influence in securing a favorable response to our petition.

M. S. Marble.

DIVORCE.

Believing that the position of our church on divorce as published in our book of discipline is in entire harmony with the declaration of our Lord and Master Jesus Christ; we, therefore, call upon our authorities to insist on a strict and impartial enforcement of all our rules on the subject in order that both ministry and membership complicity with this great evil which so generally affects our modern society.

Sherman Powell.

KRETSINGER FUND.

To the North Indiana Conference in session, Peru, Indiana:

Brethren, We the undersigned Trustees of the Kretsinger Fund beg leave to report as follows:

METHODIST HISTORIAN.

Whereas, In view of the fact that the body of Dr. Abel Stevens, our disdistinguished Methodist historian, lies a few miles from Los Angeles, Calif., buried in a beautiful cemetery; and, whereas, there is a suitable horizontal slab monument over his grave; and, whereas, there is nothing on that slab to show who Dr. Stevens was, therefore be it Resolved, The North Indiana Conference respectfully request the Methodist Ministers' Association, of Los Angeles, to inquire into the matter, if it has not been done, and see what can be done.

E. F. Hasty.

PREACHER'S AID CAMPAIGN.

Resolved, That the Preachers' Aid Society campaign for $1,000,000 shall be unremittingly prosecuted until it has been carried through each of the six districts of the conference, in the expectation that it shall reach the goal of $150,000 in each district, a grand total of $1,000,000.

Resolved, That a page of the year-book shall be given permanently to the Preachers' Aid Society in which the paid memorials be published year by year.

Resolved, That Veteran's Day be faithfully observed in all of the churches of the conference, and that Sunday, November 9th, be observed as Veterans' Day this year, that the pastor shall speak to the subject of the $1,000,000 permanent fund of the Preachers' Aid Society for Conference Claimants, to use music appropriate to the day, and have a children's program for the day if practicable.

Resolved, That the district superintendents and pastors shall co-operate with the general secretary in making collections of overdue subscriptions in harmony with the action of the Board of Control at its last annual meeting.

Rufus A. Morrison,
Leslie J. Naftzger,
C. U. Wade.

PREACHERS' AID CONSTITUTION (AMENDMENTS.)

The following addition (amendments) to the By-laws of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church were by a unanimous vote of the Board of Control of said society recommended to this annual meeting of the society for your adoption as amendments to the By-laws of the society; towit:

Section 8.—The Executive Committee shall meet quarterly on the call of the chairman of the committee. It shall have general power over the affairs of the society, subject to the approval of the Board of Control; except that it may not fill vacancies in office in the society, nor in the Board of Control, or in the Executive Committee.

Section 9.—All moneys from all sources shall be turned over, and be paid to the treasurer of the society, and shall hereafter be paid out only on written orders issued by the society, or by the Board of Control, or by the Executive Committee; said orders to be signed by the president and recording secretary of the society, or by the chairman and secretary of the Executive Committee; providing, however, that in making loans from the Permanent Fund, the Investing Committee and the treasurer have full power to make such loans and investments as provided for in Article 6 of the Constitution of the society.

(IX) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W. T. Arnold, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. Students will secure the proper volume of Directions and Helps from the Book Concern. Read with care.

2. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, or colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examinations.

3. Similar certificates may be received in all studies not biblical or theological, from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

4. Certificates containing grades designated credit shall be received, and grades entered the same as the average of those grades contained in the certificate.

5. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or at the seat of the Annual Conference, on Tuesday of Conference week. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of a student in the mission field.

6. All written work on "books to be studied" must be given to the examiner by the time of the Mid-year Institute. All written work on "books to be read" will be due on or before March first. No credits after these respective dates.

7. One paper of approximately one thousand words will be required on a chapter of each book; this applies to both lists: "books to be studied" and "books to be read." Students will select chapter.

8. The directions of the Discipline 1916, par. 596, 597, 598, and 599, sec. 1, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care.

9. All candidates for admission must pass an examination in "The Art of Writing English," except those who are exempt by par. 597, sec. 4, Discipline, 1916.

10. All candidates for ordination under the local rules will report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners for examinations.

11. All written work must be in the hands of examiners by March first, in order to receive credit. The District Superintendents are requested to urge all candidates for examination to appear at the Mid-year Institute. On motion it was decided that before a man may be advanced from the Studies of the First and Third Year, he must have out at least two-thirds of his work. The place for the Mid-year Institute will be announced later.

(X) Memoirs.

MRS. MARY WILKINSON.

Mary, daughter of George and Rebecca Hawkins, was born in Columbiana County, near Lisbon, Ohio, September 10, 1842. When she was sixteen years of age she and her parents settled at Harlan, Allen County, Indiana. Here, on June 5, 1862, she was married to Charles H. Wilkinson, a licensed local preacher, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and who five years later became a member of the North Indiana Annual Conference, and continued an unbroken line of service in the active ministry until six years ago, when at his own request her husband was granted a retired relation.

During these forty-five years in the active ranks of the ministry they served twenty charges, in which they had the unusual experience of returning to the same charge, Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne, just twenty years after leaving it, in 1868.

The remarkable success of the work in the ministry was not only due to the untiring efforts and hard work, along with the passion for souls of her husband, but also to the fact that while he preached she prayed, and then in her quiet, unostentatious way, doing the work of a faithful co-laborer of God. As a result of this united and consecrated effort God blessed them with more than 2,500 conversions to Christ and 2,316 were added to the church in membership.

Mrs. Mary Wilkinson.

Her own conversion dates back to 1856, when at the age of fourteen she was gloriously saved in a prayer meeting at a farmer's home and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The fields of the ministry were large and their labors hard, but they went forth and endured, "seeing Him who is invisible." Only ecently she said to her husband, "If we had our lives to live over again we would ravel the same road for Jesus' sake."

Two children, M. L. Wilkinson, of St. Louis, Missouri, and Mrs. Cora A. Cummings, of Chicago, are the fruitage of their home, both of whom have always been n unusual blessing to their parents, and live to comfort and care for our dear Brother Wilkinson. Two grandchildren, Mrs. Juniata Mayfield, of Nashville, Tennessee, nd Miss Beulah Cummings, of Chicago, share in the sorrow at the loss of one whom o know was like light of heaven. Her children say that in all these years they have ever heard their mother speak a harsh word to them or about any one. Her life o them was a sunbeam, the memories of which will continue to shine on through he ages to come.

Six years ago they retired from the active ranks of the ministry and since that ime have made their home at Rome City. To the community and church here hey have continued faithful in their ministrations in the kingdom of Christ. Always n every church service, no night was too dark or stormy, always in the quiet of their ome lifting their hearts to God for their pastor and church, and the people of the ome community. Though to us to-day her sun has set, like the sun above us it till shines on, and will while the ages roll.

Her prayers, so faithfully and fervently offered to God, will no more be heard at the family or altar of her church, yet the memories of them will continue to cheer and comfort not only those of her own household, but of the churches they served through life. Who will say that to-day this beautiful type of Christian womanhood is not realizing answered prayer, in the realms of bliss, for in the night of April 22, 1918, angels came and carried her to her home eternal that Jesus Christ had gone to prepare for her?

"We speak of the realms of the blest,
That country so bright and so fair,
And oft are its glories confessed,
But she knows what it is to be there."

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, W. T. Daly, in her home church, Thursday, April 25, 1918, at 2 P. M. He was assisted by the following ministers of the Conference: Rev. R. J. Wade, District Superintendent; George F. Hubbartt, C. L. DeBow, C. A. Hile, M. F. Stright, J. C. Woodruff, F. A. LeMaster, and J. W. Oborn. Her body was buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Wolcottville, to await the call to the resurrected life.

MARY PEDDYCORD.

Mary Peddycord, daughter of Joel R. Smith and Hanna Smith, was born April 21, 1841. Passed to her heavenly home on the evening of May 21, 1918, having reached the age of seventy-seven years and one month. At the age of six years she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Mary Peddycord.

On February 24, 1861, she married Nathan T. Peddycord; to this union five boys were born. The three youngest passed away in infancy. Two sons, James William and Levi Munson, still live to mourn a loving mother's love.

She had a passion for souls, much given to secret prayer and possessed a God-given power in prayer that touched the throne of grace and melted her hearers to tears of penitence and joy. She was a very great help to her husband, Rev. Nathan T. Peddycord, as she always saw the bright side and silver lining to every cloud. She was a persistent church attendant, going just a few days before she died, and with Paul she could say, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith." She very much liked the song, "This Is Like Heaven to Me"; her two granddaughters sang it over and over again to her. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. F. Garrett, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the body was laid in the Waller Cemetery, at Waller, Texas, beside her husband.

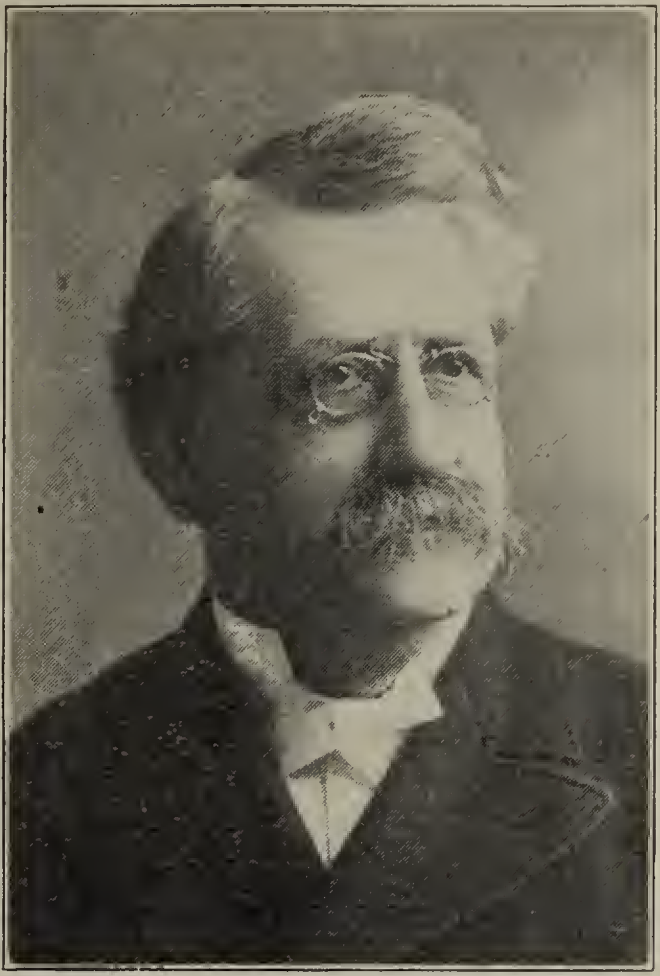
GEORGE H. HILL.

George H. Hill was born in Lunenburg, Vermont, December 30, 1839. His parents, Rev. Lewis Hill and Olive Marsh Hill, were in the active ministry of the Vermont Conference nearly forty years. It was their wish that their only son should be a preacher. He was a Christian lad and throughout his life kept the faith of his fathers. But ambition led him to study the law. He was admitted to the bar and began practice in his native State, Vermont, in 1862.

The lure of the West drew him to Wisconsin, where he located in Sheboygan Falls. Soon the nation's distress led him to enlist as a recruit in the Fourth Wisconsin Cavalry, and he served until the close of the War. Throughout the rest of his life he maintained the same patriotic spirit and love for the flag. He counted it a privilege to wear the little bronze button, the emblem of the G. A. R.

After the war he located in Goshen, Indiana, and engaged in the drug business. On May 14, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Saida E. D. Peck. It was a union of rare devotion, each to the other, and they celebrated their golden wedding May 14, 1917, in their Indianapolis home.

Two years after their marriage they yielded themselves without reserve to the Christian ministry. For a year Brother Hill supplied the North Mishawaka Circuit, and in 1870 was admitted on trial to the North Indiana Conference and stationed at Bristol, where he remained two years. Failing health caused him to transfer to the Kansas Conference, where he served two years in pioneer charges before he gave up and moved to a farm. While there he was superintendent of the Sunday school held in the schoolhouse, and often held religious services in the neighborhood. One year, from early spring until midwinter, he preached every Sunday in a schoolhouse nine miles from home. The years in Kansas brought sorrow in the death of three baby boys.



Rev. George H. Hill.

In 1882 Brother Hill transferred back to the North Indiana Conference. From that time until his retirement his whole time and energy were given to the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom. He served the following charges: Mexico Circuit, South Whitley, Bourbon, Huntington, five years; High Street, Munice, five years; Grace Church, Richmond, three years; superintendent Richmond District, six years; Bluffton (nominal), and North Manchester. He served as delegate to the General Conferences at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1896, and Los Angeles, in 1904. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by DePauw University in 1897.

He was a student, a lover of books, a logician, and withal a modest man. Retiring in his disposition, he did not boast his own endowments or his achievements. Yet he had the courage of his convictions and his voice never called retreat but always forward to higher ideals. While a valiant soldier of the cross he was preeminently a minister of reconciliation and comfort. As pastor, preacher, adviser, friend, everywhere he was greatly beloved.

The breadth of his career as a student, lawyer, soldier, business man, farmer, and preacher, together with his large sympathy and keen insight into men's spiritual needs, enabled him to draw many men into the fold of Christ during his ministry. He was a preacher of more than usual power. Someone has said of his sermons: "He always seemed to have the message most needed. His calm yet forceful manner, and simple but wonderful confidence, gave strength and encouragement." He was the instrument of bringing many souls into Christ's kingdom and of rebuilding character and strengthening the weak.

After his retirement, in 1908, Dr. Hill and his family moved to Indianapolis, where he frequently assisted the pastors of the city churches. For one year, 1910-11, he regularly supplied the Columbia Avenue Church, where he was greatly beloved, and the work prospered in his care.

Dr. Hill lived in Richmond, Indiana, longer than in any other place. As pastor of Grace Church, as superintendent of the Richmond District, and as superannuate that had been his home. He was there while his wife and invalid daughter were in Colorado, and there he bore his greatest sorrow when his precious daughter died in 1906.

When the invitation came from Grace Church to attend the dedication of their rebuilt church on May 26, it was gladly accepted. On Saturday afternoon he, with his wife, went to Richmond. Shortly after the evening meal, in the home of dear friends, he was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage. He was taken to Reid Memorial Hospital, where every possible care was given him, and his loving wife was constantly with him, but he did not regain consciousness. Sunday night, at 11.30, May 26, 1918, his loving heart ceased to beat and his soul passed on into the life of God's own.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kramer opened their beautiful home that his body might lie there until the funeral. Richmond people were deeply impressed. They said: "God called him home to die."

Wednesday afternoon, May 29, impressive services were held in Grace Church, conducted by Rev. Somerville Light, D.D., superintendent of Richmond District. Prayer was offered by Dr. J. A. Beatty, the lesson read by Dr. H. L. Overdeer, the obituary by Dr. C. U. Wade. Dr. L. J. Naftzger spoke of Dr. Hill's ministry. Dr. Joseph Greene, of Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, Indianapolis, spoke of him as a retired minister, and Dr. C. E. Bacon told of his personal characteristics. Other ministers assisted at Earlham Cemetery, where he was laid to rest beside his beloved daughter Mary.

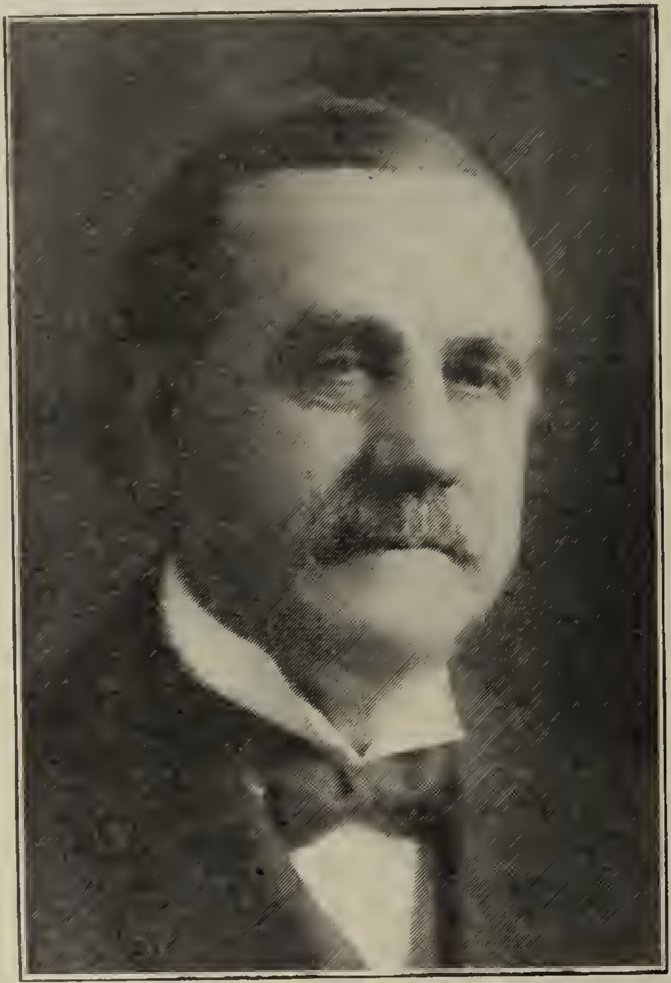
He is survived by his widow, two sons, and one sister—G. Edward Hill and wife and son Donald, Harry H. Hill and wife and daughter Rosemary, and Mrs. J. H. Knox, Stoneham, Massachusetts.

The presence at the funeral of ministers from over the State, and of delegations from Muncie and Huntington and Richmond District, bringing their tributes of flowers, showed how greatly this good man was loved.

Ministers said: "That was my ideal of a last service for a faithful servant of God called home"; "There was a triumphant note in it all"; " 'Twas like a coronation."

WILLIAM DAVID PARR.

In the eventide of a summer day the busy, active life of William David Parr, a gifted and unique minister of the Word, came to its earthly close. His travels, his varied experiences, his connection with a multitude of interests, made for him a large place in the councils of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The same factors extended his sphere beyond the limits of the church and contributed to an enlarged and broad-minded world-citizenship.



Rev. William David Parr.

Our brother was born near Jolietville, Indiana, November 10, 1855. He was the son of Alfred and Margaret Parr. The young mother died while he was yet in his infancy, and he grew up under the care of a good woman who was the mother of his father's other six sons and only daughter. A finer example of the elder brother than was found in the man's praise whose praise we express is not found in the family life of our Commonwealth. William D. Parr and Miss Cora Walton, of Atlanta, Ind., were married January 11, 1883. Four children came to the home: Mrs. Leslie R. Naftzger, whose husband is a major in the American Expeditionary Forces in France; Walton Parr, of Camp Taylor, Kentucky; Mrs. Lawrence Birch, of Danville, Illinois, and Miss Mildred Parr, at home. The purity, kindness, and high-mindedness of the man were nowhere more evidenced than within the circle of the home. Of his father's family there survive his half-sister, Mrs. Frank Haston, of Lebanon, Indiana, and four half-brothers: Charles Parr, Sheridan; Frank Parr, Lebanon; Dr. Harry Parr, Indianapolis, and Dr. Emery Parr, in the West.

From the local public school, when yet a lad, William D. Parr entered the Greencastle Preparatory School of Indiana Asbury University. He completed the work there and was admitted to the Asbury College of Liberal Arts, whence he graduated in 1875. The course in Drew Theological Seminary followed. At the session of the North Indiana Conference, held at Anderson by Bishop Peck, April 3-8, 1878, nine young men were admitted. So far as is known to the writer, but two of these survive: John T. Fettro and Robert S. Reed. Third Street, Ft. Wayne, was the first appointment, and in order his assignments follow: Westfield, Cambridge City, Waterloo, Elkhart, Kokomo, Wayne Street at Ft. Wayne, Kokomo District; Assistant Secretary of the Board of Church Extension. Since 1912 he has been dedicator of churches at large. Notable revivals attended his ministry at Westfield, Kokomo, and elsewhere. At Waterloo a church was built under very trying circumstances; Trinity Church, Elkhart, and Grace Church, Kokomo, are monuments to his wisdom, skill, and devotion. Probably he dedicated more churches than any other man of his day.

Doctor Parr was a member of the Board of Trustees of Taylor University, of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Hospital, of the Wesley Foundation for Student Work at Purdue University, and since 1894 a member of the Board of Trustees of DePauw University. Four times his colleagues honored him with membership in the General Conference. He was a personal friend of McCabe, Fowler, and other leaders of the church, and was as widely acquainted with Methodism as any of his peers. In 1901 he was a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference in London. Clark University and DePauw University conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

It should be stated that in addition to the conventional work of the ministry, William D. Parr was interested in civic affairs. He took an active part in praiseworthy political and social movements, and served as a member of the City Park Board; he was also a much appreciated advisor in matters of weighty responsibilities. In business life he was president of the Planhard Manufacturing Company, a director in the Kokomo Steel and Wire Company, and a director of the Globe Stove and Range Company.

On Sunday, August 4, it was his pleasure to dedicate the new church at Atlanta, Indiana, a place very dear to him, because it was the scene of his first labors, and the girlhood home of Mrs. Parr. The last of his earthly Sabbaths he taught his Sunday-school class, and was in attendance upon the morning worship. Just after the midnight hour he was stricken, and he passed away at eight o'clock in the evening, August 12, at the age of sixty-two. From expressions which he had made to Mrs. Parr, there were indications that he suspected that the time of departure was near and that the path to the Shining City was clear.

The funeral services were conducted in Grace Church, Kokomo, by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Freeland. Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, district superintendent, led in prayer; addresses were made by Doctors George R. Grose, Hilary A. Gobin, and Leslie J. Naftzger; by Professor Newton Wray and Mr. A. B. Cline. Interment was made at Kokomo.

W. B. Freeland.

REV. H. EARL COE.

"A good soldier of Jesus Christ." Having definitely determined that accomplishment in childhood, having been trained and disciplined by godly parents to appreciate every moral and spiritual grace, having been vitally related to the program of the high school, the university, and the theological seminary, having purposed in his heart to unselfishly serve humanity and glorify God, Rev. Henry Earl Coe, the son of Henry E. and Hattie A. Coe, won the highest distinction of being "a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

He was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, August 3, 1893, and was accidentally drowned in Wiley Lake, near Corunna, Indiana, about 12.30 P. M., August 13, 1918.

He was a graduate of Auburn High School, of Ohio Wesleyan University, where he was awarded a hundred-dollar scholarship for higher education, and also graduated from Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey.

He was admitted to the Conference in 1917. He was appointed to the Corunna and Wayne Center charge by Bishop Nicholson, April, 1918.

Rev. H. Earl Coe.

Humble, kind, good, and true are the expressions of appreciation for his life by those who knew him intimately. His frankness and evident sincerity made for him in a very brief time a large circle of friends in the ministry, and his faithfulness to the work of the parish and the beautiful, Christlike spirit developed a great appreciation from his home community.

His saintly mother passed to her heavenly home December 30, 1917, and now his loving father, two brothers—George, of Sacramento, California, and Robert, of Long Beach—and an only sister, Mrs. Jessie Bair, of St. Paul, Minnesota, are again weeping over the departure of a loved one, but sustained and comforted with the assurance that mother and son are safe in the arms of Jesus.

The funeral was held in his own church at Corunna, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, August 16, 1918, in charge of District Superintendent Wade and Rev. F. A. LeMaster, of Kendallville. Fourteen of his brother ministers were present and assisted in the impressive services. The body was laid to rest in the Auburn Cemetery.

MRS. GRACE L. BURKETT.

These lines present—though in all too poor a fashion—something of the spirit of Mrs. Grace L. Burkett, wife of A. D. Burkett, of the North Indiana Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Burkett, daughter of William and Clara Campbell, was born near Salem, Blue Creek Township, Adams County, Indiana, January 16, 1878. Sickly in childhood, only constant, loving care on the part of her parents brought her to healthy girlhood. But as the years passed she repaid that care manyfold. For, by the early death of both an older and a younger sister, she was left as the only daughter to her parents and as the only sister to her five brothers. And, because of the infirmities of her mother, she, in the sense of service, mothered the family and became a wise and efficient home-keeper.

Three great ideas gripped her in girlhood, remained with her through life, became part of the very fiber and tissue of her being, and so molded her into as noble and useful a character as the great, quiet, unassuming, unheralded part of the world possessed. These ideas were: (1) to be a true Christian girl; (2) to get a good education; (3) to live a life of unselfish service.

Her positive Christian life began with childhood's spiritual awakening and continued in a thorough and unwavering consecration of her whole being to Christ and his cause; in reverence for all things sacred, and in an effort to attain the highest and purest ideals of Christian womanhood for herself, and to live a life of the largest possible service for others. There was never a break in this spirit and purpose. Quietly, unassumingly, but faithfully, she walked on the highway of holiness over which her Saviour Friend journeyed to the city of God.

Her education took the form of study in the common schools, a course at the Tri-State Normal at Angola, Indiana, several years of successful teaching, and then, after her marriage, of a continuous, systematic, and definite home study along lines of good home-making and religious activities.

April 19, 1903, she was married to A. D. Burkett. Then followed fifteen and a half beautiful, happy years with her husband in the ministry in the Rock River Conference, the Wyoming Mission, and the North Indiana Conference. She became the mother of two sons, Merrill and Luther, who, at the time of her death, were fourteen and ten years of age, respectively.

Her home life was rich in thoughtful plans and unselfish service. Simplicity, system, order, cleanliness, hospitality, the best in literature and music, beauty, harmony, and religiousness, constant self-denial for the cause of her Christ were the things that characterized her home. Bedtime and rising, study and work and play were largely regulated by the clock. She taught her family to aid her in cooking, washing, sweeping, dusting, making beds, and so taught as that to do these things was accounted a privilege. And with her own hands she labored cheerfully for her loved ones, caring for her home, canning the fruits, making the garments, helping to beautify and fructify garden and lawn; teaching the boys music and helping them in their studies, and still finding time to take an active and ofttimes a leading part in the various religious, social, and philanthropic activities of church and community life, and to visit much, alike in the homes of the rich and the poor, the learned and the unlearned, adjusting herself with equal felicity to the tastes and environs of both, and so living a life of genuine usefulness and friendship for all.

Mrs. Grace L. Burkett.

To her husband, by loving and wise suggestions; by faith unfailing amid discouragements; by hearty, sympathetic, helpful interest in all the things that make up a minister's life; by tender care in weeks of illness; she was in all things a helpmeet, worthy to be accounted a gift from God. Between husband and wife the most perfect understanding and harmony prevailed. The days and weeks and months and years were planned together. The money of the proverbially lean purse of the preacher was to both "free as the water in the well." The ideals and ambitions of both were one, and together father and mother and boys journeyed, rejoicing day by day.

Then at the end of nineteen days of what seemed a light form of fever, quite suddenly and unexpectedly, on the 16th of September, 1918, the busy, happy, hopeful life of a little over forty years came to a close.

Or, did it come to a close? Such a life will never end. The body will slowly through decades molder back to dust. But Christian faith in immortality is still unshaken and now rises into full assurance. "She still lives and is present with us just as God is present with us." So said one of her sons, with the unerring intuition of a child. In the memory of her deeds, her teaching, her faith, her ideals, her words, her ways, and in the power of her immortal, ever-present spirit, she is living still, and is still beloved.

MRS. J. C. GRAHAM.

Elva Fisher Graham, the daughter of Stephen J. and Sarah Fisher, was born in Kosciusko County, Indiana, November 9, 1880, and departed this life at her parsonage home in Albion, Indiana, October 29, 1918, at the age of thirty-seven years, eleven months and twenty days.

Mrs. J. C. Graham.

She was one of twelve children and was fortunate in securing a good education, having attended high school and taken advanced Normal training.

She became acquainted with James Cook Graham, a young schoolmaster, and this intimate friendship culminated in a happy marriage January 23, 1903.

In April, 1904, Rev. and Mrs. Graham began their active work in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Park Place, Anderson, Indiana, spending two years in this field; they were then stationed on Whitley and Daleville charges, and Fifth Street, Richmond, for a period of two years at each place, thence moved to Leesburg for a few years' pastorate, then to St. Mark's, Goshen, for three years, and since April, 1917, they have labored in the Master's work at Albion.

Four children have come into this home; an infant daughter was given and taken November 13, 1903. A son, Leslie Jay, came to the parsonage home in Anderson, Indiana, July 6, 1905; the third, a daughter, Vivian Edith, was born in Muncie, November 21, 1906, and the fourth, Kenneth Henry, made his advent in the new home at Albion, April 18, 1917.

Sister Graham naturally possessed a cheerful disposition, a kindly spirit, and a winning personality. She was a splendid wife and mother for a parsonage home, diffusing inspiration, encouragement, and creating high ideals for the entire community life.

A recent personal letter from one of the good women of their former parish voiced this general sentiment of appreciation: "Your unselfish and kindly disposition, while you were among us, won the love and esteem of all, and our hearts beat in unison for you. Our prayers are that we may be able to achieve such a sublime, trustful spirit as has been manifested in your conversation during these days of your affliction."

During the past year her suffering was intense at times and a rapid decline was evident, but she was so happy and hopeful, for Jesus was so near and precious to her.

Sister Graham has toiled and sacrificed for home, friends, and the kingdom of God. Her character was as pure as crystal and clear as the noonday sun. She has given to the world an example of the beautiful Christ life, and now she has gone home to God.

The funeral services, which were private, were held from the parsonage home on Thursday morning. The services were in charge of the Rev. Dr. R. J. Wade, of Elkhart, who was assisted by other Methodist Episcopal pastors, twenty-one of whom were at the services. A large company of ladies from Goshen were present also. Burial took place at the Ulery Cemetery, about four miles from Packerton, Indiana.

F. A. LeMasters.

MRS. ADA GLEN LASLIE.

Mrs. Ada Glen Laslie, wife of Reuben T. Laslie, was born April 30, 1875, at Meeting Creek, Hardin County, Kentucky. She departed this life at the Deaconess Hospital, Spokane, Washington, November 20, 1918. Because of the illness of the children the burial service was not held until December 15, 1918; the burial was at Mauckport, Indiana. Services were conducted at Spokane, Washington, by Rev. Thos. Lawson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, November 23. The services at Mauckport were conducted by Rev. Edwards, of our church, December 15, 1918.

Mrs. Ada Glen Laslie.

Sister Laslie was one of the heavy toll of loved ones claimed by the awful scourge of influenza during the past year. At the time of the death of their mother, both the children of Sister Laslie were dangerously sick with the dreaded disease.

To the time of her final illness this splendid woman was a loyal support to her husband in his ministry and in his retirement. She was faithful to the church and was teacher of a class of boys and superintendent of the Home Department in the Sunday school when the end came.

She is survived by her husband, Reuben T. Laslie, and two children—Melvin H., aged sixteen, and Pauline E., aged nine; one child, Linnie E., having died in 1906 in Mauckport, Indiana. There are also her father, three sisters, and two brothers living in Kentucky.

These sad hours cannot be spoken of in terms of joy except as they come in the lives of the truly faithful. It is with joy that we hold in our memory the loyal service of this our departed sister.

Her marriage occurred December 28, 1897, and she became a member of the church a year later. The latter years required the frugal wisdom necessary to living on the income of a retired preacher. Patiently and successfully she did this work and now claims her reward.

REV. R. H. SMITH.

Rev. Richard H. Smith, eldest son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Wesley Smith, was born at Pleasant Hill, Montgomery County, Indiana, January 2, 1846, and died at his home in Alexandria, Indiana, November 22, 1918, aged seventy-two years, ten months, and twenty days.

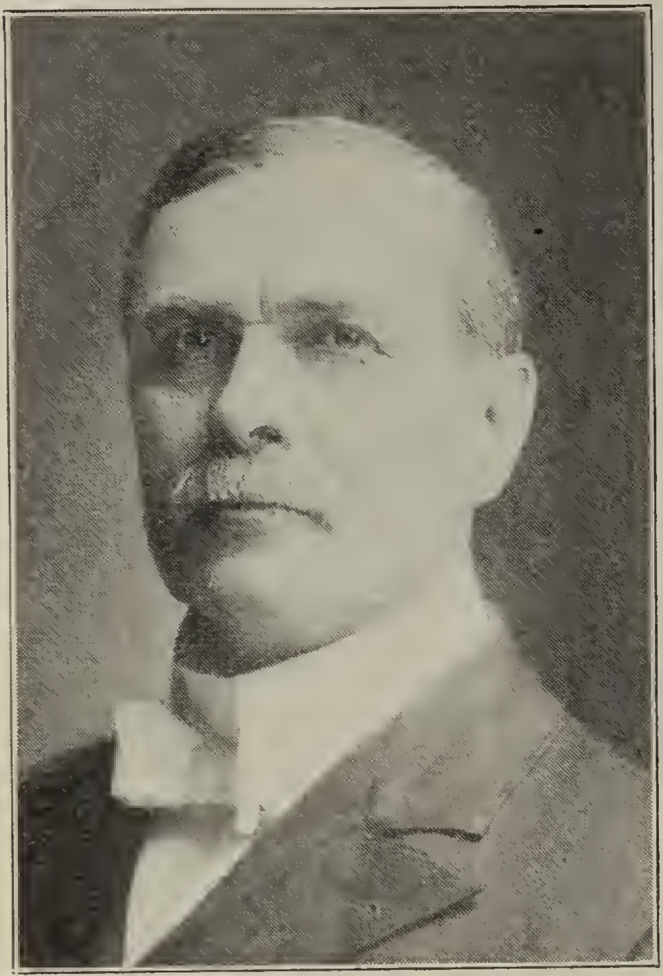
He was a grandson of the Rev. William H. Smith, a pioneer Methodist minister of the Northwest Indiana Conference. We find in his diary the following statement: "Among my earliest remembrances was the changing vicissitudes of and discomforts incident to the life of a Methodist itinerant minister. I thought when a boy, of all the callings in a human life, that of a Methodist minister, would be the last that I should choose. But when the call came, 'Go preach My gospel,' I conferred no longer with the flesh and blood but obeyed the call."

Brother Smith received the advantages of the schools in his childhood and youth, and taught school for a while; later he attended the Indiana Asbury University (now DePauw University), at Greencastle, Indiana. While in college he was converted and felt so sensibly the call to the ministry that he immediately began his preparation for his lifework, the ministry.

For this preparation he attended the Theological School at Evanston, Illinois, and had the advantages of the best instructors at that time. He was licensed to preach by the late N. H. Phillips, presiding elder at Xenia (now Converse), Indiana.

He was admitted into the North Indiana Conference at Logansport, Indiana, March 22, 1873, by Bishop Merrill.

He gave thirty-six years to the active ministry, taking a retired relation in 1909. He had the happy pleasure of seeing hundreds of people converted under his ministry. He was a great student of the Bible, and few persons gave so much time daily to the study of its pages as he did. This was evident to me, for whenever I called upon him for help, without any warning for preparation, he responded and did his work well.



Rev. R. H. Smith.

The last time I called upon him to lead the prayer meeting I saw he was feeble, but he wanted to do it. When the time came he said, "I am almost too tired, but I promised and I must do it." God bless such men who are ready to do even though they are tired! May the memory of this good man ever be fresh in our minds!

Brother Smith was one of those men whom you had to know to appreciate him. The more you became acquainted with him, the better you loved him. He was truly a Christian gentleman, a lover of his Bible and his church. Just as long as he was able he was regular in attendance. The last service he attended was the second communion service of this year. He had always assisted the pastor with the sacrament, but this time, after the elements had been consecrated, he asked to be excused as he was not able to assist. It was a trying time for him, as he had always taken part in the services. His strength was then failing and I feared that this would be his last service.

I went to his home often, and he would always say, "I am sorry that I cannot come to church. It is not because I do not want to come. I would be there if I could."

His main conversation in the home was the church and often he would ask, "How are you getting along? I am praying for you." His prayers here upon earth hath ceased, but his worship in heaven with the Master hath just begun. Our loss is his gain. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." His faith has triumphed. He could say, if he were here, as the apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

The last call I made on him was on Wednesday evening before he died on Friday morning. He was then so cheerful, and felt that he was going to get better. When I started away he said, "Come again, come soon."

In his last devotion in the home with his good wife, he said, "Whether I die or whether I live, I am the Lord's." This was evident of a Christian life, of a life well lived, of a life well spent in the Master's service.

He answered the call of his country March 1, 1864, and served to the end of the war. He was a member of Company G, 48th Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He became a member of the G. A. R. in 1877, during his pastorate at Churubusco, Indiana, and served as chaplain, and also at Larwill, Indiana. As there was no G. A. R. at Alexandria, Indiana, he became a member of the Williams Post, No. 78, Muncie, Indiana. He was also a member of the F. and A. M., No. 235; also of the Chapter, No. 99, and of the Council, No. 85, and of the Eastern Star, No. 179, of Alexandria, Indiana.

He was twice married; first to Miss Alice M. Humphries, of Fortville, Indiana. To this union were born four children: Bertha M., now the wife of Will W. Brown, of Newcastle, Indiana; Wilbur Vaughn, of Muncie, Indiana; Ethel May, deceased, and Ellen Fern, now the wife of Curtis D. Kirklin, of Muncie, Indiana; Mr. Kirklin is somewhere in France.

Mrs. Smith dies in 1902, during his second pastorate at New Burlington, Indiana. On October 24, 1906, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna E. Kershner, at Fortville, Indiana, of Ansonia, Ohio.

Brother Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna E. Smith, of Alexandria, Indiana; Mrs. Will W. Brown, of Newcastle, Indiana; Wilbur Vaughn Smith, of Muncie, Indiana, and Mrs. Curtis D. Kirklin, of Muncie, Indiana. Also one sister, Mrs. Eleanor Woodruff, of Ligonier, Indiana; two brothers, Watson D. Smith, of Marion, Indiana, and Samuel Smith, of Michigan; and one grandchild, Elemer Wilson Brown, of Newcastle, Indiana.

"I would not live alway, I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer."

Funeral services were held November 25, 1918, from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Alexandria, Indiana, in charge of his pastor, the Rev. E. C. Dunn, assisted by Dr. J. A. Beatty, district superintendent; D. V. Williams, J. J. Fred, F. M. Lacy, G. B. Work, W. A. Griest, R. S. Reed, and G. W. Winfrey. Dr. A. E. Harlan spoke on Brother Smith as a Mason. Miss Geraldine Dunn sang, "Above the Bright Blue," and Rev. Watsón Kershner, of Cincinnati, Ohio, sang, "His Eye Is On the Sparrow." The burial took place in the beautiful Beach Grove Cemetery at Muncie, Indiana.

E. C. Dunn, Pastor.

FRANKLIN PIERCE JOHNSON.

Franklin Pierce Johnson was born in Kosciusko County, Indiana, near the city of Warsaw, on October 26, 1879. He passed to the home beyond February 27, 1919, at Churubusco, Indiana. The epidemic of influenza claimed him as one of its victims, after a brief illness.

At an early age he was converted and became a member of the church, and in young manhood felt an unmistakable call to the ministry. After completing his public-school education he pursued his collegiate studies at Taylor University, from which institution he was graduated with honors. Being admitted to the North Indiana Conference in 1905, he served the following charges: Oak Grove Circuit, Woodburn, Hudson, Hoagland, Coesse, Center, and Churubusco Circuit. He was finishing up his third year as pastor of the latter circuit when he was translated. Throughout his effective ministry the Lord blessed his work with many gracious revivals. As a preacher he was clear in thought, forceful in delivery, and spiritual in tone. Not only was Brother Johnson an able minister of Jesus Christ, but he was also a man of high literary tastes and talents, being the author of a number of short stories, which were published in magazines. The most pretentious product of his pen was a religious novel or romance, "To Him That Overcometh," which was published in book form and enjoyed considerable circulation.

Rev. Franklin Pierce Johnson.

Because of a nervous breakdown he held supernumerary relations with the Conference in 1915, and was never again able to take heavy pastoral work because of ill health.

Brother Johnson is survived by his wife, Ella Gutshall; one daughter, Agnes Irene, and his parents, Frederick and Elizabeth May Johnson. Funeral services were held in the Churubusco Methodist Episcopal Church, under the direction of Rev. R. H. Wehrly, pastor. Funeral addresses were delivered by Rev. A. G. Neal, of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Ft. Wayne, and Rev. Thomas J. Bean, of Columbia City. The burial was in Winter's Cemetery, near Dunkirk, Indiana. We close this brief tribute by quoting a verse from his favorite hymn, a part of which he repeated to those at his bedside just before he passed into eternity:

> "My faith looks up to thee,
> Thou Lamb of Calvary,
> Saviour divine!
> Now hear me while I pray,
> Take all my guilt away,
> O let me from this day
> Be wholly thine!"

The meeting was called to order by its President, E. Starbuck.

The devotionals were in charge of H. L. Burr, and the singing was led by Bro. G. E. Meck.

Following the devotionals, the chair appointed two committees, as follows, with instructions to report at the session of Saturday morning, the 5th:

Committee on Resolutions—A. B. Cline, Ft. Wayne District; F. W. Greene, Goshen District; Charles Hodgin, Logansport District; S. T. Waite, Muncie District; H. L. Burr, Richmond District; O. W. Outland, Wabash District.

Committee on Nominations—J. D. Coppes, Goshen District; E. E. Youse, Wabash District; G. E. Meck, Logansport District.

Upon request of the chair, Bro. Vahinger, President of Taylor University, spoke enthusiastically of the work accomplished in a spiritual way by the university.

Prof. J. W. Kendall, of Peru, Indiana, gave an address of welcome in a fifteen-minute talk. He feelingly extended the hand of fellowship to the Laymen of the Conference in behalf of Peru.

Bro. H. L. Burr, of Newcastle, in a few well-chosen words responded to the address of welcome.

A few minutes of time being available before the next number on the program as arranged, the chairman called on Bro. A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, for a ten-minute talk. He spoke impressively of the importance of the spiritual interest that must be taken by the Laymen.

The chair at this time introduced to the Conference Bro. Phillippi, of the Illinois Conference, and Bro. Smith, of Chicago.

Mrs. Nicholson, wife of our beloved Bishop, was then introduced. She spoke for a period of thirty-five minutes, mentioning the work accomplished and aid extended to the needy ones in the district in Chicago surrounding Marcy Center; spoke briefly on missionary work needed in Japan, and dwelt chiefly on the work being done at Gary, at Friendship House, established and conducted by Mrs. Campbell under difficulties. Her plea was indeed earnest, and following her address a collection of $42.47 was taken in behalf of Friendship House.

Bro. C. H. Neff, of Anderson, gave a talk of twenty minutes on "Stewardship of Life," a talk that was instructive and very inspiring.

J. D. Coppes spoke on "Stewardship of Prayer." Himself imbued with the spirit of his subject, the audience was much impressed with his talk.

Bro. J. W. Gardiner, President of the Northwest Indiana Conference Laymen's Association, was introduced to the Conference.

Rev. Roy B. Smith, of St. Paul's Church, Chicago, gave a forty-minute address. His talk was one of the interesting numbers on the program, full of pointed epigrams, and exemplified the direct application of Christianity to the world's needs, centering largely to the accomplishments in his pastorate.

The chairman expressed the need of funds to take care of expenses incurred, and a collection of $14.43 was secured. Adjournment was taken until 1.30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session opened at 1.30, with Bro. J. W. Gardiner, of Reynolds, Indiana, in charge of the devotionals, and G. E. Meck, the singing. Bro. Gardiner read excerpts from the Old and New Scriptures, with a few words of exposition, and led in prayer.

The chair presented Bro. A. B. Cline, who is President of the Conference Minute Men's Council, as presiding officer of the afternoon session. He commented on the splendid program of the morning and its allusion to the practical life.

Bro. Jesse McKinney, of Dunkirk, gave an address on "Stewardship of Property." He emphasized God's ownership in an earnest appeal.

Prof. E. J. Llewelyn, of Newcastle, delivered a twenty-minute address on "The Church Back of It All." He pointed out the lack of prayer for the church and gave a survey of the needs of the church for the future.

Bro. John W. Perry, of Chicago, Area Secretary of the Minute Men, in a few minutes' talk spoke of the need of the Centenary and its challenge to the church.

Bro. Alonzo E. Wilson, of the Rock River Conference, Illinois, national representative of the Centenary, gave a short address.

Dr. Fred B. Fisher was called upon by the chair for an address. His presentation of his experiences and his thoughts in relation to the missions of the Orient were inspiring. He indicated that the success of the Christian faith must be accomplished by the individual solicitation.

As the collection of the morning session was not sufficient to meet all the expenses, the chair solicited another, at which $10.75 was received.

Adjournment was taken until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSION.

The session opened Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Bro. Deems, of Bluffton, presided at devotionals. He read as a Scripture lesson the twelfth chapter of Romans. Bro. A. B. Cline offered prayer.

Bro. John Perry spoke a few minutes on the work of the Conference Minute Men. He explained the difficulty of furnishing literature to the Minute Men because of the fast increasing number.

The chairman called attention to the fact that music had played a small part in the program of the convention because the time had been filled so well with noteworthy features by the speakers. He called upon Bro. Deems to sing a solo.

Bro. Deems sang "Jesus Included Me." Mrs. R. J. Wade accompanied upon the piano.

Judge Bowser, of the Circuit Court at Warsaw, gave a five minutes' talk on the Centenary.

The chair then called for the report of the Committee on Nominations. The committee reported the following names, which were unanimously elected:

President—E. Starbuck, Ft. Wayne.
Vice-President—D. O. Skillen, Yorktown.
Secretary-Treasurer—F. W. Greene, Syracuse.
President Ft. Wayne District—Dr. Wm. Enslen, Ft. Wayne.
President Goshen District—D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka.
President Logansport District—Geo. E. Meck, Kokomo.
President Muncie District—S. T. Waite, Muncie.
President Richmond District—Jesse McKinney, Dunkirk.
President Wabash District—E. E. Youse, Markel.

J. C. COPPES,
GEO. E. MECK,
Committee.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

"The following resolutions are presented for your consideration:

"1. We praise God for the Centenary. It has been the means under God of rousing our people to a more active participation in Christian work and duties, and has caused us to rise to an advanced standard of Christian living.

"We believe God has blessed the Methodist Episcopal Church in times past that it might come to the Kingdom for such an hour as this, and we urge upon both our pastors and people to continue the movement now under way, especially the Stewardship of Prayer, Life, and Property. And we pledge our best efforts to this work until the name of Methodist shall be synonymous with that of the highest type of Christian citizenship.

"2. WHEREAS, There are negotiations pending between Taylor University and the North Indiana Annual Conference for the transfer of the university to said Conference for ownership and management; be it

"Resolved, We therefore indorse the plan for the transfer; and be it further

"Resolved, We endorse such plans for its material support as the Conference may deem advisable.

"3. WHEREAS, The laity of the Conference are vitally interested in the business of the Conference as transacted in its annual sessions; be it

"Resolved, That in succeeding meetings of the Laymen's Conventions the programs be so arranged that the joint sessions with the Annual Conference may include at least one of the strictly business sessions of the Conference.

"4. Because of the love and veneration which we hold for our fathers in Isarel, the retired ministers of the North Indiana Conference, the admiration and loyalty which we feel for the men who are doing the work of the ministry to-day, and the expectancy and desire which we have for the red-blooded youth who will enter our glorious ministry, we most heartily and enthusiastically endorse the One Million Dollar Campaign for Conference Claimants now being prosecuted in our Conference by the Preachers' Aid Society. We most earnestly commend the fund as a fundamental provision for the future stability and success of the Methodist Episcopal Church in our great North Indiana Conference territory.

"We further express our gratification and satisfaction that the total assets of the Society have passed four hundred thousand dollars, and hope that the total goal of one million dollars will be reached in the near future. Therefore,

"Resolved, That we pledge our earnest co-operation in the program and work of the Preachers' Aid Society, and recommend that the same be unremittingly prosecuted through the remaining four districts of our Conference as it has been in the Goshen and Ft. Wayne Districts.

"5. We rejoice in the ratification of the constitutional amendment giving the United States national prohibition, and pledge ourselves to support for public office in State and nation candidates to favor legislation which will make the amendment rigidly effective.

"We believe this is the opportune time for carrying the campaign for prohibition into the nations of the world.

"6. WHEREAS, The session of the Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference has been the largest and most helpful ever held, and which is entirely due to the intense interest that is being taken by the laymen in the new and larger activities of the church;

"WHEREAS, Our beloved President, E. Starbuck, has borne the burden and the heat of the day in arranging for this great convention, we feel we would be leaving a duty undone not to express our thanks and hearty appreciation to him for his labors; therefore be it

"Resolved, That this Association feels its debt of love and affection for him and his work in our behalf, and hope his association with us will last for years to come.

"7. Be is further Resolved, That the Laymen's Association extend its thanks to Mrs. Nicholson, the wife of our beloved Bishop, and Brothers Smith and Perry of Chicago, and Dr. Fred B. Fisher, and our own splendid laymen whose addresses were so inspiring and helpful;

"8. And Resolved, further, That the Association greatly appreciates the kindness of the Christian Church, pastor, and people, for the use of its house of worship for our sessions. "Respectfully submitted,

H. L. BURR, Chairman;
A. B. CLINE,
O. W. OUTLAND,
CHARLIE HODGIN,
S. T. WAITE,
F. W. GREENE, Secretary,
Committee.

Bro. A. Nowland, of Frankfort, spoke enthusiastically on a phase of the Centenary.

Bro. C. H. Floyd, of Moran, told of creating interest in his congregation by presenting a number of subscriptions to the World's Outlook to members.

H. L. Burr spoke on the necessity of a plan of education in the Sunday schools to facilitate the success of the Centenary.

F. M. Schroeder, of Larwill, suggested the way to educate a Sunday school in the Centenary plan was for someone first to be alive and active himself to start it.

J. W. Stockhouse, Etna Green, briefly stated that if the Centenary education was first brought up in the charge, to raise the sum of money needed would then be an easy task.

The business session was adjourned at 10.20 and the Association retired to meet in joint session at 10.30 with the Annual Conference at the First Methodist Church, with Bishop Nicholson presiding. Minutes of the joint session were kept by the Conference Secretary, and are part of the Conference Minutes.

E, Starbuck, President.
A. L. Miller, Secretary.

MEMORANDA

(XIV) Historical

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1919, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy. Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired; Tr., Transferred.
SECRETARY.

Explanatory.—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY

UPLAND, INDIANA

Taylor University has just closed the most wonderful revival in her history. It was a veritable Pentecost. The church was founded on the Day of Pentecost. The College must continue this great work. Pentecost can be had in these days when the condition is met. ¶ Taylor University is a monument to the sainted Bishop William Taylor who belted the globe in his zeal to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. His mantle has fallen on the students of Taylor University. ¶ Taylor University has sent out forty-one missionaries in eleven years. The output is the test of the proper equipment for a college. Evidently judging from the output, Taylor University has the great equipment for a college; an indispensable equipment for any Christian college. The greatest legacy that can be given to a son or daughter is to put them in a school with these equipments. Stewards of the Lord must certainly hear His call to support a school of this character. It must be supported entirely by friends of Christian education, as it has practically no endowment. ¶ Departments: College, Academy, Theology, Music, Normal, Domestic Science, Business, Art, and Expression. ¶ Fall term opens September 24, 1919. ¶ Send for catalog and other information to whose claim to your support lies not only in

The Aim of its Founders, who, "deeming next to the religion of the Son of God, the lights of Science best calculated to lessen human woe, and to increase the sum of human happiness" pledged their support to "a university forever to be conducted on the most liberal principles, accessible to all religious denominations, and designated for the benefit of our citizens in general," nor in its in plant and Endowment, placing it among the first five schools of Methodism, nor yet in its but because now, as in the past, DEPAUW is giving to the world leaders with vision,—men with Ideals as well as Ideas.

North Indiana
ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Methodist Episcopal Church

THOMAS NICHOLSON, D.D., LL.D.
BISHOP

D. V. WILLIAMS
SECRETARY

Seventy-seventh Session
Richmond, Ind., April 7-12, 1920

PRICE, THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

Church and Home Insurance

The National Mutual Church Insurance Co.
OF CHICAGO

Organized by order of the General Conference of 1896 is now in its twenty-second year, during which time policies have been issued for over ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SIX MILLION DOLLARS ($186,000,000.00) of which great total more than FORTY-SIX MILLION DOLLARS ($46,000,000.00) is now in force. Our business last year increased nearly THREE MILLION DOLLARS ($3,000,000.00)

A Fire Loss

Over Four Thousand Five Hundred losses have been sustained, amounting to over One and One-Third Million Dollars, all having been promptly paid. Protection AT COST. Send application direct to this, your own organization, and not only save some of the money that it is your duty to save, but also have a hand in the building up of this great institution that besides saving over ONE AND ONE-THIRD MILLION DOLLARS of premium money to Methodists in addition to the losses paid, enables the church to continue its work in many localities where without our assistance it would have been permanently closed.

Insures Churches, Parsonages Homes and Household Goods of Preachers, Hospitals, Schools, Dwellings and Personal Effects of Church Members. Expense comes in easy annual installments or when preferred special reduction allowed for pre-payment of term policy. NO ASSESSMENTS. INSURES AGAINST FIRE, LIGHTNING AND WINDSTORM. If all property is not insured up to three-fourths of the value under the present high cost, write us promptly.

A Tornado Loss

(VII) Daily Proceedings.

JOURNAL OF THE NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

FIRST DAY.

Richmond, Indiana, Wednesday, April 7, 1920.

The North Indiana Annual Conference convened in its seventy-seventh session in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Richmond, Indiana, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

He called the Conference to order by saying, "Let us sing this great hymn of the church, No. 78,

"Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

After the singing of this hymn, at the Bishop's request, C. E. Line led the Conference in prayer. This was followed by singing hymn No. 98,

"There's a Wideness in God's Mercy."

He continued the devotional service of the Conference by reading a few verses from Mark, 10th chapter, ninth verse, and 2 Corinthians, 8th chapter. He then addressed the Conference on the subject of "Personal Sacrifice," based upon these Scriptures.

The Lord's Supper.—The Bishop, with the assistance of the District Superintendents, the pastor of the local church and President Grose, of DePauw University, conducted a very beautiful and impressive sacramental service. The Conference joined in the use of the Lord's Prayer, and President Grose led in the use of the Ritual Service. After the Bishop had used the benediction prayer, the Conference joined in singing hymn No. 143,

"In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

Which singing closed the sacramental service.

Roll Call.—At the request of the Bishop, the Secretary of the last session of the Conference, D. V. Williams, called the names of the following members of the Conference who had passed to their reward since the last session; the Conference standing during this roll call. Thomas H. C. The Journal of the Saturday and Sunday sessions was read and approved.

Representation.—Charles R. Oaten, of the Board of Conference Claimants, represented that Board in a brief address.

The following resolution was introduced by C. H. Smith and adopted as amended on motion of D. H. Guild:

We, the members of the North Indiana Annual Conference, reaffirm our position taken last Saturday in protesting against the creation of an Indiana Episcopal Area with Indianapolis as the seat of the Episcopal residence.

We also reaffirm our action in asking the General Conference that we remain an intregal part of the Chicago Area.

We also ask our delegates to oppose the formation of any more Episcopal Areas in United States of America, at the coming session of the General Conference.

If, however, it becomes necessary for our delegates to consent to the formation of an Indiana Area, in order to protect the best interest of our own Conference, we do not want our action arbitrarily to prevent them from exercising their own best judgment in the matter.

Amendment.—The first three delegates-elect to the General Conference shall constitute a committee to confer with committees from the other two Conferences of Indiana concerning this resolution.

Orphanage.—C. U. Wade called attention to the construction of an Orphanage. J. C. White read the report of the committee which was adopted. (See Reports.)

Change of Relation.—On motion the case of M. S. Marble was referred to the Committee on Conference Relation.

Reports of Committees.—The following committees reported and the reports were adopted: District Conference Journals, Sunday Schools, Temperance and Moral Questions, American Bible Society, Taylor University, Hospitals. (See Reports.)

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that, when we adjourn this morning, we adjourn to meet again at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Introduction.—Timothy Nicholson, President of the Board of Trustees of the State Anti-Saloon League, and a prominent citizen of Richmond and leading member of the Friends' Church, was introduced and greeted the Conference in a brief address. J. E. Williams, retired minister, spoke concerning the Retired Brethren.

L. J. Naftzger was asked to make announcements concerning the Bible School at Winona for the summer; after which Bishop Nicholson spoke briefly upon Winona.

The Conference Board of Stewards made their report, which was adopted.

The Commission on Reports made a report, which was adopted and the commission continued.

C. U. Wade made a report on unmarked graves of deceased ministers, which was adopted. (See Reports.)

A resolution was presented by C. H. Smith on Unification and was adopted. (See Resolution.)

Committee on Foreign Missions made report by Sherman Powell, which was adopted.

A Committee on Sustentation made a report, which was amended and adopted.

The Committee on Wesley Foundation made report, which was adopted.

The Conference Statistician made a report of totals, which was adopted.

The Conference Treasurer made a report showing that the grand total given was $665,958, and the long-meter Doxology was sung.

On motion of S. Light, C. M. Peirce, an Elder in the Indiana Conference of the Evangelical Association, was received on his credentials and he was granted a Certificate of Location at his own request.

The Board of Deaconess work made a report, which was adopted.

Printing Minutes.—The following motion in regard to the publication of the Conference Minutes was made, and adopted.

On motion of W. E. Pittenger, the Secretary was ordered to have printed 5,000 copies of the transactions of this Conference session, together with the reports and statistics, as the Official Journal, and to distribute the same to the districts pro rata with the number of members in full connection, and to send a copy to each retired member living without the bounds of the Conference and a copy to each Conference widow, and also to have a volume containing the records of the whole quadrennium bound and forwarded to the General Conference. It was further ordered that one hundred dollars be added to expense account of printing the Minutes to be given to the Secretary of the Conference as part pay for his services as Secretary.

Collection.—It was ordered that a collection for janitor of this church be taken this afternoon before the appointments were made.

Program Committee.—On motion it was ordered that the pastor of our church at Elwood and the District Superintendent of Logansport District be constituted a committee on program for the next session of the Conference.

On motion the Commission on Education was continued.

W. W. Martin called attention to matters in connection with the appointment of an associate pastor for the First Church in Ft. Wayne, with reference to a church in Lake Side; and a committee was ordered consisting of W. W. Martin, R. J. Wade, and A. B. Cline.

Rev. J. W. Potter was unable to preach the Memorial Sermon this year on account of sickness, but was appointed to preach it next year.

Board of Examiners.—W. W. Wiant was appointed to take the place of Arthur Cates, transferred, on the Board of Examiners.

Conference Auditor made his report, which was adopted.

The following additional transfers out of the Conference were reported: William A. Griest to Northwest Indiana Conference, and R. C. Ballard to the Dakota Conference.

The Committee on Education made its report by J. O. Powell, which was adopted.

On motion it was ordered that the Cabinet nominate persons for any committee that may have been overlooked.

On motion of J. C. White it was ordered that pastors send all moneys, for general or Conference benevolences, to the Treasurers of respective boards and obtain vouchers before coming to the Annual Conference.

R. J. Wade called attention to work done in this Conference for Deaf Mutes, and on motion it was ordered that $20 a year from each district be paid from the amount for Home Missions.

Conference adjourned with the benediction by M. S. Marble.

SIXTH DAY.

Afternoon Session.

Monday, April 12, 1920.

The Conference convened at 2.30 P. M., with C. U. Wade in the chair by request of the Bishop. The devotions were conducted by the chair. Hymn No. 388,

"A Charge to Keep I Have,"

was sung, and prayer was offered by R. C. Jones. Hymn No. 386,

"Stand Up, Stand Up, for Jesus,"

was sung, and prayer was offered by D. H. Guild, A. G. Neal, J. C. Woodruff, Jeppe Jensen, and F. F. Thornburg.

A collection was taken for the organist, Mrs. Irene Ryan, who had presided at the organ at every session, both day and night; and the church janitor, who had been very faithful to the needs of the Conference. The collection amounted to $40, and was turned over to the pastor of the church to be handed to these persons.

Hymn No. 654,

"O Zion, Haste, Thy Mission Fulfilling,"

was sung, and prayer was offered by L. A. Swisher, D. T. Stephenson, and C. E. Line.

Hymn No. 315,

"Nearer, My God to Thee,"

was sung, and G. F. Hubbartt, E. L. Semans, and Sherman Powell led in prayer.

On motion of B. S. Hollopeter, the delegates to the General Conference were instructed to present a memorial to the General Conference, to the effect that the Board of Stewards shall hereafter give credit for consecutive years of Supply work done by a preacher immediately prior to becoming member of the Annual Conference, provided the preacher has given ten years of service in the effective relation.

Miss Thelma Atchinson sang in a very pleasing manner the song, "He Lifted Me."

Recess.—On motion the Conference took recess at this time.

At 4.15 Conference convened, with C. U. Wade in the chair.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to send a message of sympathy and greetings to T. M. Guild, on account of the illness of Sister Guild, and to Rev. W. E. McCarty and J. S. Phillips, on account of personal illness.

The name of W. W. Wiant was substituted on the Commission on Education for that of R. L. Semans.

Bishop in Chair.—Bishop Nicholson took the chair and Conference business was continued.

The Committee on General Resolutions made report, which as adopted by a standing vote.

After the Bishop had briefly addressed the Conference on the general problems of making appointments, on motion it adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock this evening for final session.

Evening Session.

Monday, April 12, 1920.

According to the hour fixed by adjournment, the Conference convened at 7 o'clock, with Bishop Nicholson in the chair.

The Committee on Resolutions offered a supplementary clause to their resolutions, asking the General Conference to reassign Bishop Nicholson to the Chicago Area for the next quadrennium, which was unanimously adopted.

The Bishop addressed the Conference in a few final words, expressing his pleasure at presiding at the sessions of the North Indiana Conference, and in particular of his pleasure at this session, making special mention of the courteous treatment of the pastor and his wife and the fine co-operation of the members of the local church.

On motion of D. H. Guild, it was ordered that the Journal of this session be made the official Journal, and that the Memoirs be made the official memoirs of the Conference.

On motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that after the conducting the devotional services, and the reading the appointments by the Bishop, the North Indiana Annual Conference stand adjourned sine die.

Transfers.—The Bishop announced the names of the following transfers out: Raymond L. Semans to the Rock River Conference, M. E. Shattuck to the Detroit Conference. Transfers in: J. H. French from the Indiana Conference, Earl M. Ellsworth from the Rock River Conference, and Leslie Miller from the New England Conference.

Devotions.—The Bishop announced Hymn No. 540,

"O Could I Speak the Matchless Worth,"

which was sung. The Journal of the afternoon and evening sessions was approved without reading. The Bishop led the Conference in prayer. He then read the appointments and pronounced the benediction, and the North Indiana Annual Conference stood adjourned without day.

(VIII) Reports.

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

Wallace W. Martin, District Superintendent.

Wallace W. Martin.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren of the North Indiana Conference: For three successive years we have reported that no deaths have occurred in any of the homes of our ministers in the Ft. Wayne district. This year we are compelled to make a different report. Three retired members of this Conference have died: T. H. C. Beall, at his home in Decatur; Benneville Sawyer, temporarily sojourning in Mansfield, O.; J. K. Walts, at his home in Ft. Wayne: noble men of God who have joined the ranks triumphant. Mrs. M. F. Stright, wife of Rev. M. F. Stright, of Ashley, after years of weakness, has found her rest. Mrs. H. L. Overdeer, wife of Rev. H. L. Overdeer, pastor at Auburn, unexpectedly left us the 13th of this month. Suitable memoirs for all these worthies will appear in our Conference minutes.

Other homes have been visited. The small son of Brother and Sister Hornaday, and the son of Brother and Sister W. M. Hollopeter have been taken. In the home of the District Superintendent, Mrs. S. T. Thorne, saintly mother of Mrs. Martin, passed away at the advanced age of 89 years. District Superintendent and pastors have been brought into that sacred fellowship of sorrow that has possessed so many homes in the district, for 176 members of our churches have died and five hundred and thirty-seven funerals have been conducted by our pastors. How carefully we should live, when scenes like these have been about us!

Three pastors in the district have married during the year: George A. Snider, L. Winston Stone, and Russell A. Fenstermacher. We welcome these estimable young women to our ranks. Each is in entire sympathy with our work, devoted and consecrated.

Pastoral Labor.—Bishop Nicholson, for some reason last year, you seemed to favor the Logansport district. You took from Ft. Wayne district the Rev. F. A. Hail, our missionary secretary, for Logansport district; and you took Dr. W. T. Arnold from Bluffton, for Grace Church, Kokomo; and you took the Rev. F. F. Thornburg, from Decatur for Peru. These were men upon whom we depended much for counsel and achievement. We felt keenly their loss, and returned to our work a bit lonely and disconsolate. But you gave us for these men the Rev. C. H. Smith, the Rev. H. L. Overdeer, and the Rev. O. A. Trabue. In Bluffton, Auburn, and Garrett more than the allotment for the Centenary has been subscribed, and reports indicate that more than the first year's quota has been paid. At Bluffton Brother Smith reports 112 conversions and 141 accessions. At Auburn Brother Overdeer reports 121 conversions and 116 accessions. At Garrett Brother Trabue reports 216 conversions and 120 accessions.

Now, Bishop, if you will forgive me for my down-heartedness last spring, I will restore unto you two-fold next spring, if necessary, by allowing you to take two men from the district for Superintendents next spring, if Richmond and Goshen districts are open.

Forty-three pastors of Ft. Wayne district report 31,182 pastoral visits for the year, an average of 725 each. Nowhere is a man's success more affected for weal or woe, than in his shepherding of the flock.

There have been 800 baptisms, 337 marriages solemnized, 559 funerals attended, and the pastors report 930 subscribers to the "Western Christian Advocate."

Church Property.—On Sunday evening, March 29th, the tornado that swept over the country destroyed two churches on the Edgerton charge. We were at a quarterly meeting on this Sunday for this charge at People's Chapel, leaving about an hour before this calamity came upon our people. The Edgerton Church and the Pleasant Grove Church, at Townley, are both completely demolished.

At Arcola, newly organized last spring, the pastor, D. A. J. Brown, found no house that he could occupy, but the trustees met this difficulty by purchasing a new home for the minister at a cost of $2,500.

Decatur, Chas. Tinkham, pastor, has purchased a new site for the church they expected to erect, the cost of the site being $14,200.

Flint, a newly-organized charge, when Russell S. Jones was transferred to Denver, discovered the need of a parsonage upon the appointment of Darrell H. Stoakes, as pastor, and purchased for $1,000 the property adjoining the church.

First Church, Ft. Wayne, A. G. Neal, pastor, looking to the immediate installment of a parish house, and ultimately the enlarged new plant for church purposes. purchased an adjoining property at a cost of $11,250.

Simpson Church, Ft. Wayne, U. S. A. Bridge, pastor, accepted the challenge of the Board of Home Missions, that if they would provide for all the indebtedness of their church, $5,000 Centenary funds would be available for this purpose. They have raised and paid this Conference year on the $24,600 embarrassing debt, the sum of $5,800, and all the indebtedness has been provided for.

The Taylor Chapel Church, J. M. Stewart, pastor, was remodeled at an expense of about $3,100. It was rededicated on March 8th, by the District Superintendent. We needed $1,800 to meet all claims and secured in good subscriptions, $2,500. On the same charge at St. Joe Chapel, there has been paid on the debt $2,460 this year, and it was our privilege on March 20th to burn the note which was the last tangible evidence of this debt.

The Trinity Church, Ft. Wayne, has plans complete for the new $70,000 building. Manfred C. Wright, the pastor, deserves great credit for this achievement. He found a man, Mr. Krause, residing in that section of the city, who turned over to the church, through the Board of Home Missions, property valued at $26,400, with the agreement that the full quota of the Centenary should be met, and that Trinity should erect a church to cost not less than $60,000. The program is being worked out, and a large proportion of the needed sum has been pledged.

Early in the Conference year the Rev. J. R. Stelle, pastor Huntertown charge, set in motion the movement for a new church at Wallen, a stop on the Electric line, six miles north of Ft. Wayne. The district superintendent laid the cornerstone last autumn. and on the 21st of March dedicated this church to the worship of Almighty God. It is a brick veneer, with complete appointments for a rural church, and was erected at a cost of $16,090. In order to provide for the remaining indebtedness it was necessary to secure $8,613—$9,600 was pledged. The pastor's success in this enterprise has justified the wisdom of his reappointment to this charge for this his fourth year. Many other worthy enterprises have been cared for, but the limits of this report require that we shall omit further detail. Altogether there has been paid in church improvements this year about $18,000, and on parsonages about $5,000, and on debts about $18,000. But we are just getting ready for action in this direction in Ft. Wayne district.

Hope Methodist Hospital.—This institution is serving a fine purpose in Ft. Wayne. The crowded condition in this institution already suggests the need of expansion. The campaign in the city for the securing of $100,000 from Ft. Wayne citizens has been practically completed by Dr. T. J. Johnson, whose task was difficult, but accomplished, after many had predicted it could not be done.

The management of this institution in Ft. Wayne is now in the hands of a local committee, consisting of several members from Ft. Wayne and one each from Auburn, Garrett, Columbia City, Warsaw, Huntington, Bluffton, and Decatur. All questions of expansion rest with the trustees of the Methodist Hospital Association of Indiana.

Epworth League and Women's Societies.—While the church has been engaged in the Centenary, the societies for women have not been idle. Reports reaching me show a gain of about twenty per cent in the payments of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the district, and a similar gain in the Woman's Home Missionary Society work. Many new members have been added and new auxiliaries established. The Ladies' Aid societies have aided greatly in many difficult fields of this district.

Last year we gave notice that in the Big Drive of the Epworth League Ft. Wayne district expected to lead all the other districts of Methodism. I now give you the tangible evidence of this achievement in the exhibition of the banner given by Bishop A. W. Leonard to the winning district. Our young people are loyal, evangelistic, co-operative, and give hope to the coming church.

Salaries.—Last year we reported that the average cash salary for members and Probationers in the district was $1,443. This year it is $1,556. This is not a large gain considering the increased cost of living, but it is moving in the right direction. As fixed by the quarterly conferences this year, thirty-nine out of the forty-five charges increased their payments for salary of pastor over last year. We have a total increase for Ministerial Support this year of $11,133. From conversation with two pastors of Indianapolis district the best information that we have is that we have more charges in Ft. Wayne district paying $2,400 cash salary and up, in addition to house, than they have in the Indianapolis district. Indianapolis district is reported as having six; in the Ft. Wayne district we have seven, as follows: Bluffton, Wayne Street, First Church, Ft. Wayne, Auburn, Decatur, Simpson, and Garrett. We are assured that for the next year we shall have additional increases in salaries. If it is possible it should be in every charge in the district. In many instances this year we have had advances, but not content with this, many advances are already promised for the coming year. In many instances this is where it is most needed. Some of these we give at this time, as follows: Angola advances from $1,500 to $1,800; Arcola from $1,100 to $1,300; Ashley from $1,000 to $1,200; Bluffton from $2,800 to $3,000; Bluffton Circuit from $1,420 to $1,800; Bobo from $900 to $1,200; Decatur Circuit from $1,076 to $1,400; Decatur from $2,500 to $2,700; First Church, Ft. Wayne, adds an associate pastor at $1,500 and house; Simpson from $2,500 to ——; Wayne Street from $2,800 to $3,000; Fremont from $1,700 to $2,000; Geneva from $1,100 to $1,350; Harlan from $1,000 to $1,400; Hoagland from $1,000 to $1,400; Hudson from $1,000 to $1,200; Huntertown from $1,500 to $1,700; Monroeville from $1,100 to $1,200; Montpelier from $1,400 to $1,500; New Haven from $1,500 to $1,600; Orland from $1,200 to $1,400; Ossian from $1,400 to $1,500; Pleasant Mills from $1,200 to $1,500; Ray from $1,000 to $1,200; and others will join in this fine procession.

Changes in Pastors.—In June Brother S. A. Matthews was relieved of the pastorate of the Geneva Circuit, and in July Brother Russell A. Fenstermacher was secured to take this charge.

Brother J. R. Sturgell resigned the Edgerton Charge in the early autumn, and it has since been without a pastor, though we have had some brethren hold some services on the charge.

Brother J. S. Denbo has served the Auburn Circuit since June.

Brother Russell S. Jones was transferred to Denver in October, and Brother Darrell H. Stoakes was appointed to Flint in his place. Brother L. L. C. Wisner has been supplying on the Kingsland charge for some time.

The Centenary and Other Benevolences.—We had just completed the campaign for the Preachers' Aid Society at the last session of the Conference, and of course, plunged into the Centenary campaign at once. For the intensive campaign for funds an exchange of help from district superintendents and pastors was arranged between the Ft. Wayne and Logansport districts. While the time was brief we enjoyed the coming of these men among us, and likewise enjoyed the pleasure of abiding a brief period in the Logansport district. Publication has been made in various forms of the total pledges made by each charge of our district, the total being near $500,000, an excess above the allotment. It is understood that some estate notes and some annuities were included. Also some property turned over on which we do not have credit yet. In 1916 the Ft. Wayne district paid $12,513 for Disciplinary benevolences. In 1919 the district paid for the same purpose $31,555, a gain in three years of $19,042, or 152 per cent. This year according to the advance reports which I have received the district will pay for disciplinary benevolences the sum of $100,773. And if we shall include some special amounts paid for Education the Disciplinary benevolences will exceed $100,000. If to this we shall add the amount paid to Hospitals, Home for the Aged, and Sustentation, and to the Preachers' Aid Society, I am confident the total offerings for the district will not fall far short of $125,000 for this conference year. With only a few exceptions the pastors of the district have met this advance with great and heroic effort. To mention personally every man of the district who has done valiantly would be to well-nigh call the roll of the district. When it is remembered that these pastors who have done this work and are bringing to conference these reports in the aggregate receive about one-half as much salary as this total benevolent budget, that many of them have children to educate and cannot because of lack of funds, and that these men of God are themselves giving in proportion far beyond the percentage given by the laymen, we will understand that the sacrificial spirit has not yet passed from God's ministry. There was a time when we raised the cry, "As much for others as for ourselves." And now the time is at hand when laymen must see the imperative need for sufficient support for the ministry. Thank God the Centenary is opening the eyes of many to what can be done.

The Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign.—We have expressed many times to brethren of the district our earnest desire that during our superintendency of the district we might have an intensive evangelistic drive. There is the grave danger that in our zeal to put great financial programs across we shall overlook the chief work of the church, namely the saving of souls. And we have had our share of the financial drives in this district. Anticipating the coming of the Centenary financial drive last May, and that an evangelistic movement should follow, we arranged for a Commission of Pastors from our district to direct our evangelistic movement. It was decided that we should have a simultaneous evangelistic campaign from January 12th for five weeks. It was agreed and understood that this was not to hinder any charge in its campaign at an earlier date if the time seemed propitious. Each pastor was left the utmost freedom in the management of his local church. In Pleasant Mills, Garrett, and Simpson Church, the Rev. Earle F. Naftzger and party held evangelistic services. In Angola, First Church, Ft. Wayne, and Decatur, Eddie Thomas, of Muncie, conducted the services, assisting the pastors. Some other aid was given, and in some instances pastors arranged exchanges. The results have greatly gratified our hearts and pleased God. As this report is written prior to Easter the total conversions and reclamation number 2,616, and the total accessions 2,451. Charges having more than 100 conversions are as follows: Auburn, H. L. Overdeer, pastor, 121; Bluffton, C. H. Smith, 112; Bobo, J. F. Stephenson, 146; Decatur, C. Tinkham, 140, + 8; First Church, Ft. Wayne, A. G. Neal, 240; Simpson, U. S. A. Bridge, 494; Garrett, O. A. Trabue, 216; Pleasant Mills, K. R. Thompson, 175. The charges between fifty and 100 are as follows: Angola, M. Pell, 76; Arcola, D. A. J. Brown, 67; St. Paul, Ft. Wayne, J. F. Lutey, 54; Trinity, Ft. Wayne, M. C. Wright, 65; Wayne Street, J. F. Porter, 60, + 69=129; Hoagland, G. A. Snider, 66. Those below fifty, as follows: Ashley, L. W. Stone, 11; Auburn Circuit, J. S. Denbo, 21; Bluffton Circuit, B. F. Hornaday, 49; Coesse, E. J. Glendenning, 29; Decatur Circuit, V. C. Rogers, 19; Edgerton, 3; Fiat, A. E. Burk, 19; Flint, D. H. Stoakes, 34; Fremont, L. W. Kemper, 17; Geneva, J. W. Reynolds, 17; Geneva Circuit, A. A. Fenstermacher, 3; Hamilton, F. A. Shipley, 7; Harlan, L. G. Carnes, 11; Hartford and Union, A. R. Farrar, 35; Hudson, S. J. Zechiel, 18; Huntertown, A. T. Corbin, 7; Kingsland, L. L. C. Wisner, 4; Leo, J. K. Wyant, 31; Monroe, L. M. Krider, 23; Monroeville, J. Phillips, 45; Montpelier, J. C. Graham, 7; New Haven, H. C. Powell, 34; Orland. E. J. Maupin, 6; Ossian, W. E. Hamilton, 40; Poneto, E. M. Foster, 8; Ray, B. D. Nysewander, 1; St. Joe and Taylor, J. M. Stewart, 36; Spencerville, E. E. Wright, 3; Woodburn, W. M. Hollopeter, 21; York, Fred Brewster, 15. Chicago Area leads Methodism—North Indiana leads the Area—the Ft. Wayne district leads the North Indiana Conference.

Not a charge that has a pastor on the ground but that has had some part in this campaign. The converts and accessions for Passion Week and Easter Sunday bring the total to conversions, 2,692; accessions, 2,652. It is needless to say that our approach to the million goal has not come about by accident. God has been implored. Laymen have gone out after their neighbors and brought them to Jesus. Ministers have preached a gospel of salvation. In public and in private they have not ceased to warn sinners of the wrath of God that must fall on the impenitent, and they have believed God for victory. God has honored their faith. It is His work. So far as we are informed no other district surpasses us in the number of conversions, reclamations, and accessions. Chicago Area leads Methodism—North Indiana Conference the Area—Ft. Wayne the North Indiana Conference.

In all probability, in three distinct features, the brethren of the Ft. Wayne district have led Methodism this year. In the Big Drive of the Epworth League, in which we won and hold the banner, in the amount subscribed for the Centenary by the Epworth League, the subscription in this district from Epworth Leaguers amounting to $100,000. And now in the Evangelistic movement. However, we will rejoice the more, if others surpass us, for our interest is not local, but in the great movement of seeking and saving the lost, which was Christ's supreme mission. Would that all of Methodism were beyond the goal! Would that the same passion for souls might possess the whole Church of Christ! And that the kingdoms of this world had become the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Bishop Nicholson, we have realized to some degree the grave responsibilities that have rested upon you this year in the Chicago Area, and likewise have we appreciated the task of our area secretary, Dr. R. J. Wade, who has been trying to do the work of two men. We have carried some outside responsibilities ourself, but for the most part we have done our fighting in the trenches, and we trust, have done a fair part in making possible the splendid report which you will make for your first quadrennium in the Chicago area.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

R. J. Wade, District Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: In making this my fifth report, I desire first of all to record my deep gratitude to Almighty God for unusual health and strength which has enabled me to carry forward without the break of a single day the strenuous activities of the superintendency—a position in itself sufficient to demand the full strength of any man—together with the responsibilities in the emergency of the past three years, first of area manager of the Conference Claimants campaign, and more recently the area secretaryship in the Missionary Centenary.

Pastoral Changes.—We have been greatly helped by our godly retired brothers, Carey, Cain, Cook, Hasty, Kemper, Seman, Wilkinson, Haines, and White. One minister attached to the district has heard the call to the Home Immortal. It was very fitting that J. W. Walters should receive this summons in the midst of the work he loved, and in which he was expert. I refer to the remarkably successful Centenary Exposition at Columbus.

In this garden spot of the area during the year numerous pastoral changes have been arranged. Goshen Circuit, to be supplied, has been served by Lafayette Hile, son of C. A. Hile. He has been a student in the Goshen College and is recommended for admission. To Howe was assigned T. M. Carter, a returned chaplain. Miscarriage of messages resulted in acceptance of work at Hamline University, and the assignment to Howe in September of J. A. Morrison, who had returned recently from France.

Valentine was supplied by the transfer of J. L. Sturgell from the Illinois Conference. R. W. Michel was released in September from South Milford to enter DePauw, and A. P. Uphoff, of the St. Louis German Conference was secured for the vacancy. L. O. Herschberger resigned the Stroh charge to teach in Howe Grammar School, and E. L. Housley, formerly of the Philippines, accepted for the year the responsibility of this home missionary enterprise. C. F. Jones, of Wawaka, in September was offered the position of pastor's assistant and religious educational director at First Church, Cleveland. He was released, and C. T. Cundy, a Garrett post-graduate, completed the year. When Warren called in December for the services of R. V. Johnson, the return from DePauw of True S. Haddock. solved the problem. Failure in health of the efficient wife of J. M. Jordan, compelled him, January 1st, to relinquish Wakarusa to which N. E. Smith was transferred from Cromwell. Cromwell, seemingly unable to support a pastor at a living salary, was joined to Kimmell and Wolf Lake, under the care of Thurman Mott, and will pay $1,600 plus house next year. When K. H. Carlson was assigned to Mishawaka Circuit it was expected that he would be related in special manner at sometime during the year to Mishawaka, but when Dr. J. L. Gardiner, of St. Paul, South Bend, was compelled, on account of impaired health from overseas service to go to Arizona for six or eight months. Brother Carlson demonstrated that he could acceptably fill a $4,000 pulpit—and I might add without turning his head.

R. J. Wade.

Salaries.—I know full well the requirements incident to our more complex civilization and church life, but it would be much easier to raise salaries in some quarters to more adequate proportions if some of our preachers would apparently be as diligent in pastoral labor and evangelism as the insurance agent and traveling salesman. Should we not continuously ask ourselves whether in a less worthy cause the agent or salesman exceeds in zeal, passion, determination, stick-to-it-iveness, persuasiveness, devotion, daring, and dash the Christian minister?

Give me those characteristics in the pastor-preacher even to a quite imperfect degree, and it is ordinarily not difficult to increase the salary. This today is a recognized essential. Every pastor needs it. When half the pastors of a district run behind in annual expenses after rigid economy, it is high time that something heroic is done. I have pastors who have lived on two (sometimes one) full meals a day, whose families have lacked clothing and the real necessities, whose libraries have suffered and whose morale has been well nigh destroyed. Morale is half the battle it has been affirmed. There has been more sickness in parsonage homes this year than last—than any year I have been on the district. and one very large factor centers in the diminishing finances of the parsonage home. Our laymen cannot afford to countenance these tragic situations. They mean to remedy them; they will, they are.

For eleven weeks Brother S. B. Stookey, through sickness, has been out of his pulpit, which has been helpfully supplied by Mrs. Jas. Gay. During this period his mother came to visit, slipped on ice and is a parsonage sufferer, with a broken hip. For next year the good people of Topeka have agreed to give Brother Stookey six months vacation if needed, paying him during this recuperation period, in additional to parsonage rental at the rate of $1,000, a student supply at the same figure—and at the resumption of regular work to increase the support from this year's $1,200 to $1,500 cash salary. Leroy Huddleston has been comforted during a rather protracted sickness by the hearty support of the membership of the Avilla charge, and the fact that the addition of Swan this year increased his support from $1,200 to $1,500. Osceola in midyear realized that they were not paying a living salary for a circuit and so changed at the second quarterly conference from the $1,200 to $1,500 cash basis. North Webster followed the example later with $300 increase, $1,500 salary. Simpson, Elkhart, increased $200, the care of California from the Mishawaka Circuit added $100, and for next year $200 more is added, making the cash support $1,500. Bourbon Circuit, by the addition of Summit (served by J. B. Cook for six months), will pay $1,500 cash next year. St. Paul, Elkhart, added $200 midyear and still another $100 for next year, a $1,800 salary. Bourbon added $150, a $1,550 salary. Etna Green $150 and then $150 more for next year, a $1,700 salary. Warsaw $200 with $200 more for next year, a $2,400 salary. Nappanee $150 with $350 more for next year, a $2,000 salary. Other advances arranged are Albion $300, $1,600 salary; Benton $200, $1,200; Bristol $300, $1,500; Butler $200, $1,800; Corunna $200, $1,200; St. Mark's, Goshen $200, $1,200; Howe $150, $1,500; Kendallville $200, $2,200; LaGrange $350, $2,000; Leesburg $100, $1,500; Ligonier $200, $1,600; Middlebury $300, $1,500; Milford $200, $1,400; Mishawaka $600, $3,500; New Paris $200, $1,200; Pierceton $300, $1,500; South Milford $100, $1,200; Syracuse $100, $1,500; Tippecanoe $100, $1,100, with $100 more in prospect; Valentine $100, $1,200; Warsaw Circuit $300, $1,500; Waterloo $100, $1,200; Wawaka $200, $1,200; Wolcottville $200, $1,550; Rome City $150, $1,200; Inwood $100, $1,500.

A total of $9,100, with perhaps $1,000 more in prospect, a grand total of $10,000 to which might be added in immediate consideration an increase as reported a year ago of almost $5,000.

District Meetings.—This splendid response to the need of the hour is due in part to the action of our District Stewards at the Settlement Day at New Paris, in November, when in separate session the laymen voted that the minimum cash salary on any charge should be $1,200 with the recommendation of an additional $300 where a conveyance was necessary, and that our standard should be as speedily as possible $1,500 for a full member of the conference.

Next year's district conference will be held in the new community house at Kendallville. A Christian Activities Conference was held in Goshen in November; a pastors' retreat at North Webster in September; the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Leesburg in October; the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Wolcottville in June: the Epworth League District Convention in Syracuse in June; the Pastors' and Stewards' meeting in Goshen at the beginning of the year, when the following district program was outlined:

1. Every Church Over the Top Financially in the Centenary.
2. Full Quota Intercessors Enlisted.
3. Full Quota Methodist Million Enrolled.
4. Full Quota Life Service Workers Found.
5. Two Thousand Conversions and Every Church Revived.
6. Thirteen Hundred Membership Net Increase.
7. Sunday Schools Restored to Top Notch Efficiency.
8. An Epworth League Alive and at Work.
9. Entire District Surveyed and Parished.
10. All Salaries and Apportionments in Full.

I should add a word concerning the Epworth League Institute held at Wawasee in the bounds of the district. The largest registration of the five years was recorded, the largest recruiting of Life Service decisions was attained, and the prospects for the last week in July this year are particularly pleasing. Welcome to Wawasee.

The Advocate Campaign.—"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." One of the wisest decisions of the Centenary Conservation Campaign was reached in the determination to use the Advocate family this year to convey news of the Centenary, Methodist plans, and activities. The Centenary could not persist one year at anything like initial speed without this action. The official member who does not take the increasngly valuable "Western" should not be allowed to persist in determining ocal church atmosphere and policies. To one such requesting official nember I recently addressed this question in part. "How can you claim o have a right to expect your request to be granted when you know eally nothing of Methodism's great program—when you do not take the 'Advocate" and when you have not subscribed to the Centenary?" Butler, Syracuse, Nappanee, Pierceton, and Middlebury—already have reached he honor roll with all official members subscribers. The district reports ,236 subscribers.

Centenary Finances.—Last year concerning benevolences I recorded he fact that Goshen District for the fourth year in succession had mainained the record unique in Methodism, of no charge "falling down" or ositively "every charge pulling up."

Previous to the last conference session four charges, Kendallville, Leesburg, Syracuse, and Etna Green had gone over the top in the Cenenary financial quotas. Almost all the charges followed to victory. The harges which remained behind are expected to make the final plunge to ictory either before or during the Interchurch Financial Campaign.

I wish I could recount all the profits of victory conducting a Cenenary love-feast. Let a few examples suffice.

New Community Interest.—The first church in Indiana to reach the Centenary goal financially was Kendallville, where the first modern comnunity and Sunday-school building of size in the conference is projected, osting $60,000, for which the main contract has been let. A fine spirit revails in the church; there have been twenty-one conversions, forty ccessions, forty-six "Advocates" taken, current expenses met in full, enevolent claims provided, the salary raised $200 last year and $200 more r $2,200 cash promised next year. Thus the Centenary killed Kendallville.

I am looking for the man to tackle the home missionary problem at Iongo, following E. L. Housley, who returns to missionary work in the outh. In this town and township—almost churchless—our new church ith Centenary help hastens to completion in May. Two weeks ago on ne Sunday of the tornado, I saw in a hall fifty-eight in Sunday school, ncluding a class of twenty-one fine young high school students. Findng the old frame two-story schoolhouse for sale, located directly across ne street from the new brick school as well as directly opposite our new hurch, I personally arranged some months ago for the purchase of this uilding to try out in the small town the community building idea. We ill have a real story of Mongo some day just as we now have of Tippecanoe.

The fine new church at Pierceton necessitated by growing congreations was dedicated in early December. It was a glorious day. The opes of pastor and people were exceeded. My father had charge of the nances, and $12,000 was raised, whereas but $10,000 was asked. When . L. Clear preached in the afternoon four were converted. This royal ongregation put the Centenary over the top while engaged in building ne church. The Centenary did not kill but helped to larger life. At ne close of the day the rejoicing congregation unanimously voted to inease the salary of their popular pastor, G. E. Whitten, by $300. There ave been eighty conversions and fifty-four accessions this wonderful year.

The Swan Church, on the Avilla charge, was reopened on September st by the district superintendent. The rain did not dampen the ardor Pastor Huddleston and his devoted people, who have met the full need 50.

Bristol has been going forward with rapid strides the past few years. astor Steuart D. White led in a $5,000 enterprise, which meant in part basement with all accessories, and the district superintendent here also dedicated the building for larger service.

November 16th my father was Master of Ceremonies at the reopening the New Paris church. The $1,000 needed was quickly secured.

Butler, under R. J. Burns, has been enjoying a phenomenal pastorate and has now embarked in an $8,000 church extension and basement improvement enterprise. W. T. Daly always keeps things at a white heat, but a fire at Wolcottville created consternation one early Sunday morning. Timely assistance checked the blaze while the $1,000 insurance made everything in the church as good as new and brighter than before. The district superintendent preached on the reopening occasion.

When the district superintendent came to St. Mark's, Goshen, to reopen their church, he was told by J. H. Richardson that no appeals for funds was necessary, as all of the $1,000 had been voluntarily subscribed. This has been the best year this church has ever experienced.

Parsonages.—Probably the finest parsonage in the conference is located in Mishawaka, and is now occupied by B. E. Parker and family. Overlooking the river it cost $11,000 and is actually worth much more.

North Webster is an inland town, but today can boast that their preacher is finely housed in what seems to be a brand new parsonage, costing $2,000, where they want their present pastor, V. L. Clear to stay as long as W. T. Daly, who broke all their previous records.

Waterloo is completing the rebuilding of their parsonage, so that A. L. Lamport may have the most comfortable year in his life.

Etna Green wants C. A. Hile to move to a new location, but in the same parsonage. No, not the same parsonage—one about $4,000 better—on a splendid new site. He will move.

Simpson, Elkhart, has purchased a fine nine-room parsonage, one block from the church, for $3,300, and R. C. Plank will be the first occupant.

Avilla has improved their pastor's home by $700, largely by the aid of Swan, while the parsonages at New Paris, J. O. Hochstedler, pastor; Corunna, C. E. Adams, pastor; Bristol, S. D. White, pastor, have been improved by the aid of the stork—a new baby is in the home of S. L. Yoder, too.

Debts.—Warsaw has reduced their church debt by $7,000; St. Paul, Elkhart, by $650; Simpson, Elkhart, by $544; Bourbon $150; Corunna $149; Leesburg $2,000; Tippecanoe $300; Topeka $150; Warsaw $75; Waterloo $1,100; Wolcottville and Albion, as some others, paying $1,300 and $1,800 securing clean slates.

Evangelism.—At our fall meetings every charge stressed evangelism and were attended by 15,479 folks, the largest attendance we have ever recorded. The Williams Evangelistic Party at Howe prevented regular participation, but the effort resulted in fifty-five conversions and decisions for our church, with thirty-five accessions. A union tent campaign, under Dr. Stough, at Elkhart, was fairly successful. A tabernacle campaign at Bourbon was prevented by the "flu." Those who planned early campaigns were ordinarily most successful. They did not have so much difficulty with sickness, cold, or lack of fuel. It is a good hint for the coming fall.

In the North Indiana Conference a year ago, not less than forty-five charges failed to enroll a single probationer, according to the conference minutes—eleven in the Goshen district. There were 163 charges where pastor and people did not enroll a probationer a month. This was a distressing situation. No wonder we betook ourselves to prayer, plan and work. The district superintendents at Cleveland lifted a clarion cal for 1,000,000 souls for Christ and the church. That quota put vim and reality in the campaign.

Of these in the Goshen district we have 1,104 conversions and reclamations; with 1,397 accessions distributed as follows:

Albion, 14, 36; Avilla, 14, 18; Benton 9, 8; Bourbon, 20, 18; Bourbon Circuit 8, 24; Bristol 21, 40; Butler 12, 23; Corunna 5, 9; St. Paul 34, 38 Simpson 75, 76; Trinity 54, 159; Etna Green 12, 9; Goshen, First 34, 85 St. Mark's 28, 31; Goshen Circuit 5, 4; Howe 55, 35; Inwood 6, 6; Kendallville 21, 40; Kimmell 15, 9; La Grange 39, 41; Leesburg 20, 21; Ligonie 36, 57; Middleburg 11, 20; Milford 29, 31; Mishawaka 62, 114; Mishawaka Circuit 2, 2; Nappanee 29, 31; New Paris 6, 6; North Webster 59, 60; Osceola 36, 28; Pierceton 80, 54; Rome City 1, 5; South Milford 2, 3; Stroh 7, 2; Syracuse 15, 16; Tippecanoe 26, 36; Topeka 7, 9; Valentine 23, 32 Wakarusa 2, 6; Warsaw 96, 88; Warsaw Circuit 13, 9; Waterloo 20, 9 Wawaka 14, 6; Wolcottville 23, 27.

Elkhart, Simpson, Tippecanoe, and Pierceton have reached their evangelistic quotas. Had Easter been a good day, very much larger results would have been obtained.

I saw Brother Guild on Easter receive fifty-one into the church, and net twenty more decisions. God has been on the giving hand. There have been many sweetly and quietly born into the kingdom; others have come via the way dolorosa.

Two conference evangelists, the only one we have, find relations to this district and render glowing reports. Brother J. W. Oborn has traveled 22,069 miles, delivered 172 sermons and addresses and has had 208 converts. He has been in charge of the department of spiritual resources of the Chattanooga area, has secured the names and addresses of about a thousand prospective students, helped quite a number of young people to get started in school or college, has listed a large number who think of entering the ministry or missionary work, has so toiled that this area holds fourteenth place in the number of tithers enrolled and fifth in the number of converts. Brother Sherman Powell, though not under appointment as evangelist, has been doing the same general type of work in the Omaha area, whence come the highest praises concerning his labors.

Brother Earle Naftzger has been very successfully engaged in evangelistic effort since his return from France, as the following tabulation will ndicate:

July 1 to 31, New York	4 weeks and	5 Sundays,	100 decisions.
Aug. 31 to Oct. 5, Holton, Kan.	5 weeks and	6 Sundays,	500 decisions.
Oct. 12 to Nov. 9, Pleasant Mills, Ind.	4 weeks and	5 Sundays,	313 decisions.
Nov. 16 to Dec. 14, Garrett, Ind.	4 weeks and	5 Sundays,	335 decisions.
Dec. 28 to Jan. 25, Ft. Wayne, Ind.	4 weeks and	5 Sundays,	449 decisions.
Jan. 29 to Feb. 22, Seymour, Ind.	2 weeks and	4 Sundays,	233 decisions.
Feb. 29 to Mch. 21, Upper Sandusky, O.	3 weeks and	4 Sundays,	500 decisions.
Mch. 23 to April 4, Carey, O.	2 weeks and	2 Sundays,	264 decisions.
Total	29	36	2,694

Decisions at Carey will probably total over 350 by Sunday night.

We shall press on to new victories after conference. On to Pentecost —fifty days of united effort. North Indiana Conference leads the Chicago rea and Chicago area leads Methodism.

Leadership.—In the Chicago area we have had the unusually able diection of Bishop Nicholson, who is always instant in season and out of eason in prodigious endeavor successfully to prosecute the work of Methoism and Christ's kingdom.

Our team work in North Indiana has been so well nigh perfect that this haracteristic has claimed the attention of the entire connection. While ome others have consumed vitality and wasted opportunity descanting n autocracy in the church, threatened bureaucracy and the terrible ruin hat might come (but never has) from plans and programs handed down, he discerning men of North Indiana, thank God, have not been deected from their true purpose of world evangelism; they have been too usy to play politics; they have welcomed every suggestion from whatver source—accepted every program as their own program for God's hour, nd consequently, while others flounder, bewail, lament, forebode, we, of d North Indiana today rejoice, hold trophies high, shout for victory, nd gird ourselves for new and larger conquests.

Thank God for all leaders but especially for Christ, the world's greatt Leader. With him we march and together sing:

> "Lead on, O King Eternal
> Thy day of march has come;
> Henceforth in fields of conquest
> Thy tents shall be our home.

"Lead on, O King Eternal
  We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning,
  Where'er Thy face appears;

"Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
  We journey in its light.
The crown awaits the conquest,
  Lead on, O God of Might."

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

Freeland A. Hall, District Superintendent.

Freeland A. Hall.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: In bringing to you the district superintendent's report for Logansport District for the conference year, 1919-20, allow me to say first of all, that a Bishop never assigned a superintendent to a district manned by a more loyal, self-sacrificing, hard-working, and courageous company of Methodist ministers than the men of Logansport District.

I wish to especially speak a word of commendation concerning the good work of missionary secretary, Rev. W. T. Arnold. Efficient help has also been given by Rev. Fred Thornburg, district stewardship secretary. Rev. Benjamin Kendall, district Sunday-school director and secretary of Life Stewardship, and by our good layman, Charles Beecher, district chairman of minute men.

Change in Appointments.—On June 21st Rev. C. B. Dougherty, our pastor at Bunker Hill, not having been able to move into the parsonage because of the illness of his wife, wrote me, asking to be relieved of his appointment. On September 27th, Rev. H. A. Broadwell was transferred from the Indiana Conference and appointed to Bunker Hill, and Brother Dougherty joined his family in Muncie.

Early in the conference year, Rev. T. A. Van Camp left the church at Bethel, and by consent of Bishop Nicholson this church was joined to the Peoria charge.

Rev. J. O. Campbell was assigned to Forest charge, but because of the serious illness of his wife, did not go to the appointment. Rev. R C. Rogers, their former pastor and Rev. H. C. Powell, a Ft. Wayne district man, were with Forest for a few days, and put the Centenary over the top. Rev. Chas. H. Brown preached for the people of Forest until the last of June when Bishop Nicholson named Rev. W. G. Day, a Methodis minister of Toronto, to fill out the year.

The New Waverly charge was left to be supplied. In the early par of the year, Rev. W. B. Dunkum, a member of the Kentucky Conference, was secured, but at the meeting of his own conference he returned to Kentucky and Rev. Oscar B. Lyon, a local preacher, was secured to supply the work.

Scircleville was left without a pastor by the resignation of Rev. C A. Allison, and Rev. Robert Hutchens was secured to fill out the year Under his helpful ministry forty have been converted, and Scirclevill is asking to be made a station with Brother Hutchens as the pastor.

On December 24th Bishop Nicholson transferred Rev. W. A. Griest t the Northwest Indiana Conference, and on the same date he appointe Rev. P. E. Greenwalt to Elwood.

At the first quarterly conference of the year this church went on record as wishing to entertain the North Indiana Conference for the year 1921. Rev. Greenwalt bids fair to have a highly successful pastorate in this church; and the preacher is asked to return at an advance in salary.

District Meetings.—The first meeting for the year was our District Stewards' and Preachers' meetings on April 24th. It was setting-up meeting of the Centenary activity. Rev. R. J. Wade, D.D., area executive secretary; Rev. Davidson, area Sunday-school director; and Rev. W. W. Martin were present and gave inspirational addresses.

The District Epworth League convention was held May 10th and 11th. It was a well-atended and enthusiastic convention. Nearly all the pastors of the district were in attendance.

Both evening services were evangelistic in character. Twelve made consecration for life service.

A large number of the young people of the district were in attendance at Wawasee Institute; twenty-seven made life decisions.

It was the privilege of the district to have the meeting of the conference Woman's Home Missionary Society convention. We should be glad to have this meeting of strong Christian women meet in the district every year.

From the 14th to the 21st of September there was held in every church of the district a Centenary Conservation campaign. On September 10th a central meeting was held at Grace Church, Kokomo. Among the men who came from outside our district and brought messages of information and inspiration were Drs. R. J. Wade, Somerville Light, W. W. Martin, Fred B. Fisher.

The last district meeting for the year was our district conference, held March 9th, 10th, and 11th. It was an occasion of interest and inspiration from the first to the last. Of the forty-six pastors all were present with one exception. Men out of the district that appeared on the program were Rev. R. A. Morrison, of Bluffton; Dr. Victor W. Thrall, of Chicago; Rev. C. E. Parker, of India; Rev. George R. Grose, D.D., of Greencastle; Rev. W. H. Neil, D.D., of Chicago; and Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., our own presiding Bishop.

It was also our privilege to have with us as the speaker for the second evening, and for a special address to pastors and laymen, our presiding officer, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D.

The Centenary Campaign.—Among the many privileges of service for Christ's kingdom, we found part of the task of Logansport District was the raising of $480,160 for the Centenary fund. We called to our assistance as district campaign director, Rev. Fred F. Thornburg, of Peru, who rendered invaluable services to the district in the Centenary campaign.

An arrangement was effected between the Logansport District and Ft. Wayne District to join forces for a week on each district. The plan was approved by the Centenary office, and we believe was advantageous to both districts. Rev. G. H. Myers, of our own conference, connected with the Centenary office, did good service.

The charge that first reported the goal as reached was Goldsmith, a charge that has for years been leading and inspiring our conference by ts large per capita of missionary giving. [They were also first to reach the goal for intercessors, tithers, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and Western Christian Advocates.] Other charges joined their good example until all but five of the charges in the district have subscribed the quota. We are expecting Logansport district to be one hundred per cent on Centenary.

We will report near $90,000, an advance of $60,000 for the district.

Births.—Four parsonage homes of the district have been blessed with four new babies. On May 22, 1919, the parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. A. F. White was made glad by the arrival of a daughter, Louise Irene. June 6th, Ebert Maurice, a fine baby boy came to live with Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Imler; on August 19th a baby came to the home of Rev. and Mrs. John B. Sparling, at Cicero. They have named the boy Winstone Bruce—a namesake of one of our successful Methodist pastors. The last arrival from babyland came as a Christmas present to Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Fawns, arriving at the Methodist parsonage in West Middleton, December 24th. This little girl, Marjorie Ray, is the granddaughter of Rev. John Thomas, for ten years a missionary in Korea.

A letter recently sent out by a Cleveland publishing house, makes the statement "that thirty per cent of the 400 leading business men of America are minister's sons. We expect these sons and daughters of our parsonage homes to be potent factors in shaping the world's great tomorrow.

The Grim Reaper.—We are sorry to report that death has been in our midst and reaping his harvest. Rev. A. D. Burkett, last year bereft of his wife, has had a trying year. In early autumn his home was stricken with typhoid fever. For weeks his oldest son, Merrill Burkett, lingered in the valley of the shadow. For a time it seemed that the lad might live, but a relapse came and on November 21st Merrill bid farewell to father and went over into the land of eternal sunshine. Luther, the only other member of Brother Burkett's family, was also stricken with typhoid fever, but the kindly ministrations of our Methodist Hospital had much to do with the saving of his life.

Two of our retired men have gone to their crowning. Rev. T. H. C. Beall, who entered the conference in 1868 and retired in 1897, went to his eternal home, May 13, 1919. One of our most faithful veterans, Rev. F. M. Lacy, received his appointment to eternal glory on November 21st last. While attending prayer meeting he was stricken.

On August 6th, Mrs. Emma Jackson, widow of Rev. J. S. Jackson, went to her rest. Hers was a beautiful life and the sunset time was full of glory.

While summer was yet with us Rev. J. E. Conner, one of our highly esteemed local preachers, went from his home, Macy, to his eternal reward. And on Saturday, March 20th, Mrs. George Bailor, wife of our Brother, George Bailor, died at the Methodist Hospital. We extend our sincere sympathy to these sorrow-stricken homes.

Women's Work.—The work of the women has in every way been worthy of the highest commendation.

Our Ladies' Aid societies have been constantly busy, building, beautifying and improving church and parsonage property.

The Ladies' Aid Society, at Boxley, raised on their new church building $1,100 in six months' time.

The Women's Foreign and Women's Home Missionary Societies have both made large advances in membership. All hail the good women of our churches who in these societies are studying the needs of the world.

We commend to our pastors their most enthusiastic help in the organization of either a Woman's Foreign or Home Missionary Society for every church in the district.

Pastoral Visits.—The men of the district have made a total of over 33,000 pastoral calls. An average of over 700 for each pastor.

Rev. Frank Morris, of Main Street, Kokomo, reports 2,035 calls. Rev. W. T. Arnold, Grace Church, Kokomo, 1,725. Rev. Ben Kendall, 1,244. John Edwards, Market Street, Logansport, 1,210. J. L. Gillard, of Greentown, 1,200. W. E. Loveless, of Beamer, Kokomo, 1,123. A. S. Preston, of Tipton, 1,066. J. Ira Jones, Sheridan, 1,200.

A number of our circuit men report calls from 700 to 1,000.

Church Literature.—It is not necessary for any Methodist to go beyond his own publishing house to find the best church paper. This our pastors and people have been showing in a most practical way during the past year. In many churches the "Advocate" subscription list has doubled. Some pastors have discovered the suggestion for an advance in pastoral support came from the "Advocate." The pastors report to me 1,087 "Advocates". Grace Church, Kokomo, 173.

Ministerial Support.—The depleted purchasing power of a dollar has been recognized in the business world by advance of wages everywhere and in many instances churches have been discovering that the pastor would not be able to continue his ministry without an advance in salary

In consideration of the great need of a substantial advance in pastoral salaries the laymen in attendance at the Settlement Day meeting, in

Kokomo, on December 16th last, held a special meeting for the consideration of pastoral service and pastoral support, and after careful consideration they passed a resolution stating that in their judgment the minimum cash salary for pastors of the Logansport district should not be less than $1,500.

I am glad to say, Bishop, that a very large number of the charges of the Logansport district have advanced to $1,500 or above that figure. We expect to have at least fifteen charges in the district that will be paying $1,500, and most of these will have advanced from the $1,000 or $1,200 line to $1,500. Charges paying $1,500 or over have also gone forward. Greentown advances from $1,500 to $1,800; Sheridan from $1,500 to $2,000; Kokomo, Main Street, and Market Street, Logansport, from $1,800 to $2,000; Elwood and Broadway, Logansport, from $2,000 to $2,200; Tipton from $2,000 to $2,250; and Grace Church, Kokomo, from $3,000 to $3,500.

But by these advances the average cash salary in purchasing value is far below the pastor's support of seven years ago. Our pastors are a brave company living and serving, in some instances, below a living wage. In 1913 the average cash salary of the men in Logansport District was $966.60. If men were to receive salaries today with as much purchasing power for a hundred commodities that go into the average American's home the average cash salary would need be at least $2,500, whereas it falls short of $1,500 for this present year. However we are glad to announce the increase in pastors' cash salaries for Logansport District will exceed $11,000.

Building and Improvement.—Though the great Centenary activity has demanded much of the time and work of our pastors there has been some real progress in the line of building.

The church at Boxley raised its quota for the Centenary in full, and then with Christian fervor and enthusiasm went to the task of raising money for a much-needed church building. With $9,000 raised by the dauntless perseverance and optimism of the pastor, Rev. C. A. Byrt, the building enterprise was assured. On August 31st the district superintendent was present and laid the corner stone.

On Passion Sunday, Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, raised $8,800. Eighty-five hundred dollars were needed to settle all claims. In the evening the district superintendent, being present and assisting, the church was formally dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. We take pleasure in recommending Dr. Hollopeter to any who may need a genius in church finance.

But Brother Byrt saw new fields to conquer and on Monday, after taking Dr. Hollopeter and the district superintendent to the car, he drove to Ekin and began raising money for a new parsonage. Ekin will be taken off of the Boxley charge and will be the head of a circuit. Other churches of the circuit will be taken from Scircleville circuit.

The people of Anoka and Bethel have solved the problem of a home for their pastor by providing funds and buying a parsonage in Logansport.

Elwood, under the inspiring direction of their new pastor, Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, has raised $2,461 for the improvement of the heating plant, the organ, and other needed improvements.

Market Street, Logansport, reports $1,000 raised for the improvement of the basement and the beautifying of the auditorium.

Seven hundred dollars has been spent at Macy in frescoing the auditorium and making needed improvements at the parsonage. This work was largely done by the Ladies' Aid Society.

The Roann Church and parsonage has been papered, and electric lights have been installed in the church. Grace Church raised $750 for painting, papering, and beautifying the parsonage. Main Street, Kokomo, improved the parsonage to the extent of $282. The church at Paw Paw has been reroofed and new furnace installed. The people at Greentown added to the delight of their parsonage by laying hardwood floors. The West Middleton parsonage has been receiving much-needed improvement, a new roof and papering throughout. Improvements have also been made on the parsonage at Windfall and Twelve Mile.

Church Debts.—Under the good leadership of Rev. Frank P. Morris, our pastor at Main Street, Kokomo, $1,545 was provided for the payment of the church debt; and on Sunday, November 23d, the mortgage was burned. Eight hundred dollars, that was held against the West Middleton parsonage, has been provided for. The church debt at Sheridan has been reduced $5,000.

Methodist Million.—On October 7th, the pastors of the district with a large number of laymen met in Grace Church, Kokomo, in a conference on evangelism. The meeting continued three days with constantly-increasing interest. Rev. Joseph Smith gave us three lectures each day. Drs. J. A. Beatty and L. J. Naftzger, North Indiana Conference quartet, helped largely. Much time was given to prayer. The meeting adjourned with a fine spirit of evangelism that has continued throughout the year.

On October 26th, a large number of our churches began revival services, and the district has been in continuous revival since that time.

According to reports sent in by the pastors the charges have had conversions as follows:

Grace Church, Kokomo, 212; Market Street, Logansport, 131; Sheridan, 109; West Middleton, 52; Peru, 104; Wheatland Street, Logansport, 88; Broadway, Logansport, 81; Boxley, 69; Walton, 60; Converse, 48; Beamer, Kokomo, 44; Tipton and Elwood, 42 each; Anoka and Goldsmith, 38 each; Peoria and Scircleville, 37 each; Sharpsville and Kempton, 31 each; Mexico, 30; New Waverly, 29; Main Street, Kokomo, 25; Galveston, 24; Santa Fe, 18; Macy, 17; Gilead, 16; Denver, 12; Amboy, 10; Center, Twelve Mile, Hobbs, Cicero, and Russiaville, report 8 each. The remaining charges of the district with the exception of two report from one to five each. Total, 1,621.

Membership.—If all our pastors would govern their action with reference to the keeping of the church membership roll, and in reporting members to the annual conference by the law of the church as given in our book of discipline, much confusion would be avoided and hundreds of members would be saved to the church.

The pastors report a total received, 1,596. If reports I have received are correct, we will report a membership of 16,159. This will be an advance of 216.

In Conclusion.—Bishop, in bringing you this, my first report as a superintendent, I want to assure you it has been my ambition to render a faithful and worthy service. I have endeavored in all things to be loyal to the call of our church's leadership. I have discovered that men who are not loyal to the general leadership and policy of our church are men who do not do a large service in our church.

Christ's kingdom must be advanced. The hope of the world is Jesus. The year for me has been the busiest of all my life. I trust it has been the most productive of good. It is in the Father's hands and he who judges all will answer at the end of life's day as to the value of the service.

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

James A. Beatty, District Superintendent.

Dear Bishop and Brethren: In presenting my fourth annual report of Muncie District to the North Indiana Conference, I have many gratifying things to record. We have had a peaceable year, notwithstanding the failure of the United States Senate to pass upon the treaty; and we are hoping for a continuation of the same, even if this historic document finds its way into the big pocket in the White House. We are not discouraged; we are willing to give them time even down to the third and fourth generation.

We have had some of the disappointing things and tasted some of the greater sorrows. Several of our parsonage homes have been visited by sickness, and their people have been sorely distressed by prevailing disease. Death has broken his way through the door and claimed two of our choice men in the active ranks. In the early summer time Dr. James C. Murray, our missionary to Porto Rico, was called from the labors of this important field to the rich reward of those who are faithful. As a pastor, an educator, a missionary, his life has been a constant benediction. Last October, the 25th day, Charles M. Hobbs, our pastor, at Westfield, answered the call of the Divine Master to accept the crown of righteousness. Advised by his physician he had already surrendered his charge and moved to Carmel, where he had been pastor for four years, and fell asleep surrounded by his family and many friends. As to years he had not reached his best. I do not think he had ever done better work than he was doing n his closing days. Rarely have I heard so many fine things said about a man by those whom he had led to Christ. What a fine record to leave behind! Sister Hobbs and the three boys are still living in Carmel. May the mantle of this good ather fall upon these fine young men.

Rev. A. C. Hoover, a chaplain from he army service, was secured to complete he year at Westfield. Soon after his reurn from overseas he was ordered to the hospital for an operation, and expected to ake the charge by the first of January. Unexpected difficulties arose and he was not discharged until in February, and was not strong enough to take up the work until he first of March. Rev. J. A. Ruley, one of our retired men, supplied the charge for bout four months.

James A. Beatty.

Retired Ministers.—We have thirteen etired ministers enrolled with us. All ut three or four of these fine men are oing considerable active service. J. H. McNary has done the full work of a pastor n the DeSoto charge. L. A. Sevits has supplied a church near Albany or eleven months. J. A. Ruley supplied Westfield and Hortonville four months. R. S. Reed has rendered good assistance in revival work. J. W. McDaniel is feeble and is obliged to stay much at home, getting out to hurch occasionally. Eli Davis, because of severe injury sustained three ears ago, is unable to do any active service. W. H. Peirce, in his beautiful, ttractive way, is usually at the church service and is always helpful with is presence and prayers. Dr. J. E. Williams is much sought after by the hurches in and around Indianapolis for his strong, helpful sermons. Dr. W. F. Walker is still a missionary in spirit and is anxious to give his full trength for the building of the kingdom. W. W. Brown, Lewis Reeves, . A. Robinson, and J. Z. Barrett are among the faithful ones and are eady, on call, to render helpful service.

Dr. J. F. Bailey, supernumerary, supplied the Perkinsville charge five onths and has done evangelistic work in the West since that time. E. Magor, on the same list, is living in Willseyville, N. Y., looking after some usiness interests, but giving much helpful service to the business of the ing.

Special Appointments.—Dr. Fred B. Fisher is chairman of the India Mass Movement Commission, national executive secretary Centenary camaign committee, High Street, Muncie, Quarterly Conference. Dr. H. B. ough is professor in DePauw University, First Church, Anderson, Quarrly Conference. Rev. C. J. Everson is financial agent Anti-Saloon League, ormal City Quarterly Conference.

Property Improvements.—On account of high prices in labor and marial no new building enterprises were undertaken this year. Some valuble improvements were made. First Church, Alexandria, put in a cement oor in their basement, installed a new heating plant, renovated the entire uilding at a cost of $2,500. The Official Board, led by their efficient pastor, ev. E. C. Dunn, has put this church in fine condition, with the money all ised and claims paid.

Dr. D. T. Stephenson reports some much-needed improvements on the High Street church. In the summer, during the vacation period, the Official Board redecorated their church, installed a new lighting system, and other necessary touches which has given it an attractive appearance. The cost was $3,000. The Whitely Church, in Muncie, was improved at a cost of $1,500 by painting both church and parsonage, enlarging the basement, re-varnishing and decorating the interior. W. O. Moulton, the pastor, was a real leader in this enterprise, and for the small membership, it was a huge undertaking. Half the money is already raised, and we hope in the near future to relieve the entire claim.

Other churches making improvements at a cost of $500 or more are as follows: Fortville $500, W. H. Harrison, pastor; Jolietville $800, Edward Antle, pastor; Noblesville Circuit $661, Kenneth Maynard, pastor; Pendleton $500; J. O. Powell, pastor. Seventeen other churches made smaller improvements, making a total to the district of $12,713.

Only the small amount of $1,818 indebtedness is reported paid. The total amount of indebtedness in the district is about $15,000. More than half of this belongs to one church, which could lift it any time it desired to do so.

New Churches.—Last summer Noble Street, Anderson, began some extensive improvements on their church: re-roofing, putting in a basement and a general re-fitting. While they were excavating, the supports were not sufficient, the floor went down, the walls broke and the church was a wreck. E. J. Wickersham, the optimistic pastor, and his heroic Board of Trustees, with prayer and council, decided that out of this wreck must come a new church. Encouraged by the Reconstruction Department of Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Centenary, they purchased a better location about three squares north where they are proceeding at once to erect both a church and a parsonage, estimated to cost about $45,000. This growing part of the city of Anderson greatly needs such a plant.

Grace Church, Hartford City, is distinctively on the map of our conference. Wherever E. M. Dunbar goes he starts some things moving. His fine leadership has encouraged his Official Board to purchase a location just west of where the church now stands. Here, in the new future, a fine new church and parsonage will be erected.

Avondale, Muncie, is starting a movement for a new church. She cannot advance much more until she has better church equipment. The General Motors Company, with her plant of ten million investment, and from ten to fifteen thousand people who will soon arrive, many of them locating in this part of the city must have their religious needs met.

District Meetings.—The district meetings this year were on the highest plane spiritually, intellectually, and business efficiency I have ever known. The Pastors' and District Stewards' meeting was held April 29th, at Noblesville in June. The religious interest and zeal of the young people was quite distinct. The Woman's Home Missionary Convention occurred in Madison Street Church, Muncie, at which time we completed plans for making the Centenary drive. The Epworth League Convention occurred at Madison Street, Muncie, in June, and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Convention at Eaton in October. The reports of both societies indicated fine advance. The Conservation-Evangelistic Program was held in First Church, Anderson, September 30th-October 1st. This meeting would be difficult to describe, as the operations of the Divine Spirit cannot be portrayed in words. I may say it was a real up-to-date Pentecost. For a day and a half we sat together and worshiped and sang and prayed and praised and when utterance was impossible we took refuge in an all-speaking silence. We had but two speakers coming from outside the district, Dr. Ernest C. Wareing, our highly esteemed editor of the "Western Christian Advocate," and Dr. A. E. Craig, pastor of Trinity Church, Evansville, Indiana. The larger part of the program was by the pastors. Every man spoke as if he were moved by the Holy Ghost. Perhaps the moments of greatest intensity came at the closing of Dr. Wareing's address. The memories of that hour will not soon be forgotten. The Sunday school and Epworth League boards put on a one-day program, October 19th, at High Street Church, in the interest of the young people. It was largely attended and helpful to all present. Our Settlement Day and Evangelistic conference was held in Yorktown, December 2d. The reports pointed to a glorious victory in the payment of salaries, benevolences, and Centenary. Dr. W. H. Neil, of Chicago, made the closing address and plowed our souls to the bottom. Delightful memories of that hour still linger with us.

The District Conference, held at First Church, Noblesville, was a fitting climax to all the high-grade programs of the year. Some wondered whether we could continue to walk on such high levels and not get dizzy. That depends upon the poise. It was pronounced by the Committee on Resolutions to be our greatest program. As I note the outside speakers we will be convinced. Every one seemed to be at his best. Dr. Victor W. Thrall, pastor of First Church, Chicago, in two addresses; Dr. George R. Grose, president of DePauw University; Dr. Rebecca Parish, of Manila, and Mrs. Martha J. Mellinger, just back from the Home Missionary field in the West; Dr. Curnick, field agent of our Methodist Hospital, and Rev. R. A. Morrison, general secretary of our Preachers' Aid Society. Bishop Thomas Nicholson, our own area Bishop, brought us to a climactic closing in the afternoon and night service. He helped, instructed, and inspired us to see "The World's Need and the Churches' Opportunity."

Church Literature.—Our Sunday-school literature is in fine favor in nearly all our schools. The pastors report 978 "Western Christian Advocates" taken. Quite a number of the people take the "Christian Advocate" and the "Northwestern," a few "Methodist Reviews," and many of them take the "World Outlook." Four pastors reached the goal of one Advocate for every seven members: E. B. Westhafer, Avondale, Muncie; Preston Polhemus, Normal City; W. O. Moulton, Whitely; and B. E. Jones, of New Burlington. There are 125 "Epworth Heralds" taken. Dr. J. H. Palmer is the only pastor reporting every member of the official family taking the Advocates.

The Women's Societies.—The women of the church have caught the spirit of the Centenary and are keeping step with their brothers. Had it not been for their devotion, prayers and sacrifices, the victories of the present day would not have been possible. While the men are now largely lifting the loads under which they formerly staggered the women are no less active. The Ladies' Aid Societies have had large returns this year. The total of their raisings approximates $14,000. The honors of the district belong to First Church, Noblesville, with the round sum of $1,042.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are going forward with a bound. The work of the foreign society has been phenomenal. From April to April they have raised $9,187. The auxiliary at High Street, Muncie, comes up with $3,056, which is more than one of the largest districts in this conference raised last year. Much of this is due to the untiring zeal of Mrs. B. F. Moore, the district president. I think she has visited nearly all the auxiliaries in the district.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society does not have so many auxiliaries, but their work is no less important and their zeal has led to a fine advance over last year. They report more than $2,000. The combined efforts of the women of Muncie District has resulted in raising more than $25,000, and as far as I know the brethren are still solvent.

Salaries.—The false prophet said the Centenary would reduce ministerial support. The true prophet said it would increase it. True prophecy is being fulfilled. The noble laymen are producing salaries faster than they are producing preachers. I hope this evangelistic campaign will give us a multitude of preachers to fill the pulpits where the salaries are now provided. Last year twenty-eight charges increased their salaries. For next year twenty-eight charges have already agreed upon an increase which will mean $7,000 more to the pastors of the districts. The charges advancng are as follows: Albany, $300; Alexandria, $300; Anderson, First Church, $300; Indiana Avenue, $200; Noble Street, $300; Park Place, $200; DeSoto, $300; Eaton, $300; Fishers, $200; Fortville, $300; Gaston, $300; Hartford City, $250; Jolietville, $200; Matthews, $200; Middletown, $300; Muncie, Avondale, $300; Madison, $250; Normal City, $300; Whitely, $100; New Burlington, $200; Noblesville, $400; High Street, Muncie, $500; Pendleton, $200; Selma, $300; Shideler, $200; Westfield and Hortonville, $600; Yorktown, $300; Carmel, $300.

The Centenary.—Our organization for launching the Centenary was well perfected before the last conference. The pastors and the lay leaders of Muncie District were anxiously waiting for marching orders. So impatient were some pastors and their churches that they put on the drive in advance and were shouting the victory when the Great Methodist Host was forming the battle line. This gave encouragement to the more timid ones and assured our victory.

Rev. P. E. Greenwalt, just back from France, and his blood rushing like a torrent through his veins, was chosen our campaign leader. As is his custom, he struck the right pace and did a fine piece of work. Every pastor was loyal to our program. I have never seen finer team work. Some of the pastors who came across first helped their brothers who had little harder fields. We had no very large gifts, no after-death bonds or estate notes. It was straight out-and-out pledging, and that is most encouraging for the future. Our last allotment as given by the area office, including the conference benevolences, is $418,135. The total pledges sent in are $428,505, which is nearly $10,000 above our allotment. One-fifth of that is $83,627. Allowing one-sixth for the two months until the first of June is $13,930. Amount now due is $69,688. The pastors' report $74,808. This brings us up to date with $5,000 allowed to charges paying the full year at this conference. This looks like victory. It is victory. But it is nothing of which to boast. If all would pay their tithe we would treble that amount.

Evangelism and Membership.—It has not been easy to move the churches toward genuine revivals. The people generally became so absorbed in war customs they do not easily forget. They have unintentionally and unconsciously slipped away from our Lord. They are coming back; but the pull from the business world is tremendous. The big fight of the masses is for bread and butter. Revivals generally occurred over the entire district. The most extensive was at Pendleton with 115 conversions and 118 accessions; J. O. Powell is the pastor. Dr. J. W. Potter reports an outstanding revival at First Church, Anderson, with ninety conversions and a total accessions during the year of 140. E. M. Dunbar, at Hartford City, had another gracious revival, reporting eighty-two conversions and seventy accessions. One of the most excellent features of this meeting was the large number of young people who dedicated themselves to life service. High Street, Muncie, just closed a most excellent meeting with forty-seven conversions and 173 accessions during the year. The Fishers charge had revivals of the New Testament order in the three churches, resulting in fifty-one conversions and twenty-five accessions; C. G. Cook is the pastor. J. H. Palmer is closing his fifth year with a fine revival of fifty conversions and forty-three accessions. J. S. Newcombe reports for Madison Street, Muncie, twenty-five conversions and twenty-six accessions. Jolietville, Edward Antle, pastor, has had another year of splendid revivals numbering forty conversions and forty-three accessions. Fairview, on the Albany Circuit, O. B. Young, pastor, conducted a meeting for seven weeks, resulting in forty-seven conversions and thirty-one accessions. Whitely Church, Muncie, W. O. Moulton, pastor, reports forty-nine conversions and twenty accessions. Indiana Avenue, Anderson, Herbert Perry, pastor, had thirty-four conversions and thirty-nine accessions. New Burlington, B. E. Jones, pastor, twenty-eight conversions and seventeen accessions. Yorktown, J. Walter Gibson, pastor, twenty-eight conversions and forty accessions. Middletown, J. H. Runkle, pastor, twenty conversions and forty-six accessions. Normal City, Muncie, Preston Polhemus, pastor, twenty conversions and twenty-three accessions. Noblesville Circuit, Kenneth Maynard, pastor, nineteen conversions and eighteen accessions. Alexandria, E. C. Dunn, pastor, seventeen conversions and twenty-two accessions. Noble Street, Anderson, E. J. Wickersham, pastor, twenty-five conversions and forty accessions. Fortville, W. H. Harrison, pastor, twenty-eight conversions and sixteen accessions. Eaton, J. J. Fred, pastor, twenty conversions and twenty-one accessions. Shideler, J. L. Williams, pastor, seventeen conversions and twenty accessions. Avondale, Muncie, E. B. Westhafer, pastor, fifteen conversions and fourteen accessions. Grace Church, Anderson, A. G. Kiger, pastor, nineteen conversions and twenty-two accessions. Carmel, L. C. McFarlin, pastor, nineteen conversions and sixteen accessions. Daleville. H. C. Forbes, pastor, eighteen conversions and twelve accessions. Noblesville, C. E. Line, pastor, nine conversions and twenty-four accessions. There are a few charges with smaller number. The total number of conversions reported is 1,153; and the total number of accessions is 1,235.

I close this year with a profound gratitude to Almighty God for his divine leading and ever watchful care; and to the pastors and their families for their unfailing courtesies and cordial welcome in their parsonage homes. This has been the busiest year in the history of the church. The program was the largest ever put before us. It was big enough to drive us to our knees and that was to our profit. The pastors have not confined themselves to union hours, and the good and faithful laymen have joined in the busy harvest time. It is a pleasure to be a toiler in the vineyard where the fellowship is so fine and the co-operation so complete.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

Somerville Light, District Superintendent.

Somerville Light.

Bishop Nicholson and Brothers: Richmond District covers parts of seven counties and numbers, at present, forty-three charges: twenty of which are stations, thirteen two appointments, seven three appointments, and three four appointments. The forty-three charges represent eighty-two churches, with upwards of fourteen thousand members; a Sunday-school enrollment of about fifteen thousand and a constituency of eight thousand four hundred, according to the reports of the pastors. We have invaded this constituency and won to date, in the Methodist Million Campaign, 1,834 converts and 1,590 accessions to the churches. These and other cheering results have been attained in spite of untoward weather conditions, "flu" epidemics; and several interruptions in the work because of changes in pastors. In early September, Victor E. Stoner was taken from Dublin and placed in Philadelphia, to make it easier for him to attend DePauw University, and at the same time serve a charge. This has proven a wise adjustment and the relation will continue. About this time, Brother L. P. Pfeifer, after a protracted and serious serious illness, was compelled to surrender Third Church, Richmond. Brother E. L. Gates, who had been at Philadelphia, was appointed to Third Church, where he has made a fine record. He will be returned at an advanced salary. W. H. Smith, of the Florida Conference, was secured for Dublin and Straughns. In late January, Brother Smith was stricken with double pneumonia, and on the morning of February 4th, was transferred by his Divine Lord, the Bishop of all souls, to the ministry of the church triumphant. Brother A. F. Hogan, pastor at Cambridge City, with his good wife, ministered to the stricken widow and children, and sent them on their way, well cared for, to Philadelphia, Pa., where interment was made. September 7, Fred Chelan turned away from the McCordsville charge, with his wife, was really baptized, united with the Disciple Christian Church, was received into its ministry and located in Marshall, Illinois. Brother Herman L. Adams was immediately secured for McCordsville, where he has done a great work and is urged to return at a salary which is twice what was paid Brother Chelan. A new church is on the program for next year. In November other changes occurred. R. C. Ballard was released, with the consent of Bishop Nicholson, from Pennville and transferred to Clark, South Dakota. Brother L. H. Ice was, almost immediately, taken from Farmland and placed in Pennville, where he has done excellent work. His return is enthusiastically requested—the salary advanced from $1,400 to $1,800 and house. Pennville knows how to treat a pastor. If you don't believe it, inquire of one L. H. Ice. Rev. R. S. Shaw, who went from this district to war Y. M. C. A. service, and later to Welfare Work in Detroit, Michigan, was secured for Farmland, where he has done good work. His return is urged at an advance of $200 in salary. Finally, brethren, the second week in November, Brother Arthur Cates, at his own request, was transferred by Bishop Nicholson to the Rock River Conference and stationed at Polo. To fill the vacancy at Union City requisition was made on Wabash district. Through the generosity of Dr. W. B. Freeland and the consent of Bishop Nicholson, Rev. J. Thomas Bean, the popular pastor at Columbia City, was secured for Union City. The people of this fine church gave Brother Bean and family a right royal welcome. An elegant parsonage home has been purchased. The preacher's people are in it and are cordially invited to remain another year with an increase of $200 in salary.

District Ministry.—In addition to loyal efficient pastors in this district we have six retired ministers. Two, Dr. Frank G. Browne and Brother R. T. Laslie, reside without the bounds of the district, both good men of good report. Brothers R. C. Jones, M. A. Harlan, S. Billheimer, and M. R. Peirce reside within the district lines. All helpful to their pastors and loyal to the church. Brother J. O. Bills, the only supernumerary minister residing in the district, has been, as he always is, busy and useful. He has responded to many calls from the pastors and district superintendents. We have thirty-four local ministers, seven elders, two deacons, and twenty-five licentiates. Two of this number, C. A. Mitchell and O. P. Van Y are in charge. Professor W. W. Sweet, a member of the Greenfield Quarterly Conference, represents the district in special service, as a member of the faculty of DePauw University.

Deaths.—God has been good to these ministers and their families and led them in the sunlight of His mercy and love. However, three times during the year death has entered, leaving sorrow and anguish at the hearthside. October 5th, the district superintendent was called to minister in the parsonage home at Knightstown, when the frail body of Esther, the only daughter of Brother W. E. Hogan and wife, was tenderly laid away in the beautiful cemetery nearby. In February, as has been noted, Brother W. H. Smith left the parsonage home in Dublin for the house not made with hands—eternal in the heavens. Brother William Whetsel, one of our local ministers, was bereft of the good wife of his youth time. Her going leaves him broken in health and in loneliness.

Births.—What a twelve month is this division of time called a conference year! Crushing sorrow for some; fullness of joy for others. To four parsonage homes this great joy came. Miriam Frances Land to the Salamonia parsonage, Benjamin H. Franklin, Jr., to the Willow Branch parsonage; Joseph Phillips Grimes, to the Millgrove parsonage; and Lowell Paul Roahrig, to the Kennard parsonage.

District Meetings.—An unusually well-attended and very enthusiastic Pastors', District Stewards', and General Laymen's meeting, was held in First Church, Richmond, April 29th. The Woman's Home Missionary Society Convention was held in Grace Church, Richmond, June 12th and 13th. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Convention was held in Redkey, October 23d and 24th. The annual convocation of the Loyal Epworthians occurred June 17th and 18th in Winchester. As I now recall, every pastor was present and nearly every charge in the district was represented by choice young people. The best of all, it was a period of real serious thinking and surrender to God for life service. The young people again made provision for the support of Dr. Lowry, their medical missionary in China.

Centenary Organization and Campaign.—Last year, in September, the pastors, district superintendent, and between 400 and 500 elect laymen of this district, spent two nights and a day at a Centenary Training Conference, held in Winchester. We had for our instructors, Dr. Fred B.

Fisher; several missionaries on furlough for this puropse; Dr. R. J. Wade, secretary of the Chicago area; and a member of our conference cabinet, with Drs. W. W. Martin, B. S. Hollopeter, J. A. Beatty, and M. S. Marble, the other worthy members of the cabinet. This campaign of education was continued by faithful pastors up to the annual conference session in Peru. Here the orders were given for an alignment of all forces, ministerial and lay, in church and Sunday school. At last from headquarters came the clarion call for advance all along the line—May 25th was set as the day for final report, and at 9.45 o'clock, on that memorable night, the district superintendent, by order of the six division captains, wired headquarters in Chicago—"Richmond District, North Indiana Conference, Over the Top." In due time back came the word, "Richmond District, the first in the Conference to go over the top." A little later, we were informed that this district was among the first in the area to go over and also one among a very few in the connection to register every charge in care of a pastor, "over the top." Our quota was $409,490, our latest subscriptions total $459,858. No words can adequately express my appreciation of the faithful and unusually efficient work done by the pastors of this district throughout the campaign. Not a few faced discouragements which cannot be described—yet every man scored a victory. I desire also to give expression, as I close this division of my report, to my appreciation of the excellent assistance given, in this campaign, by Dr. T. J. Johnson, sent to us by the central office in Chicago.

Church in Action Evangelistic Campaign.—As the Centenary campaign with certain follow-up work with various meetings, including the great Columbus exposition, which meeting, by the way, was largely attended by both preachers and laymen from every section of the district, closed the program for the first half of the year, so the special evangelistic campaign opened the program of the second period. This campaign was prosecuted with great vigor from September the 23d to October the 8th. Pastors and laymen entered into the work with unusual enthusiasm. The evangelistic note was sounded everywhere, day after day, and night after night, until the revival fires broke out in the city and at countryside. The campaign closed with a glorious Young People's Activities Conference, held in New Castle, October the 8th. Dr. J. V. Thompson, with his corps of workers from the Board of Sunday Schools, assisted by the pastors and young people, staged a great program. It was one of the greatest young people's meetings I ever attended, and resulted in great good to the entire district. Thus the general church membership, the Sunday schools and the Epworth Leagues were put into co-operative alignment for spiritual conquest as they had been, with the minute men, and pastors for financial victory. As we reported complete organization last conference time for victory in the Centenary drive, so we were able by mid-year to report a like organization for the even more important spiritual campaign.

The Methodist Million Campaign.—Minute men, tithing stewards, intercessors, life service volunteers, unit leaders, win-one legion members, and pastors were ready for the slogan sounded forth by the district superintendents' convention, held in Cleveland, Ohio. "One million converts by June, 1920." In reply to the question, "Has the Centenary drive favorably or unfavorably affected the spiritual life of your charge?" Every pastor save one, responded "favorably." With this practically unanimous judgment, the pastors were ready to move forward at the appointed time. From November on, the battle was waged against bad weather, bad health conditions, bad roads, stolid indifference, and all brands of sin. It affords me great joy to stand here today and report the largest number of conversions and accessions to the churches reported in Richmond district in decades. The latest word to me is—conversions, 1834; accessions, 1590. We report a membership of 13,998, a gain of 867, with a gain in conversions of 803. The charges reporting a hundred conversions and over are: Economy, J. J. Fischer, pastor, 135; New Castle, W. W. Wiant, pastor, 130; Grace Church, this city, A. H. Backus, pastor, 123; Third Church, this city, E. L. Gates, pastor, 113; and Dunkirk, C. G. Yeomans, pastor, 100. Redkey, J. S. Phillips, pastor, practically belongs in this list. The pastor reports ninety-seven. Cambridge City, A. F. Hogan, sixty-seven; Losantville, E. H. Taylor, sixty-three; Chester, L. F. Ulmer, sixty; McCordsville, H. L. Adams, fifty-six; Portland Circuit, E. E. Franklin, fifty-one; Fountain City, J. F. Blocker, forty-one; Willow Branch, B. H. Franklin, forty-one; Richmond, First, R. L. Semans, forty; Greenfield, H. S. Nickerson, thirty-nine; Portland, M. S. Marble, thirty-five; Markleville, Mack Crider, thirty-four; Williamsburg, R. M. Morris, thirty-five; Lynn, M. B. Graham, thirty-three; Modoc, C. A. Mitchell, thirty; Spiceland, C. W. Anderson, thirty; Winchester Circuit, W. O. Power, thirty-nine; Maxwell, O. P. Van Y, twenty-nine; Farmland Circuit, J. H. Brown, twenty-eight; Centerville, J. B. O'Connor, twenty-five; Millgrove, J. Grimes, twenty-five; Kennard, Weber Roahrig, twenty-five; Farmland, R. S. Shaw, twenty-three; Pennville, L. H. Ice, twenty; Union City, J. T. Bean, seventeen. The other faithful pastors of the district report conversions ranging from ten to two. Numbers do not tell the whole story. The following figures will suggest our organized strength. Sunday schools—Horace L. Burr, district director, more than fifty per cent fully organized. The remaining schools near the goal—the pastors are pressing for full church organization; minute men, 176; unit leaders, 366; win-one legion, 963; intercessors, 1,990; life service volunteers, seventy-eight; tithing stewards, 1,285. We are thirty-three above our quota of life service volunteers. Well directed effort for a few more months will reach every quota.

Settlement Day.—Settlement Day was observed this year at Cambridge City, December 9th, with the usual large attendance and excellent program.

Passion Week and Easter Sunday.—Probably never before in the history of this district was the season so universally observed by the churches and Sunday schools. Nearly every pastor has put on the program.

District Conference.—The Methodist Million District Conference was held March 10th, 11th, and 12th in Knightstown. Pastor Hogan and wife with their loyal, hospitable people proved to be royal hosts, and made the large company of ministers and laymen from over the district feel very much at home. The entire program stressed the evangelism. The pastors, all of whom were in attendance, brought a fine spirit to the conference, and did their utmost to make it count for the kingdom. There was an unusual interest among the laymen, not a few of whom were present throughout the session. Dr. Victor Thrall, of Chicago, gave the opening address Wednesday night, March 10th. Missionaries C. E. Parker and M. D. Ross, assisted by local talent, presented the India Mass Movement Pageant to a crowded house, with telling effect on Thursday night, and Bishop Nicholson closed the conference with a great evangelistic message Friday night. The other speakers from without the district were Dr. W. H. Neil and Mr. John W. Perry, from area headquarters at Chicago, the former representing the Sunday school and the latter as area secretary of Lay Activities, speaking to and for the laymen. Both gave excellent service. Secretary R. A. Morrison, representing the Preachers' Aid Society, and Miss Rebecca Daily, of India, representing the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, were present and addressed the conference. Mrs. A. H. Backus, of Grace Church, Richmond, spoke for the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Brothers O. F. Ward, of Grace Church, this city; and Horace L. Burr, of New Castle, were the laymen speakers from the district. Two were granted license to preach and two were recommended for Admission on Trial in the annual conference. Besides the usual complimentary words, a strong resolution against the removal of the paragraph on amusements was unanimously passed.

Buildings and Improvements.—Dublin purchased an excellent property for a parsonage at a cost of $1,535, and now have it ready for the incoming pastor. The church at Straughn, on this charge, was improved—a basement and furnace at the cost of $750. Union City welcomed the new pastor, J. T. Bean and family, to an elegant $7,000 parsonage, one of the best in the conference. Winchester, O. T. Martin, pastor, has so completely rebuilt the parsonage that it is to all intents and purposes a new house. The cost was $3.500. Winchester Circuit, W. O. Power. pastor, purchased a good home for the preacher at a cost of $3,400. This is a good three-point circuit which will pay the pastor $1,400 cash next year, and furnish this modern home in beautiful Winchester. Portland, Dr. M. S. Marble, pastor—the trustees exchanged the old parsonage for one of the substantial houses of that city. This gives the pastor a good home worth about $6,000. Church improvements on the Portland Circuit, E. E. Franklin, pastor, $11,125—this represents two very necessary improvements—this young pastor has shown good leadership. Knightstown, W. E. Hogan, pastor, expended $2,000 on church property. Kennard, Weber Roahrig, pastor,—here the church at Kennard was greatly improved and modernized at a cost of $1,087. Charlottesville, E. A. Bunner, pastor,—church and parsonage improvements, $519. At Markleville, Mack Crider, pastor,—here the pastor induced the people to pay off an annoying parsonage debt—$560 paid the account. Fountain City, J. F. Blocker, pastor,—church improvements, $625. Modoc, C. A. Mitchell, pastor, $475. Salamonia, J. A. Land, pastor, $390. Maxwell, O. P. Van Y, pastor, $377. Dunkirk, C. G. Yeomans, pastor, $385. Cambridge City, A. F. Hogan, pastor, $275. Spiceland, C. W. Anderson, pastor, $225. McCordsville, H. L. Adams, pastor, $150. Millgrove, Joseph Grimes, pastor, $140. Hagerstown, C. W. Chadwick, pastor, $400 on parsonage. Greenfield, H. S. Nickerson, pastor, $420, parsonage. New Castle, W. W. Wiant, pastor, $212, parsonage. Parker, A. W. Smith, pastor, $135, parsonage. Ridgeville, G. E. Hughes, pastor, $130, parsonage. Centerville, J. B. O'Connor, pastor, $100. Richmond, First Church, $315 on parsonage. Grace Church, $500 on parsonage. Total improvements for the year, $44,060. We now have but one charge in the district without a parsonage, viz., the Farmland Circuit, a newly-organized charge. Here the trustees are planning to buy or build. Our church property is valued at $874,400. The parsonage property is valued at $115,750.

Debts Paid.—Dublin, $1,208; Portland Circuit, $10,125; Cambridge, $1,100; Dunkirk, $1,200; Lynn, $1,000; Kennard, $950; Redkey, $3,000; Union City, $3,100; Winchester, $3,500; Winchester Circuit, $3,500; Pennville, $2,300; Knightstown, $2,000; Richmond, Grace Church, $4,160; Losantville, E. H. Taylor, pastor, paid off an old parusonage debt to the amount of $980. Richmond, First Church, $255; Richmond, Third Church, $236; Modoc, $475; Shirley, $137; Spiceland, $225. These with several smaller amounts paid total $35,916.

Church Literature.—The pastors report 1,011 subscribers to the "Western Christian Advocate," a gain of 271. New Castle leads the churches of the patronizing territory with 165; Pennville has the paper in every official family. Pastors have pushed for the "Western" as they have not done in years. The Sunday-school periodicals show a good increase. Practically all our schools take and use Methodist literature.

Departmental Work.—The Sunday schools are better organized than ever and, of course, have done the largest things for the kingdom. They contributed to missions last year—$2,503. This year the offerings for missions total $8,427. New Castle leads, Portland second, and Grace Church third. On the other hand, the schools have reported more conversions and accessions to the church than I have ever known in one year. The Senior and Junior Epworth League chapters, while not increasing in numbers as we might wish, are well organized and doing good constructive work. The Ladies' Aid Societies have raised $19,809, an advance of $3,029 over last year. They are doing a great work for the kingdom. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, with their auxiliaries, have raised more than enough to meet their pledges, and advanced beyond goals set by themselves and others. They have organized many new societies and raised upwards of $8,000, a gain over last year.

Salaries.—The churches have continued their advances in pastors' salaries in a good steady fashion from year to year during the five years closing with this conference session. The first year, fifteen charges advanced; the second, nineteen charges; the third, twenty charges; the fourth, twenty-eight charges; the fifth, thirty-three charges. The advances for the five years total $24,080 cash salaries for pastors only. The gain in cash for pastors this year over last is $7,883. Total ministerial support gain in cash salaries for this year over last, $9,545. Total ministerial support for 1915, $37,999. Total support for 1919-20, $67,714. A gain in the five years of $29,715, an average of $5,943 per year. The following charges have advanced for next year—McCordsville, $600; New Castle, $500; Pennville, $400; Cambridge City, $400; Whitewater, $400; Redkey, $300; Lynn, $300; Webster, $300; Chester, $300; Centerville, $300; Dunkirk, $200; Hagerstown, $200; Losantville, $200; Maxwell, $200; Richmond, Grace, $200; Saratoga, $200; Spiceland, $200; Union City, $200; Williamsburg, $200; Willow Branch, $200; Millgrove, $200; Greenfield, $200; Shirley, $200; Farmland, $200; Winchester Circuit, $200; Richmond, Third Church, $200; Farmland Circuit, $200; Dublin, $200; Parker, $200; Kennard, $150; Fountain City, $100; Economy, $100; and Ridgeville, $100. Total advance $9,250. The average salary of the effective conference men in this district last year was $1,383—for this year just closed, $1,500. It is confidently expected that the minimum cash salary for next will be $1,200. We paid for Conference Claimants last year, $4,592; this year, $6,050. We have made a gain in this item during the five years of sixty-two per cent plus.

Centenary and Benevolences.—The pastor's advance reports indicate that, with the possible exception of one or two, the charges will pay the first year's quota for the Centenary, other six boards and conference benevolences in full. Compared with figures of the past, these figures make one dizzy, relatively of course this is big business and so we must regard it. Some charges have paid more for benevolences this year than in years put together. It is to be hoped that five years on this altitude will cause them to feel at home and say, "Lord, it is good to be here." Better than this, may it cause a desire to be called up higher. Our official quota for the first year is more than met. Having discovered themselves most of the churches, with their pastors, seem to be glad. Last year this district gave for all benevolences, $28,467; this year $82,839—a gain of $54,372. The churches of this district, if this program is made permanent, will soon be able to face the whole world for which Christ died, and sing, "Our God is Marching On."

In Conclusion.—Permit this personal word—this year has been to me, one of the severest stress, and of not a little suffering of both mind and body. Soon after the fall campaign closed I was taken ill and, to my utter surprise, was confined to my home for nearly five months, I want to thank Bishop Nicholson, my brethren in the cabinet, the brethren of the conference, and the brethren both ministerial and laymen in the district for their many expressions of sympathy and brotherly kindness. Brothers Semans, Wiant, Nickerson, Martin, Yeomans, Marble, W. E. Hogan, and Backus, chairman and secretaries of divisions with the district missionary secretary, each responded to call, one or more times. However, the heaviest burden fell upon the pastor of my good wife—Brother Semans. He presided over between thirty and forty conferences. The family will always think of him as "The pastor beloved."

With a thousand thanks to all of the dear brethren, and praise to God for restoration to health and strength for the days of toil to come, I submit this report of the year's work on the Richmond district.

WABASH DISTRICT.

William B. Freeland, District Superintendent.

Bishop and Brethren: The knights of Arthur's Table Round took a vow to go a twelvemonth and a day in holy quest. But the king was not present at the meeting; he was too busily engaged in the punishment of a band of robbers who, near his very castle, had outraged a maiden. We are prone to discount that which is near at hand and familiar, but the scene of valiant service is usually near the place where we keep our tryst with the Infinite. No spot upon the planet is more romantic than the lowliest field of difficult, though glorified endeavor, in that irregular rectilinear territory known as the Wabash District. No advocate will take up a brief for the friendless present; but no time was ever so suffused with romance, and no year was ever expressive of the crystal Christ than the perplexing year which has just closed. The lambent light of his countenance was never more benignantly beautiful, and that light has fallen upon one more step in the staircase of the years which leads to His presence. More deeply set, we trust, upon our foreheads is His emblazoned name.

One year ago, forty-three men went out to their labors. Thirty-nine of these will report charges. Kenneth A. Hawkins vacated the Warren Circuit, October 1st, to enter mission work in Ft. Wayne; Rev. G. B. Work served the charge until the middle of November, when Rev. W. M. Smith assumed the work. December 1st, Richmond District drew requisition for our pastor at Columbia City, Rev. J. Thomas Bean, for the Union City Church. He was surrendered from this charge where he had done very good work to the rescue of that needy district. M. O. Lester was transferred from the Warren Church to Columbia City, and Rev. R. V. Johnson escaped from the Goshen District to Warren. Clarence Fisk, at Jalapa, migrated to Kentucky, and soon after this, D. J. Imler vacated Home Park to attend the Boston School of Theology, from which place he writes that he enjoys his studies, and desires to continue them another year. Rev. J. N. De Camp served two points until the new year, at which time A. W. Pugh took up the work; he has done so well that he is invited back to the united charge.

Rev. E. L. Jones retired from the management of the Memorial Home, at Warren, March 1st. He and his good wife were highly appreciated there for their faithful service of nine years' duration. Rev. Madison Swadener continues his work as lecturer for the National Anti-Saloon League, a place for which he has an unusual gift. Rev. B. S. Hollopeter has wrought a good year's work as financial secretary for the Memorial Home. Our retired men are: J. W. Bowen, Marion; J. W. Cain, DeLand, Florida; J. W. Tilman, North Manchester; H. A. Ewell, Dayton, Ohio; J. M. Rush, Riverside, Washington; J. T. Fettro, South Whitley; G. B. Work, Circleville, Ohio; T. F. Frech, T. M. Guild, C. H. Murray, and W. E. Murray, Huntington. Death invaded our homes early this year. April 29th Mrs. Ella Johnson, widow of Rev. F. P. Johnson, died just eight weeks after her husband. At the time of his death, she was dangerously ill, and never rallied from the dreaded influenza. Wilmettie, beloved wife of John O. Campbell, after a lingering illness, entered into rest, from her mother's home in Marion, September 29th. Anna Belle Murray, wife of Rev. Charles H. Murray, for the brief period of six months, deceased December 11th; and Catherine L. Mahin, widow of Augustus E. Mahin, quitted her earthly home in Huntington, December 13th, for happy fellowship with friends of former days. A militant son invaded the parsonage home at Jonesboro, and took up quarters with Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Pittenger. They named him Rex Arthur. At Sims, John Wesley Myers made his first appearance in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Myers. We expect in due time to see one at West Point and the other at Drew in preparation for life vocation

William B. Freeland.

The Epworth League Convention was held at North Manchester, June 11th-13th. There was a good program, and a body of earnest young people attended. Some of our chapters languish, but many carry on religious activities with good results. We have thirty leagues, with a membership of about seven hundred members. Ten junior chapters report three hundred eighty members. The Woman's Home Missionary Convention was held at First Church, Wabash, June 18th and 19th. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Convention met at Wabash Street Church, October 16th and 17th. The activities of these consecrated women bring inspiration to us all. Our Ladies' Aid Societies number sixty; their efforts add much to the local finances. The Sunday schools almost without exception use our publications; they are seventy-four in number, and reveal a praiseworthy regularity of attendance, which is a good expression of their work.

Building and improving enterprises have not been so extensive as usual. The parsonage at Markle has been re-decorated at a cost of $500. At Wabash Street, on the Warren Circuit, and at Swayzee, similar sums have been expended. At Huntington, Larwill, Lagro, Sims, Sweetser, and other places not inconsiderable expenditures have been met in putting churches and parsonages in better condition; the largest item of these comes from the Silver Lake charge. At Mount Etna, the old parsonage, which had served its best period of usefulness, was disposed of, and plans are under way to build a new one for the pastor of this two-point work. I expect soon five new parsonages. Middle Street, Wabash, has built and dedicated a community building for a limited program of social activities. Here their thrifty Aid Society does business, and helpful features of work are added. It is in the form of a business room, and cost about $2,000. Morris Chapel, near Marion, a new charge, has not only raised its pastoral support from $350 to $1,000, the weekly proportion paid each Monday, but a bright new parsonage has been erected at an outlay of $3,000. The pastor's wife, Mrs. J. O. Campbell, quietly slipped away from earthly scenes to her heavenly home just at the time of the completion of this dwelling which she was to grace. Prior to the date of the conference, I was surprised by a note that the last dollar for the parsonage was paid. The Rev. S. F. Harter, of Van Buren, sustains perhaps the most remarkable record for building and improving of any man in our number. The parsonage has been moved and rebuilt in such form as to make a beautiful and comfortable home; the church building has been decorated, and now presents a fine appearance. I wish that I might mention the further work of this character, but space for doing so is not available.

My predecessor, M. S. Marble, left the district in fine condition, evidenced by a study of salary advances, which reveals the fact that the year just closing has furnished increases as follows: LaFontaine, $730; Morris Chapel, $700; Middle Street, $400; North Manchester, Jonesboro, Highland Avenue, Marion, $300 each; Upland, $250; Churubusco, Columbia City, Swayzee, Fairmount, Disko, $200 each; Akron, Gas City, Point Isabel, Otterbein, South Whitley, Wabash Street, Warren, and Home Park, $100 each. Other smaller increases bring the total to a little more than $5,000 To this is to be added other ministerial claims which will swell the total to $7,000. For the year to come I may say that not every salary has been determined in advance. However, thirty-three charges have definitely committed themselves to increases as follows: Marion, First Church, $500; Van Buren, $500; Etna and Troy, $780; Claypool, $600; Larwill, $600; Mt. Etna, $450; Disko, $400; Lincolnville, $350; Churubusco, Gas City, Grace Church, Marion, Markle, and Upland, $300 each; Andrews, $250; Akron, Jonesboro, Swayzee, Sweetser, Wabash, First, Warren Circuit, Wabash Street, Mentone, $200 each; Huntington Circuit, $150; Burket, North Manchester, Point Isabel, South Whitley, Warren, Sims, $100 each. A few more of the charges are wrestling with the problem, so that there is a reasonable assurance that three-fourths will offer a fine advance of more than $9,000; and the grand total may be more than that sum.

The Intensive Campaign of the Centenary was a courageous acceptance of a challenge extraordinary. Since that day when the Master gave his great commission, no body of believers has faced such a sublime task. The church felt as though there were a new Apocalypse. It was a holy crusade for wealth for the coffers of our God. It was made in the interest of the needy homeland, the mute, ghastly fields which need reconstruction after the cataclysm of war, the most awful which our blood-drunken earth has experienced, and in the interest of the nations from which rolls the tide of anguish inexpressible. Our pastors, in prayers and labors, beckoned on by the nail-pierced hands of our Captain, went out to victory. In strategic places, the campaign succeeded; from these centers, adjoining churches caught the pride of successful endeavor. U. G. Leazenby, C. U. Wade, and T. J. Johnson aided the matter in a few places. B. S. Hollopeter was invaluable, as he brought his knowledge of the district, his wisdom in management, and his skill as a moneygetter. Pastors went forth in apostolic manner to other charges. Only a word was needed, and they went into the lists of combat with all the chivalry of knightly devotion. The Son of God averts his face from a few! only a few who basely faltered. I was new on the field, as were eighteen of the men; but thirty-six charges, all but a few minor ones, went over. There was no shifting of quotas, no counting of other enterprises, no large contributions. In thirty days I telegraphed the district out with $403,000, or 102 per cent. Our well known team work won the enterprise. The laymen not only gave their subscriptions, but in many cases took active part in the canvass.

Our preachers who have done their work with conscientious effort have been busy men. It is a rule that no member of a "never sweat" club is eligible to our fraternity. The lazy, unfaithful man must seek other company; the "incumbrances" of our pulpits must hunt easier jobs. The man who will not do our work must not eat our bread; it would be more honorable to steal than to accept the emoluments of the ministry and not do the work of the ministry. Our men have made 24,131 calls; they have secured 971 subscriptions and renewals for the "Western Christian Advocate," the largest number of any district within the territory of that journal save one. They have enrolled tithers in every charge save three: they have registered intercessors; they have preached and officiated at funerals and weddings; they have baptized converts, received members into the church; some of them have nursed the sick in time of pestilence, and have performed service of kindness under circumstances of need; they have subscribed to the Preachers' Aid Society; they have led out in the Centenary giving. Some of them have gone beyond their strength this year in their labors. They have in some instances observed an eight-hour day, but have put two days into one. Bishop, this is the reason the Wabash district comes to the end of the conference year with such results. The Divine Spirit has wrought among us; but he has borne no magic wand, nor has he been errand boy for indolent and indifferent workmen. Our reports are creditable, but beyond the statistics lie a multitude of results which no alchemy can transmute into figures; they shall all be gathered at the foot of the throne. Spiritual values we have achieved, and they are above all else.

Upon my invitation, in the early autumn, the men of the district met in two groups, respectively at Marion and Wabash. We had some earnest prayers and some enlightening discussion of the problems of evangelism. We agreed that we could not afford to permit the facts of sin, the atonement, repentance, the witness of the Spirit, and other cardinal doctrines to disappear from our messages. We concluded to try to put expressions of such truths back into our vocabularies, to use them naturally. We decided to administer none the less efficiently, but to preach more evangelistically. The conferences were of real benefit to pastors and members of their churches. Though we met hindrances, the battle for the souls of men has been pressed with commendable diligence. Pastors have held their own meetings or have been assisted by brethren from adjoining charges in all but two or three places. Only four charges fail to report conversions and reclamations. Special interest was shown in the following places: Larwill, fifty-one conversions; Van Buren, sixty: Huntington, eighty-four; Columbia City, seventy-eight; and Wabash, First Church, 109. The total to date is 1,017; and the number of accessions reported is 1,332. Passion Week was observed in many places, and we came to the Eastertide with a feeling that His piercing soul was pervading the churches. And we prayed that we might go no more back into ease and indifference, but that we might watch, and weep, and wait, as daysmen who care for the perishing.

(b) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

In the face of the world crises of the present hour, there is supreme need for the Word of God. Every agency for its distribution should be encouraged, especially the great work of the American Bible Society, whose influence is felt the world round.

This worthy organization, during the century of its existence, has issued more than thirty million, three hundred thousand volumes of the Bible, Testaments, or portions, and distributed them to the people of various languages in nearly all parts of the world. More than four million volumes are now distributed each year, and many more would be, were there not a lack of funds. While portions of the Bible are now printed in six hundred and fifty languages and dialects, there are still thousands in our own land and multiplied thousands in foreign lands who have never heard of the Great Book.

We are glad that this Conference will pay its apportionment to the worthy Society in full this year. We feel that the increased sum given over previous years will help in the spread of the Word and glorify Him whom the Word attests.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF DEACONESS WORK.

The work of the deaconess is one of such great importance that we urge the splendid young women of our church to give themselves to it. The increased support accorded them provides for the added cost of living and is a recognition, though yet inadequate, of the great work they are doing.

We are greatly pleased with the additional offerings the church has made for this phase of her activity, an increase of $312.00 being reported over last year, or a total of $1,076.00.

Miss Mary Metts, because of the illness of her mother, requests that she be continued as a probationer.

Fred F. Thornburg, President.
A. L. Weaver, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Your Committee on Church Literature feels that these are days in which it is absolutely necessary to be informed if one would make any pretense at proficiency as a Methodist. There are too many large things now transpiring for any person to keep abreast of the times without giving considerable attention to the various sources of information. Among these large questions are:

The unification movement; the Centenary; large endowments for various institutions; ever-widening borders of missionary endeavor—both home and foreign; possible constitutional amendments; war reconstruction work; and our relation to the Interchurch World Movement. Our church literature, edited, as it is, by men of unsurpassed ability, affords the very best source of this necessary information.

The Western Christian Advocate, as a home church paper, is unexcelled. It reflects the Centenary in its pages on missionary accomplishment; it discusses unification and proposed constitutional changes; its spiritual editorials ring true to vital and fundamental Methodist ideals; it will, if given a chance, improve the spiritual life of any home or individual within our church.

Our Sunday-school literature has great variety and is recognized by the best authority as occupying a place of first rank among such publications, and should be used by all our Sunday schools.

The very helpful and instructive tracts and booklets sent out by the various boards and Centenary leaders have contained a wealth of inspirational information indispensable for these times, and their use should be encouraged among all our people.

Among the other outstanding publications of our church will be found the Epworth Herald, of special value to the young people; the Methodist Review, a magazine of such high order that it should be read universally by our ministers, and the church would profit by its more extended use among the laity; the World Outlook, now under the control of the Interchurch World Movement; the Voice and Missionary News, giving detailed information in their respective fields.

We feel that our people must be kept mentally alert and spiritually awake to every activity of the church by an ever insistant demand that they receive and use these church periodicals, designed especially for their edification.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM.

The Cleveland call for a million souls was a timely project by the leaders of Methodism. No more vital enterprise could properly follow the Centenary.

The answer to that call has not been received with universal seriousness by the church. In some parts this call has been regarded as an impertinent interference with former and established composure. Such an answer is tragic on the part of followers of Paul and of John Wesley. It is a tragedy when a preacher or a church allows the soul-winning desire to become a lost passion and the soul-winning practice to become a lost art. The tragedy is an offense against the Holy Spirit. The repentance needed in any such case is that of doing again the first works, and the return needed in any such case is that to the soul's first divine love.

In many other parts, on the other hand, this call has been accepted as the challenge to a mighty task. Many have rejoiced in the grace of God, vouchsafed unto us in that he has called us to be evangelists.

We trust the leaders of the church, under Christ, will continue to lead in the evangelistic direction. Where leaders lead, pastors will eventually follow. The taking of the evangelistic task in light fashion has been in part the result of overemphasis upon inferior drives and lesser projects. The pastor, deluged with incidentals, has been hindered in the pursuit of the great essentials. Let the drive for a million souls and more hold the minds of all our leaders with continued power until evangelism has become a restored habit and soul-winning has become once more the chief function of the church.

We rejoice in the evangelistic example of our own Bishop Nicholson, and commend the part he is playing in this Conference program to Bishops and Conference program makers everywhere.

We devoutly thank God for the measure of success thus far gained in the winning of a million souls, and we pledge ourselves to the continuation of the campaign until the quota has been reached and passed. We strongly urge that pastors shall recognize their part as the chief factor in producing the evangelistic atmosphere in the local church. Where pastors lead, laymen will follow.

As a means to the winning of this campaign we commend the use of Centenary agencies turned to evangelistic purpose—the Minute Men, the Win-One Legion, the Unit System, Intercessory Leagues. We are convinced of the worth of the Win-My-Chum Week of the Epworth League. We heartily endorse the Sunday-school program for evangelism. Within the ranks of the children of Methodism alone lies the pathway to a million souls. The evangelism of childhood must be persistently followed. We record our high estimate of the essential need of revivalism. Whether in old forms or new, evangelistic work is the chief work of the church; and beginning each one in his own Jerusalem, we will labor in this chief function until the Centenary vision of a world evangelized shall become reality.

EDUCATION.

Our day is replete with opportunity for self-realization. This result is obtained when the individual is pacifically related to all others at a maximum of human endeavor. For this high purpose, educational forces of all grades are organized. The fostering of their aim is promoted by projecting these forces into social realms dominated by ignorance. Man at his best is acquiring physical, intellectual, and spiritual power. The contribution of the denominational school to this end is fully justified by the culture, refinement, and spirituality of those who are their immediate beneficiaries, and indirectly by Christian leadership thus obtained fro maintaining the social order. We felicitate our educational leaders for their high standards of scholarship and lofty spiritual ideals. For this we bespeak the unqualified co-operation of all members and friends of the church.

The theological schools of Methodism are performing an invaluable service in training the ministry of our great church. If young men preparing for other professions need to go to professional schools in order to get thorough preparation for their training, surely ministers cannot expect to become thoroughly proficient in this noble calling without adequate training in the schools designed especially to equip men for the ministry of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

We recommend that all of our young ministers who can possibly do so, attend one of our theological seminaries.

Boston School of Theology is located in the heart of the great city of Boston, Massachusetts. Its location affords wonderful opportunities for studying the great social problems of the day. Its connection with Boston University affords the student opportunity to do advanced scholastic work. We commend the plans for a greater expansion of this already great school.

Drew Theological Seminary, located at Madison, New Jersey, still maintains her splendid position as a training school for many of the noble leaders of our church. The location of this school in the heart of Drew Forest, gives the student the necessary quiet for intense and thorough studies. At the same time her proximity to New York City, with her throbbing and multitudinous social problems, affords ample opportunity for the student to acquaint himself with many of the vital social problems of the day. Her affiliation with Columbia and New York Universities gives the student a fine chance to secure advanced degrees at nominal expense.

Garrett Biblical Institute, located at Evanston, Illinois, is geographically nearest our own Conference. It is one of the outstanding theological schools of our denomination. The students of this institution have the opportunity to pursue advanced courses in Northwestern University.

We urge these schools to maintain unimpaired the great fundamental teachings of the Christian church. We ask that the faculties, in their teaching and daily lives, emphasize genuine evangelism. Our hope is, that every young student of our theological schools will be so led and instructed that they will go out to their charges as flaming Evangels for Jesus Christ.

We commend the movements which are placing special religious workers in our State educational institutions. Much good is thus being engendered. It would be a matter of grave consequence if the students of denominational schools and colleges were to entertain for a moment the thought that we have less concern for their soul culture. Denominational schools generally are without paid religious workers who give full time and devotion to specific religious development. We urge, therefore, a more pronounced and greatly emphasized interest in the religious advancement of denominational students. We urge an unfailing zeal on the part of religious people everywhere, in ever keeping before students of denominational schools and colleges the fact of our concern for their soul life, and of our earnest prayers and continued plans for their religious enlargement.

DePauw University, under the splendid leadership of President George Richmond Grose, D.D., has had a prosperous year in every way. The endowment of the University has been increased to $2,000,000, and the campaign to raise $100,000 to provide a retiring fund for professors who have given at least twenty-five years service to the University, is meeting with success. Sixty-five thousand dollars have been subscribed, and the remainder will be secured by May 1.

The scholarships provided by Mr. Edward Rector, and other friends of the University, have greatly assisted worthy young people in securing an education, and we recommend that, when possible, an annual scholarship of $100 be provided by each District for the benefit of candidates for the ministry from within the boundaries of our Conference.

The plan of the Administration to provide for extended courses in religious education meets with our enthusiastic approval. We believe that it will meet a real need of to-day and result in a higher type of laymen for the church of to-morrow.

The rare administrative ability of Dr. Grose, the unselfish fidelity of the faculty to the service of Christian education, the munificent support of friends of the University like Mr. Edward Rector, and the ceaseless and consecrated toil of Dr. C. U. Wade, have given us a university of ever enlarging usefulness to the world, for all of which we are profoundly grateful. To this institution we pledge anew our loyal support.

We recommend the re-appointment of C. U. Wade. We recommend the election of Mr. Fred Treese, of Kokomo, to succeed Dr. Parr as trustee of the institution, and Mr. W. H. Charles and Hardin Rhoades to succeed themselves. We nominate M. S. Marble as Conference visitor. We recommend visitors as follows—Garrett, Chas. H. Smith; Drew, B. E. Parker; Boston, Geo. H. Meyer; Jacksonville, Ill., W. T. Arnold.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The march of time is but the unfolding of the prophecies of the eternal Word. Long ago God's messenger shouted, "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; and I will shake all nations."

That hour has struck. A shaken and shattered world is before us. The event of a world war has crowded a thousand years into a day. Separated and alien peoples have been shaken together in indescribable confusion, while ancient empires and institutions, which have defied the storms of milleniums, have been shattered into volcanic fragments.

All peoples, nations, races, and tongues have been arrayed in a single battle line extending across a continent. Some "kings of the earth set themselves," and "some rulers took counsel against the Lord and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder and cast away their cords from us." But "the Lord had them in derision and vexed them in his sore displeasure." "He made the wrath of man to praise him," and now we see:

Ancient China in a blaze of patriotic enthusiasm as her sons return from the western charnel house; and the rays of Gospel light, brought by missionaries and soldiers, inspire a nation's cry for a fair chance and fuller light as the lights of the old, gone forever, fast fade into darkness.

Poor, bleeding Korea's sons having "trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonments; being destitute, afflicted, tormented" as they cry for the liberty which the NEW WORLD spirit inspires them to seek.

Ambitious and prosperous little Japan torn with conflicting emotions as she faces a world frowning on militarism, and yet must answer the question, "To expand or not to expand."

Old India in a ferment, caused by contact with missionaries and by the new contact of her million volunteers with the heroes of the western world, so that age-long institutions, such as caste, are crumbling into dust. The outcaste surpassing the Brahmin. The under man pressing upward for intellectual and spiritual liberty, which must be given him if volcanic forces shall be dissolved into an orderly and silent revolution.

The isles of the sea astir, too, because the world movement jarred them from their ancient moorings.

Bleeding Europe struggling with reconstruction problems that stagger and bewilder. Russia trying to found a new kind of state without God and morality. New nations trying to get their houses in order to join the family of free states. Burned out hates supplanted by flickering and sickly hopes. The rubbish heaps of destruction and damnation which must be leveled into fields of fructification and redemption.

Priceless opportunities literally block our pathway, while heavy clouds hang over our heads like an impending doom. Civilization is on trial.

Who is sufficient for all these things?

Hear the voice of God: "I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession."

"And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots; and the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might. With righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth."

Hear the voice of the Son: "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. And lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." "And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand as an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek; AND HIS REST SHALL BE GLORIOUS."

Our mighty Centenary and Interchurch World Movement indicate that the church means to obey her marching orders. The ascending totals give fine promise that this great Conference will be in the vanguard of Christian progress.

"Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain.
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that church prevail,
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.
Onward, Christian Soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before."

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

For more than half a century our Methodist Episcopal Church has carried on the work of this society. As an evidence of the effectiveness of this organization, we have to-day over 350,000 colored members, 3,500 churches, and over 2,000 colored ministers. Also, this society supports twenty-one schools, with 334 teachers and over 6,000 students. We note with gratification the ever increasing number of colored leaders going out from these schools and churches to be the Christian influences for righteousness in all colored communities of our great land.

The fact that a large percent of the colored officers in the service of the great world war were products of our Freedmen's Aid schools, is indicative of the patriotic worth of our colored constituency. The colored man proved his ability in defending the land of his adoption, and it is our conviction that he is equally capable of working out his own racial problems with the same Christian thoughtfulness.

It is our recommendation and earnest appeal to the ministers of our church that they preach at least one sermon a year on the needs of the black man, both in the United States and Africa, and showing forth the relationship of the schools of this society to his evangelism.

We further recommend that the literature of this society be freely distributed among our people, especially on Lincoln Memorial Sunday, and that the special program provided by the society be used.

HOSPITALS.

We, the members of the Committee on Hospitals of the North Indiana Conference, desire to express our great satisfaction at the success of the work of our fine hospitals. We now have four in the state. The one at Indianapolis, the first one of them all, at Princeton, Fort Wayne, and the one at Gary. We are expecting that others will soon be added to the number.

But with all our facilities, we are constantly finding it necessary to turn people away for lack of room.

Our new home for nurses at Indianapolis was a much needed improvement, and we hope that it will soon be ready for occupancy by our splendid corps of nurses.

We commend these hospitals to our people as among the very best in the State, and urge Methodists needing hospital service to insist that their physicians allow them to use our institutions.

We commend the good work and wise management of our Superintendent, Dr. Charles S. Woods. We also commend the plans being organized by the Rev. T. S. Johnson, D.D., for the financial campaign, and trust our people will give him their cordial support in every way.

We recommend the election of Chas. H. Neff, of Anderson, Indiana, as a trustee, to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. C. B. Jenkins, resigned.

We recommend the re-election of Sherman Powell and Albert B. Cline to succeed themselves; their time to expire in 1923.

We recommend the apportionment of ten cents per member to the charges of this Conference for the Sustaining Fund.

METHODIST MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED.

Your Committee for the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged submit the following report:

We rejoice in the continued success of this our own Conference institution, and the happiness of the forty-four members of the Home family. Many of these have reached an extreme age, but they are so sheltered and cared for that they enjoy a good degree of health.

During the year extensive improvements have been made on the building by adding a second story over the dining room and kitchen, and in redecorating the entire building. Eleven new rooms have thus been added, and we can now care for fifty-four old people. This improvement has cost $8,000, all of which is paid.

Our finances are in a splendid condition. Our assets now reach $200,000, an increase over last year of $35,000. Our greatest need now is a new hospital division to care for those who become invalids through age. The plans for this building are now under way, and as soon as we can raise $40,000 for this purpose, work will begin.

We recommend that the District Superintendents apportion ten cents per member to the charges as a Sustaining Fund. We very much regret to report that Rev. E. L. Jones and wife feel they must be released from the Superintendency because of the ill-health of Mrs. Jones.

They have given nine years of very efficient service to this exacting work. They are greatly beloved by all the members of the Home family and have the confidence of every member of the Board of Trustees. We recommend the election of the following trustees, to serve for three years: C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, W. W. Martin, and C. W. Beacher. We also recommend the appointment of W. T. Arnold, F. P. Morris, and M. O. Lester as visitors for the Home.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. B. S. Hollopeter as the Corresponding Secretary of the Home.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

To all patriotic American citizens, the state of the country after a year and a half of nominal peace is a matter of grave concern.

In spite of seeming prosperity there is a widespread discontent manifesting itself in industrial strife, in appeal to the forces of disorder, in disregard of the honorable traditions of the nation and in open defiance of the institutions of society. At no time since that fateful August day, 1914, has the situation in our country been more perilous than at the present hour.

The splendid idealism which sent the youth of the nation into the world war is being obscured, if not lost, in the tragic failure of peaceful government to realize the worthy aims of the war.

The revival of commercial greed, the clamor of partisan interests, the selfish struggle of class against class, the furious competition and conscienceless profiteering in trade, the senseless extravagence, and the mad rush for exciting pleasures, call for unsparing denunciation.

We deplore the failure of the national government to meet our responsibility as a nation in completing a just and honorable peace pact which would at the same time safeguard every national right and interest and help to restore order and rebuild the wasted nations of Europe.

We rejoice in the progress of the universal franchise movement which promises soon to grant to the women of the nation their inalienable rights as citizens.

We rejoice in the nation-wide abolition of the liquor traffic, thus liberating the nation from a bondage tenfold more accursed in its destructiveness than human slavery ever was.

At the same time we call upon all who have reverence for law and order and who would make permanent the victories of righteousness already won, to be earnestly vigilant in enforcing the law, in upholding the courts of justice, and in creating and maintaining a sound, enlightened public sentiment, which alone will keep the nation clean and sober.

The fight now being waged by the "wets" of the country to defeat the enforcement of Federal laws, to corrupt public officers, and to debauch the nation, is more determined and vicious than at any previous time in the history of the temperance reform.

We deplore the fact that the lesson of the war concerning the need of cooperation of capital and labor seems to be lost. Already workmen and their employers are forgetting that their united effort in mutual trust, which mobilized the nation's strength in war, is now necessary for the greater tasks of the world in a durable peace.

We denounce as immoral, un-Christian, and dangerous the extreme radicalism or the extreme conservatism in either capital or labor, which refuse to recognize the inalienable rights of free speech, holding property, a living wage, decent conditions of physical life, and reasonable and equal opportunity for education and the pursuit of happiness for all alike.

We call upon all good men and women to meet the excitement and peril of the times with a sober sense of personal responsibility in promoting honest industry, practicing frugality, penalizing profiteering, and fostering justice and good will everywhere.

We call upon all patriots to resist the insidious invasions of Bolshevism and anarchy in the nation by educating the youth of the country in American ideals and traditions, in firm and vigorous enforcement of the law against violence and disloyalty to the flag, and in building the business and politics of the land on the foundation of good morals, sound learning, and true religion.

George R. Grose.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We are glad to note that the Sunday schools of our great church are more and more demonstrating their ability as soul-saving factors.

The time has come when we no longer look upon the Sunday school as an institution for the children only; but it has proven itself to be an institution of major worth in the life of the adult kingdom.

It has been said that eighty-five percent of the membership of the church has been made possible through the efforts of the Sunday school; it has also been said that one-half of the Sunday-school scholars have been lost to the church. Granting this to be true, how very necessary it is then that we should stress more and more the soul-saving influence of this glorious institution.

We heartilly commend the tireless efforts of our Sunday School Board, and pledge it our most hearty support.

We also pledge our encouragement to all local schools and pray God's richest blessings upon them to the extent that their members may increase many fold.

SUSTENTATION.

Passing years have proven the wisdom of the sustentation plan. Though salaries are being substantially increased, it is necessary to continue this practical system of equalizing pastoral support.

On the advice of our District Superintendents, we recommend that a total of $6,200 be raised for this purpose; $1,800 to be applied as a salary for the student pastor at Purdue University, the remaining $4,400 to be distributed among the districts according to the amounts raised respectively.

C. M. Vawter, B. H. Franklin,
J. O. Hochstedler, J. S. Newcombe.

TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION, AND PUBLIC MORALS.

While we rejoice in the great temperance victory we have won, we must recognize the fact that the battle is not over. In order to make the victory complete, or even to hold that which we have gained, we must present a solid front; therefore, we pledge our continued support to our own Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, or any other organization which will help to make the victory world-wide and perpetual. We deplore the fact that many of the great cartoonists of our country are giving their influence to the side of the "Rum" interests by ridiculing prohibition and offering sympathy to the "Boozer."

We view with great concern the growing immorality of commercialized amusements. Nudity, debauchery, and realism have become the staple portrayal. The dance has become so immoral that even the dancing masters have been compelled to cry out in alarm. The moving picture theaters are not satisfied with operating six days and nights during the week, but are encroaching upon the Sabbath in many of our cities and towns. We call upon our people to not only refrain from all questionable amusements, but to do all in their power to save our young people from these temptations.

We express our sympathy and pledge our support to our Government, National, State, or city, in the efforts being put forth to stamp out venereal diseases.

We recognize the fact that during the world war there prevailed a semi-patriotic feeling that the use of cigarettes should not be opposed, but rather encouraged. Since the smoke of battle has cleared away we can see the devastation it has wrought. We have lost more in a few months than the churches and schools had built up in years by religious and scientific teaching. We pledge ourselves to redouble our efforts to regain this lost ground, and urge parents to teach their children the evil effects of the cigarette.

We commend the work of Dr. Madison Swadener and C. J. Everson, and recommend their reappointment.

We commend Dr. W. W. Martin and Rev. O. A. Trabue for their faithful and efficient work as members of the Board of Trustees, and recommend that they be appointed to succeed themselves on this Board.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To Bishop Nicholson and Brethren of the North Indiana Conference, Greeting:

March 17, 1870, the Northwestern Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized with sixty-six organizations. Eighteen were organized during the first year in the North Indiana Conference. To-day we have 144 Women's Societies, fifty-eight Young People's organizations, and 182 Children's organizations, a total of 384, with a combined membership of 12,227.

"Doubling up" the membership is the slogan for our young people.

The outstanding bit of work has been the double gold star recognition of Wabash District, also many King's Heralds and Little Light Bands as auxiliaries—Mrs. D. V. Williams being the enthusiastic leader.

Our subscription list has reached a total of 4,180 to both monthly periodicals.

The financial gain over last year is $5,462.07, the grand total being $33,530.58.

We have fourteen of our own girls in foreign service, three of them second generation missionaries. During the past year Mary Deam, from Bluffton, has gone to Manilla; and Anna Herrod from Hoagland to South India. Before we meet again, Miss Ruth Neal, of Fort Wayne, will be in Malaysia, and Lela Nordyke, from Bluffton, and Sadie Woodruff, from Kendallville, will be in their respective fields of labor for others, who are looking for the light of the Gospel of Jesus, the Savior of the world.

These results have been achieved by carefully laid plans, persistent team work, much intercessory prayer, and an unwavering faith. Lead on, O King Eternal!

Mrs. Florence C. Binford,
Conference Secretary.

SPECIAL WORK.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Greetings to the Bishop, the Members and Friends of North Indiana Conference:

The report of our Special Work does not vary materially from year to year, but we are glad for the increase of interest and amount of work cared for during the past year.

We are now supporting eleven of our own girls as missionaries on the foreign field—and one native missionary. We will assume the support of two more of our own girls, who will soon sail.

We also support four assistant workers, fifty-four Bible women, thirty-four Bible women in training, five "educational" and ten "evangelistic" "Shares," one hundred and sixty scholarships, fourteen day schools, fifteen hospital beds for women and six for children, six nurses, one house matron, one compounder in a hospital, one conveyance for missionary, contribute several hundred dollars to general hospital work, and also to the war fund for France.

The names of all of our missionaries, as well as of some of our auxiliary members, were inscribed in the Books of Remembrance in Tremont Street Church, in Boston.

We received a few special gifts from members and friends of the society during the past year.

The majority of our auxiliaries observe the day set apart as a Day of Prayer, and those for the collection of Thankoffering and Christmas funds.

A few papers and magazines are sent regularly to a limited number of our faithful missionaries, but we wish that the number of magazines might be largely increased, so that more of the workers could enjoy them.

Our most pressing needs are for more and larger buildings with better furnishings and equipment. Especially is this true of hospitals. Day school buildings and teachers are also sorely needed. The buildings can be erected for from $350 to $1,500. Salaries of teachers vary from $50 to $150 for a year's work.

We hope that each auxiliary, many of the individual members, and a goodly number of the friends of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will decide to assume the support of some line of our various kinds of Special Work, as it increases the interest and helps in the extension of the kingdom.

MRS. A. B. CLINE,
Secretary of Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

CONFERENCE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

This Fortieth Anniversary year finds us working hard for our goal. We have 107 auxiliaries, fifty-eight young people's, and fifty-two children's organizations; total, 217. 4.626 auxiliary, 1,494 young people, 1,502 children members, a net gain of 976, making a total of 7,622. Sixteen new young people's societies have been organized. 1,450 subscriptions to Woman's Home Missions and 558 to Children's Home Missions. Seventeen auxiliaries were on the honor roll. Our thankoffering was more than $1,200. Two of our women have given themselves for life work. One has been placed, and arrangements are being made for the other.

MRS. E. STARBUCK.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

The Auditor for this Conference presents the following report:

We have audited the pastors' reports, as required by the Conference, indicating the necessary corrections, and checked the same to the Conference Treasurer.

The books of Treasurer of the Conference Corporation were found to be correct.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards were audited, and his balances were found correct.

The accounts of the Conference Secretary were audited and found correct.

The Conference Treasurer's accounts of receipts and disbursements for the year of 1919 were audited and found to be correct with the vouchers that were in his hands.

We have audited the Sustentation and Home Mission accounts of the District Superintendents and found their balances correct.

THE BASHOR DEACONESS ORPHANAGE.

The undersigned persons do hereby associate and organize themselves, by virtue of the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, enacted March 9, 1901, into a voluntary association for the purpose of establishing and maintaining an orphanage in the County of Elkhart, State of Indiana, and we do hereby adopt the following charter and articles of association.

ARTICLE 1. The object of this organization shall be the carrying out and putting into effective operation the will and desires of John W. and Emeline Bashor, the former late of the said mentioned county, who deeded certain lands in the said County of Elkhart, State of Indiana, to the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which to conduct and maintain an Orphanage for the care and protection of orphan children, it being the policy to secure and provide a home in good private families for such children as quickly as possible after their entrance into the home. It is proposed to establish and maintain the said institution by donations, subscriptions, and the good will of all persons interested in the higher welfare of such children.

ARTICLE 2. The said Orphanage shall be under the control and direction of nine (9) trustees, who shall be elected by the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the said trustees are hereby authorized and required to classify themselves into three classes, and the term of office of one-third of such trustees shall expire each year.

Article 3. The said trustees and their successors, as such, shall be known as such association, by the name of "The Bashor Deaconess Orphans' Home," and shall be a body politic and corporate, and as such shall exist forever.

Article 4. The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall elect the incorporators as the first Board of Trustees, and then one-third of such trustees each succeeding year, and shall fill any vacancies in the said Board as they may occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, and the said Conference may also remove any trustee at pleasure, and any member of the said Board shall cease to be such a member on ceasing to be a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The said Annual Conference shall annually appoint a committee, whose duty it shall be to examine into the condition of said Orphans' Home, as to its moral and religious standing, and the manner in which it is being conducted, and report their findings annually to the Conference.

Article 5. The Board of Trustees shall organize by electing one of their number President, another Vice-President, and another Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer shall give such security or bond as the Board may require. When such officers are elected, they shall hold office for the period of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Article 6. The business of this association shall be transacted by the nine members of the Board of Trustees, of whom five members shall constitute a quorum at any regular meeting.

Article 7. The Board of Trustees may employ such agents or superintendents as they may deem necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Orphanage, and may remove them at pleasure.

Article 8. The Board of Trustees may adopt such by-laws and regulations as they think necessary to promote the best interests of the Orphanage, and may also alter or amend any article of the association at the request of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the said church, by having the said amendments or alterations recorded in the Recorder's Office of said county.

Article 9. The seal of the association shall consist of two circles, between which shall be the words, "The Bashor Deaconess Orphans' Home—1920."

In Witness Whereof, We, the undersigned persons, voluntarily associating ourselves for the interest of "The Bashor Deaconess Orphans' Home," of the County of Elkhart, State of Indiana, and with our offices in the city of Goshen, State of Indiana, have hereunto set our hands and seals as and for the Articles of Association of the said Orphanage as hereinbefore set forth.

Made and done upon the request of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church as evidenced by this certificate thereof and hereto attached as done on this 10th day of April, 1920.

Signed,

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions would make record of our appreciation of the splendid and efficient leadership of our well beloved Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D. His untiring labors, careful, discriminating judgments, spiritual insight, and his gracious, brotherly spirit have greatly endeared him to us as a brother beloved. The past four years of his presidency of our Conference will ever be remembered with increasing gratitude.

We wish to thank the Conference officers for the careful and splendid services they have rendered us as a Conference.

We would register our deep appreciation to the Rev. Alfred H. Backus, A.M., and the entire membership and friends of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church for their careful provision and splendid entertainment which has contributed much to making the Conference session the delightful one it has been. The planning of the "Pilgrimage to the Birthplace of the North Indiana Conference" was a gracious treat for us all; and to the many who made this possible through the use of their autos, we render our appreciation and thanks.

To the choir for their splendid music; to the organist for her constant and fficient service; to the janitor for his faithfulness, we express our thanks.

We are grateful to our sister churches for the fine spirit of co-operation hown, and especially to the First Presbyterian Church and The Reed Memorial hurch for the throwing open of their doors for the use of the Conference.

For the courtesy of the banks, the consideration of the daily press, and es-ecially for the splendid reports given by The Richmond Item, the visiting talent hat has instructed, inspired, and helped us by their timely messages, and to all ho have in any way contributed to make this seventy-seventh session of our nnual Conference the joy and inspiration it has been, we give our sincerest hanks.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee on District Conference Journals has examined the journals f Fort Wayne, Goshen, Logansport, Muncie, and Richmond Districts, and find em neatly written and carefully arranged. These records will constitute valu-ble documents of statistical information permanently.

The Wabash Journal has not been received from the bindery, and hence ould not come into the hands of the committee. The secretary of the Wabash istrict Conference requests the privilege of presenting this Journal to the com-ittee next year.

Richmond, Indiana, April 10, 1920. Burl M. Bechdolt.

RESOLUTIONS.

(1) Admission of Laymen.

In opposing the amendment to the constitution of our church admitting lay-en to our Annual Conferences, we, the members of the North Indiana Annual onference, do not wish to be understood as opposed to the principle involved—at of admitting laymen as members of the Annual Conferences. We protest gainst the incompleteness and inadequacy of the proposed amendment.

B. S. Hollopeter, W. T. Arnold.
R. L. Semans,

(2) DePauw University.

Whereas, It is the policy of DePauw University to put strong laymen upon e Board of Trustees, in which policy we greatly rejoice; and

Whereas, For years, the visitors from the three Indiana Conferences have oted in the Board through courtesy, but had no legal right to do so; therefore e it

Resolved, That we request the Board of Trustees of DePauw University ask for an amendment to the charter of the institution, giving the visitors of e three Indiana Conferences the legal right to vote upon all questions; and that committee or commission of three be sent to the other two Indiana Conferences is fall to ask them to make the same request of the Board of Trustees of ePauw University.

(3) Paragraph 280.

Whereas, One of the evil effects of the great world war has been the ndency to lower the standard of Christian life and practice, and now even to eem to lower the standard of our great church would be suicidal; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the North Indiana Conference, now as-embled at Richmond, Indiana, that the delegates who are elected to the General onference, to meet in Des Moines, Iowa, in May, be instructed, both by voice nd vote, to support the Article in our Discipline on imprudent conduct, known s Paragraph 280, and in no way to vote for any compromise on the same.

MEMORIALS.

EASTERN SWEDISH CONFERENCE.

WHEREAS, A feeling is making itself known in certain quarters of the churc and through the medium of the church press and the circulation of a resolutio from the Wisconsin Conference, "that the time has arrived when in the intere of the kingdom the foreign language churches and Conferences are no longe desirable nor essential to the program of kingdom extension, but is an unpatriot waste of fundamental resources," we would call attention to the fact that th foreign speaking Conferences represent a considerable number of members b sides constituents, and we fear that a large percentage would join other foreig speaking denominations, and that if Methodism shall continue to grow strong an reap the full harvest of nations growing golden in this fair land of ours, must, as at Pentecost of old, have the gift of tongues. It is the many tributari that make the mighty river. It is the gains made in this conglomerate countr that will strengthen the church, and if these gains are to be made the churc must be properly equipped with the paraphernalia and instruments with whic to do the work, and among these are the foreign-speaking Conferences an Districts as well as the use of the language.

We do not believe that the insinuations that the "foreign work is an unpatriot waste of fundamental resources," and that "dangers are lurking in these foreig assemblies" are justified by facts. On the other hand, we hold that the foreig speaking church is the only curbing and controlling element of such "lurkin dangers." Dissolve it, and you have removed from these people the best mea of salvation from the evil and unpatriotic tendencies that we all fear. The churches are the wholesome leaven that is leavening these masses into true p triotism. We should therefore not destroy the vital agency by which Methodis is extending its patriotic and Christian influences on the masses, but rather exte it by strengthening and encouraging the foreign work. The foreign-speaking Met odists, with few exceptions (and exceptions can be found everywhere), ha been as loyal as the English-speaking Methodists. Our churches have glad given up their sons to do and to die; our churches have carried on their w and Red Cross work as effectively as any church in comparison, and all we a is fair play.

It is our judgment that no action should be taken by the General Conferen until the church has been fully informed concerning the meaning of this wo to our church and the kingdom of God. We believe that the dissolution of t foreign-speaking Conferences, or of any Conferences, without their consent, unconstitutional. (See Discipline. Paragraphs 497 and 569.)

Therefore we, the Eastern Swedish Conference, do hereby memorialize t General Conference of 1920 to appoint a strong and unbiased Commission, i cluding representatives of all the foreign-speaking groups affected, to thorough study the whole question of amalgamation and report to the General Conferen of 1924.

That this Commission be instructed by the General Conference to let sides be heard, that the church may know whether or not it would further t cause of God and the church to undertake forceful and drastic means in solvi the problems which may exist.

Very truly yours,
D. K. ENGLUND,
Secretary of Eastern Swedish Conference, 15 Edward St., Worcester, Mas

GENERAL MINUTES.

WHEREAS, It is necessary for the Secretary of an Annual Conference to keep close, vital touch with the members transferring in and out of the Conference; an

WHEREAS, It is difficult to do this unless he has wide information at h command, therefore

We, the members of the North Indiana Annual Conference, do here memorialize the General Conference to authorize the Book Concern to furni to each Annual Conference Secretary, as soon as published, a copy of the General Minutes of the spring, and Fall, and Mission Conferences, upon his requisition; this requisition being good for the period of the quadrennium.

Second: We memorialize the General Conference to authorize the Book Concern to furnish each Annual Conference Secretary a copy of the Minutes of the session of the General Conference. These copies to be the property of the several Annual Conferences, and to be kept in their files.

SUPPORT OF PASTORS.

Whereas, The first part of Paragraph 323, Section 1, reads: "It shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference of each Pastoral Charge at the session immediately preceding the Annual Conference to appoint an Estimating Committee, consisting of three or more members of the church; which committee may be authorized by vote of the Quarterly Conference to determine the minimum amount the charge shall pay for Pastoral Support for the ensuing Conference year, and report the same to the Superintendent of the District before the next session of the Annual Conference, to which amount shall be added the amount apportioned for the support of Conference Claimants, Bishops, and the District Superintendent; and the Stewards shall provide for raising the sum thus required, when the method prescribed in Paragraphs 319-322 is not in force."

Therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the North Indiana Conference, memorialize the General Conference to change this part of the aforesaid Paragraph and Section to read as follows: "It shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference of each Pastoral Charge at the session immediately preceding the Annual Conference, to appoint an Estimating Committee, consisting of three or more members of the Quarterly Conference; which committee may be authorized by vote of the Quarterly Conference to determine the minimum amount the Charge shall pay for Pastoral Support for the ensuing Conference year, and report the same to the Superintendent of the District before the next session of the Annual Conference; to which amount shall be added the amount apportioned for the support of Conference Claimants, Bishops, and the District Superintendent; and the Stewards shall provide for raising the sum thus required, when the method prescribed in Paragraphs 319-322 is not in force."

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY RESOLUTION.

Upon motion of C. U. Wade, it was ordered that the following shall constitute the Conference percentum:

3 % on cash salary of $500 00
3.1% on cash salary of 600 00
3.2% on cash salary of 700 00
3.3% on cash salary of 800 00
3.4% on cash salary of 900 00
3.5% on cash salary of 1,000 00
3.6% on cash salary of 1,100 00
3.7% on cash salary of 1,200 00
3.8% on cash salary of $1,300 00
3.9% on cash salary of 1,400 00
4 % on cash salary of 1,500 00
4.2% on cash salary of 1,600 00
4.4% on cash salary of 1,700 00
4.6% on cash salary of 1,800 00
4.8% on cash salary of 1,900 00

5% or $100.00 on cash salary of $2,000.00 and up, for a period of five years from the date of the first payment of the subscription, percentum being based upon the cash salary of the subscriber at the time of making the subscription. All former payments of Conference percentums and cash pledges paid shall apply on this subscription. It shall not include the $100.00 membership fees, or any part thereof.

This percentage rate shall be substituted for the former Conference percentum as recorded in the Conference Minutes of 1917, and shall apply to the present membership of the Conference and the incoming members, whether received from probation, by transfer, or otherwise.

R. A. Morrison.

UNIFICATION.

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference, approve the general plan of unification transmitted by the Joint Commission on Unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

We request the delegates from our Conference to the coming General Conference to use their influence and votes in support of the plan with such modifications as seem best to all concerned.

RURAL CHURCHES.

I. The Commission on Rural Work of the North Indiana Conference commend the publicity being given the rural church. Its affairs are critical. To relieve an otherwise impossible situation, we recommend and urge

(a) Rural pastors to fit themselves for permanent rural work by solemn dedication, by systematic study, and by attendance upon the Rural Institutes and conferences conducted by our Boards of Education and Home Missions, which we most heartily endorse and recommend;

(b) The churches to render service to their communities without thought of selfish benefit, by "community betterment" organizations, programs of culture, recreation, and education, and by the establishing and maintaining of "community houses" in social centers;

(c) The presiding Bishop to stabilize the rural ministry and elevate it in the estimation of the world by using his influence to retain qualified men in the rural field;

(d) District Superintendents to lead Quarterly Conferences of Circuits to provide for a minimum of $300 annually for transportation expense;

(e) Conference to authorize country pastors, accompanied by pastors of retired farmers and absentee landlords, to solicit them for support of the church that adds value to his farm, helps produce his income, and ministers to his tenants.

II. We commend the splendid results so far achieved by the Superintendency in bettered conditions of the rural courses in our schools; of the general plans as to surveys and program of the Interchurch World Movement.

III. We also urge the reorganization of the District Rural Commissions, in keeping with the action of last year, and that they shall put these suggestions into operation so far as they affect their office.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

We, your Committee on Taylor University, submit the following report:

The National Association of Local Preachers of America, in its last convention, held at Upland, Indiana, last October, refused to transfer Taylor University to the North Indiana Conference, and decided to keep the school under the control of the National Association of Local Preachers of America.

"UNMARKED GRAVES."

Your Committee on Unmarked Graves beg leave to report as follows:

We have found that the remains of several of the deceased members of this Conference lie in unmarked graves, and that the graves of some others that have died are not cared for, and are unsightly and neglected.

We recommend that where the families and friends of our deceased brethren are not able to secure markers or monuments for these graves, or where for long years they have neglected to do so, that out of undesignated funds, or other funds held by the Conference Corporation that can be so used, the trustees of such funds appropriate enough money to purchase modest and suitable monuments or markers for such unmarked graves and pay for the putting of such monuments or markers in place.

We recommend that each charge, within whose bounds are to be found the graves of our deceased brethren, shall hold once a year a memorial service in such cemetery, and also be requested to properly care for all such graves.

We also recommend that a book be secured and a record made and kept of the time and place of death, and the cemetery and charge where the bodies of our deceased brethren are buried, and whether suitable markers designate the said graves.

We recommend that a Committee on Unmarked Graves be continued until this work is completed, and that said committee appoint one of the members thereof to prepare the record above referred to, and to supervise the purchase of such monuments or markers and see that they are placed in position, and who shall request the charge within whose bounds the graves of our brethren are found, to properly care for the same.

When such record is perfected, then we recommend that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to keep the same and make the proper entries therein each year.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION AT PURDUE UNIVERSITY.

The Wesley Foundation at Purdue University has concluded another very successful year. The strong Methodist State of Indiana, true to her tradition relative to higher education, overflowed DePauw, has sent nearly 800 Methodists to Indiana University and nearly a thousand to Purdue.

For nearly five years the North Indiana Conference has united her efforts with the Northwest Indiana Conference to conserve and train Methodist students at Purdue. This year every Methodist student has received an invitation to spend a social evening at the Parish House. Considerably over half responded. Classes in religious subjects were conducted at the Parish House. From an average enrollment in these classes of twenty-four there was an average attendance of seventeen. This voluntary attendance indicates the interest in religion of students at state universities.

Besides the social and educational program, the Student Pastor has directed the religious activities of the students. In private interviews many have been led to Christ. Many decisions for Life Service have been made, and twenty-eight are now asking to serve the church in some capacity either at home or abroad. Two will sail this summer. Sunday-school and church attendance is urged. An endeavor has been made to care for every vital interest of our Methodist students.

Last year Purdue had nine Chinese students. This year she has twenty, and a total of thirty-nine foreign students in all. These students are mostly government students and will hold places of responsibility, and have large influence back in their homeland. Realizing this fact, special attention has been given them, expecting thereby to exert a Christian influence throughout China.

Nearly a year ago the Wesley Foundation procured an option on the two adjacent properties to the Parish House. These options were taken looking forward to the erection of a large plant on the corner of State and Sheetz Streets in connection with the West Side Methodist Episcopal Church. This proposed plant would adequately care for the Methodist interests on the West Side and also provide a much needed social center for the Methodist students. These properties should by all means be procured.

In view of the fact that there is no wholesome social center on the West Side, we recommend that these options be renewed or closed. We further recommend that the adjacent property be utilized as a temporary social center and that the Directors arrange a suitable social program until such time as the large plant and program can be realized. We also recommend that this Conference ncrease its support of the Wesley Foundation to $1,800, which is equal to the support of the Northwest Indiana Conference.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. Ralph W. Rogers as Student Pastor. We also recommend that the Conference appoint Dr. M. S. Marble as a Director for a period of three years' service to succeed himself.

M. S. Marble,
B. S. Hollopeter,
Ben Kendall.

CONFERENCE CORPORATION AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The officers of the Conference Corporation and Board of Trustees of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in the office of the Secretary at 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, April 8, 1920, with the following present: L. J. Naftzger, C. U. Wade, and D. V. Williams.

C. U. Wade, Treasurer, read his report, which was adopted and ordered printed in the Minutes of the Conference. On motion of the Secretary, the Treasurer was authorized to invest the money now on deposit in Liberty Bonds.

On motion of C. U. Wade, the pastor of the church at Leo, Indiana, was instructed to superintend the straightening up of the monuments on the Douglas lots.

On motion of the Secretary, the meeting adjourned.

D. V. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

PILGRIMAGE TO CENTERVILLE.

Thursday Afternoon, April 8, 1920.

The membership of Grace Church, Richmond, provided automobiles to take Bishop Nicholson, the Cabinet, and a large number of the members of the Conference, together with friends, on a pilgrimage to Centerville, the birthplace of the North Indiana Conference.

Leaving Grace Church a little after four o'clock, they soon arrived at the historic place in which the Indiana Conference had held a session in 1834, and again in 1842, when a resolution was passed which resulted in the organization of the North Indiana Conference in 1844.

The church building remains, with but few minor changes, as it was when the Conference was born within its walls in 1842. On arriving at the church, Rev. Somerville Light, Superintendent of Richmond District, presided. After the singing of "Faith of Our Fathers," prayer was offered by Rev. W. B. Freeland, Superintendent of Wabash District. Rev. R. J. Wade, District Superintendent of Goshen District, made a short address. This was followed by some interesting historic statements from the pastor of the church, Rev. J. B. O'Connor. Rev. Earle and Mrs. Naftzger sang "A Little Bit of Love." This charge was Mr. Naftzger's first appointment.

Bishop Nicholson then delivered a fine address, in which he reviewed and contrasted the conditions of that early day with those of to-day, and said that he considered the trip of sufficient importance to justify the adjournment of Conference work in order to visit this historic place.

The pastor of the church, Rev. J. B. O'Connor, and his wife had spent much time and energy in preparing for this pilgrimage of the Conference, and nothing had been omitted that would promote the pleasure of the visitors.

After the audience had sung "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," and had been dismissed with the Benediction, they partook of an excellent luncheon in the basement of the church, furnished by the ladies of the Centerville Church. We returned to Richmond inspired and profited by the trip.

D. V. Williams, Conference Secretary.

(IX) Plan of Conference Examinations.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

W. T. Arnold, Chairman; U. S. A. Bridge, Registrar.

1. Students will secure the proper volume of Directions and Helps from the Book Concern. Read with care.

2. A properly authenticated certificate showing that a student has already pursued and passed a satisfactory examination in a prescribed course of study as a regular attendant on the class-room instruction in any of our regular theological seminaries, universities, or colleges, approved by our University Senate, will be received in lieu of Conference examinations.

3. Similar certificates may be received in all studies not biblical or theological, from other than Methodist schools, if of equal grade with those approved by our University Senate. The Board of Examiners in each particular case will determine whether the work done is a fair equivalent or not.

4. Certificates containing grades designated credit shall be received, and grades entered the same as the average of those grades contained in the certificate.

5. All examinations must be taken at the Mid-year Institute, or at the seat of the Annual Conference, on Tuesday of Conference week. Exception to this rule will be made in the case of a student in the mission field.

6. All written work on "books to be studied" must be given to the examiner by the time of the Mid-year Institute. All written work on "books to be read" will be due on or before March first. No credits after these respective dates.

7. One paper of approximately one thousand words will be required on a chapter of each book; this applies to both lists: "books to be studied" and "books to be read." Students will select chapter.

8. The directions of the Discipline 1916, par. 596, 597, 598, and 599, sec. 1, will be strictly enforced. Students should read with care.

9. All candidates for ordination under the local rules will report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners for examination.

10. All written work must be in the hands of examiners by March first, in order to receive credit. The District Superintendents are requested to urge all candidates for examination to appear at the Mid-year Institute. On motion it was decided that before a man may be advanced from the Studies of the First and Third Year, he must have out at least two-thirds of his work. The next Institute will be held October 5, 6, and 7, at LaGrange, Indiana.

11 Examination at Mid-year and the Conference of 1921 wil be in the 1916-1920 course of studies.

(X) Memoirs

MRS. ELLA G. JOHNSON.

Ella Gutshall Johnson was born near Sulphur Springs, Ohio, in 1886. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gutshall, who reside near Dunkirk, Indiana. Mrs. Johnson was converted at the Oak Grove Church, on the Portland Circuit, under the ministry of Rev. J. A. Ruley, and was always devoted to her Master's cause and Kingdom.

Mrs. Ella G. Johnson.

In 1904 Rev. Franklin P. Johnson was sent as a supply to the Oak Grove Circuit, who made his home with the Gutshall family. The intimate friendship between these devoted young people culminated in a happy marriage in 1905, the following year. In 1906 Rev. Johnson was appointed to the Woodburn Charge, where they began their happy married life in the parsonage home. After serving two years on this charge they were appointed to Hudson, one year; Hoagland, two years; Coesse, two years; Center, one year; and Churubusco Circuit, two years, from which charge Rev. Johnson was called by death after a brief illness from influenza. One child, Agnes Irene, was born into the home, who survives to feel most keenly the loss of father and mother. Sister Johnson died April 29, 1919.

Just eight weeks after the death of her husband, this devoted wife and mother was laid to rest by his side in the Pennville Cemetery. Sister Johnson lived a beautiful Christian life and was intensely devoted to all the interests of the church she loved. The last time she was able to be out of her home she had the joy of winning a soul to Christ.

She is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gutshall; daughter, Agnes Irene, age 11; one sister, Mrs. Mary King, of Portland; and one brother, John Gutshall, near Dunkirk.

Funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon, May 1, 1919, in the Pennville Methodist Episcopal Church, in charge of Rev. A. G. Neal, of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana, assisted by other pastors.

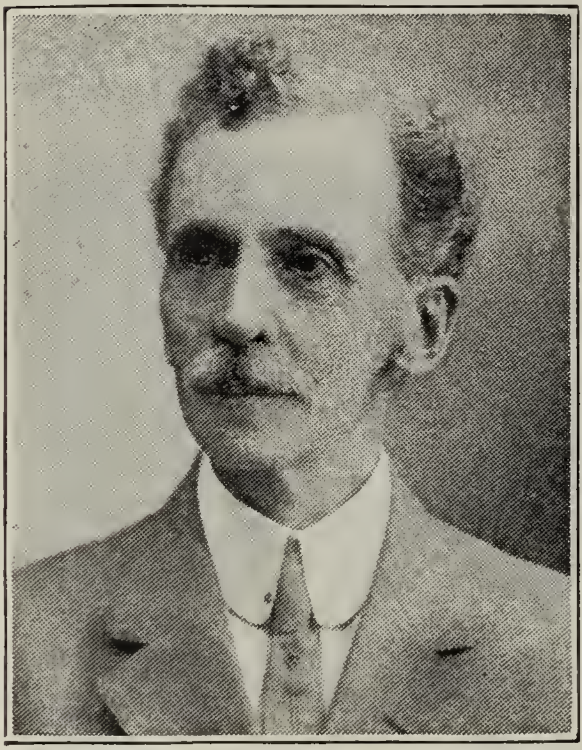
C. G. Yoemans.

REV. JAMES C. MURRAY, D.D.

The first member of the North Indiana Conference to fall at his post of duty this year was Rev. James C. Murray, superintendent of the George O. Robinson Orphanage, San Juan, Porto Rico, who passed to the better life May 1, 1919.

Dr. Murray was born at Muncie, Indiana, July 19, 1848. He was always a teacher, loving his work and filled with the spirit of the Great Teacher. After serving seven years as superintendent of the city schools, he felt the call to the work of the ministry. He graduated from Drew Theological Seminary in 1881, and supplied Knightstown charge for seven and one-half months. The next year he was admitted on Trial in the North Indiana Conference, and throughout these years he has never transferred his membership. He was pastor of the following charges in the Conference: Knightstown and Winchester. In 1886 he was appointed to the professorship of Greek and Hebrew in Gammon Theological Seminary, at Atlanta, Georgia. Here he did splendid work. His large efficiency in giving instruction in his department not only commanded the attention and universal confidence of his students, but received the high commendation of those who have since taken post-graduate work in the best institutions of the land.

Dr. Murray prepared, and the Freedmen's Aid Society published, in 1890, for use in its whole system of schools, a volume of 120 pages of English Bible Studies in the Life of Christ. A second volume appeared in 1892. For nineteen years he held this important position in Gammon Theological Seminary. In 1905 he returned to the pastorate for a short time and was appointed to the following charges: Cicero, Ligonier, Lagrange, Dunkirk, and Yorktown. In 1911 he was appointed Superintendent of the George O. Robinson Orphanage at San Juan, Porto Rico, which responsible position he successfully filled until relieved by death.



Rev. James C. Murray, D.D.

For the past two years he had not been able to do all that he desired for the orphanage, but the work has been always upon his heart and mind. He and his excellent wife were as a shadow from a great rock to those motherless and fatherless girls.

It was a privilege to know Dr. Murray, and of great value to share his intimate friendship. Keen in mind, indefatigable in labor, and always in grace, his was a beautiful sun-crowned, Christ-filled character, always ringing true.

His friendship was valued by many here and in the homeland. Dr. and Mrs. Murray have looked out from the beautiful building in which the Orphanage is housed across the boundless sea, and recall the dear associations clustering about the old churches they had served and the many friends. He has now gone to that beautiful shore where the storms never beat and the waves never roll.

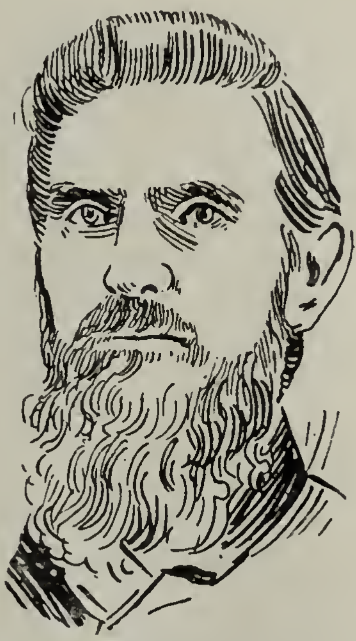
His immediate illness was caused from a severe fall, from the shock of which he was not able to rally. During his last illness it was beautiful, yet pathetic, to witness the devotion of the children to whom he and Mrs. Murray were ministering, as it was manifested in so many different ways as they waited upon him in his needs.

He is survived by one son, a lawyer, of Evanston, Illinois; a daughter, Emma, of New York City; and by his devoted companion and colaborer. In peace may he rest, our good friend, the teacher and lover of God's children. Long will he be remembered in the work of the Methodist Episcopal Mission in Porto Rico. "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these ye did it unto me."

The funeral services were held in the Orphanage, Bishop R. J. Cooke, Rev. Manuel Andujar, Superintendent of Methodist Missions, Rev. F. E. McGuire, pastor of the Union Church, and Bishop Colemore, of the Episcopal Church, participating. As the body was laid away under the royal palms, the Porto Rico Regimental Band, of Las Casas, played softly "The Star-Spangled Banner." "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

REV. THOMAS H. C. BEALL.

Thomas Henry Clay Beall was born near Lancaster, Ohio, March 10, 1839. He was the youngest child of Joseph and Elizabeth Beall, and the last surviving member of the immediate family. He came to manhood just as the great Civil War was beginning. When the first call for volunteers was made, he answered, and for four years led the life of a loyal and courageous Federal soldier. The record of this period shows that he was promoted to become a captain. He was wounded upon one occasion, and his horse which bore him was shot. At the close of the war our brother came to the vicinity of Walton, Cass County, Indiana. Here he met and won Miss Caroline Redmond, who shared his life from September 24, 1865, until the time of her death, February 11, 1916, a period of more than fifty years. Six children were given to them, all of whom survive: Gamaliel, Mrs. Laura Hamlin, Thomas H. C., Jr., Mrs. Anna Cummins, Mrs. Mabel Rost, and John. All of these live at Indianapolis, except Mrs. Cummins, who resides at High Point, North Carolina. Brother Beall was again married, April 15, 1918, to Mrs. Theresa Hager, who suuvives him.



Rev. Thomas H. C. Beall.

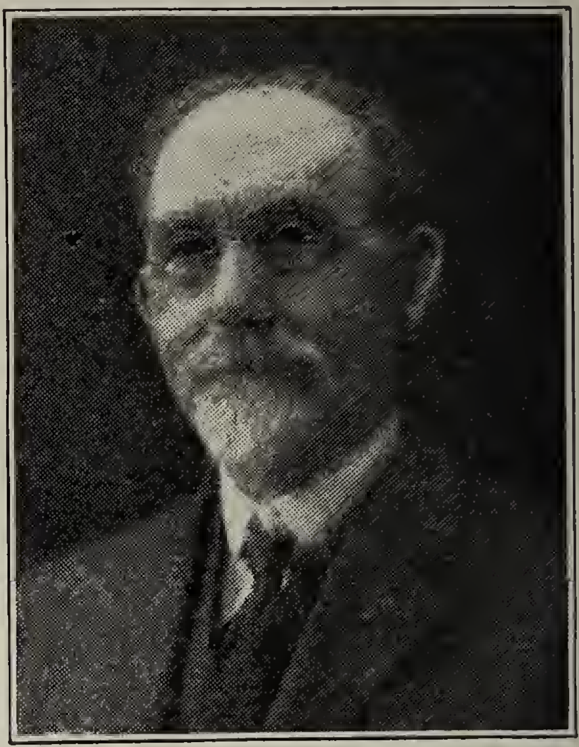
In 1868 our brother became a member of the North Indiana Conference. His classmates were L. A. Retts, H. N. Herrick, O. S. Harrison, J. H. Jackson, C. H. Wilkinson, W. R. Jordan, A. R. Murray, and Elijah Hendricks. Several of these were among the best known of the Conference members for the following period of forty years. Brother Beall served the following charges: Jerome, Boxley, Perkinsville, Alexandria, Cicero (three times), New Britton (twice), Fishersburg, Sharpsville, Elwood and Frankton, Westfield, Macy, Churubusco, and McCordsville. He was a supernumerary for four years, 1891 to 1894. At the session of the Annual Conference in 1897, he was granted the retired relation and took up his residence in Cicero, where he had been a pastor so long. Here he remained until about one year before his death, when he went to Decatur, Indiana, to live. His sufferings in the last months of his life were severe, but he gave evidence of great peace. The Master whom he had trusted and served so faithfully graciously sustained him, and his last days were fraught with abundant testimony to God's goodness.

Brother Beall was possessed of a quiet humor and deep spirituality. This combination of qualities united in him to make him a pastor much loved and respected. The members of his churches believed in him and venerated him. No doubts concerning the elements of his Christian manhood were entertained by those who knew him. Men unfriendly to the church were subdued and chastened into wholesome respect by the consistency, candor, and patience of this man of God. Fluent and forceful, direct and positive as he was, his ministry was an effective one. He found great joy in bringing men and women into the Kingdom. At a number of places revivals of power attended his labors.

He left this world for the heavenly city May 13, 1919, aged 80 years, 2 months, and 3 days. After a service at Decatur, conducted by Rev. Charles Tinkham and Rev. W. W. Martin, D.D., the remains were taken to Crown Hill, Indianapolis, where the Rev. W. B. Freeland, whom he had influenced to enter the ministry, preached a funeral discourse from the text, "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

W. B. Freeland.

REV. JACOB K. WALTS.



Rev. Jacob K. Walts.

"We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal." We seem often to more easily forget the unseen things, but nevertheless thy are as real as the temporal and seen. These general principles find a fitting illustration in the life and career of Jacob K. Walts, who was born in Floyd County, Indiana, March 21, 1846.

Spending his youth in the old home county, he fitted himself in its schools for his college course, which he took in "Old Asbury College," now DePauw University, graduating in the Class of 1869. Soon after his graduation he entered the teaching profession, and for two years was principal of the New Albany high school. He then became County Superintendent of the schools of Floyd, and also at the same time was made superintendent of the city schools of New Albany, it being permitted for one man to hold both positions.

During this time he began having impressions of what his life work should be, and the call to the work of the ministry became more and more insistent. His timid and retiring disposition caused him to shrink for some time from accepting the responsibilities of a task so important and difficult. He however, did not refrain from engaging in active Christian work. Through his leadership and personal influence as president of the Y. M. C. A. in Albany, more than and personal influence as president of the Y. M. C. A. in Albany, more than five hundred were brought to Christ, and most of them united with the churches of the city. Another line of his religious activity at this time was visiting on Sunday afternoons, with a band of co-workers, the Jeffersonville prison, in which two hundred of the convicts were brought to Christ. The chaplain and warden of the prison testified that these men gave evidence of as much reality in their conversions as those on the outside of prison walls.

He thus came to the work of life not only with a good literary equipment, but with a practical training in the art of soul saving. He came with additional help in that of a fine Christian companion in person of Miss Jennie S. Bradley, of New Albany, whom he had married in 1874. Their home was adorned with the presence of three children: Lawrence B., who was taken to his heavenly home in his youth; Frank M., now of New York City; and Elizabeth, who has remained at home with her parents. His own personal influence over his children was such that in early life each became a Christian and an active worker in the church.

His pastorates were characterized by great revivals. In these he led the singing and did his own preaching, without the assistance of an evangelist. He not only had genuine revivals on his charge, but he strengthened and aroused those who were in the church. He was also very successful in looking after the benevolent interests of his charge, bringing them up in full, and often at a great personal sacrifice. He maintained a constant deep interest in the social and spiritual life of his young people. He was present at the organization of the Epworth League, in Cleveland, and became a member of the Board of Control. He was a success in building and repairing churches and parsonages; one of the notable achievements being the building of First Church, Fort Wayne, during his second pastorate of the church. For a number of years he was Conference correspondent of the "Western Christian Advocate," reporting the proceedings of the sessions of that body.

After thirty-five years of faithful service in the active ranks he retired in 1911, since which time he has lived in Fort Wayne, where he held two successful pastorates. During these years of his retirement he was a faithful attendant on the services of the church and a teacher of one of the men's classes in the Sunday school. The members of this class will contribute $1,000 towards the building of a memorial church in his name in India.

The last three years of his life have been of failing health. The last time he was able to listen to the reading of the Word of God, was on Easter Sabbath. He and his companion were alone, and together they read one of the accounts of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. He seemed to realize to an unusual degree its great significance and value to him. Just a little while later, on May 17, he quietly left us to be with the risen Lord. His age was seventy-three years, one month, and twenty-six days.

The funeral services were conducted from First Church, Fort Wayne, May 20th. Rev. D. H. Guild read the Scripture lesson: Rev. J. F. Porter offered prayer; Revs. W. W. Martin, T. M. Guild, and A. G. Neal delivered short addresses. The body was buried in Linwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne.

REV. JEREMIAH W. WALTERS.

Rev. Jeremiah W. Walters.

Jeremiah W. Walters was born in Elmore, Ohio, July 13, 1861. He was the son of Edward and Ellen Walters. The young mother died when he was yet in infancy, and he grew up under the care of a good woman, who was also a mother of his father's two daughters.

J W. Walters and Miss Jennie Gallimore, of Bellevue, Kentucky, were married September 15, 1891. Four children came to the home: Mrs. G. I. Cole, Mrs. A. R. Brelsford, and Mrs. H. B. Fisher, all of Gary, Indiana; Charles Edward, the infant son, was given and taken December 4, 1898.

From the public school our brother entered the Ohio Wesleyan University and the Union College at Barbourville. His first appointments were in the Kentucky Conference. In this Conference he remained until 1896, when he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference, where he served the following charges: Van Buren; Wabash, Middle Street; Mentone, Dublin, and Lewisville, Economy; Anderson, Grace; Elkhart, St. Paul; Hartford City, Grace; Gas City, Kempton; First Church, Louisville; and St. Paul, Elkhart, are monuments to his labor, skill, and devotion.

Since October, 1916, he has been connected with the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. While with the Board, he spent eight months in the foreign fields with Dr. J. M. Taylor, during which time he visited China, Japan, India, Korea, and many other places of interest.

After returning to the United States, his time was taken up with work connected with and related to the great Centenary Movement. The great ambition of his life was to attend the great demonstration at Columbus, Ohio, last June. This great desire was granted him, and he was privileged to look upon that unparalleled revelation of what Methodism had achieved in the last century in mission work at home and abroad.

It was while in the enjoyment of the great scenes, and working for the promotion of the interests of the Kingdom of Christ, that he was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage. He was taken to the Protestant Hospital, where he was given the best of medical skill, but of no avail, as he never regained consciousness, and on the afternoon of July 3, 1919, his heart ceased to beat and his soul passed into the hands of God, who gave it. His was evident of a Christian life, of a life well spent in his Master's service.

The funeral service was held July 5, 1919, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. R. Brelsford, in charge of Rev. Grant Seaman, of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Gary. The burial took place in Oak Grove Cemetery, Gary, Indiana.

REV. BENAVILLE SAWYER.

Benaville Sawyer, son of Joseph and Eleanor Connell Sawyer, was born near Bluffton, Indiana, August 23, 1851, and died at the General Hospital in Mansfield, Ohio, July, 14, 1919.

At an early age he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bluffton, under the ministry of the late Rev. J. P. Nash, and a few years later, during the pastorate of Rev. Charles Martindale, made his complete surrender to his Christ and accepted the call to the ministry, which call ever after remained the most distinct and potent factor in his life.

Rev. Benaville Sawyer.

After attending the public schools in Bluffton, he entered Fort Wayne College. and in 1887, during the session of the Conference, held at Bluffton, entered the North Indiana Conference and was appointed to the Garrett Charge, then a new town being established as a division-point by the B. & O. Railroad, which town at this time had not one church building, and but few Methodists. These were worshiping in a building formerly used as a saloon.

In this room a gracious revival occurred which made possible the erection of a house of worship, an enterprise of no small magnitude under the existing conditions. Before the close of his two years' pastorate, a good brick church was built and the congregation worshiping there. Owing to the extremely unheathful conditions existing in a town built in a malarious section, he was obliged to move elsewhere before the church for which he had labored so hard to secure had been dedicated.

This was the first of five churches and one parsonage erected during his ministry. He gave twenty-nine years of continuous service to the work of the ministry, until in 1902 failing health forced him to accept a supernumerary relation, which he held until 1907. He continued to hope during these years to be able to take up again his chosen work. He acted as a supply for two charges during this time, but in 1907 he found it necessary to retire from the activities he so loved.

In July, following the flood which ruined their home in Fort Wayne, the family removed to Mansfield, Ohio, where he gave the same endeavor to First Church which had actuated his whole life. He was always in his place at prayer meeting; he instituted a long neglected Class Meeting, and stood ready to assist the pastor at any time. His last attendance at the house of God was at the communion service preceding Easter Sunday, and for the first time was unable to assist the pastor at the sacramental table.

During his illness, which covered a period of six months, he often expressed his desire to live in order to preach a few more sermons and point men and women to a better life, but always added he was willing to go if that was the Lord's will.

The Bible, which had been his constant study, was the source of great comfort during his days of weakness, and its promises a constant uplift as strength failed. The Gospel, which he had so earnestly preached to others, sustained him to the end. In great peace he closed his eyes on earth and was not, for God had taken him.

He was married June 27, 1878, to Miss Clara E. Frankenberger, of Galion, Ohio, who, with their two children—Arthur G., of Waterloo, Iowa, and Ada E., at home—survives.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mansfield, Ohio, conducted by the Rev. H. W. Kellogg, after which the body was taken to Fort Wayne, where Rev. A. G. Neal conducted a beautiful service at the grave, and as the sun was just setting in the west, it was laid to rest in the beautiful Linwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne.

REV. JOSEPH F. RADCLIFFE.

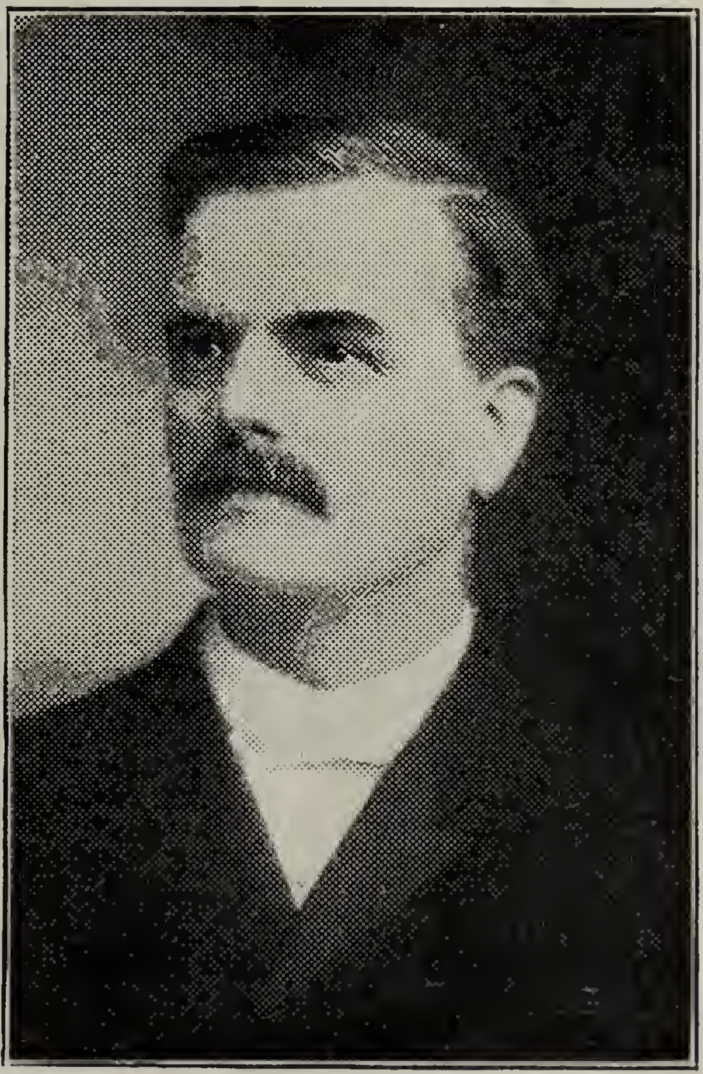
"He liveth long who liveth well!
All other life is short and vain;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of living most for heavenly gain.

He liveth long who liveth well!
All else is being thrown away;
He liveth longest, who can tell
Of true things truly done each day."

These words by the poet give us a hint as to the length of the life of Joe Frederick Radcliffe. Measured by years and months, his life was not as long as many others. But measured by what he did, the "True things truly done," the length of his life is beyond the measure of time.

He was born at Ossett, Yorkshire, England, on October 30, 1864, and heard the summons into the "Homeland" on August 8, 1919. Brother Radcliffe had been in failing health for nearly a year, and thinking that a visit to the land of his birth and his native air would do him good, he made the trip, leaving Logansport, Indiana, July 8, 1919. He lived only a little over two weeks after reaching the land of his birth, and passed away peacefully at the home of his sister-in-law in Halifax, England.

At an early age he was converted in the Wesleyan Church and became an active worker in the Rhodes Street Wesleyan Church, Halifax. Later he was licensed to preach and went to Keswick College to study for the ministry. While still in school, a request came from America for a young man for the work of the ministry, and the president of the college recommended Joseph F. Radcliffe. He sailed for America and landed in New York January 1, 1890.



Rev. Joseph F. Radcliffe.

Subsequenty, at the next session of the North Indiana Conference, being recommended by the Quarterly Conference of High Street, Muncie, he was received on Trial in this Conference. His first charge was Jonesboro, and after serving this charge for eighteen months he returned to England and was married to Miss Sarah Parker. They sailed from England the same year in August, and for twenty-eight years they have worked faithfully side by side in the various charges to which the Conference assigned them.

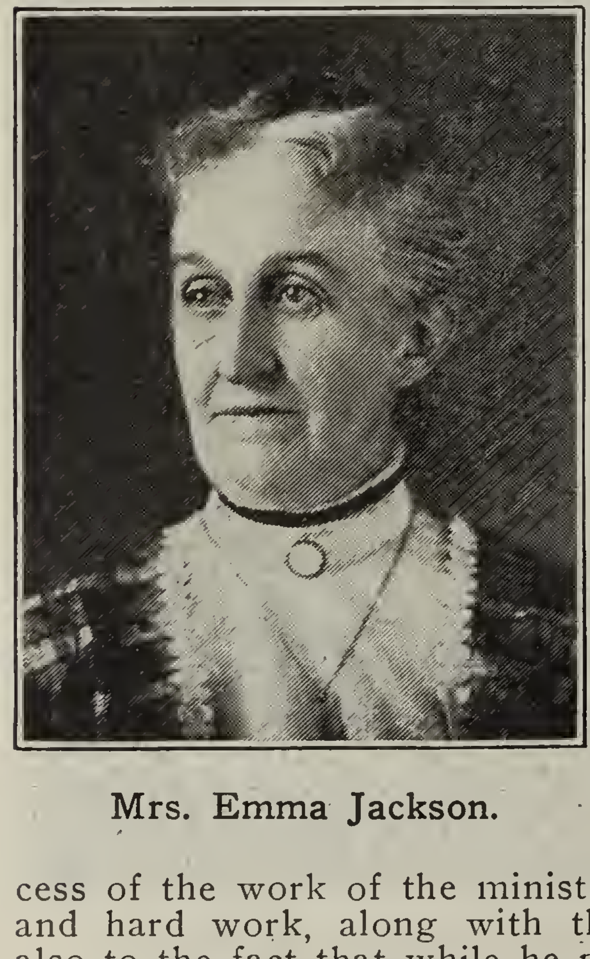
Brother Radcliffe served the following charges in the North Indiana Conference: Jonesboro, Sharpsville, Greentown, Upland, Knightstown, Union City; Richmond, First Church; Elwood; and Logansport, Market Street.

He was "a brother beloved," wherever he went. His fine Christian virtues and his tireless efforts for the Kingdom endeared him to all who knew him. His last public word was spoken at a communion service at Market Street, and it was a word of faith in God's unerring goodness and belief in the final triumph of the Gospel that he loved so dearly to preach. While spending the last days among his friends, it was plainly evident that he could not long continue the journey over the rough way of life; yet he was the embodiment of optimism, and never a word but cheer and hope fell from his lips.

At the last session of the Conference it was self-evident that he was not able for work, so was granted leave of absence. In the hope of improving his health, he and his wife sailed for England in July. They were met at Liverpool by brother and brother-in-law, who assisted him and Mrs. Radcliffe on to the loved ones in Halifax.

The change of climate and meeting the friends of earlier years for a short time rejuvenated him. But it was soon evident that he could not last long. He remained cheerful and hopeful until the last. On the afternoon of August 7th, the first day he had been confined to his bed, the faithful wife noticed that he was rapidly weakening. At 11.30 that night he became restless, but retained consciousness until the last. He gave directions relative to their things, made suggestions to his beloved wife as to her future, and said if he could not stay here longer, he had tried always to do his best; and then at 12.15, on the morning of August 8th, he quietly passed away, surrounded by his immediate family and friends. He was laid to rest beneath his native soil, and appropriate services were held in the King's Cross Wesleyan Church, conducted by the Rev. J. E. Crawshaw and Rev. George Frayn.

John F. Edwards.



Mrs. Emma Jackson.

MRS. EMMA JACKSON.

Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Tappin, was born in Madison County, Indiana, August 15, 1857. She was converted in early life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and remained a faithful and consistent member to her death. She was united in marriage to the Rev. J. H. Jackson, December 9, 1878. To this union there was born three children: Merrill, Claude, and Maude. For thirty-one years she labored with her husband in the ministry. The remarkable success of the work of the ministry was not only due to the untiring efforts and hard work, along with the passion for souls of her husband, but also to the fact that while he preached, she prayed, and then in her quiet, unostentatious way doing the faithful work of a co-laborer of God.

She was a woman of many excellencies. When in health, she was very active in the benevolent and social activities of the church, especially in the missionary endeavors. There was no love of display in her activities, but she did what she did for mere love of the good that she could accomplish. She delighted in being busy for her Master. She was a fine mother and a devoted wife. She lived as she conceived a Christian life, and bore her sorrows and sufferings with fortitude. She has gone home to a deserved reward. Who will say that to-day this beautiful type of Christian womanhood is not realizing answered prayer, in the realms of bliss, for on the night of August 29, 1919, angels came and carried her to her home eternal that Jesus Christ had gone to prepare for her.

"We speak of the realms of the blest,
  That country so bright and so fair,
And oft are its glories confessed,
  But she knows what it is to be there."

She leaves to mourn her death three children, three sisters, and one brother, and a host of friends. The funeral services were held at the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Kokomo, Indiana, August 31, in charge of Rev. J. C. White, who was assisted by Rev. W. T. Arnold and Rev. C. H. Brown. The body was interred in the Crownpoint Cemetery, Kokomo, by the side of that of her husband. W. T. Arnold.

MRS. WILMETTIE CAMPBELL.

On the ninth day of September, 1868, there came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wilcox, Wilmettie, their firstborn in a family of five children. Here, in this country home, she grew to young womanhood, having the help and inspiration in the formation of character, of the beauties of nature. Here she formed the love for the beautiful, good, and true, that later matured into strong elements of character that maintained very strong dislikes towards every appearance of evil.

Her religious life began to take form when she was sixteen years of age. Dura revival, conducted in the Hopewell Church, which was on the Lagro Charge at that time, by Rev. A. J. Lewellen, she gave her heart to Christ. The following year she was baptized and received into full membership in the church by Rev. J. B. Allman.

Mrs. Wilmettie Campbell.

On the 10th of October, 1888, she was united in marriage with J. O. Campbell by Rev. L. M. Krider. Although no children came into the home to satisfy the mother instinct, yet she found great satisfaction in the privilege of becoming a mother to her little niece, daughter of her sister Flora, when Bernice was placed in her charge. For eight years she lavished all the love and tender care of a real mother upon this little one, and no child ever knew or had a better mother's care and affection than had Bernice. It was the one great hope that she might live to see the daughter grow to womanhood.

The first eight years of her married life was divided between the farm and living in Greencastle, during the student days of her husband, who was preparing for the work of the ministry. In 1896 her husband united with the North Indiana Conference, and together they began the work of the ministry. During all these years she has stood as a monument of faith, courage, and sacrifice. Though frail in body, yet by her heroic spirit she toiled on in her quiet way. She was so sincere, so true, and so sympathetic, that she never failed to win the hearts of the people with whom she labored. Her husband could say of her all that is said by the writer of Proverbs of a virtuous woman. She was careful, thoughtful, wise, and economical. She never sought prominence. She was of a retiring disposition; she would give others the places of preferment. Display and selfish ambition were repulsive to her. She was of a kindly and generous nature. She knew how to be firm and uncompromising, yet kind and reasonable. The sufferings of humanity appealed to her so greatly that at times she was literally crushed by the burdens that rested upon her heart.

She often expressed deep regret that on account of her health she was not able to entertain more of their people in the parsonage home and administer to their needs. She looked forward with great pleasure to the day when she might be the happy mistress of the new parsonage at Morris Chapel. But while the builders yet wrought, she went to the "House not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." On the 29th day of September, 1919, she was taken to that house of many mansions, at the age of fifty-one years and twenty-nine days. She was ready. Her plans were all made. Her faith was triumphant. When asked a few hours before her death whom she wanted first to meet in the "Kingdom of Heaven," she said, "O, my blessed Lord. my Savior." She leaves, in addition to her husband, our brother, J. O. Campbell, one sister, Marcia Maude Dragstrem; a mother; the little niece, Bernice; a host of friends on the charges they served.

The funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Marion, Indiana, and were in charge of the District Superintendent, Rev. W. B. Freeland, who was assisted by Rev. C. U. Wade, and many brethren of the Conference. The sermon was preached, at her request, by Rev. J. O. Bills. The interment was made in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery at Marion.

Rev. C. M. Hobbs.

REV. C. M. HOBBS.

Charles Morton Hobbs, son of Thomas and Jane Hobbs, was born August 28, 1866, in Fairmount, Indiana. He was united in marriage to Evelyn Duling, of Fairmount, July 15, 1890. He began his ministry in the North Indiana Conference in 1899, and served the following charges: Wolf Lake, Swayzee, Roanoke; St. Paul's, Ft. Wayne; Dublin; Albany Circuit; Carmel, and Westfield. Throughout the twenty-one years of his ministry his patient attention to details, marked by great fidelity, large consecration, fine courtesy, and loving kindness, has endeared him to all the charges. No better motto for his life could be found than the text, "Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." In every relation and activity it was manifest. On one of his charges the minister as such was not highly esteemed, but Brother Hobbs, by his sincerity and honesty and devotion, exalted his profession to that degree that the people believed in him and the men of his profession. While at Westfield, his last carge, he was compelled to give up his work on account of ill-health. He moved to Carmel and engaged in business, but this he had to give up soon on account of his increasing ill-health. His last days were days of great suffering; but they were days of great victory and triumph. The 25th day of last October (1919), in his fifty-fourth year, he passed to his reward. None will doubt that when he entered into the presence of God and saw Him face to face, that the Father bestowed upon him the title of "Approved Workman." Of his immediate family he is survived by his devoted wife, three sons, Donald, Cedric, and Malcolm; his aged mother, three brothers, Frank, Osmer, and George; three sisters, Mrs. O. R. Scott and Miss Grace, of Fairmount, and Mrs. A. H. Hutchins, of Marion, Indiana.

Dr. J. A. Beatty, assisted by some close associates of Brother Hobbs during his ministry, had charge of the service in Carmel. The Rev. M. E. Barrett, of Upland, Indiana, also assisted by many ministerial associates, had charge of the services in Fairmount, where he was laid to rest.

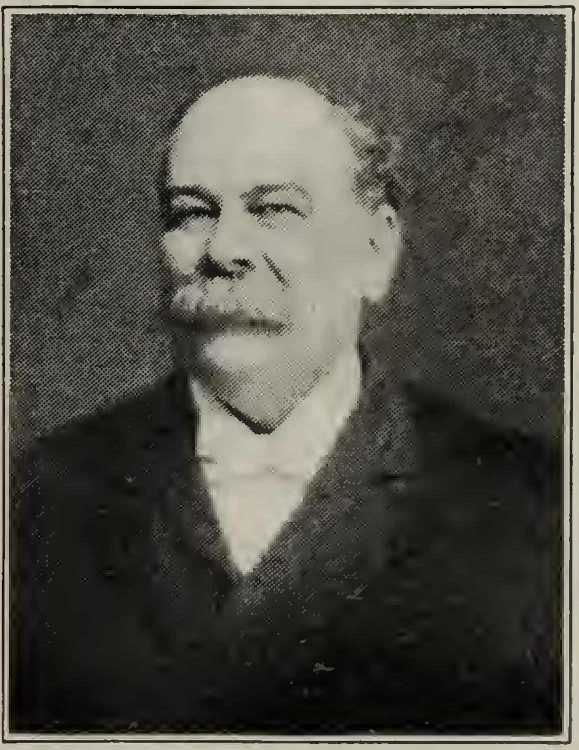
REV. FRANCIS M. LACY.

Fidelity is one of the most valuable forces in the building of character and winning success. When John wrote, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life," he gave the world a slogan that will be an inspiration to all ages. The fundamental for a crown of life found a fine illustration in the life and activity of Francis M. Lacy, who was born near Blountsville, Indiana, September 3, 1852. Early in life he heard the voice of the Master calling, and answered with the surrender of his life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Blountsville.



Rev. Francis M. Lacy.

On the 16th of October, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Melissa Ellen Bainter. Into their home came three children: Mrs. Cora May Etsler, of Alexandria, Indiana; Rutherford Burchard, who died at the age of fourteen; and Daniel Parker, of Terre Haute, Indiana.

Our brother did not content himself with merely surrendering himself to God for salvation, but was of such a type that God saw he could trust him with great interests in his kingdom. When later in life he heard the call, "Go Preach," he failed not, but went. He was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference at its session held in Wabash, April, 1888. Although he had not had the opportunities of literary training that some of the members of his class had, yet by virtue of hard study and application to his work he became a workman of whom none in the class need ever be ashamed. Faithfulness to his charge and the work assigned him was one of the outstanding characteristics of his ministry. He went where the appointing powers sent him. For twenty-eight years he and Sister Lacy remained in the active work, serving the following charges: Anderson Circuit, two years; Perkinsville, five years; Fortville, four years; Cambridge City, Ossian, Summitville, Eaton, Dunkirk, each three years; and Swayzee, two years.

On account of the ill-health of his wife he was granted a Retired Relation in 1916, and located at Cicero. Although sustaining a Retired Relation, he was not inactive in the work of the church. He not only helped his brethren in the ministry as occasion gave him opportunity, but supplied the Ekin Charge one year. On October 15, 1917, he suffered an irreparable sorrow in the death of his sainted wife, with whom he had walked the pathway of life for forty-four years. On the 18th of March, 1919, he was again married, this time to Mrs. Alice Archey, of Greenfield, Indiana, with whom he lived in loving companionship until he was called of God to come home on November 21, 1919, at the age of sixty-seven years, two months, and eighteen days.

Brother Lacy loved his Master with a passionate fervor. He asked not for easy tasks. Whenever the call for service came, he hesitated not to go. No matter how inclement the weather, how long the drive to his appointment, he was on the job. He was a preacher of the Word of God. His preaching was characterized by the Gospel fervor, which won many people to Christ during his ministry. God blessed his work with many gracious revivals. His life was clean and pure as the standards of excellence which he preached.

Our brother is survived by his wife, one son and daughter, one brother, Henry Lacy, a member of the North Indiana Conference; two sisters, Mrs. Francenia Justice, of Greenfield, and Mrs. Martha Jane Becktol, of Muncie. Also a half brother, Joseph M. Lacy, of New Lisbon; and a half-sister, Mrs. Pheriba Mauzy, of Anderson.

A brief service was held at the home in Cicero by Rev. F. A. Hall, superintendent of Logansport District; the final services were conducted by Rev. C. E. Line, at Blountsville, Sunday, November 23, 1919, at one o'clock. He was assisted by the following ministers: W. W. Wiant, J. O. Bills, E. H. Taylor, D. T. Stephenson, E. B. Westhafer, J. S. Newcombe, B. E. Jones, and J. B. Sparling. Following the sermon, these brethren sang "In the sweet bye and bye." The body was laid to rest in the Blountsville Cemetery.

Mrs. Anna B. Murray.

MRS. ANNA B. MURRAY.

Anna Belle Hart, daughter of Edward and Mary Elizabeth Hart, was a native of Pennsylvania, born March 17, 1870. When Anna was yet a babe, the family located at Logansport, Indiana, the father engaging in business as a merchant. The parents died when Anna was yet in her girlhood.

She educated herself in the schools of Indiana and Illinois cities. She was accomplished in music and art. She was a writer of a number of popular songs—and was also a public reader. She became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of ten years, and was active in the various departments of church work throughout her life.

A few years ago she went to Colorado to care for her invalid sister. After her sister's death, Anna assisted in the care of the motherless family. During the world war she was an enthusiastic Red Cross war worker in Denver, Colorado. She kept in touch with the events of the war through the daily press, and was deeply interested in each event.

Miss Hart was united in marriage with Rev. Charles H. Murray, of Huntington, Indiana, at their home in that city, June 17, 1919. She had not been strong in health for months previous to the marriage. After five brief months of her charmed life in her own earthly home, and three weeks of serious illness, she slipped away to the delights of her heavenly home on December 11, 1919.

Affable, cheerful, and kind, to know Sister Murray was to love her. In her brief residence among them her neighbors and acquaintances were drawn to her. Among the floral contributions, all of which were rich and beautiful, the most elaborate piece was one from her neighbors, old and young. She was a general favorite with the young people and children, and while the body of their friend lay in the home awaiting its burial, many of them came in to pay their loving respects to her memory.

The following lines, from her own heart and hand, entitled, "Recompense," is a fair index of her sweet character:

"I find, as the years roll onward,
Leaving their cares behind,
That much that I counted sorrow,
But proves that God is kind.

The heights I assailed to carry,
The gems I sought to find,
Now deck the pillared hallways
Of the mansions in my mind.

From the gloom of the deepest midnight,
The rose-lipped day is begun;
The clouds but obscure the sunlight.
They cannot banish the sun.

The rose I seek to cherish,
Holds many a hidden thorn—
As, often, rugged pathways lead
To fields of ripened corn.

To-day may bring its sorrows,
But to-morrow sweet joys be given;
The earth-life holds its sadness—
Its recompense is Heaven."

The funeral services were in the home at 2.30 P. M., December 13, 1919, conducted by her pastor, Dr. L. A. Swisher, assisted by Dr. T. M. Guild, after which the body was buried in the Mt. Hope Cemetery, Huntington.

Leonard A. Swisher.

MRS. CATHERINE L. MAHIN.

Mrs. Catherine L. Mahin, widow of the Rev. A. E. Mahin, died in Huntington, Saturday, December 13, 1919. Mrs. Mahin was born near Battle Ground, January 18, 1847, and was married to the Rev. A. E. Mahin December 1, 1868. Her husband was one of the leaders of the North Indiana Conference, serving the full term as Presiding Elder on both the Fort Wayne and Richmond Districts. During his service in the ministry, Mrs. Mahin resided with him at Wawaka, New Paris, Elkhart, Ligonier, Fort Wayne, Wayne Street; New Castle, Warsaw, Wabash; Fort Wayne (District); Richmond (District); Montpelier. She was a life member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Mahin lived a beautiful life of Christian faith and service.

She was a woman of genuine Christian character. Faithfulness characterized her life and her service. She was a worthy and loyal companion and helpmeet for her husband in his arduous duties as pastor and presiding elder. Even in the last years of her life she was constantly interested in the progress of the church. She read regularly the church papers that she might keep informed as to the conditions of the Kingdom and might be able to render her maximum of service. How eagerly she turned the conversation to the affairs of Zion. Especially was she interested in the affairs of the North Indiana Conference and of the local church of which she was a member. Her mind and heart contained a wealth of reminiscences concerning the work of this Conference in the days agone. With pleasure and profit to the auditors, she would relate memorable events in the history of God's work in the various localities where she had resided; and with deep affection and fond recollection would she speak of the saintly men and women once her companions, but now gone to the heavenly city.

The life of Mrs. Mahin was an inspiration to the church at Huntington. Hers was a winsome character, full of attractiveness and cheer even in the days of her suffering. In her presence one received the impression of spiritual beauty and stability and power. Mrs. Mahin knew her Savior. Her life was "hid with Christ in God." She had been "abiding in Him" so long that her countenance reflected the countenance of the Master. Her character was without ostentation. She continued unto the end humble and faithful and adorned "with a meek and quiet spirit." Generously and joyfully she gave of her prayer and strength and means for the support of God's work. Especially does the local chapter of the Missionary Society remember with pleasure her liberality.

Mrs. Catherine L. Mahin.

For many months Mrs. Mahin was an intense sufferer. When it became known to her that medical science could do nothing for her restoration to health, she awaited the end with peace and confidence in the Savior. Her patience and cheerfulness in those last weeks of pain gave eloquent testimony to her Christian character. Her loved ones, beholding her fortitude and faith, and the neighbors and friends who were admitted to her presence, were impressed with the reality of her faith and peace. "She endured as seeing Him who is invisible"; and quietly passed to be with her Savior.

Surviving her are her sister, Mrs. E. S. Miller; a son, J. W. Mahin, of Denver, Colorado; and her daughters, Mrs. Sadie N. Smith, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. May Meyers, of East Lynn, Mass.; and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Kimball, of Huntington.

Funeral services were held Monday, December 15, 1919, in our church at Huntington. The pastor, the Rev. Leonard A. Swisher, officiated, and was assisted by the Rev. U. S. A. Bridge, the Rev. T. M. Guild, and the Rev. W. E. Murray. Interment in the Lynnwood Cemetery, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Leonard A. Swisher.

MRS. ANNA STRIGHT.

In the fall of the year 1849 a fourth daughter was born to David and Keziah Mercer. Her name was Anna. While Anna was yet a baby, her father left his home on the banks of the Missisinewa River and took his family to Hartford City, where the four sisters and their brother, the late Fielding L. Mercer, lived with their parents until they were ready to make homes of their own.

In 1872 Anna was married to Merritt F. Stright, then a student in the Northwestern University. With him she shared the toils and anxieties of student life until time to take up the work and joys and disappointments of a pastor's wife. She served pastorates with her husband in the Wisconsin, Northwest Indiana, and North Indiana Conferences until 1913, when her failing health led to retirement from active service. From that time until December 19, 1919, when the Father called her home, she lived in Ashley, Indiana.

In the church she served she was a leader in the work of the Sunday school and the women's organizations. Her special interest was the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Her life of unselfishness and loyalty spent itself in sacrificial service to her home and the church she loved.

Mrs. Anna Stright.

Her ambitions live in her children, who, in the home and community, perpetuate her steadfastness of purpose, her high ideals of life. So good a life never dies. To her is given the immortality of influence for integrity and consecrated devotion to high aims for life. The mother of five children, she exemplified in the home a faith in what is good and beautiful and true.

When the sweet spirit of Christmas was in her brave heart, she found her well-earned and welcome rest. On the 23d day of December she was laid beside her parents in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at Hartford City. She rests from her labor, but her work lives on.

Her husband, Merritt F. Stright, is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. at Gary. Her surviving children are Mrs. Carl Oliver and Miss Keziah Stright, who is doing community work in connection with the Gary school. Both daughters live in Gary.

The funeral service at Ashley and Hartford were in charge of Brothers L. W. Stone and E. M. Dunbar.

MRS. MINERVA E. LEWELLEN.

Minerva Ellen Watson, second daughter of Lorenzo and Elizabeth Watson, was born April 16, 1850, near Granville, Indiana. She grew to womanhood's estate in her father's home and enjoyed the benefits of the country life of that early day. Her religious life began in her early girlhood, when she was united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Minerva E. Lewellen.

In 1873 she was united in marriage to the Rev. John W. Lewellen, a member of the North Indiana Annual Conference. To this union were born five children: Nora, Raymond, Thomas, Charles, and Hope.

The husband, Hope, Raymond, and Nora preceded her in death. Mrs. Lewellen was sorely disappointed and deeply grieved on the occasion of the death of her daughter, Nora, which occurred just a month before that of her mother, as she had laid all her plans on spending the remainder of her days with this daughter.

The most of her life was spent in the neighborhood of Matthews, Indiana, of which church she was a member for many years, and a charter member of the Ladies' Aid Society of this Church. The few years she and her husband were engaged in the work of the ministry in the North Indiana Conference, and the past two years spent with her daughter Nora at Warsaw, Indiana, are the two exceptions to her spending her life at Matthews. On the occasion of the death of her daughter Nora, which occurred only a month before that of her mother, she came to Eaton, Indiana, and made her home with Dollie and Mary Baldwins, long-time friends of the family. Here, in the home of these friends, she quietly passed away on Saturday afternoon, February 28th, at the age of sixty-eight years, ten months, and twelve days. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Jenny Beuoy; two sons, Thomas and Charles; and eight grandchildren.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Kiger, of Daleville, Indiana, March 1, 1920, after which the body was buried in Olive Branch Cemetery, near Wheeling.

MRS. MARTINA H. OVERDEER.

Martina Hutchinson, daughter of George W. and M. Gertrude Hutchinson, was born September 4, 1878, at Hartford City, Indiana, and died the morning of March 13, 1920, at the parsonage home at Auburn, Indiana.

Mrs. Martina H. Overdeer.

Her early life was spent at Hartford City, where she graduated from the high school in the class of 1896, and for some years following she efficiently did the work of bookkeeper for her father, who was engaged in the hardware business at Hartford City.

She united with the Methodist Church in early girlhood, and was ever a faithful and efficient worker, serving several years as secretary of the Sunday school and also as an officer of the Epworth League. She was one of the faithful and dependable workers in the things necessary for the advancement of her Redeemer's cause.

On December 28, 1905, she was united in marriage to Harley L. Overdeer. Together they had as young people graduated in the same class from high school, and together worked in the Hartford City Epworth League and Sunday school, and then with united hearts and lives they engaged in the regular work of the ministry, being first located at Farmersville, Illinois.

They transferred to the North Indiana Conference in 1908, in which Conference they together served pastorates at Farmland; Middle Street, Wabash; Market Street, Logansport; Simpson Church, Fort Wayne; Grace Church, Richmond; and First Church, Auburn.

Throughout life, her hands and heart have faithfully done the work of her Redeemer. A character—quiet, modest, unselfish, and loving. With her home-making, loving disposition, her home was first in her affections. Their home was blessed with two children: John H., now thirteen years old, and Virginia, eleven. These, her husband, together with her mother, Mrs. Hutchinson, and Mrs. C. N. Cline, her sister, of Kendallville, and her brother, R. M. Hutchinson, of South Bend, all survive her, as well as a large number of relatives living at Hartford City and vicinity. All deeply morn her departure.

Mrs. Overdeer has been the teacher of the "Corunna Girls" Class of the Sunday school since she has been in Auburn, and the loss of her kindly direction and teaching is keenly felt. She was a vice-president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Fort Wayne District, and a member of the Entre Nous Literary Club, of Auburn.

A woman of sterling worth and noble character has been called from her duties here to the higher life. The example of her life here is left as an inspiration and worthy ideal for her loved ones, as well as for all who knew her.

The funeral services were conducted from the church at Auburn on Tuesday, March 16, 1920, at 1.30 P. M., with Rev. B. S. Hollopeter in charge. The Scripture lessons were read by the Rev. D. H. and Rev. T. M. Guild. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Bourns, pastor of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. O. A. Trabue read the memoir; and the sermon was preached by Rev. L. M. Krider, from the text, Heb. 11. 16. The body was interred at Kendallville, Indiana.

(d) LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE.

The Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference was held at the First Methodist Church, Richmond, Indiana, April 9, 1920. It convened at ten o'clock A. M. The former Secretary, W. J. Creighton, Wabash, called the convention to order, and after a short song service, led by G. E. Meck, prayer was offered by Dean Ayres of Taylor University. Secretary Creighton called the roll of delegates.

Upon call for nominations for president, F. W. Greene, of Syracuse, presented the name of Elwood Starbuck, of Ft. Wayne. The nomination was seconded by D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka, and election was unanimous by acclamation. Upon call for nomination for Secretary, Brothers F. W. Greene and W. J. Creighton were named. Brother Creighton withdrew his name, and election of Greene was by acclamation. W. J. Creighton and Jesse McKinney were appointed to assist the Secretary.

The following committees were appointed:

Committee on Rules.—O. N. Cranor, Albany; John Zimmerman, Auburn F. P. Bothwell, Ligonier; W. H. Hood, Portland; B. W. Ayres, Upland; Dr. Z. N Loop, Galveston.

Committee on Resolutions.—Judge F. E. Bowser, Warsaw; Dr. M. E. Klingler Garrett; J. H. Bentley, Richmond; M. B. Stults, Huntington; G. E. Meck, Kokomo Lee Yaryan, Fortville.

A resolution was presented which was introduced by Dr. C. E. Line of the Ministerial Conference, now in session, instructing the delegates to General Conference to vote against any change in paragraph 280 of the Discipline. On motion same was adopted by a vote of 205 to 1.

The Committee on Rules reported as follows:

Report of Committee on Rules.

"We, your Committee on Rules, respectfully report the following rules and move their adoption:

"1. The business of the Conference shall be transacted in the following order (1) Report of Committee on Credentials; (2) Election of seven delegates and three reserve delegates to the General Conference; (3) Disposition of questions submitted by the General Conference; (4) Communications from Annual Conference and miscellaneous business; (5) Report of Committee on Resolutions.

"2. All regularly elected delegates recommended by the Committee on Credentials and approved by the Conference, shall be entitled to one vote and to participate in the business of the Conference, and none others.

"3. Each ballot cast for delegates to the General Conference shall contain as many names as there are delegates to be chosen at the time of taking that ballot and only such ballots shall be counted. All ballots shall be written upon forms furnished by the Secretary, and no other ballots shall be counted.

"4. A person shall be declared elected as a delegate when he or she shall have received a majority of all votes cast upon the ballot on which such majority of votes shall be so received.

"5. Nominating speeches shall be limited to two minutes. Districts to be called in alphabetical order for nominations.

"6. The candidates for delegates shall consist of all eligible persons receiving vote upon the first ballot, and no vote shall be counted for any one on any subsequent ballot who shall not have received a vote upon such first ballot. Any candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast on first ballot shall be declared elected.

"7. After the first ballot all candidates shall be introduced without comment to the Conference, and the names of all candidates not previously introduced shall be written in some conspicuous place in the order in which they are named.

"8. After the election of said seven delegates, then three others shall be chosen as reserve delegates.

"9. The chair shall appoint twelve tellers, two from each district, to receive, count, and report the vote.

"10. Speeches on motions and resolutions shall be limited to five minutes, and no delegate shall speak more than once on any question until all who desire to do so shall have spoken thereon, and no nominating speeches shall be made by other than regularly elected delegates to the Conference.

"11. All resolutions shall be referred, without debate, to the Committee on Resolutions, and all resolutions referred to said Committee shall be reported on by said Committee.

"Signed: O. N. CRANOR, Chairman."

On motion, they were adopted.

Nominations for delegates to General Conference were called for and presented in the following order:

Fort Wayne District.—C. L. Walters, Decatur; Elwood Starbuck, Fort Wayne.

Goshen District.—Frank W. Greene, Syracuse; George A. Studley, Mishawaka.

Logansport District.—Charles W. Beecher, Peru; Mrs. Martha J. Mellinger, Logansport.

Muncie District.—Charles H. Neff, Anderson.

Wabash District.—M. B. Stults, Huntington.

Tellers were appointed as follows: A. D. Suttles, L. M. Scott, A. C. Wilhoit, Walter Pierce, Everett Hunt, P. K. May, Ira Jones, E. L. Scott, T. Holdeman, E. O. Himes, D. S. Fish, and J. S. Newell. After a ballot was taken and the tellers had retired, following a song by Brother Jones, Judge C. C. Raymer, of Elkhart, gave a strong address on "Why Must These Things Be?"

Greetings were brought to the Convention by Drs. Thornburg and Trippeer, as fraternal delegates from the Annual Conference, which were given by Dr. Thornburg in a few well-chosen words. Announcement was made that they would return to escort the Lay Conference to the Joint Session at the completion of our labors. Response was made by President Starbuck on behalf of the Conference, and he appointed H. H. Deam and H. B. Roberts as fraternal delegates to extend our best wishes to the Annual Conference.

Adjourned for the noon hour.

The Conference was again in session at 2.20 P. M. The Chairman asked that the rules be suspended to permit the introduction of Drs. T. J. Johnson, representing our hospitals, R. A. Morrison, the Preachers' Aid Society, and M. Vayhinger, Taylor University. On motion, this was done, each being given five minutes to present his cause.

A motion was made that the rules be amended to provide that in case more than seven candidates to General Conference should receive majority upon the first ballot, the seven having the highest votes be declared elected, and that the others, not more than three, who might have received a majority, to be declared elected reserve delegates.

The tellers reported the result of the first ballot as follows: Whole number of votes cast (206) two hundred and six, of which (7) seven were imperfect; number required to elect, 100. F. W. Greene received 163; Elwood Starbuck, 160; C. A. Walter, 141; Mrs. M. H. Chandler, 127; Charles H. Neff, 122; Charles W. Beecher, 121; O. F. Ward, 120; M. B. Stults, 109; H. L. Burr, 108; Mrs. Martha J. Mellinger, 106. All of these having received majority votes, the first seven were declared the delegates to the General Conference, and the remaining three reserve delegates. Other candidates having more than fifty votes were: George A. Studley 57, and J. L. Vail 52; the balance were scattered among seven candidates.

The amendment to the constitution admitting Lay Delegates to the Annual Conference was discussed by Brothers Starbuck, Meck, Greene, Cranor, Earl, Goodpasture, Turnbull, Vickery, A. J. Miller, Byington, Parker, B. W. Ayres, and several others. This amendment requiring roll-call, A. D. Suttles and F. F. Riggs were appointed tellers. The roll was called, and the vote showed (46) forty-six yes, and (89) eighty-nine no, and was so certified.

The vote on the Wilmington Amendment on roll-call showed 92 for and 1 against.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read by Chairman Judge F. E. Bowser, and after considerable discussion was adopted as read as follows:

"We, your Committee on Resolutions for the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session in Richmond, Indiana, beg leave to submit the following report:

"1. We hereby express our heartfelt appreciation of the splendid entertainment provided us by the pastor and people of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church and of the city of Richmond, Indiana, during this Conference, and especially to First Methodist Episcopal Church for the many favors shown us in its use for the Lay Electoral Conference.

"2. We heartily endorse and second the movement of the North Indiana Annual Conference, now in session, in its presentation of the name of Rev. Raymond J. Wade as Secretary of the General Conference, to convene at Des Moines, Iowa, in May, 1920.

"3. That we heartily approve the action of our church in its co-operation with the Inter-Church World Movement.

"4. Inasmuch as the Methodist population and the Methodist interests in the State of Indiana are now as great as in many Episcopal areas, and whereas under present area organization Indiana is divided between two Episcopal areas, be it resolved that it is for the best of Indiana Methodism that the General Conference of 1920 do organize Indiana into a separate Episcopal area, with a resident Bishop, so located as to be easily accessible to all parts of such area; that we do memorialize the General Conference so to do, and if not inconsistent with the general welfare of the church, we earnestly petition that our beloved Bishop Nicholson be assigned to said area.

"5. Resolved, That we endorse the plan of the Bishop and District Superintendents of the North Indiana Annual Conferece to adequately finance our Methodist hospitals in the State of Indiana.

"6. Be it Resolved, That the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference affirm its belief in and its support of the National Prohibition Amendment and the laws which have been enacted for its proper enforcement, and that we oppose any effort to nullify the evident intent of this amendment by Congress or Legislature, and pledge our support of any or all organizations and individuals who stand for this amendment and its proper enforcement.

"7. Resolved, That some method should be provided by the proper legislative body of the church to dispose of and distribute the Annual Conference Minutes without the embarrassment and personal responsibility of the pastors therefor, and until such legislation becomes effective we suggest that the Official Boards of the several churches assume such responsibility.

"8. Whereas, The cost of living has greatly advanced within the last four years, while there has been very little advance and in many cases no advance in the salaries paid our ministers, and whereas the ability of our people to pay has been very largely advanced through increased wages to laborers, and the increased prices of all farm products which increases in the needs of a family and in the ability of our people to pay ought to result in a corresponding increase in the salaries of our preachers.

"Therefore, Resolved, First, that we recommend such an increase in the salaries of all ministers as shall correspond to the increase in the cost of living and in the incomes of the masses of our people.

"Resolved, Second, that as laymen of the church upon whom the responsibility for the maintenance of an efficient ministry largely depends, we recommend that the cash salary paid any preacher who is in effective relation and gives all his time to ministerial work, shall be not less than $1,500.00, and we pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavor to bring every pastoral charge up to this minimum standard.

"MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1920.

"9. Resolved, That we, the members of the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1920 to establish a standing committee of 'Hospitals and Homes for the Aged and Children,' to which shall be referred all matters pertaining to hospitals and the varied philanthropies of the church.

"Dated April 9, 1920. "Signed: E. STARBUCK, President.

"10. In order to establish better business methods and greater exactness in the business of the church, it is necessary that the Membership Record shall at all times show the exact status of the membership of the church.

"Therefore, we, the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Annual Conference, do hereby memorialize the General Conference, which meets at Des Moines, Iowa, May 1, 1920, to amend Paragraph 110 of the Discipline of 1916 to read as follows:

"By inserting after the word 'records' in the second line the words 'which committee shall consist of the Church Treasurer, the Chairman of the Board of Stewards, and one other member appointed by the pastor.'

"Signed: FRANCIS E. BOWSER."

The Lay Electoral Conference then adjourned, to meet with the Annual Conference in joint session, a record of which is kept by the Secretary of that Conference.

E. STARBUCK, President.
F. W. GREENE, Secretary.

(e) LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

The Laymen's Association of the North Indiana Conference met in its ninth annual session at the First Methodist Church, at Richmond, Indiana, at 9.30 A. M., April 9, 1920.

The meeting was called to order by the President, E. Starbuck. Devotionals were in charge of C. C. Ayres, and the song services led by G. E. Meck.

Committees were appointed as follows:

Committee on Nominations.—J. D. Coppes, M. A. Clapper, H. S. Current, J. W. Wright, Alonzo Noland, and George Kreigbaum.

Committee on Resolutions.—A. S. Elzey, F. F. Riggs, D. C. Turnbull, C. H. Neff, Dr. C. H. Tomlinson, B. A. Helm.

After a few remarks by the President, the Association adjourned until the noon hour.

The Association assembled again in the banquet-room of the church to partake of the splendid banquet served by the ladies of the church, E. Starbuck toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to, each response a masterpiece: "Win One—the Methodist Millions," by C. L. Walters, of Decatur; "The Inter-Church World Movement," by James M. Triggs, of Huntington; "No Place to Stop," by J. H. Bentley, of Richmond; "Our Evangelistic Opportunity," by C. P. Fitzpatrick, of Dunkirk; "The New Church for the New Age," by H. B. Roberts, of Newcastle; "Every Minister, Every Layman Co-operating," by Edward J. Humpe, of Kokomo.

After the toasts the meeting was reconvened in the auditorium of the church. Songs were sung by E. L. Miller, of Chicago, in his inimitable way and were greatly appreciated. A collection was taken and the result, $33.15, was turned over to the Treasurer.

John W. Perry, Secretary of Lay Activities of the Chicago Area, gave a very fine, instructive address, outlining the work the laymen are undertaking to do. John W. Kendel, of Peru, handled the subject "Intensive Methodism" in his usual happy and inspiring manner. Because of the meeting of the Lay Electoral Conference, recess was taken until 4 P. M., at which time the Association was reassembled for Committee reports.

The Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

"Our reception and entertainment by the churches and people of Richmond have been complete and delightful. Especially do we thank those of the First Methodist Church for the facilities offered the Laymen's Association. To the ladies for their beautiful flowers, and for the bountiful supply at the noon banquet; to the speakers and singers who have edified and inspired us; to our President, E. Starbuck, and those who have contributed to the success of the Association work, and to our beloved friend, Bishop Nicholson, for his wise counsel and the inspiration of his addresses; to the press for the careful and complete way in which they have published the proceedings of the Conference.

"Further, we pledge our support to our pastors, whoever they may be, in promoting the interests of the Methodist Church and Kingdom of Christ on earth during the coming year. We recognize the constant rise in living costs, and note with alarm the incessant call of the commercial world with high financial reward to those who fill our pulpits, and believing that the 'laborer is worthy of his hire,' we shall use our influence to bring the cash support of our pastors up to or above the standards of the commercial world.

"Signed: A. S. ELZEY, Chairman."

The report of the Committee on Nominations was read as follows:

"President, Elwood Starbuck, Fort Wayne; Vice-President, F. F. Riggs, Richmond; Secretary-Treasurer, F. W. Greene, Syracuse; District Presidents, D. C. Turnbull, Mishawaka; C. L. Walters, Decatur; George E. Meck, Kokomo; E. E. Youse, Markel; Charles H. Neff, Anderson; Jesse McKinney, Dunkirk.

"Signed: J. D. COPPES, Chairman."

On motion, properly supported, the nominees were elected by acclamation. On motion, the Laymen's Association adjourned at 4.30 P. M.

E. STARBUCK, President.
F. W. GREENE, Secretary.

(XIV) Historical

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the L. W. Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1920, including the changes made during the year as reported by the District Superintendents to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations.—Loc., Located; Miss., Missionary; S., in School; Sn., Superannuated; Sy. Supernumerary; Sup., Supply; R., Retired; Tr., Transferred. SECRETARY.

Explanatory.—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST years of appointment, 02-6 means five years of service on that charge

APPOINTMENTS OF MEMBERS OF THE NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE, INCLUDING THE YEAR 1919.

MEMORANDA

BOOK SERVICE

RECONSTRUCTION

is the great purpose now occupying the civilized world.

To meet emergencies at home and abroad, as well as to do its share to reconstruct the world, the Joint Centenary Committee has organized a department of Emergency and Reconstruction.

The Methodist Book Concern freely places at your disposal lists of available books on related subjects and will gladly answer any inquiries on these and other topics. The only charge is for the books ordered.

THE WORDS STAND OUT AT YOU

"When I turn to Jesus and think of Him as the manifestation of His own Christianity – and if men would only look at the life of Jesus to see what Christianity is, and not at the life of the poor representatives of Jesus whom they see around them, THEY WOULD BE RID OF SO MANY DIFFICULTIES AND DOUBTS. When I look at the life of Jesus I see that the purpose of consecration, OF EMANCIPATION, is service of His fellowmen."

Phillips Brooks

The words of the great clergyman—written on the one Multiplex—give a very limited example of the almost limitless versatility of the world's most wonderful typewriter.

Prominent clergymen and missionaries the world over find the Multiplex invaluable for putting the power of emphasis into the written word; for its extended type for headlines; for its condensed type for notes; for its italics that make words literally stand out at you; for its "linguistic" ability—it writes all languages from Eskimo Indian to Kata Kana Japanese; for its special script for social correspondence.

Write today for free booklet "The Miracle of the Multiplex"—it will prove a revelation to you and convince you that, as the Bishop of Alaska writes, the Multiplex is "The wonderful."

Special rates to the Clergy.
